It is written in the Bible, in the Koran, in the Gītā, everywhere [that] those people who think they are in charge of religion are really misleading. Same about Hindus, same about Muslims, all of them. And a kind of a fanaticism that has spread out has brought down the whole conception of religion. And now today what we find, the young people are not interested in the churches, not interested in the temples, not interested in the religions. Why? If there was some Truth in this, they would have been. But the Truth is not with these people, they haven't got the Truth. They are there because you have chosen them. You have started a social organization! Image, in this country where so many Christians are living such a sex perversion and such a horrid thing that is going on! How is it possible if the churches are [UNCLEAR functioning] properly on religion? They are not. They are most illusive things. I was Myself born as a Christian and I know what they are. It is no about it, but understanding pure witnesses of the things they have been illicit to. And the reason is, they do not know the Truth. Neither there is freedom for a church-goer to think for himself. Your spiritual freedom is individual in all these so-called `religious bodies'. We know of our political freedom very much, economic kingdom we are very particular about, what about our spiritual kingdom? We have to see our spiritual kingdom first of all. You think about it, think out of those cells and now let us face what it is and if it is so, then you have a right to get it, you have a right to have it.

But if you are in a cage how can you y? How can your wings work out? So first of all is, when you are here with Me, please free yourself from your [UNCLEAR]. I would say ideas or you can say your misidentification; I call them `mis'; you can call them identifications. But just now you be yourself and I will tell you what you have got freely. And face it. You must bravely face it and see for yourself. All these churches and all these temples will have a meaning as soon as there is light of truth in them. They will have such a beautiful meaning to them once they accept the light of the Spirit. This has happened at the time of Christ also, as you know and He was crucified by the people who had their [UNCLEAR], they crucified Him. They destroyed Christ at that time. And He said that, “I have come here to complete your work. I have come here to explain it." Still they crucified Him. And that should not be repeated again.

So please, see for yourself without denying. See for yourself. These are the centers, are placed within you. Now the lower portion of this red center looks after the reproduction and is presided by the Deity of Śhrī Gaṇeśha who incarnated on this Earth as Lord Jesus Christ. And this Deity is the embodiment of innocence.

Before anything was created on this Earth or in this Universe, it was holiness and innocence that was created. We have spoilt the atmosphere by our mistakes, by our misidentification, by not understanding.

You should not confuse a religion with holiness, with [UNCLEAR], with love. It's not perverted. It is not destructive. It is constructive. The religion is the sustenance within us by which we become human beings, by which we become superhuman beings. The religion is the sustenance by which the carbon atom has four valences, by which you have ten religions within you which are described in the Ten Commandments, what happens to them when we do not obey. Then all our machinery goes out of order, all our being gets disturbed and because of that, this happening takes time, much more than it should have taken.

As you will grow further in Sahaja Yoga you will realise yourself that it happens. It's a living energy within you which rests at that point, triangular bone and which rises when it is awakened. Kuṇḍalinī awakening has been always conceived, wrongly, by wrong people. I was amazed how they take this. “Oh God, they do not know anything about it. What are they talking? How can they tell such lies openly to people? How can they mislead people?" There are people who are writing Maṇḍalas, this, that. There is some books on Sanskrit language, I don't know from where they read something and they put it in the book. It has no meaning, no relevance to reality, take it from Me. It has no meaning. When you will get your Realisation, when you will get your Realisation, when you'll become your Self, you can decide for yourself [whether] whatever I am saying is the truth or not. I have to tell you, I have to tell you because it has been [a] bit too much! You have been real seekers, real seekers. You have been seeking not [only] in this life but in many lives you have been seeking and that's why you are sitting down here. But before you come to Me you have had lots of problems, you have had lots of misidentifications and lots of wounds are there in your Kuṇḍalinī. I have been treating Kuṇḍalinī with big, big holes. My compassion starts triggering within Me, starts flowing. It makes you feel, itself, very gentle. Absolutely gentle and subtle, you see that, that Kuṇḍalinī. It is so subtle, you cannot imagine what a Mother feels when such a Kuṇḍalinī is face to face with Me. I know you are seekers, I know you are My children, I know how to give you, I know. And then I find you indiscriminate.

So please, now do not play with yourself. Do not destroy you anymore. You have to [UNCLEAR].

And please, it is for your good, I think for your emancipation, for your salvation, for your evolution that you have to take to your Realisation; because you must know that there's a short time now, very short time. In this short time you have to come up because the time has come for the Creation to mature. The maturity time has come, the blossom time has come. And in that blossom many have to mature. Those who will not be matured, you know that the Rider is going to come for the last record, for the last finishing time. He's going to sort out everything, but there is no time left. He's not going to be compassionate.

He's going to come with his eleven destructive forces. It's described in all the scriptures who have said.

So it is necessary and that's why your urge is also now. Urge is also deeper and that's why you want to have it.

But some of you have spent all your energy in wrong things, like running after some false fellow.

The other day I had a German girl come, she hasn't come today. And she told Me for months together, she was working for a Guru. And she went off, all the way to Germany, she went all over the places everywhere. She spent all her energy. She spent all her energy in this, in this man. And then now she's so fagged out [tired]. She said, “Mother, I'm tired. I know I've found You but I'm so tired. What to do? I have spent all my money. I'm a broke. I've divorced my husband. I've sent away my children. I have no energy left. I'm absolutely a broke now, absolutely finished. Now what can You do about it?"

Then I said, “It's alright. They'll come round." It happens. People are tired of their seeking.

So one should not bother, everybody is not that badly off and one is not that hopelessly tired, are they? At least you know I am there. I'm going to work day in and day out. For four years I'm going to be in London. I'm going to work it out for you and it's going to work out. But you must know that you must ask for reality and the Truth. All the time for the Truth. But it cannot be decided by your rationality but by your experience.

So you must awaken yourself to the experience. If you haven't got the experience then [you should] know that you are not yet sensitive. Next time you will get it. But do [UNCLEAR] and then you can achieve it.

Some of you really take some time. You have some people here who took lot of time; they used to get vibrations, again lose it, get vibrations, lose it. But it's not bad. You have to be there. You see, It is a salvaging and even if somebody is pulling you out you again go back and again you're pulled out and again you go back. But come back and put your foot there! That's how you can manage.

In short, I've tried to tell you that there are these seven centers within us. There is the Kuṇḍalinī rising.

And also I have told you that, after Realisation, you get into a new awareness by which you can feel the collective consciousness. You can feel the centers of other people, you can feel your own centers, you start seeing yourself. Because of this happening, your attention goes inside and you see your Kuṇḍalinī also rising and you feel a pressure, a gentle pressure working it out and you start seeing everything. You can cure yourself and you can cure others. Your health improves naturally because the vital force which works through your parasympathetic starts raising into you. First of all you get to the mains of the vital force.

Your baptism takes place, means your fontanelle bone opens, which is called in the Sanskrit language as `Brahmarandhra'. Means you open yourself into the Brahma, means the subtle, this subtle All-pervading Power of God, is Brahma. And this flow opens into That and you become aware of That [and] by which you become collectively conscious.

Sitting down here you can feel the vibrations of another person. Sitting down here you can cure people. Sitting down here you can awaken the Kuṇḍalinī. But about Realisation you cannot do it, because Realisation has to be asked for, it has a protocol of its own, you have to knock at the door. If you think you are a great personality then Realisation doesn't come to you. If you think you have already found it, Realisation says that, “Alright, you go ahead!" But you have to say that, “No, I want to have it” and you get it. You have to ask, you are to knock at the door. If you do not do that, if you're not asking for it, you are at liberty, absolutely free to do it. You cannot be forced. You cannot have people mesmerized like that! No, you cannot. Absolute freedom. Even when you have got Realisation you have absolute freedom to fall or to rise. Because freedom is the thing that you have to have and how can you take out somebody's freedom and give him freedom? You cannot.

So the first Freedom comes to you about that, whether you want to have it or not. This is the first freedom that God has given you: to choose right and wrong and He's going to go beyond it, He's not going to take away that freedom once He has granted you. Which is throughout mental; and then the complete system, the knowledge and ethics, whatever you know, you will be surprised that you will know it much more clearly and that I will tell you the decoding of it and when you will tally it you will find it works.

For example, when we have these five fingers here and five fingers here, when you get Realisation, you'll be amazed, that from your hand a Cool Breeze like thing start here. It is mentioned in the Bible that the Holy Spirit emits Cool Breeze. You will start getting Cool Breeze. This Cool Breeze goes into you and you will cool down. It will cool you down completely. Your system will be cooled down and then you will feel that from your hand also a Cool Breeze is flowing. When you put your hands towards somebody like this, you'll be amazed, that person maybe little burning on one finger, maybe little numbness on one finger, maybe little heaviness on another finger. Now when I decode it and tell you that you ask that person, “Is he suffering from this trouble?" The other day I met a lady. I said, “Have you got a liver problem?" She said, “I have yes, how do you know?" I said, “Don't ask Me. If you come to Sahaja Yoga I'll tell you, because unless and until this happens to you, it has no meaning." Now, how can you get cured? Because these centers are like this and this is the left and the right sympathetic nervous system. The parasympathetic is in the center but the limited amount of energy we have from the parasympathetic gets exhausted, then you get sick. But by Kuṇḍalinī rising, the Force that is Eternal starts pouring into us, soothing us and it supplies [energy]. Again they come back to normal and that is how people get cured. Yes I have cured cancer patients. Cancer can only be cured by Sahaja Yog, nothing else. This is a simple thing which doctors cannot accept; it is the over-activity of the sympathetic nervous system that causes cancer. Cancer came on this Earth since I was born, because of the wars and people started taking into sympathetic activities. Too much of sympathetic activity creates cancer, any kind. Then we can say even a sickness can create a sympathetic activity. Then people say, “It is due to cold [that] cancer has come” “It is due to rubbing of the nose it has come." It is not! It is an over-activity that has caused this cancer and can be completely cured through Sahaj Yoga. But first of all you must get your Realisation. Without Realisation, you should not ask for curing. I mean, they are cured, no doubt but they can be cured, also by touching, it's alright, but that's important.

You see, you'll be surprised, there is some magazine I've seen which has published about Me in, I think, Tanzania and some places in, I don't know, East Africa and all that, about how I have cured people and how I have done and this is a very miraculous power and all these things. Thousands of letters are now pouring down here, saying, “Mother, you cure our disease, cure this, cure that." Because for them curing is the main thing! But there are so many wrestlers who also come to Me and say, “Mother, give us peace." So this is just a by-product. Curing is not the main thing, it just happens. Once you get it, you get it in a bundle, the whole thing. That is your physical being, it works definitely because the vital force supplies you the physical energy. Also your emotional being gets absolutely settled because you become one with your Self. All your fears, all your, all your doubts, all your insecurities settle down because you know that you are the Self. When you start seeing through your Self you become a witness. The whole thing becomes like a drama. As if you are standing in the water and you are afraid of the waves. But once you jump into a boat then you start seeing the drama of the different waves that were frightening you one time and you get settled, you start seeing it like a witness. You have to be a witness. But by saying, “You have to be witness!" you cannot be. It's a happening. When it happens to you, when you become witness you cannot afford to be worrying because you get a hole here [Brahmarandhra] and while you worry, all these things pass out.

On both sides of this hole, here that is the soft bone you have seen amongst children, there you can say, the ego and the superego are built up and that's how our brain is covered like this and you develop a feeling that, “I am X, I am Y, I am Z." This `I'-ness develops. But when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, it sucks from both the sides, the ego and superego, into these two channels which are on the sides, which are related to our subconscious and to our supraconscious. Supraconscious is the future side of it. But in the center there is a state; you can feel the state because you become thoughtlessly aware, you become thoughtless. To begin with you become thoughtless. You really become blank, you start feeling the silence.

Then the Kuṇḍalinī opens this path. When she opens this path, then what happens? The Brahma, the All-pervading subtle Power that is Divine Love of God which is all over, in every part and parcel, in every anu, renu as they say in Sanskrit language, in every molecule and atom, this pulsates; you become one with it. Once you become one with it then you start feeling it. Actually, you lose all your so-called powers and you become The Power. You become a part of that Power. You become a hollow personality and you start seeing the beautiful flame, the melody of that power within you and you start enjoying it.

It is their right to have it. You have to have it. But be prepared. You have to accept it. You cannot rationalise it. By rationality you cannot go into that Unlimited place. It is a thing that happens. You just become that. What rationality brought you to this human state? You were amoeba. You became human beings. What rationality a seed has to become a tree? It's a spontaneous process, brought forth by God's Divine Love. He works it out. You cannot even create one flower, if it's plastic, you can, but not one living flower you can create. The One who creates thousands of thousands of them, millions of millions of them, this beautiful, these things, fragrant flowers of this Earth. The One who creates all this that you see, the [UNCLEAR] and things that we see all around us; such beautiful human being that He creates, so many of them. How can we say that we did anything? It is He does it and that's why you have to leave the effort at this point. No effort. It just works, it just works. Even I do not put in any effort, you'll be surprised; no effort at all. Only I have to move [UNCLEAR] to put your Chakras alright, sometimes your back bones are little tricky or something has gone wrong, or supposing some people have been dancing too much, or running too much or doing something to them [then] I have to put it little bit straight. Or they've been smoking too much, or drinking too much. I mean, they're after their lives, you see.

Some people run for miles together I mean, this is madness, tell you. I know of an old lady, she was eighty years old and she fell from a horse. Why should she do a horse riding? What is the wisdom? You know, all sorts of things, we are after our life all the time: after our physical life, after our emotional life, after our mental life and our social life.

So respect yourself. First of all, respect yourself, because this is the temple of God. Respect your body.

Respect your being and achieve it. You have to awaken and achieve it that's all. There's not into details I would not like to say much because, into details it is too much and sometimes it can be quite a headache.

Like I would say, when I have to tell you about this room, I can put off the lights completely and tell you, “Oh, it's a very beautiful thing. It has a door. It has a red this thing and it has that." All those descriptions I can give you and still I may not be able to tell you much and moreover, I may completely bore you stiff with that. But I can put on the light for you and see for yourself, that's much easier for Me and for you and most enjoyable. But if I have to put on the light, I just put the switch on, but there is a mechanism behind it; there's a very big mechanism. Apart from mechanism there's a history of electricity coming down. Since four years I've written a lot about Spirit and there is also a very good organization which is working it out. For one [person] putting the light it is so much [of organization]. In the same way, in you, there is and behind you, is a great army of angels and great army of all the incarnations who are working it out. You have had a big seeking of thousands of years when you were just a carbon atom or even before that, just a lava from the Sun and today you are a human being settled down here to know about your evolution.

Now the last step and which is very important and very vital for us to understand that so far you have not known your evolution, you have never felt, even you were not aware of it. But only at the human level you will know. That is the reason human beings were given freedom. In their freedom they are going to know that we have definitely evolved, you have changed, you have gone transformed. We must get our transformation. If it is not so, all other work such as it is, just talk, talk, talk, talk, talk and talk. We have to get our complete faith within ourselves where you become your Self and that is the experience you should ask for. It has to be, it is invaluable, so you cannot charge for it. Anybody thinking on those lines, must know that you are insulting the Highest of Highest. Anybody who takes money, you must know, are the parasites. It's so precious, so great, you cannot purchase it, you cannot. It's more principled, very subtle and extremely sensitive and It thinks, understands.

So please be on a subtler level, not on a gross level, then it will work out. Try to be on a very subtle level. You don't miss it. It is so subtle that you won't miss it.

So be careful about it. It is for you, it is your own. You have to have it.

So it's not a shop, you see, the way people are, “Oh, I didn't like Her lecture so I'm going away!" That's not the sort of a thing [it is]. It is not a shop. It is a salvaging process which is trying to help you out.

It is there for you, for your seeking, for your fulfilment, complete fulfilment. And this is the way you are going to be convinced about the existence of God and the existence of this Divine Power. And you are the people who are tomorrow going to change all this Universe into a different Realm, about which they have described, the Kingdom of Heaven.

May God bless you, may God bless, may God bless.

Now, for the experience, can you close this? [Aside:] This is a born-realised child, you know? It's very great.

Now. And one more thing I would tell that, you see, people come here but they are not always informed about this meeting. They get Realisation, I know, but today somebody telephoned and somebody came and saw Me and said they were not informed. But you must know we are not collecting any money, we have no organization, nothing. Only we have a telephone number, where you could find out. We have it always on Monday at six o'clock. And the more you expose the better.

So you should come yourself and try to come as many times as possible.

As it is, you see, it is too much that everybody should write you a letter that, “We would like you to witness the ceremony” and all that, you see, it is not possible. And you must know that you must also show your own urge to come in.

So when the lady telephoned and she said that, “Mother, they have not informed us” I said, “You should inform everybody else." No, none of them are responsible in any way less than you are. Everybody is responsible, for themselves and for others.

So you have to come yourself, find out yourself and attend yourself and get the full advantage of it and you should join others also to understand it. It is a wise thing, it's a wisdom that should be with you, that you should do it in a way that you should feel responsible about yourself.

So this is no excuse. Otherwise, you see, maybe, these people might not have written to all the people possibly. Possibly, you see, they are working very hard; there are about ten or eleven people here working this out. You should come forward and you should say, `We would like to help You. We can write some letters to people.' Because there are some people who are very lethargic about it. You see, they'll be very quick if there's a ballroom dancing, but for raising themselves up, to come up, they are not bothered, you see. Because this is to be sought, this is to be asked for, this is to be found out. This is the joy, joy of the joys and real joy. Nothing else is needed.

So please put your hands just like this now, just like this. Now, why do you have to put your hands like this? It's just because these are the antennae and it works through them. Just put your hands like this. Keep your, both the feet straight like that on the Mother Earth, because that has as earth element.

Yes and keep your hands like that. Take out your shoes, if you can take out your shoes.

So, feeling cool? Good! Very fast. Close your eyes now. Now just don't think, because you're not thinking at all, you see, you're blind. Now enjoy this thing. This experience is the maximum, you see, first time that you get an experience is the maximum, because the Kuṇḍalinī is so happy, that after so many years [UNCLEAR]. Can you feel the cool now? Close your eyes. Just close your eyes. Close your eyes.

Those who are feeling cool, just close your eyes. Just enjoy it in silence. Because the Kuṇḍalinī is just rises, you see and touching your Sahasrāra and She's so happy that it happens so spontaneously. Are you feeling the cool there? Not yet. Just sit comfortably. There is no need to sit very straight or anything.

Comfortable, be comfortable. Be comfortable. Whatever pose you are, it will work out.

Thank God, you see, it's written in the Bible that you will feel this thing, you must feel the Cool Breeze and the wind has been described. Still, it's not easy to convince people.

Very beautiful people today. Better.

Keep your head little open, your forehead, if you don't mind.

You were there too?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: First time? Alright. What we can do, those who have come for the first time, should I just sit on that side? I mean it should be quite obvious to see I would like to see [UNCLEAR somebody].

[UNCLEAR]. Or in front it would be better. In the front raw would be better. [UNCLEAR] that could be better so that you give them a support from the back, those who are already realised. [Shri Mataji laughs.].....

Contents: 1978-07-21* Guru Pūjā, Avenue House, Finchley, London, UK

The worshipping of your Guru not of your Mother but of your Guru. The Guru establishes the Dharma, the sustenance in the disciple. He gives all clear-cut ideas about what is the sustenance power for the disciple. He may preach for the whole world but for his disciples he gives very clear-cut instructions. Most of the Gurus when they do it they actually chisel out every disciple. First they weigh what is the urge of a disciple. How much a disciple really can receive and then they accept somebody as a disciple after verifying if the disciple is really capable of receiving even the instruction about Dharma. But not in Sahaja Yoga because your Guru is a Mother so she initiates you without finding out what is your urge, what is your capability and what quality of a personality you have. It's a very different style of Guru that you have which looks after your body, looks after your mind and looks after your problems and then bestows upon you the blessing of Kuṇḍalinī awakening but normally the Gurus do not do the listening. They are only Gurus not Mothers. When you do the Guru Pūjā, what do you do to your Guru. You must understand that. That means you worship the principle of Guru in you by worshipping Me. The principles within you which is to be awakened, which is to be blossomed by which you become the Gurus and the principle is that of Dharma so one has to know that when you are doing My Pūjā I would like this time really to give you that blossoming within your being which makes you fragrant with Dharma. But as you have seen after realisation you have to be very careful in the same way after becoming Guru it is even more necessary to be pure because as you know that in the West we have ego problem. The Westerners are ego-oriented and this principle must be established. Guru means higher. Guru means the one who has more weight. Guru word is used even for magnetism which has more weight, gravity. Such a person has more gravity than others have.

So he can teach others [UNCLEAR] to be a higher person. When this awakens into you has to be sustained with complete observation within you that you do not succumb to the [UNCLEAR] of evil. Also you should not have irreligious behaviour nor you should have indecent behaviour neither you should be hot tempered nor should be servile but should be in the center. You are the Guru. You are the higher personality than the rest of them.

So you have to maintain a certain higher values of dignity of your own sustenance which has to be higher than those to whom you teach to become your disciple. If you are defective, it would be a very big loss for the Sahaja Yoga. Like you become the activated organs of the body. Supposing one cell dies, makes no difference to the body. Even many die, makes no difference. But if the organ fails in its functioning then all that depends on that organ fails completely. May be it may be finished. Now with ego, superego also becomes very active and many people feel that then how can we bear with load Oh Mother and the another receiving state starts. As soon as I say that there should be no ego expression, people do not like it and they want to escape it by saying “Oh we can't do it. It's too much for us." How can we come up to that point. This is a typical example of too much ego, superego.

But it is not at all difficult. It's not at all difficult. First of all you must have faith in yourself and faith in Sahaja Yoga. I will definitely today awaken that in you. No doubt. I will. But keep it enlightened.

By understanding that you are a Guru, you will understand your responsibility. We change our positions very easily in general life. If you are made a [UNCLEAR] you immediately assume as it is. In the same way when you are the Guru not by bestowing upon you any names or anything I call you a Guru, but because it has happened in you, in your Nābhī Chakra and in the void that you become the Guru. It's a happening in your awareness that blossoms you into that position of a Guru. It is not artificial. It is no brain washing or anything it happens in you. But to retain it one has to. That the biggest thing on the ego is playing games. That is the biggest thing.

Some people try to show that they are very innocent.

Some people try to show that they are very clever. Playing games is the worst thing of ego and that's why you must know as a Guru, you are not to play games. You have to be absolutely straight forward, absolutely straight forward. Everyone can make you out what you are. As soon as you are a Guru, you have to be absolutely a transparent person. Face yourself. You make mistakes makes no difference at all, doesn't make any difference at all if you make some mistakes. But do not pretend something which you are not. Try to put up some sort of a face and all these things are not going to help. Sahaja Yoga is a genuine thing, is a true thing and we have to be true. It doesn't happen by just giving somebody a name now come along you become an initiator. It's not that way. You have to raise the Kuṇḍalinī and give them realisation and tell them that unless and until it is realised it won't work. You could be better Gurus than Me. I can assure you for today. Firstly I am a Mother so the love principle is much more always it supersedes the Guru principle. You have to love others no doubt but in surrendering you can help Me much more than I can help. For example, I will give you the example of Bala. He has a center in Birmingham and he had some people and he came down to Me yesterday I saw him. Of course he, he had lots of problems, tremendous problems on his Kuṇḍalinī but his surrendering capacity was so great that he just started sucking My vibrations just started flowing with it and it was only because he came through Bala.

Because Bala must have told him that the only way to do it is to surrender. And that has gone into his being so clearly that he has done it. He has been to all arguments everything and he has finished them off and when he came to Me he just started getting everything into him and he was so much changed by the... and he was amazed... saintliness coming out. I was amazed at it. But you yourself have to be very careful. You have to be loving no doubt. But loving doesn't mean that you show fear about things and go out of the way to please people. No, it never means that. Neither it means shouting at people or getting angry with people but it never never means for a Guru Tattwa never means that you go on asking for [UNCLEAR]. Have a little indifference about it. If the disciple accepts, well and good but you are not going to throw [UNCLEAR] for these animals to trample it so that dignity, the protocol of your own personality is maintained. That is very important because such people are extremely [UNCLEAR] and nobody will accept Guru who is like this. Try to show that you are afraid of them. If you are afraid how could you be the Guru or trying to show you are very innocent or very sweet overnight and looking after food this that. No. They should look after you not that you should look after them. When you are the Guru, they have to look after you. Of course, you have to be kind and you have to be nice to them as your Mother has been but you just don't run after them. That will reduce your quality as a Guru. Try in your own dignity and understanding. I know some of them which is [UNCLEAR] makes no difference.

Somebody will laugh at him makes no difference.

Contents: 1978-08-17 Letter (Marathi) on Rakshā-bandhan and Pūrnimā Day (08-18), London, UK

Many blessings, Received your Rakhis conveying your deep love. Rakhi is Protecting Power. Its bond is very strong and extremely tender because it symbolizes the noble love of sister. Customarily, tying a Rakhi to someone is establishing a place of Pure Protection. However, man's ability to understand love has become so feeble that tying of Rakhi has become merely a mechanical process. All beautiful human traditions become lifeless and dry formalities if there is no warmth of faith in them.

I have taken birth in this world in the binding of Sahaja Yogis and have been moving around only in their binding. I am desireless and hence My everything depends upon your desires.

You have to ask something with Rakhi. Please consult all Sahaja Yogis and ask what you want by writing a collective letter. I am keeping good health because you are desiring it. There will be only minor operation on My ear and it should not make you anxious at all. Moreover, I have no trouble whatsoever.

So do not worry.

Rakhi Pūrnimā is a day of great significance. On that day you should ask for perfection, make big decisions and keep attention on high ideals. Sahaja Yogis should not destroy their attention on trifle issues.

Lot of work has yet to be done. Those Sahaja Yogis who have progressed should get busy. New centers should be opened. People should be cured of their diseases and their attention should be drawn towards God realisation.

Please show this letter to all Sahaja Yogis.

Always remembering you, Your Mother Nirmalā 1978-08-17 Letter (Marathi) on Rakshā-bandhan and Purnima Day (08-18), p.1, London, UK (Original Writing) 1978-08-17 Letter (Marathi) on Rakshā-bandhan and Purnima Day (08-18), p.2, London, UK (Original Writing)

Contents: 1978-09-11*, Public Program, The Principle of Brahma, Caxton Hall, London, UK

Today I want to tell you about something, perhaps I have never touched that point before. Or I have not talked about it, that elaborately. It is about The Principle of Brahma: What is the principle of Brahma? How does It exist? How is It born? How does It manifest? And how, It is detached and also attached.

The Principle of Brahma is different from Brahma Itself, in description. Like the principles that I follow, is different from what I am.

It's a very subtle subject and requires real meditative attention.

So all criticism of your minds, please put them off, as you have put off your shoes. Have you put off your shoes all of you? Please. And just listen with little, little subtler attention to Me. Can you come forward! You all can come forward so that those who will be coming later can come later on. Come along forward! I think better is to come forward, because we have no mic here. It's better to come forward here.

As the principles on which you are based are different from what you are, in the same way, the Principle of Brahma is different from The Brahma itself, but is The Brahma and contained in The Brahma. But The Brahma Itself is sustained by the Principle. In dimension, you may say that Brahma is wider, larger and, you can call it even, deeper, but the subtler is the principle.

This Principle exists with Brahma at the beginning of The Universe, of Creation. At the very beginning It exists, but as it is an eternal play of creation, destruction, sustenance in between and in Sanskrit they call it sthiti: `state of performance', you can call it. In all these three stages, Brahma Principle changes its forms according to the container that it has. Like here the light looks like, the shade, looks like of the shape of the globe that is covering it. Looking like, is the Māyā, is the illusion.

Something that looks like something which it is not: this phenomena is the Māyā, is the illusion.

So the principle acts, pulsates the Brahma and in the Brahma exists all the powers which, later on, manifest The Creation.

So the Principle, which is the Divine Power, the aura of that, or the thing that it sustains is the complete Brahma and that Brahma has got three powers, namely, one of existence, second of creation, third of sustenance. The Principle is the pulsating power of the Brahma. And it is represented as Om.

When we say, “Om", this was used also in the Christian prayer as Amen, it's the same as Om, there's no difference. When we say, “Om” actually the action of this principle is in the form of Om, like this, which is written on your forehead, if you can see it inside, in that way, here.

This principle is the, we can say, the foetus. This principle is the foetus of the Divine Power. Then the same principle, or you can call, the seed, then it divides into three channels and enters into the creative, sustaining and the existing power of the Brahma Tattwa and manifests in it. We haven't got anything to write, otherwise I could show you... but it permeates, just like the rivers flow and permeate in the soil and nourish it, in the same way, this Principle of Brahma flows, permeates, pulsates and nourishes the surrounding area of Brahma.

So when the attention, which you call as Mahat-Chitta, or the Attention of God, you can call it, is on this Principle, then Brahma doesn't see it. Are you following it? When the Attention [of God Almighty] moves from the Principle, it doesn't leave it. When the river flows, it doesn't leave its source. When it permeates into the Brahma, it starts creating.

This principle is detached, as the light or the electricity inside this globe is detached. But it permeates.

It may permeate through it, it may permeate into this room but still it is detached. I wouldn't say there could be any proper simile for Brahma because that's an absolute stuff and an absolute cannot be compared; as they call it `Atula', it cannot be compared with anything.

So now people think then, `What is God?' Question comes in. “Where is God? What is He? What has He got to do with Brahma and the principle that is Brahma?" God is The Principle, He is the Attention, He is the Joy and

He is the Truth. And the Brahma that surrounds Him is His power, permeated, enlightened by His existence.

The same Brahma has got a capacity to get itself transformed into the creative, sustaining and the, you call it, existing or destructive powers. We can see a small little seed, how it manifests a tree. We never think, from where do the shoots come out, from where does the root comes out, what creates the flowers, what gives it the fragrance, for the seeds do not have any fragrance. But there is definitely a mechanism, which is very microscopic, inside the seed, placed there. And seed is the form where there is no movement, no manifestation, no creation. In the same way Brahma can be in seed form.

So, the sustaining power within us or the creative power within us, or, what you call, the destructive power or the left side power, which we call as the Astitwā, is the existing power. All these are manifested by Principle of Brahma but by themselves they are nothing.

So Sat-chit-ānanda, the Truth, the Joy and the Attention, the nature of Brahma, which is this, is God.

“Why, what is Shakti then?" The question comes in. The Shakti is the complete Brahma plus the power of God. Like the cotyledons in the seed, the primule in the seed, the cotyledons support it. Through the cotyledons, the primule takes all the powers and creates beautiful flowers and all the beautiful fruits.

The roots also are created. The food is given by cotyledons: it sustains them. Out of this, the principle that does it, the generating power, the germinating power that is in it, is the power that we call as the Shakti.

But in a seed, which is a material thing, it has no awareness to do it. It's a very subtle point, try to understand it. The seed itself cannot germinate itself. It has certain other power within it, which is placed by God that germinates it. It cannot do by itself. That power is the God in the seed and also in the ground. The germinating power is the Shakti, that power which makes it do it but the seed is not aware of it. When you reach to the human stage, you have to know that power and you have to be aware of that power and that is Self-realisation.

The Power that has created you, The Power that has given you all these three powers: Iḍā Nādī, Piñgalā Nāḍī, all Kuṇḍalinī, everything, The One which is the desire of all that. We can take a simile just to understand it. The owner of the house... I hope it will work out but, sometimes, you know how human minds are confused. Supposing the owner of the house walks into the house with his money and creates everything that he wants to do about his house. Now the master goes out, he's not there. When you see, you see a house created, you see the power of all the workmen who have done the job and somebody who has established everything. But you don't know whose desire it has created. In the same way you have seen your body being created, you even see the mind that is you have got, you can see your emotions, they are there, of course. You can also see you are a human being. You can also see you are much far away from the animals. And if you have some wisdom, you understand also you are much wiser than anything that is created so far. And also if you have some foresight.

But the power of desiring, desiring power or we can say the projecting power or the one who is the owner of all that, the owning power. I mean, I don't know how you understand the master of the whole thing. He is the God. And then His power of desire, Mahākālī's power, is His Desire, then manifests everything else. His desire, He manifests. His Mahākālī's power that you see here on the left hand side is manifested in the human being as Iḍā Nāḍī. [It] creates all the rest of the Universe and everything later on. But first is only the desire.

But the one who desires is the God. In us He is placed in our heart away from all this filth. And He just desires. We do not know Him but He knows us. We know one thing, definitely, that He knows us.

There is Someone who is definitely watching us, as in The [Bhagavad] Gīta, they say Kshetra-gnya, the one who is the knower of the field. The Knower of the field is there. Once you also become the knower of your field, you are Self-realised: this is Self-realisation.

When people talk about Self-realisation cheaply! I'm really shocked. The way people have taken into their hands, such a revered subject and just try to mould it for making money! Just think of it! From that level to this level, it's a bit too much! I mean, this, only human beings can do, I can tell you. Nobody can do like this but human beings. Even if they are Rākshasas they know that this is Divine Power and you cannot misuse it by any chance! So this principle works, say, in a... in the matter it works. As the electromagnetic force, you can say.

But not as the electromagnetic force, it works which brings about the electromagnetic force. Inside that, can you follow the point? Do you? Say, here is electricity, but the one who sends the electricity is The Person and He's aware of it. Till you reach the stage of Self-realisation you are not aware of it, you cannot control it, you cannot work it out. It works by Itself and that's why the doctors call it as autonomous nervous system and the psychologists as unconscious.

After realisation only, the whole thing becomes your own, in the sense, you change sides.

So far you have been looking things from there, now you sit with Me and see the whole story.

But this principle of Brahma lives in this mood. It can be in such a mood that it has no duty at all, it has no duty, it just exists. It has no duty. It is not the duty of a owner of a house to something about it, it is His whim, if He wants to do it, He'll do it, otherwise He'll live like a hermit. He has no duties. I hope you understand the meaning of `the owner', because the human laws are funny, whatever you may be the owner, still you can't do many things. But if you can think of an absolute owner of this place, absolute owner... Yes, very true, you're smiling, but in Oxted we had a freehold house [but] we couldn't cut the tree, we couldn't plant the tree, we couldn't do this to the hedge, you couldn't do that. But He is an absolute owner, absolute owner. Understand the `absolute' word! Where no law, but His own laws work out. His laws operate. Nobody's laws can reach him.

Then you may say, the question comes in, “Then how is it Mother, it is said that `we are free, freedom has been given to us'?" Only the freedom is so far as to choose Him: for your betterment, you are not going to better

Him. You are not going to better Sahaja Yoga by coming to Sahaja Yoga, you are sadly mistaken [if you think that]. No! Sahaja Yoga has no duties. It's a whim. It has no problems. It is standing on its own mastery, it's not bothered whether you come here or go away. It is Nishprayojana [aimless], it is without any... Prayojana: cause, the cause, it is causeless; it's not bothered.

So it has to take a form in which it has to bother. Then it creates, like a master of a house need not bother about anything. He's the master, who's going to criticise him? Who is going to argue with him? Who is going to challenge him? Who is going to put a quota against him? He's the Master of everything! Absolute Master! God, means, He is not only Almighty, but He's the Master of all that He has created. He is the master, if He wants He will do it, otherwise He will not do it. It is His whim that He has done it.

So He's not bothered, but then He takes a form, sometimes, of a person who wants to do something.

He wants to bother, just as a whim He bothers Himself and He starts creating. And He creates. And He creates this Universe and He creates you. He creates because He wants to see it with many eyes, what He has done.

So he creates His own children, grows them up, gives them eyes so that they can enjoy what He has got. He gives them their power to see.

This essence of Brahma is the Ganga [or Gam] Tattwa: as, in the Sanskrit, He is called as the Ganga [or Gam] Principle. From here, we have to understand that is the first principle and that is the principle of innocence. That is a principle of holiness, that is a principle of chastity within us. That is the principle by which we preserve ourself, by which we respect ourselves. That principle has been incarnated on this earth, as I have told you. He's created as Gaṇeśha but He's incarnated as Jesus Christ, is the Brahma Tattwa. He's detached and that's why He could be resurrected. No other incarnation could be resurrected.

He was not born, it was a conception, desire. And that's why He was resurrected. You all, perhaps do not know that: what is difficult for God? I mean, for an Indian it is very easy to understand that Gaṇeśha was created by Pārvatī, Yes! She created Him. We can never doubt it, because He's God after all. He is an absolute personality. He can do whatever He likes. Of course He does something that is intelligible to your mind, tries to. But if He has done something which is not intelligible to you, it should not be discarded as something mythological, or something out of the blue, not to be believed. Because if you say that, then are you the most absolute people to judge Him? Let us know that we are not, we are not, but we have to be! He wants you to be aware of Him.

And in this creation. When He creates, He creates Himself into a One Primordial Being. He becomes that, He assumes that position of being the One Primordial Being. And then He selects His cells which have to play an important role which are to be awakened. Now the brain cells are the ones which are aware. Have you ever thought, that, how these brain cells know? How, how come... everything...? This little boy asked Me this question, because he's very much there, but very few people ask this question: “How there is gravity? Why this becomes red? Why that becomes green? How it has happened? Who has done it?" We take things for granted, everything for granted. That's the only trouble with human beings, taking everything for granted. If we do not take for granted everything and just in all humility say that, “O Lord, we know very little about You, we'd like to know” He takes you up and makes you sit in His brain, so that you become aware of the powers of His brain, of His heart, from where He loves you. Where He is the ocean of compassion, you become a drop in that Ocean. And you, also, with your waves, you jump up and down and enjoy that compassion of His. Just a drop you are, but you are the Ocean. This is what explains what Kabīra says. You see, these great people have described Him but it becomes absolutely ambiguous for you.

The human rationality cannot explain all these things.

So your rationality has to improve onto vibratory awareness. You have to go through that level, minimum of minimum, to understand God. You cannot understand Him at this level.

So don't come out here with ideas that you are going to give something to God, no! You have to take, you cannot give anything to Him. But in your humility, if you express yourself, He likes it.

The master loves when a little child brings some flowers for him. When a little baby brings, say, flowers for the mother, the mother likes it. Not likes, but in Sanskrit there's a word, `Kautupa'. I don't know, there's no word in English for that, I am sorry. `Kautupa' is the happiness, the joy that one feels when he sees this child come up, when the person sees the child returning the love, in its small way, after all children are, what are they going to do, you see? Like this one, you see, one day he brought 2p for Me. He says, “Grandmother, you can buy a sarī with this, yes, you'd better keep it with you." You see, he found it somewhere, he said, “I haven't earned it, but I've got for you, so you can keep it and buy a sarī." Then the feelings that come into mind, there's the Kautupa. The feeling that comes within at that time in a mother's heart, is the Kautupa, the sweetness of that, the beauty of that, you cannot understand by your dry rationality, it can make you parched, completely. It has no feelings, it has no sensitivity, nothing. O God, this ego, I tell you this so-called ego, has really parched human beings completely of all the beautiful things that have been flowing in them, all the sensitivity. And horrible books and horrible things that people have taught you have really finished all that's beautiful that was within you. Such beautiful flowers were created with such beautiful fragrance to be emitted, have been parched completely, I feel, by this foolish ego of human beings which is so limited.

It was given to you just to understand a few things but you have covered yourself completely with that mud and it's such a difficult thing, I find such a difficult thing.

Some examples can be given. A boy came to see Me, the other day, with a friend who is a very great Sahaja Yogi I must say, he's not here today. And he is, I would say, just to please the Sahaja Yogi I said, “Alright I'll take him out." Found the boy had a terrible guilt within him, because he had done something horrible, absolutely horrid. But I told him that, “You have a guilt and it's forgiven, so give it up.

Try it, try it." But nothing works out with him, so egoistical, so egoistical; and such a small thing he was. I mean, if he was anywhere near the Truth I would have understood also that he thinks that he should get it or do it and all that. But nothing of the kind. He goes back and tells this Sahaja Yogi, “Oh, I think She is just a ordinary housewife, that's all, don't take Her seriously." Then the Sahaja Yogi said, “Oh, really, what a business! How many people have you cured? I have seen people suffering from cancer even, cured by Her. I have seen, with my own eyes, Kuṇḍalinī rising, I have seen people getting realisation. There are so many I have seen with my own eyes. I have to disbelieve all that and believe you?" I never knew that he was that superficial. And this is his answer.

But as I had told you that you can take the position when you are bothered. And when I take a position like that, that I am bothered about you, then I think that really you are still very, very ignorant.

But at least see, at least ask for it and it should be done because the creation has to be completed, it has to be fulfilled. And you have to know the meaning of your being, you have to know why God has created you and what are you. That is a must! People waste their time with this and that. There's no time to be wasted any more I can tell you this much. In the West such a wastage of time I find. Same in the East is, they are doing what you have done before, like they are trying to build bridges and they are trying to do now underground trains. And those who have done it are now committing suicides. Between these two ends where do I stand sometimes, I start looking at My face. What should I do with these extremes that are there? So please also put your Mister Ego outside with your shoes, so it will work out. If it does not work out, that's not My concern, nor is My problem. It is your problem that it has not worked out. If an operation is not successful, then the doctor can be blamed because he takes money for it, but not Mātājī.

Not because I don't take money, but I'm not bothered about it. I'm only bothered that you should get your realisation. But I'm not bothered if you have not got it. Can you understand that part? I will work morning till evening, evening till morning to give you realisation, but if you don't want it, I'm not bothered, see. Neither if it does not work out, I am not bothered, it is a simple thing. This is the only difference between a mother on this earth and I, the Mother, who has to really give you the keys of your kingdom, the keys of your joy, the keys of your Truth: I have to do that. And I don't give you by taking anything from you. This must be understood, because egoistical people immediately are on the guard.

What have you got to give in Sahaja Yoga? I do not take anything from you. I give you, because I have got it with Me and you can have it, because that's your right, so you better have it. But if you don't want to have it, I am not going to force you. And then I play some tricks, which I must confess, because I'm not bothered. And with the tricks people disappear, reappear then disappear.

So be careful on that point.

This is the Principle of Brahma which is detached. The Principle of Brahma is detached, that acts and takes away the interest, the interest goes away, the attention goes away. You are not bothered about it. This principle cannot be overcome. It is The Principle Itself. It cannot compromise, that's the point, being absolute. Absolute things cannot compromise. For example there are some people who may say...

you see, there are some people who do say that, “Mātājī says that you have to lead a Dharmic life." Indeed you have to. I mean I cannot give realisation to Mister Hitler if he comes to Me. There is something which cannot be compromised. You have to do something, you have to be in a position to receive it and even if you receive it without that position it can be worked out.

It is also not the principle that goes out of the way to demand something, no, it doesn't. To a point only, but it won't. But it is such a living principle, the beauty of living principle I will tell you. Which perhaps you know it but you do not know it. When the principle is dead, like say this house is built, it has got a foundation, then it is built up, then a house is brought in and then everything is done. Then once done is done. If the foundation is weak, it is weak forever, you cannot improve it. But the Living Principle is, whatever may be your foundation, it will penetrate into your foundations, into your backgrounds, into everything and can correct it completely. You just ask for it. Whatever may be your conditionings and whatever may be your guilts, whatever may be your problems, whatever sins you might have committed, whatever wrong things you might have done, the Living Principle can penetrate into it and can reform the whole thing and transform it into the fruit. You have seen it, in a tree, supposing a tree is sick, if you treat it you completely can manifest [UNCLEAR]. But if you vibrate it, then you see the whole beautiful stuff, becomes very beautiful.

So this is the Living Principle and that's why Christ has said it, “I'm the living God." This is the difference between the living principle which enlivens or awakens every part of your deadened Chakras, every part of your deadened psyches. It awakens in you, it cures in you, it purifies in you, it absolutely neutralises all that is filth, dirt and ugliness, all that is called as sin. It doesn't talk, it works out, but you have to just ask for it. Just ask the question. That's the beauty of the Living principle.

That's why, when people get cured with Sahaja Yoga, don't be surprised, it's just a by-product, it's nothing important. Even when the mad people become alright, nothing surprising, it's just a by-product.

Because it's a Living Principle which penetrates into everything, it breaks every bit and bit of it, cures it, makes it alright, beautiful; makes it into a flower. And that is what is promised.

But then people come down for Sahaja Yoga, “Mother, I have a problem." I said, “Then what's the problem?" “My friend has not written any letter to me, will You help me?" Now this is sometimes puts Me down. It's too much. It's alright, even that can be solved, these problems. After all a Mother has to solve these little, little problems of Her children. But ask for the Highest. Twamekam sharenyam, Twamekam varenyam. There is nothing to be asked for but for God. Don't ask [UNCLEAR]. The rest is all dust, is all that will finish off, is all Chalayman. Is coming and going, finished. Ask for the Eternal, ask for that is stable, ask for that is the Highest and the Purest. Don't make Me come down to that.

I play with you, when My child asks Me something, I have to tell him, “Alright, have it." But when you mature you must ask for the Highest. Do not ask for a job and things. Alright, if you have a problem, it works, but you can understand now, from where to where.

For today it's alright because I'm bit too much in a Nishprayovens condition. And I was telling just now to these people, “I don't know what I'm going to talk” but I have taught something and if you have any questions please ask Me. In the meanwhile I would like some Sahaja Yogis to see these people and then we'll go in for a meditation.

I'll have some water if there is some? Can you close that? Can you see these people now? No, just go and see one or two patients that are there. Tum logon ke hath me thanda ka ā raha kuch? Aisa rukh hath, aisa rukh. [Did you feel Cool Breeze? Hold your hands like this.] All of you should sit with hands like this. Better? How is he better?

Contents: 1978-09-25*, Public Program, Stupefied Through Ego, Caxton Hall, London, UK

Today the vibrations are too many. I mean, there's no need to talk. But, when I was telling just now Gavin that your minds have a habit of talking all the time, so I have to speak to stop [UNCLEAR the talking] [laughing].

Today most of us are here realised people, people who come down and have known a lot of Kuṇḍalinī have learnt a lot, perhaps. I do not know if you realise how much you have matured, how much you really know, such a lot about Kuṇḍalinī, about human beings, the Chakras, about catches and about the Divine Power that is all-pervading and so subtle. All these things have come to you so suddenly and as if you are open to it, suddenly got it and it's all dawned on you.

So the whole thing looks like a sudden awakening within, an awareness that has enlarged the [UNCLEAR] and you can feel everybody's vibrations, you can feel their Chakras, you can raise their Kuṇḍalinī, you can give them realisation, I saw people who have been never able to speak a word about anything on a platform can now speak about it because confidence has come through experience, because they were just ready for it. In the sense that you are all built to that way, like suddenly we find on a tree lots of flowers appear and then suddenly one day we find lots of fruits appear. In the same way it has happened to you, suddenly flower becomes a fruit. And the fruit is not aware that it has become a fruit and then he starts seeing that he has become a fruit and he doesn't realise how much he has suddenly achieved as a fruit as a matured personality. It is a very spontaneous inbuilt process, which fulfils itself. But since some of you have been with Sahaja Yoga for quite some time and naturally they know much more and they are much more deeply aware about many things which all of you are not. And that's why if they are having the seminar, I hope you all take advantage of it. That will help you to do better justice to yourself and to your realisation. It's a good a chance to be there. I hope I'll be there as many days it is possible, I will be there.

Today's subject is, which is not Kuṇḍalinī so much, because I talked to you about Kuṇḍalinī. But there are again new people today and it's rather difficult to shift to another subject on which I was intending to speak to you very much and I don't know if I should really cover it up or not? So what should I do? Again going through the Kuṇḍalinī process, should I tell you how many are new people can come forward, I think let's see how many are we? Let's count. Come forward. Those who have come for the first time, you can sit here.

I give you in very short, what is a Kuṇḍalinī, what is Kuṇḍalinī awakening, how it rises, how it is placed within us. Now you can see in this diagram, now you don't have to believe in whatever we are saying. Those who are new people, for them I am saying this because those who are not, they have already experienced it. They have seen the Kuṇḍalinī rising, they have seen the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī with their own eyes and if you want we can show you that. But you have to keep your mind open and see for yourself.

Some of you will not have experience at the first round. Most of them have it.

Some of them get it and lose it because of certain problems that you have within yourself and the Kuṇḍalinī tries to improve you, cure you and again She establishes.

So it is not a instant business. But it is also for people who are very innocent or who are not hurt so far by any damages or who are absolutely in a perfect health, condition, mental condition, spiritual condition.

But normally you don't have people like that.

So the Kuṇḍalinī rises no doubt, but it goes back again to those places to cure them, to put it right and make it again healthy, the portions that are not yet working or have not yet started working, because it is a nourishing energy, it is a vital energy, it is all energies put together.

Now, I will show you the three energies that are there within us mainly. Of course we have the fourth one, which we need not bother just now. But the three energies I am talking about which are expressed in the medical terminology as sympathetic nervous system, left and right and also the central system of parasympathetic nervous system. But these three systems are gross systems, which we see outside. But there is a subtle channel inside, which shows, which expresses or which manifests those gross systems that work in our body. Now the two left and right sympathetic nervous systems are manifested through the left and right channels those are shown here. Now see the left one is the one called as Iḍā channel. It is the subtle channel within us placed on the left hand side of the central channel and the right side one is placed on the right hand. Now this one is called as the Piñgalā and the left one is called as the Iḍā Nāḍī. The central one is the one, which expresses our parasympathetic nervous system, is placed, if you see it in the brain half way down, it's not complete, is the parasympathetic. That is up to that point human awareness has reached. It shows that in our central nervous system only up to that point our awareness has reached.

Now this is all nothing important, you don't worry. May look little bit too much for the brain.

So you just don't worry. It's as simple as putting on the light. But putting on the light has a mechanism behind it, which works it out.

So it's My every day duty now whenever I come here to tell you about the mechanism first and then give you the experience, because you see your mind won't stop. That's why I have to tell you about the mechanism and that's why I'm trying to tell you the mechanism that is within us, which works out our sympathetic and parasympathetic systems.

So these three systems are absolutely in a subtle way exist inside the spinal cord. And these are three channels which are there, out of which the central one breaks through and the most of it comes down into the triangular bone and is settled down there as the germinating force or you can call the residual force is settled down there waiting for its time and chance when someone who is authorized to give you your rebirth, it rises. Now Kuṇḍalinī awakening is a subject dealt with in the Vedas, even earlier than that.

So you can say that thousands of years back many seers in India, because see India you know is a very ancient country and people have seen this Kuṇḍalinī there and they have seen how it rises and all that and they have mentioned about it. It has nothing to do with a particular country or with a particular religion of anything, it is within every human being, it is placed there. But the confusion came through by; I don't know how people confuse things. Always they confuse, see.

So they confused Kuṇḍalinī with something very, very funny and they confused it with sex. And this was happened, perhaps may be, that because in the last center you see the red center is there, which is placed below, below the Kuṇḍalinī meaning it has nothing to, the Kuṇḍalinī awakening does not have to pass through this center. This is the center that controls the sex. And this center is governed by a deity, which is innocent. Which is called as the embodiment of innocence; we can call it as Gaṇeśha in the Sanskrit language, but as we know Him, who incarnated on this earth as Jesus Christ. Is the same.

So this innocent deity is sitting there, because innocence doesn't know anything about sex, it doesn't understand. It doesn't know what is sex is.

So the confusion between the Kuṇḍalinī and sex started by some people. And that was the first gravest mistake and greatest insult to the Mother Kuṇḍalinī, which is your own. Everyone has this holy Mother, the loving Mother; the Mother who has cared for you in every life, in every ascent from the time you have come on this earth; again and again in her search it has been with you. It has recorded all your hankerings and all your askings for and all your temperaments and all your subconscious problems and everything in state into that little Kuṇḍalinī that is three and a half coils. And it is just settled down there and when you come before Me or anyone of that kind then the Kuṇḍalinī just rises up suddenly and shoots off and integrates into these six centers which are above and passes through your, center of your brain here and comes up to the fontanelle bone area and pierces through. Then your attention becomes one with the subtle.

It is easy to understand if you understand a, say an ant. Now, ant when she crawls on this carpet, she doesn't see the beauty. Animals as such they never see the beauty. You pass them through the dirtiest possible places they'll just walk through. They won't see that this is dirty or filthy, they'll walk. But human beings are subtle. They can feel it, smell it, it's dirty, you get the filth; you are walking through the filth. You see but there are subtler filths, which they do not feel it. And they can develop that sensitivity, insensitivity I would say later on by accumulating lots of nonsensical things by which they become insensitive to themselves; to themselves as human beings and then they do not mind all kinds of filths, getting into their being, which people call it as sin.

So this is what happens to human beings and because of this problem, because of this complication what happens when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, it should rise very easily, absolutely smoothly. If your instrument is absolutely smooth and if it is absolutely in the perfect condition, the ascent or you can say the take off is absolutely smoothest possible. It works out, it goes up and it crosses and pierces the Sahasrāra.

Now this has been built up in thousands of years within you. It's not today's job. Now when the fruit is created, you should know it has started from the seed and now it has come to the state of a fruit. Now the fruit doesn't know how it has become a fruit. In the same you are a human being, which is being created with very great care and with very great understanding and you have been told all the time how you should sustain yourself, you should keep on to human level, don't go to extremes, be in the center, be in the center, by all great religions. But we are great you know, we have denied all that. We said we are on our own. What's wrong in this? I mean nothing wrong; you can go and break your head against the wall. Nothing is wrong in it. You can go and take poison. Nothing wrong. What is wrong, after all? The wrong is, the purpose for which you are created. That is wrong. For example see a vase is being created, beautifully it has been laned, supposing it's a glass one with a very beautiful work on it, to put it before say a... [UNCLEAR]. I can break Myself. All right, go ahead, nothing wrong. You see it is, it is the same way we become [UNCLEAR], our ego is challenged. You say, “Oh! What's wrong? Why shouldn't we not do it? Why should we not do it?" But it is whatever is wrong, is wrong whether it is today, whether it was ten thousand years back, is wrong, is wrong and that spoils your path of ascent.

So we should understand that whatever we have accepted as good is not fundamentally good. Fundamental good is an absolute stuff and that absolute stuff you will only understand when you will reach to the area of absoluteness. The area of absoluteness can only come when you are reborn, that means there is a little stage left in between. For example this, say this one is a recording instrument and it is not put to the main switches and it is not recording. Now what's wrong? Nothing, it is not recording, that's all.

All the care and all the effort we have put in to this, making of this one is useless; that's all it is. I think nothing wrong. You see that way relatively if you see it is nothing wrong. But it has lost its power to be what it is.

So that is what you have to be yourself. That's why this special instrument very delicately was prepared, given you and has been kept there and the sustenance of it has been told to you, has been asked that you should keep to the center, a certain amount of auspiciousness is to be kept and a certain amount of understanding of your being and its respect must be kept. If you have not kept it then what have you done is, you have destroyed yourself. Then on top of that you are a seeker also. Here what's wrong when you are a seeker? Now a seeker must know that there might be some mistakes in your seeking or may be that you are not yet equipped and if that is so a seeker should never feel hurt if he is told that this has to be done, My child, this has to be corrected. It is necessary; it is necessary which is to be done. All the time whenever great incarnations came on this earth they told it very frankly, they had to tell because people would not listen. You see, they had to tell that this is it, this is it, don't do like this. Like Christ said, “Not I talked of adultery but of your adulterous eyes." Now tell Me in this London how many people are without adulterous eyes? This is Christ had said? How many of us have adulterous eyes and how many do not have? How many have that innocent look on their eyes? Children who are even twelve and thirteen years of age, thanks to our great creations of our books and BBCs and human endeavours to make us very interesting and entertaining. What we have done is, ruined our basic concepts.

Now what's wrong is the point is that it is all wrong. For example I say now grafting is going on everywhere. Everybody is breaking everybody's neck and the big, these five six cars are going together and everybody dying once and all, why do it? What is the need? What is the need to have such a thing? I mean it is simple for a Mother, she will say what is the need to have this magnet, what is the need? To break your necks, why? People like to see some people die or what is the thing in this sinister happiness within us that you want somebody to die, something to happen. Is it so? Are we that bad? Are human beings that bad? They cannot, they are created by God in love. Newspaper people, you go and tell them that you see there is something good happening. They say, “No, we are not interested in." If there any war, was there somebody killed, in your India how many people died of drowning, let us know that. But if something going good they don't want to tell that. Nothing to do with us. Then they say there is no joy in life. I mean you are bent upon killing your joy, every moment it is there.

So we have to understand today why the Kuṇḍalinī doesn't rise in some people and why it falls off and what things happen? But it's a very large subject. I have talked about it many a times. But today I want to tell you about the few things, which I have not yet talked so, so much in detail especially for the Sahaja Yogis who are, realised people.

So I think the new people have understood the little bit I have told you in short about, about the Kuṇḍalinī. If you have any questions you first ask Me. Then we try to give realisation and then I have to tell them about some points, which I have not yet covered. It's all right? Because it is a combined talk, you see. We have here one year old children and also we have got here one day old children and there are some who are not yet born. You see if you put all types of children in one God and if the mother has to look after them, some in bottles and some in absolutely complete care and some are grown ups, it's very difficult. But then what we can do is to ask the grown up children to help a little bit, to give the others a little help to come up and once they come up then these people also grow up and that's how the, we can say the whole group increases by which more people can come inside.

So it is nice. But I have seen many people come, more people come down but they do not understand the seriousness of the whole thing.

Some of them are, some of them do get into realisation and some of them get it and then they feel very happy and go home and say, “Oh! I've got it now” finished. “Take Mātājī's photograph, I can manage on my own” you cannot. This is another condition of this thing. Once you get realisation you cannot manage on your own. You sit down at home, work on My photograph all that, but you have to come to the collectivity. Because now the time has come to work on a collective being, like a complete body is needed, you have to have a hair, you have to have a heart, you have to have a liver, you have to have everything. You cannot just live as one finger somewhere and another finger somewhere. The work of this emancipation is tremendous, for that we have to have collectivity. And that's why you have to come to collective exposure. You all should expose yourself more and more and those who have followed it up only have matured. Those who have not are still dwarfs. The other day I happened to meet somebody who has been to My programs and she was praising Me a lot, she said Mother you gave us something and this and that. But I was surprised at her. She has developed no sensitivity much, neither she has done much about it and five years she's done nothing.

Another example I can give you that some people go to absolutely wrong type of Gurus and fake type of people and get stuck up there also. Now when they are told that you are stuck up, instantly they feel very hurt because as if the Gurus have paid them, they have not paid the Gurus.

So it's very difficult to talk about their Guru because the Gurus have a sort of, you see grabbed them. You cannot tell them that this is wrong in you and that's why it's happening.

So sometime of course they realise. We had a very good example of that I will tell you, is a man. He was a justice of a high court in India, he came to Me. And as being a justice you see, all the people, these Gurus are more interested in the justices and the ministers and all the rich people, you see they grab those people, because their main interest is this, to have more power, to have more money, to have, you see, all these material things.

So they stick on to these people.

So this fellow when he came to My program and at the first shot he got his realisation in very wonderful way and I felt it, his realisation. Because he felt some two ice balls just came and fell upon his hands and he started melting and I felt the thing that way about it. And it went into him and he completely got drenched into it. But when I went to his house and I could see within him also, you see even if there is light that doesn't mean there are no shortcomings in this room. You can see all the doors and more with the light you can see much more.

So because he was a powerful man he got a good light no doubt. But I went to his house and I saw all these horrible Gurus photographs.

So I told him, “Sir, will you please throw them away in the sea?" He said, “Mother! What are your saying?" I said, “You just see the vibrations, how clear they are!" He would not listen to Me. He would not listen because he was a justice.

So I didn't know how to handle and tell him. But I told him. Whenever I went to India he made it a point to come and see Me and meet Me and do all kinds of things. But you see he was, I would say still he was not concerned about himself, you see. If he was he would have disciplined [UNCLEAR]. But he would not and I told him that these are all fake ones and gradually one by one they started showing their colours and somebody was found smuggling watches to India, so his photograph he threw away. We found another person having lots of girlfriends or another one having lots of money from others and all those. Because he was a justice so he was getting these cases so they started dropping one by one, one by one like that. Still he stuck on to one or two. But I was amazed at his attachment the way he was that, he is, in his vibrations I could not find any defect as such. He used to receive My vibrations tremendously and he loved Me very much also. But I was always worried that these people at this time when he will be little bit unaware, then they will crack and they will definitely pester him. Of this I was very sure. And it has happened. I always wrote letters to people in India when they wrote about him that how surprising that he is following this Guru and that Guru, despite Your warnings still he is all right, his vibrations are all right. I simply aware one day he is a strong fellow, but a day will come when it will crack. And now that has happened and he landed up himself into a cancer hospital. Normally after realisation no one gets cancer. Cannot. It's impossible.

Now there is another case is, there is a lady whom I know, she stayed in England. She is here. She is an Indian lady. Her husband was My professor in the medical college where I was with him and he remembers Me very clearly and I met them suddenly here. He has heard about Me because I addressed there also, medical institutions in India.

So he was telling Me, he would like to see this and all that. His wife came in. I tried to give her realisation, many a times I tried, it failed.

So I asked, “Who is your Guru?", then she said this man is my Guru and he is great and he is like this and he is a great personality. I saw this fellow had nothing, he was not realised Soul, now how to convince her? I said, “He is not a realised Soul, believe Me, he is not realised Soul, how can you call him a Guru?" She said, “No, but he was a great man, he was great man." I said, “But, how? You must get realisation." You see even a person on the street could be a realised Soul, may be a person who is a priest may not be. If you are not the realised Soul you are not. Whether you are this or that makes no difference. This is not outside, this is inside. She would not believe. She said, “No, no, Mother, I have great faith in him, he was this and that, you give me realisation, this thing that thing." So I told her, “Now please listen to Me. You give up this Guru and this thing." She said “All right, whatever you say I will keep it out, I will not remember him." I gave her realisation.

All right, she got the realisation. But you see the grip is so great of these Gurus, she picked back all his books and started reading them every morning and evening and all the nonsense he had told her.

So here she is and if you are in a wrong this thing then the void, that is shown there, gets caught. This void gets caught. You can see it. You can see the Kuṇḍalinī just doing like this, there are people who have got the void problem here. You can ask them where they have had this. The Kuṇḍalinī shows all pumping inside all around void. You can see with your own eyes, absolutely. Absolutely this you can see yourself and then believe and then it happened like that.

So you see, I told her, “Still why your void is catching, there is something wrong with you." She said, “No, no, Mother, it's all right, I am getting the vibrations, all right." I said, “But don't deceive yourself, there's a void catch." Now can you believe it, what happened to her? She got cancer and cancer where the peritoneum, see now the peritoneum that covers the stomach, is all completely engulfing. Now there is no way of entering into the peritoneum, you cannot touch it because it is a closed shell. Now she is in the hospital. And now she has put My photograph and she has confessed to Me that, “This is what I have been following." Now I said, “Now look at this." So headache for Me, morning till evening to cure these cancer patients. Now I come on this earth to cure these cancer patients? Morning till evening these people don't want to do anything that I tell them and then they get cancer. Now that cancer grows from her stomach to her lungs.

So to a [UNCLEAR] what a headache! You ask these people they go. Now she is so anxious. She is willing to come to My house, she is willing to do anything, she will throw away the photographs, now she is beating the Guru with her shoes and all. But why make Me so miserable? Even after getting realisation, getting these vibrations also people are not deep enough. They do not pay attention to themselves as they should, they do not go deep into themselves, they do not work it out and then they come and ask Me the question “Mother, why is it he is giving realisation to so many people, how is it she is working out you well and now why here." Now you go and ask the person what he is doing about it.

To, All Sahaja Yogis, Many blessings Today on the first day of Navarātri your attention should be on Śhrī Gaṇeśha. His devotion is infinite.

He has never worshipped anybody else except Mother. Hence He is so great. All other Gods appear very strong. Everyone has some specialty. What is Mother's specialty? Her ego (Aham) is nowhere felt by others.

Hence Śhrī Gaṇeśha who has surrendered to such Mother, is so wise and venerable, Mother has nothing with Her. Her very name begins with `Ni' e.g. `Nishkanchan' having no wealth, `Nirlepa' unaffected; `Nirvichara' thoughtless; `Nishprayojana' having no motives, `Nigarvita' egoless, `Niricchā' desireless etc.

Therefore, surrendering to such Mother, who has nothing with Her, needs some kind of subtle thought, in that, Mother has nothing with Her and therefore, nothing can be asked from Her. It shows how Śhrī Gaṇeśha by himself, is fully satisfied. Where does this contentment of Śhrī Gaṇeśha come from? It is own power.

When the gate of the Self opens, nothing else is required. It is the Mother who opens this gate and therefore, She is so dear to Śhrī Gaṇeśha. Complete Self-realisation is that stage attaining which nothing else is required. Thereafter, only enjoying the bliss and the satisfaction of fulfilment.

You are made in the pattern of Śhrī Gaṇeśha. Therefore, your power is unmatched, but for that, you should have devotion and innocence like Śhrī Gaṇeśha's. Then Mother would admire you and the whole world would witness that beautiful sight.

I have worked in the operation and Iḍā Nāḍī of all has become much lighter. Iḍā means past and all good and bad impressions. All that is bad should be removed like cleaning of an excellent cloth that gets back its colour and new look, thereafter. But right side improves by discipline. I Myself will observe fast and clean your right side, so that your power to do the work increases and you start Sahaja Yoga work with new vigour. However, left side can be kept clean by discriminating between good and bad deeds and strictly doing only that which is good. That means you have to do only that which is auspicious and helpful. Right side can be activated by discipline, Balance is very important in Sahaja Yoga. Age old maxim, “Ati Sarvatra Varjayet" [Extremes should be avoided everywhere] really holds good.

I am very eager to meet you all.

Your Mother, Nirmalā 1978-10-02 Letter (Marathi) (1st Day of Navaratri), p.1, London, UK (Original Writing) 1978-10-02 Letter (Marathi) (1st Day of Navaratri), p.2, London, UK (Original Writing)

Contents: 1978-10-02*, Public Program (1st Day of Navarātri), Knots on The Three Channels, Caxton Hall, London, UK

The Kuṇḍalinī rises, but that is not the end of it because human being is the instrument in which this light is manifested but once it is manifested it is not necessary that it will be all the time solving problem.

There is a possibility, mostly it is a possibility that the light can go out in the room, outside is amazed, that it can go out. It can also subside a little bit it may come out it may flicker; it may dwindle a little bit. Because human beings as they are, they have got into three complications as soon as you become human beings these three complications start. And because of three, these three complications, one has to know that if you have to get out of that you have to break certain knots they call it Granthi [knots] in the Sanskrit language, which are giving you this falsehood in the meantime.

Falsehood that we think that you see in this world after all everything is science and everything is what we see and everything beyond and all those sorts of things are really false because unless and until you rise into reality you believe in them. After all what is God and what is all this talk of religion? What is the talk of Christ? And what is the talk of all these things? So all these problems become sort of identified with you absolutely you believe in the falsehood all the time. You are more concerned about the falsehood than about the truth. Even if you are concerned about the truth when you are born with a seeker mind, seeker's minds, then you try to see and you try to think of something that is beyond. And you try to understand that there must be something beyond and something must happen but still you see you are bound by these three complications in life by which by these three complications we accept the world as it is because we do not know the reality. The problem is we do not know the reality. Till we come inside the reality, we really do not know even what is reality.

What is the basic substance of our being? How do we live? What is the subtle being? How do we live and what is our aim? What we have to fulfil? All these questions are very weak in our mind; then we start seeking here and there, we go round here and there and try to find out. We talk to people, we read books and especially we go to books which are philosophical and try to find out about what must be done about reality. Why are we born towards this? Why are we not happy? Why do we feel dissatisfied in life? Why do we all the time hanker after sometimes something and we do not feel fulfilled within ourselves and why don't we understand the meaning of our own being? Why are we driven like this? All these questions come to us. All these questions come to us and we start seeking about it and actually our priorities, before we get into it, are so false because we do not know reality.

So I mean it's not your fault except if you do not know reality and then actually for example somebody has to catch the train itself is very important then to go in town is very important then to get some money is important and to get a house is important and then to [UNCLEAR get/have] some children is important all these things become very much more important than they should be. Why the main thing that is to seek within yourself. The point what are we to seek and what is so important about it, that every scripture has talked about this that you must seek within yourself, you must find out yourself who you are. What is the reason why all of them have been so much stressing? So until you enter into it you will not enter.

It is such a vicious circle because of these three complications I was telling you but because if as it is described that your spirit is absolutely a detached personality it's a detached being; it is not contaminated by anything it is absolutely complete by itself. It is joy. It is bliss. It is the truth. Where are we then? Why are we in such a mood that we have something very important for us in our lives, very special for us? We think that, this must be done or I must do these things. Then why, if that spirit is such a powerful thing, then what is the complication? What are the complications we have and how do we get rid of these complications? Through your evolution from the amoeba stage you can see even from the absolutely from the, we call it the `Jada' the dead from the absolutely from the material stage to this stage it has achieved quite a lot of detachment in a way. Detachment has come in a way that you understand that you are not the dead; no, you are not, that much at least everybody knows, that you are not. There are so many things you are identified with but at least you know that you are not dead. With the growth of materialism and by changing matter and its forms and all that, then you realise one more thing that matter doesn't give us happiness. I mean many people through evolution realised this, that matter is not the end of our lives and it is not going to give us happiness; then in a subtler form when you evolve even more, then you go into the art and the dignity of the matter then you start seeing a little deeper then what the matter means to you and you start thinking about its beauty, its forms, its combinations and its harmony.

So the subtleties about matter develop, up to a point. You give it rationality and understanding, that you realise that this is this art, also has its finite nature, I mean how far can you go with it? I mean even if you have art and you become an artist and you are destined to be very rich. There are people who can be called as masters of art and those who are really aesthetically evolved people, but if you go and see their lives you get a shock you realise what kind of artists are these? I mean they are producing art and beautiful things and nothing goes inside; they are very materialistic, they can be mad people or they can be absolutely obnoxiously, boring.

So why is it that these artists you see, those who are creating all this, supposed to be something which is joy giving are so boring themselves and nothing goes inside them and apart from that they are so oppressive and so much sometimes can be very egoistical or can be very very methodical or meticulous and they could be absolutely mathematical about things. You start understanding that they are not that abstract, as they produce. You see they give some ideas and projections they do but they are not so.

So again when you start thinking how is it that this matter, which has gone to this subtle state, which is called as art and artists. Why is it that this matter has not anything in it to offer us of, of that eternal value or of that nature which is promised to us through our scriptures? So some people do at this point. Definitely they step over and I say or they just, just collapse on that point. And in the sense they think oh, there's nothing in scriptures, its' all a mess, it's all wrong, there may not be anything. You see it's a tall story told to us and there may not be any truth about it; that there is All-pervading Power and there is this God and you can become one with God. It cannot be true after all you can see that there is so much of poverty in this world, there is so much of pain in this world, people are so unhappy, how can there be a God? Alright, all this! I get letters of that kind many a times, you see; that how people are so unhappy and they are this and that and then how can you talk of God? So this is the one complication we have and this is the complication comes because we the Ātmā, the Spirit is enveloped by our attention into the matter; because the matter has risen our attention, has come from outward and it has risen up to a point where there is a knot by which we cannot see the spirit but we see the matter.

This knot, I mean, you see there is a big controversy about names. I would not like you to confuse it but we can say like that, this knot is a knot which is a knot between the spirit and the matter which is called as Jada-prakṛuti in the Sanskrit language. This is the first knot which is a very difficult knot. We think this gem is mine or we think this chair is mine. You see even if somebody offers you a chair: come along sit here and then another person is still a little oh, she has given her a chair which is higher. You see, all kinds of complications human beings have. It's very delicate. They are, they are so foolishly identified with things, that supposing a person is more and more you see in the politics now. There's a prime minister and he thinks that someone is sitting on a chair; and he thinks that somebody is going to occupy that chair; and then you see all kinds of funny things start in his mind and all kinds of complications start. And he thinks that he'll be dislodged from that chair by which he's been a prime minister, so he starts working out his own plans and things. I mean the priorities are so much that you start what you call candidacy for him and everybody going for an election and everybody fighting. The whole world is at these days, you see how to achieve that chair, that position by which he can become the prime minister. And the other one doesn't come and the others are working it out and you see it is very important. And what is he putting on the chair, is another dead stuff. You see one dead is down back on another dead. He's dead as far as so many things are concerned which are thought as the truth.

Because he doesn't know the truth. Now supposing you meet somebody as a high priest. Now he is a high priest on a chair; to Me, I see one dead thing sitting on another dead thing, that's all, because the chair doesn't understand these things, the one who's put on the chair doesn't understand these things like that because it doesn't got the awareness to see what is the truth. What's the use of doing such a jocular thing? It's really a joke but people are very serious about it very serious, absolutely they do all kinds of things for these relations its' so serious but if you stand from this angle and you should see that you must try [UNCLEAR]. You see it's quite silly. But we have to accept it because we have decided to identify through this one Granthi or you can call it this knot of the Jad-Prakruthi or what you call as this matter.

Now for a Sahaja Yogi it is essential to see how far he is identified with his Jad-Prakruthi. It's very important to see how far he has identified with his, what you call the attachment or the covering of this deadening. All that is subconscious is all what you call conditioning is done. Everything that is dead is dead. Whether it is your dead matter or a dead thought. It's just the same and the more you harbor on it, you see there are silly people I have known, I mean they have come to Me in the thing. You see supposing a wife has died, say about thirty five years back alright? Say he is here weeping and crying; write poetry about her she's dead, up to thirty five years back. She might have been reborn as a child somewhere or something like that, he can't marry her again, nothing of the kind. He is writing poetry about her crying, weeping and he expects everybody to weep. There are people, I have seen, they sit down and they just weep about it. They just play records and things, melancholy things and just wasting all their precious tears on something that is dead and finished. Now there is no need to weep about it but they'll go on like that and they enjoy such a thing very much and they appreciate it very much. It's no surprise but people go on wasting their energy they enjoy it in a way that we it is written down the whole melancholy of singing their dynamic experiences [UNCLEAR] is with them in memory.

Whatever was false should become nothing in your mind when you reach reality.

So a memory in a Sahaja Yogi is of no value much value because whatever he had was in a dead condition he was not sensitive to All-pervading Power at that time. He was just dealing with the dead stuff you see and that was what I was surprised when many people told Me “Mother, after becoming a Sahaja Yogi we can not read any melancholy poems." I said “thank God a lot of time is now saved for meditation"; otherwise imagine all of them coming with very melancholy faces to Me and saying that Mother you know this poet has already has a department of people who read all kinds of books, that why such a person should write like that and why such a person should write like that. In the same way they would say, why such a person ignored by Me? I do not even see his face. You see when we pass that way, I see really melancholia personified and he made everybody miserable himself. What was he crying about? I mean if you see that whom did he make happy? If he made everyone happy, why was he crying all the time and making everyone unhappy? So this kind of a person is there all this is dead and takes yourself to dead.

So dead and dead things can never give you happiness. On the contrary it gives you habits they give you habits and these habits come to you like say, you have you have appreciated to sit on the chair you can not sit on the ground. Now if I tell the Sahaja Yogi's they must learn to sit on the ground they will immediately start that we must sit on the ground. That's not the point! What I am saying the habit the chair has given should be gotten rid of but for that you don't waste your energy, for heavens sake! Because if I say that then you shouldn't try wasting your energy in getting rid of the habits that were there; on the contrary if you put your attention to your spirit to what you have achieved, to where you are gradually you'll find your habits will drop off like that. We have known that.

We have had alcoholics with us here; terrible alcoholics who could not give up alcohol. And they have given up. We have had people who have taken drugs; they have given up without any difficulties, cigarettes they have given up. There are some also higher vices and bigger vices also people have given up. And some vices we can not mention, people have given up.

So this happens when your attention goes to your spirit and this is a very big detachment that comes to you through your ascent, into that realm where you feel the all-pervading. It means automatically your detachment works. It means your attention has changed definitely that oneness with reality, otherwise why are you getting detached? And spontaneously it happens suddenly you mature so much. Sahaja Yogi's mature so fast, I mean jet lag maturity, I think. Because when they rise nobody understands whenever they say something people say what are you talking about? Because they are at such a different level that others just don't understand what they are talking about. And they find it very difficult to understand. Easy whenever they talk, others say “what are you saying about, we don't follow?" So the attention went to this and to that, your habits drop but for that it is essential that your attention should be on your spirit.

Now what is the beauty of spirit is for a Sahaja Yogi. What does he get out of spirit? What is the manifestation of spirit is that when his attention is absolutely one with the Ātman, with the spirit then there is a manifestation of vibrations. You start getting Cool Breeze in your hands. Now these vibrations are there from the very beginning of the matter, up to the vibrations, where you come up to a human level.

Say you can call them, these are electromagnetic vibrations. But when they go on improving, you see in the beginning, they just look like electromagnetic, then they look like more. There is emotions in it, you see then you go a little ahead then you find that these vibrations also act, these vibrations also think, they also report, so you see gradually you will find that with the growth of human being as a human being from matter these vibrations have also manifested into different categories.

So begin with, these vibrations are only electromagnetic, you can say in the matter. Say you have Sulphur Dioxide as a molecule you'll find Sulphur and Dioxide both are vibrating all the time like that, but when it goes on manifesting more and more that's the basics then gradually the manifestation of these higher things can be perceived through our understanding of Sahaja Yoga but for a normal person it is only electromagnetic.

Now supposing a matter which is say, just a matter, say a dead matter, it is. Now it is not aware that it has got vibrations to begin with, it has not aware. It doesn't even think about it. I mean it has no awareness at all of any kind, it's just, so but there are vibrations there are electromagnetic vibrations which it is not aware. Now supposing such a dead matter if you tell that dead matter that you have vibrations it will say, “What are you talking about?" I never felt it, but somebody else can feel it that there are electromagnetic vibrations in the same way every human being has got these vibrations within him in the spirit but they are only manifested when he gets realisation.

So the second category of the same thing, the same vibrations start expressing higher and higher qualities about it; like from one seed a tree moves and flowers come out and different fragrance like that, you see the growth is more and more. But the basic is electromagnetic vibrations that you can feel it everywhere in the matter with your naked eyes, a human being can see. Now see your own growth. Have you recognized it that animals don't know that there are electromagnetic vibrations but human beings.

But a Sahaja Yogi knows that there are not only electromagnetic but there are all kinds of manifestation of these vibrations.

So electromagnetic are important at a point and then other vibrations are even much more important.

So all these vibrations are combined together absolutely completely in human beings which they manifest gradually and they act according to the need of the time.

So much so that in these vibrations there is a somebody who thinks, vibrations who think, the vibrations who cooperate, who cure, who relate things, who report things all that you think in the human awareness that you are doing like telecommunications you have got big telecommunications sitting down here. You say can show something that is happening in India or something like that. In the same way these vibrations can be blown things to [UNCLEAR near meaning]. The complete telecommunications is built in these vibrations then you can cure people sitting down, you can raise their Kuṇḍalinīs sitting down, you can work out on people sitting down here all these far fetched things are possible. Those who have been Sahaja Yogis have realised it and seen it and worked it out. And it's more surprising now we have a lady here sitting down; say her husband used to drink a lot, everybody knows her story very well and we just send some vibrations and he stopped drinking. He stopped his drinking and just to rinse that through vibrations it was done. I used something which is very simple it's a lime. It's a living lime and we put all the vibrations into that and we put them near the head of the patient and they suck the negativity of the person and the person gives up drinking.

We have seen one boy who used to come here, a little boy who would run all over the places and would not sit down for even for a minute. He was possessed, he was horrid and now he is a sensible boy. He started going to school. He never used to attend even a word and now he started speaking.

So all these things happened with the lime.

So, what how is it, Mother a lime is such a thing now, for a very up to date person it is funny to see limes being used for vibrations. They are actually ultramodern things you know, ultramodern. I am not talking of only modern but ultramodern things are limes; are very ultramodern things because you vibrate the ultramodern limes by your vibrations and you put them under the pillow.

Now these limes have a specialty these have been found out by many people long time back that they have a specialty to suck in the vibrations and contain the vibrations or to not only electromagnetic but quite a lot of vibrations can be in it, because they are living and they have a coefficience. They have a kind of coefficience by which they suck in these vibrations in them and then they relay, they throw these vibrations whenever it is necessary. It is not the limes who do it but the vibrations who are containing in them that they do it. How they are, I'll tell you.

You can think of a battery that you are creating. You create a battery. Now the battery can not do anything but if you take the battery near some points then it starts working because it is inside. In the same way we really make it into a battery. When they are near the heads of the people, these limes, you see they are doing nothing; but these vibrations come out and they start working it out. It's a perfect field.

They do it. They know they are perfect. You don't have to tell them. They understand much more than you do. They are controlled much better and they know how to find the ways to extract the negativity, It sounds very funny to other people. You see that's why I tell only Sahaja Yogis don't give out all the secrets just now, let them come in slowly, let them settle down, let them get vibrations and then we'll talk because I've seen a few times if you not only talk but if they see some limes some people will run away, thinking it's all hocus-pocus. You see they don't want to hear it. Really it's a fact because people believe in some sort of a funny thing. Supposing I have big circles and all those things that the people do, I don't know what all they do, but some sort of a funny thing. You see they like it. For example, if I make you all jump on your heads and shout loudly and make some nuisance out of it there would be thousands coming to this group. I can assure you; but you see, if you are really knowing about reality and if you are handling these vibrations, well then, you people won't come and that's why many people go to that. Why? Because the same, the complication, the complication is still at work you see.

So to please them you have to use their complications. And those who do not want people to know reality or those who I would say do not know reality, those people who just want to make use of all this, they use this complication.

So they try on human beings and that's how they trap the disciples and that's how they manage thousands of people bringing money and giving them honour and all those things which are useless for a person who has known reality.

For him money makes no difference. I mean he understands the joke of the money and he understands the joke of everything else but those who have want to use this complication.

So this one is described, I will use the name that was used by Shañkarāchārya. Because you see everybody is not a realised Soul and of a great authority but we have to have some people as authority so Shañkarāchārya has called Brahmā Granthi he calls it Brahmā Granthi . Brahmā Granthi because the Brahma is the vibrating force, Brahma Om that is the vibrating force because it's the vibrations as they called it of the Brahmā Granthi .

Now the second one is the one by which we think that we can do something. Now this one is the superego one, the first one I told you about creates the superego, this Granthi, the knot. How do you have a knot? I'll give you an example of a balloon. Say for example, a balloon. Now a balloon has lots of air in it but it will all pass out, it won't be there if there is no knot there. You see but if there is a knot which can hold the balloon, alright and this is the balloon we have in our head which we call a superego which we can see here clearly, can you show that? The black one, you know the black you know what is this one is the superego by which you see you get possessed, you get all mad and you do all kinds of things. This is the Brahmā Granthi . This knot is there. And this knot, you see it first starts at the Mūlādhāra. It starts from there. The knot starts from there, can you imagine? It starts from there! Because this one is made of Pṛithvī Tattwa it's made of the earth element so from the very beginning from the earth element itself, the knot starts. But as there's a knot you see when you make a knot always there is an unwinding, always.

You come by a staircase you always can go down. Is there a staircase by which you cannot go down but only come up? In the same way, if you have made a knot there must be a way of going out of the knot you see.

So the going out of the knot is worked out through Sahaja Yoga; that also is done through vibrations That the first, this knot has to be released. Once this knot is released then only the Kuṇḍalinī starts.

This is the first knot, is much more important.

So this first knot is very strong among Indians and is not so strong with you. Though in a way you have done not great harm, but his one is not so strong at least those who are seekers you're not so materialistic, in the sense at least in your rationality, I think you are.

But I would say that you are not so much worried about your food and things like that as the Indians are.

I mean they can't help themselves. They have to worry about their food and all these things. Of course [UNCLEAR] you are not so much worried about these things, but there is also another problem that comes with all this affluence, that in a very subtle way, very subtle way you are materialistic. Because if you see, if there is one bean increased the whole thing topples down. It's what happens in India. Even if there are three beans increased nobody would bother because they know we will have another because they are so much used to a kind of calamity, all the time falling on them. Alright if you can't get bread we'll make something else. Alright they are not so much disturbed as you people are. You become overly sensitive even to your materialism you are very sensitive and your materialism starts becoming so funny that it amounts to fuss. It's fussy, it's a fussy materialism which is such a headache, I tell you. That I mean even what people are wearing and how they are dressed.

Now supposing you are wearing a suit. Then they say he is a very suity fellow and if he is not wearing a suit then he is very casual, you see.

So that everything has a name something like that and everything can be regarded as a banner I mean who has got time to think about who is wearing what, who's a suity or a booty whatever it is. But these things make you sort of brand a person. That a person is his house is like this so he must be like this. It is not so. You see here the knot is so subtle in a sense that rationality you see gives you this sense, that by judging it, by that you judge a person, judge a person by his appearance.

Say supposing I were a form and I tried to do some tricks. You see some juggling. I showed you some money taking out some sort of a ring or something like that. It really, really makes you feel that there must be something about it or even higher than that if I say that alright, you can have your sex habits as you like. You can have ten women around you. It doesn't matter and if you see someone like that you can call him a Sādhu, it is such a big myth that it is such a falsehood, it is absolutely nothing but I would say complete darkness, it is. People will accept it, because it will sound fantastic to them, because it will support that materialism that a person like that. You see in India, say there is a sage and you say that by sex you will go to God. Immediately people will jump on it because you see we are so much endowed with sex energy. All these things happen in a society which is supposed to be absolutely non-materialistic so this materialism works out and this Granthi, what I call the Brahmā Granthi , is the involvement or you can say the falsehood, the falsehood of matter; the falsehood of matter works through this and one goes on believing it and believing it.

So the second thing starts with it that people say let us give up this falsehood. And they start all kinds of another artificial method. After all materialism gives you artificiality in the sense that when you are, your attention is involved into things which are not real which is not reality, the natural interest in artificial stuff. Everything becomes artificial. And when the artificiality becomes too much. Then what happens, artificially you try to give it up, this is the second side. The second side of it, artificially you think we should give it up. For example, alright today I am going to wear a dress like an ascetic. We had some people who said that we cannot give up these dresses of primitive people. I said “but why?" Because we want to become primitive. Now you cannot become primitive. It's a fact! You must accept it. Yes, alright dress up as you like, there's nothing important.

You dress up like anything but you don't think by dressing up anything; you're going to become anything. It's not! It is not important at all. Whatever way you may dress up, whatever thing you may dress up, whatever you may do has no bearing on your inner Yoga. Inner Yoga works out by itself, it works out through Chakras, it goes inside, it's a subtle thing which is a detached thing from how you dress, how you walk, how you talk. It's not the point once this Yoga works out then of course, the things change outside; because your face glow, you become magnetic, you talk in a way which is authoritative, you start curing people you start doing many things which shows that you are a different person. That's a very different thing all together. But normally by doing it outside, artificially doing something, you see this is another kind of a Granthi, they call a knot; and this knot starts by identifying yourself by thinking that if you do something then you are going to achieve by sort of doing some sort of an effort or by doing some sort of a penance or sort of standing on your heads or so-called Haṭha Yoga.

You do all these things that people do in the name of God also. Also all these things you think you are going to achieve is another falsehood because with this falsehood that knot becomes stronger and stronger doing anything what you call is the Rajo Guṇa is the right side action, the left side action is now described to you it starts at the Mūlādhāra and the right side action which is the Rajo Guṇa which is within you which is the activity within us by which you do something we want to do something which is done through our Ahaṁkāra, is through your ego which is there and all this falsehood doesn't lead you anywhere. Because whatever you do, you do not do any living work, you do all dead things. Supposing you have made this chair what have you done? You have just changed a tree into a dead stuff and then made a chair that's all. Dead into dead, you have not created any living thing just all dead; any human beings have done nothing.

And if evolution is a living process you are going on living you have to do something living, on the contrary if you are doing something dead and believing that you are doing something living then it's even a greater falsehood but if you realise that we are doing nothing, that is living. For that something has to happen that we should be endowed with that power by which we do living things. If this is accepted then the things work out, otherwise not. If people say no I am the prime minister say I am the king, I am the xyz you may be anything state or you are a dead person. It matters nothing. You might be an engineer, alright you are, you arrange machinery alright you are say for example you arrange in machinery or something to work out they're going to the dead and coming back dead. What have you achieved? Put them on your heads? What living thing have you done out if it? Just think of it.

What efforts! What mind! They commit to religion, also behave in the same manner, meaning if we go to church, for example, some people believe in it.

Some of you are sensible enough to understand that by going to church and listening to a priest you are not going to achieve that, in a sensible thing that way.

Even by going to temples, you are not going to achieve, take it from Me. Going to any lectures, you are not going to achieve. They are just going to talk, talk, talk, which is a dead thing, which becomes dead in your mind. Nothing but conditionings. By reading books, you're not going to achieve it either. Books are dead. You read the books; you accumulate more dead on your left hand side. By the right side, you do the thing by accumulating the left side. But you use also the left side for your right side because you say you read a book so yes, yes, yes, you see now Mātājī is not that person. You see because this was written and how Mātājī explains that. All the time you are playing with these two knots within you Rajo Guṇa and Tamo Guṇa. These two knots are within you and that's why your attention is not on the spirit.

Thirdly, Sattva Guṇa we can call it is the one by which we try to know God is the one by which we try to see things that, no, this is not alright. We give up this and give up that and we should take to Rajo Guṇa. But we should give up Rajo Guṇa; we should take to subtler one. Is the central path, where we try to say we must do God. But what can we do to do God? You people think by meditating. You see some people have told Me “Oh, I have been meditating Mother for the last twenty five years." I say, “What have you been meditating?" I mean there have been people I know who have been meditating. But where, but how? It's funny you know how people can do it. We had neighbours there and somebody had given them a mantra and he was a man, a very big man.

I should say he was a governor of Bank of India and they would get a photograph six o'clock they were meditating and saying some sort of a mantra absolutely rumble tumble and they were doing it and doing it and doing it till it was about twenty years. And they absolutely became dilapidated. Their hands become like this, feet become like this and swollen bodies and all that, then they died. Till then they were going on and on until the end and even when they could lay down in bed they could not watch even for one minute they had become completely dead. You wouldn't believe how they had become. I wish I had shown you their photographs. Absolutely bedridden and their bodies were swollen up and they could not even move their legs and food was given to them and somebody used to take them out and do everything. I mean they couldn't move any part of their body. They were all deadened and finished like that. And they still were saying the mantras. I said now where are you going after these mantras? They said, you see our mother; they have a mother; and their mother had promised when you will die you will [UNCLEAR] They died, nothing happened, the body was so [UNCLEAR] nobody could [UNCLEAR] It was a big problem so they were deadening themselves all the time they were deadening and deadening instead of going towards life, they were deadening themselves. Now you see I could not tell them anything because they were not well. They would not listen to Me. They had become so much addicted to that habit of saying mantra that even doctor could not do anything about it. Nobody could do anything, they would not take medicine they would just do mantra and their mouth was saying mantra and the whole body was stiff like that.

And people said what great people have died, you know we must take [UNCLEAR] you know. You start looking at them and say “why?" Oh, you know the people they came and they said great people have died and they took the name of God. And then you blame God; why is that they took the name of God and why did they die? I mean you must see where you are hitting your head. Supposing that is the door and you go on hitting your head here then you say Mother we hit our head twenty years why didn't you tell me the way I mean this is not the way. The way is there. That's the way we have to get it. If this is not the way, why are you hitting there? This is because of the Rajo Guṇa problem, the Rajo Guṇa problems that we can do something about it; people just cannot believe that you just cannot do anything about it because in a very very subtle way Mister E-g-o is present. You say anything to them immediately it comes up like a snake, I've seen it. Oh, Mātājī said that “no, I can't bear it." Why did she say that? Why did I say that, is that I see things, that's what I'm saying. You will also come on this side one day and you will start seeing what and see what I say is absolute truth or not. [UNCLEAR] why should I say it is the main point. I do not want to disturb you. I've brought you; I've called you here to give you something special. Alright if that is so, let's have a compact some sort of a compact deal about it that I give you something and then you receive it and the compact the whole thing should work in you and then you decide about it. Instead of that if one body says immediately, a mistake comes, “Oh, she said this to us, that's wrong." Now what should I say you're alright. You may not see you're perfect. Is that the way should I pamper your ego; no, it should not be so. Neither do I condemn people. I do not say, “It is because you are like this you're condemned” no, but you must see the reality; that you are not there as yet, the reality has not come to you. The reality as a whole.

For example, I am a Mother and you are hitting your head here. Now if I tell you, “My child for heaven’s sake don't hit your head, you'll break your head. Go there there's the door." And then you say “I am on my own who are you to tell me?" Now this is too much for a Mother to bear. Now she says please see this is the door you get out of this door. That's why you need a mother. You don't need anybody else because anybody else would just say, “Oh, alright go ahead and break your head and finished with it, good ridden to bad rubbish." But a mother is not like that. She thinks about it, she thinks, `Oh, My children are there, they are seeking, they are seekers.' I have to go on telling them. Telling them, at least but they go on hitting their heads, whatever you may talk, you see unless and until this wisdom comes into the head. It's such a vicious circle, I tell you. And this wisdom cannot come until this lowest Granthi breaks, the lowest knot breaks, where a person starts understanding one simple point that human beings cannot do it. God has to do it.

So the surrendering starts. God has to do it. We cannot do it. The only thing we have to say Lord please, that's all. You have to just knock at the door. You don't have to argue out whether Christ was correct or not or Buddha was correct or not, don't discuss any dogmas. All these people, all those who are supposed to be in charge of religions have created nothing but useless dogmas to quarrel and fight. I am amazed to see these people when they have their meetings and we have to discuss, who is going to be elected for this and what is going to be the agenda for the budget of this thing and then lastly what will be the menu for next year? That's all they do. I mean if that is God's job, I am quite surprised and you should be. I mean is this the way these people are going to bring reality within you by bringing you all kinds of unreal and useless things? And they are doing it and we are in it all the time, we are in it, we are identified with it because see we think.

[GAP]... this yellow stuff is absolutely. It gives you also, to Me, nauseous a feeling of... most of these people, egoistical, have bad liver and also they have what they get as known as migraine and also they get all liver problems and this yellow colour specially is expressing their liver. Then they think on top of that, what's wrong in doing it? Already we are on one side and what's wrong, then we start drinking.

Because we must deny all that is good. Now let Me tell you one thing whatever things people do which are egoistical, you think that they do that destroys them. You see it's not a thing that they want to destroy themselves perhaps in a subtle way the ego wants to destroy itself. It is such a thing that they work it out such a sub human way. For example, for a person like I cannot understand a man who goes to a pub and sees another person coming in and falling down all over, you see such a man coming out then how do you get entertained it's like a lunatic asylum. I mean if you go to lunatic asylum and you see a lunatic coming out then you would not like to go inside. But this is I can't understand how human beings can conceive.

Now you know it very well that nobody so far has been even honoured because he is a drunkard. Has there been any one in the whole world? The whole world might preach but is there anybody honoured? In the history I would like to, anybody honoured? Any man who has deceived his wife and his married ten women has been honoured for that? Is there anybody honoured? I mean they say that's many geniuses, I call them `geni-asses' are like that he maybe. They are just like radiograms you see from there some music is coming but it doesn't do anything inside. And there if they become your models you might be become geniuses without even any genius in you.

So all fine models we set up but do we ever erect their statue? Do we garland them? Do we worship them? Why? Whatever you may say against Christ I don't say that to you. Anybody can stop you I mean because you are on your own. You see, on your own trip is one of the worst trips that I could think of. What have you found so far to be on your own? Nothing! You haven't found your own properties. You haven't found out your own making. You have not found out the beauty that you are. What are you? Will you go out anywhere without taking any money with you? You don't even have a ticket.

So just it's a joke about that you are on your own; you are not! You're not because your own is missing, is missing. It's not there. You have to find out that own. Our attention should be on that own and why? Why do we always indulge into these three complications all the time like even in the center? Even not so subtle? Because we feel and people do that's also a very modern, modern blessing, I would say that everyone feels the need to seek.

But when you see how Joan of Arc was punished and how kings happened in past, how people were mad and dogmatic and egoistic in the name of religion. You don't know what to do. You see the funny people, then you get all these horrible Gurus coming here and taking money from you and doing all kinds of things. You think what's all going on, then you see people, these are some giving sermons and lectures and all their private life. Nothing in them bubbling, nothing so special, nothing so sweet about that. Then you feel what is this going on? And that is the central path where you are really seeking and then you say `no let me do it myself.' I can assure you, you cannot. It's not meant to be, why? I mean if somebody says alright you come to my house. Just come down and you'll get it. Why do you want to do it still? What is the reason? There are many people who have been here who don't like when I tell them please give up this mantra of yours. It's not going to do any good to you. They say, “why Mātājī?" They become the mantra and the mantra itself is rumble tumble, you know. Nobody knows a word about Sanskrit; nobody knows a word about what it is means, where to take which mantra, there is no living process behind it, nothing. I'm shocked at it sometimes.

Sometimes I feel, “what are you taking upon yourself?" But when you tell about the reality and you tell them this is how it works out. And it has to work out within you, it is an internal working, it is an internal Yoga which has to work out, which you have to feel it yourself. You have to see yourself and you have to see it in others and you have to work it out. This is also because of the third, beside integration you have of your Sattva. Because artificiality starts from the very beginning the artificiality goes on and on till even you come to Sattva Guṇa which is the seeking. In seeking there's also artificiality.

Now if I may tell you that I can see you through and through, it's a fact. I can. Now you put up a show before Me whatever show you want but I can see it. But I do not show, I don't want to show it. It's alright sometimes I'm very unhappy when I see some people; I know there's a big problem about them.

Because you haven't got that experience but supposing when you become a Sahaja Yogi you experience it.

Those who have got it can feel it. You feel so concerned about things and sometimes you feel very elated to see some people are in a very good shape and some are in a very elated shape. I can see you through and through, I can see everything but still My love is such subtle. It doesn't allow Me to see, those things that will recede My attention. I can see My love. It tries to build [UNCLEAR]. Then My attention is a very special stuff you see it goes to a great extent. Now the love and the attention [UNCLEAR]. In My case you see My love is in My heart. This is My left side and this is My right side. It plays hand in hand with the attention. Now attention is in the center and My Sahaja Yoga is on the right hand side.

So the attention is also very stubborn. It plays to a point, it goes up to a point then it recedes back, again, it goes down. It's alright, you forget it. You just can't do it. Because you see love can also spoil so they balance like in a driving role I'm an accelerator and you can put an accelerator to a point but if it goes beyond a point then it might spoil the whole joy [UNCLEAR]. It has to keep in relation with the whole program, with all the people around. Now say there's a person who comes here. He's a very troublesome fellow, he has very bad vibrations. He drinks and he troubles. And he just comes here to disturb, he argues. One day I tolerate him. Second time I tolerate, the third time he doesn't turn up, just doesn't turn up people don't know how he didn't come. Oh! He was transferred. I didn't do that but it happens. Attention just to see. No one knows what happens to such a person it's just because what is in a [UNCLEAR]. Thousands and millions can be cured just like this. Why should God worry about people who are not interested in their own well being? He's not going to fall into [UNCLEAR]. He can create the whole universe; I mean He can create all other types of human beings.

So this is also there for attention. You see it's very proud stuff. It has its own protocol and these protocols are divided into these seven centers. And any one of these Deities specially Christ, the Lord as you call Him, He is really the Lord you know [UNCLEAR] if He gets angry, it's impossible.

He loves you; no doubt, but to a point. He loves Me much more than He loves you. If He finds that there is a problem for Me. He will have nothing to do with it. As long as you are receiving it and behaving yourselves alright. Same about Mahāvīra, same about Buddha. We are on one side, so they all support, they all help and all of them are absolutely in unison and has complete understanding. Nobody fights them. It's complete integration. Only I'm the person in between you see trying to say, “Alright, let's have it this way and that way. Let's do it." Like the chairman sitting on the chair telling alright, this is alright, please forgive! Please forgive him! But somehow it happens then for a Sahaja Yogi it is essential to know there are certain rules and regulations of Sahaja Yoga. Immediately your vibrations are less. I don't do anything. People say, “Mother you have taken away my vibrations?" I say, “why should I, why should I?" I'm fed up with this. I would love to give everything, all this to you but there's something wrong with you, what am I to do? Now supposing you put a lid on top of a pitcher and put it in the Ganges and say, “No! Ganges is not flowing and what am I to do?" Remove the lid! And it is very subtle, very subtle. You don't realise how subtle. It's only in vibrations. “Oh God! I've lost my vibrations." That's all.

So vibrations are the most important things for Sahaja Yogis. Most important thing is to achieve a complete state of vibrations when your realisation is completely integrated, your physical being, your emotional being, your spiritual being is complete [UNCLEAR]. It's a complete balance within you then only the vibrations flow and that's why Antar Yoga is important. It is not only lecturing will help you but of course there are vibrations, they work out. I try to through My vibrations of My words to [UNCLEAR] but that is to a point. You have to yourself take up and work it out the Antar Yoga, the inner Yoga. By working it out in a way that you sit down meditate and do various things that Sahaja Yoga has suggested.

Now I have you know that My grandchildren are realised Souls and they're very high quality realised Souls and they understand a lot about Kuṇḍalinī from early childhood. Yesterday one of the girls was feeling the left Nābhī very much, all over you see. She said now I will know how to do it and she brought pieces of paper and she tied them round her neck then she took vibrations so she said they are all passing into my this paper. Actually while doing she was giving bandhan to it she was moving her own vibrations around it, she was winding it and then she put them and she said alright put them in the fire and they burned them and her attention was reduced and everybody felt better. [UNCLEAR]. And now this girl is seven but I have a granddaughter she's had it too. She just comes on to the point. This is the problem and I have a grandson who just climbs on somebody and he clears them out. His vibrations are clear, people have seen and there are many children like that, who are born in this country. How are you going to understand it? Only by attending to some sort of a meditation course or something like that, paying for it? No, you have to be [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogis should realise one thing that they are the foundation of the new era. This is a very big responsibility and the foundations have to be very solid. They are made out of stones, no doubt but they have to be really solid; absolutely solid because they are in the foundation. They are chiselled out much more, they are to be cleared out much more but if the foundation is not good we cannot do it. A complete edifice cannot do anything about it. First, the foundation is important and that's why it's nice we have a few people but it's taking bit too much time, I think the foundation itself. Every stone has to look after themselves and has to work it out in a much deeper way and work out the vibrations and must evolve with methods, all the methods by which your depth is done. Nothing is important like this, that every one of you should be real quality. In the end, I will just tell you that the subtle part of these Chakras is how to understand that. The first side, the first entanglement with the Jaḍa-Prakṛitī as you call it, the matter is through the auspiciousness, auspiciousness. What is auspicious? What is not auspicious? If you understand the auspiciousness then you will understand that you can overcome the binding of the matter.

Now even auspiciousness can become quite maddening to people. I've seen it. I've seen people washing their hands sixty five times, pulling their hair hundred times. That's not the way but you must understand what is auspiciousness. For example, we can say how we sit in a program is not important so much, you may be little bit sometimes pushing back, pushing forward may be sitting anyway. That's not important but the auspiciousness of sitting is that have you reverence in your mind when you are sitting there should be reverence in you. When you are sitting for your meditation, are you taking upon yourself that “oh, I am going to achieve it today" or out of reverence you are sitting in a surrendering mood, in a surrendering position? The reverence part is very important. Once you start understanding reverence I've seen people putting both their legs close you see sitting down like that. I've seen people with very arrogant ways of sitting. For example, sitting like this you see before anybody who is supposed to be revered should not sit like this. If you sit like this then there is no reverence. This is you, sit when you are in authority of yourself with your both legs like this and sit in reverence. Now this pose is not important. You can be absolutely burning within you and could be sitting like so I'm again telling you auspiciousness is what is within you, what you think about it, what is happening to you? Are you feeling revered, reverence within you? Are you feeling the reverence by yourself? This is your own judgment. This is your decision. This is nothing to do with how you should sit, whether you sit on your one leg or two legs. This is not the most important but do you feel that by this you are relaxed and you are in a reverence position? This is the thing if you feel you are in a reverence position, that's all. That is what you have to do is to understand auspiciousness.

For an example, of auspiciousness. For example, now you are a wife in a family, you are a husband in a family; now how you treat your wife. Do you treat her like a goddess of the family, do you? Do you treat your husband as a man who brings God into family? You see this auspiciousness is the way, how you feel about, is the auspiciousness. How you feel about a chair. You sit on the chair; say for example now how do you feel about the chair? Do you feel it's a chair because it's very expensive; because it is your own or because somebody has given you? The reverence is there, about the chair, that no, it is the chair which was occupied by my mother, which is to be revered by my father, which is to be revered, or it is just a chair which is handled just for utility or you have just got it for a some sort of a [UNCLEAR] thing.

Wherever you sit, now say for meditation you are sitting in a place. I've seen people sitting all kinds of funny things, in the name of meditation. For example, they'd be smoking first, you see, now what are you going to do the smoke, what you call the ashtray would be just there and then they would put their feet like this. Now let us do the meditation. This aspect is very much missing here because people have lost all that. I think they had it there very much there, but it is lost and auspiciousness is a very subtle thing which gradually when you train yourself you will understand. And by auspiciousness you will understand the value of matter. You will not value the matter but the auspiciousness. To you the important thing will be say a hair from the head of Mohammed Prophet. It's much more auspicious then all the world put together.

See I went to Kashmir as I told you and just crossing through I asked the driver, I said, “What's this place?" He said “Why?" I said. He's telling Me, “What's this place? It's so beautiful?" My husband looked around; he said “What's beautiful about it? I don't understand there is nothing here, around." I said “No, there is nothing, but there's a place just there you can see that by where the hair of Mohammed Prophet." So that's it. No joy, beauty I could ever get it from anywhere from any place, could be very beautiful, you may feel that this is the heaven here, for Me it may not be, it's really that place where one hair of Mohammed Prophet is there, it's auspicious.

Auspiciousness is judged through vibrations.

So you can not say how are you to judge the auspiciousness? So through your vibrations you can so use your vibratory awareness for auspiciousness. That's how you can look after your left side which I have told you in a very short way. For that you don't have to read books and you don't have to say, “How many times, Mother, I should wash my hands? How many times I should give you these bandhan and all that?" It's only when you get your vibrations that's the most auspicious time. Keep it at that point, because again and through the rituals you'll go, hold it with your left hand and hold it with your right hand and all going wrong and then some, “Oh, Mother I did the wrong way, what is it?" That's all. The thing is the essence of it. If you get your vibrations alright, that's what is the auspiciousness. Maybe when you are sitting down you are not getting your vibrations, think that maybe something might go wrong with you. Is it I'm not revered properly? Let me have the vibrations. Why what's the matter, why is it that I am not feeling the vibrations? Well, that's how it should be. You can judge it through your vibrations. Now auspiciousness is very important for Sahaja Yogis because all that they do should be auspicious. Whatever is inauspicious you should not do.

Now you'll be surprised sometimes you might think that say going to a particular place but maybe you will find that you lost your purse or you cannot go there or may be that somehow or the other that the road is blocked, you might have to go back. Accept it. May be that is auspiciousness may be that you have to go that way, maybe there is somebody who is waiting for you there; you have to give your vibrations to that place. There is some need there because you are an instrument of auspiciousness. You have to spread the auspiciousness. And what is auspiciousness? It is nothing but the blessings of God. You feel the blessings of God. He blesses you all the time. His hand is all the time on you. He looks after you. When you seek auspiciousness you seek His hand. You are always under His hand. He is your shepherd. You're all the time under His guidance. That is what auspiciousness is, in the real sense. To feel it, all the angels around you. Everybody, that everybody is trying to bring you to reality that is the auspiciousness of it. Once you start doing it gradually you will aspire the joy of giving the joy of God's blessing to you. When you will feel His hands. It is not important that you become very successful person. I've seen such successful people in life, so-called `successful' so unhappy, so miserable, so terrible, so boring and so troublesome.

They are good for nothing. People say, “Oh! He has died, it's a good thing." They've been no good to anybody, nobody bothers about them. When they are in position people look after them once they are gone nobody even bothers about them. Auspiciousness give you right idea of Divine importance means where divinity flows behind you, goes around you and takes you around and gives you the complete joy, the movement of the wave. It's a beautiful thing to be auspicious. It takes you away from inauspiciousness when you ask for auspiciousness. But do not make a ritual out of it, which I want to tell you hundred and hundred and one times that do not make a ritual of anything because you deaden it like all other people have done it. I hope after My death you people do not do that. Because then it becomes a superstition.

Auspiciousness should never be confused with superstition. Because people were not that alert and not so subtle they could not make out what is ugliness, that is superstition and what is beauty that is auspiciousness, they made all mistakes and they committed all this craps. But you people be careful, because you are subtle people. Do not make it a superstitious thing but an auspicious thing. When you speak it should be auspicious. I've seen many people who have a habit of speaking very inauspicious things, especially with the left Viśhuddhi. Very inauspicious. Like we invite somebody to your house for a dinner party. And he says, “Oh! I saw such a crowd coming in I felt that there was a fire on." What a thing to say! He thinks he is smart, a smart man to say such a thing or he'll utter a very dirty joke at the time when there is a wedding going on. There are many people. You see the inauspiciousness can form such a Satanic force; most of the Tantrism has come out of it inauspicious. Do you know this that Tantrism is nothing but inauspicious mastery. Before the Deity, before the Gods, if you do something extremely inauspicious, you may lose the attention of the Gods and all its' protection to get out of it. Then you'll do all Satanic things. This is the basis of all the sub-Tantric.

What is hell? Is nothing but inauspicious living. Because the attention of this God is not on you, the blessings are not there. Then you will understand, that vibrations teach you auspiciousness. You think of somebody and you get stingy. Oh God! What a man he is? You may think he is a very big man.

Immediately know and he is inauspicious. Sahaja Yogis should not aspire for the worldly success and worldly things but for auspicious things, so that they get the blessings of God. Because those who have got also all kinds of worldly things are the most wretched souls ever living and are cursed with this Mother Earth. She is fed up with them. They are sinful. I do not want to tell you if people behave in this manner where they will go and what will happen because that's too much for Me to say at this time. But that is what it is about your I would say your great poet say Blake has talked about it and told about it. The Hell, he described about it.

So many of them have described I do not want to elaborate.

The other side is the right side how to get out of the second side of it. What is the subtle point of the right side? Is discipline. You see, first you have to say, England was a very disciplined country; over disciplined, artificially disciplined, militarily, regimentally. I do not mean that discipline at all. The discipline is within you, it comes automatically. Not regimentation, again the confusion should not be there because I'm going to make it extremely clear. It is very easy to confuse things because of these knots.

So when I say that you must have discipline, is an inner discipline, absolute inner. You don't have to do anything about it. Because it is built in because you start enjoying that discipline within you. Discipline in Sanskrit language we can call it as `Sad-āchārya', is good behaviour actually if you translate it. But it is much more than that. Sad-āchārya is much more. It is a discipline. What we get up in the morning? How do we meet in the morning? The sun has risen. What's wrong in getting up at 10 o'clock? Nothing wrong, but you are losing the beauty of the morning. Morning time is the time when the sun is coming, the rays are coming. That is the special time when the sun throws its' real rays of divinity. Actually the right side is the sun side. It starts with you rising in the morning, very much. But not the Haṭha yogi style where you become `bony' people. Where you fast for three hundred days and then three hundred days you go on shouting at people and three hundred days you start cursing them. I do not mean that. By discipline I mean that a certain amount of respect for yourself. It is a respect as there is auspiciousness. This is a respect of your own being because it is ego. How much you respect your ego, Let Me see? Assert your ego is different from respect ego, your Ahambhava, your dignity. Your position in life, how would you respect? Do you sell it for money? Do you sell it for a chair? Do you sell it for any positions in life? Kind of a discipline within yourself. Not to jabber too much, not to talk less. But that doesn't mean that you are trying sort of balancing it. It's something innately built in which can work out through Sahaja Yoga if you see your vibrations again. You have to be respected. In the first one, you have to respect and in the second one, you have to be respected. Respect yourself. People think that supposing if they don't bathe their body. Or must do it. What's wrong? Nothing wrong. If you do not going to respect yourself, nature is not going to respect you. You physically you should respect, mentally, emotionally. If say you, if you'd like to see pornographic photos. You have no respect for yourself. If you want to eat filth, you have no respect for yourself. You do not think much of yourself. You want to waste your eyes; you want to waste your attention. You should not like that is absurd, useless, frivolous. You shouldn't charge your Chakras with something nonsensical and filthy. When you start respecting yourself you will really know how to respect others. Those who cannot respect themselves cannot respect others. And respect that is good in others. And do not worry about their faults but respect them for their good so that you also have good in you and you respect yourself.

That is not asserting, this respect is never asserting. All it's very comforting, extremely comforting. A person who respects himself is the most congenial person to live with. He doesn't come forward too much neither he recedes back too much. He's just there. He provides you know he's there. You can always adore such a person. He doesn't do anything outwardly. He doesn't try to show off. He doesn't try to create sort of all rob out here you know. He's not boasting about himself. Ego can be easily handled if you respect yourself. Then you will not feel hurt. Because who can be insulting but yourself to yourself. Supposing there are some dogs barking at an elephant. He just, he goes on like that. Have you seen an elephant? Very interesting. He walks like this and he finds some dog barking, very nicely he puts them like that you see. Like a little child [UNCLEAR] his majesty.

So huge that the dog is alright. He is not bothered as to how they treat him. They bark at him and he just walks. That's why we say that an elephant is a very dignified animal. It walks with dignity. A person like that doesn't take to cheap fashions and cheap things. He is in his own dignity. A person like that doesn't take to cheap fashions or things like that. He's in his own dignity. He does not try; he does not try to adjust himself to the norms of things that they have created. You cannot play into the hands of these bogus people, who say that your weight should be, I don't know how much? And your this thing should be so much. All the women trying to do that.

Tomorrow they may come and say your hair should be so long.

So you become like this so all the women trying to do that. You must wear wigs, so everybody is trying to wear wigs. You don't play into their hands anymore once you start respecting yourself.

Like in India, they started a fashion of sleeves you see. They started first from here, so much sleeves.

They said so much sleeves, so much sleeves, then some said so much sleeves. And some said so much sleeves, you see it goes on.

So somebody asked Me what about you? I said I'm alright. From the very beginning, I'm going to happen that way only because it's too much to run this race. I cannot. Because I'm a tailor I have no time to waste for all this nonsense, why? What is the need? Whatever has been found out traditionally is accepted. And you will find all these fashions drop out just like that.

In our sarīs industry we have fashions coming. There were fashions of sarī where they wanted to have a mini sarī. You see whatever fashion [UNCLEAR]. You don't know what it is. It's very interesting.

They used to have mini sarīs. The mini sarīs used to be only up to this point. They started going up to this point, you know.

Some people tried to do it on all of them then they gave Me. This is nothing this doesn't look nice. And it was started by a company because they wanted to sell more young, you see. By mini sarīs they could sell more young and charge the same for a sarī because half sarī and you sell it for a mini. It's only mini and money is double. [UNCLEAR].

So the sarī remains the same. Then they started printing on front part of the sarī. It's the new fashion then another. I said nothing doing you better buy one traditional sarī it lasts you all your life. It was sorted out. All these things fall off you see. Like you in Victorian times they must have worked out many things it falls off then something falls off.

Something traditional that is there may not be useful to you but something eternally traditional will be there for you.

And that is really traditional. Whichever falls off goes off people find new replace and that they are no good they throw it away.

Now when you think that you are doing, for example nowadays people are putting those hair. What they are putting pins inside the cheeks. They are putting them I've seen, putting them in nose, putting a pin here, putting a pin here. This is all will go you see after sometime you'll see putting something in their hair. Let them do it. They are foolish people but this is nothing. They can do something in a very subtle manner. You see like you already have. Because Elizabeth Queen had some problem with liver in the back so they started [UNCLEAR] so everybody started. At the time of Victoria she shared some sort of a problem at the back here.

So she started wearing it so everybody started wearing it. For what? You have your attire, dress, sitting position. You are thinking itself is not fashion baggers. It is only fashion through your vibratory awareness.

Immediately if you read a book it comes on to the point and you see oh! It is not good but is this what truth is? Immediately you start studying the books you know which is the truth and which is not the truth because you don't read nonsense. Because you know it's all falsehood all story telling you do not want to read something nonsensical.

So you just understand the sense and the nonsense of it.

So it works out. And that's how when you start respecting yourself. Respecting your thoughts, respecting your inspirations, your dreams, your aspirations, your visions. Write them down. Whatever thought you get write it down. Whatever inspiration you get, write it down. Whatever visions you think you should have ten for yourself, write it down, all that you think that should be the future, write it down. And pray for it.

The greatest quality on this one is when you respect yourself when you respect yourself, you are respected, by whom? By the Gods, by the Divine force, by all the angels. And whatever you want to do will be done, then it comes. Thy will be done! But that will has to come out of respect for yourself. If it is coming out of some other considerations.

For example now in Bombay [Mumbai], they want to have an ashram. People have all funny ideas about ashram. They want to have an ashram, why having this ashram.

Some people are very clever I know all of them. Because they can make some money out of it. Foolish things as they are. Then some of them think that by staying there we can pass our old age very nicely. You see it will be a cheap thing, because Mātājī is not going to charge anything for stuff, so it will be a nice cheap thing. Let's buy one.

Some of them are thinking it's very good place where in young age we can go there and it will be a good idea, we can run away from work. We stay in the ashram and after all Sahaja Yoga won't be that hard work you see.

So it will be nice living there. All these considerations when they are in the minds of the people you'll never get your ashram. Take it from Me. We'll sleep till ten o'clock, who is going to wake us up? We'll do whatever we like in the ashram. We'll use it for our own purpose. We will not do any meditation. We will not do anything, whatsoever. We'll do no work at all. We will not help anything in the organizing of Sahaja Yoga or organizing people. We will not bring them. After all what will happen? You'll lose your vibrations.

If you respect yourself, expression of yourself must be respected. Tell your body to behave itself. Tell your mind to behave itself and tell your emotions to behave itself. I've seen people hankering after a girlfriend or a boyfriend and asking for this and asking for that. And then coming to Me and telling, “Mother, what can I do about this girlfriend or a boyfriend... or some sort of a thing like that?" All these things are not going to help you. You have to respect yourself. You are an entity by yourself. You are not going to bow down to anyone. You are not going to accept anything. You are not going to accept anything that is not respectable for you. And this is how you are going to manage your rights.

Now the center part is very important in your seeking. In your seeking you have to know that you are seeking your spirit. You are seeking that your attention should now go to your spirit. You are not seeking the spirit but you are going to become one with the spirit. That is your seeking is. For that, it is very important to know about your all Chakras. You must know how they are caught up and face up to it. You must face the truth. You have to be absolutely honest and truthful about it. That's the point in the center. If you are honest, the center point will work out. For example, I tell you, I cured a gentleman who was suffering from say, cancer. I cured him, alright. He's gone away and he didn't even write a letter of thanks. And if anybody asks him he says “Oh no, I'm still waiting." Four years passed, three years have passed. I'm still waiting for it. He wants to write in three months time. He has been dishonest to God. He should have told people “No, Mother has cured me." Then he gets back his cancer. And then he blames God for that.

So truth must be accepted. You have to be truthful and honest for the central path, absolute on the truth. This is the truth we have found out, we have felt the vibrations. You are not feeling the vibrations or there is some mixture. Yes I'm catching on this. There are many people who say, “No Mother, I'm not catching." I know what is happening to them. They tell lies. Who are you telling lies?

Contents: 1978-10-05 Talk to Sahaja Yogis (4th Day of Navarātri), Dharma, London, UK

That, the central one [channel] is the sustaining power, means is the power by which we evolve that means we get our sustenance as it is. This sustenance that we have got as a human being, when it is to be manifested on the five elements that we have within ourselves, the source is there, but we have to reach it through its different elements. When this interchange takes place or we can say when we have to put this force outside, that is to be done through establishment of Dharma on these.

Like a superimposition or you can say the connection. Like you can say, say there is sun. Sun is the source of light and the source of light has come to this earth which is created out of the five elements.

So the sun's rays have to come. But when they come inside, in this move, what do they do? They enlighten this world. But it's only possible if there is Dharma, means the light is there, the rays are there. The rays can be obstructed by many things. If the rays are obstructed, then there is adharma.

So the source of Dharma, the spreading of Dharma and ultimately the manifestation onto the five elements is a complete thing that is Void. This play goes on within us. Our evolutionary power which has worked from the very beginning, from matter, when the matter got itself organized then we had carbon as tetravalent, then from carbon the life started, all this is the work of the sustaining force. Then we became human beings.

Now we have got ten Dharmas within us which we have to keep alright. These are the main ten commandments. These ten commandments we have to look after. And these are looked after by the people who are the primordial masters, as you call them `incarnations' like Rāja Janaka, like Moses, like Socrates, like Nanaka, the last one was the Shirdi Sāi Nāth. This is the principle is there, is the primordial master. Now, there is another principle that is in there by which you receive it, this is called as the disciple principle, the primordial disciple principle, represented by the moon and the sun, presided by Buddha and Mahāvīra.

So, this disciple element if it is not in you, you cannot receive it. But when you start getting, receiving it, this Dharma gets into you and then you become the Guru. You become the Guru when this is completely sustained.

It starts as a disciple and then ends up as a Guru. This is the Void part within us.

First of all, as the human beings are, we do not observe the first ten basic principles. In this country for example, or in the West, we have, we observe the five of them because of law. In the countries like India they observe the rest five, because of their society.

So in any way we are lacking some of them. Five are missing here or five are missing there. This is the situation of the Dharma today. The Gurus and the disciples they do this connection and then the matter, which is created out of five elements, get vibrated.

You can enlighten the matter. When the Dharma is complete you can enlighten the matter. The rituals that these people used which was called as Siddhu Dharmic rituals they call it Dudharmic, these are the deeds of Dharma, is to worship, to do Pūjā and to pray to God and to do all these things, prayer. All these things after some time became absolutely dead in it, because there was no realised Soul as a Guru and no realised Soul as a disciple.

So it was just a joke going on, you see. It has no meaning. Supposing I tell somebody who is not realised to give himself a bandhan, he cannot.

[Aside:] [UNCLEAR].

So this Void is so important because that is how you establish your receiving [UNCLEAR ends/eggs] in your being, the five elements within you, meaning the five elements that exist. In Sahaja Yoga we try the other way round stuff...

[Aside:] [UNCLEAR].

Now, what to do? This Dharma is all ruined. It is. There is another way: all these elements are represented in your Chakras, different Chakras.

So why not take the Kuṇḍalinī through these Chakras and enlighten the elements themselves? Even there is no Dharma in a person you can do it. But then the Kuṇḍalinī goes back to all the places which you have missed. But if you have been to some Guru and you have bent your head before him, then the Kuṇḍalinī stops at a point. It doesn't move it goes here, there.

It just stops, it doesn't move, very difficult. You have seen the Void pulsating so badly. It just doesn't rise it always goes back into that bottomless pit as you can call it. It's always sucked into that again and again if you have not a good...

So we try to remove the Guru from your mind by so many ways. Deny them completely, absolutely so that they get out of your minds.

And again raise the Kuṇḍalinī and from the innermost, the Brahma Nāḍī as they call it, the innermost Nāḍī, the Suṣhumnā Nāḍī, otherwise you cannot reach there, from outside you go on cleansing, cleansing, cleansing until you reach there, you find you cannot pierce it. But outside cleaning helps you in one way that the Brahma Nāḍī becomes wider, the Nāḍī that is in the center of Suṣhumnā. If you, there's less pressure then it is a wider one so for Kuṇḍalinī rising there is a better chance.

But in Sahaja Yoga, subtlest of subtlest Kuṇḍalinī we catch and thread it microscopically inside and take it out. And by taking it out what happens? These Chakras definitely get enlightened, they expand.

That's how we expand the Suṣhumnā. Expending Brahma Nāḍī. This was, this is the trick of Sahaja Yoga. Because this cleansing is going to take too much time as you say. The whole thing is to be cleansed out and then it is to be released and then you have to meet some Guru who has to take it.

So this Sad-āchāra [virtue, correct action], whatever Buddha has said, the right, the right action, the right that he has said is the one that is done. That's what it described. But that doesn't work out with human beings, it's meant for people who are realised Souls. Most of these religions are meant for realised Souls, you can find out.

Actually realised Souls only took to religion before. Those who were born again, Dvijah, Brahmins, who took to religion. But the time has come for people who are not realised also to take to religion and to receive his blessings. Sahaja Yoga is the only way one can do it, is to take it in the subtle most inner most Nāḍī, enlighten every Chakra, increase the size of the Chakra, pierce a little bit here, then again raise another thread, then again the third thread, like that, go on expanding.

[Aside:]: This is it, you're alright... Better.

This is how it works out. In our case, I did the same, I mean just talking to you.

Now the main thing about Void one has to remember: there is no rationality. It's the hunger inside the stomach and hunger has no rationality: if it is hungry it will eat. It has to eat, no rationality can satisfy it: if you are hungry, you're hungry. And when you have spiritual hunger, the same hunger becomes subtler and subtler ultimately it becomes the spiritual.

First the hunger starts of, say, food, of primitive things. Then hunger for sex life, hunger for women, hunger for men, then for power, then for money. Then the hunger for spirituality starts.

When that hunger is concentrated and starts rising without any rationality about it: you don't know why you are seeking. Like Buddha he had everything, he had a wife and his father had provided him with everything. Still his heart was seeking. Why was he seeking? It's the hunger that is not rationality, that isn't explained.

And then this hunger starts and the way we quench that hunger is Dharma. The way we keep it intact is the Dharma. Supposing you are hungry: you go and eat some poison. Then it is adharma. I know you are hungry but you have to eat proper food. The knowledge about that is Dharma: what food you must eat, what book you must read, what people you must meet, how you should live, what should be your attitude towards others, others' things, other's wife, children, daughters. Everything related to the other, all that knowledge is Dharma. But it has no rationality. Like, you see, a man ran away, say, with somebody's daughter, he would say: “What's wrong?" I cannot answer. I cannot answer. If a man has bad relations, say, with his own mother. He says: “What's wrong in this?" You cannot answer, there's no rationality. It is wrong, it's a fact: “Though shall not commit adultery." Christ has said even to have adulteress eyes is wrong. But at the time, it was Christ who came. At the Moses time people did not know this eyes business, but Christ would see that and He had said that “Those who have even adulteress eyes are committing the sin." So, how to deal with others? Say, materialism now: you are so attached to matter is also problem with the Nābhī. Materialism is a false identification with matter: all false [UNCLEAR word] with matter, with human beings, with books, with all that is created is the problem of Nābhī so you can understand how important it's now. And the one that prescribes it is the Dharma, is the Guru. They did not come like Gurus to convince you and argue out with you, they said: “Thou shall not..." That's the commandment.

Commandment means there's not to reason why. It's a commandment. There's no rationality in Dharma.

Now, the one who is Dharmic does not think about sin at all. Now, I'll tell you about Myself, say, I go to a party and they start a cabaret dance. I do not think about it whether it is illegal or whether it is wrong with this adharma, nothing. I do not think but immediately I vomit. My grandchildren, you see, we one day were watching the TV and three of them came vomiting. I went and saw the TV and it was a horrid thing going on. They just came and started vomiting. There's no rationality about it: it is again human sustenance. It is subhuman.

Like animals cannot feel the dirt or filth we can. We feel horrible smell coming, but those who work, say, in filth cannot feel any smell. If you go near a factory where sugar is produced you feel terrible there get the smell of this molasses and you can't bear it, but those who are working there, are so much used to it that they cannot feel it. Those who live in sin cannot feel the sin after some times, they become insensitive. But sin is a sin.

So the insensitivity when we develop within ourselves we become adharmic.

When we are sensitive about it we are Dharmic.

On the left hand side, the intuition about it, the auspiciousness of it, is the thing that one has to learn: auspiciousness. Housewife is to be respected, honoured and comforted because it is auspicious. A wife has to be respectable. A housewife doesn't, hum. It doesn't look nice for a housewife, you see, to be dressed in a funny way.

Once the chief cabinet secretary from India, his wife had come and she used to think she's very young and smart or something. She was wearing these tied jeans and things like that, you see and the poor husband, you see, looked this side, that side. He didn't know what to do and she's, I mean, very big nonsense, why? And she came down in London, she was thinking how she's great, smart, thin. And they were invited to a dinner, you see, it's real thing, you know, real thing that has happened. And when this man was to go from somewhere and she had to go from somewhere else.

So, when he went there, he said: “Where is my wife?" They said: “She hasn't come yet." He said: “No she was to come, she's not like that, she's much smarter than me, she must have arrived." He looked around, he couldn't find her. And there was a lady standing, he said: “There your secretary has come, she's standing there." And he didn't know what to say because she really looked like a secretary and not his wife.

So the housewife has to be dignified and respectable and she is to be respected. It's the part of that auspiciousness. And the wife, that essence of a wife is the governing so you can imagine those women who stand for lib and all that those who try to sort of say that: “Why should we be respectable if the husband is not, if he is carrying on with other women I should also carry on with other men." You must know that you are being holding that great position in the stomach, on the left hand side of every human being. And that's why the left Nābhī catches in England so much and America, I think it's missing it already.

So, that is to ask to, say, to a man, you see, who is so developed and so he thinks no ends of himself, you see and the civilization where work is so important and money is even more important than work is, [UNCLEAR] to think that a housewife's respectability is so important in the play of the universe? Yes it is. Where the women become disrespectable the whole, you see, that's the breaking point of the society.

There the human beings will start destroying. That's the real atomic bomb you've got. But it is so, I cannot rationalise it, it is made like that.

All the Gurus have said: “You should not drink." Even Moses. Every one of them have said it: “You cannot drink” means take any kind of a alcohol or any things that will take away your awareness because that is the place of your awareness. In the sense that whatever goes wrong here spoils your attention and if your attention is spoiled your awareness is spoiled. The attention is here. The attention is in the stomach, in the Void.

So, how important is your attention. Wherever you put your attention, that works out. When you are realised, then your attention is realised.

Wherever you put your attention it works like a spade, it works like a sword, it works like a loving hand, it works like kiss, it works like a comforting heart. It is an enlightened attention in your stomach.

You see the mother has a child in the stomach, how it looks after the child, a little baby, how it protects. All that is there, is given to us through our Gurus, our own beings which are our masters, true teachers. The stomach teaches you, your stomach is your Guru. Amoeba became a human being through this stomach only, through the hunger it had. If it did not have hunger it would not have evolved. And the hunger teaches you and when you learn it properly then you become the Guru yourself of the whole world and the universe.

Void, that' why, is very important and when you have had bad Gurus, you've read horrible books, accepted them as facts and truths, then your Void gets spoiled, your attention gets spoiled. It goes to wrong things. Attention, when it works through your eyes, can also go to wrong things. Everywhere wherever attention moves, it can do wrong things if it is adharmic. But as I said, there is no rationality about it. Dharma is to be accepted. You cannot rationalise it. To a point one can, but how far it harms you, you cannot rationalise. Then the curse of Divine comes on you.

Any kind of fanaticism or identification with one ideal, like Muslims thinking they are Muslims, they're adharmic. They're not Dharmic. Dharma is that you have to respect all the religions. It is a sin not to respect any incarnation. It is a sin not to respect any religion. And to identify with one and denounce of other.

So, give up all these false Dharmas and come to that one Dharma which evolves you, which gives you light by which you can see the oneness among all these religions. As I've said before, that they are like beautiful flowers on one tree, nurtured by one sap, adorned by one tree, but fools take the flowers out, say that these are our flowers and kill them. And when these flowers die, ugliness becomes the so-called religions.

So, in essences, respect all the religions, all the incarnations. Fanaticism is absolutely against Nābhī and against the Void, because the whole balance of your Void has to be kept. In a very subtle and subtler form you'll be sticking onto it.

Say, you are born a Christian, so whatever you may try you can never get out of this feeling that we are Christians. You'll have much more respect for Mary in heart than for, say, Lakṣhmī. While, you are a Hindu, you will have much more respect for Rādhā than for Mary. That will be lingering on and lingering on.

When you develop that balance alright then you are Dharmic. That balancing has to be done.

So one realisation is within you like this and one realisation is this way, among you. And this is Dharma.

Among all of you there has to be another integration, a complete integration of understanding. Whether you are white, black or red. Whether a Hindu, Christian or anything. You must know that there is only one way that is the living way of evolution and that there is only one

God. And all of them [Incarnations] are aspects of the same God and there is no quarrelling among them. Why are you quarrelling? This goes against the Void.

Complete integration works out in the stomach. And when you are completely integrated, you'll be surprised, rationality drops out. Automatically it drops out. Rationality kills this integration, because if your heart says something rationality says: “No, it's not right." But, if you take out your rationality there and just see for yourself, then wisdom comes in and you just do it whatever is wise and good for your spirituality.

[Aside:] How are you now? Better.

So, Void we use in Sahaja Yoga in many ways. First of all, we have to first of all see the Void of a person, how he has got the Void. You can see it, very easily because it might be pulsating. Maybe not be in your presence, I don't know, but in My presence it does. But immediately you can feel the Void. The Void you feel here, on the here or on here. Now, just see these are the bases of all the Chakras. You feel the Void here, or here. Bases of all the Chakras you can feel, so you can understand how important is the Void.

Now, if it is catching here anywhere or catching here, then you have to ask the person about these various points: whether he's a materialist, whether he is a fanatic. But these questions you cannot ask out directly like say: “Are you a fanatic?" You hit Me hard. [Laughter.] Not to be very, very clever about it. Now how to ask a person whether you are a fanatic or not? Very easy. Say, he's a Muslim.

So, you just ask him to put your hand, saying that: “Should I put some Kumkum on your head?" His fanaticism will come out immediately: “I can't do this!" If he is a Christian, then you just ask him: “Can you put a Swastika on your head?" Cross he'll accept. Swastika: “No, I'm not Hitler!" That's how you can make it out whether he's open minded or not by suggesting things like this, you see.

So then he comes out with his fanaticism. Then what do you do? You do not condemn him as a fanatic, no. That won't be Sahaja style. You say: “Alright, alright, I've got it. The cross, would that be alright? Alright, take the cross.

So, if I say that cross was first Swastika then it became cross, will you be angry?" Gradually it will work out.

But if he's a fanatic, you go outside and tell Muhammad to be him nicely. He will do the job. Shoe-beating is very necessary for all fanatics. Nice shoe-beat. But fanatics are one of the most difficult persons.

Then those who have been to other Gurus also will be showing up. These days you don't get fanatics so many to come to Sahaja Yoga. Mostly they are Guru beaten. You see there are [UNCLEAR frocks] beaten people, there are Guru beaten also. I mean, mostly they are Guru beaten. [Laughter.] Then you ask them: “Have you been to a Guru? What your Guru has done? This, that." If you tell them sometimes they can be fanatically attached to their Gurus. Then they might be angry. They'll do it, but what to do? It is sometimes, It's the food?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes It is...

Shri Mataji: It's good they are looking after the food very nicely. [Laughter.] Otherwise if you have to cook also then all your attention is there.

So it's much better that your ashram. [Laughter.] No headache, nothing, your are having a nice time here and their food is ready, now serve, come along, have your food.

So, the right time we are talking about Void. [Laughter.] I'll sit here.

Sahaja Yogi:... the Nābhī satisfied.

Shri Mataji: Yes, make the food also Dharmic and everything. Good. How are you now? Better?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: How are you now? [GAP during the meal] It's such a wide subject that I cannot cover it in one lecture, you could write many books, but the most important thing about Void is that, that once you are enlightened you become Dharmic yourself. The Dharma starts flowing through your hands. These vibrations have a capacity to establish Dharma.

So, when you put your hands now towards the five elements. Say you put your hands towards the water or you put your hand in the water. The water gets enlighten, vibrated, but if somebody takes that water it will establish Dharma into that person. Supposing somebody is a drunkard, now you put this vibrated water to him, give him to drink. He feels nauseated after drinks. He'll throw away the drinks, then he will stop.

Some of you have noticed that when you came to Me first you felt terrible nausea within you and you felt like vomiting, sometimes you felt uneasy, you see.

So these vibrations through the water now pass into your stomach and they establish Dharma there, the proper relationship. It so happens that if you go on taking this water the right side is that physically you feel alright and the water can give you such a power, that you can never get cancer of the stomach, cannot get any trouble with the stomach. But left side side, which has greater power, this water, that it cleanses you, your sins and puts your attention, fixes it up on Dharma.

So, your attention doesn't do, you're not tempted, that's how you've seen people who come to Sahaja Yoga can give up drinks easily. Because it turns your attention towards Dharma, then if you want to take drinks, you just don't feel like after some times. You feel like vomiting, you feel like headache and all that.

And it happens so easily. Now we know somebody here he gave up all his drinking in no time. Otherwise it's not possible to do that, but because of this happening in the stomach, now you cannot drink.

Just imagine. This is the great thing about Void is that once you are enlightened you can give something to the nature. You have been drawing everything from nature so far. First time now you start giving something to the nature. And what you give to the nature is so nourishing to it also. Supposing you give vibrations to, say, fruits, or to trees, or to flowers. You will find they will be ten times more, the growth will be much more, they will be lustrous. And they will be very juicy, very tasty and the whole atmosphere will be different. Maybe after sometimes these trees if they will be standing there everybody passing that way if he touches that tree they will get the vibrations also.

So maybe a tree may become a curer, something like that. All those waters and all that, we talk of `curing water' are nothing but vibrated waters. They are vibrated.

So, if the vibrated water goes inside, you get cured.

So, this is on the left hand side it works that it establishes your religion within you.

All the problems we have had is all completely cleansed out by them. In the same way if you enlighten a light now here. You have seen so many times how you can enlighten a light.

So it starts going, see, both are there but this one is working a bit. That one also is going a little bit but this one makes a [UNCLEAR] taking out the blackness. It is because it is enlightened. That is also enlightened, now we also? But this one actually in the hand is taking away the... If you see these lights you can feel they're like pulled out like this. As if, you see, the realised lights are pulled out like this, straight. And, I've been to some of these churches where they have these lights and as soon as I enter these like they're all going like `kakakakakak'. It is interesting to see how they start suddenly glowing like that. But people do not notice it because they do not understand why it has happened, but you can understand that.

So, if you put the light, enlightened light, say, yesterday, the other day, we had that Havana, is the enlightened light. Havana we had made it enlightened, Jāgrut. Then whatever we put into it, you see, our badhas, it burns whatever we wanted to burn away. What is the beauty of fire is, that, say, if you have some mixed up gold and you put into fire, you find the gold will be separated and the filth or dirt or whatever is inside, it will be separated.

So, this quality which is the right hand side quality of the fire is becomes in the left hand side is that when you go near such a fire or you use such a fire or a light, then what happens that whatever is unwanted in you is burned away and you get the pure thing.

So it purifies. Fire is a purifier and it is a melter, it melts your heart. This fire melts your heart and you feel the compassion.

So that's how every element can be enlightened and this is the work done in that Void by your Kuṇḍalinī. Kuṇḍalinī goes to various places and She enlightens all these elements in your stomach. In the stomach the basic principle is of water. The Void is covered with water and in the water there is salt and the salt is nothing but is the Dharma. Is the Dharma, the salt. That's why when we give you salt what happens the salt that is vibrated goes and helps you in the stomach. And salt shows its own nature there by absorbing all that is in you which is, we can say, in the mobile there. A person, supposing is, hum, has got a cancer of throat, then he should take salt. If he has a right hand side problem he should take sugar.

So these are the two qualities, you see, the five of Dharmas are done by salt and five by sugar. And these are the best solvents in the world as you know.

So, all these three things put together water, then salt and the sugar, they solve the problem of the Void.

That's why we use these two things. If you remember Christ has said that you are the salt. That means you are the Gurus. Salt is the Guru. That's why he said: “You are the salt." Because you are the Gurus. And salt dissolves into water. Water is the Dharma. They are the absorber, always have a water of crystallization. The, it cannot without, the salt cannot exist without water.

So, the water and salt put together means the ocean.

So Void is the ocean within us. That's why it is called as Sāgar. That means all the oceans of the world are in our stomach and if you want to hear them sometimes you can put your thumb in My ears and you can hear coming [UNCLEAR as one sound...]. You can hear it.

So this is all the times socially churned and out of it comes out all that is good and whatever is bad is burnt away or washed away or made to, whit the air, it is made to be swept off.

So the air element is also there, air element that we see all around. [GAP] So the vibrated air is a very important thing and it helps a lot.

[GAP] So I've talked to you about all the [UNCLEAR] of the fifth Ākāsha, the ether you can say. That works out when you are a realised Soul. Then you, you also vibrate the Ether. That's how our, mean, collective work is done, through the Ether, you see. Now, supposing I want that you should get a proper seat or [UNCLEAR] or something.

Anything materialistic you can say, “oh, my chair is going down there, how is it?" I have to just worry about it, immediately it'll go [UNCLEAR order some set] [snaps her fingers]. Alright? So, Saint Michael and Saint Gabriel, both of them say now: “What should we do? We must find out a proper place." So, they take down into consideration. They bring him down here and find out a nice [UNCLEAR place] is all done through Ether.

Ether, is the..., when it is enlightened, you see, then it communicates the ideas, the things that shall be done, or the desire, Divine desires are carried out. And then you are placed in His hands sometimes you are surprised: “How am I here? How are you here? How do I meet you? I mean, I was not to come this side and then now how did I come?" All these things can be done through the Ether which, even we get our television and everything through Ether. But on the television, if the Ether, if you, say, enlighten then it will so happen, that a bad [UNCLEAR] program won't materialise. It won't materialise.

It can work very dynamically. You cannot imagine how these miracles take place. And real miracles are felt, of course we do feel the miracles of all the other elements but it's not so obvious as that of the Ether because you're suddenly surprised: “How this...? Why?" And it's everybody's surprised at it: “oh, here in the plane, you get all this." So, this is done by Ether and it is so miraculous. It is so miraculous that it is hard to believe that it is possible.

Now, this Ether works day time and night time. It doesn't take rest anywhere, you see. It's all the time working for us, means it's all the time ready to work out the Divine work. All the time it is ready to work out the Divine work. It doesn't wait. It doesn't wait for anyone to give orders or anything, it's just, just waiting there. As soon as it sees that this is desired, alright, nothing is to be told, just to desire and you'll say that: “Oh, what will be happening to such and such person?" Finished, it's done. It is being transmitted.

The same Ether that transmits the, what you call?, the air transmissions which you receive on the radios, radio transmissions. The same one, when enlightened, does all this job. He works it out everything.

Everything that you want it works it out. And there's how the angels show their [Shri Mataji searches the word in Marathi] miraculous feats. But it is worth noticing all that and watching it and witnessing it and noting it down: “Oh, how it helped and how it worked out!" It also, ether when enlightened, brings people closer to Divine Power. It arranges how [UNCLEAR].

But, now, one would ask what is the necessity for God to have such complicated methods of `enlightening the matter'? Why not it has already the enlightened matter? It's the question one should ask, I mean, I'm asking as you people are there, so I'm asking you. Let's see the answer.

[GAP] That's a problem. Yesterday I told you to say you are not guilty.....

Be joyous, be happy for what God has given you.

Watch the birds in the morning time. See the flowers in the morning time. What do they have? Just standing in the sun, in the rain, just facing the nature all the time. Imagine the delicate petals of the flowers. Would they show any signs of negativity or of aggression? They only emit fragrance. Till they live they will emit the fragrance. When they will die, they're not bothered.

(likely)... gives us our evolutionary ascent. This central force as [UNCLEAR actually shown] here, is first in the residual form kept in the triangular bone and is called as Kuṇḍalinī. The word Kuṇḍalinī in the Sanskrit language means, Kunda means..... Now this is the residual force.....

..... we can say. That is all your subconscious. All your lives, even from amoeba to [UNCLEAR these days]. Whatever you've being doing, whatever had been your search, whatever lives you have had, whatever genes you'd passed through. Like we can say, if you can say a lion, it is all recorded.....

Contents: 1978-10-14 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Bīja Mantras, Śhrī Lalitā, Śhrī Chakra, First Western Seminar, East Hampstead Park (near Wokingham), London, UK

When the Kuṇḍalinī rises it makes sounds. And the sounds that are heard in the different Chakras can be pronounced in the following way, these pronunciations are being used in the phonetic language of Devanāgarī, which means `the language spoken by the Devas.' At the Mūlādhāra, where there are four petals, the sounds are: vum, śhum, ṣhum, sum. Out of which the last, ṣhum and sum sounds are very close, but the difference is, when the snake hisses it makes this sum, the third sound.

So, vum, śhum, ṣhum, sum.

At the Swādhiṣhṭhāna, where there are six petals, it makes sounds, six sounds: bum, bhum, mum, yum, rum, lum.

Maṇipūr it has ten petals. It makes the sounds dum, dhum, num, tum, thum, dum, dhum, nnum, pum, phum.

At Anāhata there are twelve petals. It makes the sounds km, kum, gum, ghum, ṅgum, chum, chum, jum, jhum, ñgum, tum, thum.

At the Viśhuddhi, where there are sixteen petals, it makes the sounds of all the vowels, a, ā, i, ī, u, ū, ṛ, ṝ, ḷ, ḷ., e, ai, o, au, ṁ, ḥ. At the Āgñyā Chakra it makes ha, ksha.

At the Sahasrāra one becomes thoughtless and no sound is made, but the pure Anāhata, meaning the throbbing in the purest form as in the heart is all [UNCLEAR lub-dub, lub-dub, lub-dub].

When all these sounds are sounded together and pass through the spiral of the body, if the body is like a conch, the sound that comes out of the synthesis is Om. Like the seven colours of the sun ultimately become white rays, or you can say the golden coloured rays.

There are three Granthis, means the knots: the Brahmā Granthi , the Viṣhṇu Granthi and the Rudra Granthi.

With Agni, means fire, when the Brahmā Granthi meets between the Kuṇḍalinī, Mūlādhāra Chakra and the Swādhiṣhṭhāna, means Mūlādhāra Chakra, Mūlādhāra and Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra, then Agni Brahmā Granthi is established.

Viṣhṇu Granthi when mixes up with the Sūrya, that is between the Nābhī and the Hṛidaya Chakra, Sūrya Viṣhṇu Granthi is established.

When Viśhuddhi and Āgñyā auras meet, then Chandra Rudra Granthi is established.

Altogether there are fourteen Nāḍīs. The names are: Alambusi, Kuhu, Vishvodhari, Varuna, Hastajihva, Yashaswati, Ashvini, Gandhari, Pusha, Śhankhini, Saraswatī, Iḍā, Piñgalā, Suṣhumnā.

Apart from two Chakras, which are Sūrya and Chandra, there are nine other Chakras: Mūlādhāra Chakra, Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra, Maṇipūr Chakra, Anāhata Chakra, Viśhuddhi Chakra. Lambikā Chakra, this is also called as Haṁsaḥ Chakra, Āgñyā Chakra. Between Āgñyā and Sahasrāra there are two other sub-Chakras, known as Nāda, Bindu.

So we have: Mūlādhāra, Swādhiṣhṭhān, Maṇipūr, Anāhat, Viśhuddhi, Lambikā, called as [UNCLEAR], called as Haṁsa, Āgñyā, Nāda, Bindu, Sahasrāra.

Apart from that, there are nine Chakras on the sides, like Śhrī Lalitā.

And they have different yoginia, yoginis, means the powers, the Shaktis, guiding those nine Shakti Pīṭhas, or you can call them as Avaran Nava Chakras.

The first one is Śhrī Lalitā, the Goddess Śhrī Lalitā, which is the Goddess of beauty. She is the joy giving, Sarvānanda-māyā. Gives the joy from everything. In every created world, in every particle, in every form, there is a power which gives us joy. This power is the joy, is the power of Śhrī Lalitā. She is called as Mahā Tripūra-sundarī, Para Para Ati-rahasya Yogini. Means Para Para Ati-rahasya, the one who knows the secrets. The Para Para means the one that is beyond of the beyond, the secrets of that area. The one who knows is Śhrī Lalitā, who is the Yogini. At this state She is Bindu Sarvānanda-māyā, She is the dot which is joy giving.

Second power, or Āvaraṇa, means the enclosure, is like a triangle. She is Sarvasidhhipradha. She is the one who gives all the siddhis. She has got three sides. She's called as Tripūramba: Kameshwari, [UNCLEAR Buddhveshwari], Bhagamalini are the three yoginis.

Third one is called as Atharva Sarvarogahara, this is another enclosure. The name of the Goddess is Tripūrasiddha Atirahasya, meaning these Goddesses know the deep secrets of all the siddhis. The Chakra is called as Sarvarogahara and the enclosure is called as Ashta.

The eight powers are called as VagaDevatā, means the power of the speech. First is Washini, means which attracts, Kameshwari which excites, Modini which makes you happy, Vimala which makes you clean, Aruna which gives you colour of the face, Jayani which gives you a feeling of victory, Sarveshi which connects you to everyone, Kaulini is the one which gives you boons.

The fourth enclosure is called as Antardashar. Chakra of this enclosure is called as Sarvarakshakari, the one that protects. The Goddess it's called as Tripūramalini.

The powers are: Sarvagnya, the one which is all knowing, SarvaShakti, is all powerful, Sarveshvariprada, the giver of all the bounties, Sarvagñyānamayi, the knower of all the knowledge, Sarvavyadinivashini, the destroyer of all the diseases, Sarvadharaswarūpa, the support [UNCLEAR of all/or all], Sarvapapahara [Devī], the destroyer of all the sins, Sarvānandamayi, the one who makes everyone joyous, Sarva-raksha-swarupini, the one who protects all of them, Sarvepsitaphalaprada, the giver of all the phalas, means fruits, rewards.

The fifth enclosure is called as Bahirdashar Sarvartha Sādhaka. Bahirdashar is the name of the enclosure and Sarvartha Sādhaka is the Chakra's name. Tripūrakshi, Tripūrashri is the name of the Goddess.

She has powers: Sarvasiddhiprada, She gives all the siddhis, Sarvasampathapradha, She's the one who's giver of all wealth, Sarvapriyankari, She's the one who is beloved of all, Sarvamangalakarini, She's the one who gives all that is auspicious, Sarvakāmapradha, the one who gives all of our desires, Sarvadukhavimochini the one who is the destroyer of all our pains, Sarvāmṛutushamani, the one who, who pacifies the dead, Sarvavighnatanivarini, She is the one who is the remover of all the hurdles, Sarvāngasundari, the one who's all, who makes every side of life happy, Sarvasaubhagyadāyinī, the one who is the giver of good fortune.

The sixth enclosure is known as Chaturdashar Sarvasaubhagya. Tripūravasini is the name of the Goddess, Chaturdashar is the name of the enclosure and the Chakra's name is Sarvasaubhagyadāyinī. The Goddesses' name is Tripūravasini.

The powers are: Sarvasamkshobhini, the one who burns off everything, Sarvavidravini, the one who can [UNCLEAR perverse], Sarvakarshini, the one which attracts everything, Sarvahaladini, the one who is the giver of joy, Sarvasammohini, the one who can entice the [UNCLEAR world], Sarvasthambhini, the one who makes everyone alerted, [Sarvajumbhini], Sarvavanshakari the one who is the, who is the controller of all, Sarvaranjani, the one who entertains all, Sarvonmadini, She's the one who gives all the special joys, Sarvarthasadhini, the one who gives the meaning of all things, Sarvasampattipuruni, the one who gives all the well-being, Sarvamantramayi the one who is residing in all the mantras, Sarvagandakshayankari the one who destroys all the dualities of life.

The seventh Avaran, or enclosure, is called as [UNCLEAR Ashtadara]. And the Chakra of this Avaran is called as Sarvasamkshobhanikara. Here She is called as Tripūrasundari.

She's the one who gives the beauty to women, to be attractive wives. Ananga Kushumadhini, She smells of many flowers; Ananga Mekhaladhini who is the wisdom, solid like a rock in the family. Ananga Madanadhini, the one who is attractive. Ananga Madanatura [UNCLEAR Devī], the one who gives desire to meet. Ananga Rekhadhini, the one who destroys the different boundaries. Ananga Veghini Devī, the one which gives you speed. Anangankushadhini, the one who gives power of Ankusha, means the controlling of man. Ananga Malini Devī, the one which is very gracious.

Eighth enclosure is called as Shobhashadara. The name of the Chakra is Sarvashaparipuraka. The Goddesses' name is Tripureshvari.

She's the one who has got sixteen powers. The first is Kāma, means the attraction of body, Buddhya 22, is the attraction by brain, Ahaṁkāra, attraction by ego, fourth Shabda, attraction by words, fifth is Sparsha, attraction by touch, sixth, attraction by beauty, seventh, attraction by esthetics, Rasa, eighth, Gandha, attraction by fragrance, ninth, attraction by attention, Chitta, tenth, Dhairya, attraction by courage, eleventh, Smrtya, attraction by memory, twelfth, Nāma, attraction by name, thirteenth is Bīja, attraction through the seed, fourteenth, Ātmā, attraction by Spirit, fifteenth is attraction by eternity, sixteenth, attraction by warmth of the body. These are all the attractions which are subtly and are in the Goddess, which act in a way that the sādhaka is attracted towards Her.

The ninth one is called as the Bhupur, this [UNCLEAR way up], enclosure, whilst Chakra's name is Trailokya Mohana. The name of the Goddess is Tripūra. There are ten powers in this Chakra. Its first is Sarvasankshobhini. Sarvavidravini, Sarvakarshini, these three are already explained, Sarvavanshakari, the one is also explained, Sarvonmadini, the one who excites [UNCLEAR a man], Sarvamahankusha the one who controls. Here the Ankusha means the weapon that is used by the elephant driver.

So how he controls the elephant in the same way She controls all. Sarvakhechari, the one who attracts all, Sarvabīja, the one who is the seed in all, Sarvayoni, the one who exists in all the yonis and Sarvatrikhanda, the one which exists in all the three dimensions. Yoni means the ellipse which is the power of the Mother.

Apart from that there are other Goddesses, which exist as the yellow light known as Muktashaktayama.

The Mother Goddesses are called as Mahendrī, Chāmuṇḍā and Mahālakṣhmī. The siddhis that people attempt to achieve are Anima, Laghima, Mahima, Ishatwa, Washitwa, Prakamya, Bhukti, Icchā, Prapti, Mukti. Anima is to become like a small particle. Laghima is to become small, Mahima is to become a big form, Ishatwa is to create Gods out of human beings, Washitwa is the attraction, Prakamya is the manifestation, Bhukti is the enjoyment, [Icchā is missing] fulfilment of desire. Prapti is the attainment, Mukti is the salvation. These are all the siddhis that Sahaja Yogis can have.

[Shri Mataji is breathing into the microphone seven times.] Now.

[Breathing into the microphone seven times.] It's like a mountain.

[Breathing into the microphone three times.] Change your hands please, again.

[Breathing into the microphone three times.] [... continuous repetition of this exercise...]

[UNCLEAR].

So what's the use of reading it? Only praise the Mother! That's what He said. People asked Him, why have You praised the Mother only? Why don't you write something else? He said, that's the only way you can get it. What's the use of giving all Avidyā, non-knowledge. I am giving the real knowledge, you praise the Mother and just do it. And all those learned Pandits and all that, they challenged him and they tortured their lives. Now what is the present Shañkarāchārya Shringari doing, do you know that? This Shañkarāchārya took a Sannyāsa because he had to work and dedicate Himself and He went all over the world whenever it was possible for Him. He went to Kashmir and all these places and He did such a lot of work, while this fellow who is a small little horrible thing, he is now [UNCLEAR] whether you like it or not.

[GAP].... all I have to say. He is [UNCLEAR] trying to collect money. He has to make an Amṛut [UNCLEAR] of Gold. And He has to [UNCLEAR put] diamonds on that and this are seven stones will be put and nine stones will be put on that umbrella and one day, when he is sitting the [UNCLEAR] fall on. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.]

Sahaja Yogini: Could I apt to you that [UNCLEAR all the discussing masses is of his reception]? Another Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR The truth is not for the masses]. The truth is the hardest thing to find...

Shri Mataji: Yes, that's it!

Sahaja Yogini: That is said, so people would kindly [UNCLEAR]...

Shri Mataji: But, but, you see, a truth can only, truth can be found when you remove the clouds.

Sahaja Yogini: Is the [UNCLEAR sun doing this]?

Shri Mataji: No, no, no, no, that you have to remove yourself.

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR It has to begin because the wind that chills before me and...]

Shri Mataji: No, no, you can.

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR So take forth.]

Shri Mataji: You see, it is your own mind that forms the cloud. If you are on the truth the clouds will disappear, but you must tell people there are clouds, you have to tell them. Not only, you have to tell them the fact, because you see, we are getting people here from different sources and different types, you see? I have been facing people in Japan aft-, for example I faced lots of Zen people and I have to talk to them.

Some of them did accept, some of them did not, what can I do about it? Another Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR It wasn't made so, you come and there people could make new clouds like forcing this, so I think...]

Sahaja Yogi: This support needs to be the advantage of the people.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, but you can't convince that, so therefore that you, you learn some [UNCLEAR], from where? You just walk round.

Shri Mataji: That's very nice to say, but doesn't happen that way. They block your way because they are in your subconscious. You have to face that. You have to take them out, you have to cleanse them.

With Sahaja Yoga, what happens? That you can see them and you can clear them, but if you just say, now I am realised, all it's all right, it is not so. It is not so. That's why they did in, in the ancient times the Haṭha Yoga style was first to take a person from childhood away from the madding crowd, keep him there, cleanse him, keep him in pure conditions and treat him very well and them give him a realisation, gradually from one Chakra to another Chakra and take him up for, this was done in many ages, in many lives of those people. They were again selected, brought in and again it was done. It was a very long process.

But now, after getting realisation you can do it yourself. You can clear yourself, clean yourself, but you must face what sorts of problems there are. Now for some people here, I mean most of them, they have no this problem anymore now. They do not think that these Buddhist and any one of them, whether Lamas or Damas or anything, they have any contribution made towards spiritual life. They are convinced of it.

They do not contribute anything to spiritual life. These children do, such realised Souls. It's a realised Soul.

Now if he is a realised Soul and if the, if the head of the Zen is not, what can you do about it? It's a fact. And those who follow Zen are not following because they have to be realised. First thing is they should be realised and who will realise them if the head is not realised? If one light is not enlightened, how is it going to enlighten other lights?

Sahaja Yogini: Anyone has to do, the same is as they have been realised so they have got realisation from here people anyway near thinking like that. It's not after have been cured you really face it. Vienna, Milano, Geneva...

Shri Mataji: Ah! Now you better tell them Sheila about yourself. You see, you are sticking on to this. Now just tell what happened to you, Sheila you tell them.

Another Sahaja Yogini: There is just one point...

Shri Mataji: Ah.

Sahaja Yogini:... making list her she has to go the long way round to come to...

Shri Mataji: No, no, no, no!

Sahaja Yogini: The point is that, you can't dissolve that...

Shri Mataji: It is not. Now I tell you one, it is, you are saying this, that you people all believe that you are all guided that way. Your it is not. You see conceal guidance but nobody is going to force you that way. It's your own choice. You make mistakes through your choice, your freedom is all the time there. What I can do is to tell you, what is what and leave it to your freedom. That if you think that if everybody has to go, then why should I be here?

Sahaja Yogini: Now I think they have to hear that when going once that people need a choice to see, they are not using just walk straight into the open door, they are going to crash into the wall on the way.

So therefore people who come to you finally will be yours.

Shri Mataji: Hm.

Sahaja Yogini: They would do that, I mean, but they...

Shri Mataji: Yes, they do.

Sahaja Yogini:... they think that...

Shri Mataji: Yes, I agree.

Sahaja Yogini:... they have to choose...

Shri Mataji: Yes they do, I have all the patience, I know, I have, I have all the patience for them, but what My thing, My Job is to tell them, this is a wall and you don't hit your head. And being a Mother, you can imagine, I see them as little babies now newly born.

So I feel concern and I tell them very positively, very clearly that don't jump into that pile. But still they do, some of them, Sheila did that.

Another Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR That's turn out said to Gregoire that snoring, you know I love him and haven't got to, You think now Shri Mataji's Terminal after burning but I am just gone put one thing a little bit to make sure and once it's worthless Gina gonna walk another illuminating it's just straight sure, completely.]

Shri Mataji: She didn't identify it all, she just visited that once. Once only.

Sahaja Yogini: I was very ill, physically and everything and intensive what just has being round by and then he was a man. I don't like doing the same thing. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Not to name it out, a good job.

Shri Mataji: Just imagine...

Sahaja Yogini:... there are all persons limited...

Another Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR When there is no talking, when there is...] [all Sahaja Yogis laugh.] 25

Shri Mataji: And now you see the people from Canada, now just see My position is, take up from Canada here, so many of them. I cleanse them, I clean them, I put them right. I tell them whatever it is, why they are sorry, lots of problems, how it happens. I mean I have to work really, really very hard for them, really very hard and then they again are going to some drama.

So it, I have to point it out very clearly, that as long as you identify with falsehood you will not be realised. You cannot get it. You have to give up falsehood, see for yourself, work it out! The best judgement: your vibrations. You must get it.

Now see this girl has been reading certain books and things and that's falling on her head and she herself can feel it that there is a blockade in her head. You can feel it yourself, isn't it? [A baby makes a little noise, the Sahaja Yogis laugh.] If the sensitivity is all right then you go to the right point, but no, you see, your sensitivity is very much blurted and obstructed. Feel that, come here! Now ask Me other questions, all right? So it is for your own good, your own good and I'll tell you, I am not telling even one thing that is not auspicious and I will know it, whether people like it or not.

So sometimes I camouflage, because things do not go straight into their heads as I told, that if somebody is stupid you shouldn't say, you are stupid. [Yogis laugh] Yes.

One has to go in a round way, that's a Mothers style, but I have to tell you this, I am telling you the truth. First thing you should do is to establish your vibrations. First thing is that, then you talk about [UNCLEAR]. You should say nothing than, first My vibrations. There are so many people who have established them. Why not, why not, I must get it. That's the thing should be there. If that works out... it's very good. If it doesn't work out, then work it out. That's the only thing that you have to get, nothing else.

To understand, now I asked her, what books did she read, what happens? She told Me. You see.

So I can now correct it, I know where is the problem, you see, by telling Me facts, what is the problem, I can correct it better. Like a Doctor is to be told, what is the thing. Because most of the things here in the Western mind is mental. Our reading, our, you see, past life and all these things in the subconsciousness has come and also our ambitions and our aspirations and all that, all these things work out, through Me.

So we have to clear ourselves, we have to be absolutely cleared out, this is what Buddha wanted, is enlightenment, what else? Did He want people to form for fighting? Nothing of that kind. He wanted only to get enlightenment, to, to be able to read themselves and not some books, you see. Buddha wrote no book. Nothing He wrote and those who write about Him were not realised people either. He said that you should not worship anything, because He was so fed up with the people who were worshiping all kinds of nonsense, so He said, no worship. Now they are worshipping His clothes, His hair, his nails, this, that...

Of course to Me I know, it is great, everything has a meaning, but to these people it has no meaning.

They cannot feel the vibrations of that, so what are they worshipping? Like in Kashmir I went and I went to a place and I just got tremendous vibrations and I said, what's here here? Is there a Temple or something? They said, no. I said, this place seems to be really vibrated. I stopped the car and asked the driver. He said, you knew there is a big [UNCLEAR] that is the one hair of Mohamed is put there. Oh, I said, that's great. And the driver said, what's great? This hair has caused so much problem her. People have been fighting over it, there has been so many murders and this, that.

Now what the poor hair has done? You see, just imagine. To Me it has given Joy and such feeling of oneness there. And to others it has given fighting. The Muslims have been fighting, because the hair was lost and this and that. Then when the hair was returned, they did not know whether it was a true hair or some other hair... [the Sahaja Yogis laugh]... be contra-versus about things.

We, ah, went to... there is one place of, ah, Valmiki Ashram near Bihar, you see. On the other side of Bihar in Nepal and I went down there, you see, wading through a river. You see, to see that place.

Just to feel it, I know it is that.

So then when I came back and see one of them [UNCLEAR] very learned men from Bihar, he was also there. He said. Mother what you think, is this the place where Sītājī lived? I said, yes She did. She did. He said, how do You know? I said, I know it, for one thing, it's My own experience that it was so apart from that. You can ask any Sahaja Yogi, they can say, that this is the place She lived, because you feel the vibrations throughout.

He said, really there are books and books written against it, that this is not the place, this is not the Indian soil, not on the Nepali soil, this, that, all this things... Just imagine! That fighting about the Divine Mother, whether She was born in Nepal or here. She was a Nepali lady, She was born in Nepal, no doubt about it. But Nepal is no good, they are no good neither the Indians are. All are just the same.

Horrible people, fighting anything good you bring it, they start fighting. What to do with this human nature. Actually these people did not realise, none of them knew as I know you people, really I can tell this point. Even Christ did not know how human beings are crooked. They are too good. Humanization has to be completed I think in this life of Mine and I get horrified. Still people think I am ignoramus, I don't know much. I have to still read lots of things to understand human beings.

You see, because of their so-called Intelligence, which cheats them, because they think is all-, they can manage, they think they can manage everywhere. Who are they not managing is themselves, their own choice, their own properties, their own wealth, that's what they are not managing, that's what they are not feeling, that's what they are missing. That is within them so great, bubbling, manifesting, anxious to come out. That's all missing. Now what are they managing like fools? This is out of show.

Somebody has to say it and can convince you. I am here to convince, I am here to convince you, about Buddha. And do you know Buddha took His birth again, He was Hassan and Hussein, one of them was Buddha, another was Mahāvīra. See the silence. Buddhist won't accept, because they got frightened their lives, the way the Buddhist were all souring.

Mohammed Sahib took His birth as Nanaka. If you read Nanaka's life, I mean if you read what He has to say. All the time He is saying, oh God, how are you fighting among yourselves, the Hindus and the Muslims, or the Mus-, the Muslims and the other people, I am just the same. How are you fighting? You see, when He died, Mohammed Sahib, when He saw where the Religion was taken by Muslims He was to be born again. And tell them! But when He was born again and He started telling people stoned Him.

And this Sikhs asked them, this fools, You go and ask them what Moham[med], what He has done? All His life He was trying to unite both of them, because He was so much surprised at this and imagine the Sikhs all their lives they are fighting the Muslims and the Muslims, the fools, they are fighting the Sikhs.

I talked to some Arab ladies, they agree with Me. There is no meaning who agree with Me, you can see, after all they are intelligent enough to see. But something of it lurks in us which must be taken out, which is false. You must give up all that is false, because falsehood keeps you away from reality which is beauty and joy, which is yourself. When I talked in 1970 first time and I unlatched all of them, they called it spiritual jugglery. Left and right all of them I said, that everybody was so frightened. There was one Rāja of Mundi, he came, he said, Mother they will go, come and kill You. I said this time I am going to kill them. Nobody is going to crucify Me now, don't you worry about Me. He said, I am worried about your well-being, you are saying like this, you see, people will feel very angry with You. I said. Let them come. This time I am going to face it. It was all right before I took up the show, but now no more. Let's have it out.

Somebody has to say it.

It is very nice for Me to go about, oh pleasing all of you, oh very good, you, this society is very good, that church is very good, Pope, you are My love and all that. [Yogis laugh] And get all of them together, because I am a realised Soul in and out and I can say that, oh I am this, I have got curity [curative] powers, I am raising Kuṇḍalinī and this and that and get all of them put together. I could have done that way, but [UNCLEAR it is not] going to work out. Of course, if they come to Me, I'll manage, because there is a certain protocol of the truth.

Christ did not go to these people and tell them. He argued with them and told them, what was the truth. Buddha preached non-violence, He thought that by non-violence methods these people will accept.

But He found by do... doing that, what has happened, all the horrible Rākshasas are sitting there very nicely. Anybody who is a good person is to be tortured, that was the law. Anybody who is a religious person must be killed. Anybody who was a realised Soul must be crucified. This was the pattern of life.

So they came as Hassan and Hussein and fought it. If the time comes the wrath of God will come upon these people. He has a very tremendous wrath. If in one incarnation if it has not shown, it doesn't mean it does not exist. It does exist. It's all right for Christ to say, that if you put, if somebody slaps you on one face, put the other around. It is just to dim up your patience, put when you slap on one face of a realised Soul, one side is cleared and when you put the other cheek, the second side is also cleared. Both the sides are just cleared out, that's why it was said. The deeper sense is like that. And then the person falls at your feet, asking for forgiveness.

Just see, a wasp hit Me here and the vibrations there, hundred times more. Isn't it a funny thing? It is a very deep secrets of Mine, but at least you must know that and unless and until you have given up all that is falsehood, which keeps you floating on the surface you cannot go deep down. These are all bubbles, you know, you must have seen people floating with two, ah, two balloons, jetting out, you see, in the same way our ego and superego keeps you floating. It doesn't allow you do go deep down into yourself.

So by rationality you cannot understand it. You give up your rationality, come deep down in the center.

You have to go in [UNCLEAR directly]. Buddha did His job, He build up here on left hand side of your personality. Mahāvīra did His Job here. Now it is My job to do it, is to break your Brahmarandhra and let Me do it. They are all within Me, they are part and parcel of Me and there is in Their mind every minute, every second, every moment

They are here. Don't worry about Them, you have to worry about yourself.

You just think how far you have gone with your meditation, how deep you have gone into yourself.

If you have not gone, it's not a mistake of Sahaja Yoga, it is your own mistake. It is something wrong somewhere, just went down, where is the mistake? Is your ego floating out, or is your superego floating out? What is not keeping you dive into your being? See now how much I am working hard on you, days in and days out. It is a simple thing. In Derby We had someone who belonged to a big organization and he came round and he started arguing out.

So one of the Sahaja Yogis asked, “Now come and tell me, how many people you have given realisation to, how many people you have cured?" He said, “None." Then he said, what are you talking to Mātājī? She has given realisation to thousands, you have seen. She has cu... cured thousands of people, we have cured also, so better take it from Her instead of getting angry with Her and telling Her about this big organization that you have. When the fellow was changed and when he went and told his organization people who would follow him as a Guru. They said, oh he is gone mad, they left him and they selected another mad man to be their Guru.

Nobody is going to stand by you, organization-wise, I can tell you, all your organizations will never accept Me as a whole, never. Because they stand on some falsehood, they will never accept Me, the whole of it. None of these organizations are going to accept Me. In America I have seen the same thing. It is a sad thing, but it is the same thing. There is one Lady who is running, she calls it `light of the universe', she invited Me there and she is going to [UNCLEAR], she had aimed for Me a three days conference, I know that, you see? At the end of it She took Me down into her house, down [UNCLEAR]. There she had made a temple and all full of bhoots and she said here I call my master from Tibet. I said, very nice and why have you called Me? I put a convent to her and all that I came the way.

So some people left her completely, joining Me. She was writing to Me that I should go to her and again like this, because she makes a lot of money out of that, but I told her not to meet her for some time.

So the whole of it won't come to Me, because the basis is wrong, the basis is wrong, absolute falsehood it is. The basis of all these organizations is wrong. It has done no good, if you see it very clearly and honesty, they are doing no good. At the most they are philanthropic things, like, ah, like ah, we can say a council which is rendering help to some sick people, to admit in the hospital, some this and that, that's all.

At the most if they are correct. You see, you are like council members, you see council members. But why bring in God there? It's all right, you are social workers, do the social work. It is not spiritual. Spiritual work is spiritual question where you have to be awakened. You understand? So all those societies or all those religions, all of them, one and all, hundred percent. You are saying twenty-five percent, I would say even if one percent is there, I'll thank My stuffs. Even one percent I am not saying, a genuine one which is based on giving realisation to people in the real sense of the word. This so-called, these daya-makas place I have been there. This Yogananda was not a realised Soul, you will be shocked that `Papaji' and `Dadaji' and all of them were not realised Souls at all. Now the people who were there have come and told Me. You see they, there was a Doctor we had, he died of that. He used to do all the Catharis, he used to cut his tongue, put it back, put it here, you see. Imagine all these things and always his tongue used to wag like that and he had to put some sort of a hold for his tongue, otherwise the tongue would wag out like that. He had cut if for his threat and turn it up, put it here for raising the Kuṇḍalinī, just imagine! Now if somebody comes like that, what should I say? Now you cut your nose and put it inside? [Shri Mataji laughs loudly.] Just imagine! There are people like that. This is Yogananda's school, they are doing Catharis. Kabīra came and He lashed them, completely this Catharists and all that. He said, one day your tongue will be cut, your noses will be cut and this will happen. You will be hanging down head downwards in the hell, the way you are treating these people, those who are seeking.

These are the people and they publish books, you see. Their books will be published and all that, they will have BBC programs and everything will support them and help them, because they are all based on falsehood. What did they do to Christ? Did any scientist accept him? Did any bureaucrat accept Him? What did they do to Buddha when He lived? He had a very bad time. After His dead of course everybody started making money and things like that. But what could have they done? Japanese supposed to be the most, ah, as you say Japanese are Buddhist. Cruellest people ever known, cruellest people are Japanese. Cruellest of all, you see they have such a funny system, I went to Japan, I was amazed that any good looking woman does not marry in Japan. This has come out of Buddhism, just imagine, a system. No good looking woman would marry, neither an educated woman would marry, only dishwashers marry. The woman who are absolute useless, good-for-nothing, ugly looking horrid women who are maidservants in other places, they marry and they are the mothers of the children of Japan.

The mother, even if her husband beats her, does anything, has to bear, he can make keeps in the house, Concubines there, he can go and visit the Geishas, she is not supposed to say anything and that's why in the whole world, you know, a Japanese wife is the best. She is worse than a slave to him. And if you go to Japan nobody will invite you to their houses and homes.

See I went without My husband, so they didn't knew what to do out of Me, you see. They couldn't take Me to Geisha houses and they, they couldn't take Me to their houses either.

So they didn't know really what a pickle I was. And I read, they didn't know what to really make out of Me. I told them I would like to go to Geisha houses also, to see there what's it. And there I found with these Geishas, when I was talking to them, that they are fed up of this nonsense. They said, you see, we are beautiful women, so we don't marry, because we get the money. And we are part-time also carried girls. There were some part, part-time Geisha and part-time careerist and they all meet in there. You see they are absolutely open like that.

Here they do it also, I mean the way the women go out for dating is what is Geisha business. Dating is what? I mean, there they call themselves at least honestly they are Geishas, but here dating with a man, poor man has to pay for them every evening... when it is too much. All this is in a very subtle way here.

So you see, you say there is no prostitution and there is prostitution. I mean, ah, they said, what are the laws of prostitution? You cannot there sort of advertise it, but you can have a [UNCLEAR]-bath or something. I mean some sort of a thing that they have made here with their intelligence.

But in Japan it is clear-cut, Geisha is a Geisha, a housewife is a housewife, but if you see a housewife, her hands, there is no softness, really hard hands, just like the bark of a tree. If you see the feet, if you see their legs are bent, their bodies are bent, very young women look so old there. We were invited to a very rich man's house. There I saw his daughter-in-laws were beautiful, but they had to pay a lot of money to those girls and to their parents to get them there. No girl would marry.

Then the children, when they see their mother being treated like this, what will happen to them? You see, after all there is a mothers pride within them and they can't bear it anymore, so Japanese are the people, outside they are really disciplined, you see, there like the way the mother is disciplined outside, than go on buying it. See, if you don't stop, they go on. If you stop it, then they will stop. They will not stop all here, but if there is an accident they'll get down, bow to each other, but in the crowd, if they find a foreigner they will put their heels round them. They kill people in such a butchery way, they are butchers, I tell you.

They are very disciplined, because one is talking, nobody will talk. They are just like machines.

Hiroshima gave them a shock, that really gave them a shock and they were [UNCLEAR]. The young people are, the young women are revolting against it, they are realizing it, but I don't know the way sometimes the young go also another mad, crazy day. But there is an awakening in Japan.

Now you can't blame Buddha for this, you cannot blame Vidhitama for this, the Zen man who did this.

He was a realised Soul, no doubt about it. They do not understand anything of it, Zen, they do not. They said, this is all very difficult for us. They have certain things like `No playing' which I went and saw Myself and I really enjoyed it. They couldn't understand why I was enjoying it. They couldn't understand why I enjoyed their temples very much, what it was to convey, you see, they have Temples which create like, ah, you can say a Mass Temple is on top of a hill, you see, you have to go through a building in, on top of a hill.

When you come out there is a little place like that only, ah, there is one and there is a little mount made like a, like a drop, you see? And a little drop here, like a question mark, you can say, on drop here.

And is a hill with small plants of moss. You can see it through the, through the, ah, what you call, ah, magnifying glass, beautiful different, different, you see, mosses are there. Now anybody will say, what's this all the way to brought us here, what is all this? Is it a Temple? What's sort of a Temple? Now that is a Zen-style, that when you see it, you cannot answer why, how? You just stop there in thoughtless awareness. It was to awaken your thoughtless awareness.

So the Zen people said, “Now You tell me what is this?" I said, is it what Zen has told you? This is what which should not make you talk and think. You just say that, what's this? And do not ask any questions, become one with it. That's what the Zen people tried to do. They thought that by doing this, by telling people that, watch this without thought, watch this without thought, it will work out. But they did not know that these people were not even awakened. It's only possible for people who are awakened.

They were of that high, they did not realise, that these people were not even awakened, how can they do things without thought.

And all these Temples are useless for this people. There is another place where there is lot of, ah, sand, it's spread out and a beautiful pattern drawn on it and there are some, ah, stones of various forms put there and you have to go sit around it and see that. Everybody knows that, they said mad people [UNCLEAR do that]. They take you to a temple and then you see all this and the Americans said, say Mister [UNCLEAR Kai-san] wow! Wow, what's this? All the way walking up, oh God, I lost My feet and what's this? What is it? And nobody can understand, the Zen people don't understand, you see, to see what it is, very beautiful, you must see, this is very beautiful, they are telling in their funny English. These Americans, I must say, are really and they have to walk bare-feet, you see, all the way down. They can't understand why all this circus was done for them and the ones who are explaining do not. It is nothing but the same thing, that you watch a thing, which does not communicate to you, so you become quiet.

Then they start comparing as usual our ideas are, that, oh!, this is like an Ocean and in the Ocean there are these boats. It's rather not like a boat I must say. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] There are other who have some idea, that this is this, this is this, but that is the thing, you don't have to do, you don't have to compare it with any, you just have to see it, without thought. That's what Zen wanted to do, to watch a flower without thinking, just watch it as it is. How can you do it unless and until you are thoughtless aware? And He didn't, they did not know that people are not thoughtlessly aware. That's possible only with the Kuṇḍalinī is above the Āgñyā.

They thought minimum that must be with human beings, you see, that their, the... they are thoughtlessly, they can become thoughtlessly aware. They did not know that that is also missing, because they were of a very high quality people. All of them were born realised, actually. Twenty-six of them in six centuries, can you believe it? Sixth century it started, till the twelfth century there were twenty-six, after that there was not one Kasha. Is a fact, it is written down. I am not telling you a lie.

So who can explain what is what? In every religion, in every book all this nonsense has been done: Blind explaining something that is light. It's an impossibility! I do not blame them for that, but I blame them there that they think, oh we are the enlightened, oh we are the Buddha, we, we know everything, we are Christ! The Christians think, they are all Christians, means they are Christ themselves. This misidentification is very wrong.

You understand now? This is what it is.

Sahaja Yogini: You said that the Buddhist, all the Buddhist I know never say that enlightenment comes this age. It could take a thousand lives.

Shri Mataji: That's, that's the best way of deluding people, you see. It takes thousand times, it's correct, at what time? When they were Zens, it was very difficult, but not today. It was very difficult at the time of My grandmothers time to think even that you will go to the moon. And even when people went there she would not believe it. She said, “No, no, you are just showing a picture, just befooling me.

How can anybody..." Even if you showed her any, thing she would not believe. She said, it's all there coming to the Earth and this is what you are just there, just befooling you, don't believe them. They must be befooling. Even today if you tell her she is not going to believe, because it was impossible even when I was a Student. You see, they used to say so many million years and billion years it will take to go to the moon. It has not taken anything like that.

So the growth of life, when it comes, in the beginning one flower appears, a second appears after three, four years, then when the tree comes up and when the blossom time comes so many flowers come up. This is a living thing. First one fish became a reptile, then after many years second one came in, but after some time schools of them became, it's the evolutionary way.

What they said, was correct at that time, is not correct today. Because they say, are you going to stop your realisation, even if you are getting it? For them it is impossible, not difficult, but it is an impossibility, they can never get realisation.

So what they say, there is truth in it. It's difficult, this Lamas never, none of them. Not one of them is going to get realisation, take it from Me. Not one.

Sahaja Yogini: I am depending now, this organizations are tall, I agree with it and earning...

Shri Mataji: I am just telling you,...

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji:... I am not telling you, I am not addressing to you, but in general I have to say. I am just saying a general statement. Part of it is across your mind I am speaking also and also again your glorification. These Lamas are parasites, absolutely parasites living on other people's money, opium, other people's money. Being an opium it's the best way. Are leading an abnormal live and doing all kinds of abnormal things. They never would have given any guidance to the whole world. Must all guidance how they could live without spending any money.

[UNCLEAR].

First of all it is difficult to give realisation, you can see that. Then when you give them also they again go down to it. Then again build them up, again they go deeper. If it is not working out, it is not working out. Now as it is, if you say that my left hand is tingling, I am not telling you that, you are saying that. It is happening to you, it is definitely there.

So there is something wrong.

So you must cure them, it's a simple thing. I am not giving any auto-suggestions that your right hand is paining, or left hand is [UNCLEAR heavy]. It is there and it is dead and you yourself are telling Me.

So what I am trying to do is to help you out, to take it up.

And it is not so easy also giving it.

It's better? Hmm it's good?

Sahaja Yogini: Sahasrāra calmed down [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Ah, it is Tina, she has certainly [UNCLEAR understanding it]. This one is so cool and this one is so hot. Now I am not telling her anything. [Shri Mataji is rubbing Her hands.] Hmm. Put your hand here down. It's all right. Right hand on this side. You see one hand is cold, one is hot. How to explain? You cannot.

Sahaja Yogi: Mātājī, [UNCLEAR] he didn't know much about this Void, because it seemed a very important part of it and Nābhī and Swādhiṣhṭhāna around it, innately he didn't knew that much about this...

Shri Mataji: Hmm, hmm.

So what do you want to know? 31

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] how the Kuṇḍalinī passes through it, because it is not written by one of the disciples of Indian saint university that could demonstrate...

Shri Mataji: What is it?

Sahaja Yogi: He said, because the most difficult [UNCLEAR] rich. [Shri Mataji laughs.]

Shri Mataji: For them it won't. [Shri Mataji is sniping with Her fingers, longer pause.] A-ham, what we call Void, maybe that's, because in the Zen Void has a different meaning, but in Sahaja Yoga, what part is called as Void? You see, in Sahaja Yoga we do call it as Void, a part of it, but if you want, you can call it Bhava-sāgara, or you can call it Void, or Gap, name as a Gap all that. This is the stomach of a human being, it is a [UNCLEAR] and it has work two important Chakras, you see, one is the central one, which is called as the Viṣhṇu's Chakra and another one is Swādhiṣhṭhāna which is circling it. The relationship between the sustaining power that is within us, which is the evolutionary power, which gives us this human form, form, from amoeba, which is the evolving power within us, placed in our stomach, on the solar plexus. This relationship between this power and with the five elements is the area which is Dharma, is the Ātman, is the Rūh... [UNCLEAR].... themselves. For example, supposing you say you are a Buddhist, supposing one says, I am a Buddhist, you don't become Buddha, by any chance, you don't. And this understanding goes on disappearing after some time, you see, among human beings and I was amazed that really the head of the Zen is not a realised Soul and I told him and he told Me, they had only twenty-six Kaśhyapas so far, only twenty-six realised Souls there. And he was travelling with about five of the disciples and he came to India and none of them were realised. Is a fact. You see, now supposing here in India and if I tell here to someone that in India people these Temples are now the fortress of Tāntrikās and people are loosing their Temples which, which has living Deities,... it was something wrong with him, people won't like it. But it's a fact. If you go there, you will be amazed.

See I did speak with them, these Zen, because they had invited Me for this. I told to them what is real and I told to them what your Temples mean and how you go into thoughtless awareness and all that. But first thing is realisation. Without that nothing happens, you see, this is all prescribed for realised Souls.

Zen, Zen means Dhyān, Meditation. Those who are not meditating, means who are not realised cannot understand Zen at all. You have to go in, otherwise it's just a joke going on, it's a Drama going on, you see? People are just thinking and by reading Zen and all that you are going to achieve something. You cannot achieve anything by reading. Only if you read Bible or Gītā you cannot achieve anything. It's only reading.

Sahaja Yogini: I [UNCLEAR] me and and is, I, I, wish that needed are people, let's say from all directions...

Shri Mataji: All of them are reading.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, yes.

Shri Mataji: None of them, not one...

Sahaj Yogini: I want to say, if you find, you said it, five percent...

Shri Mataji: Hundred percent? Zen, I will tell you, I have travelled all over the world, I have travelled all over the world now. I have been up to Chile, up to Argentina, up to Colombia, accept for Australia I have been everywhere, but I have met many Australians and I can tell you, I haven't met one, one Zen which has anything of truth left in him, not one Zen, even on the religious part of it, not even one.

Like people like in India, there was a very descent one, a Brahmacharya was a great man, I mean he was like an Incarnation, like that he was. His disciples are, I was amazed that even they, when he had just done the sentence that I am telling you that you have to get your realisation, without realisation... but they were also just the same, they are also following, let's say, something that is dead.

It is, supposing you are not realised and you start doing Sahaja Yoga to someone, moving your hands like this, raising the Kuṇḍalinī, what will you do? You cannot do anything.

So before, you see, feeling anything about what I say, you get your vibrations all right first of all, you get your Self-realised, that's the main thing. Once your vibrations are all right then you can judge it better, because before that you cannot, because there is no rapport with the Truth and with the Absolute. You must get your vibrations corrected, first your vibrations must be corrected, you must be realised and then you must judge it. Otherwise you cannot. This is why, you see, we can spread anything which is false, because there I don't have to put a condition on you. Here you have to be realised, you have to be settled down, then only you will understand. Without that, by paying money, say by joining any community or by becoming any member of it you cannot, you cannot become a Sahaja Yogi. A Sahaja Yogi you can only become if you have got the vibrations, if you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī, then only you can be a Sahaja Yogi, this is a very big condition.

I mean if you have some sort of a society, as you have Buddha's society, or you can have a, say, a Church or a Temple or any society, anybody can join it. You can join it, but you cannot be called that.

And this has to be, because of this problem only, a person like Christ has been brought out and thrown up to dust, a person like Buddha, a person like Mahāvīra, all Incarnations. They were very great, too great for human beings to understand and because they never got realisation they just brought back to dust, absolutely to dust. Buddhism have taken to such perversions, [UNCLEAR], if you go to Ladakh, Tibet, these Lamas, now see, the Lama is speaking, now would you call it Buddhist?

Sahaja Yogi: Some of the Lamas are not religious at all, they just head to the, their Community, they are not religious people.

Shri Mataji: But they are not realised. I have not met even one Lama who is realised. You know this Panchen Lama and this, what is, Dalai Lama...

Sahaja Yogini: You may call him politician.

Shri Mataji: I tell you, they are politicians.

Sahaja Yogini: I know.

Shri Mataji: That's a hundred percent, not to Me, but they are possessed people.

Another Sahaja Yogini: But do they, make the people...

Shri Mataji: You see, apart from that they are possessed, you see, that's how they get their `third eye' and all this nonsense and they got those visions and things. I was, My Husband was with Lal Bahadhur Shastri and Lal Bahadhur Shastri's wife was a little shy lady and she could not go out. Normally I used to attend to people and I used to sit next to them.

So this, when this Dalai Lama and this Panchen Lama came to Bomb[ay], ah Delhi I was sitting next to him. I just could not sit, I was getting such burning from him and I felt little nervous sitting next to him, I mean funny...

So Shastriji asked Me, why are You not happy there? I said, if you don't permit, if you permit Me, this man is not religious, can you sit...? He, he recognized Me, he said, just please, if You want, You can sit on the other side.

So I moved on and then I gave him Bhandan and all that.

They are parasites apart from anything. You see Tibet people are so poor, so poor... Have you been to Tibet? Very poor people, so poor, you cannot imagine, the poorest of poor are there and these people live in complete luxury, in palaces like this. They take their milk in silver bowls and they have marble [UNCLEAR inlets] and the people are in absolutely [UNCLEAR die out] poverty. They do not have houses, you know, they have touched things and, I mean, you cannot imagine the poverty there. Out of those people to suck the blood and live like this is only possible for the Rākshasas, I tell you. If you, if you do not like it, I have to say that. You will feel the same way, if you are sensitive of it.

I went to [UNCLEAR Bhendabhat], to Gokul and I came back and I told them, all the Rākshasas, all the [UNCLEAR] which are the, the, the servants of Kaṁsa, all the Rākshasas are now the Pandas. Now you may not like it. When Christ hit people with the hunter, they did not like it, but that doesn't mean they do not deserve it. I am going to Ganges lustrous anger this time. All the Pandas had to run away.

You see, they are the people who are making money on the river Ganges. Sitting there, looting people, how can it be God? It is anti-God, absolutely anti-God...

Sahaja Yogini: I know this.

Shri Mataji:... absolutely, hundred percent. Whether people like it or not, I have to say the truth.

I am not here for seeking elections. All these are to be punished and are to be thrown away from the society. These are the ones who crucified Christ, these are the ones who hit Buddha, these are the ones who tortured Mahāvīra, these are the people who are today become, have religious people, trying to propagate religion and trying to make money out of it. A very ingenious method to, to build up a so-, a religion to earn money, it's floating and enterprise...

Sahaja Yogini: They really do that and Buddha might [UNCLEAR] knowing criticise, you see, my interest in Buddhism is not in Buddhists, but the philosophy is good...

Shri Mataji: That's what is Sahaja, He is nothing but Sahaja...

Sahaja Yogini: So they are following what was the criticism, because you see, if you bend...

Shri Mataji: Not about Buddha I must say, I never criticise, how can I criticise Buddha? I mean we use Him for the clearing of our Āgñyā.

Sahaja Yogi: Other people do still that.

Shri Mataji: It is... you see, how could I criticise, it would be saying tomorrow that I am criticising Christ, I mean how could I criticise Him? I mean how could this idea go into your head? Never! How can I criticise Him? On the contrary I am criticising those who are using Him for their own purpose.

Sahaja Yogini: You better [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That's it!

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR] Christ [UNCLEAR]...

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, this was such a decision for long...

Sahaja Yogini: They said that every spiritual leader, you know, even Mahatma Gandhi, he has been so abused and he hasn't been [UNCLEAR] now and I think, I think that they are the leader [UNCLEAR] people with him. This is what I knew.

Shri Mataji: Yes, but somebody has to say it. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Somebody has to say these things. Isn't?

Sahaja Yogi: Somebody has to speak out and say it's wrong.

Shri Mataji: Yes. You see, you all, you see I am giving voice to what you want, you feel within yourselves. Isn't it? That's what, how can I criticise something that's My part and parcel in My being.

How could you think like that? [To a child:] Hello, Sue. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Hello Sue. Look at that! It's good.

So you don't be draggling to these things. You see, this is a very important thing that you must all get your realisation. All of you must get realisation, because of this, this one snag, one snag in all the, ah, religious leader. This snag has done all the harm. You see Buddha was absolutely correct, but that was not the time for giving realisation to people.

So He thought that if He organizes people, they will be ready to receive the realisation. That's what He organized, you see and that's why He created a Sangam but as all people are, I was also just the same, because I, I had to learn a lot about human beings. You know these people are to pure to understand how human beings are crooked. Even you see some of them have said that you must not tell lies, you must not do this, you must not do this. It's useless for human beings! If you tell them, immediately they take a Bible, [UNCLEAR], have a congregation, have a church nicely and give lectures. You should not tell lies, these are ten commandments... Christ came in and He is our father, He is this and that... Go home and do the same thing and take all the money from the people! [UNCLEAR Istu] Tukārāma is there. We had a very great Saint like Gñyāneśhwar, take the greatest of all is Ādi Shañkarāchārya, the one who came, you see, He did not come to refute Buddha, He came to refute Buddhism, the way the Buddhism was going and what He said is exactly the same that you are doing, exactly the same. He said, [UNCLEAR], neither by Yoga nor by Saṅgha is this kind of report and all that and by doing all these Saṅgha Shakti and all that. Nothing! Only by Mothers grace that it will work out and that one has to get realisation. He said it so clearly but you will find hardly few Indians who are supposed to be Hindus reading Shañkarāchārya. Can you believe it?

Contents: 1978-10-23*, Public Program (English+Hindi), The Three Channels, Śhrī Lakṣhmī and Śhrī Saraswatī, Caxton Hall, London, UK.....

No doubt, everyone will have to go through this process, but how many really want to be themselves? There are certain people who say, “We are seeking." When I ask them, “What are you seeking?" they say, “We are seeking joy, peace, happiness..." Some of them are worried if they are worthy of it or not, whether they should really know their Self or not.

There are two types of problems about such seekers: One which I call as “the left hand side problem" of the Iḍā Nāḍī, where the people are very emotional, subdued, who bear all the oppressions of others on themselves. They say, “We are unworthy of this great position, Mother. How can we get Self-realisation? We are sinners. How can we be... that higher evolved souls, when we have sinned, when we have done wrong?" This is one type.

The another is the one who uses his rationality and he thinks, `How can it be possible? How can we get realisation?' So many of them cannot believe that there could be a phenomena within us which works out Self-realisation. They do not even understand that God is compassion, He is love. I wonder if such people of this category also really believe in God, in His all-powerful nature. They may have a photograph in their houses. If He's compassion, if He's love, then He's not going to allow His own creation to be destroyed by foolish human beings, by some foolish people.

So both ways, one has to understand that every one of you will be exposed to His grace. But if you deny, if you do not want to get exposed, then even the compassion of God recedes; attention of God recedes from such people who do not want to receive the grace of God.

He is anxious, very anxious. You will see that now in Sahaja Yoga which is a very different phenomena which you have never before seen, you have never witnessed this before. Is a working of compassionate nature of God. First of all, God, you have only heard about Him in the churches or in the Bible or in the temples, mosques, but you have never seen God at work.

With the advancement of science, it has become really difficult for human beings to even conceive of anyone like that which we call as God. There also two types of reactions come in; one type which thinks, `Look at the world. How dirty it is, how meaningless it is, how the cruel people are ruling us! The people who are most undeserving, irreligious, who have no scruples are so successful in life!' The another denial is even stronger, another type, they say that “How can God be that cruel to create such horrible people on this earth? If He had any understanding of the sufferings of the people, why should He not come down Himself and put an end to all these horrible people, why doesn't He kill them?" Is natural for a limited rationality to suggest all these ideas. The rationality does not understand the unlimited compassion of love of God, it does not understand its minute understanding of the problem and it does not have full idea as to how this compassion works. Neither it understands what is death, what is agony, what are the miseries of this world in the eyes of God.

The limited understanding of a human being can be seen manifested in every day-to-day life. For example if a son is arrested by the police, the father gets very upset. Instead of feeling ashamed of such a son who has done something bad, he goes and supports the son, he tries to take him away from the prison, he doesn't want that there should be punishment for his own son. But the same thing if it is done by somebody else, his attitude is different.

So man's attitude towards life is absolutely limited and when we know about God who is unlimited, His attitude towards life has to be unlimited. He cannot limit His compassion to your needs, individual needs.

It is unlimited source which is flowing all the time on this earth. It's emitting every minute, everywhere, not even a single molecule or an atom is without it. You believe it or not, but it is so. But as soon as it enters into the mind of a human being, it does not want to see its unlimited nature; it sees its limited effects.

For example, what we are trying on this earth with all our human civilization is to get happiness. But do we know: happiness is always combined with unhappiness? The human idea of happiness has always the other side which is unhappiness. Happiness cannot be without unhappiness. For example, you think that by developing your country, you will be happy. For us Indians we think like that, that we have to develop our country, we have to build the big things, to make our country people happy. But go to the people who are developed, to the most developed, go to Sweden. The number of suicides are maximum in the most developed country. It is a very shocking thing but it is so.

The more you try to take to happiness, there will be unhappiness. Why is it so? The reason is, one side is, as I say is the left side another is the right side. There is no balance in this pursuit. Balance is only possible if you can control. For example children, say when they grow about eighteen years of age in this country, have a feeling that getting out of their parents' homes and houses, they would be very happy.

So they say, “Oh, on our own we are now, we are going out to, on ourselves, we'll have a house of our own, we'll live on our own, we'll have everything on our own..." Are they happy people? If they are, then why do they take to drugs? Or else you can think of somebody who comes from a poorer family, he thinks that if he could get lots of money, he'll be a very happy man.

So he, for example he might do some sort of a puzzle or may go to... all kinds of races or whatever you have here, competitions to get more money, sort of thing and may win a prize for it. Supposing even if he gets any amount of money, I have known some people who have won the prizes and they are the unhappiest people ever known. Because from one side the money comes in, from the other side the unhappiness comes in, as if they walk hand-in-hand.

We must keep our eyes open to this fact: that why in all the affluent countries, there is such a lot of unhappiness, why people are committing suicide? But do not go to the other extreme also, where you just don't do anything, sit at home, do nothing, lethargy about it. As you have seen the left hand side, which is the existence power within us, we exist whether we are lazy or not. Whether we work hard or not we exist. Here, there are many young people who first came to Me, they said, “Mother, we are successfully unemployed." They think by doing no work they will achieve their goal and they will achieve God; this is another falsehood.

One-sided attitude makes it limited. Those who run after money and position, those who run after women and run after all other worldly things and possessions of the world, are equally unhappy as the people who are killed in the wars. Or maybe even more unhappy, because they're at least killed and finished. But here everybody is living in a state of agony.

So the human attitude towards thing is that if you think there is a war and some people are killed, we think that these people are unhappy. But why in some of the countries people go and kill themselves then? If death was unhappiness, why they run away from unhappiness to another bigger unhappiness? If you kill yourself, then do you think it is going to be happiness? And if somebody else kills you then it is unhappiness? I'm already saying all these things, before also and today that this is what is called as `falsehood', is mithyavād [speak falsely, lie], both things are false. It is for you to see the falsehood of one thing and falsehood of another. Say for example Mister Ian Smith, the great hero he thinks himself to be, in his aggression is trying to kill people. Is he a happy man who has achieved it? Or are they happy those whom he has killed? God has no play in this kind of foolishness.

God never asked these aggressors like Hitler to start a war, he did it in his own freedom.

Then what must we do to create people who would not get into unhappiness and a mirage of happiness? What is where are we going to control the balance between the two? The one side which is the left side, we can see the developing countries are using it. They are poorer people, I went to Colombia and I went to Chile and to Argentina and to many other developing countries, to China. I was amazed that their families systems are still intact, their societies are still intact, their families are doing very well. They have no problem about their families, even in India we do not have.

The developed are on the right hand side are the people who are developed.

So many think that they are happy people. The have accumulated money, they have earned a reputation that they are developed, but their families are broken, they are so insecure, maximum number of, say breast cancers are in here. The insecurities are built-in. It is more surprising how nature works its balance in a human being. When you are very much insecure on the left hand side, which is the result, you'll be amazed. The insecurity of the left hand side comes when your right side is over-developed. When you are over-developed, the families are destroyed, the houses are destroyed, the children are destroyed, you are alone, individual, on your own, hanging in the air. Then there are problems of the left hand side, in the sense you feel very insecure in your emotions, you cannot trust anybody, you don't know, you will go home and “What is going to happen?" The

who develop their right hand side, try to develop, like the developing countries... I'm sorry, those who develop their left side, their society and family. Here we hear that people kill their children, but in India there could be many people who are making bad money for their own children. They are not afraid of law if they have to look after their children, they could be dacoits for their own children. They won't live for themselves, but they live for their children and they think they are doing right because they are doing it for their children.

So those who are working out the left hand side are having the problems of the right hand. And the right hand problem is that they are all the time insecure about money, insecure about their positions; they'll cut each other's throat to get to a position. They are hankering after, supposing there is a, say a secretary and a higher position, I don't know their names, you see it's all prepositions to Me, but somebody who is a higher secretary and somebody's a lower secretary. The lower secretary will cut the throat of the higher secretary to get to that. All his life he'll be wasting in that. Like Mister Ian Smith.

Their aggression is in the power, so the people deny that power they say, “No, we do not care for power..." Then they move to the right hand side, that is Rajo Guṇa. They say, “All right, we do not want any power, we do not want anything, we'll be very simple people." But they cannot be that way either, hippies who did that, they painted themselves they said, “We have nothing to do with this cloth and all that and this uniform that one has to wear, we do not care, let us become hippies." They thought in their minds they were becoming primitive, but they were not.

So they take to left hand side [UNCLEAR deepest] life, that is to take to drugs, is the deeper left hand side thing. Going to the dead in a deeper way, so you are left from one to another, from that when you develop, you come back to another. It's like a pendulum as I have told you before, many a times.

But nature controls it, even by itself, also. Those people who are working on the left hand side, means who are very busy with their children and are looking after their families, but are not worried about their wives and about their mothers and fathers, but who are worried about their positions and power and money, left side people, they will get mostly heart attacks. If they try to work very hard, as they say, Me, I mean they are actually working on the right hand side, if you see their nature is. Left handed people would work on the right hand side, you see the difference: that those who are the people who have not yet developed, who try to develop themselves.

So this is a juncture at which, what we find, the people who are not developed are developing themselves and those who are developed are trying to become underdeveloped, primitive.

At this juncture we are, at this position when I'm speaking to you, today.

So there is a possibility that when the movement starts, suddenly from this right to the left by the developed people, people will become mad. They'll be crazy, their head will fail. This is the control of the nature. When you try to work very hard, go to your office morning, evening, you are worried about your positions and you think you must achieve this position and go ahead like a horse in the race, then you get a heart attack. Imagine. What a balance! You should not get a heart attack for this, why should you get a heart attack, it is on the left hand side. But those people who neglect their left hand side, means they have no families, they have no children, they are over-developed, they are not worried about money, they get their doles all right; you go nutty here, quite nutty. Such stupid people that when you look at them you are amazed at their stupidity. They do all kinds of stupid things, which they do not understand: this: ego has made them such a fool.

It can start from anywhere to anywhere. For example now we are in England, so we have to discuss about our problems in the West. It may be that people would put those nails into their bodies, they might paint their bodies. Might be an eighty-year-old man trying to marry a sixteen-year-old girl. All their lives they would not know what to do when, wisdom would be missing. They are so stupid that when you read it you are amazed. But they go on doing it you know, the stupidity, they do not see ego. Ego has that capacity to cover you so well that you do not see your stupidity. Such idiotic things people do, that one cannot understand that such well educated, highly qualified people, could be that stupid, like your Lord Byron. I mean he was a real stupid fellow, no doubt about him. Though he might have written some great poems, or whatever he might have done, with his brain, but if you see his lifestyle, he was a stupid fool.

We do not realise it, but now when you come to Sahaj Yoga, one has to tell you that this is stupidity.

That going to the extremes of the right side is as stupid as going to the left side. Those who are selfcentered people only worried about their own children, about on their own families, about their own circle.

In India we have also caste system, this system. These people are also on one extreme, I would say, as you people are on the other extreme. You do not have all this, but you have other things. But the result of all this is: those who try to run after positions, run after money, run after material possessions, are never happy people, can never be happy. You accumulate any amount of them, you will find they are unhappiest people ever living.

Because I have told you that happiness and unhappiness goes hand in hand. On the other side when you love your children, is all right. But if you love them more than the collective being, like you see, say in our country or any country, where people would do anything for their children, they will sacrifice the whole country for their children. Under such circumstances also, a person cannot be happy.

So what is the balancing factor between the two that we have to see? What is the source of happiness that comes to a person? There has to be some balance about it. And this balance is the balance you learn in your Dharma, in your religion, in your sustenance, that is: in your stomach. That's why sustenance is a very important part which gives us the balance of our being, really happy, if it is done in Dharma, with control. Say for example we'll take the right hand side people, those who are trying to... I mean those who are working on right hand side, trying to learn a lot and trying to achieve a position, are of the Mahāsaraswatī channel as we call it. If you see the Mahāsaraswatī's, Saraswatī's symbol that was created by those old, ancient sages, you'll be amazed, how they knew that we would lose our balance; the way they created Her image is most interesting.

Those who run after money are worshipping actually Lakṣhmī. Lakṣhmī also has an image which is so wonderfully balanced, that you cannot imagine how it is suggested that: if a person has to have Lakṣhmī, what are the things needed? Lakṣhmī is the Goddess they say of wealth and well-being, but it is the daughter of Mahālakṣhmī you can say, or in the small form of Mahālakṣhmī, which is the Goddess of sustenance, which is the Goddess of your evolution. That is the power by which you evolve. This Goddess has got four hands; She's first of all a mother. That means a person who is a rich man must be a person full of compassion. Where do you find such people? The man who has lots of money, must get with money, side-by-side, lot of compassion. And such a man will never suffer if he has money, but if he has no compassion in his heart then that money is going to eat him off. His children will run away, he will do some sort of wrong things and he will suffer on account of that money. And if you see Lakṣhmī's hand, with one hand She gives. The rich man, so-called `rich man', must have rich heart, if he's a miserly fellow, if he's a miser, if you go to his house and he cannot give, then he is not a rich man.

For example what I find in the advertisements you read anywhere, these people always when they try to advertise, they will say, “Save three pounds to buy this." This is the advertisement. I mean the whole accent is on saving and miserliness throughout, not on quality too. Miserliness is a sign of horrible poverty of the heart; even a poor man who is generous is thousand time richer than a miserly rich person. He stinks of miserliness.

She gives. She doesn't take but She gives. If riches are accumulated by taking somebody's money illegally or troubling somebody and in a grabbing way, all the time thinking of collecting more money and more money and more money, I can assure you it will never lead you to happiness. But if you are getting money just to give, just an agency just to give, you are there to get it and to be given, not only to your children and only to the people who are dependent around you or those who try to be your friends, who come for drinks and eat your food, but in a very unknown manner that you do not know how you spend your money where and you do not talk about it, you do not tell about it, you do not say about it, that is a real rich man and such a man never suffers from the dearth of money.

This symbol was given to us through the unconscious itself has prepared this symbol for us to understand that riches are not with the people who accumulate money. You will find a common example: those people who accumulate money with miserliness, people talk so ill about them, they make fun of such miserly people, they just laugh at such people, they just can't understand. That is another stupidity to be a miser.

The another hand is like this. This hand suggest the protection, the protection given to anybody who needs help, anybody, again I am saying, that is the real rich man. These are ideals, of course everybody is not perfect but these are ideals. Anybody who comes to your house and ask for help, give him help.

“It's very difficult” people will say, “It is very difficult to help anyone who ask for anything, `All right, you take it away.' " How can you say that? But you'll be so rich, so rich that you would not know what to do with your things and how to get rid of them. Anybody who comes in your way, you say, “All right, you want this, all right take it." Try sometime My formula, worth trying. I've lived like this all My life.

I'll give you an example, you see in India women prefer nylon sarīs very much and I don't like them very much Myself, I'm a different type I would say. And I had one good nylon sarī with Me and a friend of Mine said, “Oh, I haven't got one good nylon from the foreign country." So I told My niece-in-law, I said, “I think I should give her this sarī. She's My elder, but we can give it on a Dussehra day to an elder something, so I'll give this sarī because she said it." She said, “You have only one and that You want to give away?" I said, “That's all. She has said it, that's sufficient, I'm going to give her this." When we were talking about this in the kitchen you will be amazed somebody rang the bell. And one gentleman had come from Africa and he said, “I have got something for You from East Africa." I said, “What?" He got two nylon sarīs, one of them was of the same colour as I had and he said the lady who had gone here had, she needed some money so You gave her in Bombay [Mumbai], so she has purchased these herself. I said, “See, the proof has come." The same colour, exactly the same sarī was there. I said, “See, two. Now are we going to wear two of them or not?" You just try, if you believe that there is compassion, there is God in every, every movement of every small little molecule. If you really believe in it, then try this.

Of course I mean, there's nothing that you, if you do not get, one should not worry, because if you are really lordly and if you are really kingly as we call it bādshah. See Guru Nanak was called as bādshah, not that He was the emperor of India, bādshah is a thing that is the temperament as they say, the tapir, is the temperament of a king. Even if you could put a king, if he's really rich why should he worry about the great comforts, no comfort can dominate a kingly person; he will sleep on a stone like a king, he'll walk on the rugged road like a king, you can see his majesty and his dignity in his grace whether in adversity or in where the people are praising. He's above all those things. That is the sign of a kingly personality.

In Sahaj Yoga when you come in, as I have told you Sahaj Yoga not like this that you take a toothpaste, all right, you rub it and you'll get the results. No. You have to also do the Antar Yoga. Once your Kuṇḍalinī has tried there, you have to do the Antar Yoga, means you have to raise your Kuṇḍalinī again and again and raise your sense of beauty, your aesthetics, not in buying the antiques, but by enjoying the joy of aesthetics of life.

So miserliness is unaesthetic hundred percent. Anybody who talks about miserliness should be absolutely an ugly person whatever he may be wearing, whatever may be his money.

So, with one hand She gives, with one hand She gives protection to people, protection to people: ashirvād. Abhaya, this is the abhaya [fearlessness]. Those who come for the help of such a person, he gives protection. The two other hands have got beautiful lotus flowers in the hand. They are pink in colour and you know the pink colour suggest the love, the love, the warmth. Such a person should be a warm person, not to the people of your equal ranks and high rank but to anyone who comes.

When somebody comes to your house and if your face shows discomfort, then you are not a Lakṣhmīpati you are not blessed by Lakṣhmī. Must have that grace and that beauty. “Oh! God, somebody has come at this time, what must be the difficulty, why has he come in the night?" You should feel that within yourself, “Oh, I hope everything's all right. What should I do for him?" The warmth of the heart, the coziness of the lotus, the black bee, which is a very big black thing, is one of the ugliest and very hard, tough thing and the legs are covered with thorny, prickly ends, but the lotus opens its leaves and the lotus is extremely soft inside; it takes in this lonely, black bee and it rest there, in that comfort.

The comfort that one indulges into for oneself, if it is not shared with others, that doesn't mean that you call people for drinks and share the drinks and the sin. Sin is very easily shared by people; it's a common practice to share the sin. It's very much person enjoyable, you see, such a person is regarded as “Extremely jolly and a nice person” who comes and says, talks about very filthy things. But comfortgiving, love-giving things are never shared with others. Try to share and see what I say is correct or not.

You will feel so elevated within yourself, you start enjoying that comfort that the other person is enjoying.

Is the most enjoyable time when you see others are enjoying comfort because you have done something and that is the greatest fulfilling thing for Me, to see that others have had it. This, in short, is the image of Lakṣhmī.

The image of Saraswatī is to be understood also very well, is the image of the Goddess of learning.

Of course I've known many learned pundits in India and also abroad. Lakṣhmī is a married lady but Saraswatī's not. Learned people who are really of a very high quality, are little away, are little above, because they have to solve the problems for the society. They are not mundane type, they have to sacrifice a little of their married life and their personal life, because they are the people who have to give the vision to society. And She has in her hand a vīnā and in one hand She has a rosary, in the another hand She has the knowledge, that is books.

Of course, She must read, no doubt. Means that those who are learned must be knowledgeable people.

And I have seen so many of you have been to Gurus and I was surprised the rumble-tumble knowledge you have about Kuṇḍalinī. When they told Me that “These are the bīja mantras and these..." I was shocked! How... [GAP]... and you are shocked the way his knowledge is, he's just a show. You get somebody, say a great historian, supposed to be a great historian and you find that his knowledge about history is so factual there is no depth, there's no vision in him to see why these things happened, why in history these thing changed and what have we to learn from history. No vision of any kind. The books are in the hand, means the books are not sitting on you but they are in your hand, you have mastered the books. Mastering of the book doesn't mean that you should know them by heart and go and tell people about what knowledge is there in Gītā and what knowledge is there is there in the Bible, or any other book. No, that's not the way the knowledge is, the knowledge is when you tell that the application of it in your own life and in other's lives, when you show the practicability of that knowledge, when that knowledge is a light in your life, it is like a light for others, then he is a learned man.

I met a very great philosopher of India, he has written many books on philosophy. And I found him to be such a superficial person, such a shallow person, I was amazed. I said, “How can this man talk of philosophy? In his life there is no light of philosophy, there is no light of compassion, there is no life of understanding of any kind. What is he writing about? It's a lifeless writing." The another hand has got the rosary. Now rosary has the significance of the religious life. A learned man has to be a religious man, a man who is bowed down to the knowledge of God, the one who is seeking the knowledge of God. The man who seeks, say, the knowledge of economics only, what's the use? You know that wants are not satiable in general.

So what's the use of running after such a knowledge? But if you are religious and if you have studied also the knowledge of religion, then you can relate that knowledge to religion. If you have no idea of religion, then you cannot relate this knowledge to that. Such a knowledge is absolutely useless. If you study physics and if you have not known what is science of inside, you cannot understand Kuṇḍalinī Shāstra at all. If it cannot be related to the ultimate, it is a lost knowledge. Like the tributaries of the river, all the tributaries must fall into the big river Ganges to go into the sea. That is the end of all the knowledge and the knowledge that does not connect it with the superior knowledge is a waste. That's why you will find so many big people came, they wrote books after books, they are all just become nothing, but see them.

Only those who related their knowledge to something higher, even Einstein, a man of his calibre, he could not do without God's ideas; Bernard Shaw could not do without God's idea. All of them had to relate their knowledge to God's knowledge. Otherwise it is like a knowledge which has no roots. It's a dead knowledge.

That is why the rosary in the hand of a learned is given. And in the hand is the vīnā.

Vīnā is the instrument which is the first instrument that was created, that is the primordial knowledge about aesthetics of sound, the primordial ideas about aesthetics of colours, the science of beauty. He has to be a man who understands beauty, in its glory and not in its condemnation. Such learned people are to be respected. And these are our ideals as far as the movement of your being is concerned. You have to move with the idea that whatever extreme you are trying to do, avoid it, be in the center and keep your eyes on the ideals that we have to have these other sides also otherwise only the nose will increase or the ears will increase or the eyes will increase. The whole has to be increased by balance, then only you can have the real joy out of it and not the combination happiness must go with unhappiness.

But the greatest thing of getting the joy is Self-knowledge, is to know your Self. Once you have known your Self, it's like a light which gives you a complete balance. Once you have known your Self, you will know the collective being and then you will know also that all this knowledge, whatever you have got so far, is for the use of the collective being within yourself. Then you will be rightly using that knowledge for the right purpose, the wealth that you have cumulated for the right purpose. And then the real joy will come into you and it has to be understood in its complete form and not in its part here and a part there.

Those who lead such partial life, are imbalanced and can never be happy. As long as they are running they may be, but when they stop they'll be very unhappy.

So never confuse happiness with joy; joy is something very different from happiness. Do not seek happiness, but seek joy and blessings of God by which our lives are blossomed, that we receive all the dimensions as I told you that you all have sixty-four dimensions which are to be exposed, sixty-four dimensions all of you have got. But they are not possible to be even felt before Self-realisation, so Selfrealisation is the first step which one should achieve.

Now those who think that “After all we have to live in this world” everybody lives. Do not divert your attention to something that is not so important. Now the time has come for you to put your attention to the right thing so you achieve the right results with your life. As it is, you will find that you have already wasted your time, in the way when you will think over it, you will think, `Oh God, I have been doing this, all this my life.' But now the time has come for us to respect ourselves, evaluate ourselves and make the best and the maximum out of it.

Today I have given this lecture, because after eight days or so, on the same day, today, Monday, there is a Diwali in India, where we have really a combination of four things and one of them is this Lakṣhmī Pūjā. On the Diwali day, when next time I speak, I'll tell you all these four days what do they show. But those who think by denying God, by not paying attention to Him, they could be happy and they could be joyful, they are sadly mistaken. Ultimately it is He who is to be achieved, it is

He who is to be manifested, it is He who is to be worshipped and to be enjoyed.

So those who think that anything else is going to replace this are sadly mistaken. You will see, those, thousands of years back those who came in the name of God were not the people very successful or very rich or something like that, a very great seducer or people like Duke of Wellington. But they were great people, they are the milestones of our creation and not these who just arbitrarily behave without understanding the universal nature that is within us.

May God bless you all.

Let us have some meditation and see how it works out for all of you.

If you have any questions, anyone of you please ask, any questions are there, we will do for five minutes, not much time is to be wasted on questioning.

Have to take out your shoes.

Keep your eyes open. Are you feeling the Cool Breeze, little.

How are you all? OK.

[Talk continues in English:] Who are the new people today, absolutely new? Now... Who else is? Gentleman: This lady's for the first time.

Shri Mataji: You are also for the first time? You had come earlier.

Lady: Yes, from Birmingham. Bala asked You.

Shri Mataji: Oh, I see. May God bless you. She's already got realisation. Bala is a great Sahaj Yogi he is, must say. He started his work in Birmingham and he has given realisation to so many people. And he just can't understand how, by raising Kuṇḍalinī, how he's being able to give realisation to people, how it is working? Every one of you can do it, those who are realised, but some people have courage like Bala, who has just taken up upon himself and even these two gentlemen's friend Subramanyam, he came to see Me in Bombay [Mumbai], in Delhi just to, he was driving a car to drop some people and he came to see Me, got his realisation, as today he's a very great Sahaj Yogi, in Delhi he has cured so many people and he is doing such a lot of work.

So it is only for the Sahaj Yogis to take upon themselves. See those who take up, they can work it out very well, it's not difficult. All of you are enlightened and you all can do great work.

It's what I was wondering, that I have not seen her before and how she is realised? Lady with German accent: I've searched for the truth for so long, I know the truth is in You, I know that, without any, I read this paper [UNCLEAR] and I knew immediately and in thirty-three years I have searched for someone who really speaks the truth and doesn't bend the truth and you don't find those...

Shri Mataji: Yes, that's why you find it, also. If you accept something as truth and you linger on it, then it is a wrong thing, you see? And then what happens that you are identified with it and it's very difficult because these misidentifications cannot drop out, you have to give up this misidentification, then only the truth comes within you and truth is the most joy giving thing, I mean it is joy, truth is joy and that's beauty, Sat-chit-ānanda. It is not a harsh thing. Truth is not harsh, people think truth means harsh stuff, no it is not, it's the most beautiful thing. It's the most delicate thing, it's a very subtle thing and it's the most joy-giving thing. It's the truth that when it ripples, you see when it pulsates, then you get the joy. The pulsation of truth is joy. It's not harsh, it's extremely kind, compassion, love of God is truth.

They say, “God is love and love is God” but people don't understand what does that mean? Do you have any questions? Is there any question? [To a gentleman:] You have come for the first time? Gentleman: Mmm.

Shri Mataji: You, you can come forward here. I would like to see you. Who else is there? Come along, come along. What's the matter? Hmm? There's one space here. Please be seated. Sit there.

[Shri Mataji asks a question in Hindi.] Now put your hands like this, just like this.

With comfort. Don't strain yourself, just put it like this, just like that. Is nothing to be done much.

Truth is silent, it doesn't speak, it just works.

Start getting Cool Breeze in your hand and go into meditation with that. Breeze-like thing.

Those who cannot close their eyes properly must keep their eyes open. If you can close them nicely without any difficulty, without any flickering, then it's all right, that means you are all right. But in case there is any flickering in the eyes then keep them open. They shake sometimes, quite a lot, before Me.

Are you feeling the coolness in your hands? Are you feeling the coolness? Open your palm, open your eyes. Don't close your eyes.... [UNCLEAR].

Sit with your hands open. You must feel the coolness in your hands."... there's a Cool Breeze-like thing should come in the hand. If it is not coming, you don't worry it will work out. It's coming? That's good, that's good.

[In Hindi:] Yes it is coming. It will start coming slowly.

[Shri Mataji asks someone in Hindi:] What about you? You have some problem, it will become all right. It will come. How are you now? OK. Are you feeling the coolness in your hands? No not yet. You come in the front someone will see. Doctor, you sit here.

[In English:] Just sit down. We'll see.

Keep your right hand on your heart. His back with... Heart, on the... right hand on the heart, yes.

Put your hand on his back just rub it a bit.

[In Hindi:] Do you have a Guru? Audience: No. I don't have any.

Shri Mataji: Look here. Are you a devotee of Devī? No. Do you worship Durgājī? Do you worship Durgājī? Who do you worship? Viṣhṇu. Viṣhṇu is also like the Sun God. Whether you worship or not [UNCLEAR].

Come sit here.

How are you Sardarji? OK.

That's it you have become fine.

What have you got to do? Yes, now your Mother has also started looking nice. Come here and sit.

Come and sit. Come sit in the front, move your hand, straighten both your legs. [UNCLEAR].

That he has a problem, the whole right there. Hmm. Just like this. You put a little pressure there.

Hmm.

Now it's done, can you feel it? [Conversation in Marathi.] The heat has to go out, too much heat he has [UNCLEAR].

Don't keep your eyes closed.

So how are you feeling? So how's the lady? [MISSING 7-10 minutes in Hindi.] [In English:] Very hot. Just imagine, he's feeling cold and he's feeling hot. See before he was not.

Both of them of the same thing they have come together, but he had a problem, your see? [UNCLEAR Words] was heating on his body into you. Now that's the reason and I told you that's a wrong thing, eh? And he's just looking and he said, “Is he?" It's a kind of a disease he's got.

Better now? Gentleman: I was feeling from You going down.

Shri Mataji: Yes, the heat has to go out, you see. Too much heat you have within you. That is what it is. Rub his back. Want some water? How is he? Lady: He's very good.

Shri Mataji: He said “Yes" to Me last week last week, ha? Last week.

Problem is... Let her sit there.

Just put her left hand like this. Just tell him to move like that.

Don't keep your eyes closed. All right? Keep them open and then pay attention on My feet, you can [UNCLEAR] for a while.

So how is the lady? Oh! Oh, she is very normal now. Isn't she? How are you? You are finally normal now, much better, much relaxed. [UNCLEAR].

What about you, how are you now, are you better? Better? You don't need that feeling now. [UNCLEAR].

So how is it but how are your parents? Did you go and see them? Lady: Not yet [UNCLEAR]...

Shri Mataji: You can't really work on her? How are you? You're all right.

How many have come for the first time today? You? [UNCLEAR] for the first time, please come in front. Alright? As much as possible, closer and then...

It's your friend? Good.

You can come here.

And because, you see, the sympathetic system is here and here it passes and [UNCLEAR it propels] into your being vibrations. And the Kuṇḍalinī is invited and she rises spontaneously. Because I am an enlightened person that's why it happens to Me. Tomorrow you'll be an enlightened person and you can do it also.....

... experience it is, [to just] and it starts mesmerizing you. And this is the greatest faltering point. You have to mature. And it is not like this, that, like a toothpaste, I say, “All right, [you've] got this toothpaste.

Your teeth will be shining." It's not like that, because you have problems; you are complicated. You must know you are complicated. And the Kuṇḍalinī though it catches, you see, first time it will shoot up and come here. She is so happy that She has got [you to this state]. She is so anxious. She is your mother and She wants to give you realisation and She wants you to be [happy]. [You do catch]. It comes, connects, but again goes back.

Supposing you are a liver patient. Most of you are liver patients [UNCLEAR]. We call you the [UNCLEAR]. If you are a liver patient, poor thing the Kuṇḍalinī, your Mother has to go there, work out there and you can actually see with your own eyes the Kuṇḍalinī pulsating. You can see the pulsation and you know... Now, even if you are not a doctor you can tell anybody you are suffering from liver very serious and [UNCLEAR].

So many problems have come to us [UNCLEAR through our looks/to our roots] and [even] menopause.

[UNCLEAR Yesterday I heard/But just imagine, for a] doctor the menopause. In India there is nothing like menopause. No one knows [UNCLEAR what it is/whatsoever]. We do not have all these problems of what you call that generation gap. People don't know what is generation gap. It's a continuous life of people there, there must be generation. They [don't talk] about it, you see and they do not understand what is adolescence, you see. They do not understand all this.

This is all created by you, by thinking, thinking about it. You see, a person who has got a brain, you see, it's a devil's workshop. It must be the adolescence, it must be this, that. Now why the women here get menopause because that's very insecure old age; such a horrid thing. I mean, nobody should become old in this country, the way people are. And everybody is going to become old. Nobody doubts about it, [UNCLEAR do we/nobody]. But the way they treat our old people and the way the old people, you know, get so insecure, they are so stupid poor people you know, they try to act like young. They are very stupid poor things; they have lost all, all sense of wisdom because they think big of themselves. We, the way we discard them, [UNCLEAR with/we] the way we try to disrespect [them], they start behaving like young people. I mean, I have seen women of eighty years [still] talking like sixteen-year-old [girls], you know. [UNCLEAR] [I mean, I just don't understand, what's the matter with the woman?] The reason is that is how you can only live in this world.

So the menopause is lost if the woman knows, `I am a grandmother.' I am a grandmother. I can live with My age and I am very proud of My age, of My wisdom and that I know that I do better than My children. I've seen much more of life and can guide them much better and I am in My own age and My own way and I am enjoying it very much.

Like in India we have four types of, we can say, the experiences. And this is My senior part of life; it's the time when both of us, My husband and Me, should really live together, not in [the] separated ways, look after our children. Or we should really go to the forest and live with our grandchildren once we are there. Now we don't have that facility. But it automatically works out. Imagine a sixty-year-old man talking of the marriage, or an eighty-year-old man talking of the marriage, or a thirteen-year-old boy also talking of the marriage. I mean, there is no maturity. There is no growth. You should grow. You should mature and people should respect that maturity.

Because of this kind of all the complications these lazy minds or, I should say, the overactive minds are... You see this point. Cancer is the disease of the West [and] not of the East. I mean, people don't know what is cancer, at all. In the whole Ayurvedic Shāstras there is no description of cancer. How the cancer is formed? By over-activity of thinking. Diabetes is also because of this ego. Heart trouble is because of this ego. Either they go mad or they get heart trouble, one of the two. Those people who are so they bear it up the oppression of people who are thinking too much... Because the one who thinks, he always dominates. “You must drive like this. You must go like that. You stand like that. You must sit like that.

You must eat like that." All the time worried about others, minding others, such a person will get a heart trouble. And the person, apart for us, you see, somebody gets a heart attack we are very [UNCLEAR]. I mean, if you see, he actually, he doesn't judge much of the things and the person whom he has dominated and got this heart attack because God is angry. But the other person, poor thing, the one who suffers too much gets a [UNCLEAR madness/maddening] and we, we laugh at mad people. Our attitude changes.

Those who have gone mad have really suffered too much. And those who have heart trouble are the people who have dominated. All ego-oriented people get heart attack. Actually, we have to ask forgiveness from God that, “Oh God, please forgive us." We have to appeal to His forgiveness if we want to have to avoid heart attack. Oh, but if I tell this to anyone who had heart attack he'll [UNCLEAR give Me a heart attack/leave immediately]. I cannot say this to anyone that, “You are very ego-oriented and you have become routine. There's no need for domination. Become humble in your heart. Become humble in your heart." They'll immediately get angry with Me because [their aroused] ego will come forward. They'll say, “You are [UNCLEAR]." So this kind of a thing they do.

I would request you to understand the complications we have in the West. Now I am not facing an Indian talking. It's all right for Me that is Eastern which is on the other side of it. Take it from Me.

Eastern people have another problem, terrible problem they have. You see and that is the different thing today I am facing you and that's why I have to deal with/believe it is your problem as it is and see [UNCLEAR if/which] I have seen, we can [UNCLEAR] which I have noticed, which I've heard, if we can work it. I have gone into everybody's Kuṇḍalinī to find out what's the problem with these people.

And that's how I found out.

So you have to humble down in your heart. If you have to evolve, really humble down in your heart. I've seen even the priests, even the people who try to preach, they are so ego-oriented. There is nothing like love in them. In the love also there is so much ego. See, love is full of good [UNCLEAR]. It doesn't emit. All these things are there and the responsibility for them goes to our overuse of our ego. We have used it for our [UNCLEAR struggle]. Because of use of ego, our intellect, we think we can manage. But don't try to fight the ego. If you try to fight it will sit on your head. The same ego is supported because through this ego only you are tired. You are fed up with yourself and you are not going to venture. If there was not sufficient ego you would not have been [UNCLEAR like this/on this earth].

So you have felt it. Now you are going to manage it and it can be worked out. Not to hate yourself, because you have been egoistical.

Because the another type [UNCLEAR would/could] be and we have some people who are another type, they are even worse. They are all the time crying and weeping, “Mother, I've committed this sin and that sin." So going from this, this extreme to that extreme, is not needed. I've known many people who come and tell Me, “Mother, how can You cleanse me? I am such a sinner." “Now who are you? You are coming to Me. If I am your Mother, then I will have to worry [UNCLEAR] for you. You just don't worry. Don't you worry about anything." But still they go on. They write letters after letters to Me, such big letters saying what sins they have committed. Now what am I to do with those? This sin is finished and gone, because the sins are on this side, all of them, so-called sins which are all forgiven. They are to be forgiven. God is very kind. He is the ocean of forgiveness. He forgives you. If you ask for forgiveness He forgives. Even for asking He forgives you. [UNCLEAR] This is one side, [which] is this side. The another side is this side, is where some people get very much egoistical about it and the another side is where you feel very [great pain]. Both sides are useless. If the extremes are to be avoided, just surrender.

Then you are in the center and the whole thing opens out, the ego and superego. Ego and superego, both of them are sucked inside. And you become [one with] your Creator and feel the beauty of your being which is nothing but it's joy, it's truth, it's [that much]. It's love. And I told you love has [UNCLEAR] these vibrations are nothing but they are love. If you touch anybody he feels the love. If you touch anybody he feels the love. It's the love. Your talk and even thinking is [very] together and like that you will be able to change this world, this society which has to get all its transformation into a newer society in which you will have no race, no religion, so-called religions, no dividing countries. God never made all these nations or anything. He just created this earth, just that. Then we, the great thinkers, you see, wished and divided this one into different lands and then we call this as India and that as England and that [all].

And then very nicely, with all our people we started fighting. Then we had wars. See, not [UNCLEAR] human beings.

So best thing is not to worry any more about that part and not to blame yourself. Now I know there are some people who [UNCLEAR] feel guilty, very much more guilt, but there's nothing to feel guilty about. Both things are nothing but extremes. You have to just take your realisation and you have to be universal. This is a very simple thing. Now...

Seeker: Can I ask you a question, please? Can I ask you a few questions, please?

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Seeker: First of all, one has nothing to do with the other. First one is that You'd like me to get realisation I've seen [and You mentioned so].

Shri Mataji: Yes, of course.

Seeker: Now, I would like to think for a while that people must be at different stages of realisation at the moment. People must be in different stages of spiritual consciousness. Therefore, is it possible for them not to feel, to have visions about that but not to be aware of it?

Shri Mataji: Not to be...?

Seeker: Not themselves to be aware of this state of mind.

Shri Mataji: There are many realised Souls like this in this country...

Seeker: In other words, yes...

Shri Mataji: There are many realised Souls in this country. You see, I have seen many realised. We had one, is William Blake. Blake is a realised Soul. And, but you see, these realised Souls are suffering [further] all their life through [UNCLEAR]. But there are some people who did suffer from this point of view. They are realised Souls and they are different types and they are aware of it that they are realised and they are [UNCLEAR]. But they do not [UNCLEAR dream/raise]. They [touch] somebody and the person gets cured.

So they think this is some spirit it has given. Or they do not know how to become.

They don't know what they have done. They have no idea about what is inside them, how it has worked.

They have no idea. I mean, there are two types of curing, curing people also. One type, who deals with the spirits; it's a wrong thing. This one is wrong. But another type is by this power, only they have it.

There are many realised Souls in this country and many realised Souls are born in this country. This is a specially blessed country. But the problem with them is that they do not know anything. They are just aware that they are different from others, you see, that they are a different type, that they are awakened people, that they are aware. But they are not master of the knowledge, you see?

Seeker: Exactly.

Shri Mataji: So the thing is that they have to become master. They have to know each and everything.

And I am going to tell you all the secrets. Everything I am going to tell you, so why are you not express [UNCLEAR this/it] into wishes, that you should know what you have got, what is your property, how to deal with it. You are naive about it.

So the whole knowledge has to be whole [UNCLEAR] is to be achieved, that variety. And there are many like that. But they have a problem, as I said once, that, that you see, they got this Self-realisation without even knowing. It's very hard for them to believe that they can really get [this state] within. Secondly, when they were born-realised, you see, there were different people from the society, most of them.

So they were attacked. They were never liked by others and people thought they were rude, different type and all that. They were calling them, you see, mad people and all that.

So they developed a cynicism. And this cynicism gives a funny type of reaction, towards, [UNCLEAR everything material/everyone], [even] towards [pain]. I found that. And they come round, but they first of all waste their [UNCLEAR] energy before they find it.

So also they have a [UNCLEAR] because of this cynicism, you see. And they, because you see, you develop a mechanism by which, cynicism is nothing but a mechanism, by which you face the world. Then when you come before Me also, you face Me in the same way. It's a mechanism that is built in.

So I would say that for them, I am here; they are there. [UNCLEAR Actually/Should] we agree [UNCLEAR]? I told them, “I am very proud of you." And they are here for this purpose.

So there is nothing to be [upset about]. It's a very good thing and accept Me to be your master [UNCLEAR]. Now, what is the second question?

Seeker: The second question is that as I always [UNCLEAR]. And that's a free process in [UNCLEAR] keeps around you. Certainly [UNCLEAR]. Could You do? And don't ask...

Shri Mataji: No. There also, the same path is there, Buddhism. You see, Buddha, Buddha also had His realisation through Sahaja Yoga only. His Kuṇḍalinī rose and he got His realisation, enlightenment, as you say. But Buddha is a different style of personality which was created specially for this purpose. He is the one who conquers His ego [UNCLEAR] [vibrations] are from this side. Because if you see the ego is on the other side.

So Buddha's position is about here.

So He stays there and He is there.

Now Buddhist people [UNCLEAR], Buddha [isn't there]. Buddhists are the same, Christians are the same, Hindus are the same and even then what you call the Zen style is the same. All of them are just the same style. None of them are [not good], none of them were [UNCLEAR]. There were many Christians who were realised Souls. I've read some books and I could see that they were realised Souls, but they were ill-treated by the Christians who were in charge of the Church. There are Hindus who were realised Souls. Even, you see all the Shañkarāchāryas [UNCLEAR behalf/disciples] are not [realised Souls]. All the Shañkarāchāryas are not good, except for one who was there, but he was taken out. He is taken out.

You see, anybody who is a realised is thrown out. They are [afraid] because they are challenged. You see, these organizations are run by people who are people who have no faith.

So I have not met one person I have been to, say, I will tell you the name of the greatest of Buddhist leaders is Thich Nhat Hanh and the another one is Dalai Lama. I have met both of them. They have been sitting next to Me and telling Me all this. Both of them are not realised. They are possessed. What can we do? They are. But they begin listening to Me. The things that they tell you about, it's not realisation. Realised persons talk to Me differently. [UNCLEAR He says/Let's say] that [UNCLEAR realised persons/a realised person] [UNCLEAR talk/talks] in this way that his interests are different. Let's say, for example, I can quote Kabīr. Kabīr says, [Hindi.] “I get twenty-five of them together and put them into one head. This is the mind of a [realised Soul]." He thinks of the collective consciousness.

But these people will say that, “We will know who is going to be the next Lama." Who cares who is going to be the next Lama? You see, whosoever may be. They see all this things. Their third eye is nothing but a devil, is telling them that that one should be the Lama. Do you know that poor country of Tibet is squatted completely by these people. They live like lords and today even they are given alms.

So keep yourself open. I am just telling you the one who is Buddhist can be quite dangerous, as dangerous as any Hindus, or Muslims or anyone, who have even got lot of the [UNCLEAR] until, you'll be amazed. The other day we had a girl from Italy and there is a Buddhist who has come to Bombay [Mumbai]. He wrote to them that, “We don't touch, you see, anything but a marble floor.

So you put marble floor for us." They couldn't imagine, for an ascetic who was willing to have a marble floor. Ascetics should be able to sleep on the street. They must have a marble floor.

So poor these young people, you see, [UNCLEAR from/in] the foreign, places [UNCLEAR from/in] the Western countries, where [UNCLEAR there is only much naivety/their parents won't be much delighted].

They worked hard for one year and collected money to [fulfil] his desire, worked for this horrible parasite, this [UNCLEAR]. And what did he do, do you know? He makes them bow to him one thousand [times], one thousand [times]. And one of them, a person felt tired that she has lost the conscious because you see, it was too much. This is what they do. But how will you know if they are true or not? Not by any [UNCLEAR], by their talking. They can talk very big. They can be very great speakers. Still it is coming to [UNCLEAR]. But how they can give you realisation, or whether they are true or not. And for your benevolence and for your growth you take your realisation first and then you can see. Do not criticise Me because I am telling you this. I have to tell you the truth. I am not here for any position.

I am telling you the truth and you will know the truth yourself when you'll realise with your vibrated awareness. Immediately, you'll know.

Now, I will give you a simple example. My granddaughter, she's [about] five years of age and she [UNCLEAR] more and there was a lama sitting there with his head was shaved and with, what you call, a maxi was wearing and was sitting down. And everybody was touching his feet. Even My son-in-law went and touched his feet. My daughter also touched. Now this girl couldn't bear it. She went and pushed the `holy man'. She said, “What do you mean? Only by shaving your head and wearing this kind of a dress you cannot make others touch your feet. You are not a realised Soul." Five-year-old girl just told him off.

And it is only possible if you are really realised and you have [UNCLEAR true/full] conviction. Even a small little child [can do that, they will immediately say what] is catching in you. You have seen that little girl who is My granddaughter. She was telling everyone, “This is catching, that is catching, that is catching"; even a two-year-old little granddaughter. It is a fact.

So you become that in Sahaja Yoga. Now do not decide because you see here the problem is Christianity was a headache for these people. They realised that Christianity was nonsense and these churches were nonsense.

So they took to anything that they know, Buddhism, they took to Hinduism, they took to another `ism'. None of this isms have worked.

Take it from Me. All of them are nothing but organizations, just like your church.

Some of them are even worse, especially the Hindu temples where you can go and purchase Ganga. If you have to purchase Ganga in India it is not very good. For [UNCLEAR wash the/washing] sins. The Ganges River was angry because of that [name]. Horrible people, I tell you, in the name of religion, in the name of God they have bhoots on. We [UNCLEAR have/had] one gentleman here; he was going to a lama in Tibet. Where is he from?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: He was beaten up by them. They talk of love; they'll beat him up. They had some priests; they are sadists, [I tell you]. And then he said, “I had no money.

So they, they used me for beating up." Very nice. They said, “Those who have no money should work or should accept beatings, or those who have money should give money." Is this Buddhism, by any chance? Have you done any registration? Actually, you'll be amazed, in all these organizations Buddha Himself is angry and He is going to come down [on them]. With all these organizations which run after Christ, Christ Himself is angry. [He doesn't care]. Now think of yourself; now you are a gentleman. You think like this that supposing you have founded something and the people are doing just the opposite towards what you have founded. Then how furious you are going to be? In the same way all these deities are [angry].

So for every open-minded man it is necessary to forgive and forget [UNCLEAR all/only]. Just forget all. If I had seen any sense anywhere I wouldn't bother.

Now you'll be [UNCLEAR surprised/saying that] Zen is such a great thing. Zen is nothing but meditation in Sahaja Yoga only. If you read Zen that there were only twenty-six Kaśhyapa, only twenty-six realised Souls. But the Zen, the head of the Zen I have met and he is not a realised. Now what should I do? Should I not tell you this? If they were realised I would really have gone, even climb to them. You wouldn't believe, I have gone to see realised Souls. Seven miles I have climbed. And I have met very great people, but they are hiding themselves. They do not want to come to the cities, [UNCLEAR] the very bad time they faced. They do not want to be Gurus because they think you will crucify them. If you have crucified Christ they don't know what you are going to do. Already they have suffered. These are all money-making propositions and there will be surrounding the cities, [UNCLEAR]. In some way people harm the Spirit. It's only I who has ventured to come down and tell you the truth. And I would say you stand by the truth. You'll find it out. Do not deny it because I am saying this, but you just find it. You just find it. It is for your experience. Because why are you a loser for anything? After all, you are not identified with Buddha. You are not identified with Buddhist society or any society. You are identified with your Self to have the [blessings] of Sahaja Yoga. Achieve it for you. You have to achieve it for your own and do not identify with any organizations. We are not going to finish [UNCLEAR ourselves/our search] for anything like that. Because supposing, I agree you must have spent lot of time with that. Doesn't matter. You are not going to miss it. That's a good experience. When you'll get another Buddhist society, then you'll not like too much. Buddha if you know, you'll become an expert also, identified.

Seeker: I am not, I am not, I'm not, I am not a believer in Buddhism in particular... just it so happened that [UNCLEAR I told You about/I've fallen apart]. [But I actually see the nonsense and agree with these things.] 50

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes and now you will know Buddha better. When you'll be realised, My child, then you will know Buddha. Unless and until you are realised you will not know Buddha, what are His visions.

He knows you. It's a fact I just tell you, without [your] realisation. Actually it's the mistake of all the people who came on this earth before Me. They were real Gurus, but you have not even known your Spirit.

That's why they said all these things to you. If they had known that you are not even awakened they would not have [UNCLEAR] means it is difficult enough even when it's done for people who are. This was the difference and that's why you see, I say this in My human realisation that [I'll continue doing].

Seeker: Just one question that [UNCLEAR I have to make which is better asking/I would like if it's possible to ask You] that as far as what you said about realisation and also about enlightenment, in the same way the question is this: What should an enlightened what the, an enlightened person's lifestyle when a person becomes realised...

Shri Mataji: When a person becomes?

Seeker: When a person becomes realised...

Shri Mataji: When a person is...

Seeker: Enlightened...

Shri Mataji: You see, that is.

Seeker: Then what should his lifestyle be? What, what sort of person should he be innate, should he be [UNCLEAR innate/behind] this situation?

Shri Mataji: You see, the, the behaviour automatically changes. I will give you an example. We had a doctor; he's not here. He got his realisation by another doctor, who gave him realisation and [UNCLEAR]. All right. He's there, all right, he's there.

So, now, he gave realisation to a doctor and this doctor came in the worst condition because I must say he must have been a great seeker in this life and he was a genuine person but out of fashion, he was doing lots of things and so he said, “All right, let me go and have a drink." He went to have a drink and when he took one sip he started vomiting. You see, the, your religion is enlightened and you just do not feel like doing it. And he just gave up. Then he said, “All right, let me have a girl with me." Because there's a fashion; you must have a girl every day out. It's like another parasite. Every day girl you must take out and give her food. I mean, it's all nonsense. If you are earning your money honestly, why should you waste this money with such people? But it doesn't matter.

He took a girl and all that and he took her down there. And he said, “But [UNCLEAR just/this] I felt so funny with her." And I just said, “You just get out from here and I just can't bear it." And he just did it, you see? So what happens is that [UNCLEAR the whole/we go] [religious with experience], we do not waste any effort, there is no concession [UNCLEAR to/of] it. As far as I am concerned I can tell you this, that I do not rationalise anything. I mean, I do not work through the wise and what we have [UNCLEAR]. But what My stomach itself gets, it automatically works, you see? Supposing I have to meet someone, I go to somebody's house. Now I feel quite [UNCLEAR] in Sahasrāra [UNCLEAR] and then I find the person is mad. And then I find it to be very [UNCLEAR].

So you see, you don't have to rationalise. Your whole being becomes so sensitive. Sensitive to pollution, that gives you that trust that somebody [UNCLEAR], that somebody catches [indeed]. Right and wrong, this sense you can get only after vibrations. Like a man like Christ, imagine standing by the side of a prostitute, defending her. It's only possible for a person who is a realised Soul; is a fact. Otherwise whatever you know, right and wrong, is relative. Absolute right and wrong can be known only after realisation. That's why I say deep in meditation and enlightenment your whole being becomes sensitive. Now I never told the people who were taking drugs to [give up as it is wrong]. They just did it. Because you start enjoying yourself. There is one, that comic book he gave Me. Which one is that?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Ha, in that there is a character who is a realised Soul. You see that. That's one realised Soul in that book. And his behaviour is different from the rest of them. And then you can see a realised Soul. I could see that one there and very enjoyable [UNCLEAR]. You see, so the life patterns of a realised Soul are different patterns [UNCLEAR].

Seeker: What a realised Soul must do then, if he finds work in some place of work which is, which is under someone's position that he is asking you to do something unspiritual, some work which is not Christian or not right. Means should that realised person...

Shri Mataji: No, he would not do that, normally. You see, but somebody...

Seeker: He would not do that.

Shri Mataji: No, he would not. But what happens, I will tell you. It happens like this, I would say, that supposing you are a realised Soul, now and you just don't feel like doing this, you see. But if you just try to do it because you have been doing it, you just try to value it.

Soon after you see, because that practice that you are doing, you may lose your vibrations. [UNCLEAR]. That's the punishment: you lose your vibrations. [UNCLEAR] I have someone... Sheila has come? Where is she? We have one girl here. She is naturally very good and she got her realisation. And then just out of curiosity she went to one of the [UNCLEAR] the first I knew, we have some more over there. She also went there and did like this. She lost her vibrations. When she came to Me she fell at My feet and I saw the whole Kuṇḍalinī [UNCLEAR] immediately I asked her whether [UNCLEAR]. “I should not go." She felt it, that it is so foolish of coming to [UNCLEAR].

Seeker: That's a [UNCLEAR rather/a matter of] justice... I mean following what You're saying it was quite [UNCLEAR] having people who start drinking wine [UNCLEAR]. I was going to say about alcohol. And if you have a very moderate, very, very moderate circumstance I should say seven lemonades with that, seven [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That goes [UNCLEAR out/on/up]. You see, I will not say, `Don't take alcohol.' I'll say even you go to pub, but you'll come back [again] with a five hundred miles. I will not say, `Don't'. I will not. I am not the person to say, `Don't', no.

Seeker: That's what I'm asking.

Shri Mataji: No. But you will just give up yourself, because it's [UNCLEAR wrong/rotten], because it goes against your awareness. Even this much can go, this one also doing the [UNCLEAR]. Now do you know that your forefathers, they're known in our country specially that Englishman is known by are a little thing moderate, but today they are the [remission] they were the pioneers of this moderation. They started with this. And their third generation is now all the time sitting in the pub.

So who is responsible? The one who started this moderation. That is the beginning of the end.

Seeker: But they [were very moderate].

Shri Mataji: True, they were very moderate, but that's how everything [has] started. And there is no end to it.

So why do we need it? You see, truth has no compromise. But you don't have to worry because you start quitting. You are so much drunk in the joy that you don't want to drink. I mean, you are so spirited. Actually the trouble is the `spirit' is a wrong word for alcohol. Either you don't use it for the Spirit that is Ātmā, or don't use it for alcohol. I mean, you are so full of spirit; maybe that is the reason the spirit word must have reason. Because when people ask Me, “Why don't you drink?" I said, “I've been I am so much over-drunk, that if you try your drunkenness with Me and I can [UNCLEAR] in nineteen years."

Seeker: Is [UNCLEAR that/there] a way back to the cause?

Shri Mataji: Aah?

Seeker: Is there really hope to get back to the cause?

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Seeker: Or we have [UNCLEAR gone wild/get wise]?

Shri Mataji: No, no. You see, because such a lot [UNCLEAR it is/has been told]. Death is here.

Because of death, you see, we know we have to die, all right? Because of that knowledge within us we try to do something bad. Supposing that we are eternal, then we would not do. All right? First time you'll be able [UNCLEAR]. Just put your hands towards Me [UNCLEAR in a simple way]. Put your both the feet... Now what is it in a humble way we have to get it for ourselves. This is our right. It's our right to get it. Just take out your shoes. Now if I tell someone to take out shoes people are [annoyed]. You see, you should not, because this is just we are, everybody is doing it.

So just rest, you're just put into it. [UNCLEAR Gavin]. See [UNCLEAR this/for] yourselves.

Now those who are [UNCLEAR]. And those who are [UNCLEAR] should get their realisation. They are. Enjoy yourselves. Close your eyes and enjoy yourselves. Feel within [UNCLEAR you/are] more relaxed, you see. Those who have [UNCLEAR]. Have you got Cool Breeze in your hand? Cool breeze in your hand? Have you got it? No? All right. Just put your hands towards Me. Close your eyes. Enjoy it, enjoy it. Just enjoy it. Just enjoy yourselves. [UNCLEAR]. [UNCLEAR And/You] do not think about it. It should work. That is the thing you must have. You must have that; it is your right to have it. You have been seekers. You have been seekers. You must get it. If you haven't got it, doesn't matter; we'll work it out. We'll work it out, definitely. Close your eyes. Enjoy yourselves. Sit comfortably. Sit most comfortably. This is the point in it. You must sit very comfortably and enjoy yourselves. Just enjoy.

Put your hands on your lap like this. You'll feel hot also. Next time I will tell you what happens after realisation. [UNCLEAR].

Some of you might find that, “I did something which people shouldn't do." [UNCLEAR] you just enjoy yourself [UNCLEAR]. You are fine?

Seeker: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: I said those people who get twinkling in their eyes when they close them can keep their eyes open. [UNCLEAR] and there's a physical thing that happens when it climbs in [UNCLEAR Viśhuddhi/valuation] [UNCLEAR that/then] it gives more chance to understand. It's a very smooth [line].

Some people do not feel at all how it works out and suddenly you feel silent and the Cool Breeze starts flowing. But as I said it, this is an experience absolute, [UNCLEAR... people/comes] to you spontaneously. But you have to [UNCLEAR carry it out/stabilize] it [UNCLEAR... individually/you have to mature]. Can you close your eyes? Are you getting Cool Breeze? Close your eyes. Close your eyes. Close your eyes. You'll feel better like this. Are you all right? Close your eyes. Just pay attention to yourself. Just enjoy yourself. Put your attention to your heart. Enjoy yourself. Close your eyes. Do not pay attention outside, anywhere. This is the time for you to pay attention to yourself. You have paid too much attention outside. Put your attention to yourself inside. Please, put your attention to yourself inside.

I'll give you one more method that I have [made] for you. But you keep your eyes closed. [UNCLEAR].

Some of the Sahaja Yogis have to get up to give seats to the people who are coming. Now, there are some people who are realised in Sahaja Yoga and they can come and test you, because those who are realised are to be tested again and that's how you would know whether you are realised or not. And then you are realised; then you can also see for yourself and all that. Please put your hands towards Me like this.

[UNCLEAR Mister/Rustom], all other people have to be here. Please let them come.

Yes. Now if you could be seated in your seats and don't you worry. These people will just come and see it, because from their hands the vibrations are going and they know how to manoeuvre it and they will also teach you how to do it. It looks little funny for you to begin to see how they have to use their hands, but from their hands the vibrations are flowing, from all the fingers. But they how to manoeuvre and what is to be done.

So you shouldn't have any objection for that, which you will realise later on gradually how it is done. Are you all right?

Seeker: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Those who have had Gurus please raise your hands. Those who have had Gurus before.

Some Gurus, if you have had Gurus, raise your hand.

Some sort of a Guru or someone. Teacher, teacher.

Maharishi, all those who you have been to Maharishi also?

Seeker: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Why? Have you had anyone? Have you had any teacher?

Seeker: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Now, have you got Cool Breeze in the hands? Yes, that's your, that's your Guru. He is the one, you see, he is doing harm from the right side, he is the one who [UNCLEAR]. What about you? [Dialogue between the seekers and Shri Mataji].

Today if you ask Me one or two questions it would be better and I will give you the answers because this is between us, those who have had the experience and those who are practically there and there are very few new people here I see. But those who are at least acquainted with the vibrations and all that, should ask Me questions to begin with, because then otherwise I will be tackling new persons later on. Hmm.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother you said in Caxton Hall that if a person doesn't speak to their mother for a long time... can you elaborate on that theme again please.

Shri Mataji: You see, you are born from a Mother, alright? You are not born hanging from a tree and neither you are thrown from the heavens and suddenly you are found, born on this Earth. You are born from a mother in her womb. Her blood flows into you for nine months. You live upon her. You are a part and parcel of her being for nine months, which is the most important time of your life. Now, she is there to give you first the sense of security. In a mother's womb a child feels secured. If the mother is upset it has an effect on the child. If there's something wrong with her then that is affected on the child, in the sense, physically, also. It's such a deep relationship exists between you and your mother that I'll have to write a book to tell you how much it is deep within you.

But, within us, the power of Kuṇḍalinī is the power of a Mother and not of a Father. The Father is the Witness as a Spirit and the Mother is the Kuṇḍalinī. And the Kuṇḍalinī has to rise. Now it is the Mother in you that is the Kuṇḍalinī and your own mother. It very much depends what kind of relationship you have with your own mother.

Supposing you do not know how to love your own mother, you can never love your mother country, you can never love it. That is the beginning. The training starts there only with your mother. If that point is lacking then you cannot have a full blooming of that love. Now maybe the mother has not been a very good mother possibly. There are according to Sanskrit words, as I told you, there cannot be a bad mother, Kumātā, but sometimes she could be bad also.

So the idea of a bad mother is more brought forth by the intervention of law into mother child relationship. When mother is being punished by law for correcting her child or doing something, the artificiality starts; when people can sue their mothers. The responsibility of the law is not to disturb the natural relationships. If they start disturbing the natural relationship, the artificiality starts. And that's why, in the countries where law has taken charge of children and such things, without understanding the basic thing that it is a natural thing to love your child. Instead of that, if they had encouraged mothers who were more loving, more kind, if they had even training to mothers, how to be more kind and gentle, if they had given more impetus to people to be good mothers. Instead of having beauty contests if they had `good mother contests'. If motherhood had been upheld by political and economic institutions, then it would have been much better.

But the whole society is turning to self-destruction.

So the law first takes over, so the child is quite sure of itself. Now an eighteen year old boy in the family, who gets the dole [unemployment payments], then he thinks no end of himself. He answers back his mother, he talks in a very rude manner to the mother.

It's alright to say you have done it for an eighteen year old boy but you don't know that he is the eldest boy. The other children in the family follow him up.

So they pick it up when they are even very young.

The idea of giving money to boys at that age also is extremely harmful because when he gets the money the other children think they must also get some money, so they start charging mother for the work that they are doing, you must pay 5p for bringing a glass of water for the mother.

Then the mothers now are of a different type. I mean there are so many mothers who say that, “It is not a thing that we should love our children, it's not natural"! Artificial has become natural and natural has become artificial.

How is it, within these [last] ten or fifteen years, suddenly the mothers have become so funny? Now, because of these pressures, what happens is that we develop a feeling against our mother, we start judging our mother and father. We should never judge them. We are not to judge them because we have chosen them, they are there, just as part and parcel of ourselves. Supposing your nose is broken, do you start judging yourself, “My nose is broken, my nose is broken"? Do you discard your nose? In the same way your parents are. You cannot discard your parents! But the whole society is working like this, it's a vicious circle.

Now if I say, “You go and talk to your mother” then you can say, “My mother is not a good person.

She is this and that." Then I have to say, “Alright, then you forgive her." Then you don't like it. You would expect Me to tell you, “Alright, just go and bash her." You would be pleased if I tell you like that, some of you would, “Go and beat her up!" But I would not say like that because that's not the way Sahaja Yogis are going to work away.

You must know that the whole society is in a whirlwind, it's a whirlwind, so somebody has to steady oneself and stop and try to change the winds. And that's why a Sahaja Yogi has to stand up and understand that respect and reverence of parents is important. But it is an actual thing, because if you are not good with your mother your left side is weak, you have seen it on the vibrations. Whatever I say you can see it on your vibrations. You will be the loser.

So forgive her. Know that she has given you birth. Maybe if she has been harsh to you, angry with you or done something, forgive her. And you will be amazed, you can win her over, it's not difficult because by your goodness to her, by your over-goodness towards her, relatively it will work. And maybe, exceptionally, one person may be this thing but you cannot make a rule out of that; exceptionally one may be. But if you have to change the society, the whole thinking, somebody has to stand up.

And it is a Chakra within you, you know, where it touches a point of Void, where the left side touches the point of Void. That is a centre, a very important centre for a mother, which [it] makes. And do you know it is very near the centre of existence, because your existence depends on that. Supposing a child had no mother: he can never be a good husband, very difficult for him to be a good husband. Because all the womanhood, all the kindness, the sublimity the greatness of women is known through your mother to begin with. Or a woman who does not have a mother, can never be a good wife or could not be a good mother herself.

All these things are there so we have to stop it and change it. This is the point Sahaja Yogis must know that we have to change and transform ourselves and that is the point [where] they feel bad. We are not only responsible for our change but we have to bring about the change in the whole world, where the society is getting destroyed, the human beings are getting destroyed, so we have to stand up.

So we have to change our way of thinking.

What's wrong in talking to your mother? She's not going to kill you if you talk to her. Why don't you talk to her? Because you hate her. You want her to feel bad. I mean, you don't go and hit your mother, this is the only way you can really be harsh to her, is not to talk to her, [so] she feels rejected by her own child whom she has created. God must be feeling that way also the way we reject Him.

But try to love and you will enjoy because loving is the greatest thing you know. To love someone, is adoration, absolute adoration, is reverence. If you love someone then you know that it is so great, it makes you so great to love someone. It's a very great feeling that I love someone; it's like a Lord one feels, “Oh I love this one and I love so many and so many are there!" And that person need not love Me, I mean I don't think all the Sahaja Yogis love Me so much as I love them, maybe. But I'm very proud of My Sahaja Yogis and I love them.

This is the most joy-giving thing is to love, yourself. To be able to love, that's the greatest ability a person should have: is to love others. And in love, forgiveness is the most; that's why Christ said forgiveness is the greatest weapon. And what do you achieve by not talking? I mean, what do you achieve? Let us see the other side of it; what do we achieve by not talking to someone? Rationally. It's a sweet method of course, if sometimes children do, “I am not talking to you” you see. Then you can have a little play about that. But it should be just a play. If it is a serious stuff it's nonsense. It's just to play about, is very good that, “I'm not talking to you, I'm not going to talk to you for some time” he knows that. But then it is not serious, it is just to bring out certain points and it's nice that mother should come and cuddle you and persuade you and try to help you, that's a good thing. But the way we are serious about it is something wrong.

Sahaja Yogi: Can you tell us what the vibrations are?

Shri Mataji: Vibrations, as I said, that is the manifestation of the Spirit. But it is a very vague way of expressing it. Now see, if there's a nice flame before Me, this candle has been enlightened. Now what does it do? It gives you light. Alright, but how does it give you light? By throwing light towards you, by emitting light. It is the emitting of pulsation from the Self. This light, this is light. Actually there is sound, there is light. Very high frequency sound, very high frequency. Actually many types of sounds are mixed in. There's is magnetism in this, in these vibrations. It has all the five elements, the subtle of all the five elements [Tanmātras] inside these vibrations only. They are talking, they are telling you, they are guiding you, they are helping you. It's because the Spirit is working through them. Like this light that you take in your hand: you go in the darkness and you see that there is an impediment in between [and] you have to cross it.

So you get the idea with this light. The light is doing that for you.

So, when the Spirit pulsates in your conscious mind, in your conscious mind, then it is a Self-realised personality. But in the unconscious it is there, all the time working. Actually the Spirit Itself comes out.

It's as big as your thumb is. But you can contain your thumb in your heart. That is the reflection of the God Almighty within us, because heart receives that image within itself, it is pulsating and is emitting the Knowledge through our unconscious. Spirit is an unconscious being till we are realised. Once we are realised it becomes conscious, it starts emitting itself and pulsating. And what is Spirit? Is God Almighty Himself, in a miniature form, which is reflected within us. The more we clean our heart, which represents all the seven Chakras within us. There are seven auras around our heart. All the seven Chakras which are here in the Sahasrāra, the seats are there and all the seven Chakras that are there, within us, have seven auras around our heart and when all of them are clear-cut absolutely clear, pure, integrated, then the complete emission starts, of those vibrations.

They are much more than I can explain because, say, the other day, a lady was writing a letter to Me and she was saying that, “Mother I am so sorry. I have my accommodation problem is at the climax..." and, very frustrating letter you see, to begin with and absolutely as if she was going to be doomed and all, the way she was writing it! And I mean, such a trivial thing like that, but she was very concerned because she didn't know where to go. And first half of the letter was like that. Second half was this that, “Mother, just now I have received a letter from the authorities that they have allotted me a very beautiful place" in such and such place! [Laughing.] Now, I would say this is all vibrations because it is all-pervading now and you become one with the All-pervading Power so how it helps! Because when she was writing to Me, the vibrations were feeling it, what she was writing from the paper, so they communicated to the All-pervading Power. And as the Angels or you can say the Deities, also, can understand and they must have thought, “Why bother Mother with all this nonsense, better give her the letter as soon as possible, finish it off!" So in the second letter she says, “I'm such a fool to write this but I must write to you to give you the night and the day of my life." So she wrote to Me.

So, it can work out that way, that quick.

So the vibrations are actually the things which are the doers and the enjoyers. They are the one, who enjoy also if they find a very good Self-realised Soul coming, then you just feel the Self-realised Soul and you say, “Oh very good. Come along, come along. Just have it." Everybody starts enjoying that joy that's coming from that person. And that is what it is, that you start enjoying that beauty in that person through the vibrations. It's a multi-dimensional thing, though it looks so simple, that you are feeling in the hand, that's all.

So it is a multi-dimensional thing just like the God Almighty. And for your information it is only He does everything.

So only the vibrations work out everything, we really do not do anything whatsoever, [if we think we do] we are living in a fool’s paradise! For example, a tree dies and you chain it over and make a nice seat for Me to sit down, so what? Tree is dead and you make a seat and you say, “Oh, we have built this, we have done that!" Nothing! What do you do? Can you sprout even a small, little seed? You cannot.

But these vibrations only, which connect you with the All-pervading Power, which are part of the All-pervading Power, these pervading Almighty's eyes, you can say, they are the ones who look after each and every minute thing in this whole world. Can you think of such a multi-dimensional thing? Now you have seen how vibrations work on people, how they dissolve even the thick bones and how they bring out the Kuṇḍalinī here and how you see the softness on your head. Just you cannot explain how.

Because they only do everything. They have the universal communication centers and they have universal broadcasting stations, they have universal TV centers there. Everything is there. In short, you just copy them a little bit and you think you are doing something but you really don't do anything whatsoever.

That's why it is said that Brahma, this is the expression of Brahma, these vibrations are the Brahma, is the only Truth, the rest is all is all Avidyā, is all a Māyā, is just an illusion. We live in illusions you see.

He is the Enjoyer, He is the Doer, you are just in between to see Him. It would be like mic [microphone] thinking that he's giving the lecture of Sahaja Yoga, it's really like that! So to explain what is vibrations may not be so simple in all its details. But the overall idea I have given to you. Is it alright? Rustom: Mother, I wanted to ask what is the function for the left Swādhiṣhṭhāna in all of us because it's been catching all weekend.

Shri Mataji: You all had it? Alright. I'll ask [UNCLEAR] and then this. What's that? Who asked Me there? New person: You were talking about the mother and child's relationship with their parents and you said that maybe you don't like them, but that's too bad, we have chosen them. Would you elaborate on that?

Shri Mataji: We have chosen our parents. Oh we have definitely chosen. I mean, most of you have, because mediocre people, those who are absolutely mediocre, just like very primitive souls. We should not say, `primitive people' but we can say `primitive souls' because there's a difference between the two.

A person may be, say the king you had here, who killed his seven wives, he was a very primitive soul.

He might be a king but he was a very primitive soul.

So the primitive souls, they are not so particular as to who is their father or mother and they also, sometimes, choose horribly primitive people as their parents, also, sometimes.

So both the extremes choose, those who are very primitive and those who are very advanced always choose. And you being the seekers, you have also chosen your parents before taking your birth, definitely, through the All-pervading Power.

So many of you have had parents because of your previous relationships with them. You might have seen that if we attach to some people like a mother, sometimes like a father, in this lifetime also you might be feeling that way. Because in India also the situation is a little funny but still in India it's very common that you start feeling for somebody as if she is your mother you see. Yesterday I saw that Starkey of your BBC1 feeling for a lady, something like that.

So imagine that Starkey, such a strikingly dry person, having that kind of feeling for an old lady! So the reason is that he might have been connected with her in his previous lives and might have been his own mother, like that.

So maybe you might have felt about someone like that in previous lives that, `Oh, I wish she was my mother.'

Maybe she was the mother of your friend or someone and you thought that she was a very good mother, so you have it. You want that mother? Alright? Now when you see her you get frightened of her.

So you will not ask that type, now you will ask for another type.

So you have to go through many types, but better do one completely so that you don't have to come back to the same.

So better know about one completely by loving that person then you are finished with one type; you get another type then.

So coming to his problem of Swādhiṣhṭhān, left. Are you all having catching here? Sahaja Yogis or new people: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I am happy you could see all that. Actually, Gregoire told Me that, “Mother, if you come from the very first day then the attention will be on you and then we want to talk among ourselves about things. And there are some people who have not known much about Sahaja Yoga and we would like to discuss." I said, “Good idea, you go ahead. I think it's a good idea and you should do it." Gregoire: No, not exactly that Mother, this I can't say! 57

Shri Mataji: But what I'm trying to say is that your intentions were good that you were going to see for yourself, meet everyone and all of you suggested that to Me. I mean, somebody, everybody said that, “We would like to discuss among ourselves." Now, so there are children of different types. You said, “Let's see now what happens." But it's a good idea, very good idea, because I would like you to mature like this and to understand, because this is a very good thing that has happened. Now, I will say why it is good. Alright? Because, supposing you are all the time under My sarī, hidden down here, you are never going to face these horrible things. And some of you, even today, do not believe that there are [dead] spirits. It's better to face it. Better to face it. Now there are also people who get possessed, also there and they know what it is, but those who were never possessed do not believe in it. Actually they do believe because I am saying it, but actually inside they do not believe that there are spirits.

So it was nice to face them here, first of all, alright to know.

Then secondly you are not to remain all the time under My sarī. This is called as Palla in Sanskrit language you see.

So you have to face it. And it's a very nice thing that has happened that you have been able to face it. Now you're over that. Now any place you go to all the devils will run away from there! Not only that but nobody of this kind would be going to those places again.

So, that's a very good thing that has happened. And, that you have taken it up upon yourselves. It's a very big thing, I liked it. I really liked this thing, that you wanted to take it up and come down here and that you could feel it.

Now, I would say that none of you are harmed, none of you is harmed actually. None of you. Only thing you felt that, because you are in collective consciousness. You must feel the aim of your life, you must know. And also left Swādhiṣhṭhāna is caught by people who indulge in unauthorized ways of God.

And so you recognize that, all of them who have been here have been unauthorized. Without any argument you know.

So, that's a training and which you understand it, first of all.

Secondly none of you are caught up now, just if you see, none of you have got anything of Swādhiṣhṭhāna left [remaining]. You never catch actually. After all you are the instrument so you are the indicator. You just indicate. If you could just learn how to be a witness to that indication you will never feel [that] you catch.

Now, what you have felt catching is the left Viśhuddhi actually: is that you are feeling guilty about it, that, “Why where we panicked?" [Laughing.] So if you say one thing, the other thing comes up. What was there to be panicked? [Laughing.] So the left Viśhuddhi is catching and showing. See the joy! Sahaja Yoga is such a joker I tell you.

Sahaja Yogini: We thought, why were we here, last night?

Shri Mataji: You must have been blaming the place, you must have been saying that, “Oh, Why did we come to this place? We could have gone to some other place and worked it out. All these people have been here!" No, you have to work very hard. You have to go to much worse places than these are. You are soldiers and soldiers have to be on the battlefield.

Sahaja Yogi: We won a few battles I think.

Shri Mataji: You have, you have won it! But you are not enjoying the victory because you are involved into it. Once you know, “Yes we had to win. We have won it” then you enjoy it. But on the contrary now you are feeling, “Why did we panic?" So this is it. You never catch. But the more you start thinking that, “We are catching” then you really catch! You are the Eternal Being. You are the one which cannot catch anything. You are the one which cannot be destroyed by anything. You are that, so how can you be caught up? Only change your attitude about things and then you will know that you have not caught up. It's all a drama: Mother not coming in the beginning, when she's coming, it's all a drama, nicely done. I was very happy and I was happy also that Gregoire suggested it. Though I don't know if he suggested it with the idea of becoming a big soldier but he did become! His idea was good, very good idea. And it was not his, but everybody was feeling, I could read your mind that you all wanted to go beforehand and talk to the new people and tell them about it and give them a little lecture about it because they have not known much about Sahaj Yog. They have been much more with the others and some have come for the first time, for them it is all Greek and Latin! So it was a good idea. It was a very good thing and this is very much related to what I am going to say to you today.

So now can I say? Oh this question, alright.

Is that a question [you want to ask] or taking out your badhas?

Sahaja Yogi: Taking out. [Laughter.]

Shri Mataji: No you are alright. That's why you were responsible I think, so you were taking the responsibility too much and that's why you were heated up. Now you are cool. Alright? You are not responsible for anything.

Sahaja Yogi: At the last meeting at Caxton Hall a person I worked on someone and he was taking lots of drugs and this person kept recognizing various people. He would say, “Oh yes I've seen that person before, Oh yes, I've seen that person before." Now, do you think it's because the person had been taking lots of drugs that they were going into the collective subconscious?

Shri Mataji: No, no, no. You see, he's a drug man you can't bother. I have seen some people who were drunk, quite funny they are, you see, somebody came to our house and they were given drinks and he came to Me and he said, “Oh you must meet Dr. Gan!" I said, “Alright” then again he said, “You must meet Dr. Gan!" Again he said the same thing. I said, “Why is he saying?" So, I couldn't understand. Then My husband told Me something he's heard from someone that, “You have to meet Dr. Gan” so he's telling you all the time the same.

So you see these drunk or drug people are diseased, you are not to bother as to what he's saying. There's nothing, no truth in it, what he's saying. If he says, “I recognize you” it's just maybe another trick of the bhoots. I don't know, it's nothing important. They can do anything and they can say anything. They are not normal people. They are sick, they are sick people, temporarily sick, so you cannot just trust them.

And there is a big craze in the West to say, I have heard people saying that, “I was in Egypt" [in another life]. I said, “How do you know?" “Because such and such person told me I was in Egypt." I said, “What difference does it make whether you were in Egypt or you were in India or whatever?" Whatever you are today is the point! So they are paying money for that, to know what they were! That is also there, it's a big craze going on. But that's not [the point that] you have to find out what you have been. I mean, how do you explain it, why people ask? I don't know how to answer this question. I don't understand, why should you ask anyone, “Where was I?" Then people make money on this kind of a nonsense if you have, “What was my previous birth?" Then somebody was telling Me, “I was a pig in my last life” He said, “Mother do you agree I was a pig?" [laughter]. What should I say? Because if I say, `yes', she may not like it, if I say, `no', she may not like it.

So I just avoided the question. But some sort of a thing like that. It's very silly but human beings have funny ideas you know. Now, to be a pig! I mean, I would hate to be a pig! And the stench! But they wouldn't mind calling themselves. I mean they are so funny that they would not mind calling themselves pigs when they are human beings you see! I mean, you don't know what to say.

I mean this is how it is. They are not to be taken seriously, very seriously. But it's surprising that people are taken very seriously sometimes. We had a group of people coming to Gavin's place and there was one, a realised Soul who had become a drug addict, I don't know how. He fell into very bad company.

And the another fellow, whom he had regarded as something great, was really mad, absolutely mad! Isn't it

Gavin? He was so mad [that] I don't know how this mad man was accepted by all this group as something great. He said, “He's beautiful Mother, you don't know, he's beautiful” I said, “But which part of the thing is beautiful? You just tell Me." He is irrelevantly talking, has no sense and nothing! He's mad, actual mad. You can see, he went into [a] lunatic asylum. I said, “I don't understand the worshippers of lunacy." This is like worshipping lunacy. You just cannot understand this also, so you just can't say.

Next time, when you come to any such programs or any place, now you ask Me, “What should we do Mother with all the mad people?" And I will tell you what is to be done so that you will not have so much of mosquito drama. It was just a mosquito drama but I'm happy you have handled it very well and you have gone just there where you were.

Now, today, I am going to tell you about Sahaja Yogi, as you are Sahaja Yogis now. You are reborn and you are realised Souls. And what we have to think about ourselves. That is a very important thing.

After Sahaja Yoga, as you say that, you have got realisation, you have powers also and lots of powers are there which you are not aware of, that powers we have got.

Now, the first power you have got is to correct yourself without conditioning yourself. Before this, if I said, “Don't do this, don't do that!" or you did that way, you were conditioned. Let's see what is conditioning then you will understand it better. Say, it is all darkness and I cannot see anything inside out, I am just involved into my own body and I want to treat myself, then I put my instruments into wrong places. And the more wrong I do the more I try to recorrect it and it goes even worse and worse and worse. But supposing there is all light and in you is the doctor who comes out of you. You get separated from that doctor completely and the doctor, who is not involved into your pains and into your troubles.

Who can see through what's wrong with you and he is the only well-wisher you have, then the operation is perfect. There is no conditioning because there is no wrong doing anywhere, he knows what to open, what to close, where to put it right. This doctor is the Witness in you, he's your Spirit. When you start seeing through that Doctor, everything, you do not feel bad about it. Just now, as you said that, we are catching on the left Swādhiṣhṭhān, it means a terrible thing. It means that you are practicing something which is unauthorized. That means it is blasphemous. You are doing something anti-God. Taking the responsibility upon yourself to do that. But you don't feel bad about it because you are separated from yourself and you see that, “If I am catching on this, that means there is an effect of something on me by which this part of the centre is suffering and I must correct it." And you start correcting it because you feel the pain within yourself. Supposing your Āgñyā is catching here: means you are egoistical, you are dominating, you are non-forgiving, you are like a Hitler. But you don't feel bad, once your Āgñyā is catching, it's paining, you say, “Take it out Mother my ego is colossal. Take it out!" You don't mind saying that.

If somebody had told this to Napoleon that, “You are egoistical” he would have killed him. If he had told this to Hitler he would have finished him off. He carried on with all his vices, all his self-destroying things with great pride but a Sahaja Yogi cannot.

So he has much more chances and much, much instruments to clear himself and to make himself alright, to change himself, without feeling hurt about it, because he's no more identified with his vices. He's not identified with his ego so he does not mind correcting himself, his ego. He can do that very easily without conditioning him.

You see, about religions, the greatest objection was that it conditions people, so they started the other side of it to decondition people.

So the permissiveness and licentiousness, the other side, started. One was conditioning, the other was deconditioning. But if you cannot be conditioned what is the question of deconditioning? So, for a Sahaja Yogi, there is the power given, of loving himself, that he corrects himself, in True Love.

I don't know how much, really, we know how much we have to love ourselves. If you truly love yourself, truly love yourself, then you would like to do something of which you are really proud, within your heart.

Say, giving realisation to someone, is such a joy-giving thing within yourselves. You feel so happy about it. You may do hundreds of things in this world but you won't feel that way as you would feel when you have given realisation to someone. Because it's a living process which you can do. But when you really understand yourself, the need of your Self, then you really love yourself very well. Otherwise you really do not know what to do to love yourself. To love yourself means, you must know that this body of yours is a special body, now, because it is emitting vibrations, it's a temple of God so respect it. Respect your body. Don't be vulgar about your body.

We really had, like Mary Magdalene somebody in India, who came to us...[GAP]... keep it clean, in the sense, yes I mean washing and this thing, you know that's not the point. But even many people I have seen, are not aware that we get uncleanliness from others, like shaking hands. I mean, if there is someone, you have to shake hands, alright, if you are that much developed that you do not get unclean it's alright. But if you are not, be careful before shaking hands. Better to say, “hello" and things. You have to be a little particular about it because I have seen people, when they shake their hands, they do receive more bad vibrations than [they] give good vibrations to others. Shaking hands or hugging others, or bringing your body to them only, the vibrations, one has to be very careful as to [see that] you do not spoil.

Then this body is nurtured on food: so food also, is important that a food that is cooked by a person who is loving, good, nice, is good for this body. But if you eat a food cooked by a person who is, say, a murderer, immediately your body will revolt, your stomach will revolt against it and that's why, to keep your stomach alright, try to avoid such places which give you bad vibrations. Your digestion will be very bad if you go to places which are not good. For example, going to Soho I always feel like vomiting! Always, as soon as I go there I feel like vomiting, the whole of My stomach and I must have vomited once or twice in that area, I'm sure about it. Maybe more. But first I didn't know it was so related, I discovered that it was in Soho that this happens. And this kind of a feeling comes up when you go to places like that.

So avoid all such places of vices and things. Even if you see such pictures and all that. Not that something goes that you are not above it, you are, but I mean nobody likes filth, you know. We are above everything but we cannot sit in the filth. You are sensitive to this.

As animals are not sensitive to many filths that we have around, but we are, in the same way you start getting sensitive to the filth, the inner filth, that subtler filth which we do not see, so you avoid it. Try to avoid it and you will feel much better. And you will yourself feel your priorities will change, your friends will change, your everything will change and automatically you will not like many things that people are talking about and just your interest will go away. For example, now I asked people just for one's sake, “What about Jeremy Thorpe?" [A homosexual British Member of Parliament accused of murder]. They said, “Mother we are not reading that these days." Normally some of you would have known the whole case so well, even better than the pleader himself. But they don't read it now, just don't read it. “It's filth. It's horrid, horrid." It's like that.

Your tastes change, your styles change. But allow it to grow and manifest itself and accept it. Gradually it will work out. If you press on it, say you are used to the smoking, you will give up smoking, you will not like it.

First you will feel like vomiting about it and all that. But still if you insist, “No, I must smoke, I must smoke” then you can accept it [the smoking] because then you are giving chance to your ego to accept yourself. Now this is the part I'm saying about the body; now you see all the angles of it, that how we affect our body very much.

Another thing is that, too much interest in food will go away, should go away. You should not be too much interested in taste and food and this and that. Also there are crazes about things: the other day I Met a lady, she was very thin, I mean and absolutely I didn't understand and I said, “What's the matter with you?" So she said, “Now I eat all healthy food." I said, “How do you call it healthy?" She said, “There's a `health store' I go to and I waste my things from there and only that thing I buy." All this is a craze! Spiritual health is very different from the so-called `vitaminized' health. You see, Spiritual health is the health you get from love, the food of love. It's different from food of so-called wrestlers bodies, the kind of thing the wrestlers eat. Food of love, we have to take it with love and give it with love and made with love, that is the food is of the highest of all.

So, that's the body part of it, we can see how to look after the body is to not to think too much about food and spontaneously, if somebody gives you something with love, you just take it. That's how you should eat. But if anybody gives you with hatred don't take that food. It's better not to eat such a food than to eat a poisonous thing. It's poisonous for Sahaja Yogis.

Then another thing is to give to others also. We have to be giving to others, food especially. I don't know how many of you bring chocolates for each other, or something like this, or something nice that you find: supposing you go somewhere and you find some nice cherries or something, then how many of you collect it and give it? Do you bring them for Sahaja Yogis? “Alright let me take it for, say in Sainsbury's [shop], when I am there, let me take this money when I am there." This is how you are going to have the articulation, means that you can articulate, you can communicate through this kind of love. You see, a small thing like that, you go somewhere, for Mother you do bring, I know, but for each other, something small and to find out what does he like. Now, I know Dinesh is uncomfortable because he's a tall fellow and I have been telling him that you sit somewhere on a high thing, because I'm feeling it, I can feel it within Myself because I love him and I can feel it because I know tall people have a problem, there height is too much and their centre of gravity is all the time going like that. There's nothing wrong in it. Anybody who should sit next to him should say, “It's alright, come along, sit down properly. Come along, sit down properly." It's good. And somebody who can sit on the ground should offer a seat saying that, “Come along Dinesh, you can sit here." It should be that way.

You see what I am trying to say [is] that: let's see small, small things that are needed by others. It's a very sweet way of living together is, let's see what do you need. I mean, you are going, say, to Germany now so I'll be very happy if you bring something for a friend of yours than for Me, hundred times! Because that is much more nourishing for Me. That's My food, to think, `Oh, My child has been so generous and has been so generous.' One day Gavin really gave Me the very great happiness and I told him that. You see, one day he invited Me to his place and he had lots of people that day and I was embarrassed. I said, “Now Gavin has invited people for dinner but how can so many people be fed? There are so many." Of course, I knew it would be sufficient but it was just a play I should say.

So I allowed about fifty percent of them to disappear and I said, “Let's have dinner now." So then he gave us dinner but he was a little bit unhappy. Next day he got up and he said, “Mother why did you ask half of them to go away? And then why did you ask for food so late? Because I had cooked for all of them." And this was something so joy-giving. I didn't mind those twenty-five going away for this joy that I got, really. Out of that same is that: how much we do for others? Small, small things, you see. And we should not be jealous in that part. Like, supposing Mia does something for, say, our doctor, then Lindsay should not be jealous of that, on the contrary he should realise that it's nice that he has done; he should feel happy because doctor is also part of your being.

Actually as I feel happy, you should be happy. From this you should know that, if it is done for others and if you see that, it's much more joy-giving than if it is done for yourself. I tell you it's a headache, it's a headache sometimes if something is done for you, you get into a problem you see, “How am I to now pay it off? Oh he's done so nice now. I must somehow or other try to pay it [back]. The same way as he is." You feel that he has been so nice and so kind here and so sweet and, “I am not that much, I have never thought of these things how he is capable of these things." So, this idea can come because you have seen [that] you go from one side to another, so as soon as these things happen, that will happen. And also jealousies can come. Both things should be avoided. And should really enjoy to see a friend [happy].

Why we do it every day? You don't know we do it every day that way, in a very unknown way. Supposing you read a nice story and what is the story you enjoy the best? When you find two persons are loving each other without any selfishness. I mean why do we enjoy? I mean, none of us are there. The girl is not we and the boy is not we, we are something different, but we enjoy because we really enjoy that, in the universal happiness that somebody has done that for someone in that genuine way.

Those, I mean, the Indians who have been reading novels and things say that there is a very great writer that we have in our country, Śharad Chandra and if you ask them, “Which is the story that you like the best in that?" We'll say, “There's one `Rāmeśhwar,' " is the story. And in that story it's the beauty of the artist, of the writer is this way, is they show a sister-in-law an elder sister-in-law having great love for the small, little brother-in-law, a little one, who is a step-brother of her husband. And this little brother-in-law first of all wants to find out about his would be sister-in-law and goes and tells his brother that, “You see I must go and see the girl first of all” as in India it's a custom that the elders go and see the girl, “I must approve of the girl otherwise how can you marry her? I must approve of the girl” like a grandfather, you see, just all that. Very sweetly built up the whole thing. But it comes to the climax at a point where this lady has her mother there and she's a horrid thing and she hates this boy because the daughter loves that child. And he's just a little boy and he has the half property and all that and he doesn't understand, an eight year old simple boy you see.

So whatever he does she tries to find faults with it.

So he brings one tree of banyan, small, little tree he gets a shoot somewhere and he brings it up in the centre of the house in the courtyard and he plants it there. Of course it's not going to live, it's a dead stuff, but like a child he brings it and plants it there.

So the climax is brought out by the artist, I must say the way it's brought out is beautiful.

So, when it is put there this old lady comes she gets very angry and throws away all the thing out.

So the boy comes out in the morning time and he sees that the tree is gone, now it's no more there.

For him it's something gone out of his life, he feels so unhappy.

So he goes to his sister-in-law and she's standing before him and he goes on the steps and he starts asking, “Why did you throw away?" She says, “I did it” because she didn't want the mother to be there. “Why did you do it? Why did you do it?" You see, he starts breaking his head before here, showing all his tortured being, that, “Why did you do it?" So she just takes him to her heart and she says, “Do you know why I did it?" So he says, “Why?"

“Because if you put a Banyan tree in the courtyard then the death of the elder sister-in-law takes place." He said, “Oh God! Really? Then have you thrown it permanently? Throw it away in the river! I hope it will have no effect. Put something there. Bring something just do something that it is finished off." You see, the whole thing is so beautifully brought in. And the beauty of love between them we enjoy when we know what it is. And that's how we should look at things when anybody does for anything. Where does the jealousy come in? Just to kill our joy, just to kill our joy.

It is nice to see this is done to others, so much beautiful. That's why the people who have been described in the novels may not have enjoyed so much as we are enjoying them because we can see that much better and feel good. But in every day to day life we do not do it, we do not do it. For example, a stepmother-in-law, if she's horrid or stepmother she's horrid, she'll go and see a picture of a stepmother and will weep there at the way the stepmother is stern and at home she will come and again beat her own child. Human beings are like that.

So try to enjoy that. You don't know, human beings are very complicated. If I see it I don't understand, really, why they do it that way. But when we can enjoy the novels, why not the novel is just here between the friends, between all of us? Let's have a novel and a play among ourselves, how we do beautiful things and how we try to love. This is how we have to work out among ourselves by doing little, little things here and there and that's how we are going to beautify ourselves.

Now this joy-giving quality of enjoying others is present in you already, is awakened now through Sahaja Yoga and trying to make your life joyous. I have seen many Sahaja Yogis who say, “Mother, we have got knowledge no doubt, our attention is there, but what about the Ānanda, the joy?" I mean, you are killing your joy every moment! You are bent upon killing your joy every moment, what can I do about it? Those who have been able to overcome that part, then there is more possibility.

On the other side of it, supposing somebody you see, who is not doing the proper thing about Sahaj Yoga say, somebody who has started drinking now, after Sahaja Yoga: Then you should go and fight it out with him. Sit down with him for day and night and fight it out with him and see to it. You just say that, “I'm going on a fast because you have taken to drinking." Work it out! Put all the pressures that are possible under your command. Tell all the Sahaja Yogis, all of you work it out.

You know, I was very happy sometimes people told Me, “Mother, will you please put attention to such-and-such” all of you put together, if they say, then I say, “They are on right stages." “We are all fasting for such and such person. We are doing this for such and such people. We are working on such and such person." And go and fight with that person, tell him on his face and do it. That something is great.

This is also another way of, really, to communicate between yourselves, to think about the emancipation of others, about the awakening of others and to put them onto right stages.

You will find, all of you have some sort of a problem by which you do not open out to each other. Open out to each other, talk to each other. Openly discuss it. When you will go to India, those who are coming, will see how these people are that way absolutely shameless! They will say, “Come along, this is catching, take it out! Beat me with shoes, do that. Take my shoes and keep it with them and use that for taking it out." And they'll say, “You beat me with shoes, go on just beat me with shoes! I am catching here, you go and beat me with shoes." Unless and until you get after your weaknesses you cannot get rid of them. You should ask yourself, `Oh Mister, come along Mister Sahaja Yogi, now what is your name, this is your problem, alright? So now let me take you to task!' See to your weaknesses. See to your weaknesses and the strengths of others. And build up your strength and ignore the weaknesses of others. But, if it is destroying that person, then get together, many of you, not one, many of you and go to that person and save him. This is how it is going to work out among yourselves.

Now the biggest problem of the West, because now we are dealing with the majority of the Western people, is E-g-o, absolutely simple. It's a very simple thing and I have given you the reason why there is so much of ego and why we have been working through ego and how we have been depending on her. Now this Mr. Ego is the one which gives you ideas. It goes to such a limit of ideas giving that even people commit sin because their ego is satisfied by saying, “What do I care for this God? Who is He?" “What are these scriptures? What do I care?" So this Mr. Ego can take human beings to any limit, any limit of self-destruction and one has to be careful about it. This Mr. Ego only gives you a sense of jealousy, because it gets hurt immediately.

Now in this program, if I do not take the names of two, three people, immediately their ego will be hurt. They will think, `Why didn't you take my name?' And ego identifies with many things, which is a very big problem also, which is such a subtle thing. Now, for example, two friends are there, so they will always club together. Then, if I say one thing to one friend he'll say, “Mother, why don't you say to the other friend?" They will say, “Why don't you say this to other friend?" But not to the whole congregation but to the other friend. All the time that friend is pushed forward. He says, “Why don't you look after this friend of mine?" Or they'll push forward in everything, somebody whom they think must be pushed forward. And this kind of identification in someone is ego's job. And that's how it keeps you there. It gives you identifications, this way, that way. And you have to disentangle yourself. Know, “As far as my growth is concerned, I'm alone. There I am alone. As far as my own achievements are concerned, I am alone. I am not identified with anyone. I am identified with Truth." But as far as the Sahaja Yoga and the whole thing, is concerned then all of us must do it together that way. We should all feel it, that way, together.

So there won't be any problem when you all live together but you will enjoy yourself.

Small things like saying, “Why don't you come to my place?" Call them over. Then you tell others like this. You are all saints. A day will come when you will be respected much more than all these kings and queens put together.

You are saints and you have to behave like saints towards each other, you have to respect because you are saints and that God is in you now emitting It's light as vibrations. Every Sahaja Yogi must respect another Sahaja Yogi. And it is a simple thing which one should know. But we do not know it so well because of the one problem, is ego. But in India people understand it because the ego is not so much developed there, that may be why. I wrote to them about a lot of people might be wanting to come to India, what about them? So everyone wrote to Me, “Mother, what a great pleasure that saints are coming to our country now. To our country they are visiting. Oh we'll be having a big festivity. We are going to have a festival of things." And they were going to take a house in Bombay for 30,000 rupees for a month for you people, because “it should be proper, it should be comfortable." I said, “Now, nothing doing! There will be hardly twelve people coming and you just don't spend so much money." They would have given you a red carpet treatment and those who have been there, you can ask them how they have treated them. “Because the saints are coming and we must serve the saints and they are saints and we must respect them." This is the idea they have there. In the same way, you should know we have to respect each other because we are all saints. We have entered into the Kingdom of God. We have been blessed by Him and we have to understand that we are all individually dear to God and He has bestowed upon us that Light.

If you do not respect each other properly Sahaja Yoga cannot work out. And not [to be] identified with anyone, like I said. I sometimes see those acrobats you have, in the air, when the aeroplanes go round; how they are keeping the distance alright, respecting each other properly, everyone. They do not collide and they do not bump into each other. In the same way, the whole thing should move. See this Universe, see how beautifully God has created it, with so many stars are moving, so many satellites are moving and there's no collision. And this Earth is moving with tremendous speed and we are nicely settled down here without feeling the speed or the noise of that moving mass. How beautifully the whole thing is worked out and how delicately it is all placed. In the same way, Sahaja Yoga is a tremendous Universe and that Universe you have to move with that respect and love and understanding for each other. Arrogance to each other or saying hurting things to others, or even disrespect, even showing your tongue and things, you should not do that. You are saints, you are matured people.

I mean, I have seen, even in the Parliament, the way people behave towards each other is most surprising and shocking, how can they? But you are the chosen ones by God, you are all dignified just like all great sages. Behave in that manner and respect each other! And be very much thankful that you have so many like you here, with whom you can share your ideas and can talk to each other and can be kind to each other and can also be absolutely one with each other, absolutely one with each other.

It is a very special position you are into. Because of this ego we really try to be very, very in-dignified and misidentified. This you can bring about very carefully in the house, if you can write in your rooms, “I am a realised Soul." It's writ large on your forehead! Absolutely I can see clearly. It's writ large in your eyes.

Anybody who goes to India, say, need not tell Me that they are going, Sahaja Yogis will find out who they are in no time. Even looking at a person one can say, `Yah, you see, he's a realised Soul.' It's writ large on your faces.

So identified with your Self that you are and not that what you were, it's finished, you've got your Self-realisation.

So all the franticness the panic, the indignity, the disturbances, all will gradually settle down now. Just shake yourself, because now that's like the leaves on the tree which are dead now, will fall down and the new leaves have to come out.

This is a thing I wanted to talk to you about your Self and about the Sahaja Yoga, internal Yoga. One is internal Yoga here and another is a Yoga between all of you, is very important. Gradually you will be developing new and new dimensions and new and new visions about each other. When you will start seeing this on others, you will start seeing in yourself. Try to see good points of others and bad points of yours. But don't condemn it [yourself] because there's another side to this, is that this left Viśhuddhi, is to feel guilty about it. That's not the point. Guilty, feeling guilty is not done by a person who is in the Witness State. He doesn't take up anything as bad because he can remove it.

So you remove that and remove this and be in the centre. Just be in the centre where you receive the complete blessings.

Sometimes, even if you lose vibrations, doesn't matter. You are a realised Soul and you will be a realised Soul. Even if you are reborn you will be a realised Soul no doubt about it. You are not going to lose it. And if anybody says anything to you [it] doesn't matter, makes no difference, because you are a realised Soul, you are above it, so let them say whatever they like. Whatever you are you are, they cannot change you. You can change them and they cannot change you. They cannot change you.

So it's something that is so much you own so why should you bother if others do not appreciate you? It doesn't matter. But try to help them out. You are just doing it because you want to help them. If you think that way everything will be alright. And for doing it you have to be in meditation to see yourself [that's] very important, to see yourself. And you have to try on others also, if they ask you. You should ask others to see you and watch and find out what's the matter with you, where are we and what is happening to you. But there are now, lots of unanimous feelings among you which is surprising and good when there is an attack. This is the best part of the whole thing is that, when there is an attack, there's a collectivity much more, in emergencies. Like there was an attack here and you felt much closer to each other. And there was quite an unanimous verdict on this that it was a horrid, horrid place we had come to. But the whole thing is transformed into a beautiful place now. Now even somebody coming here and sleeping might get his Kuṇḍalinī awakened you see. You can transform. They'll be a master, they'll just laugh at these people like the elephant walking and the dogs barking like that, it makes no difference to the elephant, he just puts his ears just like this here [laughter].

So, for the morning on this if you have any questions a little bit I don't mind, but on this subject.

Ya?

Sahaja Yogi: Some Sahaja Yogis have been getting colds. Now, if they are getting vibrations, should they be getting colds? And if they are getting colds, are they doing wrong things or eating wrong things?

Shri Mataji: That is the `blessing' of this country [laughter] that you get cold. I mean, this is also a human nature, you see. Just see the beauty of it. You see, in India, now, for example, My husband, at least, wears seven sweaters, you won't believe it. See now, he's [a Sahaja Yogi in the room] wearing a sweater which is covering his neck. Those who come from the hot country keep themselves much more protected than you people. I have always requested all of you to buy one scarf each of a very thick thing, that you should always keep your neck covered with a scarf.

So, I have been requesting everybody that you bring it, I'll vibrate it, I'll give it to you, do that. And also you should know what it causes because of hot and cold you see. Never take anything cold after hot. Gradually you start from cold to the hot.

Now, the another thing which catches Viśhuddhi to begin with, is when you do not have consideration of the collectivity, in a subtler way. In a subtler way it starts like that. When you are aware of the collective being then the Viśhuddhi is much better. Because of the ego problem here, also, the Viśhuddhi catches because once the ego is there you are move individualistic, “I am this, I am that” so it goes hand in hand with that.

So one has to be more careful that we should keep our neck covered and use also some balm or something, just to give it some soothing thing. But, what is the best thing for your throats, is salt.

You see, at this point you become the Virāt, the All-pervading, you can say, the Primordial Being. Now, pervading into everything is done through salt. Salt dissolves into all the solvent things.

So salt is the thing, solution, for this. From the ocean you take out the salt which is clear-cut and then you put it here.

This is, also, is Virāta's thing.

Now, all these Gurus, in the stomach, have praised that Virāt, is the Akbar, is the Great Being, He's the one here [Viśhuddhi].

So the salt, that they are, you have to use them here. It pleases. Salt is like the sages. You are the salt. Do you remember this? And you are the salt, all the Sahaja Yogis are the salts.

And the salt is very pleasing to Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, to your Primordial Being here.

So when you take salt, in that way, is to gargle your throat and to put a little salt if you want to here, with your fingers, with this finger is good. Use this finger for this thing. And look after that part because this is the demand of this country. We have demands of other troubles in other countries, like India is malaria, you have to protect yourself from malaria. Or maybe somewhere it is plague, I don't know what countries even have, what sort of things. But here it is cold and catarrh and all these things are there.

So a few things like that.

And also inhalation and there are some things we know, very simple things, which cost nothing, is this ajwain ka dhuni, which they will tell you how to do it. All these things you must take and look after your throats. It's very important to look after your throats. And that's why people catch cold.

But what is wrong in Sahaja Yoga is this, that you have not respected your Viśhuddhi Chakra. You have to be careful. You catch from other people also so many times, so be careful as not to contact with other people. But it can be easily overcome if you develop your Witness State better and if you concentrate on your Viśhuddhi Chakra. It can improved and it can be settled.

What other trouble people have is liver. It's common with people. Most of you have it because you are all the time thinking too much and the liver doesn't get sufficient of energy so the liver is there.

So, for liver also, we know what is to be done. And it's more liver here than in India I think, yes. Extremes should be avoided, like sitting in the Sun and bathing yourself for hours together and all that is not necessary.

And there's no need to expose your body. You can cover your body and still the Sun's rays go into you.

There's no need to expose your body. Actually the exposure of body is very dangerous for your nerves and everything, it's very bad. You should not expose your body so much. Even in the water also, directly, you should never expose your body. You must cover your body in the water also, because water also attacks you.

So exposure of body should be in a very limited space and in a very limited way. As far as possible body should not be exposed too much. It's very dangerous because then you allow your Chakras to be opened to these entities and a kind of a vulgarity walks in you.

Now, this is another thing is that, in this country, people sleep without any clothes on them. I mean, this is the coldest country where people should cover up themselves and sleep. I sleep with the sweater on and everything on to be very frank, you see! Although we have the central heating on, but we all sleep like that. And here it is a very common thing that you find. And one Indian gentleman told Me that's the reason the children don't sleep in the same room as the parents sleep. And we always had children with us because we don't take out our clothes, we just sleep as we sleep normally. And there's no need to be all the time in a perpetual nudity to enjoy your sleep. Or I don't know what is the need to be nude in sleep because it's a very bad thing is to expose yourself in the night especially because night time all these nocturnal people, all these spirits are hovering around and if they see anybody like that they might end up in them.

So it's a very dangerous thing. But this idea I think you have started very recently.

Somebody must have given you ideas that to sleep without clothes is very good perhaps, which everybody starts doing that way. You see all these, also there are lots of spirits who are writing books so be careful if somebody says like that, “If you take out all your clothes you'll behave different." You'll find anybody here who is all the time [UNCLEAR] nobody. Everybody has some sort of a [UNCLEAR] all the time. It's very bad for the mind. You see the mind is never alright. Like, I would say now, I was coming and I saw a very nice church and with that all these graves, all the crosses and graves there. I said, now anybody going to the church will be possessed. But at least when you go to church there's one thing you do is to wear a clean dress, go with a mark and all that, so that, if they see you clean and neat, then they are a little afraid to come into you. But if you go in the night without any dress there when you get in bed, you can become a booboo next morning [laughter]. That's what they do all these people, this `Nārāyaṇ' and all that, all of them go do it there. And not only but they go to the temples where the Deities are and before them they become naked and do all kinds of dirty things and then get all the [dead] spirits to come down there because no more the God's attention is there. And that's how they work out with dead spirits, so it is like that. All these certain things you have to change. This is not your culture and do not insult your culture by saying, `This is our culture.' It's absolutely nonsensical. This is not English culture, neither it is Western culture. They were all sensible people and they were never that nonsensical, the way we are now and so we should not say this was our culture at all. I mean, this would be an insult to the culture. Only a few kings used to misbehave and everybody criticised them, nobody liked them.

So, I mean that vice has become now, in democracy, everybody becomes a king as far as the vices are concerned, not in the good points. That kind of a democracy is of no use. And so, that sort of a thing it has happened but this was never your culture before. A very great, sensible people and known for your wisdom. You know England is the Heart of the Universe and how could it be that foolish? Just think about it, it's the Heart of the Universe, it is heart shaped also. It's a very important thing and that's why I am here with you.

So try to respect it and respect its traditions.

Sahaja Yogi: Shri Mataji is it easier for evil spirits of bhoots to get into Sahaja Yogis?

Shri Mataji: No, it is more difficult but you can feel them. You see the thing is, when you are not a Sahaja Yogi you cannot feel it. You can get possessed, you can get depressed, you can get all kinds of things, you might even become a lunatic person, you may. Whatever may happen but you won't feel it.

But as soon as you are a Sahaja Yogi you can feel it and that's how you can guard yourselves. It is very difficult. And if you know all the methods of guarding then it's even better. And actually Sahaja Yogis do not catch, as I said, but if you go on feeling, `I have caught, I have caught,' so you have it!

Sahaja Yogi: As far as I can really see that before one can really get in control of one's body from the start one is especially vulnerable [to bhoots]. Is that so?

Shri Mataji: No, no. You are much less vulnerable. But only you can feel it because you are sensitive.

Like, if you have a pain, they may kill it with some sort of a numb effect. But when it goes out you feel it. In the same way, you are numbed before realisation and after realisation you aren't. And that's what Sahaja Yogis think that, they all attack us and all that. They are literally frightened of you because you are much more powerful. It's an idea that, “We are attacked because we are Sahaja Yogis." [Laughing.] The idea is that. Nothing of the kind. On the contrary they run away, they run away. But you should be someone, in a beautiful way that they run away, they just don't come near you. We have three of them in Rahuri and some of the possessed people they told that, “Please tell these three not to go together. Even if they have to go they can go single people. Because, after all, we have left the bodies but we have to live somewhere and they go on their motorbikes” so he said, “tell them not to go that fast. Give us some chance at least to get away from there." So it's like that! [Laughing.] So you are not attacked more. But they come more in your awareness you see.

But there are certain ways of judging you. Like there was a girl in America, she used to run a shop of her own and what happened [was that] she was very good at remembering everything; this is this, this is this, that one is yellow coloured and this is pink colour and this price is so much and everything. She was very good. Once she got realisation she forgot all that, she couldn't do that way. But the profits were four times [larger]. And she was surprised, with all that thing and she used to get a headache every day. She could not sleep with the idea that she has put this here and she should have put it there and all that. She was [now] not doing anything like that. She was just doing spontaneously, just existing and the profits were four times. She was so amazed. Because the attention you pay to [things] is very limited and with your limited idea. But after realisation you just become a vehicle of the dynamic attention which works it out. And it's amazing how it works, amazing.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, can one be too passive about witnessing one's realisation? [Laughter.]

Shri Mataji: You see, passive and active comes from the way we are either in the ego, the way we are acting, whether we are acting through ego. But in Sahaja Yoga you are neither passive nor active you are just there. This is the difference here. What are you saying to Me? “Am I passive?" Or “Active?"

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You are active? You are not. I am passively active. I am acting but I'm doing nothing but I am acting, you can say, in the same way that you have got powers to do. But if you think that you can do it just by sleeping over, that's not the way it will work out. You have to be. Like I have told many people, “Why don't you get up in the morning? If you do not have time in the evening to meditate, meditate in the morning." Because you have to do it. Still you are not there, that's why you have to be active about it. First you become absolutely a Witness State, then you don't have to do anything, you just sit down and you are in it. But still I have to travel, I have to go and meet people. I have to talk to you.

I have to talk to you for hours together.

Sometimes I have to sit in one place for ten hours continuously.

So, I am quite active in that way. And I am also inactive because I am not doing anything, I am just watching it. If I see manifested?

Contents: 1978-12-18*, Public Program, Āgñyā Chakra, Caxton Hall, London, UK

[UNCLEAR As asked] today we are talking about the sixth Chakra called as Āgñyā Chakra. [Pause].

The `Gñya', `Gñya' word means `to know', Gñya is to know. And `Ā' means `the whole'. Āgñyā Chakra also has another meaning. Ā-gñyā, Āgñyā means `obedience' or `to order'. It can mean both the things. If you order to someone it is an Āgñyā –'command' and the one who obeys the order is an Āgñyā-kārī. The one who does the Āgñyā.

This sixth Chakra was created in the human beings when he started thinking. Thinking is language expressed.

If we do not have a language we cannot think. But it does not mean there is no thought coming into us. If we cannot express it, it does not mean there is no thought process working in us. But at that subtle stage when the thoughts are coming to us they are not in language, so they are not communicated to us and that's why if we do not have language we cannot understand what we are thinking.

That's why you must have seen children cannot communicate to us what they want because they cannot say what they are wanting. They feel the urge in the stomach and they want to ask for, say, water or something, but they can't say it to us and that's why they cannot think what they have to say about.

But afterwards when you start thinking and putting it into language, that language is stored in our brain as shown in the picture on the left hand side and also on the right hand side of that yellow and black, then it comes back to us as, later on as, thought waves. As if somebody is talking to us.

But before the language starts, we can call it the inspiration or the thought process, at the very early stage, comes to us in certain forms and those forms are in light and shade. They are not in language but in light and shade. And after coming to Sahaja Yoga if you go deep into your thoughts you'll find they are nothing but lights and shade that are covering our Āgñyā Chakra.

One after another a light and shade, like a circular lighthouse, they give a kind of a pattern in our head. Now these patterns are moulded into language by us at a very early stage and these are sort of filled into the cups of language and then these cups are kept reserved in the brain and they come to us that way.

When we think we really understand because it's a language that comes to us.

So what happens to the animals? Do they think or not? They get a thought, an inspiration but they won't be just thinking about it. Now, these inspirations come to them as words when they start living with human beings.

So these inspirations go into the thought again as we do. For example you give somebody a name, say you call him say Tom, or something, you call a dog, so now he knows that this word means `calling me'.

So he connects himself with that word. But when he does not have the word, when he's just an animal, he's just there, he doesn't think. That's why they are very spontaneous and we are not.

Animals are extremely spontaneous because they do not think the way we think. And this has created the greatest problem for human beings: how to get beyond thoughts.

It's a little complicated thing because perhaps I can see that very clearly, as you cannot see the light.

And then the light forms the language and then language, according to us, becomes our thoughts. But these thoughts are really conditionings on us and they are not inspired things. They are not coming from inside and that's why we are not spontaneous.

For example if I am sitting here, now I cannot keep quiet as a human being. I'll be thinking about something. I'll be thinking, `What am I going to say?' Then `Should I say this or not?' “What if I say this, will that be alright or not?" “Will that go to their heads or not?" All sorts of thoughts will be coming into my head. Then from one side I will be questioning myself. From the other side the answers will be coming, “Alright you say this and if you say like this they may appreciate you. Go this way that way they will understand." Like that you see.

So the sorting out goes on in our brain through our experiences of this lifetime of ours.

Whatever have been our experiences in this lifetime in dealing with people in getting experiences from others:

all these are conditioned into our brain and the whole thing becomes a thought process, which comes to us through this interaction of thought and action, action and thought, which just starts waves, which action to take, what thought to be put in, how to solve it and we think we are analyzing ourselves.

It's a very superficial thing. Actually you do not analyze anything whatsoever, you do not. As I told you the other day you do not do anything.

So your thinking is nothing but a bubbling going on. Because when, like a sea even, which is, so deep down, so quiet, when it touches the shore it has a action and reaction. In the same way when you are seeing at something, because your attention is outside, immediately a thought wave is created out of that, which goes back and gives you all the images about it, whatever you know about that particular thing and it comes back to you as thought process.

It's going on all the time and it can be so maddening that we cannot stop our thoughts: it just goes on like mad. You don't know, you can't sleep because thoughts are coming.

Sometimes they could be horrifying, sometimes they are gratifying, sometimes romantic, sometimes absolutely negative, sometimes very positive.

Sometimes you feel “I must do this” sometimes you feel “I shouldn't do this." But when you [are] actually doing, you do not think. It's surprising, we never notice that when we are doing that particular thing, supposing I say I am going to speak, these things. Now when I've thought about it that I thought say about ten minutes before when I'm speaking it, I am not thinking that what I was going to speak. Because that time I think I've built in that process of thinking into My brain and put it somewhere stored and then, now, when I have started this talk, that is coming direct to Me.

So human beings have developed, I should say a process, which can be a very sickening thing, very, very sickening. And this comes out of both of these. Is one the left side that we call the ego, which has gone this side and the right side we call the superego. All the conditioning on the right hand side of the superego, is, gives us, the fears, the dangers, the possibilities. Whatever we have experienced before. As they say those who have been burnt by milk also [will] take a cold drink after blowing it a little. Because you have been burnt you know something liquid has burnt you so you think this may also burn your tongue.

So you may try to do that. It is so spontaneous that time that you feel that, “Oh it is very spontaneous” but it is not. It has been stored before in your experiences and something there that you are afraid of and that's why you do it.

If we, once, realise that this thought process is absolutely not necessary for us to exist. There is no need to have any thought about the future or about the past if you want to exist as human beings. Animals do not bother. For example animals know that they are going in a jungle. Now suddenly they find some other animal coming from there and they know that you go there. Now what's the use of thinking about the animal that is going to come? Supposing it does not come then it's such a waste. But they have a hole here and they no problem as we have because have a hole the whole thing goes out. It doesn't stick for more than a minute here. But you can condition them also. By experiences they are conditioned. By experiences that they have had so far, about other animals and things, they are conditioned. And they act accordingly.

So there's a tremendous difference between us and them is that we think about everything. I mean, we think it is a very great thing to sit down and think about it. And we think it is very wise to sit down and think about it. Any problem comes in you think, “Better sit down and think about it." But now what do we do when a problem arrives? We think about it in relation to whatever we have been doing before and whatever our experiences have been. In the same way they want to think about Sahaja Yoga.

Now you cannot think about Sahaja Yoga. First of all you become thoughtlessly aware in Sahaja Yoga to begin with. You cannot think. But it is a happening about which you cannot think. It is a living happening, thinking is a dead movement, it is not a living movement. Whatever [is] dead in us comes back to us as thought. Inspiration is living, not the thinking. Inspiration is very different from the thought.

For example, books are in the library, everything that we have thought of or have got it or experienced, this is in the books. Whatever is new coming to us is the inspiration. Now just find out how many new things you are thinking, perhaps not even a sentence. Mostly you say that “This gentleman said so” “That gentleman said so” “That gentleman said so” or “I said so." If you can think about that is coming just now into you, you don't have to think for it, it just comes out, it is inside you, it just emerges and expresses itself.

So that is the spontaneous living thing. That is what we call as inspiration: is a sudden glimpse of the knowledge that we get. But whatever we have [been] thinking about is all the play of the dead.

So this is a center of Christ. He resides in the center of Āgñyā and He is, in the Devī Purāna if you read, was born long, long time before, was created much earlier and how He developed into Mahāviṣhṇu also you can read it for yourself because it's a big chapter and I wish you all could know and read about it and find out how He developed into Mahāviṣhṇu. It is very interesting. Because all these things were written in Sanskrit language, we should not say that Mahāviṣhṇu was not in the Bible, because Bible itself was not written at a stretch by one person.

So that part is a part of Christ's creation before He came on this Earth as Christ.

Actually Christians do not know anything about His becoming: how He became Christ or what was the need to have Christ or a son to come down [and] why not God Himself could do the job. And this is the reason why I would request you to read for yourself the incarnation of Mahāviṣhṇu by which you realise why Christ was born.

And it is the most important incarnation because He is the principle, He is the principle of creation, the Tattwa, as they call it in Sanskrit language, He is the Tattwa. Gaṇeśha, though resides in the Mūlādhāra gradually evolves to be Christ at this stage. From that red Chakra up to this Chakra He becomes Christ.

He is the principle.

Now what is the principle? Within us what is our principle? Is, say, the Kuṇḍalinī you can say. In this [microphone] the electricity is the principle of this one is. In the same way the creation, the whole creation if you take it as such, it is the principle and the support of this creation. He represents the essence, the essence of creation.

Like we can say we have a family, husband and wife and the child. Now the child is the essence of husband and wife, he's the essence of the family, of the house. The whole thing is sustained for him, is created for him. Till they did not have the child there was no meaning to that house, no meaning to their life. But when they had a child then they had a meaning. In the same way, Christ is the essence, is the Tattwa itself.

He's the Omkāra as they call it. He is the first sound, first sound that was created, Om., when the Primordial Father and Primordial Mother separated, They created this sound. And He is that sound which is filled into All-pervading Power and looks after and supports. Actually it is more the support because looking after is done by the Father you can say or by the Mother. But is the support of all the Universe.

And because He is just the essence, the essence never dies. Say My essence is My Spirit, it will never die. The body dies or the creation will die but the essence has to be there. If the essence is lost then nothing could be there. That's why He's the most important incarnation, because He is the support.

Now this incarnation is placed in this Āgñyā Chakra of ours, here in the center, where the optic nerve or optic thalamus cross each other like this. In the center is a very subtle point which moves both the sides like this and like that and it creates two sounds `hum' `kshum', `hum' `kshum', `hum' `kshum'. `Hum' is on the right hand side where you have seen the superego is there and `kshum' is on the left hand side where the ego is. Now these two sounds create two kinds of vibrations. The `hum' sound creates the vibrations, which make you think, `I am, I am' `hum', `I am'. This comes from our existence power that we know we have to live in this world, we're not going to die. Any human being who tries to kill himself is abnormal.

Normally every human being... why every animal or any living thing tries to retain its life? That is through this power of `hum', that, `I am'. Now the superego on the left hand side and ego on the right hand side is `kshum'.

But now I'll tell you about the right hand side, superego. In this superego when you are conditioned by so many things, then you are frightened and you are worried because these experiences make you that type of a person which has fear in the mind. And this fear is all settled in your superego. This starts from your amoeba stage you can say and is, still today, is being stored there. You are afraid of police, you are afraid of that, you are afraid of this.

Some people are not afraid of these things but are afraid of something else, because whatever have been your conditions, whatever have been your experiences, are all put down here.

Moreover when somebody reads the book of Dracula now he's afraid of the word Dracula but the children who do not read they do not know what is a Dracula is. If you say Dracula has come they say, “Alright, let's have a look at him!" But those children [who] have read about Dracula, they are literally frightened and they say, “Oh God, Dracula is coming, something terrible is going to happen!" So you see whatever you have read, whatever you have gone through whatever experiences you have had, all is in the superego.

So this superego in that, this center, sends [this] message, “I am, you are, you are” `hum', `hum': “don't be afraid, don't be afraid” “you are." So the people who come to Me and you have seen some people who come to Me are victims of superego conditioning. And these are the people... actually at this stage only, you can really discriminate between the two types: one who are very aggressive, the other who are absolutely we should say subordinated, frightened.

These people when they come to Me, I have seen, they go on crying and weeping, “Mother you know this has happened that has happened” and I really get tired talking to them. And there are so many of this kind that really you have to pay attention to them as Sahaja Yogis because you'll have to deal with them, how to manage them and how to work it out. Now at that time if a Sahaja Yogi says, now you go on saying `hum', `hum', `hum', `hum', a Sahaja Yogi, if he says [that], then the vibrations will drive out his fear. Even if you are under any fear and you are walking around and you feel that there's frightened, you just say `hum', `hum', `hum'. Now with this saying the vibrations will clear out this side very nicely.

Apart from that, that is the way you can get help from the Divine by saying `hum'.

Now there are many things about hum and kshum but as the time is you know, so I do not want to go into great details about it. But I would say the mantra for the right hand side is `hum' and for the left hand side is `kshum'.

The right hand side is the ego, which is real problem, you understand that! Is a real colossal one you have to face them, I mean, [if] I say anything small here and there I find the whole thing coming up onto My head like that.

So what is the solution for a colossal ego? Colossal ego can only be conquered by forgiving others.

Those who have ego must learn, if they feel hurt they must say, `forgive'. Then another person hurts them, say, `forgive'. And not only forgive but ask for forgiveness. Both things should be done, more asking for forgiveness. You have to ask for forgiveness if you have too much of ego. It is very important. Because if you have too much of ego means what? That you have pampered it too much. That means you have used it too much. You have dominated people and that's why you have such a lot of ego. If you have such a lot of ego you must all the time try to humble down in your heart.

Now in the heart resides the Spirit. The ego, too much of ego in a person, always takes you away from that Spirit. That's why it is said, “Humble down in your heart." The reason is, in the heart resides that part of yours which gets completely obliterated or forgotten once you start pumping up your ego. But ego has its limits, it ends up into stupidity and foolishness. You take any person who is egoistical and who's blowing his own trumpet, you will immediately know because he'll be stupid, without understanding what he's doing, he'll be doing such stupid things that you will start wondering, especially children, “What's the matter with this fellow? Seems quite funny!" And then the stupidity, you see, faces the person, then he sees for himself, “Oh God! how did I become so stupid?" But stupidity comes to you because you forget the existence of God and your relationship with the Whole. You think, “I am on my own. Why should I not do this? What is wrong in this, what is wrong in that? I should do these things." I mean in this country the way people are fighting for things, I mean, you must, anybody, I mean, those so-called developing countries can't understand: what's this kind of a thing happening to these people? Because the other day My son-in-law Luv was reading an article that people are demanding now that a son-in-law should be allowed to marry the mother-in-law [laughing] and he just couldn't understand how can people gather together and ask for such an absurd thing like that.

She is your mother. How can you say that way? I mean it is something an impossibility for people, normal people to think like that, that a son-in-law can marry the mother-in-law. And what is there to make a law about it and to talk about it. It's a very difficult thing.

All kinds of stupid things we are doing in this country, which really makes everybody roar with laughter.

Is because of our Mister Ego companionship.

It is not easy to understand how he befools us. It goes on befooling us all the time and then we think “what's wrong?" An eighty-year-old man running after a twenty-year-old girl. And the twenty-year-old girl befooling this eighty-year-old man, supposed to be a statesman this, that and his statue is erected somewhere there. How is it possible? It is only the ego makes you do all these nonsensical and stupid things.

Once you are in Sahaja Yoga, you don't know how to control your laughter sometimes, the way people are foolish, extremely foolish. And this is what it is; it ends up in stupidity absolute stupidity. I mean even if you want to write a novel you won't get such beautiful characters as you could around you, when you listen to them. And you're shocked, “Oh God what's this going on!" And very embarrassing too, extremely embarrassing. And they become so foolish with their ego that one cannot understand how thinking man, because by thinking you get your ego, becomes foolish.

There is no wisdom in a person whose ego is completely developed like that. If somebody has an ego like that there is no wisdom in him. You can see that he does not know what is wisdom. He behaves in such an immature way. He may be an elderly man, great grandfather of somebody but as soon as he opens his mouth you are shocked at him. You think from where this joker has come? The maturity is completely lacking.

The other day somebody told Me that, “Mother how is it our parents are so stupid and we are searching God? And the elderly people are so foolish and we are searching God?" And then I said, “No, maybe because of war the parents are disturbed, you see. Most of the parents were disturbed during war" and they said, “Majority of them are like this. And the younger people are searching God and much wiser and we don't know how to compromise with them because they are not searching God. Why is it they are not searching God and we are searching God? And if there are some searching, they are very few". Now I said this may be due to war but somebody said, “Then what about America? You see, in America the people didn't face war so much” the stupidity that they have is sometimes surprising. That is the same thing as I said, is the development of ego in a human being.

Now ego is the thing that makes you think about everything. For example, now we have to, say go from here to Birmingham, alright.

So we think now, `how will I go?' Simple way is that I'll take a train or I'll take a car and go away. If there's no reservation needed I will just jump into the train or go by the car. If the car is available I'll go by car or by train finished! What is there to think about? But `No! Then we must plan it out, I have programmed! Now, I have to go!' You go to the station and find the train is not there because there was some accident so the train is not moving.

So you're absolutely upset because you think that `The train has gone now what to do?' In that upsetting you do not even remember that you have a car and you have to go by the car now. That whole thing upsets you because you had plans to go by train and you had planned everything, now you cannot reach there and what will happen? Now you are sitting here and worrying about it. As a person who is spontaneous what will he do? “Alright depends on, I may go by train or by car whatever I feel like at that time." He's sitting tight.

So he goes to the train, sees if the train is there. If it is, nicely there's a space available, he gets into it. If the train is not available, alright, he comes home takes his car and goes away.

So now you have informed the people that you must meet at such and such a place. That's also is there, you see.

So those people are running up, down there and they will be there at the station. Now what's the matter? Even if they're at the station you can meet them at the station. You go by train and you can meet them. What is there to be that much upset about it? You see you can always contact them.

But the way we get upset we have spoiled the complete program of going to Birmingham, which is a very beautiful program that we have got. We have to meet new people, we have to meet many people, we have to enjoy ourselves. That's all finished! Because we had planned something and it did not work out, we are finished! All these things make us a miserable person. And we are so miserable and so grudging and so boring that those who are next to you just get fed up with it and they say, “Now shut up! If you are not going to Birmingham, if you are not going don't go. But don't eat my head now!" is a common experience of many. It's this Mister Ego he's so, he doesn't want you to be happy. He doesn't want you to be relaxed.

He all the time gives you ideas and tells you, “Do this and do that and you must get it done and this is to be done. You had better inform that person, be meticulous about it” and it will go to such details that anything fails you are finished because your nerves are already finished and shattered. Anything, even a drop of inconvenience comes into you or even a feather of disturbance is there, you are finished. And so everybody is rattling, “We have tensions. We have problems." Why? What is the advantage of doing all these things? No advantage you know that. But then why do you do it? Because you have a big ego, it won't allow you to rest. Whatever you may try it won't.

So what is the solution of that? Morning till evening ask for forgiveness from God. Pull your ears from both the sides and say, “Oh God, forgive me. Oh God, forgive me. And, oh God forgive me” so this balloon of ego goes down a little.

Remember Him morning, evening, every time. Remembering Christ brings down your ego very much.

He did everything that was possible that you should not develop your ego. Everything that was possible.

He was born as an ordinary carpenter's son, lived in the most ordinary conditions, kept Himself behind the whole scene. He could have been born as a Roman Emperor. He could have been anybody there. But no He was born Himself. You know that He took his birth in a place where even ordinary people do not take their births. But, there also the light was there. Wherever He was born there was light and joy.

And this is the thing we have to know, that we have lost the joy because we have forgotten God Almighty. When we forget Him, that He is love and He is joy, naturally joy is also forgotten. And then we see people are not at all happy; they have affluence, they have money, they have everything, but still they are not happy. All the time they are in such a mess that you don't know how to talk to them. If you say this word they'll be angry, if you say that word they'll be angry. They are not at all normal human beings, they are sick people. Sick with their ego.

Is a very simple thing is to ask for forgiveness, but how many times do we do that? Not even once a day, not even once a month, not even once a year. Even on a Christmas day if we could say, `Forgive us Oh Lord for whatever we have done so far.' It will work out. But that day we must champagne to forgive Him more.

So we must have gossips and we must have all the arrogant things by the time it is the end of Christmas.

This ego, yellow side one, is the one that presses your superego too much. It does. It presses it so much sometimes that a person forgets that others are hurt by what they talk. On the contrary they devise methods how to say things which are cutting, which are hurting, which are painful to others. They say such things, I mean all the time if you see, a person say from a village if he comes and sees he'll think, are they quarrelling, what are they doing? I mean the whole discussion, even in the parliament, I was surprised the way they talked to each other, no bull will treat another bull that way, you see. Even a dog normally does not bark at another dog. No animal in the world all the time is barking at its fellow man. No animal in the whole world I can tell you this much. Only the human beings if two people are there all the time they are going, “ha ha ha ha" all the time, that way. How is it possible? His ego and her ego or maybe both his ego are dashing at each other. And there is a kind of a funny type of feeling that `Oh I have mastered the thing, I have got the thing, I have got the point. I have proved the point.' But in that I have lost everything that was so beautiful and so much joy giving within me.

Actually a sensible person would recede from the place where two people are having an argument.

Argument is a sign of tomfoolery. I haven't seen any argument coming to any end whatsoever. If it is then it is alright, but it never does come. Because, if say, you ask Me questions I answer you, alright. If you do not like the answer give it up. But if you argue with Me still and I argue with you where will you end? Argument is not going to lead you to any knowledge but a very terrible ego developing into you.

The whole modern concept is ego-oriented. All Western countries are ego-orientated. They want to develop your ego and pamper it. There are so many other ways by which they do. Why I'm talking more about it [is] because we are all supposed to be Western people and affluent people you see. Supposed to be very wise and leading or misleading, I don't know, the developing countries.

So we have to understand ourselves where are we as far as our understanding of things are concerned.

How ego is pampered within us is by a large-scale methods. They work on your ego throughout to have all these so-called enterprises. For example to a woman they'll say, “Oh you must have a waist like this and you must have a face like this and you must have..." For a man, “You must this kind of a body. You should be Mister Universe or you should be something” so the man starts working on it, immediately.

You must. There so many people I have seen running on the roads in this cold, I don't understand. Like mad, you know and some of them are Members of Parliament! The whole night they keep awake and the whole day they are running about. I say, what are you doing? What is the need to do this? “To keep good health you must do it." To keep good health don't work like mad, be a sensible and a wise person.

Wisdom is to be sought to keep good health, to be alright and not this kind of mad ego-orientated things.

So then, the one way is to excite your ego about your physique. Then there is ego about, you must have a big car. You see, people try to show off their possessions. You have a big car, then they're going about. I mean they really look, to Me, like jokers. That's all they are. I mean, car I can understand is a convenience and a good quality car, if somebody can afford, should have it, because it is a headache to have a bad car.

So it's alright. But by having a car you become something great. You may not have food in the house but you must have a very good car to go about. And all these ideas come. Then they will advertise, you see, “This will be a very good car for you." What is it for you? It is nothing but to pamper your ego. All these advertisements are nothing but by which your ego is pampered. All these things they are created.

Now in America, if you go, every handle has to be different, everything has to be different. Why so much difference in everything? Why do you want to have everything so different? Is it some aesthetics, you think in that? It is none of the aesthetics but is just to pamper your ego. Even the so-called art connoisseurs are nothing but ego-pamperers. Your stamp collections, this, that, all this is nothing but ego pampering. And what a waste of time, you just think about it.

This ego thing comes into us because we are, first of all, as I said, that, in the West, the living was very difficult, they had to fight the nature. And when you have to fight the nature you have to develop your ego to fight it. Or actually, when you are fighting the nature, the ego develops within you. And then, once that momentum has started in you, it is very difficult to bring it down. It is such a terrible disease that people have taken it for granted that that's a part of their lives.

You are not your ego. You are not. When I say that you must surrender yourself to God they say “Mother why should we surrender?" `Yourself' means that ego with which you are identified. I don't say that you surrender your wisdom. Or I can say: surrender your ego to your wisdom.

But it is so difficult to give it up, because we have learnt to live with it, identified with it. We just cannot think of life without our ego, we just cannot. And it is gone to such an extent that we don't even realise how far we have gone in cruelty. Like, “I like this kind, I like that kind". You go to somebody's house and you say like this: is indecent to talk like that. It is vulgar to express, “I like..." Who are you? Are you God? “I want this. I want that. I am very particular about this. I am very..." Who are you? Just ask yourself a question, “Who am I? I am the Spirit. I am that eternal being. Have I become that?" On the contrary we are hurting everybody's Spirit by our ego. Every moment, when we talk to others, we are hurting them. Actually people have lost faith in God, because those who are in charge of God are so arrogant and so egoistical that it has become impossible for anybody to think of God, which is beyond your ego. You'll be surprised, ego is absolutely superficial like a bubble. It is just like a balloon, which can burst just like that! And it should go. It should go so that you should rise. It should disappear so that your attention rises in your Spirit and that you see the whole world as a part of that Spirit that you are.

This is the boundary, which you have to cross and for that we have to take help from Christ.

Christ crucified himself. Why? Because what did He do? Did He loot people? Today you have thousands of these thugs coming here and looting you: nobody crucifies them. What did He do? He just challenged the ego of these Romans and of these Jews, those who were angry with Him and that's why He was crucified.

And we have to crucify our ego now through His cross, otherwise we are going to do the same again to ourselves that, in our own being, we crucify our Christ by our ego. It is a very symbolic death of Christ.

His birth in the most humble place, in a very humble place. He is born in the optic thalamus, you can say: is the place where there brain, all activities coming and, all the, all sorts of problems there, facing you and there He lives. And you have to just awaken Him there so that your ego is crucified once for all.

But I don't say, `You fight your ego,' because it is not that important to fight. You are fighting with your shadow. You have shadow, which is called as ego: Which is not to be fought and to waste your energy on him. There's no need to fight him. Only thing [is], if you stand in the center of the light, you don't see any shadow. It is so simple as that. If you stand in the center of light that is Christ, you don't see any shadow anywhere. But when I say this I may sound like other people who give sermons, “Stand in the shadow of Christ" or “Stand in the light of Christ." Now what does that mean? Where is that light, where is that place where you should stand? And that place is here in the center of your optic thalamus where there is no thought. You have to stand in thoughtless awareness.

Many people who have had a problem with Āgñyā, many people who have come... [GAP]... thoughts will stop and they will be beyond thought. And this a very, very important Chakra for Sahaja Yogis because when the Kuṇḍalinī rises above, above the Āgñyā Chakra, immediately there is no thought. You do not get any thoughts from ego or superego. But there is a wobbling in the Āgñyā because of your imbalanced ways. And the imbalanced ways are, that sometimes you are with ego or with superego.

This has happened to our people in the West because we have had so much of ego [that] we got really tired of it.

We got frightened with it. Then we started taking to drugs and things to increase our superego.

But by doing that, what we are doing is pushing by one end and bringing by another end and that's how we are wobbling our ego and superego, by which we are not helping ourselves at all.

So what one has to do is to rise within oneself up to the point of Āgñyā and try to steady your Āgñyā.

There are many people have asked Me one question: “How to steady the Āgñyā?" Āgñyā is placed at the crossing point of our nerves and also optic thalamus. Now, so it is said that, if you have wobbling eyes, you'll have a wobbling Āgñyā. You have to steady your eyes, you have to soothe them. Now it is very, very out of date, ancient, old and all sorts of names that you call it, to a thing like that, but you must steady your eyes and steady them in such a way that it is very soothing for the eyes. [That] which is the most soothing thing for the eyes is the green grass. If you could see the green grass with your eyes, means you walk with your eyes on the ground, your eyes will be soothed, your Āgñyā will be alright.

That's why Christ said that, “I tell you about the adulterous eyes." He talked about adulterous eyes.

The eyes with which you do adultery. Is a very common thing these days. Every woman, a man must see; every man, a woman must see. As if it is the most important job, if you have not seen one woman you are finished! I mean this is being modern. But I am an old fashioned lady, and, as at the time of Christ, He said, “You should not have adulterous eyes." And the ones who have adulterous eyes are, no more than any other, but our Western Christians, who all the time, even in the church, even when they're giving sermons, their eyes are moving with adultery.

These eyes have to be very, very pure, very, very deep and very, very loving when you want to have your Āgñyā alright, because you receive through your eyes. Say, if you have closed your eyes, you do not put your attention to anything because your eyes are closed, you are not adding more thoughts to yourself. But if your eyes are open you are adding much more thoughts because everywhere the eyes go, the attention goes and you see things and create thoughts and put in them.

So your attention which has to go to the Spirit, which has to go to God, which has to shine through the window of Divine: this beautiful thing is ruined by the way we use our eyes and we do not respect it.

There's nothing so pure and beautiful as the grass on the ground or the ground itself, which takes our feet, which supports us, which looks after us, enriches us. We should put our eyes on the Mother Earth instead of looking at every person.

But from Sahaja Yoga point of view, now many of you know what happens to your eyes when you look at somebody: maybe an entity might enter your eyes. And it is, you'll be amazed, that it is the play of the entity what we call this so-called flirting is. I have talked about it, before also and people didn't like it when I told them about it, but I have seen actual entities entering from eyes to eyes. I have seen very simple people who come down to such places, say in a party. In a party, people are just exchanging entities from one eye to another.

Once it goes to another person, he puts his entity into another person and that goes into another person. All the time your attention is diverted and you feel it is attracted towards something, you do not know why it is attracted.

Now the certain symbols are also made like that. To add up to the problems, you see, all the society is working at it, that you should appear in such a way that every man should look at you, every woman should look at you. Why? What is the use? Supposing I look at you what do I get? What do I get by looking at a person? What is the advantage? Just looking at a person? We are wasting such a lot of energy for what? In the same way if you are walking on the roads, on, say, some, we are seeing some beautiful things, alright. If you have to buy something, alright go ahead, see those things, whatever you have to select is alright. But all the time just because your eyes are such, you are just doing it and you do not know the reason why you are doing like this, all the time why your eyes are wobbling. And that is a sure and certain sign for a person to become mad. Absolutely, that's a sure and certain sign is, when a person is mad how do you make it out that a person is lunatic? If you see his eyes the iris in the eyes are all the time wobbling, they cannot keep it steady. Or [if] they are sick they're also, you can see that these eyes are all the time wobbling, there is no steadiness.

Not only this but you have seen those people who have come in the Sahaja Yoga when they close their eyes they find their eyes are flickering. Their eyelids are flickering. That means there's some sort of a disturbance in the Kuṇḍalinī rising. Whole tension if you call it as hundred then at least 80% of it comes through our eyes. Then how important it is to protect our eyes from all kind of useless activities we are doing.

Christ, Christ's life shows so many aspects of how to respect others. But one of them which has been very much misused throughout is that of the prostitute. He saved the prostitute, He saved her no doubt. But you spoil the prostitutes. A good woman you make her into prostitutes. You give her ideas by which she becomes a prostitute. A good hussif [housewife] is turned into a prostitute by an egoistical man. Young small girls who are virgins are being destroyed by your dirty glances. Do you realise this? That you are doing just the opposite what Christ had done? And you say that He saved, Christ, so even if we are prostitutes He'll save us. But why be prostitutes? This is such a stupid style of thinking. That we should become prostitutes so that Christ will save us.

One has to think about all these things in the proper light of Sahaja Yoga. Unless and until you are realised, My talk is just useless for you. But once you are realised, you will know that, if you glance at someone, you might suddenly get a headache at the back, you might feel a dart has gone into your head or something has happened, you might feel that you're blinding with somebody's face and you will get all kinds of experiences by which you will know how important are your eyes.

All your nervousness and everything can be cured if you have pure eyes. But it is such a vicious circle that, through your eyes, you gather all the bad and is accumulated in the Āgñyā and you have to clear the Āgñyā to make the eyes clear. It's a vicious circle. But it can start at a point as I said, we have to ask for forgiveness. Secondly we have to bring Christ in our Āgñyā Chakra. Thirdly we have to give up all drugs and all intoxicants and all smoking.

That happens automatically when you are a Sahaja Yogi, it will work out. But eyes express the whole of your being, your brain, your body, your limbs everything. And if your Āgñyā is alright then your eyes are perfectly alright. They emit nothing but love wherever they glance. Only with a glance of your eyes you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī. Only with the glance of your eyes you can cure people. Only with your glance you can bring joy into the destroyed and the ruined people.

So these eyes which you see are the windows of your being, of your heart. When the Spirit is expressed through your eyes, you must have noticed yourself that, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises then the eyes become dilated. And a realised Soul has got black eyes because they have these eyes are dilated. At least when I see them they are all dilated black eyes. Apart from that, a realised Soul can be made out by his eyes which are sparkling, there's a sparkle like diamonds; they sparkle all the time and you can make out from the eyes that this person is a realised Soul. There's a tremendous difference between a non-realised Soul's eyes and the realised Soul's eyes.

So you can imagine how your Spirit sees through your eyes, but if the eyes are not pure It doesn't stay there long.

So if we have to understand Christ, physically, we have to respect our eyes, mentally, we have to give up all that is impure in our mind.

Now, so we come to the impurities of the mind: And the impurities of mind are, I mean, there are so many poisons, you know, about. I mean there are books and books written about the poisons. And the psychologists are supposed to take out all your poisons. I don't know if they can do it at all. But they have the worst Āgñyā. All these psychologists have the worst Āgñyā and I don't think they are capable of really giving any relief to people who are suffering mentally. Mental sufferings are of two types. Say the same thing is that one is... vibrations are so much... One type of mental troubles are where people oppress you very much, you see, you go on bearing the cross! Now this is a very wrong idea people have about Christ. Bearing the cross doesn't mean that, anybody who tries to oppress, you should go on taking the enslavement upon yourself. You're not to enslave to anyone whatsoever. Anybody who tries to make a slave out of you, you should deny it absolutely! You should say `hum', `I am', `Who are you to dominate me?' Anyone whether you are of a black skin, or a red skin or a yellow skin, nobody has right to dominate anyone in this whole world and if anybody is doing it, “Oh what to do now, after all you see we are poor people, or we are like this or he's supporting” and all that: then they are running away from their duty towards themselves. Such people cannot get Realisation. Slaves are not going to become kings.

So the slavery that is supposed to be confused with bearing the cross is another confusion of modern times, you see. We have to rise in our self-respect and we have to understand that no one in this world has a right to dominate us.

But then what is bearing of the cross is? First of all the people of His level never suffer. It's just a joke going on. It's a leelā, it's a play going on for them. They never suffer and even if they so-called act as suffering, they just do it because they want to do it. They are not helpless people, they are not slaves.

And those who think that by bearing it up and by suffering it we are becoming Christians, they should know they are psychological cases. And if they are crying and weeping and all the time saying, “What to do, you see, I am in love and my lover tortures me." You are neither in love neither you have a lover. It is a kind of a psychological clubbing. That he is a dominating man and you like his domination, that's why you are together, is a simple fact.

So every human being has his own self-respect. And he must respect his self that is the Spirit within him. And nothing should dominate it. Whether you belong to this country or that country, or this ism or that ism. All this will break down. Under the rule of God nobody has the right to dominate anybody's Spirit. But when you are given freedom, you go to the other side that is Mister Ego. You do not know how to use your freedom, so you try to dominate others. Your freedom is [making] everybody's freedom is in danger. You are on top of everyone and torturing everybody's souls. And you are dominating by land and by properties or by possessions.

So either this way or that way, mentally if you are of this category or that category, you are against yourself.

Just be in the center and see for yourself. Just be looking at it. Are you emitting love towards another person? If you are a slave, how can you love? You cannot. If you are `free' and abandoned, how can you love? Love has its own bondages, very sweet and beautiful. You have to live with them. You enjoy those bondages. For a little child will come to your house and he will spoil your house, no doubt and that he should do and you should enjoy that spoiling. Then your freedom, if it is challenged by a little child's crying, then you are not wise people. This is abandonment! Or I would say it is loneliness, it is cutting out from the Primordial, from the Big One, from the large one that you are: is not to be able to tolerate the freedom of others. A child has no freedom to cry in the house? What sort of freedom you conceive of.

A mother has no right to say something she wants to say about her child? Which is her duty to tell him what is right and wrong. If the son does not have [the] right to eat whatever he likes in his own mother's family then what sort of freedom do you have? It's such a confusion of things.

So this kind of freedom is just the opposite and extreme of enslavement. But in the center is love where you are bound by everyone. I am bound by My children; yes, I am, I am proud of them. They bound Me and I bound them too. It's a mutual bounding which we enjoy among ourselves. There is such a give and take when there is such a bondage of love. But do we understand the importance of bondage of love? At the slightest pretext we break it. Say a wife says, “I would like to go out today." The husband has said “Why? I am very tired don't you understand?" Or if the husband says, “I feel like eating something” or some particular thing, he says pancake or something, a small thing. “Oh I am very tired every time you are demand..." If she could just think [that], by making that little thing, he would be so very happy. She should be dying to know what he wants. And he should be dying to do what she wants. And then enjoy each other's company or you are wasting all your properties that you have as human beings.

You don't know how much you are wasting from each other. Every moment is filled with such beautiful bondages, where exchanges are there. What have you gained? The way you are fighting, the way you are going about: what have you gained let me see? When you die you have to announce in the paper that “X Y Z is dead" and you find there is nobody.

And you have even to pay for people to visit you when you die. This is the case today. Such dryness, such emptiness, such loneliness exists. What have you achieved through this? So this bondage we have to [have]. And there is no question of sacrifice you see, the way we must sacrifice for the family. What are you sacrificing? I mean if you pay for your family you get the joy out of it, that's why you do it. If you have to lead a nice good life you are not sacrificing anything but you are gaining by that, leading a good life. If your wife says, “Don't go to the pub” and if you do not go there, then you should not say, “She is an orthodox, old fashioned this that, that and that and that." But instead you should thank you stars that, in this modern times also that, there is somebody who's telling you the truth. Because the whole edifice has come up, do you mean to say that truth should not be told? All this is falsehood in which you are living and if you have to be happy, come down to Reality.

Friends, also same thing: With the friends what sort of relations do we have with our friends? What do we expect from them? Sending them a Christmas card and then if they don't send, feeling bad about it. There are no deeper bondages, we have not lived with them. If you allow our self to be bound by them, they will be bound by us. You better try this. Try to be bound by them, don't be afraid of anybody else.

Just try to be bound by others and you'll be amazed how much they will be giving you. I am a living example of this. I can tell you, I am a living example of this; I am bound by all of you. If somebody says, “Mother when are you going to leave us?" No I cannot. I cannot. I am just bound by you. I just do not want to leave because I love you very much. How can I leave you? It's impossible for Me.

So then, what do I gain out of this life? Everything that is in this world! What do you want Me to get? I cannot even count what I can get out of it. Immeasurable ocean. I become an ocean Myself. Break your ideas about your own personal freedom and liberation, [what you are doing] is liberating your intelligence, you are liberating your own wisdom. And the sweetness and the beauty which is never perishable, whether you are old or young. That is going to be your own.

But these poisons that are being built outside and inside you, please throw them away. These are mental poisons. Through Āgñyā you can take them out. You see, this is an opening also through which many things go out. Try to work it out. Look at the tree with love and you'll find that the tree itself is giving you the joy of its creation. Because you'll become thoughtless. And the Creator who has made that beautiful tree will be pouring all that joy which is stored into it. Every human being is a store of joy, unlimited! I assure you, believe Me. And don't waste them because somebody is not properly dressed, or he's not according to the way you want him to be: which you learnt in your public school! Every doorstep, everywhere there is beauty lying, do not miss it. But if you have a possessiveness about it, an adultery about it, then you can never enjoy them, you can never enjoy all that beauty, all that store, all that wealth that is in every human being: every moment it is bubbling.

For Āgñyā it's a good thing, Christmas is coming. And at the time that, when I have to wish you a Happy Christmas, that, at this occasion, I am speaking about Āgñyā Chakra in which, what I said is, Āgñyā is: one must know what to order and how to obey, obey the Divine, obey your elders, obey your Self and not your ego and then you can order also others; not only human beings, but you can even order The Sun and The Moon and all the winds and everything in the world. Everything you can control, everything with this Āgñyā. You try one thing. If you know somebody is going to do something wrong, just take his name and put it to Āgñyā: He'll not do it. Try it! This is a trick I'm telling about for those who are realised Souls not for those who are not yet realised. But those who are realised can try. If the other person is doing something wrong you can try your Āgñyā.

Anything you order on your Āgñyā will be respected but your Āgñyā must have Christ there. Because you have The Great Support awakened within you, which does not exist [only] here, but into every man's head. It is all-pervading, into all small atoms and molecules, it is everywhere into The Sun and any place you go. It is there.

So try to develop your Āgñyā, that is the mastery of yourself. Those who have a good Āgñyā can master anything. And understand that the idea about mastering worldly things and mastering human beings and mastering this and some of them are mastering in, say, other crafts and things, best thing is to master your Āgñyā! And you really become the master of yourself by which you can master many things.

And today on this great day when I'm wishing you a Happy Christmas, I wish you to have the most powerful Āgñyā, that people, when they see your forehead should know that Christ is reborn again within you.

May God bless you!

Contents: 1978-12-24 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Christmas Message, Thankfulness, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

Only thing to do is to come down as a human being, to live like a human being and suffer like a human being. And He came down on this earth, to know now, to know the world that He has created, from inside out. That's how He came just to save us. But I mean, he was talking and his Āgñyā was such a big catch that I was just paying [UNCLEAR... this/his] thing he is talking about itself is evident in him, that there is no sense of humility left in him, the way [UNCLEAR] the sort of Ego he was using Christ for that and a very horrible Āgñyā and I cleared it out. The whole thing was later, I was thinking he was putting up an act. And then the most miserable part was later on when he said that, “What is your message for the people of other communities who are here and what do you say?" He said that we should love our neighbours and that's how we must love you and it's for the well-being and that's why we had started [a plane] by which we give people jobs and look after them and the thing was that philanthropic thing and then it became a union, a labour union and then he became a social worker and ultimately he ended up with an employment exchange, you see, [laughing] and I didn't know what sort of a bishop is he? When is he going to talk about the emancipation of the Spirit within? When is he going to talk about the evolution and when is he going to talk that we have to be aware of ourselves, and. Nothing, not a word, you see, what he spoke was this and so disappointing [UNCLEAR]. I mean, all the way Christ came only just to give you jobs, or? And then they had a man put up there who talked about how they give jobs to people, who don't have jobs and how they create jobs.

So the whole thing became an economic activity, you see? So understand God and His humility by saying that He should come all the way on this earth just to give us employment exchange, you see, I mean this is how if you are going to judge God's incarnation. I don't know what you are going to get out of them, because this is a wrong conception you have about God and His way, absolutely.

And people listen to him, I mean without any questioning or anything because he was a bishop elected by all of you and he was on and on and on.

So this is one has to understand, why did Christ come on this earth? Why did He come all the way with all humility? Why did He come as a poor man on this earth? And why did He, at all, wanted to get crucified and to sacrifice His life for the people who were supposed to be sinners? This is what we should find out, you see, not for an employment of getting you a material gain because He Himself has said that a rich man can never enter into the Kingdom of God.

So to get jobs for people or to get them some, there was a disabled person and a disabled person should be helped and that is the job of the church and that's what they were describing, that how they were helping the disabled people in this country.

So because He cured certain people that doesn't mean that He came to look after the disabled hospitals and things like that, I mean. But He came on this earth for a new awareness being shot into our being.

He was born at a time where human beings had no idea as to what is the eternal life, what is the Spirit is, what we call the Ātmā is, that they never even thought that there is something like that. He was born in a place where they did not think on those lines.

And though in India, say, we can say that people have been thinking about Ātmā and Param'ātmā since long, but they also achieved nothing because they were, I should say, all these so-called religious leaders of India were busy collecting money, then Christ came in, you see. And they were, I don't know what sort of temples they had or what sort of Pūjās they used to have, or what ideas they had about God because He came out 2,000 years. At that same time, Buddha, Buddhism also was spreading in India and all these things of, if you see in the collectively, it is very disturbing to see people using Buddha in that fashion, you see. And it was necessary that Christ should come on this earth to tell them that it is the Spirit that you have to find out, you don't have to worry about other things, but it is the Spirit which is to be reborn, you have to be reborn, you are to be [UNCLEAR Christian] and that's how we came on this earth. But He could not cross the limits of Bethlehem. I mean He was just, sort of, we can say of, absolutely gated into that place because of the ignorance of the people. His message never spread out where He lived.

So His purpose was to come on this earth, on the Āgñyā Chakra, as you know that, to open it and to give a new dimension to our awareness by which we try to understand what Kṛiṣhṇa had said that [UNCLEAR]. Kṛiṣhṇa had said that, “The Spirit cannot be destroyed, it cannot be killed, it cannot be wiped out, it cannot be blown off." [UNCLEAR] “It cannot be sucked in by any air." And when Kṛiṣhṇa said that people said, “What sort of a Spirit is that? Where is that Ātmā? What are you talking about? Which one is this?" So Christ came on this earth because He is the essence and He showed by His resurrection that Spirit does not die. And He showed it very clearly what Kṛiṣhṇa had said, because He was, you know, He was Kṛiṣhṇa's son and that's how He did it. But before He could deliver the complete thing to human beings they crucified Him and that is the way they respected Him and that is the way they came to Him.

Now in Sahaja Yoga also, we must know that if you go to Sahaja Yoga, it is not you are obliging Sahaja Yoga. You see, this is how a person talks today when Christ is no more. That Christ came on this earth, it was His humility because you understand how great He was. I mean, at least, you try to [UNCLEAR quote that] you understand, then you say like that. But when you come to Sahaja Yoga, you think that Sahaja Yoga should oblige you and not you are being sort of under the obligation of Sahaja Yoga.

Essence about your spirituality through completely humbling down yourself because it is the grace of God that must be sought for. And somebody's grace you cannot force it down, you cannot demand it, you cannot ask for it. You cannot say that `I am such and such, such a big king,' and something like that, `so the grace should come to me.' No, it may not come to you at all, even you may be the highest priest of the Church of England, you may not get the grace of God. To get the grace of God you have to ask for it, you have to be humble. It is like we expect to go to the king [UNCLEAR Salem/Samuel] and then we want that the king should come forward, we should kneel down and he should take you by hand and make you sit on the throne. I mean, this is something absurd, you can understand that. But even more than that is an incarnation. An incarnation comes down in complete humility, not to be humiliated, but to make you understand that an incarnation has come all the way for your emancipation and for your spiritual growth, then you should with great surrendering and great humility should accept it. But the general attitude, you have seen how Sahaja Yogis before coming and after coming, how they realised how others are behaving towards Sahaja Yoga. They have no humility about it, they're thinking, `Oh, we'll come and judge Mātājī, we'll see how She is, we'll watch Her and we'll do this, or we'll come and see that Sahaja Yogis are like this.' They never come with the idea that they have to receive it out of their own humility because they have asked for it, that's why they are going to have it. On the contrary, they behave so funnily. Despite that, they get it. Despite that, they get their Realisation. Despite that, they get everything. But one should know that, somehow or other you should try to tell those who come, now you'll be coming down here, see [UNCLEAR Albena] is not here and they'll be coming to see you, many people know about [UNCLEAR you]. Then you should tell that we have to realise, if we have to get something then there should be an area created within us through our humility. Like if you throw a stone into the Ganges you do not get any water out of it. But if you are a pitcher, if there is an area which can take that water in then only can you fill in the Ganges. Now, if you go to the Ganges and tell Her, abuse Her and say, `Oh, you Ganges, come along to my house.' Will She come to your house? In the same way one has to understand an incarnation, or a blessing of God, or grace of God, you have to ask for it and humble down for it, they have all the rituals. For example, if you go to the church, [UNCLEAR I/he] said, “Kneel down” even the priest would say, kneel down before him though he may not be a realised Soul or anything, this bishop of Canterbury or somebody who spoke today, he is not a realised Soul, his Kuṇḍalinī is deaf frozen, but the way, see, everybody was sort of, very humbled down before him. He never deserved it, according to Me, he never deserved it, but we'll do that. But to an incarnation not only that you are not humble to Him, but we are extremely insulting, humiliating and we crucified. We have to see that, human nature, it is such a terrible thing to do and if this is done often then the wrath of God has to come, we cannot stop it because the way we are behaving and the way we are looking at Him.

Now, think of Christ, how He was created, as you have seen in the Devī Māhātmyam, the Mahāviṣhṇu stage, how He was created specially in the heaven and then how He [UNCLEAR was got it], you have read it in the Devī Māhātmyam, His creation. With all those things which are being done to Him, all the powers that were given to Him and was specially asked to come on this earth, to live like a ordinary human being. Say, if you tell a king to go and live in a shack, or you can say in a place which is not meant for human, even human existence, in such places, if you ask a king to go and live, it will be very difficult. But they do it, they have done it. And when they come here, the attitude of the people, should be completely surrendering to thank God, that you have done this for us. Thankfulness and the thankfulness is the way to joy, there is no other way. We get everything but we never thank, grudging type we are. Today is the day of thankfulness that He sent His only son, as we say and He came Himself so many times on this earth and how we have been helped by His coming here this aspect coming down on this earth. The thankfulness if we do not have, you'll never enjoy what we have, whatever you have got, whatever God has given you out of His grace, out of His compassion, out of His love. There is not even a second, which you can spare, but thank Him all the time, only thankfulness and when you thank Him, the waves of joy will rise within you. Because we do not know how to thank Him for what we have got it, you see, there is no joy within and we are joyless people, we are very unhappy, whatever we have, we are not happy about it.

So, this is the point is that, Have we thanked Him? Have we thanked Him every moment of our life, whatever He has given us? Is the great thing, the greatest thing is that He has given us Realisation and He has given us the way of Sahaja by which we can now find out ourselves fully.

And the another thing is, unless and until that is done, we cannot perfect anything in this world, nothing can be perfected. All your institutions, all your endeavours are going to be imperfect, human being has to be perfected and he has to get cured. And for that only simple thing is to humble down, humbling down is the only way you can get it. There is no way of arguing about it, there is no way of talking about it, or imposing or anyone, nothing of the kind. But how much you are humbling down within yourself is the point. Always look into your heart, humble down, humble down and humble down and thank every moment, every minute and that is the key to spark the joy out of every moment. Every moment has an ocean of joy in it. But to spark it you must thank whatever you have got. But if you are a grudging type, all the time if you think that, `Oh, I haven't got this, I haven't got this, I haven't got that,' then you can never enjoy whatever you have. And that is what is the message for Christians, for everyone, is that Christmas is a day of thankfulness because He gave His only son to you and He came as an extremely humble person, in a very humble abode, in a very humble birth. And that is a thing one has to know, that we have to be thankful for what we have got, materially, physically, emotionally and mentally also whatever we have learnt. While He lived in complete poverty, with complete thankfulness within it.

So may God bless you! I am very much thankful for this house [Dollis Hill Ashram], that My children have got it. I am very much thankful that My children are all here and they are enjoying. I am very much thankful that I am with them and that your problems are solved. I don't know how to thank for all this, your love that you've shown and all the beautiful things [UNCLEAR here are], [UNCLEAR in thinking] and singing and how you have taken to Sahaja Yoga and working for, there is no end to it. But you also enjoy it by thanking all the time.

May God bless you!

Now, one thing is there that we have to have music because music is so wonderful. It, I really have seen that, when she was singing that in music, see, the whole vibration started, you see, raising My Chakras.

You have to really please these deities, you know. What to do otherwise they do not start. You know, they are very, very meticulous people and they know how far to go with you, when, say, it is said in the heart and in the stomach, you see, immediately I start pulsating, I mean, I'm in their hands, what to do. I have to tell them now that, “Please, now start your work." They say, “No, make them sing! Then we'll do it."

[After the program, Mr. Harishchandra Kohli went on the stage and Shri Mataji asks him to turn around facing people.] Look at his Kuṇḍalinī rising. He is a realised Soul and was one of the fisherman with Me on the boat when I came as Christ. He is Saint Thomas.

Stop catching fish and now you start catching people, within a few months.

[Shri Mataji was working on a young gentleman sitting close to Ruth Flint and asking him what is his name.] Gentleman: Mikhail.

Shri Mataji: Do you know what it means? Gentleman: No.

Shri Mataji: It means Almighty God.

[Gentleman starts behaving very strangely and Ruth Flint feels afraid.] Shri Mataji [after sitting on Her chair, turning around towards Ruth and putting her in bandhan]: Don't worry, you have My complete protection.

Contents: 1979-0000* Letter (Marathi), Human Chitta

Dear Sahaja Yogi, Human Chitta has many illusions. When they are removed, human Chitta becomes enlightened and blissful. Many of your illusions have been removed by Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

1. You have realised that Kuṇḍalinī is not an imaginary but a living power in man.

2. This power is within every human being and its awakening takes place spontaneously in a normal person.

3. This awakening does not take place by any act. But, if a person has committed bad deeds, awakening is not possible because, even in the dormant state, She is aware of the past deeds of the person. Kuṇḍalinī has righteousness and, although she is Mother, in witness state she knows what is good and bad for the person. Diseased body and mind get cured by the grace of Kuṇḍalinī.

4. Kuṇḍalinī Shakti is the power of desire of Bhagwati. She is easily awakened just by the wish (Sankalpa) of Bhagwati. A person of very high order has to put in great efforts for it. But it is not his fault.

5. Brahma Tattwa which is flowing within you in the form of vibrations cleans all your three sheaths, body, mind and ego. When any of these sheaths becomes impure your vibrations give you the indications.

6. You get the bliss of the Spirit, if you become of sound body, pure mind and egoless. Vibrations of bliss flow from the Spirit because its light beams unaffected [UNCLEAR].

7. How has this Universe been made? Why was it made? Is Param'ātmā existing? These doubts are basic. Even Gods have not understood them. But what I have told, if it's right or wrong, can be ascertained on vibrations. For that, your vibrations should be good.

When you will learn with your experience's that love and Truth are one. And when, with your experiences, you will realise your very subtle Brahma Tattwa, then your illusion, that Brahma is detached, will go. Brahma Tattwa will blossom from within you as a lotus and its fragrance will spread. Impurities will go from the physical, subtle and causal bodies. When your Chitta becomes Brahma Tattwa then the illusion due to unreal will be destroyed.

8. Although Brahma Tattwa is like the sun, its rays reflect on the unreal (water) and that disturbs your attention. It will not be disturbed when your Chitta becomes Brahma (sun) itself. This illusion will go by meditation in the company of the ever loving Bhagwati.

9. You have become collectively conscious. This power of collective consciousness which is awakened within you, is Brahma Shakti and it is present in the Universe, in different forms and even in molecules. It is the solidity (jaḍa-Shakti) in solids, in living beings it is beauty (Saundarya-Shakti), in waking state it is the power of bliss, in Sahaja Yoga it is the power of consciousness bliss, in Param Yoga it is supreme bliss and within Bhagwati it is the power of being Brahma (Brahma-bhootwa Shakti). You have understood all these, but should experience them. You should have a steady mind and, surrendering your heart, become free from illusion.

These are My blessings.

Ever yours, Mother Nirmalā

Contents: 1979-02-01*, Public Program, Creation, Man and his Fulfilment, Gandhi Bhavan, University, New Delhi, India

In this lecture I should talk about the creation. I would switch on from the time, when we were just amoebae.

It is not difficult to find out how this universe is organized. Every scientist who is open minded can see for himself that this universe is a beautiful cosmos, is very well organized and has run very smoothly and can also deduce that the creation of this particular universe has led to the creation of this Mother Earth.

About five million years back, this Mother Earth which was in gaseous form condensed, was cooled down. How was it cooled down to the extent it did? Scientists accept this fact just as it is, they cannot find out because they have limitations. Why this thing happened? How it was started? It is easy to say there is no God but very difficult to explain many things without saying that there is God, e.g. the time that was taken for this universe to create a human being, is so very short, that nothing else can explain it.

If you use the law of chance, we can find out how many times the permutations and combinations have to work to create even a living cell. For example, in a test tube if you have fifty red pills, fifty white pills, all arranged in such a manner that all the red ones are at the bottom and that white ones are at the top, You have to go on shaking them and the arrangement of the pills gets disorganized completely. Then to organize it back fully into the original arrangement, how many times one has to shake? They have discovered a formula, that is n raised to power something, something. According to this formula, if human beings are created by chance, it seems an impossibility; because the time that is taken so far is so short that only, at the most, may be, some living cell could have been created.

Why a complicated human being has been created and so beautifully it is organized within himself, that it is hard to believe that some juggler was not behind the show. There must have been some scientist who has achieved these results. It could have only been possible by some special hand to do these things; I mean if there was no organization, no thinking, no planning, no powerful personality, The Almighty behind it, it could not have been possible.

As science has its limitations, of course, we cannot find out how was it expedited, how it took place? But we can see, that we have achieved something in the field of science, by one method, perhaps similar to one that was used to trigger our evolution so fast.

When I was a young student in school, at that time I could never have believed that we could ever reflect the moon; none could have believed. If anyone would have said that, the people would have laughed at such a conjecture. Even today if you tell My grandmother, she does not believe it. She thinks it is just a story you are telling. But we have reached the moon, no doubt.

In this system, we have used a very wonderful system of putting five capsules one to another and the first capsule, the lowest one explodes and triggers the movement of the rest of four capsules. When the second one explodes, it gives an acceleration many more times than that with which it was already moving; the speed increases in such a tremendous way that suddenly we find that the acceleration is a very high multiple of the first one; then the third one when it explodes gives another push to the capsule. Next, the fourth one explodes; then the fifth one which contains the spacecraft. Through this kind of explosions from one to the other, through that built-in mechanism, we have been able to achieve a very high acceleration for the spacecraft.

In the same way our evolution has taken place. We got this idea without even knowing about our evolution from the Unconscious. We have come to know how it has happened, but we cannot correlate both these together.

So, in the same way a human being was created out of amoebae or amoebae was created out of all the elements. In the same manner we can say that we were made again of five capsules.

The first one is the physical, our physical being. Inside the physical being was kept the emotional being.

Inside the emotional being was kept the spiritual being and inside the spiritual being was kept the spirit or our attention.

We can say, Kuṇḍalinī is the one that triggers, that is the one that explodes.

So Kuṇḍalinī force is in everything, but in the most affective, the best, the highest form, it is in human beings. It is this force which exists in everyone and evolves everything, say from carbon to the amoebae stage and from amoebae to animal stage and from animal to human stage. Even in elements it exists because the elements also evolve. We do not know how they evolve but it happens in Nature, that elements start changing their forms and mass and they become different elements; we have no idea of this because we have no way of measuring the quantity of this change that is taking place. Then the animals also change, from fishes, many become reptiles, out of reptiles many become mammals, from mammals, many become primates, monkeys and then human beings. All this happening takes place. How many are destroyed, how many remain, how many are transformed, nobody has kept any account of it.

Today, we talk of population problem, perhaps many animals have taken birth as humans. You can, see the effect of that, the way people are behaving; you can be sure that many animals have taken human form and they have yet to go through lot of evolution and training as a human being to understand the value of human life. A human being starts evolving within himself.

Now we have been human beings, as they say, for 14,000 years and we have been growing inside through our freedom, human beings are the only people who get freedom to evolve themselves to understand what is wrong and what is bad. This freedom is granted because without freedom you cannot go any further.

For example, when you start studying in a school, you are told to learn tables 2 x 10 = 20; you learn by heart and do not question why it is so, but just go on and on. But when you reach a certain standard of education, say graduation or post graduation standard, then you are given freedom to write on this subject, why is it that when you multiply 2 by 10 it is 20? It is because you have reached a certain stage of development. At this stage you are given freedom to find out for yourself. That is how you are developed and then by this development only you can teach the other people who are coming up. This is the way the evolution has been.

So far you have not felt your evolution from amoebae to this stage. You do not know how you became a human being, you take it for granted. Even if you see your eyes, they are so complicated. It is such a complicated organ that if you start studying them you will be amazed how things are made. If you just prick a pin in my finger, immediately there is a reflex action. It is so nicely built, it is so nicely arranged; it is so quick, it is so efficient, that one is surprised and amazed at the wonders of this kind of organization, that is this human body. But you see what human beings are, they are inefficiency personified. I sent four telegrams to My daughter and today she says, she received one telegram after one month.

Human beings have been given freedom to understand, to develop their own efficiency, to receive the ultimate knowledge of the Creator of this creation and the powers of the Creator. That is why, the Kuṇḍalinī is placed in the human beings alone though there is Kuṇḍalinī force and there is Kuṇḍalinī in another form in everything that exists. Only in the human beings, this force is kept in the triangular bone in dormant state, to trigger their last jump into the unknown. Now this Kuṇḍalinī exists, this is there.

But to begin with, if I say before starting all this creation, who was created first, it is most interesting and may not be very congenial to the mind of a scientist. It is much beyond science I am talking now, that much before anything was created on this Earth.

Holiness was created, that we call the Pavitratā. Śhrī Gaṇeśha is the deity of that Holiness, God has created this Holiness to protect this creation. This atmosphere of Holiness. He created to protect all the people and all the creativities which are there and which are being created by Him, otherwise nothing would work out, Just think if one of the Oceans was deeper even by ten feet the balance of Earth would have toppled down; just imagine what a speed this Mother Earth has, it revolves with such a tremendous speed goes round the Sun regularly in a proper way, not in a round way, but in a special style as you know. She creates day and night for you. Day to work and night to rest. How she herself has created this beautiful atmosphere for you and has maintained the balance and the temperature that was given to Her, is only done by the power of Holiness that was created first.

Now, man in his foolishness is challenging that Holiness. He thinks he can challenge God, that is the sign of his awareness. If he had risen to that height where he could feel God pulsating in everything he would never have done that. But before he could reach that state of perfection he has started talking about God. Who is going to challenge his authority of this stupid man, who does not want to achieve his perfection and wants to talk big.

All-pervading Power is of Holiness which corrects, which guides which coordinates, which loves and which organizes everything for you to get this awakening within you.

So one must understand, how Kuṇḍalinī awakening is the most important thing that has to happen. Kuṇḍalinī awakening is the only way you are going to know your spirit. This is the most important happening in the history of creation.

It is like laying out the garden, then you plant the trees, the trees have flowers and now the time has come, the fruits must appear. It is the most important thing and has to happen. Every individual who is seeking the Truth will know it.

The trouble with truth is, that you have to seek it with all humility in your own being. Nobody can hypnotize people for seeking truth, those who are hypnotized cannot understand. In all your awareness, in all your dignity you have to get the knowledge of truth.

But it is..., not just giving, you a lecture that you are going to understand. It is not brainwashing that has been done by all nonsensical people throughout. It is the happening, the actualisation by which you reach that state of awareness by which you develop the dynamics of collective consciousness, by which you become collectively conscious, is an awareness which develops within you, is real actualisation.

As you are a human being, you know that when this capsule of human being was triggered you got lots of things, e.g., your awareness is more than that of animals. The University itself, animals do not have any universities. Animals don't understand gardens, they don't understand dirt and filth, they don't understand beauty. All this has come to you, deep within you manifested as soon as you become human beings.

So, as soon as you become super human being through Kuṇḍalinī awakening you become aware of yourself within and you become aware of others within. This is the collective consciousness, this is what Sahaja Yoga is. Sahaja Yoga is the system of nature.

The way this creation took place is also Sahaja. `Sah' means with and `ja' means born, Sahaja means born with. Everything is built in within you like in a seed.

If you see a seed it has a primule within it to sprout. Seed has the complete power of tile tree it is going to be. The whole thing is in the seed, in the same way in the human seed the whole picture of what he is going to be, is built in the whole mechanism, is placed within.

Now there are the undercurrents of your being, which I will be describing to you. What are the forces built up inside human beings? Only thing I would like to say that you are like a computer, you are already made like a computer, only thing is that you have to be put to the mains. If you are put to the mains then the computer starts working by itself, but it is the way you understand a machine, You are a human beings, you know what is love. To a scientist I cannot talk of love, I am talking of Divine Holiness, the love of God which has created you, which wants you to know Him. Through science you cannot do that.

Every scientist must be loving somebody if not his children at least, his dog. He must be loving flowers, if not flowers he might be loving his horses, but he knows what is love. And if he can understand that spark of love, from where it has come, love that I am talking about is a synthesis of all these powers.

Science deals with only a very little portion, I will also tell you which part of this power deals with our physical being and out of which how much a scientist knows. You will be surprised that if knowledge is an Ocean, the scientist knows only a drop. And to know the Ocean, the drop is to be dissolved in the Ocean.

But a drop cannot by its own effort, become the Ocean, the Ocean has to dissolve the drop. And that is what Ocean has to do, it flies creation has to have its fulfilment and His beautiful creation is manifested in the human being. The human being must find out his fulfilment. If he cannot find out his fulfilment, he cannot reach perfection in anyone of his endeavours. God, Himself will not rest till he does that. For, who would like to destroy one's own creation. In thousands and thousands of years of time this has come to its fulfilment and if it is to be done by Me, if I am the person who is supposed to trigger your Kuṇḍalinī, why should you have any objection? Thank God, I was not a scientist, otherwise I would have finished My life making an atom bomb. Thank God, I am not a psychologist, otherwise I would have gone mad, listening to mad people.

Thank God, I am not a politician, you know how they are. Thank God, I am none of these, I am just your Mother, concerned, absolutely concerned, about your ultimate well beings and not about superficial things.

May God bless you all.

.. [to the] deity then the deity disappears from them, all right? The attention goes away from the place.

Then they bring the Satan there and play the havoc. See these Tāntrikas have no relationship with our ancient Scriptures, no relationship at all. For example Rajneesh will never mention any one of our ancient Scriptures, nothing. They have no relationship with any deities. They have no relationship with any great writers we have had, like Ādi Shañkarāchārya. Not a word. Holiness is the basis of religion and spirituality. In which Scripture this is written? Does he mean to say that he is, he has nothing to do with Christ, nothing to do with God, nothing to do with anyone, but only sex? [UNCLEAR Allude you] people are really, why don't you think are you only sex point?

Interviewer: So many things are written about it.

Shri Mataji: Because you people wanted.

Interviewer: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Where is it?

Interviewer: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No. No, no, no, no.

Interviewer: There's nothing about sex?

Shri Mataji: Not a word.

Interviewer: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No, no... What? You see that way these people have spoilt even Ashva Medha Yagñya which was the..., such a great thing, you know. They have used it for their own purpose saying that this is the symbol of this. Even Shiva and Shakti, nonsensical people call it sex. How can you do that to God? You sublimate into that, the greater thing. What is sex? Every Dick, Tom, Harry can do sex...

Interviewer: We are used to do it so...

Shri Mataji: Yes, then what? That's why they are telling you to do it and, but if you do it in a wrong way you'll have diseases, you'll have impotency, no children will be born to you if you misuse it. There is a sanctity about it.

Interviewer: May I ask you a question?

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Interviewer: Do you say that one should never use sex?

Shri Mataji: No, no, one should. One should be married. One should use sex. It's meant for a happy married life and for having children and leading a very happy and a good life. You must have a good sex life. You see, we do not think of sex at all in India. Never. This is spontaneous. You see, we never think of sex and all this nonsense. We don't read about it. I mean, I can tell you except for few anglicized and westernized Indians whom you meet, you will hardly find anyone asking. Now they have met villagers.

They don't even think about sex, is a thing, relationship with the wife, very sacred relationship. When you are with your wife, you see you indulge into it at the extreme point. That's all. We do not sit and read about sex. Why should you read about it? This is spontaneous thing. Why should you read? Interviewer: I don't read this.

Shri Mataji: That's it. But that's what they are doing it. This is another kind of Hitlerism. I can tell you this is another kind of a cruelty to human beings. See, you will be enticed absolutely; you would not find out, you will not know that this is a mistake. You'll get into it and then you'll realise it's a mistake.

This is a destruction of your own being. By wars you have destroyed others. By this you will destroy yourself. What I say has a bearing in the Bible, has a bearing in Quran, has a bearing in what you call any of the Scriptures, of Upanishads and all that, every word of it, Gītā and also of Ādi Shañkarāchārya, every word of it.

He has made forty crores of rupees. This also you don't understand that he's playing on your ego. You think you can purchase him, you can handle him. You don't understand this, you see. He is too cunning for you.

Interviewer: But how can you explain that so many Western people...

Shri Mataji: Mad...

Interviewer: ... went to him and go to him every time?

Shri Mataji: How can you explain so many Germans wanted to kill thousands of people like so many of them were burnt alive and put in the gas chamber? Do you, can you explain it? Very easy to befool you people, very easy. The trouble is you all think you are very clever. You can be outwitted by a cleverer cunning fellow. You are not cunning. You are only clever. Any cunning man can outwit you just like this.

It's very easy to befool you. Then you should also think why is it that Indians do not even take his name in the morning? Indian Government is anxious to oust him. Why don't you think like that? If India is a place of wisdom, then why he is not at all respected in this country?

Interviewer: In fact in all houses his name is also mentioned he's considered most inauspicious [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Inauspicious. In his house, you see, if anybody mentions his name in Indian homes we think it is inauspicious; we think he's a Rāvaṇa. He's the incarnation of Rāvaṇa, Rajneesh is.

Interviewer: Incarnation of?

Shri Mataji: The Rāvaṇa.

Interviewer: There is a...

Shri Mataji: The one who fought against Rāma. Demon, he is a demon no doubt. He is what, is he not? He is, hundred per cent he is Rāvaṇa. Be sure of it. [Hindi talk to a child.] She's a born realised child.

He is very nicely playing with your mind. In London, just imagine, in London, nine people got hold of a basement and took out their clothes and danced ecstatically, just take out all your clothes and say, “No, no, no, no, no, no." And they have within five months time, I don't know, they have thousands of people.

They are buying the whole of London. Why can't you see this stupidity? I mean, at least at the time of Hitler you could say that people had this feeling to kill others. But in this, to be stupid is the feeling, is it? Absolute stupidity, nonsense. If by becoming naked you can reach God, then in the bathroom every day you are like that.

I told you that don't go in the sun too much. Be careful. You see, this is also very wrong the way you expose your body to sun. You will develop skin cancers. Believe Me, you will develop skin cancers. You shouldn't burn your skin so much. It's not a good thing, you know. For sun also, you cover yourself and take the thing. Otherwise you will develop skin cancers. You should not over-do anything. Extremes should be avoided. That is how you land into difficulties, [UNCLEAR or/for] how many people in Sweden are committing suicide today? You are rich people. Why are you committing suicide? While you find there Indians so happy, don't you? They haven't got riches or anything. How are they happy? Even when they are starving they are happier. Why? A person: I'm not sure whether they are so...

Shri Mataji: Not all, not all, but many.

The same person: Because India is also [UNCLEAR]. They are much influenced by Europeans as well as [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No, no... They could not influence us... They tried, they tried...

The same person: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What is it? People: Cultural...

Shri Mataji: What he say? The same person: I think he says that also the India's cultural background is been modified like that, by the West.

Shri Mataji: That is true but still we are Indians.

The same person: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes, I agree.

The same person: But you know it can be about of the mind of the Indian people, you know the source and the education of lot of Indians, you know.

Shri Mataji: That is what you are doing now to give us ideas. You see, you people are coming and give us, giving us ideas. See, we never knew that hashish could be sold like this. Now you are giving us ideas. Apart from that you are trying to develop our country, I agree, I agree, but there's a great aggression still on. But our this culture cannot be destroyed. Because our culture is a very deep thing, is very deeply built in our inside, you see. Our family structures cannot be destroyed easily. These are just permissions on the periphery, but inside India you cannot enter. You cannot. This is also another aggression, you don't know, for us even the sex is an aggression from you people. We never had these ideas. For us it is difficult to maintain these horrible demons in this country but for you people who are maintaining them there. We would like them to be sent to you people so that you leave us alone with our auspiciousness, holiness and spirituality. It's a very subtle aggression coming to us and you people are saints. You must understand you were saints in India in previous lives. You have to understand our difficulty. You can have your sex, you can have your sex shops, you can have all nonsense, all your lives, doesn't matters, but for us you spare us now.

In India we have a very, absolutely different ideas about the saint. A saint has to lead a very holy life.

He has to be a holy person, very kind, [UNCLEAR affected/effected/affectionate]. He doesn't take any money from you. He's not a parasite. He lives with self-respect. Villagers just laugh, you see. They cannot understand. If you tell them, “Why do you go and sell them hashish?" they said, “Only the children go and do it. We don't do it." I said, “The children will have the sin. Why do you go and tell them?" They said, “No, the children go and have bath in the..., they don't know. They are innocent so they don't understand." But they are committing sins by doing these things. You must understand it is a very serious matter, My children. It's a very serious matter and responsibility will be your own. You are saints and how are you going about it? Where is it, in which Scripture it is written that sex should be the criteria for a saint? All right, I don't say suppress it like that. Your churches have done nonsensical thing. Of course, that's all nonsense, I agree.... But this is another extreme, one is the suppression of sex, all right? Like nunneries and all that [UNCLEAR] that's all nonsense [UNCLEAR] but the other is even worse. You are going from one extreme to another extreme. God is in the center. This overexcitement and these wrong ideas, I don't know how I accept. [UNCLEAR]. It is high time you people now understand because it will be very late, later on. As you said, “Why?" to Me, now I am giving you an example. It's a, it's a... sort of a hypnosis, a kind of a hypnosis. You are just hypnotized. He does not explain how he does. He does not as I do. They know how to do it themselves. They know all the methods, how it is done, how Kuṇḍalinī is brought up, how your heart has got the Spirit, which is brought into your parasympathetic.

It's all written down in our books, how to make it out.

As yesterday, that music you heard? Of Chit-ānanda Lahari, you see you get these vibrations you must [UNCLEAR] that. This is what is written in our Scriptures, is there and this is how one has to achieve.

And even a person like Shañkarāchārya has said that, “Na yoghe na shanghena” means “neither by Yoga” means the way you do Haṭha Yoga “neither by collectivity works out" but it works out through the grace of Mother. A person like Shañkarāchārya, Ādi Shañkarāchārya, such a learned man, who wrote Viveka Chūḍāmaṇi, later on he just wrote the praise of Mother, that's all. He said, “Nothing more is needed." Now Rajneesh is just the opposite of it. He's teaching you how to insult your Mother.

Nothing was wrong with Freud as you can say, because you cannot understand what was wrong with him. You do not have the complete idea as to what you are. I will tell you just now what you are and what you have to achieve. I'm waiting for all of them to come. You just think over; it's a very big responsibility.

You people have given up materialism, you have started seeking God. Why? Because you were saints in your last life. It is described that saints would be seeking much more in the Kali Yuga, at this time.

When these demands started all these thugs have also started supplying. What is the transformation of the person who talks to you intermittently? What did he get within himself, an experience? What is an [UNCLEAR experienced/experience]? You see if he says is an experience you should say, “Can you make out what's wrong with me?" Ask him. These people can make out. He told Me this Chakra is catching, you will also say. Isn't it? I mean, there should be some knowledge of yourself. You must get some knowledge within yourself. Your consciousness must have a wider dimension, you understand? Now he told Me that your left Viśhuddhi is catching.

So I asked you left Swādhiṣhṭhān to be, to be settled. It pains you there also. Now he doesn't know where it pains you. How did he tell Me? See now.

So he could feel that is Chakra is catching.

The same person: Catched.

Shri Mataji: Catched, caught up. Now I ask you, “Do you feel guilty?" That's it. It has been other things also. All of them can tell you. All of them can tell you what's wrong with you. Even if you have ten realised children here if you tie up their eyes they will tell the same thing, that this is catching in this person and you will also feel the same. You put your hands and you will feel this finger burning. See? When your sensitivity will improve you will also tell about others. It is your instrument must start working. What are the experiences you are talking about? Like a hashish experience, then like a hallucination experience, then other experience; you had many like that, you see. “I was very high.

Somebody says I'm very high." But what did you get? You see, you are, you are just regarding to something by some sort of a chemical thing or a hypnosis. Still all of us have not come.

You have taken the photographs? Very nice then, I must say. I have professional photographs also. I think you are very good. Did a good job and we are all surprised. If you want you can take just now but they all have not yet arrived.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] not coming?

Shri Mataji: No, but let Mister George come and see Me. Tell him. Because he still gets sick, you see. I must [UNCLEAR]. You tell him today because tomorrow I won't have any chance. All right? If you want you can. Come along, come forward. This sit space is free if you want to get...

Now you are better. Much better now, see. See, you are in a way more sort of connected with Sanskrit language. You are the [UNCLEAR] connected with Sanskrit language. But I was surprised that how Germans were influenced by this horrible Tāntrikas. They, they don't know superficial things. You know, to know about Tāntrikas is like entering into the house through the sewage. First enter into the sewage only and then they got, I mean they never got any knowledge. No German has written about Shañkarāchārya.

Most surprising. Not a word. They have written books after books over Tāntrikas, which is sewage for us, absolutely sewage. They could never enter because perhaps some way or other they were guided into it or taken into it. Mislaid completely. Even Jung I was surprised, even Jung, you see. Poor thing, you know, they, they come to whatever they read and whatever it is, they could never reach the reality. We have to reach to the bone of this country. Then only you'll get that peace and bliss which is promised. You must understand them not from outside but from inside. For that you have to go inside. But these all superficial experiences, if you depend on, then what's the use? [Hindi.] What's your name? You've done really that photograph? Eldon? Really? You see here you're walking or what? That's all right. She has got light also. Whatever comes in, in a general way... This is a very subtle happening; it's a very, very subtle happening. It is not a gross happening where you think of women and think of these dirty things that you've before liked having casinos and busy life. It is not like this.

It's a deep happening. It's a very, very deep happening and a very subtle happening for you will have to be very, very religious people. While you have no idea of religion in that country, I can tell you. Religion is within, not without. Like there are some priests and they are coming... We don't believe in our priests [UNCLEAR] just for play sake we do [UNCLEAR] but we don't think that they are saints. Saints are very different.

So the value of saints is so much reduced because your Pope has started certifying somebody as a saint. Naturally the Pope himself is not a saint. How does he know somebody is a saint or not? So I don't blame you, naturally. You are quite a sort of disillusion, absolutely correct. But by, but once this disillusion melts you don't go to another religion also.

What is the reality? By knowing yourself you should know your inner being and you should know the inner beings of others, isn't it, Peter? Supposing you are an engineer, take it like that, all right? If you are an engineer, if you have become an engineer you will know about the instruments that are in your house and in anybody else's houses. [Hindi talk.] Sit down, sit down. This is what should happen, by knowing Self-knowledge means knowing yourself. What are you thinking about these experiences? You see, anybody can give you by putting you out somewhere. The experience of the Spirit is that by which you get the knowledge of your being and the knowledge of another person. Then something that you cannot achieve yourself, it has come [UNCLEAR and dragged you as...]. It has to come [and drag you as...].

If you can achieve God then He is no more God. If He is the Almighty then you cannot capture Him. He has to come to you, He has to give you, He has to do the job. This is like a kick you get, you see? What you call a kick, that kind of a kick which brings you [UNCLEAR down]. It gives you a kick. The way it is given a kick, you come down the same way. Nowhere in the scriptures is described it. Either you wipe out all the history of human beings and put these horrible people on the list, or this, their behaviour, their theories, must tally with the theories of the previous people. They must relate to that.

So as I say, this is not a superficial thing, just a kick. It's a deep, embedded thing, which works out, flowers out. It's a reality and reality takes time. Thousands of people going to Rajneesh itself suggest like it is plastic.

There are Gurus and Gurus one better than other.

Interviewer: Can I [UNCLEAR] Dalai Lama?

Shri Mataji: What Dalai Lama has done, also, think about... See, what you should do is to use your brains. Because somebody is a Dalai Lama must you accept? All right, what Dalai Lama has done, think it over. Has he given Realisation to anyone? Has he transformed anybody's life, by which his life has become a king of happiness, joy? Has he given any peace to anyone? Think it over. You see, somebody says, “Now this is the place where you will get peace." You at least see the people who are coming out of it. Dalai Lama, I never knew was such a crook, to be very frank, till I sat just next to him because My husband was with the Prime Minister in Tibet. The Prime Minister sat so I could not come out, Lal Bahadur Shastri.

So I sat next to him. I was just burning, all burning.

So the Prime Minister said, “What's the matter?" I said, “Oh, God” I said, “Ma" in Hindi language, I said “You put Me on the other side." He was a parasite, [UNCLEAR took tributes of] such poor people. Sit down, sit down, good. He was just a parasite... Hello, how are you? Better? Now, that's it. Come along, sit down. If you want you can take another... Yes, good. He was like a parasite and they were so poor, Tibetans were so poor, [UNCLEAR when/well] this man had nothing but some spirits, because of supraconscious. You will see that in Sahaja Yoga. See, we have people in this country who have called these spirits, what you call these, as we call it a Shmashān Vidyā. What do you say to Shmashān in English? Crematorium, the knowledge of the crematorium, you see.

So they master some of the spirits and they use these spirits for this purpose. They will tell you what horse you are going to win. Even that they can tell you.

Now we must understand what is the interest of God in these things. Why should God tell you who is going to win the horse, what's wrong with your father, who is going to become Dalai Lama, this, that? God has no interest in all that. He has only one interest, only one interest, that you become your Self, that you get connected with the mains and start understanding Him and that the instrument that you are should have your fulfilment. That's the only interest He has. He doesn't believe in giving you kicks and these experiences so-called of such sort of a hashish and things, no. He wants to give you the complete understanding of yourself through your awareness. It's an actualisation. It is not just lecturing that I lecture you. Actually I was not going to give you a lecture because you said, “You must give us a lecture” so I am giving you. You ask them. I've been working on their back for hours together now. He will tell you, from Denmark. I have to work hard. While this Rajneesh works no hard and he has made forty crores of rupees. Just he is telling you that you go into sex like this. I still cannot understand how can you ask for a Guru for this. Even a dog and a bitch knows. Don't deviate yourselves. You are the Spirit.

You are not sex points. He will leave you to impotency, complete impotency. He'll destroy you completely.

He's just trying to pamper your ego. He's just trying to say, “Oh, you are great, you are..." Then “You'll [UNCLEAR], you are very great." If you are a rich man then you are even greater. He knows all about your status and everything. He has all the interest in the rich people. In India also he's using the Indian women who are rich women and supplying them with men. We had a boy known as Mario, who came to Me and told Me that he was used by a lady of sixty-five years old for six months and this lady was giving money to him. I know her name also. Her name is Sharvishtak. I get disciples from him who had this illusion. But I would blame your brains only that you cannot understand these things. How can he? You understand machines, but you don't understand human beings. He plays on your ego, he pampers your ego and you like it. You have forgotten Christ completely. What was Christ like? A person:... He was a good man.

Shri Mataji: He was a very good man.

Same person: He was very, very... full of knowledge more than other people at His time.

Shri Mataji: Not only.

Same person: If He lives now He would, He would...

Shri Mataji: You would deny Him.

Same person: He would get better over the time than some people around here.

Shri Mataji: No, He would not. You would deny Him much more than you would deny anybody else because, you see, He would not fit in to your conception of heavenly and Godly people. But only through Sahaja Yoga you will know that Christ exists within you here. You will know that He is there. You see when the Kuṇḍalinī stops here you have to say Lord's Prayer and you have to take the name of Christ.

Indians do it just like that because they know who He is and they know more than you people.

Same person: I was thinking that still in everybody of us there's a Father God working.

So we can...

Shri Mataji: Yes...

Same person: So we can...

Shri Mataji: You can become that, all right. That's it, that's it, I'm...

Same person: I came just to see You. I've seen You one year ago, I don't know. You must remember, I've seen You in Delhi, [Kali Baba]. You were there, about a year ago.

Shri Mataji: Is it? Same person: Yes... You gave spontaneous Realisation.

Shri Mataji: So now, that's what I am saying that there is a part in you now I will tell you today, once for good, all right? Now. Now this is the human being and [UNCLEAR]... All right? Now please pay attention fully. Just see here. All right. Here now this is the human being or you have read that God has made man in His own image.

So God also, you can say, this is a microcosm on the base great God and you all are cells in it made in the same image as this one. Now how are you made? You are made from amoeba to a human being. All right? First you were even carbon, even matter. You were evolved from amoeba to this stage. Why were you evolved? How were you evolved, that you know. But why? These are different places of your evolution. Like when you are making a machine first you create a part of it, the base and then the upper part and the upper part, like that. The whole being that you are is created like this and these are the three main undercurrents, which have made you as a human being. This, this one, the first one, gives you the existence, the first one. This channel is called as the Iḍā Nāḍī. This channel gives you existence and passes over your heart where resides your Spirit. The Spirit has nothing to do...

[Hindi.] Come in, come in, come in. Sit down. Come this side. Sit down, sit down. You can come this side. The men can sit that side. You can come this side and the ladies can... [Hindi]. Ah, you can sit there. They will come to this side. All the men should move this side. The ladies can sit there. It's all right.

So Indians know this better, that because it has the Virāta, you see, God Almighty you can say, the Virāta, in which we are small cells in His being. We are made the same way as the Virāta is made, the Great Primordial Being, is Virāta. In that blue line that you see is the undercurrent for our existence and called as Iḍā channel within us. Now these are subtle channels within us. It is for our existence and also it gives us the activity of our emotional life, left side. Also it gives you your subconscious area. Where whatever you are listening to Me now, goes into that, in your past. This is a recording of all your past and all the subtle recording of your past goes into this.

On the right side there is another channel here, which is golden colour. This one is called as the Piñgalā Nāḍī or the Sun line. This is the Moon line and this is the Sun line within us called as Piñgalā Nāḍī, which gives us the physical being of our physical being and also our mental being.

So we have left and right, two channels, Iḍā and Piñgalā. One is the moon line, another is the sun line. Now, this one outside is expressed, these two are expressed outside, this is the subtle current inside. In the medical terminology you can call them left and right sympathetic nervous systems. In the center is our evolutionary path by which arising from the amoeba stage, from here, we have gone up gradually like that. From here we came first of all, from the carbon state to the amoeba state. Then we rose and there have been altogether [UNCLEAR line/nine] incarnations so far of the Divine power of evolution.

So here the aspects of evolutionary Divine Power worked while this side the aspect of the existence and desire, aspect of God worked and this side this is physical being and the mental being or the creative being works on that.

So God has mainly three aspects: one is the existence; second is the creation; and the third is the evolutionary aspect. This one represents the Shiva Tattwa, is the principle of Shiva or Sadāśhiva. This is the first and the last, it starts with this, manifests all these, again dissolves back. That's why it is called as Sadāśhiva. Then the second principle of creation is represented by Brahmadeva and His power is called as Saraswatī. The third one in the center, which is the evolutionary, is manifested through the incarnation of Viṣhṇu, of Śhrī Viṣhṇu. Śhrī Viṣhṇu is here and when He grows to his full maturity He becomes this Virāta. You go on developing from here up to this point. When you reach that point then only your Sahasrāra, this petalled, as a thousand lotus petals, opens; it has got thousand petals. But you have to grow into a human being.

Now this is the point, lowest, is the center, is the center of innocence, occupied by Śhrī Gaṇeśha, it has nothing to do with the evolutionary piercing. You see, this, this force that is here, the force residual energy that is here, the Kuṇḍalinī, passes above it. Only this controls the protocol of this force, which is inside; this is the triangular bone called as the coccyx. You have got the triangular bone. This energy is placed in this; you can say like the coil it is kept there. This is the main.

So this coil has to come out to go to the mains. Now this is a living process. It is an evolutionary, Divine process. You cannot pay for it, first thing.

It's like the primule or you can call it, it is like the germinating force of a seed which sprouts by itself. You cannot force it. You cannot. You cannot do it. It just works spontaneously through the grace of a realised Soul. You cannot do anything about it except for one thing that is this portion, which you see here it gets stuck. This is the place where a human sustenance is regulated. This is the part of sustenance, of evolution. Now this portion of the stomach is being sustained and is guarded and guided by the forces of religion [UNCLEAR] not the religion you know of outside, like some Brahmins coming and doing Pūjā, or say some Pope giving you a lecture, not by that, but by maintaining it through your balancing system within yourselves, leading a life which is balanced and not extreme. Any extremes will take you out this side to the left, to the subconscious, the collective subconscious or this side to the supraconscious.

So any extreme is against Me.

All the Ten Commandments described in the Bible are the ten religions we have to follow. This one is a very important thing for Western people to understand. Of course in India they know that. I was just telling you that if you ask any Indian that you can reach God through sex, they'll just pull their ears to hear such a thing. But they have been told like this and they believe into it. The surprising [UNCLEAR is/thing], just imagine. Even I mean, My husband when I told him he said that, “No, no. You see, they may not be believing but they must be just trying. They cannot. How can they believe such a silly thing?" He's an intelligent Indian and we have many here people intelligent... Can you ever think such a thing will be accepted to us in India? She's a lady doctor sitting here. And because this is placed down below here, He's an embodiment of innocence. And this is your Mother, the Kuṇḍalinī, sitting there. She's your Mother. Everybody has that Mother within him. And this Mother has to rise and open it out. This is not possible by forcing it. Nothing. If you are ready it will work out. Like a candle if it is ready, if it is not wet, then an enlightened candle can enlighten it without any difficulty. But if the candle is not all right, then the candle has to be put right.

That's what I've been doing for the last three days, you know, is to put your candle right. Once the candle is put right, then only the Kuṇḍalinī is going to rise and give you that experience of the being by which you get this chit-ānanda Lahari, these vibrations, which are described in all the Scriptures that when you are realised these vibrations start flowing not just talking. I've seen many people just talk, “not good vibrations, bad vibrations." How do you know? You are not yet connected to the mains. Like this instrument, when you are connected to the mains the record is established, like a computer. You are made very carefully. For thousands of years this body has been created as a human being. And this is the last evolutionary thing that has to happen and get. For that you don't have to be very well educated. There is no need for you to know much. On the contrary, simpler people get it just like that. The more you are complicated the more you'll get problems. Now cancer is the answer, because without cancer you will not understand.

So cancer has come, just to teach you. This is the parasympathetic nervous system in the center, which is giving you the energy to both the sides, like this. I will show you. This starts...

Contents: 1979-02-09*, Public Program, Thankfulness, False Gurus, Kovalam, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala, India

..the Deities that are in these centres, the Deities just sleep off and the malignancy is set in, cancer is caused. Cancer cannot be cured unless and until you get your Self-realisation - if be!. Whether you are a doctor or anything I'll tell you this! He is also a doctor from England. We have cured a cancer recently. I mean I can cure many cancer patients but my interest is not to do that.

The only thing that will happen to all the saints, if they go wrong any more, will be cancer itself. Because ego, ego is too much, and ego comes from over-activity here, it bloats out like that and from this another side where is the emotional side on which we get a superego. So you are clutched like that.

Now what has happened in the West we must understand; that you had too much of over-activity, your ego really bloated like a balloon and pressed this (superego) down. So you got fed up with it. You just said, "To hell with all this materialistic development!" Now we are trying to develop materially. You see, Indians must open their eyes, they have to short-circuit. They want to go into the same circuit of getting into the affluence and then coming back to their own norms.

So they should feel their satisfaction within themselves and try not to over-do anything. By over-doing it you just got tired of all the activity, so you said “Give up that!” That’s how you have given up that life. Alright? But by that where did you go? From one end of the pendulum you go to the other side. That’s why you have taken to the other side by which you take drugs and things – so you go away from yourself. It’s an escape. As this is an escape, this is also an escape. But face yourself in the centre.

So all of you are catching on the left for the same reason. While Indians will be catching more on the right because they are developing now, advancement.

Advancement only should be of the Spirit. Once you get the advancement of the Spirit, Krishna has said, “Yoga kshema vahamy’aham.” That first you get your Yoga and [then] your Kshema (comfort, well-being) is looked after.

But Indians, they may not accept these nonsensical ideas about sex but about material welfare they must get people from Russia, from Germany, from America and from England to teach us. Now, you have to tell these people that this material thing has led you to this kind of life – you are fed up of it, the complications of it – and that our people should not follow you and go into the same ditch and come back with some drugs.

Tomorrow Indian children are going to give up God, the way you people negated there – all the churches are telling this. Because in the temples you find all kind of nonsense going on!

So we are on one extreme, that once we give up, we become absolutely people who do not believe in God. So to avoid all this, you have to stand on your legs. By the rising of the Kundalini the Spirit here is expressed through the Sadāśhiva, the God Almighty, there. When this touches, passes, through this it integrates you completely, enlightens you, and there that principle of Sadāśhiva starts flowing through you, through your hands as vibrations. Cool vibrations come into you. Then, as soon as this happens, the whole instrument starts working – that your fingers start telling you what's wrong with the other person. You start feeling on your fingers what is the chakra catching. Even a child can tell you. This is what has to happen to you.

Then you get the state of sat-chit-ānanda. 'Sat' is the knowledge: you get the knowledge about yourself and about others. 'Chit' is your attention – becomes so powerful that you can pay attention to somebody and can cure the person. You can find out what's wrong with the person just [by] paying attention to him. Just paying attention to a person! It's like a dynamic communication that is established in the Collective Consciousness. You become, you become! It is actualisation, it's not lecturing. You really become collectively conscious, in the sense that you start feeling others. You attain a state of awareness in which you become aware of others, automatically, spontaneously. Anybody, even a child can say, “Yes, this is wrong with this person. This is catching, that is catching.” You just become. It is not lecturing or brainwashing. It’s the happening which should take place. This is what you should ask for and not for some sort of a ‘kick’ and a hallucination or some sort of a mesmerism that’s going on.

And you must know that a person who is a religious person, a person who talks of God, has to lead a very, very moral life, has to be an excellent person, has to be full of compassion and love and should be above all these worldly things: he should not take money from you. How can a parasite be a Divine person? These are all parasites! For them, money is so important. They divert your attention to money. All the time they are diverting your attention to money! You cannot purchase such a person. Such a person is a king! You cannot purchase such a person. You cannot capture such a person. You cannot handle such a person. He lives beyond!

But this is a big thing going on. People are creating a big rigmarole, and a very big enterprise. They sit down and find out how to propagate, how to have a big advertisement, how to do this, how to do that. And they work it out. They know. They are psychologists, they know how to handle your psyches. Without doing anything for you they have become multimillionaires!

People are disillusioned, no doubt. But say, about today there are one thousand people with them. Out of them five, six, they are disillusioned first, so they get out. Then again five, six get disillusioned, they get out. Like [in]

Penang, I would say. This 'Maharshi Yogi' started his work in Penang. In Penang now he dare not go there, because people will really kill him! Because they are all like a junky car. He went there about fifteen years back. They are just like junky cars, rattling just like that. They cannot take the name of God. One man told me, he cannot go near a church even [because] he starts rattling – like a junky car. This is all known as Śhmaśhāna Vidyā (Knowledge of dead spirits) in this country. You have no idea as to what you are facing with these people. You must only ask for this Eternal, of absolute values. But you ask for something cheap – then go and purchase it. There are markets for you. People are doing guru-shopping, go do it! If that satisfies your ego, go ahead! You will be born again and again doing the same work. What's the use?

If you are saints, take to the right things. Only because I do not take money from you and I cannot pamper your ego, you should not give up what is Reality is. I will give you whatever is the Reality; for which you cannot pay, which you cannot manoeuvre, which you cannot get with your effort, but through your spontaneity you are going to get it. Just ask for it!

I am your Mother, I am going to tell you the truth. I am not going tell you, "Go and smoke and do whatever you like." None of these gurus ever say that, "You don't smoke!" Nor do they ever say that, "You don't take drinks!" At the most they will tell you that, "You become vegetarians." That's the best way of making you people weak! This vegetarianism of this extreme type is also not necessary. All right, those who do not need [meat] should not [eat]. But that does not mean a person cannot achieve spirituality if he eats other things; like Mohammed Sahib was a great person, Christ was a great person; even Rama was a Kshatriya (warrior), Krishna was a Kshatriya! So only thing you can do is to control your food. By controlling food and all these things you cannot achieve God. You have to control your whole religion within yourself. And that can come later on, once you get Realisation. So my style is first to give you Realisation outright, [to] start your machinery, whether [it is] second hand, third hand, fifth hand. Whatever kind of a car it is, let us start it off, then it will work out by itself, you will correct it because you will know where is the trouble.

This is how my work is going to affect you and give you health. By this, your physical being is first corrected, naturally, because, if God has to enter into your being, if He has to be enlightened and enshrined, your temple has to be corrected. You must respect your body. You must respect your body! Then, your mental being is going to be corrected. If you have any mental problems, psychosomatic problems, they will be corrected; naturally, because the mind that is going to receive the knowledge of God has to be all right. And you are going to be emotionally absolutely stabilised in love, in pure love, and not this lust love that every time you look at a woman you have a feeling of possessing her, every time you look at a man you have a feeling of possession. But flee from all this enslavement into a real dignified life of yours, that is what is Sahaja Yoga is. For which you have to understand that it’s not a cheap thing. It’s a very subtle happening. And if it happens to you, you have to maintain it. And how to maintain it and all that, we have worked it out.

I have started my work with one person and now, as you know, in London, we have thousands. And that is three hundred very good Sahaja Yogis who were just like you. They were taking drugs and everything. They have given up – I never told them to give up -because you start enjoying yourself so much that you just give up. Because when the vibrations are flowing nicely, you feel better. And then you start doing with your hand all the miracles, the raising of the Kundalini. You yourself can do it. You can give them Realisation. You can do it. Now you have felt it isn't it? You have felt the vibrations of others. Didn't you feel it? You felt it, what was burning, what was happening, isn't it? All this sensitivity comes to you as soon as you start opening it out.

Now, the only difference is – you are the people who are really ardently seeking it and renouncing it – but you have spoiled your Kundalinis by this kind of a plunging into all kind of nonsensical things. So I have to put them right. While Indians have got beautiful Kundalinis, they get it in no time, but they do not seek it! While the [teach?] is; where there are teeth, there are no Chana (roasted chickpeas), and when there is Chana there is no teeth. Indians are only then, when I go to them there, they'll say, "All right, we have had darshan Mother, now we are alright!" That's all they're interested in, my darshan – finished!.Or at the most, somebody is sick, somebody is ill, just to cure!

They are not interested in my programme, because now they want to develop themselves, you see. You must frustrate yourself! Worldly developments have brought no peace to you, no happiness to you, that you know, but they do not believe you. In this country, it is so great, that we can live with very little. In London, I have seen, that you cannot go out without wearing a coat! And you have to have centrally heated your house, otherwise you will die. You have to struggle all the time. That is the reason people have paid their attention outside to overcome the natural problems. While in this country there is no need. That's why in our country, only, these great people like Ādi Śhaṅkaracharya, like Nanaka, like Kabira, like recently, our Shirdi Sāī Nath, and all these people were born because there you can live just in the jungle. You don't have to pay much attention to your wellbeing here you can get everything nicely.

This is the reason why Indians are so much religious. Their attention is religious, their traditions are religious, we started religion. But we have got such a big heritage, but where are we looking forward to? America and to Russia? Just go and see yourself how they are then you will never look forward to them. We have to look forward to Adi Shankaracharya, we have to look forward to our Nanaka, and to our great saints, those who lived in complete joy, peace and happiness. That is our heritage. We are not to play and go to these horrible things like casinos and things. That gives no joy, otherwise why are they (foreign seekers) here?

We have to manifest our own, project our own; our own image, which is actually based on the Self-realisation only, nothing else. Let us be proud of it that we have got this heritage. And they are not going to respect you unless and until you are yourself.

So, for Indians also, one has to learn a lot to be an Indian to understand what they have got already. These are all saints, you see. Really they are saints. Believe me, they are saints, reborn to seek God. But they are misled and with the thugs that have gone from your country only, so you are responsible to see that you give them love and to bring them back to normalcy.

I would like you some time to come and visit the villages where I have done a lot of work. I don't want publicity, that's why I don't have much publicity. City is useless for me. City is meant for people like Rajneesh and all these, who can go and put their bags filled up there with all the money that the city people have!

I go to the villages, and in the villages, you will be amazed, how they will assimilate you. Because you dissolve into yourself, and they dissolve into themselves so you become just one! You can ask – these boys have been – how they were dancing and jumping with them and loving them and kissing them.

All these false ideas, nonsensical ideas: this Freud, who has separated man from man, woman from woman, woman from man, husband from wife, children from mother. All this nonsensical fellow, this Freud, was another attack on the innocence, and you accepted him so readily. That is the reason why such people, like horrible people like these sexologists are thriving at your cost. Ask any Indian if they've read anything of 'Kamasutra' or if they want to? None of them! See the innocence here isn't lost. They won't even understand half of what I am saying. They are so simple. If you talk to them you will be amazed. You have complicated yourself for nothing at all! Tantrism is the sewage of this country. Don't come to us through that sewage! Come to us from the main door, then you will know what side of the sewage is.

All right, thank you very much! May God bless you, let's have it. Now, that you get your Realisation and settle down with it.

The whole creation of God is Sahaja and the ultimate is the Sahaja Yogis. God has crested man with His Shakti and man has to know Him and recognize Him through Kuṇḍalinī awakening. Blossom time has come and many ancient seekers are today getting their Self-realisation.

My heartiest congratulations to all the Sahaja Yogis for enlightening the path of Self-realisation for the seekers of Truth.

India had to move to the north so that Kailāśha could rise to complete the seventh Chakra [Sahasrāra] of the universe.

Contents: 1979-03-08 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, How to Realise the Self, Seminar, New Delhi, India

Shri Mataji: For the very first time? [UNCLEAR]. First time? [UNCLEAR].

Please come. Just come forward. [UNCLEAR].

Please keep your hands like this. What are you doing?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. What am I to speak? I don't know.

Sahaja Yogi: How to realise Self?

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR Hari], how to realise Self? [UNCLEAR hain...].

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: This is a very nice question, “How to realise the Self?" The first word, how. [UNCLEAR On this] one can say, that Self can be realised and is to be realised, will be realised. But you cannot realise Self. You cannot. You have become a human being from amoeba. How did you become? What did you do? You got it just as a blessing from God. In the same way, Self-realisation is also the blessing of God. It is spontaneous. It is a living thing. Anything living happens spontaneously, by itself.

Do you ever say, how am I to sprout the seed? It will sprout by itself. Why? Because all the mechanism, all the energy that is required for it to sprout is embedded in it, is built in it.

In the same way, all that is required to reach to your Self is embedded within you. It is waiting there for that moment when it has to happen. Once you start doing anything about it, efforts about it, you go wrong. As I've told you that there is a force, which is sleeping, an energy, which is called as Kuṇḍalinī, in the triangular Bone. That is the Aṅkura, that's the primule. That rises, which connects you with the mains, just like this one you can say, a cord that opens out and connects you with the mains. But can it do it by itself? No. The one who has made this instrument has to do it.

So it is God who is going to do that for you. Or somebody appointed by God can do it.

So how does it come in? Now can you tell Me how does a seed sprout? How does a flower become a fruit? You don't even see when it happens. It is done in such a manner that you cannot even see it with your naked eyes. Of course, if you had some sort of a camera which gives you delayed actions and things, then you might. But with your human eyes you cannot even see that. And there are thousands and thousands of such things happening.

Now your Self-realisation is the most important thing and has to happen. The time has come. You are created for that, you have to have it. The blossom time has come and all of you have to become fruits.

The time has come. It has to work out. Only thing what you have done through your effort you've spoiled the flower.

The other day only I was reading about Rāja Yoga that people are doing. I'm not against Rāja Yoga by any chance. But Rāja Yoga is a happening within yourself. With the Kuṇḍalinī awakening, you see, when the Kuṇḍalinī is awakened, then all these happenings take place, all these closing up of certain [UNCLEAR bandhas] and all that, that takes place and the Kuṇḍalinī rises. But it happens in such a short time, in such a split of a second you can say, that you cannot feel it's rising, in Sahaja Yoga, in this modern Sahaja Yoga.

Haṭha Yoga is also the same. Is the way how you cleanse yourself gradually and then the Kuṇḍalinī rises. Say I have to come to Delhi. That means this is the Yoga, the union. As long as I am away from Delhi, I'm away from Delhi, whether it is one mile, two miles or three hundred miles. When I meet that's the point, that's the Yoga. And that happening is absolutely spontaneous. Whether you come by train or a bullock cart, it depends. Now ours is a jet style. All these things happen within yourself spontaneously.

If you start doing it, if you do Haṭha Yoga, you are one.

Some realised Soul who is a Guru, he knows what Chakra you are catching, of course that's a very different style of thing. That's Aṣhṭānga Yoga you have to be in the jungle, absolutely celibate, unmarried before twenty five years of age. You have to do all the ashtangas, not only one for making yourself slim, or something like that, to be a cinema actor. It's the union with God. If you pay so much attention to your only body, physical being, then you are an imbalanced person, you're just spoiling the whole thing.

Unless and until it is a realised Soul, who is of a very high quality and who lives in the jungle, as your father he works on you before you are exposed to this worldly life. While our so-called Haṭha Yoga means only you create cinema actors out of them.

Today only I had a Haṭha Yogi, today in the morning. He's not come today, I think. Poor fellow he got a heart attack, it is inevitable. Every Haṭha Yogi is going towards that.

Because when you start using too much of your right side, then the left side, which is the Spirit, in the heart, feels unhappy. Why are you paying so much attention to your body, this material being? So it is so unhappy that you get the catch.

So he was told Haṭha Yoga to overcome his heart.

So how do you get it is not the point, we just get it. The Kuṇḍalinī rises, it does, I can show you, it will pulsate, you will see in the triangular bone. And the most what we can do, what is required to be realised, what sort of an instrument is required. For example, children get it so fast, because they are so uncomplicated, so simple, they are not artificial. Secondly, the people who lead a simple, Dharmic life in the center. Those who are married, have got children, leading a very simple life, satisfied people. They are the best. Villagers are the best. City dwellers are not so good. City dwellers are horrid. They give such a headache. They will give it to you also when you will be realised. Because you have so many complications in your heads. Moreover they read such a lot, that the reading goes into their head and they are nowhere, they are lost in the reading. Without seeing the reality they have already got an idea about reality.

So they dwell upon those ideas not on the reality itself.

So such people are difficult.

But normally we have seen now even in the city, horrid city like London, we have been able to do [Yoga]. Quite a lot of people, now about three hundred Sahaja Yogis are first class there. But apart from that, thousands of them, I should say, have got it in different places.

So in, such a country where, you see, materialism has come to its verge of collapse, it's easier to work out because now they know that there's nothing in materialism. It's much better to work out there. Here we are now supposed to be advancing and we are developing ourselves, getting into the same bitch into which they are. What I'm saying, we can short-circuit, we can short-circuit through Sahaja Yoga.

So it happens, you will see for yourself, the Kuṇḍalinī will rise, it will break through and it will come out of the Sahasrāra. What is the other question? Audience: Mother, what is Sahaja Yoga?

Shri Mataji: Sahaja Yoga. Sahaja. `Saha' means with, `ja' means born. Sahaja means it is born with you. Yoga is born with you.

So that you have the right, it is your birthright to get union with God. It's your birthright. You are born with it. Sahaja, it has a double meaning, as you know, Sahaja also means easy. But actually the word Sahaja comes from this, sa-ha-ja, saha means with, ja means born. Born with you. And Sahaja in our talking it says: Sahaj [UNCLEAR mein] means easily, because it is born with you. We are breathing now so easily, because it is born with us, it is Sahaj. Supposing for breathing if we have to stand on our heads, or we had to, say, read books, we would have been dead long time back.

It comes Sahaja, spontaneous. We cannot do anything about it, it's all done for you. Unnecessarily we are breaking our heads here and there. Just wait and see, it will work out. The time has come. This is Sahaja Yoga, is the Mahā Yoga as they call it. They call it as the Mahā

Yoga because this is, this is the highest of all, where the Kuṇḍalinī rises just like that.

But many people have used Sahaja Yoga just as a greater convenience, you see, without using the essence of it. I mean you can give any name to anything and they do all a-Sahaj things. You don't have to do anything whatsoever. Nothing! Those who are realised here, people, will work for you. It is simple like this. Supposing you are trying to learn swimming, or you are getting drowned. The person who's trying to save you will tell you, “Keep quiet, don't beat your hands here and there. Just keep quiet." And the one who knows how to swim will lift you out from there, put you on the shores and can teach you swimming.

Then you can help others. It's very simple. It's like one light, which is enlightened, can enlighten another light. But that light has to be all right.

So it is that simple. It's absolutely simple. Now how do you light one light into another light? How? 06

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes, that's how! A light, which is already there enlightens another light. Now you, this light doesn't take any credit for that. Nothing! It's just your own. You have to be enlightened, it's your own right, you have to have it. But you want to have some sort of a difficult situation for everything.

Can't eat food like this, you want to go round and round. Why not eat like that? Then go ahead! If you don't want to eat straight away then what would I say? That all right, you go ahead. Break your necks, come to Me later on, I'll put them right, now what to do? There are many who come like that to Me, very difficult cases.

So be simple, be like children and have it. No problem. At least here seventy five people are realised.

At least seventy five persons.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Fifty? Why these are not realised, that's all?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All the rest are. Doctor is realised, then who else?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Ha? Here and there. Who's not realised here? These got his Realisation yesterday.

Everybody is realised.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Isn't it correct? [Laughter.]

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Those who are not realised, can be realised in no time.

What is the second question? No question. He wants it and that's it. That's it. That's like a real seeker. Ha.

There's one more question, which you are not asking, which you are feeling it. That you have known that Kuṇḍalinī awakening is a very difficult thing. Isn't it true? So. It may be difficult for people who do not know how to do it. Which is not for Me. Is the easiest for Me. My nature is to awaken Kuṇḍalinī.

So for people who do not know the job it may be difficult, it may be very, very difficult. They must be doing all upside things.

Supposing I do not know how to operate this, I may burn My hand. And then I'll say, “My Kuṇḍalinī was awakened, I burnt My hands." How can that be? Kuṇḍalinī is your own Mother. Everybody's mother. Can you imagine God can instil something in you which will burn your fingers, which will give you headaches, which will make you jump like a frog? How can it be? But there are mad people like that.

One gentleman came and he was sitting with both feet towards Me.

So these people said, “You can't sit like this." He said, “No, my Kuṇḍalinī is awakened and I jump like a frog." So, we said, “Why do you jump like a frog?" He said, “My Guru said, it is written in the book, that when your Kuṇḍalinī is awakened you start jumping like a frog." I said, “After Kuṇḍalinī awakening you become a super person or you become a frog?" Now the human being has to become a frog or a chicken, or I don't know what it has to become? According to these people? Ha? So it is quite silly, you know, the way people have written, such big books they've written, all silly. I can assure you: when you'll get your Realisation, you'll be laughing at it. It's a big joke. Everybody cannot talk of Kuṇḍalinī awakening unless and until you know about it.

Seeker: We are new people. How would we know that our Kuṇḍalinī is awakened?

Shri Mataji: You see, what you will feel once the Kuṇḍalinī is awakened? In Sahaja Yoga as I said, if the instrument is perfect it happens just like that. You see like a very, we say, very smooth landing, so the Kuṇḍalinī lands up very smoothly. For people who are simple they just do not feel anything except that they feel absolutely relaxed and from their hand they feel this Chaitanya flowing, these vibrations start flowing. Now, once this get it, supposing I give you pounds and you do not know what is the value of pounds is you must spend it. Then once you start using them then you realise how powerful they are.

Simple things happen: first you get thoughtless awareness, which is called as Nirvichara Samādhi. You are listening to Me but you become absolutely thoughtless. There is no thought, you become blank.

When the Kuṇḍalinī crosses this, when it crosses this, you start getting this in the hand and the whole thing becomes absolutely relaxed. Now, after Realisation, you have to steady yourself, that is the most important thing, where we fail. Because though you are brought to the boat, still you are just going like that, because you have come from the wobbling system.

So, after that, you have to settle down. And that settling takes some time. And if you could devote your time to that settling, then you can be a very good Sahaja Yogi, you can give Realisation to people. Just like that, moving your hands, just like this.

Children can give Realisation, this child can give Realisation, she's a born realised. Then, you can make out people who are realised, who are not realised, you can make out people who have written the books if they are realised people or not. You can make out the temples which are really Swayambhū or not. All absolute questions can be answered with Sahaja Yoga, because you start getting these vibrations, you can ask any question which is absolute, even like, a question like, `Is there God?' Immediately the vibrations will start flowing in the hand. And you will start feeling that cool. These are very soothing vibrations, absolutely soothing, they soothe you completely. And if you put your hand on somebody after Realisation, that person also feels that soothness and the whole thing starts melting away. You find the whole thing melts.

When the Kuṇḍalinī rises in some people it can show also if there are obstructions. Like if it is, at the Nābhī Chakra if there's obstruction, you can see the Kuṇḍalinī absolutely there, on the triangular bone.

But supposing at the Swādhiṣhṭhāna it is, then on the sides you see the Kuṇḍalinī bursting out. You can ask the person, he might be suffering from uterus, he might be suffering from liver or something like that.

Then, if the person had a bad Guru or somebody who has misled him, the Kuṇḍalinī comes and throbs here, throbs very badly. And when it throbs there, you can make out that the person had a wrong Guru who has misled him. Then here you have to awaken the Guru in him.

Then it comes up to this, if you have suffering from sense of insecurity, then also the Kuṇḍalinī can stop at this point. Here you have to awaken the Jagadambā, then you come up here, it is the Kṛiṣhṇa's Chakra at the back. When the Kuṇḍalinī stops there, then maybe the person has been smoking or has been saying something. See, there are many complications about it, because there are sixteen thousand, sixteen thousand Nāḍīs attached to this one.

So this is a very important, very, very important Chakra.

Moreover, if you have been using any mantras, then this is spoiled. Because mantra has a big Shāstras, you should not accept any mantras from anyone. Because nobody can give a mantra. When they give a mantra, you should ask them, `Why are you giving me, why, what is the wrong, what is wrong with me.

Why this Chakra, why that Chakra?' They don't know anything, I can tell you.

The example of this is, there was one yogi who had come from, so-called yogi, from South Africa.

He gave such a horrible mantras to the English boys there and some of them told Me like, `inga', `pinga', `kinga', sort of things. [Laughter.] So even an ordinary Indian can understand that these are all rumble-tumbles.

He did not even know Sanskrit.

So Mantra Vidyā, if you know, then you know the whole Vidyā.

But Mantra Vidyā can only be known after Realisation. Not before that.

Yeh to ho gaya kam, ā raha hāth mein thandak sa pār ho hi gaya baithe baithe [This job is done.

Shri Mataji asks whether you are feeling the cool in your hands.

So you are pār while sitting].

Just put your hands like this. All of you should get it. All of you. Now don't look at others, you have to look at yourself for a change. Aankh band karo [Close your eyes]. Now if you can't close your eyes, then you keep your eyes open. Aa raha hai, thandak ā raha hai. [It's coming, coolness is coming].

Please close your eyes, please. If you have come here for Realisation, at least close your eyes.

Aankh band kariye bhai Sahib, hāth dono meri or kariye, ānkh band kariye aur hāth meri or kariye.

Agar namrata āp mein nahin hai to kabhi āpki Kuṇḍalinī nahin uthne wali. Aa janam janamantar ki cheej mangne āye hain. Uske liye bahut namrata ki jaroorat hai. Agar namrata nahin hogi to Kuṇḍalinī baithi rahegi neeche main bata rahi hoon. Yeh koi dukandari nahin hain. Aap apni Mā ke yahan āye hain, namrata poorvak sweekar Karen. Isko ekdam halka chor den ek dam halka. Jyada se jyada apne hāth ki or Dhyān de Kitāben pari bahu sarī. Bilkul shant hokar baithe. Hilna Dulna nahin. Shantipoorvak baithna chahiye. Agar āp Dhyān mein 5 minute bhi shanti se nahin baith sakte to kaise Kuṇḍalinī Uthegi.

Aa raha hai āpko kuch thanda sa. Jis jis ke ā raha hai hāth upar Karen. Thora sa. Aap jara kale moje utar deejiye. Kala rang nuksan karte hain. [Close your eyes, brother, put your both hands towards Me, close your eyes and put your hands towards Me. If you don't have humility, your Kuṇḍalinī is not going to get up. You have come here to ask for the thing of many, many previous births and humility is very essential for that. If there is no humility, to Kuṇḍalinī will not rise, I am telling you. This is not the business. You have come to your Mother's place. Accept it with humility. Leave it totally without any weight. Maximum is put your attention towards your hands. Have read so many books. Just sit down in silence, total silence. No shaking. If you cannot sit in silence for five minutes, how the Kuṇḍalinī will rise? Are you getting the coolness? Raise your hands who are getting it. Little bit. Please remove your black socks. Black colour harms you].

Are you getting any Cool Breeze in the hand?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Yes].

Shri Mataji: You are, in both hands. Here? All right, yes. Keep your eyes like this. It should work out. Aa jayega [It will come].

Are you wearing black socks? [UNCLEAR]. Are you wearing black socks? Socks? I think better take them out. It's better. Yes. Just let it loose to your feet. Hm. Better.

Aap logo kea a raha hāth mein thanda [Are you getting any coolness]? Slightly? Better? Just wait, it will work out.

Bahut punyas the janam janamantar ke. Aapki kya halat hai? Kuch nahin. [Good deeds of previous births. How are you feeling? Nothing.]

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. What has he got? Catching on?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hot? No vibrations? Kuṇḍalinī not rising?

Sahaja Yogi: Void, Mother. Void.

Shri Mataji: Also Void. Accha Beta āp jāyeye, hamara bas ke nahin. Mushkil kām hai. Aap jayeeye sab disturb ho raha hai. Accha. OK. Aap kal āyega. Aap jayeee. Jo log par hona chahte hain unko hone deejeye. Aap jayee Meherbani. Who ānkh band nahin karenge, meri or hāth nahin karenge, what do do? Yeh meditation hai na, āp lecture mein theek hain. [I cannot do. It is a difficult job.

Everybody is getting disturbed. You come tomorrow. You go. Those who want to get, let them get. We will be very thankful. Let him go, let him go, He will not close his eyes, will not put his hands towards Me, what to do? Today is meditation. You are all right in lecture.] No good. Good. [UNCLEAR]. You have to tell them out. [UNCLEAR]. Also you are all getting now.

[UNCLEAR].

Anybody who's coming in a Sannyāsī's dress tell them to change their dress and then come. We cannot give Realisation to Sannyāsīs.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I knew that. If he goes away, he helps us a lot. These boys have got it now. Aapka ho gaya thanda na [You have got the Cool Breeze]. Now what I would say that you take these boys together and work out with them, because you...

Tum log Sahaja Yoga mein āoge ke nahin, āyene, hamari madad karoge ke nahin, definitely? Yahan par hazaro ko par karte hain phir pata nahin kahan chale jate. Aur phir āye samajh mein nahin āta kam kaise hoga. Dhyān mein āna hoga. Har Friday hota hai. Mahine mein ek bar. But in your own place, kahan rahte ho tum. Aap sab milkar shuru kijiye. Yeh kam sabko Karma hai. Bara bhari kam hai. Isse samoohik chetna ā jati hai. Aapas mein prem barta hai. Aur tum young logo par jimmedari hai iski.

[Whether you will come to Sahaja Yoga, we will come. Whether you will help us. Thousands of people get it here then where they go don't know. Then come again and it is difficult to understand how to do this work. You have to come in meditation. It is on every Friday. Once in a month. But in your own place, where do you stay? So you all start together. You have to do it together this job. It is a very great job.

It brings collective consciousness. Love is increased among yourselves. You young people are responsible for this.] Put your left hand on your liver. Liver. Please tell him... [Shri Mataji asking everyone whether they got it.] [UNCLEAR]. What about you? This gentleman, he's got vibrations? Getting cool.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother his finger is sweating.

Shri Mataji: Which one, right... All the fingers.

Shri Mataji: Only in one. And the rest you are not getting?

Seeker: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All right, keep it for a while, we'll see you again, [UNCLEAR Accha]. What about you? Seeker [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: We'll work it out. All right? We have to clean that out first.

... the Chakra, if you give it too much of thinking or of thinking becomes your disease, which is a modern thing, you see, everybody starts thinking. You cannot stop your thinking. Then also the liver gets spoilt.

But the worst enemy of liver is alcohol. Absolutely it's the worst enemy. I mean, if you want to die...

best thing is go to a pub, take drinks and die. It's like buying your death. Like calling a bull, `Come and hit me. I will give you money.' It is something like that. It's absolutely self-destroying. And only after Realisation you are so relaxed and you enjoy your company so much that it is very easy to give up.

Now, the another thing that is very important in this case is our eyes. Are very important, which play a very big part in this Swādhiṣhṭhāna movement. Now, those people who move their eyes too much here and there. You see, I don't know, this is the modern style also, too much to move, everything they must see... like that they are going on, mad people. I don't know what is there to see like that, you see. Actually, in former days, when we were young, we were told to see the Mother Earth all the time, not to raise your eyes higher than that. The reason is the Mother Earth soothes your eyes. But if you want moving your eyes too much, the attention is moving, wobbling, all the time. Now the attention is sustained by liver.

If your liver is not all right, your attention cannot be all right.

So those people who have a habit you see, sometimes they'll see through the back of their eyes, or from here, there, they think they are doing something great by doing these things, such people can never have good livers.

So to keep a good liver, keep your eyes down. Don't give them too much work. We are giving too much work to our eyes and that's how it is keeping our attention all the time wobbled out and if your attention is out, then you can never feel happy.

So the liver sustains the attention and for you to be best Sahaja Yogi is to put your eyes down, on the Mother Earth. Walk with less raising of your eyes. Respect your eyes. You're not to waste your eyes on all the time anybody coming up your... I've seen even in meditation people can't keep their eyes straight. You have to keep your eyes all the time in a mood that you're enjoying yourself and not enjoying others. But just enjoying yourself, you cannot enjoy others, you have to enjoy yourself, to enjoy somebody else's vibrations. You can only enjoy others through their vibrations, not through their seeing.

And because of this, once you have this kind of a habit, then your liver always gets into it. Then you curse yourself, you do all kinds of things... that's no good. Just tell yourself, `[UNCLEAR Hold] my eyes on the Mother Earth.' She sustains, She takes away all your problems and everything.

So liver I've told you today and the same thing applies to other organs, which I will tell you tomorrow.

One every day I am going to tell you about one organ, how to keep it all right.

Sahaja Yogini: What about heart trouble?

Shri Mataji: Heart trouble. Now heart trouble comes just as a warning, because nature wants you to stop being silly. That's it. Simple! Absolutely it is so simple as that. Heart is the temple of your Spirit.

If you pay attention to anything else too much than the Spirit, you get a heart attack. Because the right hand side, Piñgalā Nāḍī, if you are using too much.

[Aside:] What's happening? Head is hot. You have come before, [Marathi dialogue].

If you have used your right side, which is called as Piñgalā, Piñgalā Nāḍī, which is the right side sympathetic, doctors do not differentiate between the left and the right. But they are two different things altogether. The one that is on the right hand side caters for your mental activity. If you are doing too much mental activity, or physical activity, the left hand, just see the nature, how beautifully it is, the heart, which is not responsible for your thinking at all, stops. Or it gives you a push. Or it sort of, suddenly collapses. Or it gives you a warning: you get a pain.

On the contrary, if you are using your left side, see, left side is for your emotions. If you are too much emotionally built up. People are very emotional some of them all the time crying, weeping, all that. Such people, their brain goes out. See! The combination: the brain has nothing to do with your emotions. But the brain goes out. See the balance! How nature has built you up.

So the heart says, Now, it's too much.

A person, who's running too much after position, he gets a heart attack. Person, who's running too much after money, he gets a heart attack. A person who runs too much after thinking that he's doing a great job and that this is his responsibility, this thing.

So the Spirit, the responsibility is that of the Spirit, is not of you.

So you get a heart attack. If you over-do anything, physically or mentally the heart is the one that checks you. It's very simple to get rid of it.

It's to raise your left, put it to the right. Raise your left, put it to the right. Twenty one times, every day you should do it. Immediately you'll find that you're, by raising your left, you are raising your superego, reducing your ego and ego and superego both of them come down like that and the Kuṇḍalinī can open it out. Otherwise, in the conditions when the people are working very hard, the ego is actually on the left hand side, though...

Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa told in `Gītā' that there should be union (Yoga) first then comes the well-being (Kshema). Till the time you don't get the Yog or union, God has no concern with you. People blame God that they do Pūjā every day and do many things to please God but can't find God.

So to meet God one should have Yog.

Contents: 1979-03-11*, Public Program (Hindi), Day 2 (morning), Gandhi Bhavan, University, New Delhi, India

Work starts at 4 o'clock in the morning and it takes time till finish all. Yesterday I told you that [today] I will tell you about Kuṇḍalinī. Can everybody is able to see this chart? Those who cannot see come and sit on this side. Come here and sit here nicely. Those who cannot see come to this side.

[In Marathi:] Wind is very strong, right.

[In Hindi:] Yesterday I told you that the constitution with which human beings are made up of, that constitution has done very special work in us and due to this only we are created. The things which I am going to tell you now are not discussed (described) in current modern sciences. As I told you current modern sciences only knows those things which are comprehensible or can be actually visualised and this vision of human beings is not yet having light of spirit. Still human beings are not enlightened (matured).

Things which now I am going to tell you can be known only after enlightenment (maturity). Whether these things are really existing or not existing within us, that you yourself can see. First thing is that human beings gets situated (settled). Firstly his existence is formed. Whole universe also initially get its condition. If it does not get its condition then cannot happen.

So when this condition is created is due to power of God in us, the power which we call as energy (Shakti) of Sadāśhiva or energy (Shakti) of Shiva. Due to this energy our existence is created. Ṛiṣhi munis named this energy (Shakti) as `Mahākālī'. This energy comes in us through our right side and settles on our left side. As it has been shown here... [In Marathi:] you show... show Iḍā Nāḍī... from top to bottom.

So all these things are very minute.

These are subtle things. These cannot be seen from outside. But due to this channel only left sympathetic nervous system is being manifested in us.

So like this as condition is there, the way in which our existence is also there. If there is no existence we reach to death. It means that when this power is not there within us, we get destroyed. Therefore many people's know this as `power of destruction'. When sun sets, all over gets darkened. In the same manner... as existence of one power or not existence both are symbolizes same power. This power has to symbolize both existence and set.

Another power which is moving in us due to which we create, due to which we thinks, which retain body, due to which we keep this body moving. This energy is called by energy of `Brahmadeva' and this energy of Brahmadeva is called as `Mahāsaraswatī'. I am talking in English because we get confused in Hindi language in left and right. This energy passes through our left side and settles in our right side. The channel carrying this energy, which is very minute very very minute is called as Piñgalā Nāḍī [channel].

The channel which is first is also called as `moon channel' and this [second] channel is also called as `sun channel'. Due to this channel within us right sympathetic nervous system... this is subtle channel but the material channel i.e. right sympathetic nervous system which can be seen with eye which is active channel is manifested. This channel is responsible for physical and mental work is performed, due to which we think.

First channel which is called by `Moon channel' or `Iḍā channel' activates subconscious in us. As you are now listening to My discussion; at this moment at present you listen to My talk and immediately you throw it in subconscious mind. You are listening this in conscious mind and from conscious mind you move this in subconscious mind. And due to this mind; conditionings (saṁskār) get developed within you; may be those are good conditionings (susaṁskār) or bad conditionings (kusaṁskār) which is called by conditionings in English.

Due to this channel our past is created, `Bhava' is formed. Means whatever has happened in past which is called as `Bhūtkal' [past tense], whatever is over is stored in us and very minute recording or collection of this [past] is kept in Kuṇḍalinī. Kuṇḍalinī Shakti is also residual Mahākālī Shakti. Shakti of Sadāśhiva is always static as in one seed there are these two energies enlightened and at the end absorbed in it only and that's why it is called as Sadāśhiva. Because this energy is always static and other energies gets awakened from this and gets absorbed in this only.

Other than this there is one more energy in between in us; the channel carrying this energy is called as Suṣhumnā channel.

Some say it as Suṣhumnā, some say as Suṣhumnā. It's having different pronunciations but Suṣhumnā is proper pronunciation which can be sing in Mantras also.

So this Suṣhumnā channel is carrying our activity of ascent, evolutionary processes. Due to this channel we became from amoeba to human beings. Through all these three channels whatever is achieved, whatever is worked out, whatever a being obtains, whatever is happened that is stored on our central nervous system which enters in us through rear side of brain going to downwards. Today whatever is having human beings consciousness, like now at this moment whatever you have obtained that's is settled completely in your conscious mind.

So likewise I have told you four systems. The central system which we call as `Shakti' of Śhrī Viṣhṇu.

By Śhrī Viṣhṇu's power firstly Dharma gets retained in us. Through retention of Dharma only we ascent gets developed. Like if you see periodic table in chemistry you can understand how properly neatly God Almighty have arranged all elements there in it and how he has given different types of energy or special Dharma have been allotted to them. They have 8 valency and this you can ask any specialist of chemistry or medical science and from these 8 valency some of them have either fulfilment with 8 or with 4 valency in case; if they are complete and due to lack or excess of one or two or three [electrons] transactions takes place in between them. This has been created very delicately. This retention also, this retention of Dharma also takes place due to `Śhrī Viṣhṇu Tattwa'. As gold is having quality that it never gets spoiled, it never becomes black, untarnishable. This retention of Dharma is due to Śhrī Viṣhṇu principle. When this Viṣhṇu principle is spoiled then our ascent is stopped. This Viṣhṇu principle mostly we have to [UNCLEAR use/follow/practice] in Sahaja Yoga and this mostly we have to consider.

Before I told you that Kuṇḍalinī is residual conscious of Mahākālī power. It is having collection of whatever we have done till this time, what mistakes we had done or what religious acts we had done, what we had gained, what kind of conditionings we are having good or bad, all our diseases, problems all not just of this life but of many lives are stored in this and this is your Mother who have stored all your conditionings (saṁskār) in her and is moving with you every time. That's why this is called as Sahaja Yoga as it is settled on your triangular bone in 3½ coils. Why it is having 3½ coils is topic of great discussion... if I start to talk on this then time will not be sufficient...

You can see with your eyes whether this Kuṇḍalinī is there within us or not. When Kuṇḍalinī is being raised you can see that how it is vibrating on this triangular bone. When there is clutch in Nābhī Chakra then specially these vibrations can be seen so strong that any small child also can see this. This does not require any proof. For this we have prepared film also which we will show on BBC TV. Kuṇḍalinī resides here only at this place. You can read some of the books have been written down about Kuṇḍalinī.

Irwin Sāhab has also written such a big book about Kuṇḍalinī. Till now he also don't know that where is Kuṇḍalinī residing exactly. Then why they are writing about this? Who has given them rights to write such a big book? If he is British that does not mean whatever they feels can write. By reading books and without experience by observing he had written may be Kuṇḍalinī is in stomach... or may be little bit below this or may above sit.

All things made by God are never little bit here and little bit there [not flexible]. Truth is unique.

All this confusion is there only in human brain that whether it is here or there. Things which have been created by God are just at that place only and not at any other place. You can see this with your eyes.

This Kuṇḍalinī residing at triangular bone is moving with you for many lives. Even after death she is wondering above your head and when you again take birth then enters in you and resides inside. Death and birth are work of very great compilation. If we start to talk on this topic then will take a big lecture.

But we don't have any connection with death at this moment. Now we are just related with present and we will discuss only about it. As left side channel `Iḍā Nāḍī' is related with our subconscious about past in the same manner channel from right side which is called as Piñgalā Nāḍī is related with our future and the channel which is in our middle is related with present, now, at this moment. See this there is gap between these due to which human beings cannot stay in present; either he goes ahead or stays behind but cannot stay in present. Cannot stay in present.

Now see what happens due to awakening of Kuṇḍalinī. When you hold your hands like this in front of Me, then energy or vibrations flowing through Me enters through your hands through fingers and these fingers see these fingers. They have not shown this in chart but another chart have shown this. These are also having center. On right and left on right hand and left hand are also having these center and all these fingers its edges at that place are center (Chakras). And when these Chakras or center are awakened then you can feel on them that your which Chakras are caught up. Due to this you can understand Chakra from both left sympathetic and right sympathetic and when you know Chakras then due to Chakra you can cure any diseases due to Chakra. Like yesterday one girl came. She was having multiple sclerosis which is incurable, nobody can cure this. Then why it was cured by Sahaja Yoga? Because in this first diagnosis is that which Chakra is being caught up. Mūlādhāra Chakra is caught up. Heart Chakra is caught up. If you awaken Śhrī Gaṇeśha on Mūlādhāra Chakra and in heart Śhrī Shiva is being pleased then immediately that person will be cured because his Chakra which are subtlest, which are basic are cured then that person will be cured. Diagnosis also will be done by human being. That person who get realised he himself will diagnose, will give treatment, give medicine and can give Self-realisation to others.

The first Chakra is below Kuṇḍalinī. God almighty has kept this here with proper wisdom.

So this Chakra is adorned due to Śhrī Gaṇeśha. It is called by Mūlādhāra Chakra and above this is Mūlādhāra.

Triangular bone is called as Mūlādhāra.

Some peoples call it by Murgund. Many names have been given.

But Śhrī Gaṇeśha resides on Mūlādhāra Chakra and it's very necessary to understand this Mūlādhāra Chakra. Our sex is controlled by this Chakra and Śhrī Gaṇeśha has been kept above this. Śhrī Gaṇeśha is an innocent child. That's why he has been positioned there because he is so much pure that no dirt can touch him. That's why is being seated there. Because small child is having so much innocence that all such things are all above him, that's why Śhrī Gaṇeśha is seating there. By residing there Śhrī Gaṇeśha [protects], Kuṇḍalinī which is Gaurī swarūpa [form of Gaurī], means She is married but still did not meet to husband, still virgin, in virginity only She has created Gaṇeśha and kept him here. See such a beautiful organization is this and she is residing there waiting for husband, waiting for meeting with Shiva. For the protection of her chastity, for her protocol Śhrī Gaṇeśha is residing there. Now on this I will tell you what Māntrika's [Tantrik's] have done mistake. Because I am Mother I will not say that they do this deliberately.

But this can be greatest sin, this can happen by mistake only.

Initially when they started doing Manan -'meditation' because was not having so much pure mind due to which it might have happened that's why may be they feel Śhrī Gaṇeśha's trunk as Kuṇḍalinī and due to this they considered Kuṇḍalinī at that place where we sustain Chakra. Where there is Śhrī Gaṇeśha, there is no Kuṇḍalinī and that's why they developed such theory that by doing sex Kuṇḍalinī comes up. May be initially this mistake has happened. Might have happened but being Mother I cannot blame them. They are also My children. But human being have never done any mistake more than this. See Kuṇḍalinī is your Mother and this is so strong to blame on her. But by this mistake all Tantric society was created.

In sixth century there were riots in our country and all kings, emperors who were filled with dirty lifestyle were giving more support to such activities. They ruined it to such low level that our all architecture, scripture as much as even in our all sciences they featured it. They started saying that Shiva and Shakti were homosexual and they also started saying that `Aśhva-medha Yagñya' is also unisexual. The person whose eye becomes blind in Shravan [August - month with greenery all around] he see everything as green.

Such a highest virgin great principle they brought very low level and ruined it. Tantric are actually we, we knows its technique (Tantra) and we know how to operate this technique. This is your technique by which Kuṇḍalinī comes up. But these bad peoples named themselves by Tantric. It is like as if one thief has come and is calling himself as a king and due to this confusion human beings cannot understand that while discussing about Kuṇḍalinī why Mātājī is saying about purity. Actually this Kuṇḍalinī which is purest thing and peoples get astonished when we relate it to purity. Such a darkness is here. Then when such peoples who do not value character in their life, who are not pure, those who are spending their life by wrong ways, those who have completely prepared themselves for their destruction so if such peoples when try to raise Kuṇḍalinī then it's must that heat will be created inside them. They will start jumping and will do many funny things. Those who have faced such experiences is natural because Śhrī Gaṇeśha is survivor of mistakes, he cuts all sympathetic nervous system.

We have such peoples when their Kuṇḍalinī was raised then bristles came out from here to here all over their body. This is not due to raising of Kuṇḍalinī but its reflection of sympathetic due to... see here its flowing through two sides. You can see that you cannot raise Kuṇḍalinī through Gaṇeśhajī. He is residing at rear side but I feel that when peoples come from foreign countries to our country they come from bathroom or from drainage and they write explanation of that [drainage] as explanation of our country.

They are donkeys only. If they want to come then they can come from main gate and then understand what is culture (civilization) of our country! Such a learned man like Jung, I admire him a lot; he was also donkey because he came from same way and he spread all Tantric and its importance. No Indian is remaining with us to tell them the real truth. Because Indians do not study and also do not try to understand these things that what is the science of Kuṇḍalinī actually. When your Kuṇḍalinī is awakened, you will be surprised to know that you just become like innocent child because Śhrī Gaṇeśha is awakened initially. At the beginning Śhrī Gaṇeśha receives vibrations which are flowing through hands. Your hands are towards Me. Vibrations enters through your hands and informs Śhrī Gaṇeśha that now Mother has come and you become like small child. Because he breaks the way in between.

Then after that Kuṇḍalinī rises. Kuṇḍalinī never rises till Śhrī Gaṇeśha do not sanction. If you are very impure person then Kuṇḍalinī cannot rise or if anybody has damaged your Mūlādhāra then also cannot rise. Now a day's mostly Gurus do this dirty work. These peoples break your Kuṇḍalinī. Peoples become unhappy with Me if I say something against their Guru's “Mātājī, don't say this." Then what? Shall I adorn them with garlands? Or shall I do Ār.ti to them who breaks your Kuṇḍalinī, who destroys your chance to have second birth and dispel you from your own right to get this. These peoples are just interested in money. They eat your money; I don't have problem. They crook you; I don't mind. Whatever they want to do, they may become thief, they make your women dirty. If your women are so stupid; let them become dirty. I don't mind. But when they troubles Kuṇḍalinī and makes your Kuṇḍalinī dirty then they should be called by `Rākshasa' [demons] and they are demons only. I know such demons who were killed by Goddess many times and they have born again and again and again they are born in this Kali Yuga and six Rākshasin –'female demons' also have taken birth and peoples worship them. Such senseless peoples are. They don't have any limits.

This Kuṇḍalinī is your Mother. She is waiting that a day will come and her child will get his second birth. She only gives you second birth. Due to her you are known as twice born. If you are superficial person, if you don't have any depth in you, if you don't feel that Kuṇḍalinī to raise on her own, even if you have done some mistakes still she is telling that he has done this mistake. From your Chakra it can be known that you have done this mistake, you have done that mistake and in this way we can know completely about Kuṇḍalinī. But if you have carefully kept your Kuṇḍalinī properly like as Kabīra has said "das Kabīr jatan se odhi, jaisi ki taisi rakhdini chadariya." At that time Kuṇḍalinī of such peoples get easily awakened. Now after this next Chakra above this is called as Swādhiṣhṭhāna. This Chakra comes from our Nābhī and is moving around this [Nābhī]. Due to Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra our attention is activated.

Wherever we put our attention there Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra starts working. That's why when we think too much at that time Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra converts, transforms fat from stomach so that it can be used in our brain. Brain is also having fat globules in it. These fat globules which we use are transformed in stomach by Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra and transfers them to brain.

This is the Chakra which keeps control on our liver, pancreas, kidney and some part of uterus. This is the center of creation. Whatever we think about future, we feel like to create, whatever we do planning for future then this Chakra starts working and it enlightens our attention. It enlightens our attention. The person who has bad liver, his attention is always sad. He will not like anything, it's not his fault because his liver is not good. That's why it is called as liver as it is related with your life. In the same manner person who thinks too much and do too much planning his liver also becomes worse because either it is doing work of thinking and supplies continuously to brain which or will look after all these organs? From these organs when Pancreas becomes bad then you get diabetes developed. Diabetes can be cured a hundred percent. In this manner due to excessive thinking right side of a person is doing excessive work and left side becomes orphan aged or becomes sad gets neglected. Due to this when person thinks too much, does too much work, does too much physical efforts then he gets heart attack. When he gets heart attack then he should understand that “Now I have done too much." He becomes imbalanced. He should understand immediately that now he should pay attention towards emotions and try to bring balance. In Sahaja Yoga after Self-realisation there is very simple process to bring balance, raise left side and put it on right side.

Just now many people came here who were not able to get realised, their only left side was raised and put it on right side only three times then immediately their Kuṇḍalinī came out.

As you can see here that when you think too much or when you are very busy in work then your ego gets developed, as shown above. Which actually goes through your head up to here revolving like a balloon and when you develops conditionings in yourself means when you try to press this ego then superego is awakened in you which is called as superego. In this manner two different types of balloons are developed in you. When one balloon is more developed than another balloon then it tries to control another balloon and it exerts pressure on another balloon. Nowadays ego is more developing in Indians because we are developing so we do much planning. We are very active that's why due to thinking our ego is increasing.

Nowadays in Western peoples superego is increasing because initially there ego was so much grown up that it completely controlled superego.

So they were disturbed and through ego they started thinking there should be some control over this and they started taking drugs etc. Due to intake of drugs superego was increased. As superego gave push to ego then ego came here and superego was expanded. Now wobbling is going on in between these two. They are pushing each other from here to there and nothing is at proper place. All the time wobbling is going on in between two in their mind. They are having very different worries. As you know that those who are very wealthiest countries as like Sweden are having more number of suicides because in their mind this quarrel of ego and superego is going on. Living is not in their tract [they are not having capacity to stay live]. In one minute you can see in America hundreds of peoples; somebody's nose is moving, somebody's head is moving, somebody's eyes are flickering, somebody's mouth is twisting. They cannot sit in peace for one minute. If you see young peoples can see big wrinkles over here due to worries.

The reason for this is quarrel between ego and superego which is continuously going on within them and so much fallacy and confusion is going on in their mind that they don't understand `What is it?' and by taking benefit of this demonic powers or negativities enters in their brain and that's why they follow such things so that they can run away from this and can run away from all problems in this world. This Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra is very important. Because those peoples who do excessive work either goes to extreme, we call this as supraconscious area which is on right hand side; so when it's transgressed then we enters into collective supraconscious. In this manner when they are transgressed on left side then he enters from subconscious into collective subconscious. Upper part of human beings is of collective consciousness.

The person who thinks too much about dead persons, about death specially in Buddha Dharma [religion] this has entered. It's surprising I don't understand that why Buddhist have given so much importance to death.

Actually according to Me Buddha never conformed it and Buddha said that don't worship any dead things. Buddhist peoples are just opposite to this. If you go to Ladakh then, many Buddhist do necromancy, Tantrism. With Mahāvīra followers is also same thing. But these peoples go to more extremes than Mahāvīra followers. But at least Mahāvīra's followers due to his going backward whatever may be like but they will prepare temple, will prepare caves, will do drawings, if not anything else then will work for cloth shop, sell clothes these kinds of work. And Buddha followers but Buddha who never talk about death. Surely Mahāvīra has said about death and hail but Buddha never talked about death. All are just going on discussing about death. In Ladakh there is science formed about which person is to be seated by which way? How person is to be kept in funeral? How he his hand is to kept? How to have management for him? In which Buddha's book this has been written I don't know. But he can never write this thing.

All this necromancy, Tantrism all forces them towards left side and with this you have the equations about whom you must have heard `Dākinī, Shākinī, Hākinī' etc. etc. in this way have seven resonance. With its resonance a person is just pushed forward in collective subconscious and in collective subconscious all those persons who are dead are there who are afraid of their life, who run away from life, sly being those who are very wicked in nature are also there, very nefarious peoples can also be there. But they don't have courage to do this work openly. They do this dirty work very secretly. Those people who are not satisfied in this way are also wondering there only.

Our place is beyond this. When we are dead then we stay in collective conscious and we are waiting for the day when we will get rebirth. We don't believe that you wonder here and there with unsatisfied emotions. These wondering beings are very bad in [their] left side and when they enter in our body through our Āgñyā Chakra then a person can get infected with diseases or becomes mad or many other different diseases. These all diseases are of Iḍā channel and those diseases which psychologist treat are due to our left subconscious.

So our Fraud Sir was only Intelligent according to Me he was just having one eye and don't have another eye. He just saw one side but he did not saw another side. He used to say that `it's all conditionings and nothing else and it has already started with sex.' He brought all things to the sex...

if he would have read at least little bit of Indian Psychology then he would have become little intelligent.

But his vision was so much one sided, he just used to see only one side and he himself was very disgusting.

He was having bad relationship with his own Mother. He brought all creatures and deceived them in dirt.

And this must happen because if psychologist all time stays with mad peoples then he himself will become mad. All that dirt comes in him which he see in mad peoples. This may be psychologist don't know and the one who has come with Me here. He is very very good psychologist there, he himself told this. Because if somebody has got TB then we understand that he has got TB, need to protect ourselves. But we don't understand any way to protect ourselves from these spirits, possessions. We meet them, we talk with them then it might happen that we also take something from them and due to this reason they cannot cure many people's diseases because they cannot see them. This is very subtle thing. It resides inside us and it is there surely there and this is settled in us.

Now if you go to right side then in right side you reach in supraconscious area then from there if you go beyond then you reach in collective supraconscious area. At this place those peoples who are very ambitious people stays there. They are very ambitious peoples those who always talk about future. But as Hitler is dead he must be there. Because he is still not satisfied. Many ambitious peoples are in this place.

When you go to supraconscious then one of these gentleman enters in you. When these spirits enters in you then you become mad. Extremity of anything... in this an ambitious spirit is filled in you. Spirit named `Rām' is filled in you then you starts working. They starts working on you. In ten years your condition will become as like broken car starts doing sounds. Now I went there they used to do trans. There who ever have followed it, listen carefully because when you go in trans then you go in supraconscious and after entering in this supraconscious then these spirits ride on you. Spirit named `Rām' will ride on you.

Whatever is your own is all lost. You take somebody else's load on yourself.

Try to understand if Hitler comes and sit above you then how will be your condition. It might happen that you become very successful person. Very successful person. All world can see this. But after ten years your condition will become such that you... That's why somebody have very bad spirit then can be seen within one year. Will tell you one example from here only. Last year when I came here he started saying that, “Mother, my condition is such that if from any place some fragrance comes my breathing starts becoming faster. My condition is that I cannot go through any temple or Masjid. If anybody says name of God then my breathing becomes faster. What is this?" I removed his possession and now he is better.

So this also can happen and that's why you need to understand that both things are wrong.

We have to do in center, Middle way. This has also been told by Buddha. Same thing has been told by all, that we have to be in center. In Chakra from Nābhī Kuṇḍalinī which is... about which I told you yesterday that Nābhī Chakra of our country is spoiled. One thing is that we god... first thing is that why you want God? Why God should give you peace? Why should give you health? Why should give you joy? You don't have even seeking of him. You don't even desire to know him. You are wondering here and there.

All kinds of teasing going on. I am asking on behalf of God to you that “Which God have you seen ever?" He has created all this nature for you and you are just overpowering it. You are quarrelling in between.

Even two brothers cannot stay in peace then why should God look after you? Whatever problems have occurred in this world are all human problems. This is because human being itself has adopted demonic power in him and forgetting all about God he is walking on wrong path. Then why should God almighty look after you? What is that for him, today he has created you tomorrow he will destroy and will again create another world. He have no concern with you. It's Me only that I am Mother and feel that no children's should be saved and this will happen. What do you think, that you will be sitting relaxed? That thing is going to happen. It all right that now time has been given, now you get realised then it's all right. Else Kalki incarnation is going to come and when it will come he will not see anybody, he will not give realisation to anybody, will not give lectures to anybody. As now I have requested you, he will not request you that, “Baba, come, come, come..." With one sword he will just cut your neck and will finish.

And will do so much destruction that you will not understand that where you are.

That's why must understand that now last time has been given to us and last chance also and we should achieve it. Don't spoil your life by walking on wrong path by hankering after wrong things because your life is very precious. Through so much difficulties you have been created. See all Chakras has been created by God almighty within you. Firstly beautiful center like Mūlādhāra on which Śhrī Gaṇeśha is residing. Then Kuṇḍalinī, through which you will be reborn. Second one is Swādhiṣhṭhāna due to which you can control whole nature. See when I was coming here these peoples told Me that in Delhi it's raining a lot. I said Don't worry since I have arrived. The day when we arrived rain has stopped. Suddenly rain stopped. It's not difficult work. I will say that even sun and all that to make it proper is not difficult job.

But human beings are very difficult. Most difficult thing is human being. Sun, moon, stars all are under gesticulation of God. It's no difficult task. But human being who are free; in front of them even God is also bowing low. How, by which way he should persuade you that see how beautiful thing he has created within you? Through this beautiful thing achieve God. Get joy through this. But human are not relieved for even two minutes that he will sit and settle in God, achieve it, clear in it and give it to others. But they don't have time though actually they always have watch. For which purpose God has given you time? For what God has opened all secrets of nature which you call as science? From where did you get all these powers? For what purpose you will save time? Everybody will save time. We want to save time. We want to save time. For what you will save time? They will say that we want to go to pub. What we will do by saving time? And will say we want to go to ball room for dancing. You need to save time so that you can do meditation, settle in meditation and achieve yourself. That's why God has given you all these powers.

And above this you can see is Nābhī Chakra about which I told you yesterday that how much important is this Nābhī Chakra. That's why will not tell you more. But human being get evolved through Nābhī only.

When he achieve God then only he becomes right. Then only his vision becomes good. If his attention is always on money, status, politics on all lower level things then Kuṇḍalinī cannot cross this Chakra and this Chakra is very important Chakra within us and this needs to be well preserved and understood. `How our Nābhī Chakra can be kept properly? What can be done for this?' These things you can discuss with these peoples. They will tell you about this.

Chakra which is above this is very necessary center. It has been created specially in us. As by Nābhī center developed role of ascent, role of evolution in us then as you know Dasha Avatāran [10 incarnations of Śhrī Viṣhṇu] took place. Means one by one incarnations took place. As firstly fish incarnation took place. Means initially fish came out. After fish when fish touched to earth then became reptile. Then incarnation of tortoise took place. All these things are in science and also in our. In this way one by one creature were developed. Incarnation means life comes and shows to you. But this live achieves to partly form (ansha swarūp) of God and tell to you, guide to you and his place is within you.

So from this whatever incarnations took place mostly took place in Void and helped you from there and at that time many people tried to achieve God but whenever they tried demonic or Satanic people attacked them.

At that time as you know Goddess `Shakti of God' itself incarnated. Like this has been told about 1,000 incarnations but she took many incarnations. And she protected all those peoples who were doing yagñya etc. with the purpose of crossing void and protected them. Yagñya were performed with the intention to enlighten all five elements in nature. That's why yagñya were performed. Now there is no need to enlighten these elements. All of them are already enlightened in you therefore you get electricity and you can use this energy. Due to enlightenment of all these elements you can do agriculture and have all these new advancements because all these elements were enlightened. That's why now there is need to go beyond all your Dharma's. To achieve last stage of our evolution means to get introduced with your own spirit. This is your job. All other jobs are finished. Only this last job. Now as I told you Goddess [incarnated] for your protection and she has 1,000 names and about them it's very difficult to express in words. You know all things that how are Divine Powers? How it is dynamic and how it is subtle. It's not easy to express about this. Means it's so active, so loving, so subtle that if one of finger of that is moved and then all world will be moved. It is having so much power. This Goddess has incarnated many times and destroyed demons so that you can follow your Dharma.

Now in this right side which is Heart Chakra is having place of Jagadambā who is your Mother. When you forget that Jagadambā is your Mother then sense of insecurity gets developed in you and when this happens then you get disease of breathing. Disease of breathing which is called as asthma.

So asthma and in case of women they get Brest cancer. This is also caused due to sense of insecurity. This sense of insecurity is developed because this abode of Śhrī Jagadambā remains destitute and it is cured with awakening of this abode of Jagadambā. All such diseases like lungs cancer etc. are cured due to awakening of this center. But till human being don't know that we have abode of Śhrī Jagadambā in us. To know all means to enlighten. I don't mean that to know means knowledge. There is a lot of difference in between knowledge and enlightenment. When one gets enlightened that Jagadambā resides in us then only he gets his ascent. The Chakra which has been shown on its right side is Chakra of Śhrī Rāma. Here have incarnation of Śhrī Rāma. This is abode of Father. On left side this there is abode of Jagadambā. In the central have abode of Jagadambā and on left side have abode Śhrī Pārvatī who is our Mother. This is abode of Mother. If you are having catch in your left Heart Chakra then if you are asked about your mother then will get to know that either your mother is sick or she has been dead. If you have catch on left means you have heart disease.

After this the next [UNCLEAR Chakra/center] which is above is very important Chakra, is called as Viśhuddhi Chakra and through this 16,000 Nāḍīs or channels are spread throughout the body. This is the abode of Virāta. Which is called by primordial master which is all this is primordial being and in which you all are these small small cells which is called as microscopic in English.

So in this Great God almighty you are these small small cells. When these cells are awakened then this Great body is also awakened.

God almighty is awakened who has created you as human being and now you know him and achieve him.

This is your enlightenment. He creates you and that's why this center is important through Sahaja Yoga point of view. Because in Viśhuddhi Chakra is having abode of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. We cannot understand Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa now. Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa was very Great Diplomat. If you want to learn from him learn politics and that's why you cannot understand all Gītā. Because he was such a Great Diplomat that he thought that these are foolish and these foolish peoples cannot understand straight way if you tell them (cannot take out ghee with straight finger so it's better to bend it). That's why he told you all things in puzzled ways.

This I will tell you after some days as there are many things to be told now. As it has been told in Gītā that achieve this, seek for this, you get to know yourself.

For that something should happen within you, something should happen. I had said that in the morning to you.

Second thing which is very important is that if the realisation of Divine and Spirit is experienced only by couple of selected people and common people remain untouched by it, then it has no meaning. In that case there is no meaning of Divine or this world. This creation has no meaning either. This realisation should be experienced by common masses. If it is not experienced by common people and is limited to selected few, then same situation will happen as everyone faced before. Those who were like this were accepted by no one. Tell me, how does it matter even if they are accepted?.....

..... But some people are also strange, such as one lady has come and said I believe (worship) in Renuka Devī. Now, particularly, we should not believe in (worship) Renuka Devī's incarnation. And people believe in these kind of insane things.

Some people simply believe in who we believe as incarnations.....

Our respected leader Śhrī Gulzari Lai Nanda, author of the book The Advent Mister Gregoire, members of the Sahaj Yoga Society of Delhi and Bombay [Mumbai] and you all the seekers of Divine.

I am so very thankful to all of you for giving Me this opportunity to stand before you and say a few words about Divinity and about God's compassion and love for all the humanity that He has created.

We are not aware or we do not know that we have become human beings through His grace and through His own doings not by our own efforts from amoeba stage to this stage of human awareness. We never think why God has made us human beings? What is the purpose of our being itself? As I said today.

Gandhiji always wanted we to be Swatantra –'independent'. That time the meaning of was political freedom but today the meaning has changed, like a flower ultimately becomes the fruit. Swatantra means: Swa is your Self, the being and Tantra means its mechanism. We have to become the mechanism of our being. We are the instrument of our being. This is what today Sahaj Yoga is manifesting. Sahaj, as you know very well, is `Sah' means with, `ja' means born with you Yoga is the right to be united with Divinity, with God almighty. That is your right as a human being because God has given you that special right that you have to be united with Divine, with God Almighty. This is Sahaj Yoga, but this has been working not today, has been working since long. But it's a living process. If you understand a living process, the seed sprouts, becomes the shoot and the root, the shoot develops into a proper tree and then the flowers appear at the blossom time. Many fruits are manifested out of those flowers. In the same way the living pro cess of life started long long-time back and today we are at a point when blossom time has come and many have to receive Self-realisation. The time has come. Kṛiṣhṇa has said Yoga Kshema vahāmy'aham first I give you Yoga and then Kshema. All of them had said the same thing. The only difference is: the different stages of human evolution took place when all these incarnations came on this earth.

Incarnations have to come. If you reason it out you will understand why an incarnation is needed to come on this earth e g. if you are to be guided there are few ways by which unconscious can guide you. It can guide you through symbols which appear in your dreams about which Yoga and Freud have written a lot. There are so many other ways by certain happenings the unconscious, the Divine can guide you; but it is all vague, extremely vague. The unconscious must have a mouth to explain itself. It must have proper body to be able to communicate what it has to say, otherwise how are you going to have a rapport with unconscious.

If you take the position, that everybody has got a Guru within. Yes, it is so. Everyone has a Guru within, no doubt but still the Guru is asleep, means that Guru is not in your conscious mind. You can not consciously talk to that Guru. If you think that you are talking to your Guru or God before realisation, I think you are under some illusion.

You cannot have any rapport with the Divine unless and until you are realised, unless and until you know you are [the] Ātman, your Ātmā. Before that whatever you may try may create a depth in you, a serenity in you, a character in you but still you cannot have a direct rapport. You are to be connected.

Now somebody has to do this job. That is why many incarnations came on this earth.

But somehow human beings do not like them. They have never liked them. The reason is man does not like himself. He cannot believe that in his life time an incarnation can come. If he knew how great he is what a great wondrous thing God has created in him, if he knew what a great mechanism is built within himself, he would not have resisted against incarnations. At the time of Rāma He decided, it was decided, that he should not also remember that He is an incarnation of Śhrī Viṣhṇu because even that memory may spoil the game. But you know Paraśhurāma recognized Him. There was a trick in that. Paraśhurāma is also an incarnation of Śhrī Viṣhṇu and Śhrī Rām is also an incarnation of Śhrī Viṣhṇu. Why these two incarnations came together? Because when Paraśhurāma came, He was a strong man very strong, fiery, extremely fiery and in those days people only cared for very strong people. He had captured the hearts of people through His fierce nature. In human beings there are of different levels at different times. Then when Rāma came and when Paraśhurāma recognized him then people had to recognize Rāma. At the time of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa when He came on this earth, today we worship him in the temple, we talk about him but when he was here you know he lived with ordinary milkmaids and cowboys in a village, as a very ordinary person and the people did not recognize him much. They played with him and in his play He displayed Sahaj Yoga. When Śhrī Rāma went to all these places in search of Sītājī, He wanted to vibrate this motherland of yours. That is why He went without wearing any shoes or without anything between him and the Mother Earth. When Kṛiṣhṇa played his game of Rasa: Ra means energy, Sa means with energy, it was another kind of play for Sahaj Yoga because at that time there were no such halls, there were not intellectuals, there were not people who were over-read, there were not people who were willing to come to a hall and sit down and listen to Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa.

So he caught hold of people who were playful, played with them. When Rādhājī went to the river Yamuna and put Her feet in the river, the vibrated water from Yamuna was carried on Her head. He used to break the pitcher with a stone to allow that water to fall and vibrate and when the milkmaids carried that water on their heads he used to break it at the back so that whole water would fall on the Kuṇḍalinī and Kuṇḍalinī would rise. As a child when he played, Goptal Kala, when He tried to steal bread, butter which was kept in Chaja at top. It was a pyramid he created. On top of the pyramid he would stand and the flow of Kuṇḍalinī, with his feet, you see, he would press it on their heads. Now it was not possible in those days for any' one to stand like that to put the Kuṇḍalinī in such a way that the flow comes to the Kuṇḍalinī and the Kuṇḍalinī rises. Even when his mother punished them for stealing butter and put them together, tied a piece of cloth from one naval to another and he started moving the energy of Kuṇḍalinī through that. There was a gentleman who got his realisation in America and I think he was one of the Gopis with Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa and he described this experience when he had never heard of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. This was the Rasa, this was Rādhā, Ra is the one who sustain, Dha is the energy.

Afterwards, Jesus Christ came on this earth, He is nobody else but Mahāviṣhṇu, the one described in our books. I do not know how many read Devī Bhagavat. People have no time to read these outdated books. Mahāviṣhṇu was a special incarnation created and when this Mahāviṣhṇu came on this earth, it is all very beautifully described in Devī Bhagavat, what he is going to do what he is going to be, what is his relationship with Kṛiṣhṇa. Kṛiṣhṇa is the Father that is why he1is called as Christ and Mary, the mother, was nobody else but Rādhājī Herself. It is all written in the Devī Bhagavat. I am not telling you a new story. Only thing I am giving a mouth to unconscious to tell you that you can verify it yourself. His name was Jesus because you know that in U.P. [Uttar Pradesh] `Yaśhodā' is called as `Jasoda'. It is Jasoda's name Rādhājī wanted to give Him and that's why called Him Jesu or Yeshu. Now if Lam telling you lies or if I am telling you tall stories, how are you going to know? Are you going to believe Me whatever I say? Is it proper that you should blindly believe Me? That would not be alright. That is not going to help you at all. But how are you going to know whether it is absolute truth or not You cannot know, because you are not yet on that level or state where you have realised your Ātmā. Like this instrument that is created here it has to be put to the mains. You have to be put to your mains otherwise you do not know even your meaning. Once you are put to your mains, you can ask the question, you can ask all the absolute questions, everything, even a question like `Is there God or not?' Immediately you will get the vibrations flowing into you. About Me also you can ask questions. There are many ways of recognizing because in this life, you have to recognize. You have never recognized an incarnation so far. You have to recognize. That is compulsory and that is done through Sahaj Yoga because unless and until you are realised, how are going to recognize them also? But even if you have not recognized them, there was no need for you to crucify them or to torture. Then all the Gurus who came on this earth, the real ones, Fakes are never Gurus. They are not Gurus. The real ones that came on this earth, say, we can say Moses, Abraham, Nanak, Mohammed Sahib, Kabīr, all these are incarnations of Primordial Master whom we call as `Dattātreya'. If they are or not, if Mohammed Sahib and Guru Nanak are the same personality, same people who came in different times then what justice are we doing to them? How are we to find out? How are you to believe Me about it? I will give you an example. There was a Muslim gentleman from Iran who came to see Me, who was suffering from cancer. He asked Me: Mother, I want to get cured. I said “you a Muslim” he said “Yes, I only believe in Mohammed Sahib and nobody else!" I said this would be something like that I only believe in my nose and not in anything else. He was such a fanatic and fanaticism brings about the cancer of Nābhī Chakra as we call it, the stomach. You will be amazed fanaticism is Sin, Sinful. It gives you the cancer of stomach. I asked him “Will you worship Nanak Sahib?" He said, “No, why should I? I am a Muslim." I said, “Do you know Mohammed Sahib himself is angry with you and you have to worship Nanak." He would not but it happened for months and then he had to accept. Any extreme behaviour of this kind is prohibited in all the religions. When Nanak came or when even our Shirdi Sāi Nāth came, they talked about Sad-achār. Even the Goddess's name is Sad-achār Pravartikā. Sad-achār is the most important thing. The Dharma is the most important thing. One has to be in Dharma. If you are Adharmi how do you expect Me to give you realisation, you just tell Me. Today I went to see a tailor of Mine who was saying “Mother if lam bad you tell me but why should not I get realisation." I said, “True, why should not you?" Alright ask a question “Mother are you Nanak?" He asked Me the question. Normally the vibrations start but would not. He said, “what has happened to me?" I said, “See where is your Surati?" Nanak has described `Kuṇḍalinī' as `Surati'. His Kuṇḍalinī was pulsating at Nābhī. You could see with your naked eye. His friend or his proprietor was also seeing that. It was pulsating there. I said “you have a liver. Do you drink?" He said, “I drink quite a lot." Then I said “how do you expect Me to give you realisation in the name of Nanak who has prohibited all this?" When I say this people brand Me as anything.

Licensiveness and permissiveness is not the way of religion by any norms, by any measure. They are translated in Hindi, if you see them, the words are badchalini aur badmashi. In Indian languages there is nothing like licensiveness and permissiveness as a good word. It is a bad thing. Absolutely it is wrong. It is very fashionable these days to become sort of a disciple of a Guru! It is a fashion these days Divinity is not a fashion. It is the way of life. It is the need of your being, You have to be that Guru, shopping is on; people are going and shopping for Gurus. How can you pay for God's work? Christ, the person, who forgive the people who crucified him with, the shopkeepers who were selling things in front of the church.

What about selling the church itself, selling the God himself? How can that be religion? You have to know that truth is not going to fall at your feet You have to fall at the feet of truth if you want to achieve it. But it has happened before many a times and you did not recognize You did not recognize You did not like them. You do not like people who tell you about the truth. People had always made fun of such people. You have not one but many in this country itself. We had people like Tukārām, Gyāneshwar.

Thousands would go after something that is falsehood and how many disciples did they have? The fakes are very clever. They know how to tamper your ego. I am your mother. I have to tell you the truth whether you like it or not. They just Pamper your ego. The first way is to say that you can purchase them. You can pay for it.

So you do it. You have paid for it and you go on with it because you have paid for it. After all we have paid we should somehow make good of whatever we have paid. Then the second thing they do is to pamper your ego by saying that you cm do something about, it They will make you stand on your head, they will make you jump, they will make you frogs, I do not what all kinds of things they do.

So you think, `we have sacrificed such a lot for God!' It is very difficult for a human being to feel and understand that you cannot do anything about it. Only thing, you keep in balance. Do not over-do things. Do not go to Ati, to extreme.

This is the simple thing human beings are to do. Human beings do not want to be simple. They want to be complicated. There was no need for people to go to such extremes as to spoil all the Chakras within yourself, why? After all you have become human being from amoeba without doing anything and if you have to become something more it is God's job. He is doing for His own sake. When you feel the need, when you are seeking, that is also God's job.

So the Kuṇḍalinī is placed within you. It is the residual power within you, God has placed it. It is there to give your rebirth. It is your Mother. It is the holiest of holy. We have forgotten the word holy nowadays because it is not fashionable for people to be holy. People are afraid to say that you have to be holy because it offends people. To be righteous is another thing very important. All the ten commandments described in the Bible describe all the ten Dharmas we have to have. Gandhiji, also, has described them. We never understand that Gandhiji's coming was a historical event for us, is the base of Sahaj Yoga, absolutely. If you read this book [The Advent] you will know, what follies so-called developed countries have committed and into what ditch they had fallen into? But we are so pseudo westernized that we do not like these ideas.

We do not want to hear anything against this. This is the sad part. 1am not against Western people or Eastern people but what I am trying to say is that if we commit one kind of sin, they commit another kind. We commit the sin that we do not believe that God almighty is our Father, that He has created us and that He is going to look after us in thick and thin.

He is the one who has said Yoga-kshemam, the one who has given us Yoga; first you get your Yoga, then your will be looked after. Yes it will be, but first get your Yoga, Kshema will be looked after, is promised.

It is time for you to find out if it is true or not but first get your Yoga. Then your Kshema will be looked after. Then you will give up all these corrupt ideas and the corrupt ways we are living in this country. It is absolutely ridiculous and absurd the way we are. We get rid of this as soon as we get our realisation, because our priorities change. We feel so secure within ourselves. As soon as we know ourselves, we feel so happy. We feel so relaxed that we give up all these corrupt ideas Because we are insecure, that is why we take to these corrupt methods. Because once you know the Swārth, the Arth –'purpose, meaning' of Swa, meaning of Self.

Swārth people think is selfishness, it is not swārth. The Sanskrit word means `the Meaning of self'. If you know the meaning of Self, you feel so secure, so happy with yourself because it is such a joy giving, it is such a powerful thing that you just do not want to compromise with all these useless worldly things. You do not think that they are of any importance. You just go through them without paying much importance.

Your whole being is transformed. But that has to happen. In the same way, in the west people commit sin again the Mother. They will not steal anything if they come to your house. No, they will not touch even if there is a diamond ring lying they will not touch, but they may runaway with your wife, may run away with your daughter. They have no objection and even the daughter may not have any objection. Whole society does not have any objection as if this is the only Dharma they have to look after. It is amazing For an Indian it is shocking when he see all these things.

So we have to understand that if we are committing this kind of foolish thing, also can be forgiven by God because He is the ocean of forgiveness. She is Guru Nanaki. She is Dayā Sāgar. He has to do it because he has to complete His creation.

So be assured about it that Sahaj Yoga is your fundamental right, is the one that God has bestowed upon you, is going to happen to all of you but why also argue about it. There are so many people who come, “Mother Kuṇḍalinī raising is very difficult. That you can only raise it up to Nābhī or something like that." We can live up to the ten Dwaras and all sorts of ideas.

But supposing this is done through this being just like that. There must be something with Me. I know the job. The one who does not know the job, supposing I do not know how to put this right I cannot.

Whatever I may try I may break this. I may break that, I may go here and there. I may break the plug.

But If I am a mechanic. I know' the job. I can do it That is the only difference but for that why should you be so much hurt. I mean you know so many things which I do not know. I do not know' how to cash a cheque. You will be amazed. Till this day I do not know how to cash a cheque.

Somebody has to guide Me how to write a cheque I am so hopeless in so many things. But if I know another thing why should you be so angry with Me for that? Why should it hurt you? And if I am going to give you, what you have been asking for, the physical, the mental, the emotional and the spiritual being is within you, all that is there All your sciences, all your enterprises, all your knowledge is analytical. You treat somebody for one eye, you need another doctor for the other eye, something like that. But this is something else. This is what I am talking about your under currents, which ultimately becomes one current. That is what you have to get. Once you get it, you yourself start manoeuvring it, it starts flowing through you. It is always being promised to you.

Kuṇḍalinī knowledge is very much known to us. Actually we are so much anglicized, thanks to lord Macaulay that a very few people who even know the word Kuṇḍalinī. If you read Kabīr, the whole thing, Kabīr is nothing but Sahaj Yoga. How many of you read Kabīr? For fashion sake even if they read they don't know what he is talking about. Nanak has talked about it. Gñyāneśhwara has talked about it. Christ has talked about it that I will appear before you like tongues of flames. What is the meaning? Christians do not know about it.

So it is being promised. Ādi Shañkarāchārya, of course, the greatest son of our country has described it so elaborately, but those who call themselves also Hindus, do they know the word Kuṇḍalinī? While throughout in the Mārkandeya Purāna, such a great sage, the one who has not read the Mārkandeya, I would not call him an Indian at all. One of the greatest sages of this country is Mārkandeya who has written a complete knowledge about the Devī to such a little extent, to such a small detail that you will be so surprised, how he could see all these things. Did he enter into the body of Devī to find out these small small minute things? But all this we have done in this country much more than any other country.

There will be Prakopa of Devī. There will be fury of Goddess. You do not know when it will be. If you have to go out, you have to take half an hour to get ready to go out otherwise you are finished. The nature is so misadjusted, it is so furious still that it is to be balanced, brought to proper levels, was done by our Rishis long time back. They harnessed the nature by doing `Yagñyas' It is because of their Yagñyas only, we have been to discover sciences. We have discovered sciences long time back. At the time of Rāma, we knew about Vimān [aircraft]. This was all done by our Rishis because they did not have to fight outside so much. We can live in a forest. Really we can live in a forest without difficulty. That is how we have been able to find out about inner being. This is `The Yoga Bhūmī' and you are the `Yogis'. You are the special ones to be born in this country. You have to do great Tapasya to have a great Sampada but we are not aware of it. In this country, in this great country of ours, Sahaj Yoga was to be born in this new way. When I was born, My father was himself a realised Soul in My family. He was a great man and he told Me that unless and until you find out a method by which the common people (sarvsamanaya) get this realisation, nobody is going to accept God because one or two flowers here and there do not convince people of God. You have to work it out. My mother also knew about it. Till her death. She was asking Me, “Have you been able to find out or not?" When I told her I have, she was very happy.

It is a mass experience today. It has to be. It is a mass experience, no doubt. In villages, it works much faster than in the cities, because city people are very complicated, very artificial They try to dodge the truth every time. They are over read. Kabīr has said: “Padhi padhi pandit murakh bhayi." Just imagine what a contrast! Pandits have become stupid by reading too much. What does that mean that we condition ourself with all kinds of knowledge whether it is knowledge or non-knowledge, whether Vidyā or Avidyā. Vidyā and Avidyā, we cannot discriminate between the two and we get all the things that are not congenial to this beautiful human personality of ours. We consume it. We go on consuming it, destroying ourselves all the time and anybody who comes up with an idea that you are destroying yourselves, we brand him, `Oh! He is the school master, or something more I do not know.' In England they have real definite words of describing such horrible people who tell you not to destroy yourself. This is modern style of crucification, I call it. Because now you cannot crucify Christ.

So you are going to crucify Him like this. Anything about self preservation is wrong. We must preach self destruction, Is this the way arc we going to achieve for which God has created us? But why, I cannot understand because if by getting Self-realisation, you get that bliss, that joy, that happiness and you also become collective conscious, what we call in Hindi, Samūhik Chetana, you become. It is an actualisation, you start feeling another person. It is not brainwashing, just telling you that he is my brother. Hindi chini bhai bhai. All that is not done. It just happens. You start working out that way. It is a part and parcel of your being. If it is so why not have it. Why not try and get it? I know it is a very big thing to say that you have to recognize an incarnation. I am avoiding for the last so many years of My age. Even Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa dare not do it. He said: “sarva-dharmān parityajya mām ekam sharanam vraja"“Give up all the Dharmas and follow Me." Christ said: “I am the light. I am the path", He was crucified.

It is tactless to say these things, people know and I am very tactful.

Normally I would not come into your askings. But one has to find out. One has to find out, One has to find out not Me but yourself. First find out yourself then you will know Me. As I said, I am your mother. I have to work it out. You have to be reborn. That is your right. Better have it. Better get it.

For Me you are just children. Whether you quarrel with Me, you fight with Me or you argue with Me or if you are humble to Me and surrender to Me, you are My children. The one who are sensible will get it faster, those who are not, will get it later, but all of you who are here must get it. Now for such a short time I cannot tell you all elaborately, what are the advantages of Sahaj Yoga but the e is nothing else but `Sahaj Yoga' which is advantageous because your physical being gets alright, you get rid of most of the doctors; your emotional beings receives balance; your mental being jumps into thoughtless awareness and your spiritual beings becomes that is Sat-chit-ānand. You become collectively conscious Your priorities change. All this happens to you It is a revolution inside out. It is the revolution within yourself, that all yourself gets integrated and you change yourself entirely automatically. Now somebody says that I cannot give up drinking. I say alright, come along. Have your realisation. After realisation be does not drink at all, just does not drink. He forgets. If he tries to take, he vomits. You become that. Do you know by becoming human being, you know so many things. You know the shape of this room, you know the colour combination, you know the beauty, you can feel the dirt and filth. You can smell it. An animal cannot.

In the same way, when you get realised, you can see the dirt and filth of morality. Nobody has to preach you. You just do not like it. You do not like such a person who talks of these things because you start getting burn ing on your hand. You do not like it, you feel heavy in your head. You do not like it.

You just get away from such a company. You do not like a word against God. You cannot enjoy anything that does not have the beauty of God. You just talk about it. Now, we have here many Sahaj Yogis. In Delhi itself we have lots of Sahaj Yogis. If you go and just listen to them, you will be amazed, they will be just talking about God

Nothing else but about God. They have no I other enjoyment. They do not believe in gossips, they do not believe in any criticism or anything. They are not bothered about what money they have got but they are just enjoying the Divine that is flowing. They will just give their experiences.

“I was sitting in meditation, breeze came on me and I felt so happy." They will only describe all the things how they have cured people. How the people have been cured by them. You do not say `I cured.' All this happens to you. You can imagine Gregoire has done 419 pages of Sahaj Yoga. He has written such a big book and they have done 85 tapes in London. Still they say, “Mother every time you always say something new." But you just get into it and start enjoying every wave that comes. Simple thing.

Why not have it? This is the `If you do not like Me being here what can I do.' This is how it has to be. But then somebody is going to come. As Gregoire has pointed out, is a fact and then it will be last sorting out.

There would not be any arguments. There would not be any realisation. Nothing, it is just sorting out.

So let us have it. It is the thing that has to work out within all of you and it has to happen to you and if does not happen, you should not be upset. It will happen to you, if not today, tomorrow. It has to happen. There is nothing to criticise if it does not happen today. Nothing to get angry. More over it is a very subtle happening. It happens en masse but again you have to settle down. We have no center as such We have not been able to get such a place so far because I have made one compulsion that we shall not pay any black money for any land and so we have not got an inch of land in this country. In London I have got a place where I can say this is My set. But still there is somebody's house we are using now. You can get the address. Please, after realisation also, do attend the programs. It is a very humble place. In a big hall people think, it is prestigious to go there and that is how people think that you should get your realisation in a prestigious place. But God always goes to the humble people.

So humble down yourself in your hearts and come to the centers and try to establish yourself. We have many Sahaj Yogis like that: they just come when I am here and then say, “Mother we lost all the vibrations." “Did you go to your Centers?" They would say, “No, mother we did not." Because they are too big, they have big cars and they are big people. Before God, nobody is big or great. We have to know that He is God almighty who is all powerful. He is the Highest. We have to be really humble about it if we want to kindle the light within us and also if we have to maintain that light kindled all the time.

May God bless you.

(month not sure)

[Patricia Proenza, once return from India, thought that she would be so lonely.]

Shri Mataji: So many times I have been by Myself. Just meditate and you are not alone.

Contents: 1979-04-00 Letter (Marathi), London, UK (before Apr 8)

My dear Sahaja Yogis, Received your loving and beautiful letters and messages of greetings. Here, I am busy in the work in London and could not write.

Once I told you that Sahaja Yoga is beginning from [Spring] Navarātri this year. That is, Satya Yuga, for which you were so far preparing, will now be seen. As a tree has to sprout first in the earth and then its sapling peeps out, in the same way, on the first day of [Spring] Navarātri i.e. on 8th April the sapling of Satya Yuga will be seen.

It is the day of great joy. Whole Nature will now have new life. You must understand that the importance of this day will be known only if the whole mankind is enlightened with vibrations of love.

In this world Brahma Shakti was awakened from the very day of My birth. You have received it to some extent and are using it in many ways.

I was telling you that light of that great power of love will spread all over the world. The first lamp will be lit on that day. But night of Diwali is blind. It cannot see the lamps. In this Kali Yuga, this work will be done only if many lamps are lit.

Whatever is God's work, it will be over. Hence all should be alert and awake and also awaken others.

My life is dedicated to you. Every moment it is working. All I want is that pure gold should enlighten human history while getting heated in the hell of Kali Yuga.

My blessings are: may this lamp be kindled in every home, may its joy spread in the society, may the cheers of its victory resound all countries and may this power of Brahman fill in every molecule of universe.

I have to be away from you for very long time. But your brothers are living here and also in other countries. You will meet each other in course of time. But I often feel that one day of such great joy of love should dawn in our life. Whatever you desire will happen. Therefore, your attention should be fully on Sahaja Yoga. I have offered My body, mind and wealth, everything.

You have to take care of only your Chitta because only that will be enlightened.

Always remembering you, Your separated Mother, Nirmalā

Are you all right? [GAP] You have to have any time also. It's a part of the whole cycle [UNCLEAR formation].

Sahaja Yogi: Sorry...

Shri Mataji:... I had to... [UNCLEAR].

[Aside:] It's all right.

This may be omitted completely.

People are expecting Sahaja Yoga, no doubt, when they talk, when they write, when they express themselves, you can see very clearly that they are expecting some sort of a break through, sort of they have reached a certain frantic condition in which they expect there has to be something. Otherwise how can they explain the creation? How can they explain God? How can they explain that there is some force which is looking after us? So everybody is expecting some sort of a breakthrough. Not only that, but there is also a search for others. You can see that very clearly, everywhere. But the trouble is, you see, one has to understand that it is God's job, not yours. That it is to be done by God, not by you.

That is very difficult to express, but when we accept our own life as a human being you should know that we became human beings by ourselves or by God? We could not become human beings ourselves, from amoeba-state, can we? Can any amoeba try to become even a turtle? It cannot.

So how did we become human beings? By some sort of a force or some sort of an energy or some sort of a guiding hand which brought forth this happening that we became human beings. And in the same way if you have to become superhuman beings or we have to become something else more than this, or our awareness has to achieve something more, it has to happen. Only thing, if we had not spoiled ourselves, our own being, which is perfectly all right, there is no need to do anything extraordinary. Because in this frantic search we might ruin ourselves, we might ruin our instruments which are within us, because there is an undercurrent within us which works out all these things. Like the seed has its own femur, in the same way there is something within you also playing; you should work it out. But when you try to do something about it, it gets spoiled.

This is a very simple thing but we cannot get out of the idea, because we [UNCLEAR seek in our wisdom...] by our effort. We think we do this, as Sahaja Yogi, but do we? See these flowers, how do they come up? What is there that you have done to create them? We do something dead. We do not do anything living, we cannot do anything living. Now just stupid this, what do you think have we done? Nothing at all! Everything that is dead we are converting into different forms. Say, the tree is dead so we make a furniture, we say, `Oh we are great, we have done this furniture.' It's from dead to dead. What living work have you done? Once we realise that we have done nothing living so the living God has to do this. He has to do it and he will do it through his own, he can seed, he can grow. He is not going to make you do it. This he has never asked you to do anything. Why should he now trouble you? He has created you in his own love, this beautiful universes just for you to enjoy. But this is all a brain wash as long as you do not have the sensitivity to enjoy. But the sensitivity is lost. Moreover the sensitivity is there at last has to be again manifested in a different way to really absorb the beauty and the joy that God has created. It's a very delicate instrument which lies within you.

They have told you that it is called as Kuṇḍalinī. Of course they have played havoc with it, you know that. They have really made a mess of what is called Kuṇḍalinī? They have ruined it, completely ruined and that's how they have ruined your inner being. It is shocking, really shocking. And in your frantic search you also believed these horrible people who are just out to ruin you. These people have no relationship with reality, they don't know who is Christ, they don't know who is Mohammed, they don't know who is Nanak. They don't know anything about the great Incarnations who came on this Earth.

They don't want to talk about it! There is no relationship, there is no historical background to what they are saying. After all if there is a tree and everything within comes in a circle. This has a history; it was a seed first, then it grew up to big tree and even a seed has its history that it was a seed and then a flower.

So when these people just start talking to you off hand without any relationship to the historical background or to their, you can say, to the surrounding, they are just... In English language you can say, they are talking nothing. But why do we believe it? Because they have something in them for which they control us.

Now you have your own conceptions say about God that God should be like this, God should be like that. This concept cannot be your own, how is it your own? How, now how do you say that God should be like this, or like that? What is your ideal? But why do you decide that God should be like that? What is your basic? Ask questions please! Then it will give you different [UNCLEAR]. What is your basic purpose? What have you read about God? Who looks as he read? Can you discriminate between a person who is real or who is unreal? Time has one very great advantage that in history you can find out that time crops down everything that is false. Everything that is false is cropped down and whatever real remains.

Like about Christ you see, where he lived how people just see. They said, you know what things they have said against Him and they crucified Him. Now they have the biggest problems how to explain His resurrection? Who has asked them to explain? Now why should they explain? What is the need to explain His resurrection? He was resurrected because He was very different from you people are. He was not a human being.

You cannot even explain how a flower becomes a fruit, which you see every day, can you? You cannot even say why there is gravity on this Earth. From where did it come in the Mother Earth? Can you explain? You cannot explain anything whatsoever through your science, can we any `why', how can it be we cannot explain? Then how can you explain the resurrection of Christ? But you want to explain that, if you cannot explain then you stand on two legs. Either you say that you are exhausted, it is not so, how can you? I met some very frivolous people in Argentina, they said, “Why was Christ poor, why did He take birth as a poor Man?" I said, “Who are you to decide about it?" I mean, you will take to His birth according to His own wish, because He is really free. This you cannot understand, you know, human beings cannot understand that free, free personality, because you are not. He can take His birth anywhere He wants to take, He can do whatever He likes with Himself, because He is freely free. And in all this freedom whatever He does is for the good of the whole. While when we are free we do something that will be absolutely nasty and maybe very much destroying the whole, because our freedom is too very lunatic. We have no sense of judging a person, not at all, because we are not [UNCLEAR inward,] realised. At least that should happen to human being where they achieve a sense of freedom. This is absolute.

So they have a problem, what is resurrection of Christ, let us explain, let us understand. One way, as I told you, is to just to say that we cannot explain, so it's all wrong; you shouldn't believe anyone, He was just like that; shouldn't believe in any Incarnation, there were no good; resurrection is falsehood, it was all a myth, so we feel very happy about it. You are being very honest. Then you do not know the whole truth. What is the sense of your honesty and dishonesty? Say I do not know this house, how it looks like, all right? Then I should say I do not know, is all right. But then to form a complete idea about this house, even denying it. You see denying it, means you are not honest.

So this is one way of looking at it, especially intelligence you see. It makes you think like that and you think you are being very rational. But rationality if it is of that much limited shows egocentric, as you can call it, which cannot see things beyond, it is no rationality. Why do you in the rationality think that perhaps He was resurrected, because there was something special about Him, which we could not understand? Rationality should see things that happened, which rationality cannot explain. Like as I said a tree having flowers and then becoming fruits. A tree that is a mango tree can give you mangos and a rose bush will give you roses and the birds that are cuckoo birds will sing the way they are. What is the rationality behind it? Why do they do it? What is their place in this universe? Through rationality you can recognize one thing that rationality is silliness. It cannot pass the barriers communications of understanding.

The second style is that you don't believe in, then it's all right, He was resurrected all right. He was resurrected all right, so believe in Christ and believe in Him.

So we believe in Him, we don't believe in anything else, we just believe in Him. Now even if Christ comes and stands before you and says that I am Christ now, see for yourself, you are not going to believe. You believed in the Christ who got crucified because you were not there. Who were there never believed Him. But when He comes back and says, “Now I am here sitting before you, now you try to recognize Me and find out if I am Christ or not." So then you'll say that how can that be? We like to believe in Christ who died, now He is finished, now what do you do? This is another style.

So we get two extremes we can say, is one side is fanaticism. You can say awkward and very detrimental for human growth and when you turn away from that, from one thing to another; you go to the other side where you start feeling, `Oh how can you believe it?' So we do not believe.

So this is the same, in-between these two where we stand. In many countries all over the world, all the young people are awakened to this fact that fanaticism is something stupid.

So they are moving to the other side towards the rationality, the intellectualism. But a simple thing one should understand, does rationality give you joy? It is so dry. You go on building words after words, at the end you are tired, fagged out, jittery. You have had a discussion with an intellectual say twice or thrice and say, “Better you go to a pub." You will be in the tension and really you will become jittery.

As I was just now telling, I went to Switzerland and I was surprised about them. Just all they stand, this is an argument. This one is saying something, the other one is saying something and the whole argument was on and on and on and people were so jittery. The vibrations were, all the children were shattered as if they are moving on a, what you call it as a wheel, no as if a wheel is [UNCLEAR rotating] and the people are moving on a wheel, so much shattered and everybody got shaking like that. What sort of vibrations will be there? Children themselves were [UNCLEAR shocked] and the whole atmosphere was beautiful.

The nature was so beautiful and the nature was looking absolutely tired, fagged out and dissatisfied and the people were, I don't know what they were [UNCLEAR] their brains were shooting off their all very very speed, extremely speedy.

So what have they achieved? Are they happy? Has that rationality done any good to them? Nobody seems to be happy in that affluent country where rationality is the way they look at things. And even when we talk of selfishness, I said, “Unless and until you discover yourself, how can you be selfish? You can be only shellfishes but you cannot be selfish!" In Sanskrit the word is Swārtha, for selfishness is the word Swārtha. Swārtha means, Swa means yourself, the being and Artha means the meaning. If you know the meaning of yourself, then it is Swārtha, but how will you know? If there is an undercurrent working out, if there is something that is working it out you see. It would be a folly not to expose ourselves to that and to understand our own value, our own place in this Universe and our own meaning. Why are we here? So rationality, if it is based on wisdom, then you can see very clearly that it is wise to wait and see.

But wisdom is only possible if you understand the limitations of rationality. If you are too much identified with rationality then wisdom becomes dimmer and dimmer.

So we have to know ourselves, that's very important. You are not to be guided by the tricks of people who just want to get money of you or some sort of a reputation or I don't know what they want to make out of themselves, but what you have to do is to really know ourselves. Unless and until you know yourself you are not to believe anyone. But that doesn't mean by any chance that you close yourself. Just say to know this house is to come inside this house. In the same way to know yourself is to enter into your own being. Now how can you enter into your own being? Which is the way? It is a typical human question, how? But I ask you a question: `Now how does a seed grow?' So you say, `We don't know.' All right, so you do not know `how'.

Somebody has to know it. If you do not know, say I know. Why should you be angry with Me for that? I say, I know. Supposing I don't know, I don't even know how to make a candle, I don't know how to run this transistor, I don't know even it is Mine or it is [Douglas's], am so bad. I think I don't know so many things, but if I know this then why should you be angry for that? Why should you feel hurt? Then this hurts people! If you know, well and good, that's a very good thing, if you know it's a very good thing. But if I know that, now what should I do about it? Should I not tell you how to do it? I should. But that hurts people very much, you will see that in the history of all the saints, of all the incarnations, if you [UNCLEAR want it/understand], it hurts them.

What did Christ do, that you should have [UNCLEAR been/Him], Christ crucified? So the question comes in, why do we feel hurt about it? Let us have it! Do you feel hurt if somebody gives you a diamond? If your property is locked up, do you feel hurt if I tell you that this is your property and you will use it? What is there to feel hurt about it? Now where does your rationality go when it comes to reality? At this time the rationality should help you. And the way people judge it is also something very, very absurd. When you know yourself, as I say, you will know others also. Now when you know yourself, how will you know you know yourself or not? You should feel yourself. You do not know what is within. By any chance it happens to you that you start `seeing' what is within you, `seeing' is feeling.

Then you start feeling the others, their inner being and yours, then still should you be no doubting about it? So why should we doubt? What is the advantage? Say people are getting drowned and there is a boat, there's a boat of love that is coming trying to save you, you can feel it, you can feel the boat, you can also get out of the water. You can feel that you are out of the water for the time being, again you jump back. Now what you should believe into, is the boat. If you don't believe into the boat, how will you have a stronger grip? This is the problem, this is the problem of the Western mind, you have to feel it. I's not the problem of the Eastern mind so much, they have other problems. They have other terrible problems, but you forget about them, we discuss about our own problems here in this country and around, in all the Western people.

You have achieved affluence to effort as they think. You believe in Christ. Because whatever you see to be in this way, it's not absolute. I can prove it to you just now. If you bring a television set you can see in that, that those pictures are also here, otherwise how are you getting it? They are in the atmosphere.

You are sitting down here, you can't hear the music, but if you bring a radio I can prove it to you that this music exists here also. You have to [UNCLEAR respect/just connect]. All kinds of things from all over the world, if you have really a very sensitive radio, a extremely sensitive, you can catch the music from [UNCLEAR]. Do you realise that? Even as you are your awareness is, you know you have increased it through all these various methods.

So we have to understand that whatever you'll know through this human manifestation, whatever you have is not complete, is not perfect, is not yet that level. If this could be understood through your rationality, rationality has done its job. But even that much is not possible.

Then it's going to be difficult.

This understanding about yourself has to grow. This, of course. I mean you do feel it. Do we really do not understand ourselves and our fellow being? We know that, we are sure of that, you are quiet sure of that and that's why you are confused. But if there is a method by which you can clear this points and if it works and clicks in you, then you have to believe into it. That is what is called as faith and not the blind faith. Why should there be, be two words like `blind faith' and `faith'? If faith means blindness, then there should not be two words? That means that there is something like blind faith and there is something like faith. Even in Sanskrit language we have one called as `Andha Śhraddhā', another as `Śhraddhā'.

So the faith starts after the experience and we come to a point now that we all should have the experience of the self to begin with and we have to believe into it and through that faith we have to mould it. Rationality also has faith, otherwise rationality cannot exist. Perhaps we do not know how we work out our rationality. Supposing you are going by a car and you say I have no faith in the way the car moves. You get into the car. Then you know the car moves well so you [UNCLEAR press the key into the...] and you have faith in it. I mean at every step you have faith, otherwise what is faith, is nothing but your experiences which you have seen. And the rationality is the one that accepts, accepts that faith and proceeds further.

In everything that you do out of rationality you do not go further unless and until you have faith in what you are doing is correct. You have to believe into it, otherwise you cannot exercise your rationality.

You follow this point? But by no chance it means `blind faith', this is another madness as I have told you.

There is a very easy method for people who are blind, just to open their eyes. But those people who are blind and believe that they can see everything, it's an impossibility. Those who say, “We are blindly following something” then you can say, “All right, if you are following, blindly following we will show you where you are going." You can hold their hand and put them on the right track and then open their eyes and they will be very much willing to open their eyes. But what about people who are blind, but think that they can see everything and can analyze everything and can rationalise everything? They are a little difficult.

So we have to bring our rationality to a point that so far we have not been able to achieve it; let us have it. Once you say that, it works out. In some people I have seen Sahaja Yoga works wonders, works very fast. They jump into it much more faster than others.

Some of them really go very deep into it and they settle down there. In some people it works very slowly; in some people they think they have gone very deep and they come out very fast.

So one has to know it is for your own being; it is for your own selfishness because that goes into our rationality. If something is for our selfishness we understand it better, but it is, hundred percent it is for your selfishness and for the selfishness of the whole of which you are a part and parcel.

It is the method of love, of God. Because God loves you, He has done all the things. He wants to entertain you, He wants you to grow big, to mature and then to have the beauty of His own creation completely enjoyed by you.

It's all His love. His love is working out His power to love, there is a living energy that does it. How can it harm you? We talk of love, talk of universal life, we talk of universal organizations also. We have so many organizations which are universal, they talk of those things. I met so many of these people also, but there is no love. Love is the universal energy, love is the universal thing that exists. It is so pure, so purifying, it's so joy-giving. But we have to have faith in that and not in ourselves as long as we are in imperfect condition. When we perfect ourselves then you will know that you are nothing but instruments of love. God wants to use you for His love. He wants to express His love and He wants His love to flow through you so that it goes to others. And He wants you to make so beautiful that you become absolutely sensitive to the beauty of love. This is the new dimension that He wants you to enter into and that is what is the kingdom of God.

So if you could put down your mind a little bit and tell him not to be so jittery, it will work out. You have depended on a horse which has been playing around with you. It will become your friend and it is going to look after you. It has been may be miserable sometimes, it has been neutral and it has also may be egocentric and egoistical in a very subtle way which you do not know and it has been playing around with you and has been keeping you away from reality because it is testing; it is your friend. The moment it knows that you want that, the absolute, it settles down. This is Sahaja Yoga, is the power that is bestowed upon every human being to be united with that Divine Power to be an instrument of this Divine Power, this is the ultimate of our evolution which has to happen. Do you think God is going to leave it without being completed? If He is the All Mighty then He is going to do it.

There is only one snag that it is your freedom. God has made you free because to enter into His kingdom where complete freedom is to be enjoyed, you have to be there in your own freedom, not in bondage.

So your freedom is there, you chose between ego and wisdom and then you have to enter into that arena. This is your own, acting through your own.

Now if you have any problem, you ask a question! You couldn't see anywhere as I said, could you? You could? That's great, that's great. What you say? Some questions should be there.

Sahaja Yogi: Too many!

Shri Mataji: Too many are there, ah? I know. What's that? Another Sahaja Yogi: I am just new to Sahaja Yoga...

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Sahaja Yogi:... what should I be doing?

Shri Mataji: Perhaps, feel it. What should I tell you, you dare not to do anything. First it's like you people are drowning [UNCLEAR in all these things/as we say,... examine] and then they are to be saved. Now who does that, is the swimmer. Then you come to the shore and you learn to swim.

Completely! Then you know all that swimming, then you can help others, it is as simple as that. Now this, say, one is enlightened but I have a candle which is not, just I have to face it towards that, it's that.

You are built-in, everything is there. You are computerized already, the computer is in, only you have to be put to the mains.

Seeker: Shri Mataji, do you believe in [UNCLEAR what Christ has done] and what have you done?

Shri Mataji: What's it?

Sahaja Yogi: He says, do you believe that Christ was a [UNCLEAR dancer]?

Shri Mataji: What? What? Sahaja Yogis: That Christ was a [UNCLEAR dancer].

Shri Mataji: Who is this one? Come forward! Now what does that matter, whether I believe it or not? [Who are you?] Now sit down, sit down! Come along, come along! Come along, sit down! Now whether I believe it or not, what does it matter, tell Me! Why do you want to go into headaches? They are all headaches, I tell you really.

Seeker: I think I couldn't make it another question. Are I?

Shri Mataji: You see the thing is I believe not only believe, but I know all of them are correct.

Absolutely true! But you see, what has happened with human brains, whatever is told to them, whatever is coming, is coming from their unconsciousness. Then we make a dogma out of it and start fighting.

[GAP]... not understanding because all of you, I would say those who look at it, all of them have only one eye and that too partly opened.

So somebody sees this, somebody says that. Things that can be seen clearly only when you are fully open to it, isn't it? Now you come in this room for example and the whole thing is all darkness, I can't see.

So I jump on to this table say, “This is really a huge thing” then I say, “This picture is the thing” then I say, “This light is the rope." It is like that.

So whatever is discovered in the Virāta quite clear to Me. It's not clear.

It is so simple. I'll tell you about, recently I asked her, “Why do they go for theosophical works for Christianity?" I just couldn't understand, you see. I said, “Did Christ say so anywhere in the bible?", because I have not read it. I haven't read. [UNCLEAR He was a baptizer, so I really tell you this, I haven't read it either?] So I know what it is.

So I said, “Did He say or anywhere or in the Bible it is written that there should be philanthropic work done by Christians?" They said, “No, but it happened once, you see, when Mary Magdalena wanted to anoint Him with some oil. And Peter said, `Why should you do it? Why shouldn't you try to use this oil, sell it and make money and give it to the poor?' " It is typical, you know? He was no Prophet.

So Christ said that poor are with you all the time, headaches you see, but I am with you for a short time. He tried to emphasize the importance of Divinity, of Divine Light that is with you, very important thing for Christians. But if this is the example for it, I mean this is stupidity.

So if you go into the arguments and to the finding out of all the different Vedānta, ideals and things like that, it will be another sort of a problem. But the best way to see the unity of it is to go to the point where you are united.

Like now say, if you say, “Do you believe in this flower?" Then another will say, “Do you believe in that flower?"

“No, I believe in all of them." “How?" “Because if I am in the sap I believe into all of them." So let us go to that point which is universally supplying knowledge to all of these branches, all right? If you reach there then you'll be amazed to see how this diversity has such a unity [UNCLEAR after all]. You have to go to that unifying factor to see this so-called diverse things, having the same unifying power in it. All right?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji [to a Sahaja Yogi]: You have read Vedānta?

Sahaja Yogi: No, no, but...

Shri Mataji: The truth!

Sahaja Yogi:... in India one can't...

Shri Mataji:... get out of it...

Sahaja Yogi:... get help very much [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... oh, oh, horrible people in that country. Oh, you don't know, they are mad, real mad [UNCLEAR] I tell you. Don't go near them! Another Sahaja Yogi:... Rākshasas, Asuras...

Shri Mataji:... Asuras, Asuras...

Sahaja Yogi:... Asuras...

Shri Mataji:... Asuras. They are Rākshasas, real Rākshasas some of them are. Imagine they challenged Ādi Shañkarāchārya I must say. When he wrote His Viveka Chūḍāmaṇi, they got after His life.

So He gave up everything, He said, “All right, I will just sing the praise of the Mother, finished! I am not going to talk." He has been a very clever man though...

Aside: [UNCLEAR]. How are you? Good? All right? You have to do it! They danced before the inward eye. All right?

You see, it is the bliss of God you see. What a beautiful picture! [UNCLEAR This is a place to take birth] for the realised Soul, no doubt. You have so many of them here.

So this is the problem and you can't just get out of it. You see, if you go to India there is a lot of muck around. But you don't go from the backside, that's the problem. You go from the front side and to enter into India is through the villages, not through these cities. Even Benares, horrid, never go near it! All horrid people live there...

Sahaja Yogi:... Kunda [UNCLEAR]...

Shri Mataji:... What? Kundas, Kundas! And the Rākshasas and a horrible, terrible people! They are all to be thrown away. They are being already punished by the river Ganges and the Yamuna has punished them. Horrible people they are, cheats; they are even worse and...

Sahaja Yogi: They all want paisa. They all want paisa. They all talk about paisa.

Shri Mataji:... Paisa, paisa, paisa! Now thank God there is somebody, you please record him! When I say that, people get very angry with Me. When I tell them that all these Pandas must be thrown into the Ganges, but why spoil the Ganges also? You can find some better place to drown them. But why do you, how are you impressed by them? Indians are not impressed by them. I am surprised how are you impressed by these horrible hypocrites?

Sahaja Yogi: Shri Mataji, can I come in there? I am not actually an Indian born Indian, I am an African Indian, I was born in Africa, but I know a lot about Indian and when you say, “we are not impressed by" like I mean Shañkarāchārya and...

Shri Mataji: Shañkarāchārya they are, but not by these horrible Goondas –'thugs' who live in the temples and things and sell hashish...

Sahaja Yogi:... true but if You, when I was in Uganda you see any persons who's been there, You know, they were as You described, even so these people, You know like you said Paise, where we go money is there. And a lot of us, you know, the younger ones who have seen all this, not heard about it, are not so impressed by it.

So once I have heard about You, I was really impressed. I also heard about other Swāmīs and all that like, what's his name, I can't remember his name...

Shri Mataji: One better than the other. Don't take their names. They are all horrible. One better than the other, I went to East Africa for your information and I saw horrible things happening there, too...

Seeker: All right! I know this.

Shri Mataji:... you see all kinds of these horrible people are being exported from you. You see, because they don't need any license for its exporting or importing. And they very nicely go and settle down in East Africa there might be hundreds, hundreds of these thugs, sitting down there, doing Pūjā, this, that and collecting all kinds of people around and exploiting them. And East Africans are very traditional people, you see, they went there long time back, they are still keeping up their traditions and [UNCLEAR Divine] and then they took Me to a temple there and in the temple when I was there they all were doing `hooh, hooh, hooh, hooh', all were possessed! In My presence they all got possessed and I asked, "What sort of a Temple is this one?" and it was a Kālī's Temple, just imagine! I said, “He is wretched” not because from where have they come. And I asked them, “Who is the one, who is your Guru?" The Guru had run away, you see, that he was not there. I bashed them nicely and I told these ladies that throw him away, this is what it is and you are all wrong.

There is so much of black magic, this, that going on in that East Africa. It's, you know, every third person was possessed. Horrible things were happening and maybe in Uganda also and you have such a horrible, this Rākshasa there living. Now thank god is finished and all these people, were so much impressed by these, from this pandits and pandas coming from there. I know, I know it is, you are right there, absolutely right. But you go and see what I told you and when I was in East Africa I told all of them, even these Jainis and all of them and I shouted at them and I said, “You will go all of you to hell." And they were so much frightened, they said, “What are You saying Mother?" I said, “All these will fall down in no time, all these temples and all these." But here are also the same things I find, My child, it's nowhere an exception, except it is very clever here and it is very crude there, but also here the same.

Sahaja Yogi: But Mother, I have the same feeling when I was in Brazil they worshipped together Mary and black magic. Then I wondered and they wanted to talk about the things to me and they stopped because I talked about Your name and they stopped to speak about it.

Shri Mataji: Very true! You see, this is what it is, without Self-realisation you cannot understand God. Without Self-realisation you can even worship a demon or a man thinking that is God. That's why you must have Self-realisation, that is the only way you are going to know that. One small thing will people do not understand, how can you purchase God? How can you pay for God? In East Africa I know, it was so, I am so, people were mad and you don't know why. My host himself his wife were so sick. She was so sick, she was mentally so upset and she was getting into fits and things like that, but we have to do something about it and I told that this is all wrong, throw away all these people, same in Uganda. This is all money-making propositions but you awaken to it. You see, there is a fashion now in East Africa. `Who is your Guru?' Everybody must have [UNCLEAR attain] here; they must have a Guru. Why must you have a Guru? I can't understand, but you do not know whether he is a Guru or else he is a Rākshasa.

Sahaja Yogi: So You see, when I meant in that sort of things later means that when I talk about You to them, You know, it is the same thing, they said that if She is to you so much, he is to me just as much, you see?

Shri Mataji: `But what have you gained?' is the point, you should ask them. All right, you should say that. `What has he given you?' You have given him money, you have given him fruits, you have given him clothes, you have done everything, what has he given to you? He is suffering from all kinds of diseases, what has he given? You see, if he is at a higher position you should get something from that, isn't it? What has he given you? But when you come to Sahaja Yoga, what happens to you? You are physically, mentally, emotionally you are put right. Spiritually you start feeling the vibrations, you can cure people, you know there are many Sahaja Yogis who have cured people. You can cure cancer! That is one-sided, only the person who can give is the Guru, not the one who can take. That's why he is called as Guru.

If they say so, you should ask, `What have you achieved?' Only you have cleared out with your purses, given away all that you possessed, now you have become a beggar, that's what you have achieved. They are possessed by these people, that's why they can't see. They can't see, you know they posses you, that's why you cannot see.

In India we had a cult called, now even today it is, after Vandan'āchārya they were called as Vaishnavas and all that. I don't know what to call them, because Vandan'āchārya himself was a realised Soul and he had eight disciples who did not get Realisation, very unlucky. And when they started following this `ashtachap-vaishnava-dharma'. In this you know, what they had? You will be shocked, if I tell you. The head priest was supposed to enjoy the bride on the first night. Any bride! And he was invited to anybody, anywhere in India. A person had to spend lacks of Rupees and this is what the blessing from the Guru they were given. Now what to say to such silly, stupid, useless, what should I call them? Now I don't know many bad words.

What do you say to such stupid people? You see, that's why we need intelligent people for Sahaja Yoga, to understand. But not intellectuals, there is a difference between it, you should be intelligent.

Intellectuals are the people who just enjoy the mental fields, you see like sucker. They are nowhere, they are just moving in the same, [UNCLEAR]. There is no where somersault, you see, some somersaults you should have. But these, this is very true, this kind of a fanaticism is there. But you young people can fight it out. That's why you are born at this time and you are young. You have to tell them that this is wrong, [UNCLEAR not many], also I must say in East Africa within eight days time there was such a change, such a change, tremendous change came and they were [UNCLEAR elderly] people also, even I went to the, actually the Jainis had arranged My program, then I gave them right and left there all about Jainism and about Mahāvīra I told them, “What are you doing? This is not Jainism." Not a word! They started thinking about it.

So it is true, they are like that, it's a sad thing, but there is a trick in Sahaja Yoga by which you can turn them round. I will tell you later of it. There are lots of tricks by which you can make these people come around. Oh! I worked out lots of permutations and combinations. Only thing you must decide to learn all these tricks. For fanatics also we can work it out, only thing they should know that they have not achieved anything, then it works out. They know when they get sick also. There is one society in India which they invited Me to address, their name is `Servants of God'. I said, “All right." As soon as I reached there they came out with their problems mostly physical. They said, “This is wrong with us, Mother. You must cure this." I said, “Now what kind of servants of God are these?" All of them are sick people, now what have I to do with them? But they realised it was a sickness that if you were really servants of God and you are really serving God, then you should be [UNCLEAR perfect/first fit]. That means something is wrong.

So all those who had been to India, before getting Realisation, raise your hands, I wanted to see.

Before getting Realisation, went to India. [UNCLEAR]. You, You have been to India before getting realisation, you went down?

Sahaja Yogi: I haven't got realisation.

Shri Mataji: That's it, so now you are one of them. Now who else? You have been there too? You better write down all the nonsense of Indians, all right? Next week we have to [UNCLEAR publish it/publicize].

May God bless you! May God bless you! You write it down, all your experiences, because after realisation we forgive them and you will not even remember, you better write it down. You! They way they have used you and troubled you, very important! You see? You have to inform the government of India about it, they are busy...

Sahaja Yogi: I am going to tell all about the Pondicherry Ashram, I won't forgive them in the Pondicherry Ashram. I got beaten up by the gym master there. I am not going to forgive them for that...

Shri Mataji: All right! I am with you, for that! Please write it down! [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Sahaj Yogi: All that thing is a tack stall, the whole thing is run by Mahiṣhāsura.

Shri Mataji: Ha, Ha! That's good! Now will you please write it down for Me, I'll give it in writing and get more things.

Sahaja Yogi: I was certainly will. I tell You the whole story, he was a gym master, he was making love to his girlfriend in the mothers shrine and he...

Shri Mataji: She is not a mother!

Sahaja Yogi: What?

Shri Mataji: She is not a mother.

Sahaja Yogi: No, she is awful, Rākshasa...

Sahaja Yogi:... absolute... a terrible Asura.

Shri Mataji: That's it! Thank God there is somebody else, talking like that. Horrible people, one better than the other...

Sahaja Yogi:... and Rajneesh, he is another.

Shri Mataji: Good! Good! You see, this Rajneesh has bade a woman to write about against Me.

Another Sahaja Yogi: You can see. What has he, what, if he does that,...

Shri Mataji: He has done it.

Sahaja Yogi: I would give, I would give the whole dope against him...

Shri Mataji: And she came poor thing, you know she was, she, she couldn't find anything against Me and whatever she wrote was all wrong. You see that, whatever she wrote was I never do this thing, like she said I had eaten `Pān' I never eat `Pān' and all sorts of things, when I was wearing a jade, I never had a jade and all kinds of things she has written about Me, so when I have seen the Māyā played on her.

I am very happy that somebody is talking about it.

Sahaja Yogi: Shri Mataji, I think you and we all can to get together and get Rajneesh because he is Mahiṣhāsura...

Shri Mataji: He is more he is a Rāvaṇa, I think, he is a Rāvaṇa, he is a Rāvaṇa, you see, Mahiṣhāsura is the other one. You see, the one who is after Mahishāsura has now come to London, he is coming tomorrow to see Me. He is, this Mahishāsura as you know, is this Asatya Baba, Asatya Baba. You don't know him?

Sahaja Yogi: I don't know. I don't know. Asatya Baba?

Shri Mataji: They are called as Satya Baba, but he is Asatya.

Sahaja Yogi: Sāi Baba?

Shri Mataji: Sāi Baba, not the old one, the new one. You see, I was, our ex-prime minister, Mister Gurjari Lal Bhandari, you see, he has spoke very well about Sahaja Yoga, this thing and that thing, but next day somebody wrote to him that you praised Her such a lot and you did all this, but do you know one thing about Her, She criticises all the people, even like Satya Sāi Baba and even like your that another woman, what's her name is?, that philanthropic horrible woman.

Sahaja Yogis: Manga mai.

Shri Mataji: Anandamayi and all these people, you see.

So he was telling, “But Mother [UNCLEAR what's to/must you] criticise?" But I said, “Did I ever criticise to you?" He said, “Not to me, but people say your disciples did shout and say, `oh she is Rākshasi and he is a Rākshasa!' " I said, “They must be the one who have been beaten up by them, so they must have said it with that loudness." But he said, “What do You say?" I said, “They are correct." “Are they?" “Yes, I think they are correct, what they are saying is correct, you don't understand." So I said, “Now wait, wait a minute! There's one gentleman who has come just now to meet Me and you must talk to him." So this one was Mister Bharani. [UNCLEAR You remember at him/You must] [UNCLEAR].

He's another interesting person, you see, Mister Bharani. He was head long with this fellow, you see.

He was the co-pilot of the whole school in Delhi. Where if you had got with this horrible Rākshasa was there, all the traffic jams, nobody could go anywhere, never such a population gathered for these great Rākshasa. And then this fellow, Mister Bhalani was the main person behind the whole show, he spend Lacks and Lacks of Rupees on him and he did all that. And then, what happened? That this fellow told his wife that see you should become a Sannyāsīn, you must give up your husband, you must come and stay with me and it is not good to be with your husband. He vanished with this all the money and the property she had in self r, all ornaments and everything and she went down to his ashram. Now this Bharani has now realised that he has been befooled, so he came to see Me first day, you see, with terrible anger in him and he said that Mother, if you don't mind, I want to tell you something. I said, “You see I will mind if you say something which is not decent, because be careful about Me, you must not say indecent things to Me." He said, “No not indecent to you Mother, but I want to tell you something about someone whom people regard as a Guru." I said, “All right you tell Me, I know about whom you are going to tell." So I told him, it is Asatya Baba. He said, “How did you know?" I said, “I can see what you are catching from your Chakras that he has affected you." So then he told Me he is writing a book now about Asatya Baba and he is going to do this and he is going to do that.

So I told him that you come and see Me on such and such point. That time this ex-prime minister of India was talking to Me. I said, “Now talk with Mister Bharani." So I solved the problem both of you. And Mister Bharani was on the subject [UNCLEAR] and he told Me how [UNCLEAR].

[Aside:] Nothing of that kind.

But they have done their job, they have, they have [UNCLEAR lynched] all your money and they are settled very nicely now. They are gathering new people, now you have to warn the new. All of you have to talk about it and write about it, take the responsibility. I have been saying this, I said this in nineteen seventy.

Sahaja Yogi: If we write about it, the Rākshasas who come back at us, you know, isn't it? 42

Shri Mataji: No, but you have to be careful. You have to be careful.

Sahaja Yogi: They are very strong Asuras. Yes, I need [UNCLEAR]. To beckon us, [UNCLEAR] the Asuras, too many of them are around.

Shri Mataji: All sorts of Lamas...

Sahaja Yogi: Lama.

Shri Mataji: Horrible!

Sahaja Yogi: Ooh!

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR You have some lamas now...].

Sahaja Yogi: You should have seen the one who came last week.

Shri Mataji: But why do you garland them? Why don't you beat them with shoes?

Sahaja Yogi: Didn't they got Mahāsiddhis, you know, they are attempt to nothing, that flying [all laugh] man [UNCLEAR child stuff...] that, that leads to beckons. I even do what to master them because they are the people who helped Hitler, they are helping the Russians now...

Shri Mataji: Correct!

Sahaja Yogi: now... they are horrible...

Shri Mataji: Have you read the book written on Me, you haven't got the book here, yet?

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogis: Yes. Yes. Yes.

Shri Mataji: You better ask him to read the book. He will know quite a lot we have tried to do.

Sahaja Yogi: The Advent.

Shri Mataji: Advent.

Sahaja Yogi: It is a beautiful picture on the...

Shri Mataji: The picture is beautiful and you see inside also. We have exposed all of them one by one, but in that, you see, we have to be careful.

[Aside:] Hallo Biggie! Biggie: Hallo!

Shri Mataji: We have to be careful about them because, you know, there is a law which says we should not condemn them, they can condemn us, but we cannot. But still you can say about your own experiences, this has happened. You should gather people around, but now you are already looted.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Looted?

Shri Mataji: Yes you are already being looted.

Sahaja Yogi: By?

Shri Mataji: By these!

Sahaja Yogi: By these Asuras.

Shri Mataji: Of course.

Sahaja Yogi: By these Tibetans?

Shri Mataji: Of course. Tibetans are the worst of all.

Sahaja Yogi: I think so. I think so. But I haven't got, this is England.

Shri Mataji: But there is one Englishman also here. You've got very nicely settled down in England.

Sahaja Yogi: Which one?

Shri Mataji: What's his name?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Arun Apansanyaylane] that...

Shri Mataji: No, no. What's his name?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Yāk].

Shri Mataji: Yāk, Mister Yāk.

Sahaja Yogi: Yāk. [Laughs.]

Shri Mataji: You don't know him? Another Sahaja Yogi: No.

Shri Mataji: Oh! He is sending his emissaries to Me. You don't know him?

Sahaja Yogi: No.

Shri Mataji: He is an Englishman, he has taken a tip.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Who's name, which one? There is another English fellow who is trying to [UNCLEAR sabotage us] all the day.

Shri Mataji: Who?

Sahaja Yogi: Someone called Benjamin Cram.

Shri Mataji: Where is he?

Sahaja Yogi: He does a strange thing. Whereby they hold a wire and they say they get in touch with Jesus.

Shri Mataji: With the wire?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Was Christ made a wire or [UNCLEAR]?

Sahaja Yogi: We, we have raised somebody's Kuṇḍalinī and he started saying, “Oh this is very dangerous” you know. [He talked and so he is off or... goes off].

Shri Mataji: What's name you said?

Sahaja Yogi: Benjamin Crame.

Shri Mataji: Cream?

Sahaja Yogi: Crame.

Shri Mataji: Crame?

Sahaja Yogi spelling: C-r-a-m-e. That's right.

Shri Mataji: Who is he?

Sahaja Yogi: Hm, yah.

Another Sahaja Yogi: What can you tell on him?

Sahaja Yogi: Oh yes, I have seen that before. I know that.

Third

Sahaja Yogi: He was not very lucky because we are, he was just in front of this and your teacher was just a test. This school [UNCLEAR master] I think he was not very lucky.

Shri Mataji: And he started shaking and what happened?

Sahaja Yogi: Now he, they, a person came and we raised their Kuṇḍalinī and he started saying, “Oh this is very dangerous, some say `cause they are not allowed to do it and it's all business." Another Sahaja Yogi: But he ran away, he disappeared for the rest of the afternoon.

First

Sahaja Yogi: But everybody asked, “What were you doing?", you see, the people, the people who were with him, so what about we were doing? And we started saying something to him.

Shri Mataji: Ahh! I think the time has come, I really, now you are doing this. Do that as I tell you, do that as I tell you.

Sahaja Yogi: But...

Shri Mataji: Do this, not condemning them [with that emphasis], but what happens after Realisation, you become mild.

Another Sahaja Yogi: You lose interest in that Māyā.

Shri Mataji: No, but you have to think of others, you see, there are so many who are going to be with us. Who will, are going to be really [UNCLEAR disturbed]. Be careful, you have to do that. For others you have to do it.

Shri Mataji: It will be better if you pull back the curtains, because this is the light that should be on My face [UNCLEAR]. Oh God! How many people you have been to, My child? What's your name? Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You, I am asking you.

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: I saw her.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Ah, now, I am not really, I am not really, I am not doing the [UNCLEAR vote consequent] politics. I don't know them all. I have been to millions and I...

Shri Mataji: Really?

Sahaja Yogi: I have been to, I have been all across India and found the Dana and lost and harming again and lost it again and I looked for the heavenly tika Master Kung-fu-ze, known as Lao Tze or Confucius and I found the man of the Dana and I found Gopal Swāmī and then I lost him again. You see even this Rākshasas, Digambaras Sādhu came up after Gopal Swāmī had died I didn't get to his deathbeds and he died and I wasn't there and didn't pass on the Dharma and Satana Dharma and so I, I... They were all wild and...

Shri Mataji: This Digambara Swaraj will beaten up...

Sahaja Yogi: He took me up on a hill for three nights, said mantras over me and bought, now all this Shanti and you know this Anāhata Chakra was before it, after Gopal Swāmī's eldest son when, like that, you see, he lights up. Then after that the digambaras and said all his mantras, it is like a spike to the Anāhata Chakra, you know, bang!, but it's like black and in the middle of the and the petal of Maṇipūra, you know, it's very tough. That's what he has done. That's the Digambaras That's the Jainas!

Shri Mataji: Horrible!

Sahaja Yogi: Horrible, an Asura! That's a real Asura.

Shri Mataji: They talk of vegetarianism. This is what they do, the Digambaras. [UNCLEAR].

Another Sahaja Yogi: Tum shaitan! Shaitan! Tum jao. Tum shaitaṇ [You are evil! Evil! You go, you evil.]

Shri Mataji: Who these Digambaras said? Avoid it! At the funniest time, point at it, Digambaras [UNCLEAR] I confronted them when I was very young you know, just married. They had invited My husband to inaugurate something, I don't know, some sort of a Temple or something. I did laugh all the time and these, there were about forty of these Digambaras. Now `dig' means directions, you see and direction and `ambar' means the cloth, so they have no clothes. Directions are their clothes, imagine! All these horrible people sitting on a stage and We both were sitting in front of them. And they were scratching themselves and horrible people and ghastly, forty of them, you see? My Husband looked at Me and said, “What is this style?" I said, “I don't know, This is the first time I am facing these horrible dirty people. I don't know what to call them." And everybody was very much surrendered to them, you see.

After ten minutes we just couldn't manage. I came out and I was vomiting, vomiting and vomiting. They are horrible people, you see!

Sahaja Yogi: I didn't know of that. Oh, oh, pretty well.

Shri Mataji: So now you are in politics, that's another nonsense.

Sahaja Yogi: We are...

Another Sahaja Yogi: The whole tour it was after midnight and he was a little party governor.

Shri Mataji: Oh that's good. I am with them, am with them.

Sahaja Yogi: That's good. And imagine...

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. But you have to enter politics after some time, perhaps, maybe. Maybe we may have to be, if you are really liberated, in the sense that if you achieve that and there is no harm in becoming that. But just now let us concentrate on assuming our own powers and then only you have to fight it out, because, you know, even our laws are not such.

Now we have in India many Justices, Chief Justices who are Sahaja Yogis. But there are no laws so far prohibiting any black magic in India, because they do not believe in the existence of black magic in India. Can you imagine that? This is thanks to our [UNCLEAR Lord Mc Coley] who went to India and tried to help us with our laws, you see.

So like people in England they did not believe in any laws like that.

So they said, “We know that there is black magic and these people are working out black magic and we cannot do anything about it." And sometimes these laws are very handy for these horrible black magicians. Like Rajneesh they cannot catch, they cannot catch all these people and even the CBI Chief who had come and who is a Sahaja Yogi, he says, “I find it very difficult to catch them." So you can imagine how terrible it is.

First of all let us assume ourselves, let us become ourselves, let us feel ourselves, let us know our own powers and then we can fight them out much better than we can do it this way, because you have to pass certain laws now. You have to bring the attention of the people to this dimension which is not known to them and they think this is unknown and that's why it is something Divine. This is the confusion which we have to clear out. We have to have more Sahaja Yogis.

So how many of you are not yet realised? [Shri Mataji counts:] One, two, three, four... Only four! I tell you there everybody is realised at the back?

Sahaja Yogi: No!

Shri Mataji: No? Who else is not? Do come up! Come here! In front! Now it's better. Just come in front!

Sahaja Yogi: This is Bill.

Shri Mataji: How do you do? Come along, come, come! Who else is there, not realised? You are not? All right! What's your name?

Seeker: Sako, s-a-k-o from Paris.

Shri Mataji: Sako, from?

Seeker: From Paris.

Shri Mataji: From Paris! Oh I see.

Sahaja Yogi: He came with Oliver [UNCLEAR], as far as I know.

Shri Mataji: He came to the ashram, is it? You see, you are from, otherwise from Mauritius?

Seeker: I come from Africa, West Africa.

Shri Mataji: West, what part? What?

Seeker: Mali. Near Algeria.

Shri Mataji: Oh I see. We have an Algerian here.

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah!

Shri Mataji: Yes, we have an Algerian. Good. We have from Mauritius also. We have met people from Mauritius, don't you think so? [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Aside: It is better you get My sweater also and all of that. It is for [UNCLEAR] or should I sit that side will be better, there is [UNCLEAR] it melts My Vibrations better than can, you bring? [GAP]

Shri Mataji: But what are these vibrations, what you have got? It is something so great that we cannot achieve it.

So there must be something special in Sahaja Yoga, not like that. Now what is so special about that, what happens to you after receiving realisation, what you can work it out? How it works, how it works within you? You first work on these things. Do not divert your attention to other things. First of all you settle down with it seriously and find out what are these vibrations, how are they helping me, how are they helping others, what changes are coming within you? We should go that way.

But in case you find it absolute transformation within you, you find its absolute joy and happiness within you, then you don't have to think about these things. But it is so funny that this human mind doesn't stop easily. You see, it'll come back. It is to doubt something, so what? You got vibrations, so what? All sorts of things will be there.

One of the reasons why in the West you do not often understand about these vibrations because it is not talked about it. People do not, but Indians know.

So there is no argument on this part, once they get the vibrations they know it is something. But here you do not know, you see, so we do not know what they are. Now what are these vibrations and how they come to us, this is to be understood in full, full way, not in a half-hearted way.

So like a seeker you might humble down yourself and now see for yourself how these vibrations were coming? How you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī? How can you give realisation to others? How you can work it out? So for this you have to come to different programs we have. Settle down yourself, settle down these vibrations within you.

How to manoeuvre them? How to decode them? What things work with vibrations? What finger means what? Then you have to verify and find out if it is true or not, work on other people and that's how it is going to settle down. Because in this country I have seen that you give realisation to many. Now I've become very conscious.

So what happens, they go home, then it starts working in their mind, the whole thing, because still the mind is not steady and the ego, you see, might come up and give you some ideas or else you can say come might come over somehow or the other. And what happens that you now lose vibrations. Once you lose the vibrations then you cannot understand. The first thing is to steady these vibrations, that is the most important. But people just do not steady it and then they get very upset.

I would advise you that you should go through the...

[Aside:] [UNCLEAR].

But now you can feel the vibrations of others also. From everywhere you won't get vibrations, but say, now just now if you see his vibrations, I mean I would not like it, because if you see his vibrations you will know that he has got lots of problems within himself and these problems can show on the vibrations and you can see on your Chakras and all that. And the fellow who has come here, he too has the problem.

Now he has problems because of his, what's the name?

Sahaja Yogi: Now, TM.

Shri Mataji: Ah, we call it TM, but his Suṣhumnā has opened out, but still his Viśhuddhi is catching, that's why his ear is not all right. If I work on his Viśhuddhi then he will start feeling the vibrations, but otherwise he is realised. You can see, on his head, you can see on your head also. Now see on your head, who has got realisation, you feel the cool coming out of it.

[Aside:] Just feel it! Come along, feel it! Do you feel something cool coming out? Or some hot breeze?

Sahaja Yogini: No!

Shri Mataji: Are you all right?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes!

Sahaja Yogi: Got Nābhī!

Shri Mataji: Nābhī?

Sahaja Yogi: Nābhī.

Shri Mataji:... and?

Sahaja Yogi: And Swādhiṣhṭhān.

Shri Mataji: She has Nābhī, as you said.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes Nābhī, very strong.

Shri Mataji: It's the heart must be put all right, because what happens, the Kuṇḍalinī sucked it from the heart. I mean from the heart the [UNCLEAR force] is given. With the connection, if it is established with the heart, then there is no problem. Must be first Heart, then Nābhī. See when it reaches that stage of Heart, you should attend to Heart first and then to the Nābhī. A sort of it is quite there...

Sahaja Yogi: I feel heart in the center...

Shri Mataji: After all that is the alarming thing. Now Simon are you better? Another Sahaja Yogi: Yes, first...

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: I can't feel much difference.

Shri Mataji: It all has been inside your head.

Sahaja Yogi: The head is full.

Shri Mataji: Just say, are you thinking?

Sahaja Yogi: No.

Shri Mataji: No, there is no thought?

Sahaja Yogi: Oh no, there is a thought, I was thinking about Lancaster.

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: I was thinking about families in Saint John's Wood.

Shri Mataji: About what? Another Sahaja Yogi: About some people he knows in Saint John's Wood.

Shri Mataji: All right, now you just tell yourself, I am not going to think. Now, turn down. You turn down t. All right, you try the one thing. [To another person:] Come along! Here You just stay, turn around and see My face. Without thinking you will see My Face, all right?

Sahaja Yogi: All right.

Shri Mataji: You have to try all that, now you put your hands like that, all of you. Now you tell Me, if there is any burning or anything in any finger? You have been right. Both the Nābhī, correct. Now just sit, you will know, gradually, you see this is the sensitivity one has to develop, all right? Gradually, because they are so enamoured.

So much of flow is there, that you are not feeling. Are you feeling? Correct! From there you felt, correct. Now your heart is very week. Because it is an extol on the heart you have to be careful. That works on the [UNCLEAR]. That can be very temporary but must be within first.

Sahaja Yogi: You have said a very deep heart problem?

Shri Mataji: No, no, no, you see, it starts when the Kuṇḍalinī moves to a certain height in any Chakra, it will slow down. That's all about it. That's somewhere existed. You know, are you better?

Sahaja Yogi: No.

Shri Mataji: You feel now? Another Sahaja Yogi: I can't feel any difference, I just...

Shri Mataji: It's all right, but are you feeling better in the head? Another Sahaja Yogi: Oh yeah! I mean...

Shri Mataji: That's the main, yeah...

Sahaja Yogi:... I am cured.

Shri Mataji:... that's all. Bringing down your speed, all right? You have done too much of reading.

What's your age?

Sahaja Yogi: Twenty-seven.

Shri Mataji: And you have read so much?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, I want, I said today of, how can I read the liberal party manifesto, now it, [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [laughs].

Sahaja Yogi: I really did, I am sick.

Shri Mataji: Oh they have this manifestos. Not just one, but three of them, I see, you have to go to understand, Keep out of it for the time being, all right? Fine! Now you feel better? It's good? Are you feeling better? Now can you feel anything, anyone of you? Another Sahaja Yogi: I do feel some [UNCLEAR] sensation in my thumb.

Shri Mataji: Thumb? In your thumb? All right, now let's keep it that. Now what do you feel? Nothing? All right, just now he is so much opened up. Now what about you? Bad thing?

Sahaja Yogi: Now I do feel this finger very strong.

Shri Mataji: This finger, now... there... all right.

So now you have the thumb and you have, you don't feel anything no, then he feels on this, this finger, all right.

So who else is there? What about you?

Contents: 1979-04-22 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Give up Misidentifications, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

... and because of the cleansing of the Feet of Christ, you see, they said “why should we waste such a lot of oil? You can sell it and give it to the poor." And Christ said, now see what He said, that Christ Himself has said these words and if they are depicted the same way. You just see the meaning and what you should take out. He says that, “These poor are forever, but I am for a short time." You see? How clearly He has said that, there's no philanthropic work involved. But people take, you see, the other meaning! I don't know from where you get the other meaning, that you must look after the poor! That's not your job at all! Alright, Atul? That's not your job to look after the poor. What we have to work out, in the middle, by which we can put the right and left to both the pans. You have to be in the middle. And when we are in the middle course, we first of all settle down ourselves nicely and then the left and right can be engulfed. The poor and the rich.

The over-rich are horrid people! They smoke, they drink, I mean they are wretched people. Gambling, this, that, all sorts of things they do. They waste their lives. They don't know how to face themselves.

They are in the worst possible condition. And the poor are another style. Labour class and all that.

So you have to bring them to the center. But how? You yourself have the depth within yourself. You can pull all of them together into this. First solution has to come in the central path. Alright? So this is it, that, when you start doing your philanthropic work you cannot do it in Sahaja Yoga. You cannot. Of course, I mean poor is alright. In the Indian villages I can work it out. But very poor, they will not take to Sahaja Yoga. They'll take to drinking, smoking, or if some time is left, then burgling or cheating; they will take to these things. Because for them eating is the main thing, you see, just like [an] animals [UNCLEAR they are]. And for the very rich, they are another type of animals. You see, they are vultures. They cannot live without sort of being parasites on the society. If you tell them anything they will not understand you.

So, the upper classes is useless, the lower class is useless for us. Ours is the middle class which has to settle down with the values of Sahaja Yoga. And then once they see you, the river flowing, they can be enriched and they will come to us. You are like a river and we have to enrich both the banks; this side or that side. That is important. One side you have to cleanse, on the upper class and the lower class you have to enrich them. But if you do not have that within yourselves how are you going to do it? Sahaja Yoga is going to work for the middle class. This is the point. Not for the poor and the greedy.

And that's a very wrong thing to do [that] attention is put to the poor. That's not our job. We have not created poor have we? We have not. Who has created them? The upper class. We... we [can] club them together, [the] upper and the lower class.

So they'll say, “We'll have Labour government." Both are just the same! That's it you see. They say by denying God you see, we are challenging God. [They think] if they deny God then God will fall at their feet. That's why they deny. Otherwise what is the need? What matters? Is he standing for any election? Is He contesting any election that you are saying, “We do not believe in God!"? What does it matter? So that is how we understand you know, that these are fools.

Maria: Is there any way, Mother that [UNCLEAR]...

Shri Mataji: That's what I said that the way is that the middle class, see, the middle class should be developed.

Maria:... for these people who are on the extremes like that to say, “I do not believe and I am angry."

Shri Mataji: Then let it be. You don't make them believe.

Maria: Yes, but is there any way of helping them to come to an understanding [UNCLEAR in the beginning/or through educating]?

Shri Mataji: You see, you... you... if you think that you can make these people believe, you cannot.

It's wrong. They will not. They will not. Because the more you'll try to do it, the more they'll [continue], because, you see, their ego is hurt. They are the people whose ego is hurt because they find some people rich, you see. Say, the person on this bank and this bank. He sees this, he sees this. We are somewhere down below here, alright? And they are seeing each other.

So their ego is hurt very much. And here there are people who are egoistical.

So both do not believe in God. What does it matter if they believe it or not? There is God.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You see, they just want to say it out. Here it is a big words. I have seen everybody [saying], “I believe." Now, who are you? Everyone. You see he says, “I believe into..." I mean, believing, from where it has come? From where did you get this belief? What is your experience? So that's how they do it.

So they have to say, if a politician comes up and gives a lecture. “I believe that this is this." So everybody hears that, so they go on home [and] they say, “I believe in this!" It's like ringing one bell, putting into another bell and the resonance starts and everyone says, “I believe." [Laughter.] You see, I find in this country, even an ordinary beggar talks like that! There's no humility of any kind.

That's why they talk like that. They lack of humility. They are so aggressive. You just see how aggressive they are. They have aggressed all the cultures of the world. Now today's article, I brought it for you to see specially, you see now, in say, Tehran [Iran], whatever they have done, Tehranis have done, they have put a Chaddar on a lady and say, “You wear a Chaddar." So an English lady writes about it. She says, “They have made our body…" You see now, your attitude towards life, you can say a British attitude or you can say the Western attitude is that your body is very beautiful so you must show it. Why, why cheat yourself? It is not because your body is beautiful that you are showing off but [because] you want to catch it. It's simple. It is as simple as that. Face it! But you want all the world, all over the world the women should be like you. It's such a subtle aggression. You don't know. They have killed all the cultures of the world with this kind of an understanding that, “We are the best” you see, “most educated and sophisticated people." But others also must exist. They have their own cultures, understand them and think. If you do not say, `Please, give me this,' then he's uncultured. You know, it is such a subtle aggression, if you see, on everybody's culture. That's how you have removed all the Indians, from, say, South America and North America. Everywhere, wherever these people have gone they have finished the cultures. It's a very, very special type of aggression these people have. And aggression has a reaction always. Either the other culture's people, those people who have other cultures, would strive to be this culture because this is supposed to be the greatest of all. To say like that, that, “We should not be afraid of showing, we should not be ashamed of our body." What is something like privacy within us? Is there nothing like privacy? We should respect our bodies! Now if this is the attitude taken, that everybody, “Oh, this women is inhibited because she does not show off her body." The showing off of the body is nothing but is a subtle prostitution! You see it's on and on and on. It's very subtle. Now another suggestion comes in from there that, for twenty-five years they cannot believe that people can remain celibate because in this country people cannot. But there are so many countries where they really remain celibate till they are married.

So many of them. But according to them it is not possible so those who remain must be wrong, they are telling lies and they force this on others that, “You become like us only! Because our noses are cut so you also cut your noses." On all types of people. If you go anywhere, all the Western people, what they have ruined is the culture, is the variety of culture. And such subtle cultures they have reduced used to nothing! And by their aggression they have told people that, “We are the highest of highest. English language you must know! You must know French! You must know this!" So, you see, what I am saying is: when we understand we have to change, we must know we have to be really humble, not in language, not in behaviour but inside, to know that we do not aggress others.

Alright? So this Labour [Party] and this one problem is only of aggression. One community here, you see.

Now, say, you take an elite person, so-called elite. That's why I liked `Evita'. They have made a big satire on all the elites. The dancing how they do. They have made a big satire on all the upper classes and all the lower classes and all that type. It's a very good one, I must say, it's a very good satire, `Evita'. It's a very good satire ever since long.

So, now, if you have that aggression within you existing, then better take it out. The culture of the Spirit has to come in you, that is to be there. If that culture doesn't come then these all cultures are very aggressive and they can never give any happiness to anyone. Labour [Party] people think that they are hurt by the elites, or by the rich or the upper class. But what are they aspiring to be? They are aspiring to be the rich people themselves! They are hurt by the rich and they want to be the rich. You see it would be like if you are hurt by somebody's shoes you become the shoe yourself. If you are hurt by the rich people then why do you want to be rich? It's a simple question. For a person like Me who has no materialism I cannot understand it.

Simon: Can I say something about our political system?

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Simon: It was set up on the three Guṇas, you have radicals who are Rajas, Conservatives who are Tamas and you have in the middle the Liberals who are Sattva, intelligence.

Shri Mataji: But I tell you Liberals also need Realisation! They are to be reborn. Otherwise you will had one horrible Jeremy Thorpe [a homosexual MP accused of murder]! Why did you give him anywhere the seat [in Parliament]. You gave him a seat, why should you give a seat? You should have courage to say, “Better not be there." He has got a seat!

Sahaja Yogi: He's going back there.

Sahaja Yogi: He's going back to his seat. He's standing for his seat again.

Shri Mataji: Yes, What I am saying is... You see, but I'll tell you what: unless and until they take to Realisation it will not work.

Sahaja Yogi: I told David Steel about Mātājī, I told David Steel about Mātājī.

Shri Mataji: You see, what I am saying [is] just by proposing that you are in the center you do not become. “Sahaja, Sahaja” you see. Kabīra has said it, “Sahaja Sahaja, saba karata” [meaning] “They all say Sahaja, Sahaja, but they are not!" You should be ashamed of such a horrible leader you had for so many days! Simon: Jeremy Thorpe? Well he's better than some that we've had.

Shri Mataji: No, no, horrible he is! You just see his vibrations. Horrible person he is! No, no, no.

All of them are just the same! To Me all of them are just the same, there is nothing to choose. But if you have a choice...

Simon: You see England, we aren't an aggressive nation and I don't like you saying that we are an aggressive nation!

Shri Mataji: No, no, no. You are not aggressive when it comes to something else. But when it comes to cultures, you do like this.

Simon: Well we are uneducated, I admit. When we came to India we didn't know what we were doing, so we cut off from it and we wouldn't have anything to do with it.

Shri Mataji: What English brought from India? Pyjamas [laughter] Jodhpurs, verandas. And what else did you buy? So, you are aggressive that way, you see? So, all these things have to be changed, like Indians must change and they should not accept whatever you give them.

Simon: Our aim of being in India was not an aggressive one. And we weren't aggressive!

Shri Mataji: In India? New gentleman: I don't like hearing these things!

Shri Mataji: You may not like it but we have had it!!! You don't know how they treated us. You have no idea Simon.

Simon: When I go to India and why do they say, “Victoria Rani"? I want to know why in India they say “Oh, we want [Victoria] Rani back."

Shri Mataji: Arey! If you pay money to someone..

Another gentleman: Well I've met Indians who like Germans for kicking us out because they say without the second world war...

Shri Mataji: No, no, I tell you very simple. Just Simon, Simon. Listen, listen! I'll tell you. You will understand. Very simple. It is very simple. It is a poor country. You give them money, they can sell you anything. They gave, you see, Kitābs and they gave these... we never had these. Like they called somebody [with a title]. What do you call that? All these M.A.D. Ph.D.'s and all that that you have here? `Titles!' They gave titles and they gave this and that. You know, English know how to do it. And they collected some people to say something about it. But the way they had to fight it out you don't know.

You don't know. You were not there.

Simon: Have you seen Satyajit Ray's film `The Chess Players' [UNCLEAR] Satyajit Ray is the best filmmaker in India.

Shri Mataji: That's what you people think because he tells all about our poverty! He doesn't know anything about our Indian culture. Not a word. He doesn't know anything about spirituality, Satyajit Ray. He is alright, people like him because he sings the saga of communism. That's why people like him.

That's not India! He never represents India. It's alright, he is very good at getting very old people have somewhere showing all their ribs and stomachs and this and that. That's how he does and people like it, because there is a kind of a sadism: we like to see poverty, we like to see some people being tortured because we feel we are tortured. It's very subtle Simon, I tell you. You are a different person, you cannot understand it. But now you are different. I am not talking about the people who came to India, but I am saying today also as the Western mind is. You see, with your rationality, with the so called scholarships that you have, the so called we can say industrial...

Simon: Indians these days go overboard for Bertrand Russell...

Shri Mataji: That's what I am saying! You see, this is what I am saying. The same thing as you are saying, I am saying the same thing. You are giving them and they are taking it, whether it is poison or anything! This is what I am saying. They are another type of fools! You are one type, they are another type. You see, you aggress and they take it. If anything comes from India they will accept. If anything goes from England they will accept it! It's a funny thing going on.

Sahaja Yogi: But we get all these fake Gurus all coming out from India.

Shri Mataji: Yes, that's what I am saying! You take from them, they are another sect. They are sending some Gurus to you, you accept them! And, you see, this is the mutual understanding going on.

There's a big fraternity of thugs!

Sahaja Yogi: After all, you built a fantastic Wembley building for them!

Shri Mataji: [Laughing.] See now! You see the joke! Whole thing! Once you say that, “We are British or not”, finished there. You just say, “We are human beings” and then you can see the whole joke. If I say, “I am an Indian” I'm gone, finished!

Sahaja Yogi: It's not a political thing.

Shri Mataji: See, it's not politically. It's much higher. You see, you don't identify yourself with any group and then you can see the joke. If you are identify then you cannot.

New gentleman: You don't have to take it literally you have to take the essence of what Shri Mataji is saying. You listen you take the essence not the literal thing of what Mātājī is saying.

Shri Mataji: No, no, no. If you listen to Me, the whole thing you will understand it, very clearly, what I am trying to say. Don't get angry. When I am saying “aggression is there” you see, what I do not understand that people do not study others and just [try to] bring about your own ideas onto another, that's great aggression. Now, in My own house, My two daughters are there: I have not told them what is Kuṇḍalinī! Can you beat it? Can you beat it? Even not told them what is Kuṇḍalinī, leave alone giving Realisation. Same with My husband. If they do not want it, I am not going to aggress. This is non-aggression. But that doesn't mean I accept aggression from them.

So, when you accept aggression is the same as if you give aggression, if you do aggression. For Me, both things are just the same.

So, when we have to change ourselves, we should say, “What do we do?" “Where are we?" “Are we aggressing others or are we taking aggression?" Now, say, Atul feels guilty, then he's taking in aggression. If you feel like egoistical way that, “This is wrong! That is wrong!" then you are aggressing others. All these things must be seen in its full context and in the full view of the whole thing, so you will understand.

But what happens, we identify ourselves with one part of life. We say, “This is the thing." And either we aggress others in that case or we take aggression. This is sickness. This is the sign of sickness. Anytime this happens, sickness starts. And this is the cause of sickness of all the human beings all over the world.

But once you identify yourself with the whole then you start seeing the whole as a diseased thing. And then you feel [like] treating that disease as a doctor. Then you do not identify yourself with any sickness.

Alright? That is what means `Sahaja' life is.

So, now if you have somebody sick, alright, so now you understand that by helping that particular sick [person], of course, if it is your desire it will be done, because you are one with the whole. But the approach towards that sickness is difficult. Do you understand My point? It's one way to help because he's sick, he's poor, is different. What I am saying: the approach should be that we become absolutely confident of Sahaja Yoga. We establish our own powers, absolutely. And then we make them also the same. Because they will fall sick, they'll have all problems, unless and until they are alright.

So that is the primary thing that must be done. Because on one side they are the people whose ego is hurt, the other side are the people who have been suffering from their egos.

So, if you have to help both of them, you have to bring them in the center. Alright? Do you understand My point now? Now, to bring them in the center is not to appease them. Not that way. But by developing the center.

You see, let the center grow far, on both the sides, so it engulfs all that. Do you understand Maria? Maria: Yes Mother.

Shri Mataji: They will never believe in God because that is the way they can assert their ego. Indians are another set of fools, absolutely set of fools, because [of] the way they are following you people! I mean you are already in the ditch, where are they going! Firstly, they do not have any values about honesty about them, that's finished. Now even if they are getting the other values also from you then these sickly people where will they be? As it is they are thieves. When a thief becomes an immoral person, now what will happen? It's like somebody has been bitten by a scorpion and on top of that he takes wine, then what happens to such a person? So the aggression is within which is to be corrected. For all realised Souls, it is important to see if we are taking any aggression within us is equally wrong as giving aggression to others.

You see, we have to develop a set of people who have the idea of reality, those who understand what is reality. Those who are going to set in another type of way, which will cut down this vicious circle. We have to have that kind of mind by which we see the disease of the whole and try to correct it. That's how we can manage. But if you start identifying, even today, I would say, with anyone of them, you are mistaken. Now do you understand My point? You just don't identify with any one of them! You have to identify yourself with reality, with your Self, to begin with. When you become that...

Sahaja Yogi: Nirguṇa!

Shri Mataji: Not necessarily Nirguṇa. You start with saguṇa only. Because I am [also] in saguṇa, what to do? If you do not come in saguṇa, saguṇa is `with forms', if you do not come in the form, nobody understands, who will talk to you? A Nirguṇa cannot talk to you.

So the saguṇa had to come.

Now you establish within yourself the complete understanding of the saguṇa. Now, don't doubt too much.

If you are a doubting Thomas you will end up with zero! I can tell you this much. We have had people for years together. There is one gentleman coming for seven years and you know him and nothing could be done [for him]. And he's supposed to be a wrangler in mathematics.

So, you must see the people who have understood the saguṇa and how far they have gone. And if you have to progress you try to understand it now. First of all.

Secondly, you must also understand that you are going to be the people who are going to lead the whole world into a new awareness, into a new life, into a new dimension! So don't identify with people who are still blind, who do not see. They'll make you more blind. Identify yourself with people who have seen something. The ones who have had experiences you identify with. Put your attention to them, then only you can see. And that is only possible when you start giving up your misidentifications.

Do you see? As long as you have misidentifications you will be mad! You would not know what to do about it. I have seen this. You got involved into misidentifications naturally, you see, because the atmosphere is like that, the whole surrounding is like that. From all sides you are people who just engulfed [you], they club you all. They are to jolly well come in to it! you. You are not free to think about it. And that's how you are not free from misidentifications. To begin with you were alright, but gradually you started getting enveloped and identified with your misidentifications.

How are you responsible for what your forefathers have done in this country, or My forefathers have done in My country? Tell Me. Who are they to you? They might have been born in China now with chinky eyes. [Laughter.] It's possible. Or could be in [UNCLEAR]. Or could be running away this Amin as his soldiers. Could be anywhere. And we are not responsible for them whatever they have done.

Alright? Keep it at that point.

Now, if you feel responsible even for anyone who belongs to your tribe, still it's wrong because you are different people. When you become that you must identify yourself with the new tribe, the one who has known the Reality. But human beings identify very easily with something so much illusory, like if you are born in England you are English, if you are born in India, you are Indian. You could have been born in Timbuktu or any place! Then with these identifications also you go into that complete circle. If you are an Indian, you start speaking like an Indian, behaving like an Indian, all the good and bad of Indians: same with English same with French, same with everything. Gradually you start misidentifying. It starts working in you. But you are the Pure Thing inside. These all impurities cover you.

So to free yourself from all these impurities, of any kind. I tell you this is like possession in you. To be free absolutely of all these things is the ultimate aim.

So, all these ideas when they come into your head, please know that all these have come to us because we belong to a particular society, a particular race, a particular religion.

Now, for example the other day you know there was a gentleman who said, “I feel very guilty all the time." So I said, “Are you a Catholic?" He said, “No." So I said, “You have no business to feel guilty then!" [Laughter.] Because if you are a Catholic, you are made to feel guilty all the time! It's a collective [of guilt] you see. You are just from childhood, if somebody gets brain washed all the time, you see, a little child doesn't understand. You go on telling, “You are a sinner." He will say, “Oh!" You go on telling him, he'll say, “Am I a sinner?" Then he goes to the church. Then they tell you, “You are a sinner." French

Sahaja Yogi: `Repent, repent!'

Shri Mataji: Repent, repent. Now he says, “What should I repent?" So you thinks about it, he goes to the priest and he tells him that, “I repent for one thing." He said, “What?" “Because I opened the tap." He said, “What?" “I opened the tap and my mother's forehead got wet. I repent for that." So it starts from there, you see! And the whole thing starts working out. Then poor thing repents for something else.

But inside, when he's repenting, he's building up a guilt. And that's how these horrible people, so-called `Christians' or so-called `Hindus', all of them just the same. But I am saying about these, how they have gone against Christ. If you make somebody feel guilty and you have it! Absolutely Satanic! Is there any mention in The Bible, that Christ wanted somebody to confess to him? Where did he mention, by any chance? Sahaja Yogis: No, no.

Shri Mataji: Then why these people have started this confession business? Who are they compared to Christ that they ask for confessions? Appointed by some theological college! Elected by some people where the smoke comes out of the chimney [in the Vatican when the new pope is elected]! All these silly things you digest without thinking about it and then you are misidentified also Maria.

Alright? So, you must understand. Be happy and joyous that you have found that eternal life and be one with it. Alright. And you tell them off that, “You are all silly fools. And you go ahead with your idiocity! And when you are absolutely drowned, then come to us!" Indian Sahaja Yogini:... that's what I used to say to spiritualists. I used to tell them what I thought of them.

Shri Mataji: But why? You see, a spiritualist whom [UNCLEAR] you have, who [UNCLEAR] has all this, poor thing. Same in India! We have all these horrible Tāntrikas, this, that. If you see, Tāntrikas are mostly prevalent in Bengal, in Bihar, in U.P., in Kerala, in Madras, Assam and there you find the poverty! And maximum are in Bihar which is the poorest country. I mean, see the absurdity of that place, that place we went to Kovalam [Beach], is in Kerala. The people are extremely poor and for the newspaper people, you see, this is the main issue they have, that poverty. They want to sort of take advantage of it all the time, poverty. As if they are very poor, live like poor. And these people arranged My program in a hall it was a carpet or something, I don't know what it is.

So they published that she was living in suites of [UNCLEAR] with wall-to-wall carpet and this nonsense, you see. I was, poor thing, living with these people! But why? Because they wanted to imply that she lives in luxury or whatever it is. You see, I live always in luxury whether I am poor or rich makes no difference to Me! So, this is what is the accent they had. But why there is poverty, why don't they think? Do you know, in that country, such a wretched condition is that Śhrī Shañkarāchārya was born in that country. And these people told Me that, “We do not know who he was and also we do not know that he was born in this country." They should be ashamed of themselves! And the second thing that they did that they tortured him because when he came back, when his mother was sick, they would not even give him water, they said, “You are a Sannyāsī, you have no business to come to your mother." And when she died they would not burn her.

So, he burnt her in the house itself and he used all the banana tree to burn her. And then he cursed that country that, “The way I had to burn my mother, you will be doing the same." So now, they cannot burn.

So what they do [is] they dig the graves and put them just in front of the houses.

So imagine every house is hovered by all the thousands of horrible people who are dead. We went to one village and the condition of the thing.

They all ran out! They said, “Mother, what sort of a village is this?" And then you talk of emancipating these horrible nonsensical people! We want to run after the Tāntrikas, then the bhoots come in and how can you have your problem of poverty solved? Tell Me any country where there are so many bhoots and there is riches. Always you'll find the poor people indulging more into spirits than the rich! And once the rich start indulging into it, you also give up. It is a very simple thing. I can understand if you people do not know but Indians know these things, still they do it, that if there is one bhoot coming inside your house, all your Lakṣhmī will be finished. Everyone knows this, but still they do it.

Rustom: There's no doubt Mother that the moment that you return to London the left Āgñyā goes. And when we leave we can feel it release. When I was in the plane going to Germany I could feel it release.

Shri Mataji: You see no use bringing up Labour and Conservatives and all that. If they want to listen to Me, destroy all these Tāntrikas from here! One and all and you'll be alright. You try any trick and you will have problems. But who will listen to Me? They used to believe in witches and all that once upon a time. There used to be witch hunting and all that, but they have stopped it. Now witches are very nicely settled down you see.

Simon: Many Christians are witches.

Shri Mataji: Yes! So called Christians! Simon: It doesn't mean that they are bad. No! It doesn't mean that they are bad.

Shri Mataji: They are not bad but they are bad, in a way, because they bring all the bhoots from outside.

Simon: No, they make the fields grow and we have to keep witches here otherwise we'd get no harvest.

Shri Mataji: Are some witches picking fruits? [Laughter.] Or some bhoot is picking some.

Simon: I'm sorry.

Shri Mataji: Simon, you are correct, but you see there is a witch in you that is speaking, you are not saying that. You see, how can you say witches should be here when I have just told you all about them, how they do it? Do you want people to suffer, to have poverty? Suffer from all kinds of diseases and troubles? You don't want them in. What you want you do not know. First of all you find out what you want. Write it down and give it to Me. First of all you should get rid of all these operations on you. You see in your room itself, there's a problem. These witches are there now. All of them are here. You must cleanse them. We all have to get up from this country. If by My coming here, if I cannot manage that, then what's the use of My coming? But if you are identified with them then what can I do about it? All the churches are doing that. As I have told you already that this confession business is very wrong. Whatever is the problem of a particular country is to be handled in that particular country isn't it? In India also we have the same problem. But that's a very different type. I mean it is not an organized religion so I can wipe it out better but it is organized here! The Seventh Day Adventists, these another horrible ones the Pentecostals, they are organized, they are accepted by law, they are doing all these things here through law!

Sahaja Yogi: Don't you think that, when they give you the sense of being guilty and all that through the Christian and Catholic Church they want at the same time to increase their power?

Shri Mataji: Of course! This is the play, this is the play. But only and intelligent man can see that truth you see. They make somebody feel very guilty, they say something to brainwash you! You see, it's only brainwashing. As Hitler could brainwash Germans, these people have also brainwashed you. In India, also, they do the same thing, brainwash you. They have done all kinds of brainwashing but the only difference is that the Western religions are all organized.

So when they are organized they become firm and they have much more power than a religion which is disorganized. You can hit them better! Now the priests here are so much respected! In India the priests is not respected so much. Ask him, he is a brahmin! [Laughing.] You see if a priest comes into our house we do not respect him. He takes money, we know he takes money.

We do not respect him the way here the priest is respected. Because it is organized.

They have made their norms and things by making up [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: What is terrible, the game, the illusion and during the middle age they give to the Western countries an illusion of knowledge because instead of the knowledge they wanted to introduce a religion.

Shri Mataji: So you see what is the circumstance.

So you must decide it and you must give up your misidentifications first of all. Because all your diseases come from your misidentifications. Alright? Say now you are Greek. Now Greeks also have certain misidentifications, quite a lot of them! [Laughing.] So, once you start becoming a Sahaja Yogi or a universal personality, you just take to Sahaja Yoga, you do not stand for that. But if you are a real Greek, then you must tell all the other Greeks also that, “This is what it is!" If you really love them.

Sahaja Yogi: I would be pleased to say that to my aunts you know.

Shri Mataji: [Laughing:] [About] your aunts I am not so much worried! Because that's an age now, they are gone. But what about the future that's coming up? Now the people who belong to such organized religions, as they have, which has happened in India, in the same way it's going to happen here also that they are not going to believe into anything whatsoever. The other side has started as you said! They don't believe in any God and they are not going to come.

Maria: I don't really know what I really need to find out.

Shri Mataji: Nothing, you see it's just a swing from one extreme to another extreme, that's all. There is no direction, there's no guidance. It's just a swing from believing into it too much, fanaticism, to another where it's not. Our Sahaja Yoga is not like that at all. Extremes, you know, extremes.

So from one extreme and to another extreme they go just automatically. I mean it is absolutely inevitable. We have to stop in the center. And those who are stopping must grow so they engulf all that. This is what I am trying to tell you. Alright? And when you start seeing them, then you will know how horrible they are.

Sahaja Yogini: It's very painful.

Shri Mataji: It's very painful to see how horrible they are, it's true. We have to of course cure them, but first we should be alright all of us.

Rustom: I don't know Mother, I've noticed about the way that negativity works is that it attacks people and then it makes you feel sorry for them and then it sucks all your energy so that you have no chance to do any work for Sahaja Yoga.

Shri Mataji: You see also negativity is there. Like Rustom had this problem before, he was over-sympathetic.

You see, if you have sympathies, if you see the meaning `sympathy' means `sharing pathos'.

You share their pathos isn't it! [Laughing.] So this is also there. And now why I said this is that you have, in these Western countries, you have seen the aggression, so you are taking to the other course. You see, you are over-sympathetic. And that thing is going to tell against you, absolutely. There is nothing to sympathize. There is to be so strong that you just solve the problems like that. Sitting down here you should be able to solve the problems.

So develop your powers. Alright Simon? That's what it is. You must develop your powers. And how will you develop them is by becoming silent and silent and seeing what is the solution. You have to just assume! You have powers already. You have been enriched by all the [UNCLEAR]. Everything has been done. You've got it. You are already empowered. Just use that.

Can you doubt that you are not empowered? You already have got powers and also most of you know what is to be done. You know what is this power to reach God. You have the knowledge. Assume, you have to assume! Maria: We need the wisdom as well.

Shri Mataji: You have! You don't need Maria. You have a lot of wisdom. Only thing is don't sympathize with them. Just don't worry about them. They are foolish people.

Maria: This is what I have been doing all the time.

Shri Mataji: That's not proper. You don't waste your energy on that, that's why you have thinned down so much. There's a saying in Urdu, “Kazidli bidli ka shayed ka deshakte" they say, “Priest, why are you so sick? Because you are worried about the whole world!" [GAP] Pay attention. But your attention must be detached in that case. If it is not a detached attention you cannot do that.

Maria: I think through Sahaja Yoga that I start feeling a lot of extra powers. A detachment. But I still have a long way to go.

Shri Mataji: No, no, not difficult. It's only one second you need. You just say, “Go away all of you!" Child: Go away!

Shri Mataji: So, you see, we had an example of that in Delhi. We had those Rāmakṛiṣhṇa mission people. There was a lady who had cancer from the same ashram and she said, “Why I was with that, was I was helping others. I was looking after them." I said, “Then why did you get cancer?" She said, “Now in I've got it." So I said, “You enjoy it now!" You have paid for it for doing Upakār [charity]! You just do it without doing it. You just do it without doing it. You even do not know you are doing it. It's so simple as that. Alright? Maria: It becomes part of your being.

Shri Mataji: Yes, otherwise, you see, you think you're doing something, that means pride comes into you and the whole thing is spoiled.

Sahaja Yogi: But Mother, the more we surrender and the more we have faith, the more it will be alright.

Shri Mataji: Yes, it will be alright. You see, if you are alright, if you are strong people, in the Virāta becomes alright, the Primordial Being is alright then you become a strong body. You see, if some part of the body is sick you can cure it. How many cells you need to fight them? Not much.

But we are the fighting cells. We have to fight them. By not becoming identified with them. You see, you have to fight with them in such a way that you do not weep for them. [That] means you are affected by them. No! You are detached. You just say, “You will be alright” and they will be alright.

So much powers you have! Do you know that? But once you start weeping for them the power is neutralised. It should be done without any guide, anything, you just say, “Alright, you will be alright." Which is all well and good otherwise there is no question of prestige for us! If somebody is cured, well and good. We have not taken everybody's bond that we should do it. We'll do if we want to. If we don't want to we'll not do it. It's in complete freedom that we do it. At least I do! It's in absolute freedom. If I want to do I will do, otherwise I will not do. In the same way you should do it.

So then the detachment comes. You see, complete freedom is also complete detachment and that is complete love.

Maria: Sometimes Mother when I go to some place people say that they used to know me before feeling very much for them and showing it and that, if through Sahaja Yoga you become unfeeling... that's how they interpret it.

Shri Mataji: Unfeeling? No you should say, “Now I understand that what was lacking. And I have too much feeling for you. You become Sahaja Yogis." You see they always depended on you. “I want you to become that." You see, sitting down and weeping for somebody is no good. But some people are like this also.

Maria: They like the sympathy?

Shri Mataji: You see, they like the show of the thing. Say you go to a place and they say, “Oh have you seen. Is he with her?" All that should go away.

Maria for a person like Me, I'll just, I may not even bother, it's terrible.

Why should I? I'm not attached. But then you see, people like it if somebody comes into My house.

That's not feeling. Feeling is when it is in pure detachment. You are not feelingless, you are not emotionless but you are emotion. You become the emotion. Emotion is identified with you completely. Do you understand? Maria: Yes.

Shri Mataji: You are the emotion. The complete ocean, ocean of emotion. You generate emotion! When you are with people they get into emotions. You can inspire emotions in them. But nobody's emotion should affect you, then only it is possible. Even the ocean cannot become a dwarf thing.

Maria: Do you remember Mother, in the letter I wrote a sentence that I have a little bit of a problem of work. This was the problem. Although I put the people’s names in a bandhan and I would pray for them at home, at work I would be detached from their emotions and their problems and because of that they would be upset why they could not attract my attention. You see, my attention was attracted but not to the point that become part of it and that would upset them and that's why I had the problem because they sent very negative vibrations back which eventually I could not tolerate and feel..

Shri Mataji: No, you should be tactful about it. You should be tactful. You should be tactful about it. That is not the thing. Only thing is, you see, even if you read, it does not matter as long as it doesn't hurt you inside. If it's all outside. It's alright. You see, attention when you give to somebody, you should be fully attentive to yourself.

Maria: But the attention they needed was a selfish one which I did not entertain.

Shri Mataji: Don't entertain them. You see, what I am saying is that as you are realised you will be surprised that you are in a different wavelength absolutely, on a different position. And it is going to be a little difficult to adjust with others because they want you the same person. You cannot be the same. You are different one. It was only that you could do something for the time being, that's how. But now, they will know that you have curative powers, you can cure them you can do things, your value [to them] will go up much more! So you need not try to worry about these things. Gradually they will accept you. There are thousands of people behind you! You don't know there are Chiran-jīvas [eternal beings] there are great personalities behind you.

So you just let go. And we are not to be guided by their norms, not by them.

We have to put our own norms because we are different people. But first have confidence in ourselves! Are you better Atula. Now, Simon how are you? Are you feeling guilty about something? Gentleman from the audience: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Now you don't swing from one end to another, just try to keep in the center. You have read a lot and you know a lot, that's called as Dhyāna. You have got Dhyāna. But you are not Bodha.

Means your Dhyāna is not enlightened as yet. Aright. One is to know and the another is to know that the knowledge is enlightened. Do you see the difference between the two? The other day Gavin asked Me, “What is Samādhi?" I told you [that] it is enlightened awareness.

Enlightened awareness. You are aware, but you are not enlightened. Samādhi is that.

So in Sahaja Yoga first you get Nirvichara Samādhi, that is thoughtless enlightened awareness. And secondly you get Nirvikalpa Samādhi, that is doubtless enlightened awareness.

So to go to doubtless condition you must know [how] to avoid doubts. You have to change your style of approach. You see other things you might have achieved through dissolving.

Gavin Brown: You even have to pretend that you don't doubt to begin with.

Shri Mataji: You have to go on pretending with yourself. Tell your mind, “I am not going to doubt." Go on for a while. Then it works out.

There's nothing like the faith. Faith I am saying, not the blind faith but faith. You have got the vibrations now. Now believe into them! Those who have taken to doubting will never approach it. You'll be thrown away all the time with doubts. And a time may come when My attention may recede and you'll drop out just like [UNCLEAR]. You just cannot do it, Sahaja Yoga, that way. But blind faith is not needed. First you feel the vibrations, you see it for yourself. Either we absolutely have blind faith or we have rationality. Can't we have something in between? The people who are absolutely blind are useless.

They might be saved because if they can ask questions to Me that, “Are you this? Are you that?" Then they can be saved. If they come to that point! But those who are rational they can never come into it because it's like jumping like a monkey, from one branch to another branch. You can never land down [like this].

It's only through faith, Śhraddhā, surrendering, you are going to achieve that state. And then small ripples here and there, nothing is going to disturb you. You are going to enjoy that state within yourself.

Allow your faith to dissolve you.

You know the time is very short. You've got your realisation and you take so much time after that to come up to that and that time is very much lost. Why do it? Now you have seen people who have Śhraddhā how far they have gone, so why not follow them? So that is very important that, by doubting you are not going to achieve anything! You'll be tossing.

But you are to really put...

[To children:] Big girls have gone out [laughter]. The big girls have gone out to play, you also go out and play with them, alright? Child: Ok. [Laughter.]

Shri Mataji: Alright. See, how confident! Because they are innocent. They have faith in themselves.

So stop your rationality. It is not going to take you anywhere! You have to learn to develop your Śhraddhā.

Even you get realisation, you cure people, you do anything. We have an example of somebody you know of.

His mother was cured just like that, he was cured just like that, he got a job just like that, he got whatever he wanted and then suddenly he drops out, without any Śhraddhā.

So that is what it is.

So many have done like that because if you do not have Śhraddhā, you get tired of jumping from one to another. All the time you are doubting in this. It's just a mental feat. We like to do circus for a while, it's alright, but forget it! Now jump into it and get it! Now what do you lose? You lose nothing!

Sahaja Yogi: We lose ego.

Shri Mataji: Ego. You lose your ego but you get your. What do you lose? Nothing. You get all the powers. Now the time is too short and you are taking too long to do it and some of you will be tired, jumping like that all the time with your doubts, this way, that way. And what are you doubting? It's all free. You don't have to do anything about it. And doubting people can be quite foolish. They doubt about every nonsensical thing which has no meaning at all. They see things which do not exist because it's just a habit, or you can say an indulgence, you can say an entertainment for people to doubt into this and then doubt... You see they are just jumping like monkeys. Stop that! Any one of you who goes [deep] down into Śhraddhā and dissolves becomes a great instrument in the hands of God! Even to say that, “I doubt” is wrong. These people think we are very honest by saying, “I doubt, I doubt, Mother, this thing." Please give up such `honesties' ! Absurd! This is ego which is making you say these things that, “I doubt." Because by saying that, it exists. And you feel you are very honest.

It's not you are doubting, your ego is doubting. When you realise that, that your ego is doubting, it will become dissolved. “It's not I who is doubting, it's my ego which is doubting. Or maybe some possession in me which is doubting." “Am I playing into the hands of some possession or my own ego?" That's what it is, hundred percent! Because those who have not doubted have gone too far. You have seen people in India. You have seen Dhumal, he never doubted! His own brother, he was helped so much in this.

He had no money to eat his food, he had gone to that condition because he had put a lot of money in a business which was failing. When he came to Sahaja Yoga his business started earning just like that. He became a moneyed man. His child was sick, he was cured. He was sick, he was cured. His wife was sick with something incurable, she was cured. But still he was doubting. He started taking to drinks after that.

He never used to take drinks [but] after doubting he started taking drinks. He did all that was prohibited in Sahaja Yoga just to prove his point and where is he now? I would say pay attention to your Self and not to your doubts! The doubts are coming from some dark corners of your mind which is with you. What are you going to lose is the point you must know. What have others lost? They have gained. Those who have doubted have lost, lost time.

So don't waste your time on useless things. There's nothing to doubt. Every word I say is the Truth and the Truth.

See the vibrations. You see! I have to boast [to make the vibrations flow]. You see! Every word.

So don't doubt it. Just take it and take it and take it. I know all this Myself. I am not going to achieve anything by telling you these things, except that you will know Me and I will know you.

You are not to lose anything. You have to gain.

So you tell your mind to shut up. It is already running at a very fast speed. We want to get to that state of complete doubtless awareness and for that are we going to carry these doubts in our pockets? They have no meaning. They will all be neutralised. You have seen people who have neutralised it. But those who do it [doubting]... I have no word. Steady your Śhraddhā, steady it. It's a force. It's like a flame of a candle. Steady it. But by your doubts you are putting a heavy pressure on it and it has to face those doubts. You are weakening yourself! Steady, all of you steady it.

Simon you have to get well. You are a seeker for ages now. In many lives you have been seeking and now you are not going to play about anymore. Alright? You are going to be a certain...

Simon: Mātājī may I go now?

Shri Mataji: Alright. You may go. And you throw those away and bring seven more [limes] to Me in My house.

Simon: Tomorrow night?

Shri Mataji: Tomorrow night.

Simon: What time would you like me to turn up?

Shri Mataji: Oh any time from about five onwards that's better. Five, six, anytime. Come to My house, bring them. And ask Philippa to come and see Me also tomorrow evening, if possible, because I'll talk to her about this, what is to be given.

Simon: Seven chillies as well as seven limes?

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes. Alright? And as I love you try to love yourself. And now don't get after yourself.

I tried to tell you because there's time today I can tell you about it, for certain Chakras how to clear them, even physically you can try. One of them is of Viśhuddhi Chakra. Now for Viśhuddhi Chakra I have told you many things but you can try one more thing which will help you. Is to put your head on the ground like this, near a bed, with your feet on the bed, resting on the bed. And try to come on the bed more and more, the body, push it on the bed so the whole pressure comes up here. Alright. And then keep My photograph handy. In that stage you see My photograph you see My photograph. It will improve your Viśhuddhis. If you have the right Viśhuddhi then turn your face to the left and see My photograph, that will help you because all of you have Viśhuddhi problem. This will be of help.

Sahaja Yogi: You mean the neck on the floor?

Shri Mataji: On the floor if you lie down. Lie down now, facing that side towards the... yes, now go ahead, like that. Gavin be careful. Now, go down. You go down and more, more. You see again try to bring this lower portion on top.

Rustom: Bring the body straight.

Shri Mataji: Yes, you see.

So that there isn't much of a Haṭha Yoga on you. Can you see? Yes.

Sahaja Yogi: You rest it on your shoulder or your neck?

Shri Mataji: More on the Viśhuddhi. That's it. It's better now?

Sahaja Yogi: Where do you have the photo if you're not going to look at it?

Shri Mataji: No, no. You have the photo whichever side you are going to look. You see.

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah, I know. But if you're not going to look at it?

Shri Mataji: You turn your photograph with you. You see you must look at the photograph isn't it? Because your Āgñyā always. You see if your Āgñyā is cleared out with that. Otherwise the Āgñyā is blocked you see. Better? Gavin Brown: Hmmm. It's very good.

Shri Mataji: It's very good this way. You see? All of you should try this thing. I have told you for Swādhiṣhṭhāna what should be done. That you remember?

Sahaja Yogi: Should I show them?

Shri Mataji: Yes show them what is to be done for Swādhiṣhṭhāna, physically.

Yogi: And you say the mantra?

Shri Mataji: Yes you can say the mantra, would be a good idea.

Now for people who have a problem of Mūlādhāra, or those who cannot sit on the ground and sort of a things, for them, is to practice with both your legs like this. Put them like that, you too have the same problem. Put these two [feet] together like this. You see, you cannot stretch it much, try to stretch it down [the knees] on to the ground! Try to, try to, as much as you can! Not, in one shot you cannot do it!

Sahaja Yogi: You have to [try] to pull your knees down.

Gentleman from the audience: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes. Put your knees down. They must touch the ground. I can do [this] quite a lot you see, despite My fat! Gradually you have to do it. You do it in a month, you will work it out. That's very good. You lift this so only your Mūlādhāra is touching.

Gentleman from the audience: Is it possible, it's on the floor Mother?

Shri Mataji: First you do this exercise then that one will work out.

Just try. See! It's working out. It's much better now. Gradually it is. It is working out. You see, it is much better now. You see gradually it will work out, gradually, if you do it.

It's good for Mūlādhāra. For all the people who have Mūlādhāra problem, this would be a good idea.

So gradually we should see to different Chakras and then. Now for Haṁsa also, Haṁsa, I'll tell you what is to be done. You lie on your body like that, on your stomach.

Sahaja Yogi: For which Chakra?

Shri Mataji: For the Haṁsa. Now come along. Put your these things Mūlādhāras here on the Haṁsa and now ask the Mother Earth to suck in your problem. Now you move it. Better? You see you can feel the sensation at the ??.

Your, even, pressure will go away from your? you see you'll feel relieved from the pressure.

Now meditate.

With your Viśhuddhi here, would be a good idea, to the Mother Earth.

It is Omkāra and it becomes Christ here.

So take Omkāra here. No Deity because it's a Nirguṇa.

This is only relaxing and for relaxing your sides you can lie down you can put your hand on Mother Earth. Any of the cheeks on Mother Earth, you see. But this is not the end of everything! You have to use the mantras and with dedication and devotion.

Better? Much lighter now.

It's good. How are you? You have been at sea?

Sahaja Yogi: No, not at sea but I have been going into the sea.

Shri Mataji: Good. [Laughing.] That must have solved all your problems! It's a good idea. That's what I say, get into the sea.

Sahaja Yogi: Because these places where we go it's surrounded by people who come for non-dharmic things, so you are in the midst of them and you jump into the sea!

Shri Mataji: But now they are having a bad time. Everywhere you see now, all these resorts are having a bad time. Earthquakes are coming to resorts and things. Earthquakes and also lots of hurricanes and all these things are happening, because if you do adharmic thing then the sea itself gets angry.

Sahaja Yogi: Do you remember last year in Spain with the fires, nine hundred people died?

Shri Mataji: Yes very much. That also happened. All kinds you know. This Greek ship this tanker, landed. In France there is one resort which was all finished by this thing. And in Spain it was finished when they brought a gas, this thing.

So everywhere. Now there's a hurricane and the other day I read about an earthquake coming.

Sahaja Yogi: Well in the Caribbean right now there's a volcano erupting.

Shri Mataji: Yes, Volcano is bursting. All the Caribbean sea that was misused for adharmic things.

Arnaud: I read an article in the Herald Tribune I read an article that said that, not only wars but nature is coming to be angry and we must be very careful. And I gave Gregoire this article.

Shri Mataji: But this is all wrong you are doing. Imagine behaving like this before the sea!

Sahaja Yogi: But in some parts of the Caribbean they are very Dharmic people. I saw a program where an old lady was reading a Bible. She was in charge of the cash register and she would serve the customers and then read the Bible.

Shri Mataji: Something is coming up there also.

Sahaja Yogi: But it's mixed with a bit of spiritualism.

Shri Mataji: Nothing clear cut, you know. Nothing in absolute way, you see.

So, these small, small patchworks, what are they going to help? You see. You need a volcano! Really! What to do?

That's why I say, “What's the use in having sympathy with these horrible people?" The whole of Caribbean sea they have ruined. Whole of it.

Sahaja Yogi: And California.

Shri Mataji: California is another! That's going to blast out very nicely!

Sahaja Yogi: Last year they did have a fire didn't they, which damaged quite a lot of the properties and areas. Do you remember?

Shri Mataji: Oh they had recently something there?

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah.

Shri Mataji: A hurricane came in I think.

Sahaja Yogi: California?

Shri Mataji: Yes. Very recently.

Sahaja Yogi: Not California, Florida.

Shri Mataji: No, no. California itself. There was.

Sahaja Yogi: A fire.

Shri Mataji: A fire broke out yes, fire broke out.

Sahaja Yogi: I drove through that place where the star's homes are. They couldn't stop the fire.

Sahaja Yogi: Hollywood is one of the worst places in the world.

Shri Mataji: They generate sin.

Sahaja Yogini: And they export it all over the world.

Shri Mataji: Yes, they generate all that is blasphemous. They teach people how to sin. They give people licentiousness. Give them all the power that is needed to fight the Absolute, the Truth. They brainwash you.

Contents: 1979-05-00 Sahaja Yoga a Unique Discovery, Article in the Yoga Today magazine, London, UK (month not sure)

Man in his search of joy and happiness is running away from his Self, which is the real source of joy. He finds himself very ugly and boring because he is absolutely unknown to his Self. Human being seeks joy in money or possessions, in power or human limited love and ultimately in religion that is also outside. The problem is how to turn one's attention inward.

The inner being which is our awareness is an energy (I call it energy of Divine Love). All the evolution and manifestation of material energy is guided by the Supreme energy of Divine Love. We do not know how powerful and thoughtful this unknown energy is. The silent working of awareness is so automatic, minute, dynamic and expansive that we take it for granted. At first it appears as silent throbbing vibrations through our being after Self-realisation. Because we cannot fix our attention on to something that has no form (abstract being), our attention is wandering outside on forms. Now a method has been found out to tap the Divine power and this is called as “Sahaja Yoga".

At the very outset, I have to say that the working of “Sahaja Yoga" is very simple, although the operation within is quite complicated. For example if you want to watch television it is very easy. But to explain the engineering technique of a television set is very difficult and complicated. It also needs a qualified engineer to understand and explain its working. I will try to explain it in the simplest way but please note that it is really complicated if you want to know it in detail. The best way to enjoy television is first to switch on and watch and then to understand its engineering. As a mother I would say that I have done the cooking for you. Why should you worry as to how it is done. If you are hungry you should start eating. If you are not actually hungry but only inquisitive what can I do? I cannot force you nor can I make you hungry by discussions or lecturing. I leave it to your wisdom and to your freedom to feel the longing from inside.

The word `Sahaja' (Saha + Ja) means born with you (inborn). Whatever is inborn would manifest without any effort. Hence “Sahaja Yoga" Is the name given to my system, which is effortless, easy and spontaneous. It is natural to Nature (you may call it life's source, vitality of Divine).

To understand life let us take a case of something that is living, a germinating seed. The seed grows by itself into a tree, blooms into flowers and the flowers get transformed into fruits. Any human effort cannot change the process of growth of a seed into a tree. The gardener can only look after the growth of the tree. In the same way the process of growth of our consciousness to further the evolution takes place effortlessly.

When the foetus (child in the womb) is about 2-3 months old in mother's womb, the column of rays of consciousness emitted through the All-pervading Divine Love, pass through the brain to enlighten it. The shape of the human brain being prism-like, the column of rays falling on it gets refracted into four diverse channels corresponding to the four aspects of the nervous system.

They are: 1. Parasympathetic nervous system 2. Sympathetic nervous system (right) 3. Sympathetic nervous system (left) 4. Central nervous system (This need not be discussed as it is the link with objectivity).

(1) The set of rays that fall on the fontanelle bone (apex of the head known as Tālu) pierce in the center and pass straight into medulla oblongata through a channel (Suṣhumnā). This energy after leaving a very thread like thin line in the medulla oblongata settles down in 3½ coils in the triangular bone placed at the end of the spinal cord (Mūlādhār). This is known as `Kuṇḍalinī'.

The subtle energy enters through the center of the brain (Sahasrār Brahmarandhra) and precipitates on its way in six more centers. The gross manifestation of this subtle energy in the “Suṣhumnā" channel of the spinal cord is termed as Parasympathetic nervous system and “Chakras" are expressed as plexuses outside the spinal cord. Surprisingly we have the same number of plexuses and sub-plexuses outside as the number of “Chakras" and their petals inside the spinal cord. Very little is known about this system to the medical science. It is termed as the autonomous nervous system, the system which works spontaneously on its own. For example if we want to increase the rate of our heartbeat we can do it so by exerting the heart (activity of the sympathetic nervous system) but we cannot reduce the rate of the heart (activity of the parasympathetic nervous system). The parasympathetic nervous system is a system which is like a petrol pump through which the petrol of Divine Love is filled in us. But as soon as a human child is born and the navel cord is broken a gap is created in the `Suṣhumnā' and also outside, one can see the gap between the solar plexus and vagus nerve of the parasympathetic nervous system. This gap is known as void in the Zen system of religion and Māyā (or Bhavasāgar) in the Indian thought. Later when ego and super ego bloat up like balloons and cover our brain at the apex of the left and right sympathetic nervous system, the fontanelle bone gets calcified and the All-pervading vital force of the Divine Love gets cut off completely.

Then the human being identifies himself as a separate entity and the consciousness of I (Aham) presides.

This is the reason why man does not know his universal unconscious." He is served there from by his ego (I).

The sympathetic nervous system is created to use this vital energy. There are two systems i.e. left and right. These two channels which carry this energy in subtle form in the medulla oblongata and are known as Ida and Piñgalā respectively. The left side system (in the right handed man) caters to the emergencies of the active consciousness (extra efforts and emergencies) and the right side system, (medically they say it remains dormant), caters to the subconscious mind of the psyche (libido).

Haṭha Yoga comes from words Ha and Tha, meaning the Sun and Moon. Both these sympathetic nerve systems are called as the Sun and Moon channels (i.e. Sūrya Nāḍī and Chandra Nāḍī). By this Yoga, you can control the activity of the sympathetic i.e. you can use more energy that is stored or else completely stop the activity of the sympathetic for a short time. By using the stored energy you cannot achieve eternal flow of the Divine. With control over the sympathetic you can slow heart rate or even stop heart for a short time and may achieve all physical gross symptoms of parasympathetic but you cannot activate the parasympathetic which is the channel for your real Yoga (meeting of the Divine). With Haṭha Yoga you may even control your mind. But the mind thus governed is heavily conditioned for the spiritual fight into the Divine. One may keep good health and good mind to be a good citizen in a society but that is not the only aim of life.

Both sympathetic and parasympathetic act on the plexuses but in opposition to each other i.e. the parasympathetic relaxes the plexuses but the sympathetic squeezes the energy by constricting them. One fills in the vitality and the other consumes it. There is a gap in the parasympathetic nervous system (Suṣhumnā) but no gap in the sympathetic nervous system at the navel point. This is the hurdle that has rendered all our search and entry into the parasympathetic fruitless so far. It is like three ladders, two of them touching the ground while the central one is hanging in the air.

So whenever we try to rise in our consciousness, we move on to the sympathetic system. If we pass towards the left side we enter into the activity which goes on bloating in the balloon of ego. Thus we feel responsible and active. When this activity increases beyond limits, like a growing tree whose roots are not equally grown, the being falls to the ground. Over activity of sympathetic nervous systems causes tensions, sleeplessness and ultimately all deadly diseases like cancer which are caused by the constricted plexuses which are drained out of their energy. If you make parasympathetic dominate left side, then we can antidote the effects of over activity and all the diseases and the effect caused by this side get cured automatically.

The right side sympathetic nervous system (libido) has the power to store all that is dead in us. It connects you with store houses of the subconscious mind and also with the collective subconscious (Bhūtlok or Parlok). At the backside of the brain at the apex of this channel the super ego exists like a balloon. It becomes heavy by storing, the conditioning of the mind through libido.

So if the tension is heavy it breaks the super ego into many fragments. If you still over exert by conditioning a partial vacuum is created and this sucks another dead personality from the collective subconscious (Paralok) in your super ego.

So in your pursuit of truth if you take to further efforts and indulge in concentration in training of mind or forced abstinence or forced meditation or complete slavery to emotional attachment of the mind, the libido with the aid of the affected super ego may connect you to the collective subconscious (Paralok) where all dead souls, bad, good or saintly, exist. These souls start manifesting through you and you get Siddhis or extra sensory perceptions. Actually these are the different subtle (dead) personalities dominating us through super ego.

There is another method which may be effortlessly employed by many so-called teachers by which they turn the “Chakra" in the direction of the libido and this can put you into your subconscious. This method either makes this aspirant go into a trance or accept the complete domination of the dead spirits introduced by the teacher through the plexuses.

In the first case the Sādhaka feels relaxed, his mind is switched off, but after a few years of practice, he realises his weakness that he cannot face reality and he takes to heavy drugging. In the second case, the aspirant becomes a complete slave of the teacher and starts giving away all the material possessions to the teacher without understanding the logic behind it. These teachers never explain the technique they have employed nor do they give their powers to anybody else. In short all efforts that you put in the name of religion or mishandling of Kuṇḍalinī by so-called realised people, can only activate sympathetic nervous system (Ida and Piñgalā) that cannot make any progress to bring about the play of parasympathetic (Suṣhumnā).

All mesmeric powers such as materialisation power (enslaving masses for money power or fame), visionary powers (Dṛiṣhṭi Siddha), speech powers (Vāṇi Siddha), curing powers, transcendental feeling (power of switching off the mind), separation of body and many other powers are very ordinarily found among those who practice the control of spirits (Preta-Siddhi or Shmashāna Vidyā). All such powers can be proved as powers of the dead in any one of our experimental Centers.

These are no Divine powers because the Divine has no interest in these gross subjects. It is only interested in the miracle of the inner being and its further manifestation to bring about human evolution.

Thus those who indulge and use their attention (i.e. Chitta) on such “Siddhis" and those who run after such gross miracles find it difficult to follow “Sahaja Yoga".

We have noted that when such people confront “Sahaja Yoga", they start trembling and shaking like lunatics who also behave in the same way. If with very great difficulty such a person reaches the state of Self-realisation, he completely loses all interest in such powers and in their exhibition. Actually then he is freed of all extra dead personalities who dominated him. There is no need to pass through the subconscious strata to jump unconscious. The subconscious is an end by itself and one gets lost who enters into its realms. These stratas [strata] are placed vertically and the only direct way is through parasympathetic through Suṣhumnā, the central path which takes you to the Divine, the universal unconscious through “Sahaja Yoga".

It is very dangerous to use the powers of the subconscious which may become uncontrollable and torture the practitioner and Sādhaka. Those who are temporarily benefitted may suffer irreparable loss to body, mind or grace.

All religions have promised inner silence when you reach the state of Self-realisation, the inner miracle of the subtle awareness and not gross jugglery. The Gītā says that you become the witness (Sākshī Swarūp) of the play of Divine. Many modern thinkers are also talking about the new awareness. This has also been described as `thoughtless awareness' which results in collective consciousness. We hear of many prophesies made by ancient and modern writers about the evolution of a new race of super human beings of unique awareness. These are no more empty words.

Through the discovery of “Sahaja Yoga" it is possible to achieve the transformation of the human consciousness to higher planes promised by the various seers.

The subject of Kuṇḍalinī is no more a book knowledge. You can see with naked eyes the breathing of the Kuṇḍalinī at the Mūlādhār and also can feel the different “Chakras" existing in the spinal cord with your fingers. Formerly, bridging the gap in the “Suṣhumnā" was the insurmountable problem but it is being discovered that if this gap could be filled with the vibrating power of Divine Love, the Kuṇḍalinī rises like a majestic mother and breaks the apex of the brain (Brahmarandhra) without giving the slightest trouble to child (Sādhaka). It happens in a split second in the short-spell between two successive thoughts.

Of course, if the aspirant (Sādhaka) is diseased or his “Chakras" are constricted by over-activity of the sympathetic nervous system, the Kuṇḍalinī being the mother of every individual and embodiment of love, knowledge and beauty knows how to reveal her love beautifully and to give rebirth to her child without causing any hurt.

There are many descriptions about Kuṇḍalinī warning us against the dangers and perils of the “taming" of Kuṇḍalinī. Also many books describe various gross or frightful experiences of the Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

Actually this is caused because Kuṇḍalinī cannot rise without the “Sahaja Yoga" i.e. if it is tried to be awakened by someone who is not Self-realised, the Kuṇḍalinī does not leave her seat or else without the proper invitation the Kuṇḍalinī becomes adamant and angry. Thus the sympathetic gets into activity.

When she is accused of sex, she sends heat waves over the sympathetic nervous system which causes the constriction or blockage of the plexuses and the path of the Kuṇḍalinī is completely broken down.

Sometimes one gets into funny gesticulations or loses complete awareness of the outside. Moreover with mishandling of “Chakras" and Kuṇḍalinī due to the ignorance or greed of the teacher, the chances of realisation of the aspirant can become very poor and sometimes impossible.

The mind that is very much conditioned or the mind which is the slave of self-indulgence or of egoistic actions and thoughts is also a very slow conveyance for “Sahaja Yoga". Even if you read too much about the deconditioning of the mind, you may get only conditioned; if you try to decondition by efforts, you can become conditioned much worse than what you were. Deconditioning is only possible through Divine Love. The main condition of the “Sahaja Yoga" is that your will and freedom are all the time respected.

In “Sahaja Yoga" the person is fully aware and alert and receives inner silence and experience without doing any unnatural movements. He sits in a completely easy pose throughout or he may also lie down (Sahajāsana or Shavāsana). The breathing is normal or less than normal.

Religions are also the expressions and experiments of the realised Souls, the seers. They also talk about the inner being, second birth and about Self-realisation. In the beginning, in India, they tried to take the attention inside by introducing symbols that they saw of this unconscious universal being within. This gave rise to pantheism and aspirant's attention got stuck to the symbols (Sākār) and to rituals which killed the main objective.

So the other type of experiments of talking only about the abstract (Nirākār) gave rise to many other religions which ended up as dogmas or isms. The reason is obvious that talking about the flower or the honey cannot take you to the honey but can only create dogmatic isms in the mind. You have to be a bee to reach there i.e. you have to be reborn. This has to happen within, to take you inside.

It is too great an achievement and unbelievable but I feel the search of ages has brought great results.

The mind, with a child-like innocence achieves very quick results. Whatever may be the loads of the mind, if the longing is honest and earnest, sooner or later, the aspirant can get Self-realisation.

After reaching this state, the vibration start emitting from the extremities. They are described by Ādi Shaňkarāchārya in his work Ānanda Lahari.

These vibrations are the waves of Divine Love which can fill also other person's inner being and give him same experience of Self-realisation. This is how the chain reaction starts. One light enlightens another.

The physical manifestations are as follows: The pupils of the eyes get dilated. (Parasympathetic action); The face becomes radiant; the body becomes light; The tension is completely removed; Rising of the Kuṇḍalinī can be seen by others and felt by the aspirant; First the throbbing is clearly felt at Sahasrār (apex of the brain) and when it stops, the complete silence is felt within and in all awareness; The flow of the grace is felt coming down, cooling the whole being. As the attention moves to the subtle, the gross attachments drop out. A person gradually loses identification with falsehood and artificiality. In the matter he sees beauty and not its possession value; In the knowledge he identifies himself the truth and he is not afraid to profess, nor does he indulge in the double standards of life; His flow of love becomes spontaneous; generous, without any tingle of attachment, possession or any return and, the person becomes ageless, a hollow personality.

Now let us see what happens inside.

The attention of the consciousness moves to inner being (Kuṇḍalinī). As the thread (Sūtra) of a necklace is passing through every bead of the necklace, the inner consciousness (Kuṇḍalinī) is also passing through every human being.

As soon as our attention moves to our inner consciousness we can move on to the everybody's Kuṇḍalinī.

One starts feeling the Kuṇḍalinī, its nature, its position in other persons. Collective consciousness is thus established. Now you become a universal being. After some days you cannot say who is the other person? The power of love is so great and dynamic that with the movement of your fingers you can move the Kuṇḍalinī of thousands. It becomes child's play.

This is how the en masse evolution of human beings will take place. These are the signs of advent of Golden Age of Truth (Satya Yuga). Let us forget whatever hardships we have suffered in our search in the past. It does not matter if some could not find it before this. You have to open your mind and understand that though the discovery is unprecedented it does not make any seeker or predecessor small.

If some experiments are made it does not matter if ultimately we have found out the way. It is a collective achievement. Perhaps in the chaos of Kali Yuga it was to happen and many of us, who have been earnestly searching it in many lives, are reborn to have their promises fulfilled by the Divine. May be we were our predecessors.

On the tree of life there might have been very few flowers but now the blossom time has come. Their fragrance of longing has collectively materialised the manifestation of Sahaja Yoga. Many are going to jump into the realm of thoughtless awareness where you get introduced to yourself and start identifying with your universal nature. Those who deserve will get the throne of their inner being which rules the skies of peace and the oceans of Divine Love and supreme knowledge within, which is limitless (Anant).

Contents: 1979-05-05 Sahasrāra Pūjā, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

So today is a very, very important day, you know that, because in the history of creation, you know, till the time of Christ, in the human awareness, only the sense of resurrection was created, that you can be resurrected or you can be reborn. That sense came down with them. I mean, people recognized it that it could happen to all of us, sometime. But it did not happen, actualisation never took place. That was a problem.

And without you entering into the Reality whatever one may talk about, it sounds imaginative.

So, one has to jump into the Reality, into the Truth. This never had happened before and, as I have told you, that, if it had happened to one or two people it makes no difference, at all, to the masses and nobody accepts it. And like the small little river flowing in the desert it disappears in the thin air. The Truth also, whatever was found out, never had any roots. And all kinds of funny things started, with this reality, which these people preached.

So it was to be the culmination of human consciousness, where he becomes one with the Divine, that he becomes one with himself. It was to happen. And that too was to happen at the time, which was most opportune, the best time. Because, unless and until the human desire is very strong, the human will is very strong and is asking for the Reality, the Reality does not go into action. Other things, of course, as far as the creation is concerned, creating the animals and all the trees and the fruits and flowers, all these things are done. But the human evolution could not have matured earlier because there was not so much of seeking.

So when the time came, when the necessity was so great, that the necessity itself brought forth Sahaja Yoga.

And it happened that I really saw the Sahasrāra. Of course, you know there's a difference between your Sahasrāra and Mine. And I saw the Sahasrāra, which is the Great Sahasrāra, opening out beautifully. And the petals were just like flames, rounded flames, not like flames but rounded ones, rounded beautifully coloured flames of different colours. That's why I wore today a blouse of many colours and a sarī of many colours. Because I saw so many permutations and combinations of these. It opened out so beautifully. And as if every petal was individually, absolutely complete and perfect, but so integrated at the base. And the way it opened out and the movement was so rhythmic and so harmonious. There was no problem. Such a harmony was between them. No fluctuation anywhere, as if they were dancing to the tune you see, they opened out.

And the colours, all spread out their light around the aura. And in the center I saw the Āgñyā [UNCLEAR], or you can say the Sun colour and all the Chakras from there also emitting out, but the Chakras were darker in shades and they were emitting.

So dark that they were all looking blackish, you see, so dark, sort of condensed colour they had. And they were also emitting light all over. And the light, as soon as the whole thing opened out, the light absolutely spread out and then I said “It's done” it can be done.

So, first I had to open out My Sahasrāra itself, then your Sahasrāras could be opened out. And then I felt that, a tremendous flow of My grace, started flowing.

So much grace even upon Me, My own face, like torrential rain, you see, on Me. Absolutely I was so drenched in that joy, really I was lost, absolutely lost.

Sort of, I felt that the whole creation is now resounded with that Universal Consciousness, just like that.

Everything was finished, only the joy was permeating. It was such a beautiful time. And then I started My work.

But as you know, in the beginning, it's very difficult to talk about these things. To begin with it is very difficult for a person to say that `I am such and such.' It's a very embarrassing stuff, it's extremely embarrassing to tell someone. I mean if you have some power, or something you feel shy to talk about it, you just don't want to stand out and be singled out, you see. You feel so lonely about it and you don't want to mention it to anyone. I managed it for quite some time, but when the Sahasrāra opened out, I knew that I will have to come out in My true colours. Of course, not yet, I have not yet come out because that would be terrible, you see. But as it is when the Sahasrāra opened out I realised that the instrument is now operative.

So this Instrument that is before you is the Instrument by which you are going to know the Truth, you can find out the Truth now, through this Instrument of Mine. Because through this Instrument you will get your Kuṇḍalinī awakened, you'll get your realisation and through your vibrations you will be able to know the Truth. You already know that the rapport between you and the Truth has started. You can ask any question and you get the answer.

So first of all the Truth will be known and that Truth, once you know, will be followed by another dimension of that Truth and another dimension. And I knew a stage will be reached where I will have to give the whole of it and the whole of it you know what it is. But this Instrument has a special thing about it because Sahasrāra is, the essence of Sahasrāra, is integration, is Ekāgratā –'one-pointedness'. I have told you what is Ekāgratā: that is all the holes of all the needles if you put together and thread them together that is called as Ekāgra: `Agra' means the end, `Eka' means one. All the ends are put through one string. Now what does this means? In a very subtle way if we understand that all the Chakras are threaded into My Being. That means all types of patterns that have been created, all types of religions, all types of faiths, all types of ideas, all types of enterprises, science, Yogas, everything! All of them are threaded in this Being.

So supposing you are a Haṭha yogi, then you have to just ask question, `Mother, are You Haṭha Yoga?' finished. If you are doing Rāja Yoga, you just ask, `Mother, are You Rāja Yoga?' If you are a Christian, just ask, `Mother, are You Christ?' If you are a Muslim you just ask, `Mother, are You the Prophet?' Say now, even if you are people who do not believe in God, say, `Are You the Abstract Image? Are You Buddha? Are You Mahāvīra?' All of them are with Me.

So that all of you, wherever you may be, whatever you might have developed, nothing is wasted, but is given a proper meaning.

But with that meaning you will be integrated with others also, because there's One Personality, which has all these within. Like one thousand names of one Goddess.

So automatically they will be integrated.

You can be a Hindu, you can be a Muslim, you can be a Christian, if you want to call yourself something like that. But once you become a Sahaja Yogi you are all integrated. You can go to Church, if you want to, you can go to a Mosque if you want to, but you know who is the person who is there. Do you follow that point? This is the essence of Sahasrāra. And for that reason we have to give up our misidentifications. Like if you say, `I am a Christian,' then how are you a Christian? `I am Church of England,' that's not the way to understand. You are a Christian, alright. Then you are following Christ, because I am Christ.

If everybody is following one lamppost, you can say, then they are all integrating. You may seek from one angle another may seek from another angle. But by this integration you will realise that The Light is the same.

So all these years, the way people have been fighting and quarrelling, all that is going to be absolutely neutralised. This is the beauty of integration is. Anywhere in the world whatever they are following can be answered. But supposing it's some sort of a falsehood thing, like voodoo, then, then I am not that, of course not. I am not falsehood.

Whatever is the Truth, whatever you have followed something which is called as Truth, which is called, also. In the sense, like Christianity is not Truth, Christ is the Truth. But if you are a Christian and followed Christ in a false way, because following pope is not following Christ at all. Or say, becoming a Church of England, this thing, is not following Christ. But, if you have been following Christ, even through Church of England, it's alright. Even through pope is alright. Because now, you have found out the Truth.

So this was a very important and a crucial day I would say, the 5th of May. And it all happened very dramatically, extremely dramatically, that, you see, I went to a program, not a program, but I went to find out about one of the horrid Rākshasas places, to see what sort of a thing he was about to.

And of course I had made My own arrangements and I stayed in a friend's place. But I went to the camp to see what he was doing. What was he up to, you see. In a very simple innocent way you see, he could never have guessed that I was up to some mischief! Extremely simple and innocent. I look so innocent don't take Me for that, you see, I am very clever! So I went down and the fellow thought Me to be a great disciple of his and all that. [Laughing.] So, then I went to the seashore and I saw what he was up to, you see, I was so angry, she said, “Now, what is it?" I said “I must hurry up. It has to be done now, it's no more time needed because just see what is he up to!" He was working on a very bad... very on a Chakra, which is to be worshipped and I felt that I must do something about it. And really it happened, that I could just open out the Sahasrāra.

[Then] I said “That's it!" you see. You see, because as you must've heard that Goddess has no, She's Nishprayojana, She's purposeless, She has no purpose at all. But, if the purpose comes in Her way then She may do something. But She doesn't have Her own purpose, She's absolutely purposeless, useless! Without any desire. Imagine! Without any attributes also. What a thing and a half you see, whatever it is! Such a personality when It is faced with a demand like that, comes up with its form.

So now you understand from there that, on this Sahasrāra day, you have to also demand. I want you to demand and ask, because I have no desire. And you just go ahead! You have all the rights to demand from Me. And ask for the biggest and the highest and the most fantastic and the most dynamic that you want to do. Put up your minds and heads together and ask for something big. This is a very great day today; go home, think about it. Collectively also you decide.

I'll go now.

So then you decide and put a demand and it could be done! Now, thy will be done, not Mine.

So, I will make a move now. I hope all of you will come on the 7th and bring all your friends and all that. We might get a big crowd, I can't say. But crowd is a crowd you see. Sahaja Yogis are Sahaja Yogis.

You might get a big crowd out of which, you see, we put in them in the sea you'll find only two remaining back.

So Sahaja Yogi is different. We might get a crowd I don't know depends on Caxton Hall maybe, I don't know because [UNCLEAR]. Thanks to Caxton Hall Meeting that My children lost all their seats and all their [UNCLEAR].

Douglas Fry: I thought something would come of it.

Shri Mataji: Ha ha! You knew that.

Douglas Fry: I knew something funny would happen, it had to!

Shri Mataji: There is a saying that `When the fox has to die, he runs towards the city.' Then they told Me they are coming to the Caxton Hall I said, “Very good idea. You see that's a very good trap." And not a single person, all of them lost their vibrations.

Sahaja Yogi: They went down.

Shri Mataji: You See hatred is not going to work out anything. It's nice, in a way this lady has also come, let's see, she's after all a woman and we can work on her though she is also very proud.

Sahaja Yogi: She has a lot of ego.

I shook hand with her, raised her Kuṇḍalinī and the speed with which it raised wow! I'll raise her Kuṇḍalinī all right. Don't say. Not much hope from her but you see. We might get a good group. There's Lord Hailsham you see, I met him in a dinner very, very intimate dinner we had. Doctor Nagendra Singh was there and he told that She is a very big spiritual leader of India, this and that. He said, “If you want to know anything about Truth, She'll be able to tell you." He said, “I know all about the Truth." So he [Doctor Singh] asked Me, “What do you know about this one?" I said, “His Kuṇḍalinī is frozen down below there." He was a very proud fellow you see, “I know all about Truth” imagine to say that.

Sahaja Yogi: Should I take some vibrations from you.

Shri Mataji: Nābhī, most of you have a left Nābhī...

Contents: 1979-05-07*, Public Program, Sahaja Yoga and Christianity, Bharatiya Vidyā Bhavan, London, UK

..... It is a very good question. Is Sahaja Yoga a religion? I will tell you what is a religion and what is Sahaja Yoga.

The idea of our religion, what we call as religion, is that you find certain truth about things like there was Christ, He lived on this Earth, He did this, He did that.

So some people take it up. They are not realised Souls. They have not felt the Divinity. They have not known what is Divine life. They pick up the authority among themselves. They organize it. Now this is the religion of Christianity. Same about Hinduism: some pandits get together. They have some dry discussions among themselves and they are not realised. They also never read Ādi Shañkarāchārya and they start a religion.

You cannot start a religion. The religion is within you. It is the religion of evolution. The religion is in your stomach. Do you know that? It is in your stomach existing now.....

It means that every human being has a sustenance. For example, gold has a sustaining power. Because it is untarnishable, we can say that is the sustaining power of gold. In the same way, every human being has got a sustaining power as a human being. If he does not have this, then he faults in his Dharma in his religion.

Whatever is false or falsely made is not a religion. That is why people are turning away from religion.

Religion exists in your stomach, but you can deny it, you can defy it, you can say that `I don't believe in it.' You can have cancer of the stomach because of that. You may have some disease because of that.

Fanaticism is not religion. Fanaticism is a disease. I am not talking of disease. I am talking of something that is within you.

So if you think evolution is a religion, then I would say Sahaja Yoga is a religion. If your evolution you call it as a religion, then Sahaja Yoga is a religion. But it is a religion which makes you beyond your sustenance, beyond your religion, Dharmātīt, beyond your Dharma.

We have among ourselves Hindus, Muslims, Christians, all creeds of people. You know That. All these people can feel it within themselves. It is the religion in their stomach. They can feel it. They can find out where is the religion because I say the religion in the stomach's looked after by the Deity of the Primordial Master, whom we call as Dattātreya in the Sanskrit language. That doesn't mean Hinduism.

It does not mean Hinduism at all. But He is called as Dattātreya in the Sanskrit language. In English He is the Primordial Master. He is the same who incarnated on this Earth as Moses, as Abraham and incarnated as Mohammad Sahib, as Rāja Janaka, as Nanaka and also as Shirdi Sāi Nāth. Can you believe that Mohammad Sahib is the same as our Nanak...? The living religion is within us..... Your religion automatically awakens and you just do not have to bother. Nobody has to tell you..... This is the religion that is within you, which is enlightened through Kuṇḍalinī and then it works out. But it is an absolute religion in the sense that you all feel the same. If you feel one finger, the other is also going to feel the same, so there is no argument about it. There is no argument...

When the enlightenment comes, when the balance comes in, when there is light within you, the darkness goes away, the darkness of the subconscious and of the supraconscious disappear and you become an enlightened person.

If enlightenment is the religion, then I would say Sahaja Yoga is.

So today we'll have a little introduction to Sahaja Yoga to begin with because there are some new people.

You have read in many scriptures that there is the power of God that works our everything. Moreover, a human being.....

Contents: 1979-05-24*, Public Program, Seeking and Rationality, Caxton Hall, London, UK

Every time we have some people who are new and I have to come with an introduction of the subject because after all it's a subject of the absolute knowledge. And if I suddenly start off then it will be difficult for you to follow it.....

Question: What is Self-realisation?

Shri Mataji: Connection of your attention with the Divine.

Contents: 1979-05-24* Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Seeking and Rationality, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

In our searching, we are asking for the actual experience. In all the scriptures it has been said that we will be born again. We are looking for a second birth which is within us. All the religions talk about it.

We have to stabilize ourselves to get the experience and it will work out. We search with our minds and rationality for the truth. This mind is not connected to the whole. We are not aware of the whole, we have so many problems. Thinking, unenlightened rationalisation and awareness are different. Rationality has all the time been living with the ego.

We can't separate the ego and rationality, neither are perfected nor mature. If we are mature enough to know why there are vibrations in the molecules, through rationality we cannot discover this. We cannot give answers to questions, e.g. Why are we human beings? We take too much for granted. If we try to rationalise everything we'll go mad. Our rationality is not mature enough, it is not enlightened. The `I' within us knows the rationality, but rationality doesn't know the `I'. We can't know each other's point of view. Why human beings are made out of an amoeba, through rationalizing and logic? The process has been worked out without any effort required. We breathe, our heart works, etc. without our doing anything. Therefore everything has to come spontaneously, like the sprouting of a seed. Only human beings believe in God, not animals. We haven't our fulfilment. People are seeking. The awareness is responsible for the seeking. We have to keep our rationality clear. I ask you not to believe Me, but not to deny Me because you can't rationalise.

Now is the time of blossoming and many are going to be converted and have fulfilment. Our instrument, existing on many different levels has started to become enlightened. We pass from gross to the subtle of Mother Earth. Subtle Mother Earth is fragrance. The cause of Mother Earth is the axis. Ultimately we go to the primordial cause, which is the spirit, the reflection of the God Almighty.

The real Gurus working in the forests and the great people like Moses and Abraham knew how difficult it was to raise Kuṇḍalinī. When people are authorized it is an easy thing to do for others. When it moves up the center and pierces the fontanelle bone, we achieve Self-realisation. We aren't even aware of what has happened to us, what we have achieved. It's so spontaneous and so simple but it's a very dynamic process, an all dimensional working, which makes the Kuṇḍalinī rise.

I am a simple housewife who has this unique technique, I am your teacher and can get us broken into the Unconscious. You mustn't be upset because of My simplicity. Jesus Christ was a carpenter's son. His Mother was an uneducated woman. Kṛiṣhṇa was a cow boy. When we find something like this, it is a beginning. Having been able to get our own power risen is enlightening our rationality. It is simple love.

Mother can't keep all her love to herself. Christ was crucified for us to have it and to understand what we have; understand the mechanism, master it and we can give light to thousands. To help them mentally, physically, emotionally and spiritually. Not to waste this wonderful gift. Our rationality will see the power flowing through us and we will enjoy the bliss and joy of this wonderful happening.

May God bless you!

Contents: 1979-05-27 Conversation with Sahaja Yogis, TM, False Gurus, Industrial Revolution, Christ, Go Slowly with New People, Seminar, Day 1, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

[Conversation with Sahaja Yogis is not clear: many parts are MISSING.]

Shri Mataji: Is all right for you to say because he is just there, you see. He was just to be raised when he came to Me, got it. [clapping with hand]. Then, I wish all of them have even that much of you it will work out.

Sahaja Yogi: Since then...

Shri Mataji: Yeh.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yeh.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hmm.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. We have to save them. You see, with TM My attention is very much there, very much there. Last time we solved the problem of that “Divine Light". That “Divine Light" is out now. Only have his brother, you see. I went to Geneva. I wanted to see TM also, but he, you see, it started raining and all that and I didn't go. We could have gone up to that place, would have been better, but doesn't matter.

So he, the brother, drove Me down to the center in Geneva and said he is the one, you know, that is wrong, that. I put a bandhan, within a week's, I mean, out in jail now and now fourteen years. Thank God. [UNCLEAR... started].

So all this works out this way.

So My attention is very much on TM these days, very much. And, if it works out...? So, here we are.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Very much.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Good. It's working through awareness. If it breaks, it will break completely. You'll see that. Because this is a bubble, this is just a bubble, it will go out.

So happy about it and this should happen. Actually, you see, even going of this Divine Life Center business. I do not know how many of them will come to Sahaja. That kind of... It's better that it works through your awareness, so that you come to Me. Otherwise you see that kind of a what you call, a removal of one person may not... They may still come to Sahaja Yoga, I don't know. Because Gregoire was saying he's going to start something in Geneva. Let's see [UNCLEAR if it will] work out.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. Yes, I mean your life will show that, see that you are different. Now, Douglas. Look at Douglas. If Douglas has impressed you, so you can imagine. Douglas can tell you what was his condition. He was in a mess because the poor fellow has been really tortured and troubled very much, was in a mess, absolutely in a mess when he came to Me. Ask him. He'll tell you. And now he's achieved this power that shows how great he is. See he was in a complete mess, you don't know.

My husband is very much impressed by Douglas. For one reason, he says, “Whatever You tell him, he just obeys. He never questions." I said, “That's something." He says, “He never feels bad." So, you see, one day he was watching TV for a long time. I said, “Douglas, not good for your eyes. See your eyes are very bad." Immediately he stopped it, went away. He said, “He didn't even take a second to think about it and he just stopped it and went away." “So” he said, “but what makes him do that?" I said, “Only thing he knows is that I do it for his good, absolute good. That's why. [UNCLEAR] he never feels bad, whatever you tell him." He's quite surprised at this. Surrendering I would say. The way he has achieved that power. That's the only way. You need to be very frank. That's how you achieve, no other way but that.

Now. Who's is this one? Yours. Are you better? You did how many years? Five years or eight years for Haṭha Yoga? Eight years?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Five years?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: It's five years? Sahaja Yogis: Yes. It's five years.

Shri Mataji: This is another problem, you see, this Haṭha Yoga. Very wrong.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes, absolutely wrong. You know, this is not Haṭha Yoga. Where is `ha' and where is `Tha' in it? Nothing.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. Oh God! Now I am going to stop it absolutely, anybody is... Yesterday, you see, that old lady was saying, “Mother, is it wrong to be non-vegetarian?" I said, “I don't mean that." But those who are not vegetarians, why you should force them to be vegetarians? I can understand, you see, certain meats are not good. Like I would say horses' meat, you see, is not good and it's a big thing, you know. Even cows' meat is very bad for the teeth, you see. That's how you lose your teeth here.

If I eat the cow's meat, immediately, by mistake also, I get a swelling on My [UNCLEAR]. Complete vibrations start flowing from My teeth here. All My gums become swollen up.

Sometimes even My lips have, when I've, when I take the soup becomes thickened like that.

So that means that there is something in the fibre that is bad for your teeth which spoils or may be vibrations-wise. I do not know whatever it is. But the horses' meat is the worst of all. Now they eat horses' meat, even in Yugoslavia?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes. That's why I must tell you that in Yugoslavia, I went and ate a salami and I said, “What's the matter with this salami?" So they told Me. “What you make out of it?" They said, “Horses." “Horses' meat?"

[Laughing.] Oh, I couldn't understand it. And they eat anything. Like in China they eat snakes, you see. There was a man, head of the Scientific Research Institute and he said, “You know why we are so brainy?" I said, “Why?" Said, “You know in my childhood I must have eaten at least fifty-six snakes." I said, “That's why you are brainy?" He said, “Yes, the serpents are very brainy people." I said, “But you don't want to become a serpent." “But, I want to become brainy." It is wrong to eat serpents. I mean, one should understand this. That's how they are, this I am telling you about the South Koreans. He is a South Korean. He has eaten so many serpents, you see. And he said, “Only Americans can be all right if they start eating serpents. See, they are all right, they are intelligent but they are not like serpents. That's why they are failing everywhere. If they could eat serpents they will be all right." So this is what is the analysis of people.

So this horses' meat you have to give up. All right? But you have to eat meat. No need to go to extremes. Like one side you will eat horses' meat, tiger's meat, every meat and on the other side you do not eat anything. You see, what am I going to do with the chicken, you tell Me? Why do you want to save them? Can I give them realisation with their two legs? What is the need to save the chicken? Save the human being.

[MISSING.] There's another vegetarian sitting down here. [Laughing.] Still you are?

Sahaja Yogini: No, I wasn't ever really.

Shri Mataji: So it's good. You have to just do it.

Sahaja Yogini: I was thinking about it when I met You but I never really did it.

Shri Mataji: I mean, they said, told Me, “Mother, we are cruel to animals." Something like that, you see. I said, “Now, don't worry about the animals, you see. Nothing dies." Of course, you can do it in a better way. You may not be cruel; you can do mechanically, something like that. But you have to live on them. You see, the body has to live on their meat. Part of it has to be there.

Now the other extreme of vegetarianism is, if you see, then you will know what it is. Like Jainism they have. I don't know if you have idea of Jains we have in India. Did you meet them anywhere? No? Thank God. See what they do is that they get all the bugs of the village in a hut. All right? And they put one Brahmin there and give him lot of money.

Sometimes they give him a house also, later on, if he comes alive out of that ordeal.

And they put all that in a hut and the Brahmin and lock it up. And the bugs are supposed to feed them on the blood of that Brahmin. Poor fellow, you see. And then they give him a house or a money or something. And is regarded as the greatest charity done. And everybody will pile up money for that, to give to the Brahmin, that he should give his blood to these bugs. Now what am I going to do with these bugs. [UNCLEAR I think] all these Jains are going to become nothing but bugs, I can tell you, in next life. That's what is due for them. Such foolish people. Why don't they understand? In evolution a man, human being is the highest. How much God has worked them from bug state to this state! And now to reduce the one Brahmin to a bug. See, you require at least billions of them.

So this is what it is: they have no sense of proportion, these vegetarians. I don't say that you should be gluttons also. I mean [UNCLEAR] I must give all the sides of it because people start going to the other extreme. Like, you see, some were starving and fasting.

So I said, “In Sahaja Yoga no fasting is allowed.

You are not to fast." In that also people have done lots of funny things. You know, this is all Tantrikism.

It's really surprising. Fasting. If somebody tells you to fast, you must give one real boxing on his face.

That's what they deserve. It is sign of a real devil. He tells you to fast. He should fast himself instead of telling everybody else to fast. It's a horrid thing to do, is to fast this way. Of course you can fast for your health or something, but in the name of God to fast is something so nonsensical; which I'll tell you how it works out. I mean it's not only silliness but it is cruel. It's very cruel to make people starve. And make them fast, you see, when they are hungry. This way, I will tell you how they do, fasting in India.

Like these horrible Brahmins we have in India. All these so-called Brahmins, you see they are all devils.

All of them are Rākshasas born as Brahmins, living on in all these temples, you see. One day these temples are going to topple down on them and they are going to be killed under these temples where they have earned money out of people. But apart from that, anything that they do is that they have started a new method of attacking people. Like, they have got fasting. Now in the fasting system is, the day when a deity is born, that is the day they say you will fast, just imagine. Now supposing a little child is born in the family in any Indian home, or any English home, or anywhere. What joy? See everybody celebrates it and makes it... Imagine the day Christ is born, you are asked to fast. I mean that is the day is of merriment. Of course, here is another extreme is that they all end up in pub. You see. [Laughing.] You see, so I want you to avoid all the extremes. Because that's not the point. What I'm trying to say is the day, say, Gaṇeśha is born. That is the day they will fast. All right.

So you start your fasting.

So what happen, Gaṇeśha goes mad, He goes mad. Now absolutely a concrete story I'll give you. There was one great Sahaja Yogi from Poona and he got a prostate gland problem and he was a great worshipper of Śhrī Gaṇeśha. He came to see Me. And My Prasad is channa. You must have seen channa that I give as a Prasad.... You haven't got some channa today? No? Will you? All right? Let's have it.

So I've prepared also channa for you today.

So this channa, I took it out and I said, “Take My Prasad." He looked around, because on that day you are not supposed to eat any cereals. [UNCLEAR]. It's not as a cereal but channa is not one of the things used for Prasad.

So the other fellow said, “Mother, today he doesn't eat anything." “Why?" He said, “Because today [UNCLEAR] is the birth of Gaṇeśha." I said, “Why? Why not on Gaṇeśha?" “Because the Brahmins have said so." I said,

So I said, “You eat it today because I tell you." And, imagine his prostrate was out. He was perfectly all right. Gaṇeśha got awakened into him.

On this point Gaṇeśha was angry that on His birthday instead of celebrating it, he is going into fast.

So that's why I say that these are devils. They have found out so many ways. You see, all these devils have entered into the rituals of Hinduism. And there are so many rituals in which they have put these things.

Sahaja Yogi: Christianity...

Shri Mataji: Christianity also, they have done it. But, you see, one thing about Christianity they have not done it so deliberately because perhaps they were possessed. But Indian ones are real ones, you know. They are the ones. They are not possessed. They are the devils. Here the Christians are possessed by devils.

So little bit excuse is there for them. But for example as I told you, in Westminster Cathedral, I lived facing. And in the afternoon the only activity is the beer barrels coming in and going out, you see. [Laughing.] I was surprised. This is the activity going on in the church, you see. Morning time all people going to the church and afternoon all that, the barrels, you see, coming in a truck and unloading and loading in the truck. I said, “How many barrels these people consume?" These are the priests. They just drink beer, I think, they don't drink water.

[MISSING.] [Aside]: I had. I had some coffee. Thanks a lot. No, I don't drink that. Thank you.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Bible, Popes rewrote the Bible].

Shri Mataji: A hundred percent.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: To a great extent. I have never read it, you see. But I know. And whatever now for example the other day, they told Me that... I said, “Why did they do this philanthropic work, these churches, missionary work?" Somebody told Me that they did, Mother, because once there was a, before Christ was crucified, they brought some oil. He was to be rubbed with some very expensive oil.

So Judas gave a explanation, saying that, “Why do you want to waste this oil? Why not sell it and give it to the poor?" you see.

So Christ said that “Poor are all the time with you, but I am with you for a short time." See, now in that they start a philanthropic work. I said that is that said that divinity is important and not this...

So I said, “Why did they follow this?" I mean, what He said was that divinity, the Divine life is much more important than looking after these poor. But they have used it in the opposite direction. I don't know. I have not read the whole of it but must be some books they must have read.

[MISSING.]

Sahaja Yogi:... I read it, Apocalypse...

Shri Mataji: Ha.

Sahaja Yogi: And suddenly when I read something I had such a terrible pain here in the center of the palm.

Shri Mataji: What was that?

Sahaja Yogi: I don't know, it was a description of the destruction of the universe. And the description was symbolized as a woman. That hurts me a lot. I don't know why.

Shri Mataji: Destruction was a woman?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes...

Shri Mataji: Let's see what's that. I would like to see that.

Sahaja Yogi: In the bible in the Apocalypse, she was called as the symbol of fornication and she was a symbol of a woman and a whore. And two pages before they were describing the woman as a Goddess.

Another Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

First

Sahaja Yogi: Yes. Of course. But I saw it myself that the description the same two pages afterwards hurt me so much that I had a pain here. Because I don't know if they mixed up the thing.

Shri Mataji: You see, they should have symbolized it as some sort of serpent or something would have been much better like it, but not as a woman or anything, you see. Because woman, that's very cruel.

But the destruction is going to come through Kalki.

[Aside:] [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: How soon?

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. No, not so soon. Don't ask for it. Because there won't be any emancipation then, you see [UNCLEAR]. We don't want that just now. Let's have more time to save all of you, all right? So we don't want Him just now.

[Aside:] Who else? We have to do a lots [UNCLEAR] before that. But is possibly. In the Bible also.

It's not a thing they have introduced. Yes we have to find out. You see because they wanted to put down women, might have been [UNCLEAR]. They have done all kinds of things. Here they have Mary and then they want to put Her down. And then the Protestants, you see, they wouldn't accept Mary as the saint. All sorts of things are there. And about Mary also very little is written down, [UNCLEAR about] her also. And it is in... I think because of the changing of all this... The languages have become very mysterious also for people to understand within the confusion.

[MISSING.]

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes. I think Julio give Me a little because everybody is having so I must have [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You see, the Bible, the first Bible that was written, has been turned. Actually this Bible is written five hundred years after Christ died. I don't think that is the only one. It is through the unconscious. It has been guided. All these scriptures are guided through unconscious.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: The unconscious manifests quite a lot. But still they try to do somehow. Like Islam, Mohammed Sahib said that “Now I am the last prophet. Now nobody is going to come and tell you." He just wanted to frighten people. That they should take to Dharma, so He said like that. Now these Islam people are using it as a... But imagine anybody who says that `I will never come to you,' and, `I will never do that,' like a father. You see, these horrible people again working it out in a different way.

So He has to come back.

I mean the incarnations are not obstinate people. He must have said it with the understanding that these people will do this, because if I tell them they will accept religion properly. But He sees all of them drinking, all of them going down, doing all kinds of wrong things in the name of God.

So He has to come back. How can you be obstinate? I only do like that many a times and say, `I will never go and meet you,' Then I go. Because that is love.

So what can you do? You forgive.

[MISSING.] He said? Just see his vibrations. His? Just let's see. He has right Heart. You're getting vibrations all right? You're getting cool vibrations?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. But [UNCLEAR] every day you're changing very fast.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Absolutely. I hope I'll be able to recognize your friend from Yorkshire. You better tell Me. All right? Otherwise he may feel hurt. But the way people change I really cannot recognize [UNCLEAR them].

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR] you're back? They've gone?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: The one who had to go to Cambridge?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: She decided to go earlier? Her smoking has gone down she said [UNCLEAR]. She smoked very few cigarettes.

Somebody asked Me the other day, “Why this time the power of Divinity is so much, so much that people are getting it?" I said, “But the other forces are also so strong that you have to increase this power, you see." The other forces are so very strong. You will see smoking, then drinking and all this, you see, spoils your being. From everywhere you see how much. There are sixteen horrible devils have taken birth, sixteen and six women who are the top people. Horrible. They have taken birth.

Can you imagine? How much force is needed to kill one Rākshasa?... was sufficient in one life. But here, just think of it. And they have entered into your own being. And how much force is needed. Inside out...

[Long Part MISSING.] Did he use this mantra, Narak’āsura Mardini, or something? Did they tell you any mantra for this one, for this Maheśh Yogi? Did some give you any mantra for this Maheśh Yogi...?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: What did he say?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Narak’āsura Mardini?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Sarvamantra Siddhi, Sarvamantra Siddhi and Narak'āsura Mardini. I think this Suraka Mantra Mardini was [UNCLEAR]. That's the reason you have got them steady still. I hope you get your friends down here. Yeah. That will be nice. Then I'll come to Yorkshire.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes I will I can. We have time to go out. Second of July, third of July, again. Apart from all other programs. Now Birmingham is fixed up [UNCLEAR] for David.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Is it?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You asked David that Mātājī has called you. He should come and see Me. Maybe one of these days. All right? David and... He said, "I'm free Mother." The other fellow, Philip. I said, "But you get well first of all." So David and Philip both can come. I like them [UNCLEAR]. I said Julio you can give Me a little tea. Because everybody is having so I should have, little bit.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: If so [UNCLEAR] was all right.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... don't want to trouble you.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yeh, You should ask Me questions, absolutely you should.

Sahaja Yogi: I'm interested...

Shri Mataji: What? You are interested in...?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... in the same line...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I'm going to talk about it. That's why...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Neither he, nor his Guru, nor their Guru...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All of Babaji...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... horrible...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... horrible, that Babaji was.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR] one of these Rākshasas [UNCLEAR] I don't know. [UNCLEAR] was the devil of devils. Babaji. They and this Yogananda's Guru was Lahari. And Lahari's Guru was this horrible fellow Babaji. Now this Lahari's grandson is in Bombay [Mumbai] and he came to see Me.

So he told Me, “Because I was his grandson, Mother, I became a Kriya Yogi and did all that nonsense of taking out my tongue and this and that and I did everything." Then he met another one, was this, em, who's that? Kṛiṣhṇamūrti. Was very much impressed by his personality and the way he talks and all that, you see. He plays those tricks. And he said that “This man is very good." He went to him. Then he became a Kṛiṣhṇamūrti fan, you see.

So he came to Me afterwards.

He said, “Now Mother You cannot cure me." I said, “Why?" He said, “On one side I'm a Kriya Yogi. Done forever. Then I went to another horrible one who was Kṛiṣhṇamūrti. I can give better speeches than Kṛiṣhṇamūrti can on the things of this [UNCLEAR] talk." And now he told about Lahari, Baba, his own grandfather.

And he said, “What upsets me, was the kind of man he was. He was a very materialistic person, very harsh, extremely cruel. They had no love for his children neither for his grandchildren, a very funny type of a person. And then I started thinking, `Why this fellow is such a big yogi when he has no love for anyone, he has not good to anyone? Why is he?' And so I went this another one. And there I became an expert orator. I speak very well. I give big lectures about him. I talk, talk, talk, talk, talk and nothing happens to me. Now, can you save me, Mother?" He came to Me. You'll be surprised. Till today we have not been able to maintain his Kuṇḍalinī awakening. It comes up and goes down because suction is too much in him. Poor fellow. Every time I go to India he comes down, quietly sits down. Still we have not been able to fix it.

So Bodi, one of My disciples, was so fed up with him.

He said, “Now I'm going to get a nail to put it on his head so that will fix up the Kuṇḍalinī there." Poor fellow now so unhappy, very unhappy. But what to do? He said, “I can give better speeches than all these people put together. But what to do?" He said, “I used to pretend I'm very subtle, I'm very sensitive, I understand this. I used to do all that. Now I realise that it is all pretension." [UNCLEAR.]

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Are they really manifestations of...]?

Shri Mataji: Nirvikalpa.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: No not at all.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: They said, “They are Nirvikalpa." In a way they are. Because Vikalpa means doubt.

They have no doubts about themselves that they are the greatest crooks, you see.

So they are in Nirvikalpa [laughing]. That way you can say they are in Nirvikalpa.

Now we have had great saints in our country, no doubt. Even a person, like wiki. What a great saint we had! And he was in the same line as Macchindranāth, Gorakhnāth, then Gñyānīnāth and then his father there was [UNCLEAR]. And he initiated him and we had a great Guru-parampara [UNCLEAR], Guru tradition in that Nāth Panthi. Even he, Gñyāneśhwara, who was a realised Soul, no doubt and his brother was really a very great saint. Even he, when he writes about the Kuṇḍalinī awakening, he doesn't do the way you Sahaja Yogis do. I wish you could read Marathi; I could make you understand. And how he has raised the Kuṇḍalinī, what happens, he could give realisation to two people in his life time. You see.

So, you can imagine that these devils, they talk of divinity. For people like them also it was not so.

So what these people are talking about? I mean is not even the particle of that ocean, not even the particle.

But they are just talking about. You cannot achieve it at all, by any chance. They cannot go near.

[MISSING.]

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] Maharishi.

Shri Mataji: Yes, he can talk of these things, you see. But, if God is like that, you see, so He will bestow His powers in you. You have to be also omnipotent in a way. If you are one with Him and you have to be omnipresent and you have to be all doing. But it is just the other way round. Instead you limited yourself and you don't know where you are going to land and hanging in the air, you cannot control yourself. While in Sahaja Yoga you control everything. Sitting down here you can give vibrations to your mother, to your father, to anyone. You see, if you are doing all, then you should be able to do it.

But you cannot even control your own movements there. He just lifts you, you hang in the air. You fall down. Now, why do you need these things? I can't understand that.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You see, I mean, apart from that it is so evitable to see that you do not need... It is so evident that you people do not need these things, because already you are raised from this earth by your 81 planes, you have gone now to moon. Now what more do you want? It is so clear-cut. Because, you see, if you understand that this is tomfoolery, that's the way you are going to solve it. It's just playing tricks on you. That's all...

If you are omnipresent, all right, that is you are present in everyone, all right, you are. You can feel the vibrations of everyone. When I move My hand like this [UNCLEAR] on your hands you feel the Cool Breeze on your right hand, or left hand. [UNCLEAR] I'm moving My own hand, I am giving this, you are feeling on your left hand. Now on your right hand.

Sahaja Yogi:.....

Shri Mataji: Oh God! Alright, so now I take all your guilt upon Myself, now you forget it, alright.

And I forgive you and I give you all My grace. You see, the one who carries the, guilt is your Ego. Alright? And if there is no Ego who is going to carry your [UNCLEAR... Can you hear Me?] There it is? You see, if the hand has no Ego, the hand is [UNCLEAR alright]. Alright then whatever the hand does is My job? Is My responsibility. [UNCLEAR]. Put your right hand on the heart, right. See, the advantage of guilt is this much, is that you correct it, that's all. But one should not allow it to be a guilt One should... supposing this is the mistake you've committed, then if you realise that it's a mistake then you try and correct it. But if you allow it to become a guilt you'll never correct it and you will enjoy that guilt even.

It's an indulgence.

[GAP]... your spiritual being is all moving in a linear direction in all the sides, you see and this is the movement is achieved because of [UNCLEAR… lated] you have done to yourself, I mean with science we have become nothing but different parts within ourselves, you see.

So, like as I always say that you have to have two doctors for one nose, for one side is one doctor.

So, but if so, if you have one common point between all of them like we had in India, you see from ancient time is God. God is the centrifugal force, you see, that is what you have to achieve, you see.

So, whatever may be the movement outside you have to go up and up towards God you can say like a pillar it is and on the pillars is, say, you have to come up, reach God. Now, for that, you may go on the left and right but the attention should be on the central path is to, how to rise to God; and this is the real way a living thing always moves, see: living.

Dead things move in one direction but living things move in all directions. But the central thing, the central nucleus is kept intact. The whole has, whatever is the whole has a connection with the center and from the center the movement starts, you see. You never leave the center and you are always coming back to the center, you see, whatever you achieve on the periphery goes back to the center. And like that, like the amoeba whatever experiences it has goes back to the, is [UNCLEAR kept] back into the center, the nucleus.

So nucleus again grows, you see, it becomes, it divides and then it improves and it evolves like that.

So, when you move on all the sides and give all that knowledge whatever you have from periphery back to the center, you see, the center then starts evolving, the nucleus starts developing, the chromosomes start [UNCLEAR], you see, the number of chromosomes increases gradually till you become a human being.

This is the way evolution is which is a living process again, it's not a process which can be brought out by thinking which is a linear process, you see. Linear process cannot bring forth the evolutionary living growth. That you can see in an ordinary cell or group of cells, whatever it is. If there are group of cells it will have a, some central point, you see.

So, all the group of cells will work it out, leave it to the central point, give all good things and the central point will also tell all these, uh, sub-points in every cell and then they will be connected.

So, this is the way it works out while linear movement is similar type and only one movement like this, you see it has, uh, all the information and goes on collecting information, collecting information, never reach back. And even if it tries to feed back it again moves in the same direction, does not take, uh, the advantage of the rest of it. You see, this is the way the linear movement is.

In mental, of course, adventures, you see, what you do is to go find out something and then you keep it back, society's fed back again and then the society also gives you information about that problem and then again you move in this linear way. Also on the social plane also if you see it works out the same way.

Societies are grown also the same way, but, what I mean to say, that the plane of mental activity is separated from the social activity. The plane of the social activity is separated from the spiritual activity.

So there are different planes, they work on different planes, so the movement is all the time on that plane only and there is no co-relationship between all these things with central path.

Now, when, say, this is, supposing which has to be a living process, so first human beings were born, say, in a country like India.

So, they just thought that we are faced with the matter, we have to know what is in the matter, how the matter is to be controlled, [UNCLEAR handled by us], how are we going to overpower it, how are we [UNCLEAR] to use it? So, the first is they have to fix the point because if they move too much they'll be [UNCLEAR drift] out, you see and what is the point is the Īshwara, the Supreme Being, that's what they achieved. Then in that time, in the beginning they did not talk even of Shiva, or many Gods, or Deities, nothing.

So, this I'm telling in ancient time when the Upanishads were written, or the Vedas were written.

So the first problem to the man was: `How to handle the elements?' So they started putting God there.

Now God must be having His own, uh, deities in the elements.

So they started finding out which are the deities of the elements. Because first problem was of the elements.

So then they discovered Varuna and they discovered Indra and they discovered all other like for the, uh, Savitā for the sea and all that.

So, they discovered all the deities that are controlling the elements. In the science this is negated, nobody believe in any deities or... Because they thought if you have to move from God, then, say, supposing if you have to go from the president downward then you have to find out up to the district level also who is the district officer. You see if you move that way. But if you have to move from the other hand that you just go to the [UNCLEAR minister... what will you have? You see, nothing]. You'll have no information that way.

So they thought, first of all we must go to the deities of the elements.

So we must excite and we must, uh, invoke the deities.

So they sat down to find out what are the mantras by which we can really invoke.

So then the Śhrutis were improved and Smṛitis were improved and they started exciting these mantras.

Now, simultaneously, at the same time, you see, there was also left hand side acting. This is the right hand side acting, as you know the elements are on the right hand side.

So left hand activity was there, was also Bhakti . The Bhakti is devotion to God and you must worship God and they, all that was there.

So both things were put together. That there is a heart movement also and the brain movement.

So they started going to the supraconscious area, trying to find out about the Sun, about the Moon, now this is what they... Sūrya Maṇḍala and the Chandra Maṇḍala and all these things they tried to find out, then what is the subtle deities which work out this movement you see.

They went up to the Aṇu, Paramaṇu. Aṇu is an atom, Paramaṇu is a molecule, they went up to that and by the time it was Rāma's age, you see, the mastery over matter was great. You know Rāma went by a plane, a [UNCLEAR] to Ayodhya and they say that there were 268 [UNCLEAR] in that plane and there were no machines, you see, only the [UNCLEAR] there will move the thing and they had the pilot-less bombs in Mahābharāta if you read the war in Mahābharāta you will be surprised the kind of weapons they had. And [UNCLEAR Yuddhas] is the siege, sieges, you see: how to plan the siege, how to plan a siege that the army cannot get out. Now they were only five Pāṇḍavas who had to fight Kauravas who were so many of them. Apart from that they had a big army.

So Kṛiṣhṇa was very clever. They went to Kṛiṣhṇa and both of them said that: “You are equal to both of us, so you cannot take sides." So He said: “Correct, I cannot take sides, so what should we do?" He said: “There are... You see, we would like to have Him for him. [UNCLEAR] to help him." He said: “Now, I can divide Myself in two halves: one is Myself and one is My army. Now whosoever wants Me can have Me and whosoever wants My army can have My army." So, you see, like fools these Kaurava said: “We'll now have your army." While Pāṇḍavas said we'll have you. And He said: “Yes, but one thing: I'm not going to take... And they said the compulsion is that you are not going to take any armour in your hand [UNCLEAR] no weapon nothing. I'm just going to do the chariot's job for Arjuna." Imagine.

And that's how they fought the war.

So because Pāṇḍavas were blessed by Kṛiṣhṇa they had all the supraconscious powers with them and that's how they knew all the Chakra Bhima.

Abhimanyu, you see, was a great general expert on Chakra Bhimas and he heard his father telling Draupadi about the Chakra Bhima, you see, when she was pregnant. And he heard that time and remembered, but ultimately it, the end of it.

So he failed and he died somehow [UNCLEAR]. Young son. Now this Abhimanyu was the son of Arjuna, see.

Now, all this shows that they were very developed people. They had pilot less bombs, they had guided missiles and all that, you see. Even Rāma used to send guided missiles. From Lanka He went to, from there He could guide them going up to Rāvaṇa to kill him directly. All these weapons.

But simultaneously the left side was also working It's not only the right side was working. Even on the right side there were many [UNCLEAR]. For example, on the side of the men, it was, uh, they were doing these Havanas. Now what is this Havan normally is, normally is? Is the, is to control all the Grahas, you see, all the planets. Because if you control the planets you can control [UNCLEAR].

So all the Navagrahas –'nine planets' they will make and worship them. Then all these Sūrya, Chandra and all these Maṇḍala, all these they would worship and offer them things.

Then fire worship was another thing: to worship fire because if you worship fire you can control fire, you see. And then to worship water also, worship Ākāśha, all these things are, ether. All the elements are to be worshiped and to get to the, to get to the [UNCLEAR] we can call it.

So for example if I want to have the Sun, I don't have to bother, [I tell the Sun and it is there, you see]. I can ask the rain to stop, I can ask the Sun come in, I can do whatever I please if I want, you see it is very easy because they're under My command, you see. I just call them, they're there. But because they were not under your command, so the human beings started working on their sides: means to command the Sun, how to command the Moon. And they did like Parāśhar Muni had the power to control the Sun, he had the power to control the Sun, you see, there's a story about him Vyāsa's father Parashar muni. But he did not understand everything which he should have understood, it was of move towards the right hand side movement, you see.

Now, this movement started with Yagñya and and all that and the Śhrutis and Smṛitis and describing all the Maṇḍalas, how to get [UNCLEAR] the Maṇḍalas and all that. They also went up to this point that they could find out the mines under the earth, you see, in those days, imagine. There were no mines, I mean there were no way of finding out the mines also there was, uh, you see, now you have such instruments to find out all these things but there were no such things to find out. How you can find out the mines? We have so much of gold in our country. From where did they get it? Then how did they fish out the pearls? And they had much more wealth than we have now in that country, you see. And how did they built these big houses? And they created Māyā Nagaris and all kinds of things, you know, if you switch on a [UNCLEAR] it will come out, the whole city will come up. If you switch off the whole city will disappear, again it would come up. Means like that they had all these things. If you read the Mahābharāta, how these people created, specially Draupadi...

Sahaja Yogi [interrupts]: Is this called Ṛitambhara Pragñyā?

Shri Mataji: Yes, they called as Ṛitambhara Pragñyā that Pra-gñyā. `Gñyā' is knowledge, `Pra' is enlightened, you see, this was the Ṛitambhara Pragñyā by which they discovered all these things and they could master it and they have really mastered all this. How? They had to develop it because there were two types of horrible forces which were going against them.

Means one of them is the elements and another was the demonic force, you see. And the generals had realised that, as there are deities, also we can use some horrible, these spirits.

So, they had mastered those spirits. Now there are some spirits that they could use like they can bring the [UNCLEAR whirlwind] they can create turmoil. There are some spirits if you know how to control them, they can bring these viruses, you see. This virus infection is nothing but dead, these are the spirits of the dead. See, so, they collected all the dead animals for spirits and then [UNCLEAR looked at] those spirits and then [UNCLEAR use] these spirits. They went to that side and that's how they [UNCLEAR were mastered] so they had to do something about these things so, uh, they wanted to master the deities which are residing in the elements so that they could [UNCLEAR harness] everything that was disturbing their [UNCLEAR].

So first then this was started. [UNCLEAR] I said, there were other planes.

On the right hand side also was another one where the wives, you see, the dedicated wives you can say the devoted wives as called as Sat... one are known as Yatis –'self-restrained' and other as Satīs –'virtuous'.

So, the ones who tried to find out about elements and overpower the elements and all those things, they, they were Yatis and the ones who tried to find out about, uh sought the mast... have the mastery with their will power, you see were the devoted women. They do master the [UNCLEAR elements] as well. Though the devoted women are regarded even higher than Yatis, you know, Satīs are higher than Yatis. Uh, Satīs are called as, uh, in Sanskrit name is Ucchadas they are much higher than the Yatis so their achievements were much more in dimension because what they have used their Bhakti also, because they were dedicated to their husbands. One of them you can give is Rāvaṇa's wife is taken for example, Rāvaṇa's wife. She was so powerful, such a powerful woman She was. Of course She was Mahākālī Herself so that should give Her [UNCLEAR] Mahākālī She was Herself, but She was a Satī [UNCLEAR as She came].

So She had the Sahaja Āsana. She had the Sahaja power, but there are many Satīs who achieved Satī power. And this [UNCLEAR] lady, you see this Satī, Mandodarī, She was Rāvaṇa's wife. Now when She married him She had to marry though She was Mahākālī, there's also a big story. If I go through that story also is very interesting [that She was meeting Rāma also] so She was married to him and when Rāvaṇa, you see, was fighting Rāma, She was the Satī and She was a devotee of Śhrī Viṣhṇu and She always used to worship Śhrī Viṣhṇu.

So She threw Her [UNCLEAR Kankan] [Bracelet of thread used in Pūjās] very interesting.

[Aside.] So all these [UNCLEAR Kankan], you know, She threw it in the air. She threw it in the air.

And Rāma's arrows were coming and they would return back [UNCLEAR around] because Rāma cannot cross beyond the power of a Satī also. He has to respect Her because She was the devotee of Rāma first of all and which you know that Kālī is the sister of... Umā is the sister of Viṣhṇu, so you see how can He kill the husband of...

Sahaja Yogi [interrupts]: His sister.

Shri Mataji: You see all of these points are there. And this Kaṅkaṇa was in the air, is projected. Everything failed, you see, nothing would go, even Sudarśhan Chakra would be going backside.

So Lakshmana said: “What are you doing? What is it? You are getting back your, here arrows. Why don't you control your arrows?" He said: “But you know, see Umā's there"... He saw this Mandodari moving there... He said: “Oh, God, now you have it. Is this not going to work out then? Am I useless then?" Even Lakshmana was sitting very much in frustration. Then Yama, the God of death, He thought: “The time is coming and what is this Kankan doing here... you see, so must try to solve this problem." So, He is the clever one. He went into the heart of... or He went into the mind of Rāvaṇa and told him: “Oh, you are not one of those winning the war. It is your wife's anger." And his ego was challenged. “You see in the air, you the that Kālī is there. That is the one that is protecting you." Very angry: “What does She mean by challenging my manliness?" And so he went down to his palace and he saw She was sitting there smiling.

She said: “I knew you will come back." He said: “What do you mean? I cannot fight the war? It is all done by your powers? Will you quickly get back your Kankana...? It's my order." So, as a Satī you have to obey the orders of your husband, you see. She said: “Alright, I will take back." You see.

So, but you can find out loopholes, you see. That, that's the [UNCLEAR] so She said: “Now, I've taken back My Kankan." Then She sat before Viṣhṇu. She said: “How dare you kill My husband? I will not eat food till he comes back here alive, I will not eat." Now Viṣhṇu had a problem: now what to do? He cannot kill, Rāma being Viṣhṇu, you see, He cannot kill Rāvaṇa. Viṣhṇu said: “What to do?" So He told Lakshmana: “This is a big problem!" So Lakshmana informed Yama: “Again see the problem has come: She won't eat food till Her husband goes back." So Yama said: “I know it's very dangerous but I have to try this trick otherwise I'm in for trouble. This man has to die, you see the time has come." So Yama said with a very big respect, you see to Satī: [UNCLEAR “Why you go fighting also this...?]" He said: “Alright, I will manage it." He took the form of Rāvaṇa himself, He became, He started looking like Rāvaṇa. And He went there and He stood up in the [UNCLEAR]. He said: “Now, see, I've come now." She said: “Did you win the war?" So He said: “Yes." He said: “Alright, now, will you eat your food?" And the food was hanging before Her. And She made a mistake there: She ate the food. Before your husband has taken the food you are not supposed to eat your food, that's why Indian women will never eat it. Because this gives them power, you see. To be a dedicated wife means power.

So they do not mind, even if their husbands are bad, even if they are Rākshasas, they're anything: they will be dedicated to their husbands. They'll love their husband so that they keep their own powers and by that they save their husbands' also.

So He stood up there [UNCLEAR]: “Eat your food." As soon as She ate the food, not even She ate the first morsel, [UNCLEAR Rāvaṇa felt cursed]. And the head fell at the feet [UNCLEAR] and then, you know, He, Yama get His own form and She cursed Him that you will be a dog. And He became a dog [UNCLEAR Later on He has become].

So, they are so powerful. But this I'm telling you about someone who was sort of a Sahaja [UNCLEAR Samarthya].

Sahaja Yogi [interrupts]: Which dog was this, Mother? Which dog?... This dog was in the car which... in company of Yuddhishthira...

Shri Mataji: Of course He was, yes. You see, actually it is uh, after Rāma whatever curses and anything were carried on during the time of Kṛiṣhṇa.

So, you can say His dog, the one who followed Yuddhishthira, you see, Dharmaraja.

So, this story tells you about Mandodari who was uh, Kālī, Umā, She was Pārvatī Shakti, so it's different. But of an ordinary lady Gandhari she was the wife of Dhitarashtra who was a blind man, the father of Kauravas. And this Gandhari tied a cloth on her eyes all her life, she never saw anything because her husband was blind. She said: “If he's not going to see anything, I'm also no going to see it." And she worked it out that way. Her eyes became so powerful, very powerful because of that closing of her eyes. Going to that extreme she developed that power of [UNCLEAR Bhasmat] Dhrishti they call it. This is called as [UNCLEAR Bhasmat] Dhrishti; And there's another Dhrishti is [UNCLEAR Anant] Dhrishti by which if you see anything that becomes, that cannot be killed.

So she called her eldest son who was Duryodhana who was a horrible fellow, who was in the war. She called him, she said: “You'd better become naked. I'll put my, I'll open my eyes and put my Dhrishti, means the vision, on you and you will be absolutely Amara, means you will not be... you will be immortal." And she made him vain, sort of a... he was very much happy about it. But he thought: “I'm such a grown up boy, how can I be naked before my mother fully?" So he said “I'll wear a little [UNCLEAR]" so he could face his mother because it is shameful to face your mother like that.

So when she opened her eyes, she removed the thing, her eyes came on the body and that part which was covered, you see, did not received her blessing.

So he was weak in that part.

So when Bhima, you see, killed Duryodhana he knows this trick, he knows that part is weak so what he did he put one foot on his one leg and another leg he opened out because that was the weak point and he made him [UNCLEAR] that's how he was killed. Otherwise he could not have been killed by anything because that was the weak point he had which [UNCLEAR it up] that's how he killed him.

So these were the power of the devoted wife so this was another plane where they developed power of a devoted wife and a dedicated wife.

Then this power was used also, misused, abused, people did it, but even, you see, this same Gandhari, the one who has done this was a very powerful woman during the time of Kṛiṣhṇa. And she told Kṛiṣhṇa that you are Viṣhṇumāyā, you are the one who is this and you can take birth many a time but the way you have killed all my hundred child of mine, you've finished my complete dynasty, no more Kauravas left on this earth means the same way Your dynasty will be finished. He's of the Yaduwamsha, you see He's the Yadavas, He was the Yadava. All the Yadavas will be killed and you will be killed in an [UNCLEAR] and Kṛiṣhṇa had to accept that curse on His and He was killed in an [UNCLEAR] of, because Satī is the one, is the purest form of devotee to the wife, you see it's easy, to the husband, easy to be dedicated to God because God is perfect, you see, God is perfect. He gives you love, He gives you this... But a husband gives what? He gives you nothing. He tries your patience all your life. To be dedicated to such a person... gives you a real training in dedication UNCLEAR [if you keep on saying...] you see, like the Gurus, you see, same way, they try the patience of the Bhaktas, you see, they say: “Go ahead, go ahead." That's the same principle, based on the same principle as the lady, you see, who worships her husband who is a horrible fellow, like Rāvaṇa is. You see. [UNCLEAR] Dhṛitaraṣhṭra, the [UNCLEAR] fellow.

Like there was another one Anasuya was another very great woman in Indian, Anasuya. She was so great She changed, I mean She made the sun wane, she made the river change its course, She did all kinds of things for Her husband who was a horrid fellow. He was absolutely the greediest possible fellow with all [UNCLEAR] because of [UNCLEAR] all his life, you see. And he would, he cheat her and everything, then he got horrible diseases because all his life he was so [UNCLEAR frustrated]. Then he got leprosy, he got this. She took him from one place to another to all the [UNCLEAR temples] and everything and She defied all the nature [UNCLEAR] such a powerful woman She cured Her husband, she got everything done, you see, very powerful woman. And then Narmada, the river, see, that we have, She Herself was the deity. And now She is the, uh, She was actually, uh She never married. When She loved somebody and wanted to marry, you see, She dedicated Herself fully to that love then She became this river, you see and it's the Virgin River.

So, in India, you see, people do not take out water from that river Narmada; they just say: “Alright, this is the river we are not going to touch, we are not going to take out the water out of this river." I mean, it was so deep into us, you see, we had known all these things all along.

So, the Satī used to be feared very much, you see, I'm also a little afraid of them, the way they are, you see. Oh, as if someone has a husband, you know, who is wanting a divorce from a Satī, I think: `I'm out of it. I'm not for it, you see. Keep Me out. I'm not...' See, they are not to be disturbed. We have examples of them in modern times also very much in India, you see, terrible Satīs, like Padmini, a terrible one. Padmini was a very beautiful woman and she was attacked by this King who was... who heard about her beauty and he asked that he should have a [UNCLEAR leave] with her.

Sahaja Yogi [interrupts]: This is the one whom he saw... in the mirror?

Shri Mataji: But then Padmini said: “Otherwise if he's going to attack all the country, I don't mind if he can see me in the mirror." So she can see in the mirror.

So he went and saw her in the mirror. Then it became even worse, you see, he said: “I must have her otherwise I'll have to attack." So, Padmini said that...

[GAP] You see they could not understand how can they allow their queen to be passed to other people because this would be the greatest insult, you see, it's a very different country altogether, the [UNCLEAR] is different not like you allow your queens to be [UNCLEAR] by a king even. What sort of a thing it is? A queen is a queen, he may be king.

So they would not allow such a thing, they said: “No, this time we are going to fight it out." So they sent a word that Padmini is coming with her maids and they all dressed up like ladies, you see, that inside the palanquins and the king stands on the palanquin of the queen, you see and they had many palanquins, one thousand palanquins. And inside the palanquins stands all these [UNCLEAR ladies] dressed up outside like a sarī they put and inside they're all armor and everything they put. And the men, four men carried one palanquin, you see.

So, the four men were also warriors, all covered with things and they had all the things put inside, all the arms put inside the palanquin and that's how they walked into the enemy's camp and they. And they had told these ladies: “If we win, well and good. If we do not win, then we'll lit a fire at a particular point and they'll see the fire from the port. Then you have to go on a pyre." It was a common in India to have a fire made and on that a woman would burn herself out, you see, it was a [UNCLEAR tapah] you see. English did not understand [UNCLEAR] the Satī system. They cannot understand, you see, when we believe that that way we get our powers.

So they made a pyre, fire a pyre because they would not allow other men to touch their bodies Indian woman does like any men to touch their body unless and until they're younger than them like children is different but as older person like that they don't like, you see, that other men should touch them because they think their power will be gone if they have bad lust or anything in their head then that power will be lost, you see.

So, this pyre was made is called as Jauhar, you see and all the women climb on the pyre because they've also, they lost the battle, see, they saw the fire. And the whole thing burned out, you see, nothing was left for the king when he came to the [UNCLEAR]. But we had a Muslim Satī, see, we have [UNCLEAR] Satī [UNCLEAR] and that's how our country is so great, with these great women who are not only respected but are extremely respectable. Women of great strength [UNCLEAR] now this is the age of they say Nur Jahan. Have you been to Fatehpur Sikri? All of you did not go but some of you did go to Fatehpur. Now, she's the one who created Fatehpur and she was the one who was in love with Salim the son of Akbar. And Akbar although he was a good man, he was a little [UNCLEAR] conscious, I think, so that he wouldn't allow this [UNCLEAR] Sāhab to become...

Sahaja Yogi [interrupts]: She was a dancer?

Shri Mataji: No, no, no, she was not. She was an ordinary queen... uh, actually, there's a story about her, how she came from Afghanistan to India and what happened on the way. She, you see, when uh, she like [UNCLEAR] she was and he saw her there till he fell in love with her because she was so innocent.

He had two doves in his hands that he just gave her that: “You just [UNCLEAR] till I'm coming back." So she was holding the doves and when he comes back he saw that she had only one. “What did you do to another one?" She said: “I didn't do anything it just flew out." He said: “How? Otherwise she [UNCLEAR] it up and the other one also flew out this way." So he laughed [UNCLEAR] and that's how he fell in love with her, so innocently it was. But after it came to [UNCLEAR] he said no, no, my son cannot marry [UNCLEAR]. But then he wanted to compensate for it so he [UNCLEAR] her to Sher Afkhan another, you see, court...

Shri Mataji: to one of his courtiers and he sent him to their wars [UNCLEAR] so that there is no disturbance with their marriage, you see. But it so happened, you see, when Salim became Jahangir, the one [UNCLEAR] and in the war with Afghans fought against Jahangir and he lost his life.

So, you see, this girl developed a feeling against Jahangir, telling things like, she thinks: “He has killed my husband because he wants to have me." And she came to Delhi, because she had a house there so she went [down to] Delhi and then what happened that he said that: “You must marry." He forced her marriage she said: “You can marry me if you want but you cannot have me as a wife: you have killed my husband, you cannot have me." Now, he was the emperor of India that time and she refused to marry. And she was in love to begin with but once she had a husband she forgot about her love and she was dedicated to her husband.

And they are Muslims. Now this girl went, uh. Then after some time what happened then this Salim could not bear this idea that's she's here and I cannot marry her and he was so [UNCLEAR] that he developed a terrible disease. And the physicians said that unless and until you marry this girl you won't be saved.

So his mother was in [UNCLEAR New Delhi]. Akbar had married Jhodabai. It's very, you see, our Indian life, name is `nanatva' means is full of varieties and beauties.

So this Jodhabai, imagine, Akbar married her and if you go and see, I don't know if you have seen the Agra's fort. Did you see Agra fort? Yeah? Alright. Then in Agra they have this fort in which Jodhabai is [UNCLEAR lies/died] there.

He made all in Rajput architecture, Indian, uh, hindu architecture, you see so that she could come to there. [UNCLEAR]. And Jodhabai just thought of a trick, she said: “Now, I must try some trick to save my son." So she became an ordinary maid servant and she went to her.

So, she was the mother Queen, imagine. For her son's sake she [UNCLEAR made] to this lady and tried to serve her as a maid. She looked after her and gave her love and was very kind to her.

So this, she said: “What can I do for you? What? You ask me anything." She said: “Will you give me anything I ask?" “Yes” she said “if it is in my power I will give you." So, she said: “Alright, I request you to marry my son." She said: “Alright I will marry your son." See, she was willing to marry the son of her maid but she would not marry with the emperor. See the character. And then that turned out to be Salim with which she had to marry. Then she married him and she never used to drink, Nur Jahan never drank. But Salim would drink so she made Fatehpur Sikri for him and [UNCLEAR] take him to beautiful place, gave him all the pleasures of life and she actually [ruled the place]. And Salim is known for [UNCLEAR fair play], you see, for justice, he was known for justice. He would not deny justice to anyone, everybody gets [UNCLEAR vice, you know, it's normal] but he had one vice of drinking. This is the story about modern [UNCLEAR] they say [UNCLEAR]. Maybe in modern time women who are dedicated to their husbands and by that they have powers.

So, this was another place they've got.

So we have Yatis or you can call them Yogis or people who had such powers that they could just look at somebody and [UNCLEAR] just make them into ashes. We had people of that. But these were destructive powers in a way, you see. But the cunning of Kṛiṣhṇa has used many a time these powers to kill the Rākshasas. Like there was one yogi, you see, he was sleeping for ages, he was sleeping only, he was enjoying his sleep because he had achieved through, he thought that: “I've achieved achieved whatever I wanted." He was just sleeping like this in a cave, you see. He was in a cave and he was sleeping in a cave all his life, you see. And it was said that the one who will awaken him and the one whom he will see for the first time will be killed.

So, this was the thing given to him by Shiva. Shiva had given him this [UNCLEAR], so this boon.

So, there was another one Rākshasa who was horrid and he had so many boons from Shiva that he had become actually [UNCLEAR invulnerable] and nobody could kill him, you see. And in the war, with, with Kṛiṣhṇa, Kṛiṣhṇa found it difficult: “How to kill him now because he has been [UNCLEAR blessed/saved] by Shiva? Now, what to do?" So, he thought of this trick, you see, He started running out of the battlefield, so He's called as `Ranchordas', the one who runs away from the battlefield. Ran away from the battlefield, you see, is a `ranchordas'.

So He ran away from there and He ran up to this cave, you see. There He went and He was wearing a shawl, you see and He covered this yogi with the, this shawl completely, very carefully He did so that he was not awakened and He hid Himself. Now this fellow followed Him and ran after Him and he also entered into the cave and he saw this was sleeping with the shawl on, Special own methods of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, see? And he saw he's sleeping now, so he [said]: “Now, I know where you are. This is a, you've calm now, you are tired of running and you are sleeping. Now, I see how You are wicked." [UNCLEAR] and as soon as he pulled the shawl, you see, this fellow got up and saw him. This is of Kṛiṣhṇa's time.

So, but simultaneously as I said other people working out the Bhakti [UNCLEAR cult] was there.

People used to have also Bhakti , they used to worship Gods and they used to ask to meet them. This was the another type which could not read the Upanishadas and could not recite the Mantras and all [UNCLEAR Prakrut], the people, the general public was doing Bhakti and asking God the help and all that. While the rishis were there who had [UNCLEAR empowered]. Lots of story were there even in the Purānas there are the story of a people who are very great saints, who have got Bhakti , through that they had powers. And there was one story, very beautiful story which is, I would say, in one Purāna, can't remember which Purāna it is, that there was a man who had developed lots of powers, you see. He could kill [UNCLEAR] birds looking at the bird, you see.

So, he went out and he went in the, he was meditating under a tree and there was a bird who started disturbing. The bird started chirping and he got disturbed and into temper and the bird died, you see. And the bird died, fell down, he was very proud of killing the bird.

So he went to next village and there he begged for food, you see, from a house you see, so he sort of knocked at the door and the lady came out and he said: “I want some food, you see." She said: “You see, my husband is not in the house." It's a custom now, without the permission of the husband you are not to give alms to, even to any Guru because that's how Sītā was taken away by Rāvaṇa, you see.

So, she refused, she said: “No, I'm sorry, my husband is not in house I cannot give you food." So, he looked at her she said: “You cannot kill me the way you killed the bird this morning." “How does she know?" So he touched her feet, his power was useless. She said: “I know through my Satī powers but the one who is higher than me, you see, is such and such, you go and meet him on such and such date, you see." He got a shock, you see, he was shocked. He said: “You go and ask for such a name and you will be meeting then." So he went down to the another village and there, you see, he went and asked where is the [UNCLEAR] he said: “You have to see him there, you see, that shop." There was a man standing there and he was selling meat and he was cutting all the things there nicely, he was a, uh, what you say, butcher, he was a butcher and he was cutting the meat and he was distributing all full of blood and all that.

So, he said: “Are you such and such?" He said: “Yes, so what?" He said “You mean you are the one who is higher than that lady?" He said: “Who told you that?" “The lady has said." “The lady, did she? Oh! I don't know about that." So, he said: “What are your powers?" So he said: “My powers are Sahaj." Now the left side power was of the Bhakti , of dedication and that's how they developed this Bhakti Tattwas but the central power is the proper [UNCLEAR] of [UNCLEAR] which is absolutely suitable for growing...

Contents: 1979-05-30*, Public Program, A Higher Life, AWorld of Bliss and Joy (The Three Paths of Evolution), Caxton Hall, London, UK

I am here to talk to you about a higher life than what we know of, about a power that pervades, permeates every other power and about the world which is called as the world of bliss and joy.

You must have heard about all these words before also. But I am here to tell you about the instrument that resides within us. All nicely planted within our being as clear as you see here in the picture, which is a living instrument, which you can also see pulsating actually with your own eyes when the Kuṇḍalinī, this coiled energy, rises.

We have already been blessed to have this ascent into our own being, the breakthrough into the unconscious, to enter into another new dimension altogether in our awareness by which we really can find out answers to all your absolute questions.

So far in the ancient India we had three types of movements.

I don't know if you are aware of all of them, but we had three types; and the reflections of that were manifesting in that country, also in other countries even in England. We have had people who have been very busy finding out the answers to many fundamental questions, absolute questions.

So the seeking has been everywhere in the whole world; but, as I have told you before, India was perhaps the best country because of its climatic conditions and because there was lot of scope for people to go into secluded places to find out the answer to their seeking.

Today I would like to tell you the three methods or three ways we have been seeking and the results of that. The first one is on the left hand side, if you see, is the path by which they had devotion to God, what they call the Bhakti . They sang praise of God without seeking Him. They called Him. They asked His help. In the beginning they thought that the greatest challenge they have is from the elements; so they tried to overpower the elements. And in that overpowering of elements the movement was on the right hand side in which they used many methods by which they could excite or could innovate, as they call it, the deities or the subtle principles of the elements.

The first one was that of the devotees and the second one that of the people who were trying to find out the way to master the elements.

The third one was in the center and there were two types of people who searched. I would say the one who searched, the another which incarnated on this earth to help and this was the evolutionary path of our ascent. The evolutionary path of our ascent came into light, you will be amazed, much later than Kṛiṣhṇa Himself came on this earth, even after Christ, people started talking about the methods of evolution within us.

So we should have no confusion about these three methods.

Because of the Bhakti of people, because of the asking of the people, the different aspects of God descended on this earth as incarnations. Whether all this I say is true or not, you need not believe because I am putting a hypothesis before you and then later on you can find out that if it is true or not. You have to keep only your mind open like a scientist to know about it.

Now the middle path of evolution is the one that we are going to discuss here. The one that deals with the mastering of the nature, is the one they used in the Vedas where they did not mention even the deities, they did not mention anything about God Almighty, but only talked of the Brahma Tattwa, the one principle by which all the five elements are governed. And all those mantras and shlokas to excite the elements were recited just to get the benediction of these elements as well as the control over them.

So once upon a time, say twelve thousand years back, in India we had pilotless bombs, we had instruments that could work out much better than your missiles. They achieved it through this method of right side innovation. When I went to Colombia I was so surprised that they also used the right side method.

For that they used to also take a kind of a intoxicant which we call somras in India; it was an intoxicant which would not give you a habit but would take you to a state where you could understand that there is beyond something. You can say something like LSD maybe.

But this LSD that you take is very different from the one they used. It was, I should say, a holy thing which had something to do with God; because whatever in India they tried to search, they kept the centrifugal force acting on them, which was the assumption that there is God.

So they did not deviate too much from the right side. They did not go too far.

As a result of that search, science came to us. It came through the unconscious, all the discoveries. But our awareness, after all this world is one whole, our awareness was tuned up to a point where we could understand science. As a result of that kind of innovation, they mastered lot of things and they organized many wars as we are doing nowadays. And in those wars there are descriptions of aeroplanes and all kinds of [UNCLEAR] they call it weapons, which are fantastic.

But there was another movement going on, on the left hand side where people did not care for all these things. This was meant for the Kṣhatriyas, the kings who were very ambitious and wanted to overpower the whole world.

But the left side, gentry I would say, the people who were dedicated to God, who always asked for the help of God, were busy organizing dedications and what we call worships, Pūjās according to their own understanding.

But the central path was occupied or, I should say, the central path was looked after by two forces.

The first one: those who were the seekers under some Gurus, who were realised Souls of a very high level.

And the another were the incarnations who came on this earth to protect, to save the devotees of God.

This movement was very secretive in the beginning, extremely secretive. Only one or two people they would employ to this kind of work from the whole society. In one generation you could hardly find five or six people doing this work of evolving people into new awareness. This I am telling you at the time even before Vedas were written, because the incarnations that were to come, who had not established, was kept as a very guarded secret. The reason was that if they had disclosed that these are the incarnations who are going to come, then the negative forces which were trying to pull down the evolution would organize a method by which they would destroy these incarnations before their coming.

But, still, as you can see in the life of Christ that coming of Christ was declared much before Christ came in by the prophets who made prophecies. All these prophets belong to the category of the Gurus I am talking about.

So all over the world three types of movements were on, for example the scientists on the right hand side, we can say and the left hand side are the devotees of God who sing the praise of God.

And in the center there were people like Moses, like Abraham who came on this earth just to prophesize, just to protect the devotees of God.

Now this middle movement of evolution today has reached its peak, because all the incarnations have arrived now and have done their job within you. They have occupied their position within you in your awareness on these different centers.

So the first center that we have here which is established in the carbon atom. Carbon has got four arms in the same way this center has also got four arms. You can see the four sides of this center. That means up to the matter stage it is even below that. Then the carbon started the living. This carbon atom actually ignited the living process in the matter. Though the time taken for this, since the time the Earth seceded from the sun is very, very short. I mean nobody can explain why, how it could happen.

Some juggler could only do that job.

So this carbon atom started the triggering of living beings.

Afterwards, we can say, that the incarnation of the center, this green colour center, which we call as the Nābhī Chakra, the incarnations started on this point, one after another taking different forms of living animals in the evolution. Like first the fish. It came as a fish. They say when Noah was having a bad time with the deluge, this fish helped him. They came as an incarnation, that aspect of God which we call as evolutionary. That came as a fish on this earth and then, then it came as quadruped. Then it came as a short man. That it came as a strong man. On and on and on like that till we reached a stage where the top one you can see, over here. This is the stage where Śhrī Rām, who came eight thousand years back.

This was established within us like a milestone. They were the leaders of our evolution. They led us into evolution as well as they left a mark for us there and they exist within us in that path.

So on the right side of this center, this is called as the Heart Chakra, as you can call it Cardiac Chakra or we call it as Hṛidaya Chakra in Sanskrit language. On the right hand side appeared Śhrī Rām. Now why did He appear, Śhrī Rāma, on the right hand side, because He was to forget about His incarnation.

He was to forget that in essence He is the evolutionary aspect of God which is Śhrī Viṣhṇu, who resides in the center here, because He was in there in different form.

So He was to forget about it. He had to behave just like a human being so that no human being suspects Him to be an incarnation. He became a king, a benevolent king, an ideal king with all the limitations of a king and the beauty of a king. And that is how this incarnation came on this earth about eight thousand years back.

At the same time when this center which is the, we call it as Void, but you can call it as the whole universe, you can say, this was full of people who were negative and were trying to destroy the devotees of God. Then the primordial power which is called as the Ādi Shakti, the primordial Mother, She came at that center, much earlier than Rāma. She came there about twelve thousand years back to protect these devotees, from twelve thousand years, in one thousand incarnations. Of course I think there have been much more but one thousand are the main incarnations which came on this earth as primordial Mother, they came to protect Her children, Her devotees.

Now the topmost one, not the topmost but the second one, this center is the center where the Viṣhṇu Tattwa or the evolutionary aspect of the God completely manifested. The complete manifestation of this principle took place and that is the principle of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa.

So Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa is regarded as the complete manifestation of this evolutionary process. But God Almighty as we know Him is everything. He is not only the evolutionary principle. He is also the existence on the left hand side and He is also the Creator on the right hand side. But much before all this started another state of awareness was there. In that state of awareness this second center that you see here is the Creator's. He created through His powers all the universe, through all the elements then this earth. And on this earth the cycle of life started. All the centers are within us.

Now last of all, about two thousand years back, came the greatest incarnation of Christ. He was the son of God, the innocence. And He came on this earth. At this point where you see this red mark, behind in the brain, between the pituitary and the pineal there's a very subtle center. He came there for us to ascend, to us give the knowledge of the eternal life, to give the knowledge that whatever you see on this Earth is not the permanent thing. There is something beyond and in His resurrection He showed us that how we all can be resurrected. This was the thing, gate into the limbic area, what we call it as the Sahasrāra, because it has got one thousand petals. Now these petals, as they look like lotus, it is actually like that within us, but in a sleeping state. You can see a candle. Now when the wick is there, you don't see this form of the wick. Only when it is enlightened you see them in that form. Now when you put one thousand like that they all put together look like a lotus. But when it is not enlightened, you only say there are one thousand nerves but when these nerves are enlightened, you can see the light which is in different colour.

So today we are here to know that within us all these incarnations exist. And the force that really brought forth, really manifested, who live like human beings and work like Gurus, that force which existed in this area, which created religion within us. Religion as we understand, organized religion is not the religion. But the religion means your sustaining power. You are a human being because there are ten sustaining powers within you.

So they came to sustain us and to give us full idea about these ten powers and to establish us in our religion as a human being.

So these Gurus who lived in that area worked out the sustenance and helped us and this is one of the greatest forces we have got, which resides within us. And whatever they have said has a very great meaning. Actually we should say the main Gurus are ten but there are many other Gurus. And these ten Gurus could be described as Rāja Janaka, then Moses, Abraham and in modern times you can say Mohammed Sahib and even up to Shirdi Sāi Nāth in Shirdi that force came in for a short time and then He disappeared. Nobody knows how He came there, He lived there and He died. Also if you know Nanaka, He was also the same force, the same primordial master, who was born on this earth.

Now this is not the time to tell about individual people. But I think one day I will talk to you only on this subject of the Gurus.

So these Gurus first started under the primordial master Himself, He was called as Dattātreya. And this Dattātreya is the one who is comprising all these forces: the existence force and the evolutionary force and the creative force, all of them, in its innocence. I don't know if you understand it, but there is a story about them, is that there are three deities which belong to these three forces. The left one is Shiva's force, then the right one is Brahmadeva's force and the center one is Viṣhṇu's force.

So they say that all these three Gods felt that the wife of Dattātreya was a great, devoted woman. And she would, with her powers can curse anyone she feels like.

So they wanted to take her test and wanted to find out how far she was a devoted wife.

So they went to her and they told her that “We want some alms." And in India, it is regarded as a great honour to be able to give somebody alms who come to your house.

And three saints, they were dressed up saints, they came on the door.

So when they asked for alms, she said, “All right, I will get you some alms." They said, “No, we'll come inside the house and you have to become completely naked and then give us the alms." Because to become naked before a man, you loose all your powers as a devoted wife, as a sati.

She said, “All right, if you say so, I will do it” and she started taking out her clothes. As soon as she touched her clothes, you see, they became small children, absolutely small children. She took out her clothes and gave them the alms.

So these three small children put together made the Dattātreya, is the Guru, is the one who is innocent like a child, innocent like a child, who has no sense of sex.

So we come to conclusion: a Guru who has interest in women, a Guru who has interest in sex, is not a Guru but is anti-Guru.

Dattātreya is the innocence of all these three powers and this Guru was the one who then had a big tradition of Gurus. In the same tradition we had many Gurus in our country and specially in the area near Bombay [Mumbai], which is called as Maharashtra. They came as Nath. They were called as Nath.

So the first one was Ādi Nath, then Dattātreya, then Macchindranath, then Goraknath, like that a tradition of these Gurus came. But all their knowledge was kept as a guarded secret, it was a Gupta Vidyā, is absolutely guarded secret, a secret knowledge about Kuṇḍalinī. They never talked about it; they never told about it. Because they thought that “Just now let us experiment with it fully and then we will give some idea about it to people." But as you see everywhere it happens, even it happens with us here sometimes that we get people who do not get realisation or are half-baked and they cannot rise much higher. Then they get, sort of you see, very angry or sometimes they take this half-baked knowledge and start working on it and they go absolutely wrong on this side or that side.

All such horrible Gurus came up in those days also, but they were neutralised because, I would say that, people were spiritually very, very sensitive. Nowadays the people are not. They are very naive.

They have no sensitivity. You see, from the face you can make out that a person is such and such but they have no sensitivity left, you see. They are so much used to masks. I asked today why people cannot understand and why do they always have a mask on their face. Nothing is beaming out of them, what is it? So someone told Me very interesting answer was that because they listen to news and they see that the newsman is reading it and he gets lot of light on his face, so he has to keep detached from the news, he cannot show his any impressions or anything. He has to be absolutely detached when he is describing some news.

So his face is just like a mask and that is why it happens.

Whatever it is we have become really naive as far as spirituality is concerned and the people take advantage of it, full advantage of this naive behaviour or naive nature of others. For this you don't have to go to books, you don't have to go to any Guru for this. Is only a thing of a society in which you live.

Natural societies have much more sensitivity to spirituality than artificially sort of brain-washed, you can call them, or brought up in a materialistic atmosphere. They loose their sensitivity to spirituality which is spontaneous, which is spontaneous; because we loose our spontaneity, we loose that natural, we call it as Sahaja means spontaneous, knowledge to know who is a real person and who is unreal.

So this force started manifesting itself gradually in the caves, in the very secret caves where only one or two were asked to go there. And first they were tested very badly. I mean the way they were tested, some would run away.

So for years together they would not get even one disciple who was capable of coming into this training. And at long last if they got one, they would work on him and then he may die without the experience. Then again he would be reborn, again he would die, like that it would go on for ages until they found that the truth is within you, till they completely cleansed themselves and they became one with the higher being within themselves. But this was achieved so little that you will be amazed that Jain system of religion is exactly the same system, is the Avadhūta, we call the Nath style, the same style is. And they say there have been only sixty-five Kaśhyapath, they call them Kaśhyapath. Sixty-five, just imagine, sixty-five in six centuries.

So I think it would be one point something, one every century.

So these were the only people who got realisation. And it was a very difficult procedure because they would raise this Kuṇḍalinī up to a point and it would drop out. Then they would raise it and cleanse it. And then again cleanse it and again push it forward. It would be something like pushing a car which doesn't start. You push it, it comes back. Again it goes forward, it stops. Then again you cleanse it and take it to the garage. You see it's no good. Then you take it again back, wash it, clean it, again get under it and try to cleanse it again, the machinery, again it goes out, like that it goes on and on and you get so fed up that you think, `Better let it go back to the factory to be completely renewed.' Then they made it again, put it back and like that it moved, the movement of this evolution very, very gradually.

And in this gradual movement they had, because if you move gradually you see many things. For example, if you are now going on a bullock cart, you don't have any bullock carts, we still have bullock carts, you see, if you have to go to villages, you have to go by bullock carts. And the speed of a bullock cart is maybe two miles per hour or maybe even sometimes less, depends on the whims of the bullocks, you see. If they sit down in between, you can get down, cook your food and have your food very nicely, then again get back into the bullock cart and then again start moving. It could be very, very slow movement and then when you stop, you see, you get so bored of that stay that you get out of bullock cart, you go around and see things. And that's how they started seeing things around and they described them and poor things got sometimes so upset with it that they used to get into Tantrums and their Tantrums also are nowadays called as Rāja Yoga. I was so surprised that these Tantrums were there because of frustration and because of time.

But now today, the condition is terrific because the blossom time has come I'd say. The time has come that evolution has to be en masse, has to be en masse.

Actually this en masse evolution has started much earlier as I said, from the sixth century when Ādi Shaṅkarāchārya started writing about it. He was the one who proclaimed it, who said that this is the force that what we have got, we have to work it out.

Now people talk of Ādi Shaṅkarāchārya and not a word about Kuṇḍalinī. What do you say to such a knowledge? You see this is the basis: the basis of Shaṅkarāchārya is Kuṇḍalinī and the bhav is, means the emotion that substantiates it, is the complete dedication to the Guru. But the Guru has to be a real Guru not the way money maker or what you call this womanizer and all sorts of things, abuses which are absolutely never conceivable to a Guru. He remains absolutely away from these things, all such things are, I would say, these are meant for criminals. Or you can say, I have no words but you can say horrid people.

It is not meant for Gurus, who are the choicest flowers, who are the best people that God has created, who are the highest people above all these things. They do not organize, they do not do anything, they just sit and watch and they just impart you the power by which you become one with God. That is all their job is.

They are not busy buying, you say, airplanes and Cadillacs and some had some, I was told, Rolls-Royce.

They are not busy with it.

These Gurus first took to Sannyāsa because it was a very intensive work needed, very intensive work.

In the early times they took absolute solitude as their home and they didn't have children, they didn't have wives, nothing. They would just dedicate themselves to the search. This is very early I am telling you, say twelve thousand years back but about eight thousand years and at the time of Rāma, all the Gurus practically were married. Most of the Gurus were married. Imagine eight thousand years back, in modern understanding people cannot even conceive of a priest who is married. They found out without the marriage the balance is not established. You must lead a very sensible married life and they got married and they had children and wife and they lived in the forest looking after the small children from the family.

And when the children came down there even the grandparents came with them because according to the four ashramas we have got, the grandparents after fifty years of age have to go to the forest to live with the grandchildren near the ashram. And they have to look after the children and forget about married life.

They have to finish it at that time. At fifty a grandfather is really promoted and he looks after the children.

He is not bothered about his married life so much as the husband and wife reach their culmination of the beauty of their married life and understanding from twenty-five to fifty years of age.

So we have a division that till twenty-five years is the education system then the twenty-five years of life is the married life and twenty-five years of life is this life where, vanaprastra ashram they called it, where they had to live like grand parents with their grandchildren, give them love and they looked after and also if they were not realised or they wanted realisation, they worked for it.

So in this system it was perfectly all right because afterwards the husband and wife died after that age so they took to Sannyāsa, means they just detached themselves and rose high.

So the pattern of life was such that you had to achieve God in your lifetime, you have to work for it and all of them aspired for it and they worked for it. The whole life pattern was built up to that. Of course very few people got realisation but they led a very righteous life so that they maintained it for the next life and again they were born next time, they tried it from where they had lost, again they went up and up like that. That was the system of that society which is, of course is, now very much westernized and they think you people are much more successful in life so they are running after you and try to become like you.

But this is what it was. But we can see today that is not the situation, we are in a very different situation. It's a Ghor Kali Yuga they call it, where righteousness has no place. If you talk of righteousness people will run away. Like today, you see, they wanted to put up an advertisement for some university and the lady who was being there, she was telling, “No, no, no don't put Self-realisation." Then I said, “What should I put?" She said, “Put something like enjoying, you see." “All right, enjoying.

Then what else?" “You don't talk of God, no, of righteousness, no." Then should I say now I thought that you can enjoy and come to a discotheque or something like that? Is that the way we are going to attract them? And then every other person got fed up. They said, “Mother, we are not going to fall at their feet. We need really sensible people, people who understand their value, who want to achieve something higher; they may be few but we cannot manage with this frivolous people. We cannot do anything about these frivolous people. Let them have one or two shocks in life.

Then they'll come to us." But you see, for a mother it is rather difficult to think that `Let them have a shock. Let them put their hands in the electricity so that they get a shock and next time they won't do it.' You see, for a mother it is rather difficult to accept such a situation.

But it is so, because we had another gentleman who was a hippy. He came to Me and I tried to give him realisation. Then again he went back and he started his drugs and he went into that. Again very seriously he did it. He did it very well that doctors declared that he is going to die within twenty-four hours, you see he did the whole job very well. He had all the drugs within him, you could open a chemist shop, you see, the way he was and mounds of things he had in him. And then he came to Me with a cirrhosis liver. Liver of, you see, liver which was having cirrhosis. Thank God, My husband was not at home, so I said, “All right, get in” and he was there still when My husband came next day. He found him in an absolutely horrible condition. He said, “Now, if You have anything to do with this young gentleman, if he dies here, the police will really arrest You and You will be in for murder. Now You please don't go in for that." But we treated him and, you'll be amazed, within eight days he was perfectly all right and he's such a great Sahaja Yogi today. Now he's in Australia; I always remember him. And you know, he was a professor of physics and he was a very learned man, but he did all this tomfoolery just to go to hell directly with a running jump, you see and it was very difficult in the beginning to convince him. But later on, you see, what he told Me was most shocking because he told Me, “Mother, most of us have to be that way, otherwise we'll not come to You." Now this is too much for Me to understand that, that it should be so hard on anyone who are seeking.

Now you will be amazed that the seekers who were there at that time are today born more in the West than in the East. You are real seekers. Perhaps you have never evaluated yourself and you have lost that sensitivity to seeking. That is one thing true because the way you have been Guru-shopping, one can understand that how could it be possible that you have been going from here to there not understanding this. But, you see, because you were seeking, I would say, because you were seeking, you jumped onto someone, you jumped onto another one, jumped onto third one, just to get the, what you call, the feeling that you were seeking.

And this jumping from one to another has really been very, very wrong because by that you have definitely disturbed your Kuṇḍalinī. The most dangerous thing about these people is that they disturbed the path of your Kuṇḍalinī, which you will learn; when you will be realised, you will know. All these Gurus, apart from giving you diseases like cancer and all that, have been destroying your Chakras, destroying your Kuṇḍalinī. I have seen big holes in your Chakras. I have seen burnt portions in the Kuṇḍalinī. I have seen horrible distortions and mutilations of even the private parts of people because you can see on this Chakra, this last Chakra, which is dealing with your private parts, you see, that they have really ruined you completely, to such an extent that it is I feel irreparable, but still, we would try our level best to work it out and to get it done.

I would only request you to have an attitude of openness and little relaxed. Like somebody has an appointment say about seven o'clock, so he comes to attend My program, six to seven, Mātājī's lecture.

Seven to eight, third lecture. Eight to nine, another lecture. Such a person is no good for Sahaja Yoga.

You have to have patience with yourself and you have to have patience with Sahaja Yoga too because some people from the jungles and who are not in the open, who do not come to London or to America, these people have told so many Sahaja Yogis that “We don't know why Mātājī is giving you these vibrations.

What have you done?" All sorts of questions and they are quite jealous and they don't even understand how these Sahaja Yogis can raise the Kuṇḍalinī so easily.

So one can say that it is happening and it is there, you all should have it because you are the seekers and this blessing was to be bestowed, is promised even in the Purānas it was said that in Kali Yuga those saints who are seeking God in the hills and dales will be blessed in Kali Yuga, in this time, modern times and they will be born as ordinary householders and they will get their ultimately truth, it is a fact. You have to see it. And no use, I was told some people are coming here for spying. I say, “What are they spying?" You see, this is for your good.

What is there to spy in this thing? It is all very open. This is for your good, for your betterment, for your own life.

For whom are you spying? What are they going to give you, madness? They'll take away all your money. As a mother I must tell you, you have to be careful. They may pay you little money for spying but what's the use of loosing your spirit and getting that little money, all the false promises. Best thing is to get it within yourself, your own powers and know yourself and know what is your self-interest and don't be just wasting yourself for all these nonsensical things like crusades and, what you call, stories about it.

People have misused all the knowledge that was in the Bible, in the Quran, in the Vedas for exploiting others, it is something very sad but human beings are like that, they are really like that.

So we have to be very, very careful and we have to understand that we have to have our own power.

What is the use if I am very powerful? What's the use? If the sun is very powerful, what's the use unless and until it does some good to us? If I have the power, say, to move all this, what's the use? You must have your powers. You must feel your powers. You should be able to exercise your powers. That is what you must ask. This is the main theme of Sahaja Yoga: that it is your own power which starts manifesting.

So, thank you very much. I hope the lecture was not too great for you. But today I was just thinking that today I will tell you about this Guru dynasty because this is the way the Gurus are there by the dozens.

You must know that what is a real Guru. And how they came in and what was their job.

There's one more point I would like to tell you that here there are two more small Chakras, one that belongs to, which we call as the Sūrya. Sūrya is the, means the Sun, the Sun center and the another as the Moon center on the left hand side. And these two are governed or, we can say, is bestowed upon by two great people who are the disciple elements. And disciple elements were first, were born to Śhrī Rāma and Śhrī Sītā as the Luv and Kush. And then they incarnated many a times on this Earth as disciple. One of them is, we can say, was Shañkarāchārya, another was Kabīra, like that.

Then we can say, later on like, before Shañkarāchārya, they came as Buddha and Mahāvīra. Then Shañkarāchārya and then I told you, after Shañkarāchārya came the advent of Hassan and Hussain, who were the grandsons of Prophet.

So these have been incarnating and they have been moving from one side to another and telling people that “This is extreme, leave it, this is extreme, leave it. Come in the center and be in the center." That has been their job and they are the ones who are sort of imparting you that awareness by you become a perfect disciple.

And this is a very important point because it comes quite often that we do not understand: like Prophet Mohammad said that “I am the last prophet." All right, He did say that He was the last prophet.

Supposing I say, I am the last person to come here. All right I would say just to frighten you that you better take to it otherwise this is the last time I am telling you. But it is never that because when He died He found out that, you see, these people are mad caps. “I didn't tell them this, what are they doing out of Me?" So he said, “I better go back again” and He came as Nanaka and He told them that “Hindu and Muslims are same people, following the same religion, why are you fighting among yourselves?" He came for that unity.

Then as Nanaka He came; so in Nanaka's system also the Sikhism came in and they started a warrior class and this and that. I mean imagine, the Sikhism ended up by having wars within Muslims and Hindus.

So then He came as Shirdi Sāi Nāth to teach them. Now this is not a very important thing that, say Mohammad Sahib said, “I am the last." Say He is the last, all right, even take that position. Who are you to him? How are you related? Through what? What is your authority? How do you appropriate Him to yourself? Because you say you are Muslims.

So what? How did you become Muslims? Did you get your certificate from God? Like Christians are, you see. They say, “We are Christians." How are they? They are baptized. How? They go to church, somebody puts the hand. Who is he? Is he authorized by God? Does he really break your fontanelle bone? Does he really blesses you? He is just appropriating God to himself. How are they concerned with God? I don't understand. They are nowhere near Christ, I can see that clearly. If they were, they would have been doing something else. They would have given realisation to people and giving them the second birth which Christ has told again and again that “You are to be born again." I am talking of the eternal life and not this life of organizing churches and making profits so much so that the half of London should belong to a church.

Same with Hindus, another silly people. One would think they did not organize it so it could not go further. Even there is one of the Shañkarāchārya's, he is trying to collect money.

I said, “For what is he collecting the money, this fellow?" They said, “Oh, no. He wants, now he is trying to, you see, sort of, compete with your Pope." So he wants to begin with, he wants to have an umbrella of gold, embedded with all precious stones. He's a tiny little fellow. I don't know how he is going to look with that big umbrella around him.

All such people claim. It is such a misappropriation. What is the authority you have got? This is something I can't understand. Everybody goes to theological college. How can he learn God in the college? What college did Christ go? I mean of all the things, when you have Christ before you why don't you judge according to His standards? Which college did Christ go? Which theological college? If He had, if He was to come here, people would say that He's good for nothing. They may put Him in the prison again. And in America sure, because if you cure anybody in America you are in the jail. That's what it is.

So the whole misappropriation has been worked out. By this awareness, the vibratory awareness you get after realisation, you will know that you cannot be misappropriated, by which you become that. Once you become that, then you can feel it, those vibrations flowing into you, you can feel your heart emitting those vibrations because the Spirit is awakened and you can feel that and you get that vibratory awareness by which, as you see on the hands, you can feel your Chakras. That is Self-realisation: knowing about yourself and also you know about others. It can happen just in a second, in a split of a second. With some people it takes time, doesn't matter. I have patience, you have patience. I'm only for this job here and I am going to be here for years. Now I hope so, for some years at least and we are going to work it out.

So thank you very much. Now if you have to ask any questions, please ask Me for a short time because then we should go to the workshop.

Shri Mataji: Yes... little louder.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: The coming incarnation is the Kalki, as they call it, Kalki is the one which means Nishkala finka, means the one which is blemishless, there is no blemish on that person, you cannot put a blemish on Him. If you try to do it, you will be destroyed. But this One is going to come just to do the last sorting out. You won't have anybody to persuade you, to tell you that, “Get your realisation” nothing of the kind. You see, He will just come as we have after the whole harvest is done, then the last cutting of it.

He is just coming for that; He is not going to talk to you; He is not going to listen to you, nothing doing.

The time from this to that is short, so you better get yourself in the proper shape and don't ask for His coming just now because it will be very hasty. Just now let all of you be there in the boat properly settled down, let us go onto the other side and then let Him come, because He's coming with eleven powers, which is known as Ekādaśha Rudra. They are all placed here in the head of the primordial being and He will be manifesting all these in such a tremendous manner that you would not know how people will be destroyed and the destruction will be of the worst type that you have ever seen that's why try to mature; became the fruits and be in the kingdom of God. All right. Thank you.

Yes, My child? Question: Who is Your Guru?

Shri Mataji: Nobody. I have no Guru, I'm a mother. I don't need any Guru and I have been like this since ages now. I'm very ancient.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That's My own. I have no Guru, neither I ever had, but I have the Guru, I call him as Dattātreya, if that is so, but that is also within Me. In My stomach is the Guru. You ask this question, `Mother, have You any Guru?' Just ask this question in your hand and you will know it. To know Me is not so easy because I'm very elusive, extremely elusive person you can think of, you see.

So just now you just know yourself. All right? When you will have that awareness, you will know Me. All right? Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Because you don't have those eyes to know Me. Good question also. Who was the Guru of Christ? Who was? His own mother.

So, no more questions? Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Correct. Absolutely that's what... very true, yes. No. Yeah.

So what is your question in this? All right, I will tell you one thing that, you see, if you go to these temples and places where you think that they are misappropriating or not. Now as I have said to you already that the job of a person who represents God or says that he is God or he has the power of God within himself should do only one thing, is that he should be able to connect you with God, that's all, the rest of the things is absolutely useless. If he cannot connect you to God then he is absolutely useless person. For example we get a person who says he is the Secretary to the Queen, her Majesty the Queen, then he should be able to get at least an appointment for us otherwise how are we to believe that they have any authority? Now if you say that people believe in things and that [UNCLEAR] now, you see, believing into something has led you nowhere, see it is blindness, on the contrary this kind of blindness has led to complete exploitation. You have seen in our country or in anywhere, you are completely exploited. You do not realise it how much you are exploited by these organizations which claim and appropriate that God is with them or sort of they are serving the God. The only thing that they should do to find out the way and methods of connecting you to God. If they cannot do it then one should know that there is something wrong with them. They have no authority of any kind.

Question or comment: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Can organize? No, not at all. They cannot. It's a child's play going on. They cannot.

You see, you cannot organize God, you must have authority, you should be a realised Soul, minimum, connected with God. Say, supposing this is not connected, all right, with the mains. What can you organize it? You better put it down there, isn't it? Otherwise you cannot use it. What else can you do? Supposing this is not connected with the mains, it is not working, that's all, simple. You try everything, you organize, you organize a committee, bring many people to plan it, it won't work out, unless and until you connect it.

So-called, so-called baptism is useless, but the real baptism is there, the Kuṇḍalinī rises, you will be surprised this portion becomes absolutely soft here, just like a child. Actualisation is important, if they cannot actualise it, what are they doing? This is like, you see, you send an invitation to people, `Please come and have dinner with us and come along and we have organized a very good dinner and everything,' you go there you find a table very nicely laid down and everything is there, they ask you sit on the chair and all that and then they will say `Will you eat?' and there's no dinner, nothing, what means? They say, `It is very tasty dinner.' Everybody looks at each other, `Yes, must be.' You see, the one thinks that `Maybe we are blind, you know, maybe that we are little foolish, we cannot do it.' You see, so it would be like that, you see.

Contents: 1979-05-31*, Public Program, Hall in City Center, Birmingham, UK

Introduction by Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] spiritual personality and who has reincarnated on Earth and She has given many of us here realisation of our true natures and I hope you'll all sit here with an open mind tonight and try and receive what She has to give you. And all I can ask is you just hold out your hands towards Her, relax and listen to what Mātājī has to say.

Shri Mataji: I am thankful to Bala and Philip, all My children, who have been able to arrange this hall and have you all here for this program.

Modern times are really very different from whatever time the incarnations came on this Earth. There's such a tremendous differences when Christ came on this Earth and today when somebody has to face the seekers. There were no seekers at the time of Christ, not a single seeker. When He came on this Earth, He had to actually persuade people, He had to put some sort of a explanation for them that they should seek, that there is something beyond which they should ask for. But today it's a very different thing, today we have seekers and not one but millions of them; especially in the West, people are seeking.

The seeking comes to us through our capacity to conceive something beyond. We do not know why we are seeking, what we are seeking, but there's a craving within us which makes us feel uncomfortable all the time. Despite the fact we have such a lot of affluence around us, I mean as far as our food and our clothing and our housing questions are there, most of them are solved. Despite that we feel that we have not been able to feel happy, joyous and have not been able to understand our own fulfilment.

We do not know why we are on this Earth, why we have to be born as human beings, what is our mission in life. But there are so many who do not think about it, they're not bothered about it. For example, the scientists of the West do not think why they have become from amoeba, a human being, why God has made them from an amoeba, a little unicellular animal, into a human being; and why such a complicated instrument has been created and how it has been created. What are the undercurrents? What are the powers that have created this wonderful thing known as a human being? They have not been able to find out the why of it. Of course, whatever they see they can tell you that “This is what a human being is, this is what is, this is his nose and these are his eyes" and whatever factual things they find out, they tell you that “This is what it is." But what is our destination? What is the purpose? And this is what they cannot answer and that's why we have another type of people who are the seekers. But for your information, I have to tell you that God has already made all the arrangements for you. You have come up from amoeba stage to human beings. What did you do in your evolution? What effort did you put in for your evolution? To become a human being, just think of it. They say that you were monkeys and, today you are human beings. What did you do? Do you remember what you have done to become human beings? Who has done all this? Somebody who has done with his own effort. And that is the same thing that will happen to you when you have to go further in your evolution, that source or that energy or if you like it I would say, the God Almighty who has created us, is going to give us that special being, a birth within us. We are going to achieve that through His grace and through nobody else.

Now it is being said, not only by Me, what I say I have a complete historical background. You can go up to Socrates and you can come up to Christ, everywhere you will find what I say is written down there.

I do not have to quarrel with them at all; they are My own, they are with Me. But I am here to convince you that whatever they have said is the truth. Not by preaching about it, not by brain-washing, not by writing books about it, but by giving you the experience of your being, actualizing it, what they have said that there is a Spirit within us and we have to be born of the Spirit. And what is that Spirit is? And how do we become that? That is what we are going to experience.

As soon as I say, `You cannot put in any effort about it,' our ego gets challenged. How is it? It's difficult for a modern person to understand, that God's grace is going to work out. Even Shañkarāchārya, you know Ādi Shañkarāchārya, the one who propounded Hinduism in India, said that “na yogena, na sankhyena” not by any of these things that it is going to happen, but by Mother's grace it's going to work out that you are you going to be realised, there's no way out. No way thinking about it, writing about it, preaching about it, talking about it, it has to happen to you.

It's a living thing that has to happen to you. Like a little seed, it has to sprout. Now no use standing before the seed and doing all kinds of asanas. No use giving a lecture to the seed. Just a little water of love and the seed sprouts by itself, it comes up by itself. And that's how your own seed is going to work out, the whole process of manifestation, spontaneous. But we think of effort because we are used to it.

For everything we have to have effort, so we think even for realisation we have to go in to some kind of a terrible effort, but that's the wrong idea altogether.

It is a spontaneous thing, it's a living process, you are made specially like this since you were a little animal called as amoeba. Till today you are looked after, you are brought to date and now you have to happen. How are we built within ourselves and what is the specialty that brings forth this manifestation? We have to see about it. But when I'm talking to you, you need not sort of blindly follow that whatever I have said to you. But you should not also close your minds about it, because by saying it's not going to work out, it is going to work out by some other method; and when it works out within you, you yourself will know that it has happened.

I will not have to give a certificate; you will yourself give a certificate about it. Now here I'm going to tell you how we are built within ourselves. As I have said, you should not close your minds about it; it is a hypothesis which you should see for yourself. If it works out, if you find that whatever I have said really works out and you can work it out and you can manoeuvre it and you can understand all the powers that are within you; then you just believe into it, then don't deny it.

So to bring forth your rebirth or your Self-realisation, already there is a mechanism made ready, we can say that as we've got this mechanism made ready here, in the same way there is a mechanism within us which is absolutely ready to act. We can say like a computer, a computer is being built in us, only thing you are to be put to the mains, like this cord has to be put to the mains. That's the only thing now left and if you have put in effort, I'll have to little bit what you call, demolish that much of effort of yours. Because there is no effort needed. Only thing is I have to take this cord and put it to the mains.

But supposing I do not know how to do it, then I will spoil this. Or this by itself cannot do it.

You can see a candle and candle itself cannot light itself. But if there is an enlightened candle, it can enlighten that candle. In the same way if there is somebody who's enlightened, can enlighten your candle if he knows how to do it. This knowledge has to come to you and you have to get that enlightenment within you, then you can do that enlightenment for others also. Like that you'll find there are at least here eighty-five percent people who know that, who have got realisation and why not the rest of them should get it? They should; that is their right, that is their birth right and they must get it.

Sahaja, Saha means with, ja means born. It is born within you. It is within you, the right is within you to get it; and you all are meant for that and you have to just get it, for yourself.

Now here is the instrument, I would say placed like this, out of which if you see, the three energies that are flowing. Is: one of the left hand side, this black one, then another on the right hand side and one in the center. Now these three energies give rise to three autonomous nervous systems within us. The left one gives rise to our left sympathetic; the right one to the right sympathetic and the central one is the parasympathetic. These are the subtle energies placed in the spinal cord also in the cranial bones. Now these energies are: the left side gives us the existence, by which we exist, by this energy we exist. But this also stores up our subconscious or we can say stores up all that is conditioning within us because, say I am telling you something, now you are listening to Me and all that you are listening is going into your subconscious, all that is stored up here.

On the right hand side, the energy that is there is for our physical and mental activity. The left hand side is for our emotional activity and the right hand side is for our physical and mental activity. By this energy we do our physical, any emergencies or physical activity. Like if you have to run, you do Haṭha Yogas and you do all kinds of frantic things. Nowadays in London we have a group of people who are dancing nude all the time. You see, all such things are done by this energy. The upper part of this channel provides for our mental energy by which we think, plan and all that we think about the future.

So we can say that this energy is for the future and that is for the past, the central one is for the present.

Now you cannot be in the present for more than a second, even a split of a second and that is what is the energy you have developed through your evolutionary process, by which now you have become a human being.

Now the whole system is just like this, it's seven centers within you. You can see for yourself: the red, the yellow, the green, the blue, the smoky and the brilliant white, or you can say the goldenish and the top. Like that there are seven centers, these are the subtle centers all within you, placed within you; they are all there, already there. I don't have to create them they are just ready and placed beautifully there inside you and these, all these centers outside manifest what you call `the plexuses'. For example, the lower one manifests the pelvic plexus and the aortic plexus, then we have solar plexus.

[GAP] [UNCLEAR] has to take place. When these two activities, the emotional activity and your what you call, the creativity activity start working together, as a by product we assimilate in our heads two things. One is called as the superego and another as the ego, you can say the smoke out of these activities accumulated there.

So the ego and superego meet like this in the brain and it all fuses together and we get this fontanelle bone completely covered. When this happens then you become Mister X, you become Miss Y and you become Master Z. You become different people, you get this `I'-ness within you and you are separated from the whole.

Like I can say, first of all I separate this instrument and try it on its own battery and then I put it to the mains. You have been given freedom. By giving you this `I'-ness, you are free to do what you like with yourself.

So you start seeking, you start thinking, you start a job or every sort of enterprise in your life comes in. We have seeking for money. Those people do not have seeking for money have got seeking for positions or for power.

Some people of course have seeking for the Divine. But in all these seekings, we go out, like horns. We do not stay in, we seek it outside; we cannot take our attention inside. For example when you are listening to Me, if I say, `Take your the attention inside,' you cannot. The attention is all out, it has come out because of this kind of arrangement that is the brain and if I tell you all about it, it is going to take another lecture. But how it comes out is also a very interesting thing. Only among human beings it is like that, because our brains is like a prism and because of that the energies that coming to us, actually go very little inside, most of them go out, that's why our attention is outside.

Now, how can an attention be taken in? Say you are listening to Me, all right, now suddenly if something happens, it falls out, or something happens within you then your attention is immediately drawn to that.

Though you are very attentive to Me, still your attention will be drawn to that. In the same way, there has to be some sort of a happening within you. When that happening takes place, immediately your attention goes in and the happening will start by a circular thing, which is kept there, which are three and half coils and that is the energy which we call as the residual energy, which is kept there like a coil.

As I told you that you are to be put to the mains so-called and this one is called as the Kuṇḍalinī and this residual energy has to rise and when it is awaken and when it rises, it passes through all these centers and integrates you completely and then you become one with the Divine. You are opened out to the Divine and you find that both ego and superego open out like that and you enter into a new consciousness, into a new awareness, by which you become collectively conscious. Now this is little bit too much to understand what is collective consciousness is. But as I would say that you must have heard all U.N. people and everybody saying, “We are all brothers and sisters and we should not fight with each other” but it is all outside. It is all outside to say that we are all brothers and sisters, we do not think that we are brothers and sisters. Or to say that this whole Universe is one, we are all one, part of the One and the whole primordial Being is there and we are just part of it. How are we to believe it? It's all stories.

But it happens to you that you start feeling the another person, on your fingers you start feeling the Chakras. You see, here I'll show you when you are enlightened you start feeling your centers on your fingers.

You start feeling what are the problems of another person. You start feeling where is the imbalance in those energies, which energy is more, which energy is less, how to raise it and how to put it right. Because you are open to the mains, all the tension drops out, you become absolutely blissful.

Supposing your car has got little petrol and it's about to finish, your patience goes out. But if you know that there is a pipe which is all the time flowing into your car, which is filling that tank, then you are not bothered. In the same way you get open to that All-pervading Power, that grace, which is all the time filling you later on and you feel absolutely blissful. The tensions go away and you start feeling the another person, his Chakras and her Chakras and you can correct them also. Now we have cured cancer, no doubt and only this Self-realisation is going to cure cancer. Now this I have been saying from the year 1970. When they get cancer they come to Me, even doctors. They get cured, but when they say that “Mātājī has cured us” people just don't believe them. It is too much for them to believe that cancer can be cured by Self-realisation.

Now what is cancer? Is nothing but over activity of these two Nāḍīs, or these two channels. They are like this, this channel is say the right, this is the left. Now this is the channel and these are the centers.

When they start working too much, whatever it has stored, little energy you start losing it. When you use them too much they separate and when they separate they are on their own. Once they are on their own, then they become malignant. With Sahaja Yoga what do we do is to pour that energy more into them so that they again come back to the normal state and then the energy is sufficiently flowing in there is no exhaustion at all and the person feels perfectly all right.

But if you say this to anyone else but a Sahaja Yogi, they don't believe it. I did My medicine because I had to talk to doctors and I will be talking to doctors now in England, London, when I come back from India and that's why I did My medicine. And I find that My professor who was teaching Me, his wife got cancer and she had a secondary cancer. And then his wife said, “Why not try Her, after all you people cannot cure me” and they said that “It's a secondary stage, it's horrible” you just can't say about the patient. Not that she is cured but there is no trace of it and the doctor cannot explain how it has happened.

I can explain to him absolutely, scientifically that we have managed the parasympathetic nervous system, which they call as autonomous. They say it is run by itself, by auto. Now who is this auto? You say it is a automobile, all right, there's somebody sitting and running it, isn't it? But who is running this? This you cannot explain. Doctors say, “We do not know the mode of action. We cannot say, how it works we do not know." They are truthful about it. But when I say, “You can jump onto it, you can just control that parasympathetic” they say, “How can that be possible?" It is, believe Me it is possible, it has to be. After all if some instrument has been made with such care for years together, for thousands of years, do you think it is just a wasteful activity of God? That He would not do something about it? That He will not give you your fulfilment? How is it possible? Any rational person can understand it; through rationality you can understand all these things but the happening is for change, is a living process and works out by itself.

Now there are some people I've seen that in seeking they have gone to wrong places, they have been hurt, they have been troubled, they have been tortured, they have been misled, but doesn't matter. It is a living process and living process is very different from a dead process. For example something goes wrong with this say, a hall, then you cannot do something about the foundations. But if a tree is say in a mess, you can treat the tree in such a way that the whole tree can be all right, the roots can be all right. In the same way, this thing is absolutely a living process everything can be all right and has to work out. Now but the biggest problem of the West is Mister E-g-o, which is colossal sometimes and it's very difficult for people to understand that they cannot pay for God, they cannot purchase Him; you cannot. Maybe in your churches people take money and live like parasites, but God is not a parasite. These are horrible people, maybe in your temples, maybe in your mosques, maybe anywhere people are purchasing God; but that's a myth, that's absolutely a myth and insult of God. Nobody can purchase God, nor can you have a say of His grace and love.

So this is a big challenge and people don't want to accept it. And so many thugs who have come from India, I take the responsibility as an Indian, if you call Me an Indian, that of course they did come here to rob you. But you are also partly responsible. Your ego was satisfied that they said, “You can pay for that” that you were robbed by these horrible people. And if they have robbed you they are going to be punished, no doubt they are going to be punished, because you are seekers they have robbed you. It's the sad part of it. If you were ordinary people they would have not bothered about it, but because you are seekers they've harmed you deliberately and they have robbed you.

If they are robbers they should become, say, burglars. They could be good burglars; they can earn much more money by that; they should take to smuggling. But why trouble the seekers? It has happened with so many people and so many that are here who have got realisation also have gone through not to one but four, five of them, one after another.

In America people told Me, “Mother we've been to Guru shopping." I said, “Now will you settle down somewhere or are you still shopping?" They get into a mood of shopping so they cannot stick on to it. It is a terrible thing and that is the worst that has happened in the modern times.

To awaken this Kuṇḍalinī they say is a very, very difficult thing, they say. I don't believe it. It is not, it is the easiest thing for Me, it's My play. I can just do it like this, I can raise your Kuṇḍalinī like this and you will also do the same. Once you are realised, you will also start moving other's Kuṇḍalinī. You can see for yourself that how the power of your Spirit grows. You can raise their Kuṇḍalinī, you can cure them, you can understand what's wrong with their Chakras and you can look after all the people whom you want to pay attention to. You can do it too, because the time has come, the blossom times has come.

It was difficult when only one flower was to flower, then only three, four flowers came in. Now it's a blossom time, so many have to become fruits and many are changing fast. It has to be en masse, it is working out that way. It has to work out for many of them, otherwise the creation won't stay anymore there. Already the destruction has settled into our minds. This time the destruction is not going to come from outside but from within because we'll be frustrated that we are not been able to find out what we have been finding out.

But people are of varied nature. Just now Bala asked Me on the way, “Mother how is it I am such a fortunate person that I should, I should get it so easily? I haven't done anything about it and I get it." Because you are blessed specially, you are especially blessed, that's how you are going to get it. Now in this Birmingham I saw nothing but people and people and people, all kinds. But here how many do we have? This is what it is, so there is a choice and there is a selection and there is a way of getting the right people at the right time. It can only work out with people who really deserve it to begin with, but gradually it works out in a very much bigger way and a very much bigger way and many people can get it and can work it out.

If you have any questions you please ask Me because it is such a vast subject, I don't know how will I cover up in one lecture? Tomorrow I am going visit Bala. Those who want to come and see Me personally, can come and see Me there I don't know his address he will tell you. Tomorrow I'll be there till 12 o'clock.

All of you are welcome to come and see Me, but here also if you have any questions you must ask Me and also we'll try to work out the realisation part of it.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All right, now Karmas are, this is also Karma. Who does the Karma? Is your ego.

You do not do it. If you ask, say an animal, say you ask a tiger, he does not do any Karma. We, in our ignorance, think that we are doing the Karma because we have our ego there nicely placed and because we are something that suggest the Karma. But supposing I remove your ego one side, then who is doing the Karma there? You are no more there, you go into Akarma. Moreover if I am something, say I am something, then I can cleanse it also, possibility is there. All right.

Do you know My name Nirmalā, what does that means? Means `Purity', if I'm anything of My name, I may be able to cleanse it completely. If I'm your Mother I have to do it, that's My job and I'll work hard.

So don't you stick onto your Karmas, do not identify with them. They are nothing for Me, I know how to cleanse all these, very well. I've studied all the permutations and combinations of all this. All right? These people have also put ideas into your heads that you have very bad Karmas, especially you see in the church you say, “you are sinners." Sinners, morning till evening.

Those who say are the greatest sinners I can tell you that and those who receive from you confessions, I am surprised they are not mad as yet. They should become the way they are taking confessions from everybody. Just think of it, absurd. Human beings are the most beautiful things God has created, the most beautiful: he has done some mistakes, all right, but God is the ocean of forgiveness. You know this: what is an ocean? So do not worry on that kind. Not only I, but you will raise the Kuṇḍalinī and give them realisation. All right? Some question coming into your mind, Sir? Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Already your the Kuṇḍalinī has risen very high up. When it crosses this point you do not think even, you become into thoughtless awareness, Nirvichar Samādhi. Already even if you have to think of a question, you'll have to assert a little pressure. [Laughing.] That's the trick.

Some questions? Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: They are just like you people, like the human beings are. You see how human beings live, they will go to the church and from the church direct to the pub. How do you explain that? You see your own mother dies in the house and you have a champagne. Human beings are like that. In the same way these are just ordinary human being, they are not realised Souls. A realised Soul will never hurt anyone.

So they try to be good; they try to be bad. They are half-hearted, half-baked people, so they are like that, but why take help from anybody else, why not be yourself? You see, we do not like to take help from anyone normally, you see, especially in the West people do not think they should take any help. “I on my own." But why in spiritual life you want to take help from a spirit? You should not, because they are parasites. Once they get stuck onto you, it will be impossible to get rid of them; and then they start doing all kind of tricks, you see. In My presence the other day, “This you remember Maria had come in our house, we had a program and there were all spiritualist there." And one of them got up suddenly and he started moving his hands like this, [UNCLEAR] going on. He said, “I cannot control it." I said, “You better control. You say you are a spiritualist, so why not control your spirits?" So it was going on like that and like that he cannot control.

So, these are the permutations and combinations of all types they are but basically they are the left and the right, but they can combine as I told you and they are horrible. The sooner you get awakened to their cunningness and to their stupidity better it is for you because you are seekers. You are not seekers of this life only, you have been seeking for lives together.

It has been said at the time of Nala and Damayantī, just imagine at the time when it was Satya Yuga, just at the end of the Satya Yuga; you can say a little at Dvāpara, thousands of years back it was said that you will be born like this. Because, you see, this Kali, this modern times, the one who is the Kali Yuga as you call it he is responsible for, you see, intriguing people against, intrigue and confusing people.

So he is the one who is the, we should say the driver of this Kali Yuga is.

So, this Kali was caught by Nala because poor Nala was once intrigued by this Kali and was so much tortured that he gave up his own wife. He gave up his own wife, you see and he was tortured and this Kali was again was caught up by Nala and he said that “I am going to now kill you, So, because you are the one who is an intriguer, who confuses people and who try to create all kind of problems. Because, you see, there is going to be a Yuga” as he said, Kali Yuga. He knew at that time everybody would be in a confusion.

So he told Nala that “You see, you wait for some time and I will tell you, explain to you what is my importance is, what is my Māhātmyam, importance is. When you will realise my importance then you will leave me." So he said, “All right, you tell me." Said, “You give me some time to explain to you” and then he told him that “In the Kali Yuga when I will be the driver of that Yuga, you see, the people who will be born will be the seekers who are today seeking." In those days, you see, Dvāpara, long time back are seeking in the caves and in the jungles and in the forest, “Who are seeking God, will be born as ordinary human beings, living as house holders in very ordinary way and they will get their realisation. And that's why you should not try to kill me, because Kali Yuga has to come. If the confusion is not come in, people do not seek it that much and that's why out of confusion only the light comes.

So that stage had to reach, of that culminating point had to reach and that only I can do it, so you just spare me” and he was spared.

Now this is, when was this? Dvāpara means at least six thousand or eight thousand years back. This was, that had happened. Eight thousand years back these things were said or even earlier we can say even before Rāma's time, would be about nine thousand years back.

So this was said nine thousand years back, that you will be born.

So you are seekers and you have been seeking for many lives, not this life only and now you have come to a point when you should get that what you have been seeking, so just ask for that.

Why ask for these rope tricks? You see, that vanishing tricks, rope tricks, all these tricks, because this means all spirits. This is not your own Spirit, the Ātmā is. And the English language has one confusion is that the spirit is for everything. Spirit is your Ātmā, is the reflection of God within you in your heart; spirit is also a dead body and spirit is also what you sell in the pubs.

So all these things confuse. You see, is a confusion, again is a very big confusion. But you must know that within your heart resides God and once you become that power then you become yourself. That is the self which is to be realised, that is to be achieved and that you must ask for; all the rest of the things are useless.

These are all outside; even what is the Āsanas for? For having a good body, for what? All right, we should keep good health I can understand, but all the time your attention is on your body, what are you going to do? Are you going to wrestle somewhere or are you going to join these, what you call these boxing bouts? You are seekers, you are a different clan altogether, you are not one of these horrible people who take out the bone of their nose just to box each other. You are not those people, you are different, you cannot make jokers out of you. I mean you are different people altogether, the flowers of the creation.

How can you accept all these nonsensical things what others are doing are doing? You cannot. You try, you will try it for a while and then to give it up. Because there you will not find what you have been seeking, is the self, your own being within yourselves. Now how are you to believe into yourself also, how are to know what is Self-realisation is? This is the point because that is what one should know; what we should know when we are Self-realised.

First of all, it is all described in the scriptures, whether you take Bible, Koran, or anything. But supposing you do not understand. But still after Self-realisation what should happen? When you realise your self means you have enlightenment. What happens when you get the light in this room? You start seeing everything, you starting seeing yourself and you start seeing others. In the same way when you get realisation, Self-realisation, you should see yourself first of all. That means you should feel your Chakras, you should feel them. Now you put your hands towards Me, you can feel your own Chakras whatever is catching in you, you can feel it on your hands.

You can feel the silence within you and you can feel it. If you are not feeling anything and Cool Breeze is coming then your Chakras are clear, that means you are seniors. After sometime you'll be amazed that you will see within yourself the Kuṇḍalinī rising, putting its pressure here, going there. You can also see in others, the same thing. You can say, “Where is the Kuṇḍalinī?" When I ask you say, “Mother, it's here” “Mother, it's not yet risen." Not that I don't know, of course I know, but I just ask you and I show all the [UNCLEAR] that is possible because I want you to learn and work it out you see.

So I say, “Oh really it's there! I didn't know." But I play an illusion by which you just don't, you hear Me but you don't believe in it, you see and so next time you will do it very seriously and I like it, because then you learn this art. Otherwise you see you will say, “Mother, You are doing everything then why should we do it?" So I want you to learn this art of Kuṇḍalinī fully, that you know about yourself, that you know about your own Chakras. You find out where is the Kuṇḍalinī is, how it is working. Then you know about others, you know about others'

Chakras, where it is, where it is moving and how it is working, so that you get into collective consciousness by which you know others and Self-realisation by which you know yourself. These two things happen.

Now what happens thirdly, thirdly it should happen that you should feel that you are one with the Divine so there's no pressure in your mind, no tension. Now, how do you feel you are one with the Divine? Say for example how do you feel it is connected? When it is passing the energy through you, isn't it? Now when you see the energy passing through you, you just say, “It is going, It is coming” you don't say, `I'm giving this.' You are the channel, but you never say that, you say, “It is going” “It is there” “It is not there." You start thinking about the third person. You separate yourself from that and you start seeing “It is going, it's not." And, moreover, you do not say that I am doing it, neither you feel that you are doing it so your ego is finished. You just say, “It's going." You cannot say. Now yesterday as we were working a doctor was there and these people they Gavin was there. They said, “No Mother, not yet. No, no, it's not done." They could not say that `We are doing it,' neither they could say, `Yes it is done.' You cannot just say it. If it is done, it is done. If it is not done, it is not done.

See, maybe your own son cannot get realisation, maybe a problem with that also. It is quite possibility, So it is the truth and it can happen to someone and may not happen to another. Truth is a truth, you cannot force it onto anyone. It has to get into a place and it is has to work it out itself.

Say, here is the light. Now here is the light so you can see, but if there is no light in the other room, you cannot say there is light. You cannot force, you cannot give a certificate, a wrong certificate, `there is light.' You can clearly there is no light, so it's all right there is no light. You are not attached to it.

You cannot say that `Because he is my brother, oh, he must have the light,' you cannot say that. Or you cannot say falsely also that there is light, because you can see clearly. No, there is not; so there is not.

So you are identified with truth, first of all. By Self-realisation, you are identified with truth. If you try to identify with untruth you cannot. You just cannot even if you try, you cannot, because how can you do it? Because you can see for yourself it is not working out; it is not going up. It's not happening, so how can you say? So first you are identify with truth and truth is the nature of God, is the nature of God's truth which is expressed through your Spirit and the vibrations that you are getting is nothing but the pulsation, the Spirit speaking, the Spirit is talking to you. There is a rapport between your awareness and that of the Spirit. Actually, the Spirit is giving you this light through you. You have become the lamp of the Spirit now and the light is enlightened so you are identified with the Spirit. You become the truth.

Then, the second point is that you have to become, you can say steady person. You have to be steady into it. Like you see believe into something, All right, now you know that this is yellow colour or this is white colour, but supposing somebody says, `No, no, no, this is not white, this is black,' and you start figuring whether it is really white or black, is it true or not. You see you are not sure about it, the surety of it, the surety of it. Even if you put ten children together and tie their eyes and ask them to see the vibration of a particular person, all of them will raise the same finger, everybody is catching on this, everybody will say they are catching on this, nobody will say that [UNCLEAR].

So you get the sure and certain truth, the truth is a sure thing, there cannot be two truths, it has to be one. You understand this? So the truth that you see is absolutely `the one' and what is the one truth is very subtle, which is very difficult...

Contents: 1979-05-31 Workshop after, Public Program, Bala's House, Rosemary Road, Tamworth (near Birmingham), UK

Since you must know that I will not tell that whatever is not the truth, because I'm not here for any political gain, of commercial gain, no sir, I'm here for your own gain, about [UNCLEAR Genu] if you want to gain, [UNCLEAR]. Now see for yourself if this is the truth or not. You can see with your naked eyes. These people have seen, the Kuṇḍalinī pulsates, you can see it pulsates when people touch My feet, in many cases, it pulsates, they have seen it. They are not all liars and why should they lie? Nothing to gain. No money, first of all, that's cut out.

So what is the other truth? This Kuṇḍalinī rises and you can see it rising, passes through all these Chakras and it stops at a place where you have a problem. For the other day we had a very big man, when he came to see Me and his Kuṇḍalinī came up and was just pulsating here like this, like that and the whole of this part was pulsating and only that part.

So the people asked him, “Are you all right?" “Yes, I'm all right." “But you have a liver problem?" “Yes I have." You can see Kuṇḍalinī [UNCLEAR] it pulsates, so you have to correct the liver, you have to correct the whole thing and so many problems, physical, mental and emotional. But whatever may be the problem I've sorted out, all permutations and combinations I've worked out now, there is no permutation that now I can say that is not worked out, except for one that is the worst of all is misidentification. If you carry on with misidentifications, truth cannot help you. You must know that you must identify with yourself and with nothing else. Then only it works out, that is the only thing is the misidentification with [UNCLEAR]. Ask for the truth and truth will be given to you, but ask for the truth, not the truth that you have made as truth. Truth is as it is, you cannot make it, you cannot give it a form, you cannot say, `This is the truth,' no, it is what is. You have to see it, you have be that, you have to appreciate it, you have to become that. People, how they pass remarks at Christ, even person like Christ, everybody has become so ego-oriented, I mean they think they have a right to criticise everyone. Christ is a person about who you cannot think. For Sahaja Yogis I cannot challenge this part. They are realised Souls, when they start thinking about Christ they become thoughtless. He is beyond thinking, how can you rationalise Him and bring Him to this level and put Him to this level that you become absolutely [UNCLEAR] asking questions, “So how did You have Your resurrection?" How can you understand, what do you know about Brahma? What do you know about Divine workings? What do you understand this kind of divinity? This little human mind can only become a drop in the ocean. It cannot understand the ocean and its work.

This is the thing you have to realise and once we realise that we are part of this ocean, we become the ocean all right. But this is not lecturing. Again, I'm telling you, it is a happening. You start feeling others immediately. When you are a drop outside the ocean, you do not feel what other drops are there in the ocean, but once you jump into the ocean, you start feeling everyone in your hands, absolutely, rationally, which can be understood in the fingers, on the Chakras. Now this knowledge about Kuṇḍalinī, was not known even to the greatest sages, even to I would say people like [UNCLEAR Naria/Naga] people. It was not needed, the time had not come. You know when, say for example, electricity is not created, what is the use of telling them about the switches? They were realised Souls, all right, they had vibrations, all right, but they did not know about that, this is Chakras and their character and these are the things are missing. They did not, but I know [UNCLEAR] they think: What have these modern people done that they should get all this knowledge? That they waited is the main point These people try to show off so much, all right, go ahead, they are fixed as some officers, some men in charge, they are not going to be the [UNCLEAR inheritance]. For example all these people like Indra and the Gods who are in charge of the weather, or all that, are settled down very nicely on the right side of God. I made things easy for you, as the caretaker of this things. But you are the people who are enjoying the fruits of it. What can we do? You waited, you've got it and if you get it, that is in your right. But this I do not, to pamper your ego again too, because you have to get it, you have to settle in. And the third knowledge is the thing where you are just in the center, where neither you are in the ego nor in the superego, you are in the center.

And the space is created on your forehead, in the Sahasrāra. If you see it when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, the gap between the center where the Kuṇḍalinī rises and she opens this Sahasrāra, which we call as baptism and there you to you enter into that subtle awareness of collective consciousness. But as soon as your Kuṇḍalinī passes this Chakra of Āgñyā, immediately you becomes thoughtlessly aware, means you will be aware but there won't be any thought which is described by Jung and what he has talked about, collective consciousness, from where these ideas of his. Means it becomes your own nature. It is an actualisation; it is not talking, it is an actualisation in your body. Like a human being you become a super human. From animal to a human being there's definitely difference in awareness. In the same way, there is a difference in the awareness of a man and a superman, but the only exception is that in your own consciousness you see it happen. It's the only human being can see their evolution and not the animal, because you have been given freedom to see that, but the way the freedom has been used, you can.

So better not go into that, let us forget about it if we can do without, for instances mistakes which we can manage it better do, but if the mistakes are there, we'll face them all. I'll be with you throughout, absolutely with you and it should work out. Now if we say that this is wrong, we should not do this, don't get angry. For example the other day I told somebody that “drinks and alcohol goes against Sahaja” he got very angry. He said, “Do You own a shop?" Why is it, I mean it's a simple thing I'm telling you, should I tell, `you go get drunk'? Should I tell you, `It is a good thing, you can do anything with your sex life'? Now you tell Me what, in this whole world where you have all kind of moralities so-called, where is a man crowned for drinking? In the whole world. Tell Me, any man crowned for drinking, getting drunk, or [UNCLEAR]. Have you seen any man being garlanded for being licentious and perverted? That means collectively human beings never accepted this kind of nonsense.

So far, I mean I don't know, collectively everybody becomes [UNCLEAR a Satan, God only knows] but even in the Roman Empire when it was the worst of all at that time, this was not.

So collectively human beings have always accepted the holiness, righteousness and [UNCLEAR as the right thing]. And even since today, those people who lived in ordinary houses and huts are respected and huge, big properties are being made in their name, because that name itself gives them that power [UNCLEAR]. They are insulting them, they are actually hurting the souls of all these people [souls, bhoots] but what to do? What are human beings do it for [UNCLEAR], they do it out of ignorance. If they do it out of ignorance it will be forgiven, everything will be forgiven, take it from Me and you will be amazed how it works out. Now I would say, if you have any questions you better ask Me, because I felt still I have not still able to answer all your questions, despite I know what is in your mind.

So anyone of you has any questions, please ask Me before we start the program, but not too much of it, because some are just there and if you ask funny, foolish, stupid questions, we are going to divert our attention again.

We have not achieved it, we are not there. We are still nervous, we are nowhere.

So please don't disturb others. That is important, if you are doing only for your Guru, fake Guru, otherwise you are here just to show off, the other day somebody said, “In this book this is written." Now, am I to answer for all the books that are written? No. Actually, I am not even a graduate. How much did Christ study? This is another knowledge I'm talking about, so don't waste your energy and My energy and everybody else too.

And if you have come here show off, I would request you go out, because this is not to show off but to show in.

So [UNCLEAR that's...] do not try again and again I request, you have wasted a lot of your lives [UNCLEAR in seeking] and the time has come. [UNCLEAR Gregoire said...] you would not be there. Otherwise you would be there you would be sitting in some discotheque, or if not there in some race course somewhere there, but when you are here you are the saint who have the right to get it, but you have to be a saint. [UNCLEAR Nature should have seeking of the real type...] I would like you to ask Me questions if there is any explanation you get or anything which you think...

Contents: 1979-06-05 Conversation with Sahaja Yogis, Illusions and Collectivity, Northampton, UK

... any dimension it must be, just think of it. Now the permutations and combinations are, as I said, are thirty-four, thirty-five [UNCLEAR the roles of permutations and combinations].

So I told our great mathematician Mister Nemai to work it out. He said, “Impossible!" And he told Me some number; up to that we can. But this is too much. How can you work it out? How many permutations and combinations there must be in thirty-five [UNCLEAR paroles.]

Sahaja Yogi: Three hundred and fifty million.

Shri Mataji: That's only, that's the basic point, you see, but how many permutations and combinations out of them are active and how they work it out? But the only thing that the human being has is to take it. You see, this is the most difficult thing. Even if you have the best on this earth, what's the use? If human beings are not going to turn their hands towards Me, what can I do about it? Now all these permutations and combinations are fixed and very nicely done and they work very fast. They are very busy, I have seen it and they work all over the world, all over the universe. But this little brain here is covered in something called as Mister E G O and it's very difficult for these little little things to ask them to open. It's very difficult for them. They find it impossible and it is such a funny thing going on, you see, that every time a river flows and the people have to fill the cups that have to open, either they put the cups on the other way round or they put some stones and say that, `We didn't get anything.' So this permutations and combinations business is so tremendous that I wonder at Myself sometimes how I speak to them, you see, to speak. You see, currently with all this going on you can imagine what must be the sense and but for My sense of humour I would not have existed, allowed Myself to live. The amount of things I have to tolerate and the amount of [UNCLEAR] to which people come to and the way they behave, it's fine, finding it out sometimes and sometimes it's the way they question Me. Then only thing I can do is to just laugh it out and use My sense of humour and be there and work it out.

So this is the big problem and this problem is not so easy to solve, but some people do feel bad sometimes and they behave in a manner that makes Me know that they know about it very well and that's why they are so frightened and they understand it very well.

So now we are today going to tell you about collectivity. You must hear the first part of this, is very interesting, but I am doing the second part now. Now, collectivity is a thing, is to be understood in a much deeper way than we have thought, you see. First of all, in collectivity, when we say this body is a collective instrument made out of many cells, all right? Then what do we understand? That first thing is, in collectivity we must realise that there is interdependence. We have to depend on others. Like he has to depend on her and she is dependent upon him. But when it comes to ego not only that it separates you from each other, that's not the only thing it does, but it teaches you not to be dependent on anyone.

You have to depend on others. You are not to exploit others but you have to depend on others and others have to depend upon you first thing very much. On this subject I'll tell you a little more.

Now, for example there is one Mr. X and another Mr. Y who are Sahaja Yogis and X and Y have to depend on each other. Say a position like that comes up.

So what should we do? We must try to find out the common point first of all. If there is a question of common point, it will not work out.

So common point is, of course, you know that there is a common point between both of them, that they have been thinking and they have got through Sahaja Yoga and that I am the person whom they think will resolve all the differences between them.

So this is one common point, but the dependence between the two is to be prepared in a country where we don't really go near them. First of all, when we try to depend on others, have we been able to create an atmosphere of dependence? Say, supposing you know I do not want my son to stay in my house, so how will I talk to my son? I will say, `You are good for nothing. You are such a liability. You are all the time on my head and you are troubling me such a lot.' All right. Or, `You cannot earn five pounds even.' What have you taught him? He gets hurt. `All right, I will show you.' So he goes out, digs a hole. He'll do anything to show his mother that he can earn money, see and that's how he'll work it out, isn't it? Another thing could be, simpler way, is to just throw him out, you see and then you should say, `Look at him,' and you are having bad relations. I mean, you have done everything that is possible to create bad relations. Now, it's just the truth. I mean, when you work it out that way, what do you expect to happen? The simple thing is that you have bad relations with each other. I mean, it's the whole thing is worked out bad.

So what is the other thing one has to do, is to prepare a ground.

Now how I would act if I want somebody to come to Sahaj, for example? I would find out what does he like to eat. What is he fond of? Or is he an intellectual? Then I should try to tell him that, `I don't understand much or have not read much,' so that he feels all right with Me, that She's all right. She is not an intellectual. There's no confrontation at that point.

So it's all right. You see, intellectual is a trick, you see. I do it.

So he comes in. Then when he gets realisation, you see, how two people can interdepend on each other after realisation. You should see that supposing somebody is catching, all right. One way would be direct to tell, `Oh you are catching on Viśhuddhi. Get out. We don't want you. You get out.

You are horrid. You just can't stay.' That's one way. Another is to say that, `Perhaps you know I think I am catching here on the Viśhuddhi, or are you catching?' So prepare a proper seat for him in your heart.

If you offer a seat in your heart, you see, half of these problems will disappear because he'll have confidence that he has, because he will feel that at last he has found out someone who understands.

So the preparation should be more on this side, not on the other side of anybody who comes in, give him a punch, just like this. You must have seen these boxers have a punch in the house, you see and any time they are passing by they just try to, I am sorry.

So and if they are intellectuals then they will try such punches which will be very subtle and intelligent. But a little bit, you see, put a little what we call a, in Indian language, a Phuljhadi, you see. Just put a little of a crackle here and there. And he goes out.

He finds the crackle just bursting out, you see.

So all these tricks are self-destroying because you destroy yourself sometimes.

... yourself watch your own being. That is, how much are you disciplined in Sahaja Yoga? What are you doing for Sahaja Yoga? How much you are working it out? You see, I have seen, say, in a bhoot, you see. I always play such tricks with you, which I must tell you, that if there is something I'll shout and say, `All right, now what are your suggestions?' So from the suggestions I know where you are.

So I immediately know what is the position here, you see. I'll take all the suggestions from you. Of course I do. But how much I agree, that only God knows, you see. But, so the suggestions come in very seriously and I find that there's a lot of negativity.

So, it's better not to suggest too much because if you suggest maybe you are a medium of negativity.

So, you first of all ascertain yourself how far you are, without feeling bad about it, because collectivity is the place where you belong. You do not really belong to this individual being that you are. You belong to collectivity and that's why you have to be there and to be there you have to face your, all the time yourself and find out how far you are away from that collectivity, how far you are deciding things for yourself and not for the collectivity. You have to be very much on the alert and this is the discipline you have to pick out yourself.

The trouble is, you see the discipline we, if I tell you, `Get up at four o'clock,' you may get up. If I say, `Shave off your heads,' you can shave off. If I tell you, `Shave off your eyebrows,' you will shave off. If I tell you, `Just stand before Me for hours together,' you will stand on your heads for hours together. If I tell you, `You jump in the sea,' you may jump. That's very easy discipline to do, nothing so difficult. You can do that. But if I tell you you have to be alert all the time, within yourself to see that are you in collectivity, are you doing something in collectivity, or you are doing something for yourself? Do not deceive yourself at this point because deceiving yourself means you are deceiving your collectivity. Your chances of being there which is beyond, which you have achieved.

So try to do something which is congenial, helpful to collectivity. I've seen people, just wives talking to each other on Sahaja Yoga also. They'll just pass a remark on someone, “Oh, he thinks he is being very clever” you see. Now we have dropped a poison in the ocean of collectivity. Pour love, pour wisdom, pour understanding.

Put your fragrance of goodness. Do things in good faith. People have faith in you and they should not be shocked by the way we are. This is the discipline one has to have and this discipline, if you have within yourself, for that you don't have to do anything extracurricular or something very much hazardous. No, to be on the alert, to be on the watch upon yourself. Am I there or am I doing it just to please myself, or to please this ego of mine? Myself is all right but this is the ego that one tries to work out and that's why interdependence is very difficult. You see, if I tell you, `Don't be interdependent,' then you'll do one thing.

You'll not borrow money, say, from others. That's very easy. You'll not borrow money. If I say, `Return every the money that you borrowed' all right, you'll return every money. You'll keep all accounts perfectly.

I know you can do that and you can also have, “All right you can also have, all right you pay one `P' all right, well one `P' for one and a half ", what do you call, “slice of bread, to buy." You can do that. That you have done already and that's not difficult for human beings. Equal distribution, absolutely perfect, honesty about it is possible. That one can do is to have a complete idea of how to maintain this beauty of honesty among yourselves, you see, that you do not depend. I do not mean that interdependence. I mean much subtler interdependence.

Interdependence comes in very, very easily.

So, now you are sitting down here, now you know somebody is, for example, the name of the person, [UNCLEAR sitting with a person for a long time, just better check] somebody's uncomfortable. You think about it. You are thinking, did you see that everybody is watching them? Are they all right? Give others a place in your place. If they are not feeling that you are thinking about their body, about their problems. Like I have seen when you love someone, you know that happens just to please him. That also not so great, just to think of that person more than yourself.

Then you detach yourself from your ego. Have you been kind? Like this, there are so many things. In the night, have they got water to drink? All right, then you put a little water for them. All these small, small things you think of when you start loving. Oh, I am going to meet such and such a man. Now should I take something that person would like to have? A little thing, not much. This kind of feeling we should have all the time for others. Then interdependence is there. Then you will be amazed that the other person will depend on you entirely, entirely. Is not the independence of earning or money or anything that is important to such a person. If you can think that much for another person, that person can give everything to you and will entirely depend upon you.

Do you know I entirely depend upon you? Do you know that, that My complete existence is there because of Sahaja Yoga? Otherwise I would be finished at this moment. Perhaps you do not know it. I would not exist in this world if you people gave Me up. Is a fact which I must accept and which you must also agree. Because see now, if you do not take My vibrations, they will all be here frozen. I would become a frozen mummy, only emitting vibrations, that's all. I won't be speaking. It happens now. See, the left Nābhī is just now, I am catching, is coming hard. You have to take out My vibrations. If you do not take My vibrations I am not going to exist any more as a human being walking, you see. And as something else maybe, but not as a human being as you see. I'll be just frozen. If you do that to Me imagine how much I should flow to you. I mean, My existence is because of you. It is. Perhaps you do not know it.

Do you know that I am here on this earth only because of you? Otherwise I would have been very nicely somewhere else: [UNCLEAR tough luck]. But then also you must know that as I depend on you. You also depend upon Me, but more I depend on your collectivity.

The moment you start becoming unaware of your collectivity, immediately cancer starts going in My body. I get physical troubles because of that.

So the collectivity is not what you think of yourself, to be something great. It's not that you are above everything and you are this and you are that. How much you have done to enhance the collectivity of understanding, of love. Because say if My, this hand doesn't know this hand, now what do I do? If we are a living body, just think of it. I mean, if I do not know my one eye to another eye, if there's no connection, what will happen to it? And when you do all this it becomes a funny personality out of Me, you see. I don't know how to manage Myself.

So to sustain this interdependence you must learn to depend on each other. Now coming to the practical side of it I've already told you to think all the time of another person in a loving manner, not in a criticising manner, not seeing to the loopholes of a person. See your loopholes and another person's greatness. I mean, some people are real, I tell you, what we call drags, dragging down.

Some people are like that. But to drag you is boredom you know sometimes, because they'll talk about you, `Oh, this happened. Then my mother said so. Then my father said so. My grandfather said so. Then my aunty said so. I was coming, there was a seeker who did this and all round yourself.' Is very boring! Just thinking about yourself, then you are not thinking of collectivity.

But a person who is collective is the most interesting person. The one who is not that way, he may think himself to be something great, so let him think, but he's not interesting, extremely boring and people run away from such a person. The reason is he's not collective. He's not auspicious.

So, to become collective you have to you watch yourself like a [UNCLEAR pussycat]. Now I would say for that, collective meditation is very important, which you have already experimented without finding there, those who have done it up to a point and collective thinking. Now when ten people think together and are thinking collectively, it should move like one force. Even the water which is a dead thing for all that, it runs towards the slope, isn't it? Or does some water run upward? I mean, it has one Swabhava. It has one style of thinking. In the same way Sahaja Yogis all must run towards God, towards Sahaja Yoga, towards collectivity. How can they run upwards? There is no individual working on this point.

Once you start doing that way you are doing just the opposite of what you should be doing.

Then they'll say, `Mother why we are not good? We have been working for so many days. It doesn't work out.' This is the problem. If you are in the collectivity, even if you are not so good, you will be pulled in to it. Now what happens, it's such a vicious circle that when you are not all right, you will always oppose others and create some sort of a silly situation, or you'll bring out silly propositions or something like that you see, like a boulder inside the flowing waters. [UNCLEAR So we find a little water]. And the suggestions from negative people will be always negative.

So if there is negativity within us better to keep quiet, to work it out. That is the biggest thing, negativity. Better to keep quiet if you have negativity within you. Better to keep quiet. Try to remove the negativity. Because if you do not try to do that they act as mediums and they can use you as mediums and you become a medium of Satan instead of God.

There you become very collective really. There's a big fraternity among them.

But after realisation the drive should be much more that you can resolve because there's lots of mud sticking on the lotus which has come up. But when the lotus is high enough the fragrance is emitted.

All the lotus in the beautiful pond emit the same fragrance and intensify. Nobody goes and says that the fragrance is from one lotus. The whole lake is named after [UNCLEAR] imagine. The lake becomes smaller after the lotus flowers. That kind of fragrance of love should grow between you and such excitement and joy should be among yourselves, then the collectivity. Now for that you must know that you have to have self-preservation. It's very important.

Like you say you are ten Sahaja Yogis here, all right? So you must have the style of lotuses and you must have sense of self-preservation against other things. Now see somebody outside has come in. Then you all should immediately come together and form a nice club of your own, you see. Then the other person comes in. With all this force he will be dragged into it. But as soon as he says anything against anyone of you, you all jump on him. Then he will know they are all one. But normally you will find if somebody comes in like that, possibly you may join the other fellow who is no good, who is going to create a problem between us. There is a possibility.

So remember when facing others you are all one. Among yourself you can talk but facing others you should know they are the people who are still away from us.

So this is the self-preservation thing which is very important you should have and the self-preservation in Sahaja Yoga is to be preserved. In its purest it is very important responsibility on you people, because future Sahaja Yogis may not see Me, but you have seen and you know what is the truth.

You see here the way we have lived a very pure ideal and pure Sahaja Yoga, absolutely above all kinds of nonsensical things. In the same way the people who are going to come after you also must think in the same way, in the same fashion.

So you have to make a very pure relationship and a pure club among yourselves by which the people who are going to follow the progeny which is going to come is going to say, `This is what is being in Sahaja Yoga.' So the self-preservation also means the preservation of Sahaja Yoga in its purest form.

Now I'm here a living Person. If you have any problems, you want to know God, whether it should be done or not, you can ask Me. Clarify it, but do not accept anything because Mr. X, somebody told you this, Mr. Y told Me. Nothing of the kind, never do like that. You are, do not quote anyone else, even that person may be in Sahaja Yoga. I must warn you of this. Never confuse each other that somebody said so or another person has said so or someone said so. No, if you are doubtful ask Me. Verify it. And quote it only when you have verified it. Quote should be very important because you are the foundation stones of Sahaja Yoga and you have to be, every one of you have to be perfect so that this huge big mansion is not going to close down because of you. There should be no weakness left in you. That's why it is important to understand that the self-preservation, preservation of Sahaja Yoga in principles.

Contents: 1979-06-11*, Public Program, How God's Aspects are Expressed within us, Caxton Hall, London, UK

... Thank you. Come along. See those who are... You come in front, all right? Better thing is that the new people sit in front. It's better. Yes. Hello. Good. Very good.

So I would like to give you a little idea about this picture that we have in front of us. Now whom we call as God Almighty, the One who is eternal, who doesn't incarnate, who is all the time there watching the play of His power, the Primordial Mother, is manifested through Her Power into His three aspects here, clearly, within ourselves and within the Primordial Being who is the ultimate which all the created people have to reach.

Now there's a difference between the two, the Almighty God, as you call Him, the One who never incarnates and the One who incarnates on this earth and occupies a position like this, just like a human being and He's called as a Primordial Being or you can say the Virāta. You can call Him the Virāt.

Actually, though He's called as Primordial Being, He's an aspect of God.

So these are two things if you understand, I will be able to explain to you how the aspects of God are expressed in us.

So the first aspect of God is His desire to create, His desire to create and in His desire to create...

Oh, you were outside there Linda, I didn't recognize. Come along, I'm sorry I didn't recognize you, I never recognized you, I'm sorry, I never recognized you, I thought, `Who is this one'" Sorry.

So, this side would be better.

So His desire to manifest, His desire to create, that's the aspect within us which is represented by this blue coloured line which is called as the Ādi Iḍā Nāḍī, or you can call it the primordial Iḍā channel by which He desires.

Now as the desire can be born and can be finished off, can be switched off, in the same way, His desire to create also can be over. His desire to create any more may be over. His desire not to create for the time being could be there.

So if you understand your desires, you can understand His desire also to create and that's why when He does not desire to have it anymore, the creation He can destroy.

So He is the One through which we exist and through which we are destroyed, too.

So He's the One who manifests existence and destruction of creation. That's why He is called as Destroyer. This aspect is represented by the principle of Shiva, which never incarnates because this principle is the one which is the germ, which is the beginning and which the end of everything. Like a seed becomes the seed ultimately, in the same way this Shiva Tattwa, this principle of Shiva, germinates, creates and then it again becomes the same principle. That's why the principle of Shiva never changes. It is called as Shiva, means it is permanent, it is eternal. The rest of Them go into manifestations.

So first He desired and He wanted to create.

So He had to have His aspect of creator being put in and the second aspect of creator...

[Aside:] Can you show?... is the, this yellow line that shows here is the Piñgalā Nāḍī, called as Ādi Piñgalā, the primordial Piñgalā channel by which He has created this universe. Now the center of this figure you can find this green round circle and this one is the one, is the space in which He created. He created in this space and that's why this space is called as Bhava-sāgara. Is the Ocean of Creation. Bhava is the one that is created.

Bhū, Bhava means the one... exactly it is the one that is done. Bhava is done, means created.

So the creator then produces all the stars and the, all the galaxies, solar plexus, lunar plexuses, all the so-called Maṇḍalas. He does all that work.

But as you would say that first of all this blue line, if you follow it out, goes absolutely to the first center, here. Now this line represents, though it manifests the Shiva principle, it is manifested or, you can say, it's carried on through the power of Shiva that is known as Mahākālī. That's the power of Mahākālī.

It descends up to the lowest point there which is the first center that is created by Mahākālī Herself and this center is called as the Mūlādhāra Chakra. On this She has created first of all the first deity. First we can call the Ārādhya Devatā -'God to be worshipped'. The one deity which is to be worshipped first in this whole world is the deity that is the embodiment of innocence.

So innocence was the first thing that was created by God and not cunningness. Cunningness is our by-product, you see. He created innocence and holiness and that is how he put the deity there and that deity is called as Śhrī Gaṇeśha. It's a, later on you will know that the same embodiment of innocence incarnated on this earth as Jesus Christ. Now this is a very, very important Chakra or the center about which I will tell you later on. But then after creating this, you see, God is a very, I should say, a very, very compassionate and affectionate being. He is the source of all our compassion and affection because He resides in the heart as Shiva there, you can see His place there. And then He wanted to produce somebody who would, after creating this. First He created the Chakra for the innocence. That was the most primarily important thing, was to create innocence on this earth, to protect people. Innocence is auspiciousness, is called as Maṅgala-kārī –'creating auspiciousness'. Is the one that gives you auspiciousness. Now about auspiciousness also they have had a tape with them, you can ask them what it gives. And it is a thing that was first created, means that for us the blessings were created even before He started creating these galaxies.

So He created a place in the space from where He could emit His blessings on this earth.

So secondly, then, He, before even creating the Creator, He just thought, `Let Me put Him up. Let Me have another aspect manifested,' which is the central, center path, in the, from the center path which is known as the Suṣhumnā, is the center path of sustenance, of your Dharma. Before creating anything else He created this one because this is the center of seeking, is the center of seeking. And this seeking was created even from the smallest of animals you know. When amoeba was created he's had a seeking.

Otherwise he would never have evolved. And the, of course, the seeking changed its mode and its tone but there was a seeking first implanted at that point and for that He had to create a deity of His aspect of sustenance which was called as Śhrī Viṣhṇu. His power is Mahālakṣhmī which is that channel, is the center power.

Now the third one that He created out of it actually [UNCLEAR]. These are from here, what He made first of all from here is very formal and [UNCLEAR for about 15 sec] and this power is called as the power of Mahāsaraswatī.

So you have got three powers of Mahākālī, Mahāsaraswatī and Mahālakṣhmī.

This universe then was created through galaxies and through many...

Solar systems and if you happen to read one of the so-called article of Mine on solar plexus or on the creation itself you will know how we were created very carefully, how the earth was created, how it was taken away. Part of it was taken away from the sun, taken very far away first and then adjusted, brought to a point where life could grow. All that was done and so the earth was created.

Now the first Chakra, as I told you, is the Gaṇeśha's Chakra. Now this Chakra is most important for us because this is the center of Śhrī Gaṇeśha who is the son of Mahākālī's residual power which we can call as the Gaurī. It is that, you can see in the center, it's also called as the Kuṇḍalinī. After creating the whole thing, I mean desiring the whole thing, He put part of that, that's why we call it residual power, into that Kuṇḍalinī, the Ādi Kuṇḍalinī which would record all that is happening within and later on when the time comes it would give you your second birth.

So this is the Kuṇḍalinī here. It is placed in three and a half coil because three and a half coil brings forth eternal movement like your watches which are, say, automatic are... also have got three and a half coils just to put it in automatic way. That's how this idea must have come to somebody that we should put three and a half coils to have automatic watches, you see.

So this is the three and a half coils there placed. And that's the Mother. That's the Mother. That's the Virgin. That's the One sitting down there.

Now this is the Mother who had not yet met Her husband but was married, but still a virgin. And the story is very interesting how She created Gaṇeśha. She was worried that somebody may come inside the bathroom so She, out of Her body these things, what you call mala, the dirt on Her body, She took out some soil or clay that we use in India for washing the hands. Our clay is very good. And She put all the clay and took it out and made out of that a Gaṇeśha. And put Him down there, at that point because She wanted somebody to protect Her.

[Aside:] Somebody has come? If you lock the door, how will I know? It's all right.

So this protection was created there for Her. But actually that's the One is also protecting Her protocol.

That means this Chakra nobody can enter into. Nobody can touch it. Through this center anybody who tries to come in will be punished. Now, those people who say that Kuṇḍalinī can be risen through sex are, I must say, either sadly mistaken or are sinister people, because that's the center is to protect Her protocol.

He never would allow anybody to enter through that point because that is the point which regulates and controls the sex.

So that is a very, very holy place through which you cannot enter. The reason is, say, if there is mud and if there is all kind of filth, best thing is to put there the most purest form of deity who'd never gets embellished or who does not get hurt or in any way involved into that filth.

So He, being the purest, He was placed there.

Like Christ came on this earth to a place, like horrible place like Bethlehem and all this, just because there was no other way out, you see. He was the only one who could come there and sustain these people who wanted to crucify Him later on.

So He came down later but this embodiment of innocence was put there. Innocence is a thing which never is cunning and intelligent as you think intelligence is supposed to be. It's very different type of intelligence it has got that it just works out. You may be any amount of intelligence you may have and you may try to trick the innocence by any chances or by any, any sort of fraudulent ways. You cannot cheat. Innocence is above all that. And that is what was very important and that's why He was placed there.

Now the people who have been practicing this kind of a nonsensical stuff like going to Kuṇḍalinī through the sex are really doing a very abusive and horrible thing to their own Mother, who is the Kuṇḍalinī.

Kuṇḍalinī is your Mother. She has been with you for ages and She has been waiting for this day when you could get your Realisation.

So those who try such tricks on the Kuṇḍalinī, on their Mother, you can imagine how much they should be punished. That's why so many people get all these horrible experiences, of getting blisters in the body, they get heat in the body, sometimes they get a temperature and they get stuck up and all sort of things happen because of this kind of unauthorized behaviour.

The another thing could be to freeze this Gaṇeśha, is to become a person who is absolutely running away from sex. One does not have to run away from sex because sex is one of the activities of Gaṇeśha because He's a child, He doesn't understand what is sex is. He's Abodh. He's innocent. He doesn't know that sex is something. You see, He has no consciousness of it. Like a child when He sees sex, for Him it is just like seeing flowers so nothing... he, he doesn't understand it. After a certain age only people start understanding it.

So those people who also run away from sex are equally the same because there's nothing to run away and there's nothing to run to. It has to be understood at this point that sex has to be a very sacred and a secret thing between two personalities that is husband and wife who should be really married, collectively. A marriage which is done secretly somewhere and marriage secretly done somewhere is always brings problems.

So marriage must be done in a open way and should be sanctioned collectively.

Marriage is not an institution came to human beings from somewhere outside, but it has come to them from within. God Himself has brought this institution within them and it is to be respected in full way.

And family life is the basis, absolutely the basis of human beings. Every human being must have a nest to grow when they are children.

We are playing havoc with this principle of family life everywhere and we are really out to ruin our children through abandoning the norms that are required for a human life. I mean, we have taken up everything into our hands, you see, as if we can do whatever we feel. Perhaps by that we do not realise how we are giving no fair chance to our children to grow in a proper, secure place.

So family life is a very important thing and must be dealt with in a way, the way you do a Pūjā, you do a worship.

The home is a temple where you must have all the holy things, to give children the holiness, the innocence that is required for them to continue. Here if you find now the children are so precocious, sometimes you are shocked the way they are precocious because the parents talk all these things in their presence and they say, “What's wrong?" Like you are teaching children about sex. What is there to teach? I really can't understand. What is there to teach? Every dog, every, I mean all these birds, everybody, they know what sex is. Oh, no, human beings need a teaching out of it. I mean, Indians who are supposed to be most uneducated people, they are doing much better than all of you are doing here. It beats Me to understand how you people start thinking about teaching everything, even sex. You see, it is of course to be guided properly through family channels but not to be talked so openly, you know. In the beginning it was very difficult for Me even to open My mouth. But when I saw the whole thing is so filled with it, let Me talk about it. Because it is not to be talked, it is not to be mentioned, it's a very sacred thing between husband and wife and to be kept as sacred. But if you excite it too much, from the childhood if you give ideas and all that, you see unnaturally people are brought up in that way into a very unnatural atmosphere and you become nothing but a sex point.

The amount of, you see, importance is given to sex life, you see, as if, as if they are impotent. I mean, it is something like that. It amounts to that, the way people are, it's such a natural thing. It's such a spontaneous thing. It's available to everyone. What is there for people to think so much about it and plan about it, talk about it and make the whole thing so vulgar? There are certain rules and regulations that are to be followed. I mean, you have to be very, very chaste about it and there's a certain protocol and certain beauty of making it a secret. The more I find now here people, I'm just talking about the West because we are concerned with Western problems. Indians have another type which I will tell you later. They have another horrible types of problems but this is another type we have. Like a, like we find two people going up the escalator, they must kiss, you see. They shouldn't miss one point even. Every step they must go on kissing. All right. And where are you going? To the divorce court, that's what it is. You know, it's so absurd.

There is no deep understanding of the marriage institution. We cannot exist without marriage institution.

Marriage institution is a gift of God to human beings and not to animals. We are not going to become again animals. They study the sexual behaviour of, say, of fishes. I mean, are you going to become fishes now? Are we to learn from pigs? I mean, have we gone that low that we have to go down up to fishes' level and find out how to behave? I mean, it's absurd.

So this is this center which is very important and it's very sacred, but the other side I told you that is to running away from sex. On this point I would like to speak because perhaps I have not spoken so much as that. This is another craze that people have, is to suppress the sex, is to have nunneries, to have places like where the fathers are living in a very unnatural manner, create situations where there is no husband-wife relation existing. I would say Navy has this problem, too. And thank God now Navy has decided to have women on board and the wives on board, you see. And actually it has working wonders because they are very good husbands, people have found out and it gives them some chance to exist normally. I mean, imagine that every port you get, you get some new girl and end to a complication, fighting with another.

All sorts of problems come up. This multi, multi-women business is going to make you mad. I mean, to live with one woman itself it's sufficient. But to have many women is much more dangerous.

So the another thing starts.

See, human beings are like that. If they cannot they'll go one side, complete indulgences. They'll have ten women, get hit, beaten up, finished by that, absolutely broken up, becoming insolvent. Ultimately they are left like that. Then they become Sādhus. To the other end they will go. They become the Sādhus and the Sādhus start, you see, then, `Give up sex. Have nothing to do. Don't see a woman. Just you can't bear her.' You see, this is madness.

Why go from one extreme to another extreme? Why not see it in a poised and a proper manner that marriage is important, husband-wife is an important thing. But that's not the end of life there also. But still running away from it is something one cannot explain. Otherwise why God has made you women and men? One should understand about it. And secondly, those who run away like that, I mean if the women run away, God save this world, but if men run away what do they get? You see, they run away from it to another, another style. And what happens with that? You just have a look here. This is the Chakra of the Devī which [UNCLEAR] to run away from. Now there is no way. You cannot go to this one because it is a... this is the one which is [UNCLEAR]. Thus your attention is just from there you go. There is no attention at all. No attention there [UNCLEAR]. [UNCLEAR] convert your fat into a proper fat which can be consumed by brain.

So as soon as you do that you start thinking about sex. That is what it is. People are not spontaneous but they are thinking. They'll plan out about it. Everything is planned out and then what happens you start thinking about it but you don't have any sex.

So the people who say, “We are nuns, we are nuns” they are thinking about it all the time. But they do not have the actual thing which should be done. It would be something like eating food with your nose, try to push your food through your nose.

You see that there is no thinking needed for this and you start thinking about it.

So they start thinking.

How can they get rid of it? You just tell Me. There's no sublimation, so-called sublimation and all that nonsense. If there is no chance of sublimation only the attention will move. How will you sublimate this part when there is a barrier here and this one is as the special one sitting there, with a big rod in his hand? We call it as the Parasha. How do you cross that point? You cannot just cross it.

So what you do? You remove your attention from there and predict. Now this is the one which we call as the, also called as the sun line. It's the sun line, called as sun line.

So you move towards the sun. That's why you people are such worshippers of sun.

Now, then burn your body. You see, you will not have sex but burn your body and make yourself look what you call that brown colour and do all kind of nonsensical things to your body. Be unkind to it. Try to do your level best to ruin it. That's what you do. And then this sun line starts acting. Now, sun line takes you away from the left side. You see that if too much activity starts here it's because your whole attention goes on this side and it is... [UNCLEAR]. That's why you become extremely dry. I mean, such a person, I would say Hitler, Hitler was nothing but this. Hitler had no feelings left in him at all.

There was no emotional thing left in him. He was drained out. And all these yogis also of this type have this. Like we had a Guru in our, you see, in Durvasa. I mean, if he'd looked at somebody he would burn off. Just imagine. Such horrible ones, what are they going to do for the emancipation of human beings? What are they going to do for the Kalyāṇa, for the betterment of human beings who haven't got a grain of love within them? All your idea of love is drained out.

Then you must have heard about these Gurus, that the way they are. Most of them I've seen, even the realised ones, needs lot of love within them. I've seen so many realised ones also but they believe in beating the people. You know, anybody comes to them, first of all they'll put a big Chimta on them, hit them, cut. `Oh, you are not good.' They, they test your head by hitting. And you know, sometimes tears would roll down My eyes seeing all that cruelty.

I said, “How can you do this to them?" They said, “You don't know these human beings. They deserve it. We were like that. Now we are better." I said, “What are you better? You are hitting the same way." But they are realised people. Can you imagine? Even without knowing much about love they get Realisation and then they start saying, “Now, go into absolute Vairanth." Take the case of our Buddha.

Now Buddha was one of the very great incarnations in the sense that He was the son, one of the sons of Rāma who incarnated on this earth, Buddha, to occupy the highest life on this earth.

So He had to take Sannyāsa because without that He could not show that. But there was no need for anybody else to take Sannyāsa. But in His case mistakes, I mean, why there were some mistakes about things, because when He tried all these tricks of Sannyāsa, going here and there He never realised that this is all not needed.

He was so tired and fagged out, that suddenly, spontaneous, the Primordial Mother Herself gave Him the realisation because He was so tired.

Now supposing this is Caxton Hall. To come here you go to, say, Reading, then you go to in the north to Leeds, then you go this side and then you go to Brighton and come back here. And you tell everybody, “If you have to go to Caxton Hall you better do all that." It is just like that. It is just like that, very misleading. Because when He found it out, as you have found out too, you do not realise how you have found it. You do not know how you have done it. If I do not tell you that it is God who has done it, how are you going to believe it? You will think, `I've done Self-realisation, all right. I am a Self-realised person.' Self is most important. That's why He believed this Anīśhvarvād - means atheism. He said, “There is no God. Only thing, the Self is to be achieved." Naturally, because there was nobody to tell Him that you have achieved through the grace of the Primordial Mother.

So He was to be born again as one of the sons of Fātimabai who was the daughter of Mohammed Sahib. Then again He was to be born as Mārkandeya and again as Shañkarāchārya, just to neutralise what He has been preaching.

So you will see that in the sixth century Shañkarāchārya is the one who put end to Buddhism, the nonsense of Buddhism in India.

Because apart from what Buddha's understanding of the whole thing is His disciples made it so perverse that somebody had to come down to tell that marriage system has to be re-established.

And this is how this right side was controlled through various incarnations coming down. But now we come to the center point, is the Viṣhṇu Tattwa, as I told you, the principle of sustenance within us. By this sustenance force only we have within us our Dharma, means we are human beings. Human beings have to have some sustenance. Otherwise he would have two horns. He would have a tail hanging around.

But he does not. He doesn't have. Why human beings do not have horns? Why do not they have tails? I mean, they behave sometimes like that but still they don't develop. You see, in churches in children it is very common to tell them that “If you behave like this you will start developing a tail." Immediately they'll start looking. “Have we already developed?" Then you have to tell them, “Not yet." “But then be careful about us, you see. Better tell us. Otherwise we'll develop it." So this is how we are, that we are human beings. If we were not human beings our noses would have been like that or could have been like that. But we are human beings. That's why we have a particular type of a face. We have a particular type of eyes. You have seen in the animal kingdom how the eyes are placed. Like fishes, how their eyes are placed according to their environment, according to their evolution. Now why should we try to be fishes? Have you got eyes like fishes? We are human beings. We have to be human beings. And the human beings have got as in the four Varṇas –'castes' are described, they have to move in a evolutionary process with their understanding. This is the biggest difference between a human being and animal.

So far from animal to this stage you do not know how you came up. You never felt your evolution.

You never knew that what, how you evolved into it. But only when you have become a human being you can feel it. That's why your evolution had to be in such a manner that you can feel it. And you have also got a special faculty of deciding for yourself, of freedom by which you develop yourself in such a manner that you can feel it. The fishes never felt it. The amoeba never felt it. It's only you who can feel your evolution because you are at the topmost position of evolution and if it has to move forward it has to be in your own awareness with all respect to your freedom.

So freedom was given to human being, not only that but also that they are going to see their own evolution within themselves. They are going to feel it.

You'll feel so different as soon as you are evolved, because you are the highest. Human beings, if they had ever evaluated themselves, even if they had asked this question to themselves, `Why did I became human being from that insignificant amoeba?' then they would have realised, evaluated their value. But when they evaluate themselves, when they try to understand themselves they become egoistical. This is the problem. And that also comes from the same sun line. You see the ego, that's the yellow, that balloon of ego, when it covers the whole being a person just, you see, he talks as if he is possessed. He can never understand what he is talking about and what he is meaning when he says, “I, I, I, I, I” because you are not a separate entity. You are a part and parcel of the whole. And when you start saying, “I, I” you actually secede yourself. You cut yourself short of your connections with the whole.

With this understanding if you see, here the center Chakra which is the, what we call the Nābhī Chakra. Here the sustenance was established and through its establishment, the seat for your evolution was created.

So we evolve through our sustenance, through our evolutionary process by which we have a complete incarnation of this principle of Viṣhṇu, is Kṛiṣhṇa who is placed there.

So from this Viṣhṇu Tattwa when you go around the Bhava-sāgara till that point you are still trying to come out of it and at this point you come out and here is [UNCLEAR] Śhrī Rāma. Normally this place is occupied by the deity of Mahākālī? or you can call [UNCLEAR]. Which comes from here, this power, normally and then She incarnates in this Bhava-sāgara where the seekers are trying to find God. Because every time the seekers tried to find God there were evil forces which tried to put it down.

So She had to incarnate. They say She incarnated only one thousand times but I think She has incarnated many more times. But whatever it is, She incarnated one thousand times and She protected these, Her Bhaktas or

Her, what you call, Her devotees to be saved from the Satanic forces. Now this one is the incarnation of Vaikadesha but before that all those incarnations that came are up to this point. Now this one, one must understand is, these Devya were actually normal human beings. They could not come up. Because Rāma was not regarded as an incarnation. He was seen as absolutely a human being who was still on this sun line, the Rajasa, the absolutely human being. This is the Rajasa. That is the Tamasa, on the left hand side. This is the Rajasa.

And the center one is the Sattva. That's why He was placed there.

Now this Goddess is the power which exists in your Heart Chakra in the center. Now when the child is small, you must know that all the antibodies develop in the sternum, in the sternum. And these antibodies are actually the fighters who fight evil or any harm to the body. These bodies, what you call these antibodies, spread to the whole being and after, say, twelve years or so they start acting automatically or, you can say, even spontaneously.

Sometimes they are on their own, because they are trained in this area, in the sternum area, how to fight the disease, how to fight the outward invasions. Even the mental trouble which comes to you comes through some sort of a Satanic force which can be in a very, in the form of a small lacuna and then they attack there. And that's how they work out.

So this is the, in the sternum here is placed the power of the Durgā or you can call the Mother, the Mother of this earth, Jagadambā.

She's the One who is the Mother of this earth. And She, Her power comes from the back here, where you have a center called as the Hṛidaya Chakra but we can say that it looks after the cardiac plexus in the human being.

So those people who have got say asthma are suffering from the same. Those women who have got, say, breast cancer have suffering from the same, means the sense of insecurity. If you have sense of insecurity then these, these lungs start breathing fast. You have seen suddenly you, if you meet with fear you get that breathing very fast in you. And this breathing is denoting or is pointing out to some sort of a fear that is working within you. It could be due to previous conditionings or could be immediate, but this center starts working, breathing starts moving at a very high speed and that is the sign of this center that it starts emitting power of protection when if you start breathing heavily. But it is automatically done. And the women who suffer from sense of insecurity get breast cancer and that also this is the center. While I will be talking to you about various diseases how we can cure through Sahaja Yoga then I'll tell you more about it.

Now the highest point of the sustenance is here, just here. When man raised his head upward, this is the point where Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, the, the highest goal of human evolution reached its completion Pūrnārtha.

At that time we, we should say that when we raised our heads up He established Himself in our Viśhuddhi Chakra. And He is the one who is this Primordial Being. He is the One who grows into that Primordial Being. About Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa also I will tell you, I think, later on because you can understand He has sixteen petals. He has the largest number of petals which in physical way look after your ear, nose, throat, these mastoid muscles and teeth and all, all this portion. Apart from that if you notice it that this ego and superego, you see, actually they do not rise that high up. They rise from here it starts, from this center only give the complete start. Complete start from this center... [UNCLEAR] but they cross at this center which we call as the Āgñyā Chakra. Now pumping of the ego and superego comes like the, we can say, the fumes from a factory. Like when you are overactive on the right hand side you develop your ego as a by-product. If somebody says, `I have no ego,' well, it's wrong, not possible. There is all the time ego within you. Like people said, “Kṛiṣhṇa has said that `Oh, you, you just surrender everything to Me,' and that's how I have surrendered myself to Him." It's wrong. You cannot do it, because you have got ego.

You have to cross beyond. Unless and until you cross behind, beyond, you cannot get over your ego.

So these ego and superego, if you see, they cross.

So the superego is, say, from here to here. The ego is from here to here. But as the human beings started growing the superego which is the conditioning in us, the conditioning as seen by the psychologists, they call it the psyche part and they never realised that there is also ego. If you remove the conditionings completely from human beings, do whatever you please, you become egoistical. They never realised this subtle point and they allowed you to do whatever you liked and they allowed you to, sort of fully assert yourself. Then they did never realise that on the other side is also this ego developing within you. And that's why we have got now countries we can say which are ego-oriented. Others are superego-oriented.

But now the stage is such that nothing much to choose, it's such a confusion and a muddle. Because when ego-oriented society developed too much of their ego, they tried to push the superego down like that which went to such a limit that it started hurting people. They couldn't bear it so they came up with their superego. And this is the beginning of people talking about, “I feel very guilty” “I'm very sorry” “We must have some sympathy for others” “We must look after the people who are suffering” and all that kind of a thing. Then they take to also drugs. Also you can see that all this left side is more sort of meant for people who take drugs and who go into lethargy and more sitting down and dreaming for poets, all sorts of things.

[MISSING part] went to India and invaded India and now I am responsible for that. You start feeling guilty for somebody who's died and is born somewhere in Africa or maybe born in Timbuktu. You see maybe that you are the one who was a saint in India and who has been looked after the Mother and today you are here crying for nothing at all.

So this is the situation of today's muddled up world and the superego, or the others who were supposed to be superego, non-aggressive people, say like Indian people, now are, they are developing, they are getting sophisticated, you see. And they think that to wear a suit is a very big thing. If you wear a suit they start speaking some other language. And to them you see to be posh, to be very impressive and all that is very important. Whether they have food or not doesn't matter but must dress up well to impress people, you see and that's why I tell always My disciples that when you go to India don't go like hippies. Better go like very well-dressed government servants. And you can only impress them only... And there, so we are developing now in India and we are becoming very materialistic, extremely materialistic.

I mean not that you people here in the West have left your materialism to that extent but I mean here every Dick, Tom and Harry is not a materialistic person. Specially the people who are of a higher style, they are not that materialistic. But like, your, you see, the labour class here you can say as they are very particular now... Today was the budget day, last day so all the shops were on and everybody was buying even the jewelry, then everything, in the shops, you see. But the Indians would be the most, you see, because they must see what is happening here. As soon as... I wouldn't say Indians, all the Asians I would put like that, not only Indians, because you see when they come to England they see in the shops, you see. They make the list of sarīs they have to take home. They make the list of things they have to take home. They are equally the same as you have been long time back. Like you'll be amazed that once upon a time plastic was a big, big craze for you people here and nylon was also once upon a time. Now we are trying to wear nylons for you. It's a good exchange, I think, but this is what we are in the muddle, either in the superego or ego. We cannot just fix the person. He could be one moment in the superego, one moment in the ego. He'll be just going from one side to another.

The thing that really gives you the balance is the sustenance, is the sustenance, Dharma. If you do not have that then you could go, shoot off like a pendulum from this side to that. But in Dharma also there could be a problem and that is one of the worst possible, is of fanaticism.

So I mean if you try to make the Dharma a fanatic idea like none of these incarnations, like Mohamed Sahib who was an incarnation of the Primordial Master and all others like Him, Moses, Abraham, anyone of Them who came on this earth, ever thought of fanaticism. Never they realised that when they told, “Don't do this. Don't do that” some sort of people will take up upon themselves that “We are the chosen ones. We are the great." I mean, this they could never understood and whenever they found it was happening again they took birth. Again they took birth to tell people this is not Dharma. To form any kind of a cult or an organization and religion is against God. It's blasphemous.

How can you organize God? You cannot. Those who have done it always have brought absolute fall of human beings. You see, that's why you cannot control. Like the other day I was saying that our Pope has good intentions of going to Poland. But in a way I like Polish Catholicism more than the Irish one. If this is the freedom what Catholicism is, better not have it. You see, if this is what you are going to achieve through your Catholicism, better not have it. In Poland, say, for example, people do not do philanthropic work, you see, like helping the poor. Is that the work of Christ? I asked somebody, I said, “How did you come to this conclusion that Christ wanted you to help the poor?" They said, “Because You know once He was to be, He was to be anointed with some very expensive oil” and I think Judah said that “How can you spend such a lot of money on Him, on His body? Let us sell it and give it to the poor." So He said, now, see, listen to this one carefully, He said that, “Poor are forever” means it's a permanent headache, you see, “but I am for a short time." That means spiritual life is the thing. Now, in the same way He said that “No rich man can enter into the kingdom of God." Both are just the same. Poor are just the same as the rich. Do you find any difference in them? I do not. One hankers after money; another one gets spoilt by it. I mean, both are the results of the same.

Because one doesn't have, he is no good and one has, that's why he is no good. If the rich had little less money it would be better for them. And if the poor had little more it would be better.

So our Sahaja Yoga works for the people of the middle, middle things. Now immediately you will say, “Then what about the poor of the world?" Immediately the attention will go there. “Mother, what do you think?" Now you don't worry about that part. There is God who has created them and He is going to look after them. Are you an economist? Then you are, you have done all bad things. Because of faulty planning, because of selfish nature, because of conservatism, because of thinking that you are the person who should enjoy all your wealth, you have created these disparities. Human beings have created, not God and when you have to achieve God you don't have to think all these problems that human beings have created.

Like somebody came and told Me, “What about Vietnam?" I said, “Are you a governor appointed there?" You see, he had a problem of his own. He was coming from an asylum and he asked Me, gets up very seriously, said, “What about Vietnam?" Now tell Me, this fellow is really half mad. He's gone to that asylum from where he has come and why is he worried about this Vietnam? Now, what does that show? How is he going to help Vietnam? This is how the attention of human beings moves. I mean, what you have to do is to achieve that within yourself, your own powers. Everyone has to achieve that power.

Even if you are poor you can achieve it. What is poverty? It's just mental idea, “It is poverty." You see, for people I've seen, horrible people who are supposed to be rich just like beggars, I tell you, absolutely beggars. Even if they could get out of you one torn handkerchief, oh, they will be very happy. Horrible people, I don't know, what riches, it has not gone even skin deep. Even I would tell you that if you put so many pounds just posted on a donkey he would look better than these people are. I mean, it has not touched them at all, you see. And the way they talk you know how the people are, how licentious they are, how permissive they are, how careless they are about their children, how they are irresponsible, how they are killing others just to save their reputation. I mean, there's nothing that they cannot do.

Same with poorer people; they are just the same. You see, if you go and talk to them, now our Maria had this, this thing, they said, “We, we want this man to be cured by Mātājī but we are not going to believe in God." Now what can you say to that? Only you can say to take two running jumps and go to hell. That's what it is meant for such horrible people. They want to take advantage of God's power and then, “We don't believe in God." See, this is poverty. And the poorer they are the worse they are in their arrogance, in their assertions, in their asking. They don't want to do any work. They want to have this. They want to have that. All these things will be only explained once they achieve God. Otherwise they will not move. They all must rise. I mean, that the way the churches have now become nothing but union offices, labour union offices. See, poor people go there and confess to the priest. Now, it's madness.

He cannot do anything to them. What is he after all? He himself is an ordinary human being, ordained.

Which by whom? God has ordained you? Or who has ordained you? All such organizations will only create headaches and people who have got nothing but some sort of an idea that they are something great. You see, you ask anyone, “What are you?" “I'm a Catholic." What does that mean? “I'm a” what you call that, “Church of England." In India specially, the Indian Christians, if somebody is from Church of England he will not look at the person from Church of Scotland. You should see Indians, you see when they are Christians you must see the way they are. “Oh, we, we don't talk to them." I said, “Why?" “Because they are from the Church of Scotland, you know” or Presbyterians you see, or Lutherans.

So according to them they are the highest because Church of England. Now they must come and see the condition of Church of England to understand. You see, this is the trouble. It is really, I tell you, like lunatic people. It's absolutely like lunatic people. They are brainwashed, completely. And by that they are not going to achieve anything.

We have to achieve the reality. We have to know that we have to achieve it and for that we have to stand by reality, face it moment and moment and then the enjoyment of reality will be uncovered and will be absolutely manifested within you. But we have to stand by reality and not go by thinking, “I think, Mātājī, You were wrong there." I said, “Where? Where was I wrong?" “Because, You know, You told us this” and that's why I was wrong.

I said, “How do you know?" “I feel that way." “Now, how can you feel about what I am thinking or what I am saying? You have to then understand rationally. But when I say rationally, do you understand?" “Rationally I understand but I don't feel that way." Now, what is this feel? See, a thing which is told to you rationally must be understood rationally. And whatever is to be felt is to be felt through heart. But they will feel a rational thing and they will think about the love. It is something absurd. That's why it is crazy. The attitude itself is crazy.

So open out yourself because there is an invitation. There is a great invitation for you to enter into that kingdom of God which is promised to you. You must know that God has created this earth. He has created you. He is not going to allow His creation to be destroyed, will He? What are you worried about? He is the One who is going to take you across. He is the One who is going to tell you each and everything that He has, to possess all the beauties, all the blessings that He has, to enjoy them. He is going to do everything for you. But when the boat is crossing, keep quiet. Don't run here and there. All the time the children are running from here and there. You go on catching them. “Come along. Come along." Sometimes even they get drowned. Just keep quiet. Everybody is going to get it, everybody is going to be taken into it and everybody is going to enjoy it.

For today I think it was quite a lecture though I have told you that Christ is on this Chakra has come and that is the last Chakra of Sahasrāra which opened on the fifth of May in India in 1970 and since then the new awareness has started becoming, dawning into people. The vibrations have started flowing. And it's a very great thing that you are born at this time and you are the people, the foundations. You are the people who are going to receive it completely. I don't know about the future, what is going to happen to the future and all that but I am sure it is going to work out. And in this London, London which I have always said it's the heart of the universe, we are going to do it with great understanding of the problems of the whole world. If heart is all right everything will be all right because through it everything is going to circulate and going to improve and going to nurture and going to develop this beautiful universe that God has created for you. But first thing you must know is to give up all your misidentifications. And do not go on hankering onto them and again getting identifying yourself with them but keep a complete alert attention on your progress in Sahaja Yoga. I'm sure it is going to work out. May God bless you all! Thank you.

So, any questions? Now, ask questions which are related to this lecture. Because if you ask them out of the blue questions, you see not out of the blue questions, see what is there, now I need another lecture.

You see, I cannot just say what is God is and things like that.

So you please don't ask such questions.

Ask something relating to this lecture that would help you and everybody. And ask questions which are constructive.

Question: [UNCLEAR] 5th of May.

Shri Mataji: That happened... That is the day when the en masse Realisation was established...

Why? Question: Where?

Shri Mataji: Where? In India.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: It happened in My brain. And it happened on a sea shore in India when I saw it... And of course I will tell you some time how beautifully it worked out and how beautiful it was.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: One of the names it is in the one book I have given you, is that Nirvicharitā, is thoughtless, beyond thoughts. That is the power. All right, so I bring you down. Now you think of that thought. You see, now you cannot. Can you? Try. No, no. That is the fact. One must accept. You have crossed the Āgñyā. You see, now you cannot. Enjoy it. Enjoy it. It's very good. Now you can see the thoughts also.

Are you returned now? Are you feeling better Hester? Good. This is very beautiful.

Enjoy it. Forget it. Forget about that. We are going to meet again and again and you'll have ample time. But the more you will be meeting the more you'll become thoughtless, the more you'll be enjoying the silence within you, more you will be going deep into your own silence, really enjoying it. Actually after Realisation you don't even feel bored. You'll be surprised. You'll be sitting for hours together without getting bored, absolutely without getting bored. And that's how people give up, you see, all these habits of say, smoking and all those because when you are bored you don't know what to do so you take to these habits. That's what you get it. You are not to be forced, you are not to be told but once you start enjoying yourself you just don't do it. [Hindi.] Are you better now? Not yet? [Hindi.] He's a born-realised, still.

... [UNCLEAR through/to the/it is a] living power, I mean. There are so many more facilities and also capacities to work out that no camera can replace it. And there are so many eyes we have here [UNCLEAR when/gained] without any effort, without any money being paid for. Only we realise [UNCLEAR as human beings] when we have a problem, at that time. In the same way if we have to achieve something higher, if we have to get something more than what we are, if we have to perfect ourselves, the One who has created you, the One who has manifested this human awareness within you is going to do it and He has to do it because it is His creation and He is going to see to it that He achieves the completion of His [UNCLEAR creation]. They were [UNCLEAR quite/first] shocked, [UNCLEAR country/quite a few] people, when we start talking of God. That is something very, very usual I have seen in people that they do not like people talking about God because they think God is a myth. Now I would say that before we start of, [UNCLEAR for instance/nuisance], problems, that are against all Dharma, let us first see whatever is said about God. Is it [UNCLEAR worth in it/working out]? Is there [UNCLEAR some/common] sense in it? Let's find out that point. If we can find even a little bit of it then maybe we might be able to see the truth.

So first of all it is said that there is God's All-pervading Power which organizes everything, which works out everything and which loves. How many of you can say that they have a catch? Very few. What is the reason we cannot feel that within us or around us? Now, for example, here if I say there are all kinds of pictures around Me which you cannot see. But if you put a television immediately you'll [UNCLEAR get/catch] all these pictures. That means you are not the television as yet to see that. But as soon as we put the television it can [UNCLEAR catch]. It has a more sensitivity, more capacity to capture that which [UNCLEAR is/you see] absolutely people [UNCLEAR alone/never known] cannot see it. In the same way we have to be something more than muddle, to feel that, to understand that. And that's what gives you [UNCLEAR this importance/the reason] for our seeking. We do feel we are not perfect.

Something is lacking in us. We have to go beyond; it's not sufficient for us to be satisfied. That's how we are seeking. What is that and how we are going to reach there is the second problem which we face. I would say that truth is truth by itself and you cannot conceive it through your own understanding. When you are not in the truth, for example if you are dreaming, then in dreams you cannot think of the truth.

Supposing you are all in a dream, you have to be awakened to know the truth. In a dream you do feel everything being truthful. You think that yes, there's a [UNCLEAR] I see light means all these things are here. But when you are awakened then you know that [UNCLEAR you are awake]. In the same way we are in a dream which is just a statement from Me, which I'm the Guru for you and for that I'm [UNCLEAR] is that you must keep your minds open and not suddenly jump to any conclusions because you have something against the Divine Power. But just try to feel because this is your right, this is what God has given you that you should manifest that awareness within you by which you can feel the All-pervading Divine Power and this is not going to be denied to anyone who asks for it.

But God is not going to fall at everybody's feet that, `Please ask for it.' That is your freedom. That is what you have to ask for. You have to desire it. You cannot give up your freedom nor it will be denied. It is respected. In the same way you cannot take God's [UNCLEAR freedom/free will] which doesn't fall at your feet. I request you to seek it.

So now I'm talking about that All-pervading Power which you cannot see. I would say it is like a mirror which is God's reflection of various things. We cannot see the mirror because we stop at the reflections. Our attention is on the reflection [UNCLEAR] that's why we cannot feel the bliss [UNCLEAR] while the mirror is the one that is reflecting and all the reflections are changing.

But because our attention is still in that dreamland of reflection we cannot feel that All-pervading Power.

So now, is there any method within our being which is being raised by God Almighty? Because if He has created us He must have power which triggers this happening within us by which we become aware of that All-pervading Power.

I say there is a method; there is a special instrument within us which is being placed by God. Through our different stages of evolution He has placed different centers within us which are subtle centers in the spinal cord and there is a [UNCLEAR gain/gate]. Now these centers do exist within us and if you want to see these centers you can with your own eyes. You can visualise it. You can see, some people, I will show you, when they, we try to raise their Kuṇḍalinī you'll see that this Kuṇḍalinī will start pulsating. You can see with your naked eyes that triangular bone. In the triangular bone you can see the Kuṇḍalinī pulsating and then you can also see the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī if I tell you. And you can also see the pulsation of these centers in some. This may not be in every person. It may be in some few people this could happen, but not in every person, because if there is an obstruction here and there then only the Kuṇḍalinī pushes our centers too much, too hard and that's how you see the pulsation very clearly. But some people have such beautiful centers and such beautiful Kuṇḍalinī and such beautiful desire that it just rises straight, just like a jet.

You do not see anything and you just become thoughtlessly aware when it crosses the Āgñyā, this center here. And then when it opens out this part of the head, which we call as Sahasrāra or Brahmarandhra, here, the opening of the Brahma, there the whole thing becomes as if you have become a holy person, absolutely a holy person. And at that moment you feel cool vibrations flowing within you. This is a happening and an actualisation and not a sermoning and a brainwashing. Now say, even if it's My own daughter, if she is not realised, she is not. I cannot say you are realised because it is a happening which happens to every individual and one has to be honest about it, that you cannot guarantee it to anyone. If it will work out well and good, [UNCLEAR you won't have] to work hard on him, to pull the Kuṇḍalinī up. Only the difference is that only those who are realised have got the power to raise the Kuṇḍalinī.

Otherwise any Dick, Tom, Harry [UNCLEAR cannot so do it/can also do].

Like, you see, we think that everybody has right to talk about God. Everybody has, you see. Even Napoleon, Hitler, I mean, anyone, they can talk about God. I mean, nobody is going to catch their tongue and say, `How dare you talk about God? What right have you got? What your authority is?' In the same way about Kuṇḍalinī also everybody talks, you see. Talking is different, raising is absolutely different, is only possible if the person has that authority from the Divine, is the sign of a person who is realised, the one who can raise the Kuṇḍalinī, who can show you the raising of the Kuṇḍalinī and can give you Realisation. This is the first time a human being is doing a living work.

So far what living work have you done? Say if you have painted this, may be, all right, very good, artistic, all right, but is it a living work? We cannot germinate even a small, little seed, even one. But here you'll be germinating the seeds of human beings. And this is a force here which is kept here, you see, very close, awaiting for that happening which is called as Kuṇḍalinī. She sleeps there in three and a half coils very nicely settled down and She is your Mother, because she gives you your rebirth.

Every individual has an individual Kuṇḍalinī and your Kuṇḍalinī is so sweet a Mother, settled down there and like a tape recorder. She's taking down all that you have done in the name of God, in the name of such, even if you are a materialistic person, She knows. She knows everything and while rising you know She indicates what sort of personality you are, what's the problem, what centers are catching. There could be physical problems, there could be mental problems, there could be spiritual problems but She feels so anxious to give you the rebirth that at the first shot Kuṇḍalinī will rise. And then She settles back again, into these centers and tries to nourish them and bring them right. Now these centers are [UNCLEAR so/though] subtle things inside the medullar oblongata. You can see them manifested outside as plexuses, as the doctors call them, by these things.

For example, this center manifests the pelvic plexus which also looks after the sex. Now one has to remember that Kuṇḍalinī is above; so sex cannot have anything to do with Kuṇḍalinī. And this and the deity on this center, is the embodiment of innocence. Say a child who is innocent doesn't understand any sex. That's why He's put down there. Then He incarnates again at this point, as Christ, same personality.

Now this one is here at this point where you see My mark is. Inside the brain there is optic chiasm[a], crosses each other, at that point it is. It controls your pituitary and pineal. Then the another one is this center which moves round your stomach. This one helps manifest our aortic plexus and looks after all the physical organs that are over there, like the liver, a part of liver, say, pancreas, our spleen and again kidneys. This is the creative center which looks after the creative side. This is the creative side within us.

So if supposing somebody is catching on this center, supposing he is catching on the right hand side, it's definitely he must be an artist. That means he is losing too much of his creativity; he is imbalanced as far as creativity is concerned. Say if he is catching on the other side, on the left hand side Swādhiṣhṭhāna, then that means that person has been indulging in some sort of a black magic or is being under the influence of the black magic. Means just the opposite of the creativity which is of mind, in the sense that he has been used, his mental capacities has been used, his emotional capacities have been used for wrong things. And that is how we know when you catch on Swādhiṣhṭhāna that you have this problem.

Mostly people who are possessed, people who have wrong type of Gurus, they have this problem; they catch on the left Swādhiṣhṭhāna. Or you can see on, here is the palm, onto the palms, you see thumbs indicating. When you are a realised Soul you start feeling all these centers are here on your palms.

So if you start feeling heat on the right or the left accordingly you will know what is the position of your problem and what is actually wrong with you. Say for a liver patient immediately you catch here, right hand side, means your liver is wrong. A person who is sort of very much all the time thinking, mentally using his capacity to produce something for the future, because right side is for the future.

So if you are a big planner and all time you are planning and if the planning has got into you as a habit then these Chakras start working very fast and at this stage what happens then the other side is completely neglected.

Because of the neglect this side becomes frozen and that's how such people develop diabetes, because of the imbalance.

One side is used too much; another side is not used at all. Like you are, [UNCLEAR in the morning], you get up, have a wash, go to the office, come back home, [UNCLEAR fight/to wife], work out, then again you go through the next day. You have no value for your wife, or children or anything. Busy man they'll find [they're] hypertensive. That's what it will take you a little worse.

So the nature tries to give you balance. Such people also get heart attacks because the left side being neglected brings you heart attack.

So that is to say that in life whatever imbalances come to us are also because of using of this side or that side. And like that all these centers, one by one I cannot tell you today, in such a short time, all these centers show that you have to be in the center.

If you are a temperate person and not in extremes, you keep to the center. At that time, then, the person is absolutely in the center. He is neither too much of on the left or on the right. He is not too much emotional, neither too much mental. Then at that time the Kuṇḍalinī rises in a proper way. Because when you are on one side, I would say the left and right sympathetic nervous systems, both on the left and the right as you see here working out, when you move too much on one side this is also very dangerous and that's how we develop a, a sort of a disconnection, or it's just, the connection between the two it is lost.

When this is lost, it starts working on its own. When it is starting working on its own, now see this center if it starts working on its own it loses its connection to the whole. And that time cancer is settled down.

Cancer is not so very old disease. It's a modern disease, cancer is. How it has come to be this cancer? It's because these fifty years we have realised that we have to find something how to evolve. We all are conscious of it, whether we like it or not, but we are all conscious of it that the present life that we are living is nonsense. Because of this consciousness and because of the developing of the ego in us we start understanding that we have been working on something that is not the [UNCLEAR aim/purpose/end] of our life or there's something more and that is why the tension you see. Say our forefathers, say three generations back, didn't know what was tension was, what was cancer. This is a very modern stuff, is the tension.

When the tension is built up again the imbalance starts and when the imbalance starts you start moving either to right or to the left. In the beginning it is maybe just a disease or just a little problem here and there but it can develop into anything serious like depending on the centers which are catching.

Specially if in this part there is an imbalance then cancer of the stomach is settled. Leukaemia, leukaemia is just [UNCLEAR cancer/this problem] and leukaemia can be cured through Sahaja Yoga [UNCLEAR] you'll be amazed [UNCLEAR] but don't bring all the leukaemia patients to Me because we need people who are doctors themselves, who themselves are first of all cured and then you can cure leukaemia patients.

You can see that by giving them a full balance in this area, they can [be] cure[d]. Now these signs of God's own method is absolutely [UNCLEAR perfect/purpose]. There cannot be two opinions about it.

There cannot be. Like if you go to the doctor, he may say something's wrong with your eyes, he may say something's wrong with your brain, he may say something's wrong with your throat and you just have temperature.

So you don't know what to say. I mean, it could be anywhere wrong, anywhere, according to every doctor you come up against. But in Sahaja Yoga when the Realisation takes place and the Kuṇḍalinī pierces through or as I told you when the vibrations start flowing, you don't have any two opinions about it; everybody feels the same. Say you have some children who are realised Souls. There are many children in this country who are born realised and they have vibrations. You put ten children together and tie up their eyes and ask them to feel the vibrations and they [UNCLEAR all will/always] tell the same thing about the person. There are not two opinions. There cannot be two opinions about it.

And this is how once the vibrations start flowing through you, gradually you start understanding their language. You understand what they mean. The whole decoding is explained to you and you can verify it yourself. For example, somebody comes in, all right. “You, you catch on this." Today only we had a patient and she was catching on this one.

So I asked her, I said, “Where is your father?" She said, “He died suddenly. I couldn't meet him." Then she came up with the whole problem about her father. She said, “I'm so worried because you see I am catching and he's died” and this and that. And then she told Me the deity she worshipped, find out was the same center right hand side, you see, right side hand side, heart, a center here. And so I asked her, “Why don't you ask your father to leave you alone now and then promise that you are all right and that he should take his rebirth if he likes, but he should not bother about you?" And she felt better. And she had asthma.

It's very simple, but everybody cannot do it because you must be a person who is authorized. You must have your vibrations flowing; otherwise it has no meaning.

So it is absolutely one; absolutely it is to be understood, but you cannot make a [UNCLEAR circus]. You cannot sort also make a hypocritical announcement about it and you cannot force, `Oh, that [UNCLEAR I know/no] you are that.' If you are that, you are that. If you are not, you are not. It is so simple and once you accept this part you will be amazed that you will progress much faster but one should be able to face it which is a very great thing.

The first concentration comes from your own ego. It's the horrible stuff sits on the head here. Or this is the ego, is the by-product of the activity on the right hand side, I must say. And it presses this one down to such an extent that you can become congested on the Āgñyā and the [UNCLEAR whole thing].

So you can become a [UNCLEAR Napoleon/napoleon in] as far as your thinking is concerned, can bring you that. And when it starts pressing it, you really don't understand, `How my ego is now giving me ideas.' And the ideas you will find are so idiotic and so foolish sometimes that you realise suddenly after Realisation that this is not you. This can't be because you start seeing also. First of all, as we see now, you can see Me. I can see you. I can see this lamp. I say, “Oh, this is the lamp." That means I am not that lamp because I can see it. All right? Then I can see this room, or this is the room. That means I can see the room. That means I am not the room. I can see these hands.

So I'm not the hands. Now I say I can see this body.

So I am not the body. I can know My brain.

So I am not the brain. I can know My thoughts. Then I am not the thoughts. It's something definitely wrong with the person, that's what you are. We see no-s [UNCLEAR] and understand. And that's what resides in your heart, reflected in your heart as the Spirit. In Sanskrit language is called as Ātmā. I'll give you some Sanskrit words for which you must excuse Me because I'm not so good at English first of all. And moreover you see in the Sanskrit language only there are some words which are very expressive.

Perhaps as you have developed your science and your outward life much more, in the same way in India perhaps people didn't have to face life in the way you had to face here the dangers of nature. Or we can say the life in India is naturally much more peaceful because there is sun, there is no problem of rain, is not rain cycling, you have clear-cut what you call the different seasons and so people know how to manage their life in a simple way. That may be the reason that they tried to search within themselves and from ancient times they have been finding out what is the way to be transformed and in that finding they were coming, it's about that coming to Gurus. And in that coming to the Gurus, of course it should be popular but some people who [UNCLEAR can deliberate/have celebrations] about it. And those [UNCLEAR deliberations/celebrations] have created I would say three types of [UNCLEAR schools] which are to be understood. One is that goes onto the right, another comes onto the left and another one goes to the center.

So we have got on the right hand side, the supraconscious area, we call it and beyond that, is collective supraconscious area. On the left hand side we have got the subconscious area and beyond that is the collective subconscious area. And on top here it is supraconscious area where we enter into the subtleness of Divine Power and start [UNCLEAR]. That is what one has to achieve. That is what is to be born again, to be twice born.

So many people I've seen saying, “Mother, I'm already twice born." I didn't know what to tell, because they are wrong. If they are I would love, I mean, I would love to see that they are, because these people, same language they'll understand, [UNCLEAR up to a point/they have that power]. But when this happens to you, it's best to take [UNCLEAR place/this], you get connected to the whole.

For example, say, this is God and you are a part in that, once you get Realisation what happens is that you get connected with God and you start feeling the whole and that's how you assume, I would say assume, you actualise, collective consciousness, because you just start feeling the centers of others as well as yours. You start seeing yourself because Self-realisation comes and you start seeing others because you become connected with the whole.

So everybody is conscious that we have to be part of the whole. If we do not understand this cycle, if we do not understand our position in the whole we become malignant, we become cancers.

Now the idea of `on my own' there cannot be any life that could be on its own. I was amazed, the other day I was listening to one of the programs in “achieving whole is a long search" and they were all talking about wholesomeness and that people are searching for wholesomeness. And the most amusing thing was that they ended up in milking a goat. I just don't know how it comes to that. To become the whole if you milk the goats how do you become one with the whole? I just couldn't understand. But they blame all the modern sciences and the modern technology and modern living for all the tensions that they have got.

And that's how they say, “If you take to goats it will be all right." This is not so. This is an absurd, very misleading conception of life. I agree modernization [UNCLEAR and/has] too much of artificialities of life, have taken you away from the beauty of life, I would say aesthetics of life, or the strongness of life, peacefulness of life, but it has not taken your way from reality by any chance because reality is there to be taught to you. On the contrary, some of the science things are of great help to Sahaja Yoga and I must pay My tribute to it. For example, now, My photograph has the vibrations of very, I mean I wouldn't say as good as Me being there, but quite a lot the presence you can feel it. And we have cured people through My photographs. Now, if there were no photographs I don't think that people [would] have worked that fast.

Then there are many other things which work out. For example, I speak on the loudspeaker. And one of the disciples told Me in India that, “Mother, we see Your vibrations getting into the mike which You are using. But again, we see them again relayed out from the loud speakers that [UNCLEAR they are/are there]." I said, “Is that the thing?" So I started using the mike on My Chakras [UNCLEAR plan] and it worked wonders. I was surprised that how it is expanding.

So all these discoveries have come to us as a blessing from God. He Himself has given these to us, for us to finish our mundane work, day-to-day work. Imagine you could not have been here today. You have been ploughing your field somewhere and you must be walking for miles together to come this Church Street, you see. But when this it's worked out in this way and saved so much of time. And people know that time is important. They are having watches and they say, “You must save time. You must save time." For what? What are you saving? You ask somebody, “I must save time. I'm very late." Getting late? What's it? “I must go to London." I said, “What is it?" “I have to attend a ball." That's the thing you need time for. Also you must ask somebody else's, he'll say, “Oh, I must go to the pub with the friends” you see. Is this the way are we going to save our time? So the, even the unconscious is trying to give us a proper guideline to be finding that superior power.

By running away from anything you are not getting it. You don't have to run away from London to get it. You run away to any furthest place from London, still you will be there with all your problems, with all your ideas about things. I've seen people who have been in the jungles, who are living in the jungles, all right. But they will have a compound to their house. I said, “Now, why you have a compound?" Then they have a locker. Then they...

So I said, “You are still carrying the same germ in your head. You think you have achieved a lot of freedom by running away." What is there to run away when you are free? If you are absolutely free what is there to run away? You can face reality and enjoy it when you are absolutely free and that absolute freedom is to be achieved. But the idea of freedom also is so much clouded in us that we think that if we play into our weaknesses we are the freest beings. If the society allows us to enjoy our weaknesses we are blessed. I mean, I wouldn't be surprised tomorrow some sort of laws may come up that you must allow people to thieve. Possible. How can you say they [UNCLEAR will come]? Because people are so fond of thieving, you know. If we have some kleptomaniac in majority, say in any country, they may say that, `You must allow us to thieve, because we are all kleptomaniacs. We enjoy that.' And they may have a complete enterprise which is [UNCLEAR legit/limited] to all kleptomaniac style of habits to be pampered, you know.

So to allow any our weaknesses to sit on our head is not the way we are going to be free. Freedom comes by which we become so powerful that nothing can enslave us. We enjoy our freedom and we worship the freedom of others. We understand them. We never aggress on others, nor do we take in aggression but we stand in our own [UNCLEAR] of our own free will. That is what freedom is. But that, all those ideas I cannot correct by just standing here and giving you lectures. It's another brainwashing. But what happens when the Kuṇḍalinī rises She enlightens all these centers. By enlightenment you start seeing the whole thing. Like in this room if it is dark I can't see anything. But if there is light I can see everything clearly and I can create everything you can become. I know what is what, what is the use for what. But if there is no light I cannot see. And this is what is the enlightenment, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises. She enlightens all these centers and when these centers are enlightened within us we have physical, emotional, mental and spiritual enlightenment by which we get completely integrated and we start seeing the things as they are, relating them as they are and we find our peace within.

Now it sounds very fantastic. It's too much to believe. “After all, see Mother, we can't explain." That's true. I must say, it is fantastic. I mean, I am Myself surprised [UNCLEAR] persons here the way it's really fantastic. But it is not also, because this all building up has taken thousands of years within you. It has been built up all everything nicely. It could be if you supposing take a nice television set in India and if you have electricity by chance in the village which is probably not. But supposing there is electricity and you put the television and if it starts working people say, “How can it be?" Because it is unbelieving, it's a miracle, how can it happen? Or telephone for example, you see. People when first the telephone started, I remember in My house, telephone came for the first time when I was seven or eight years old. And we used to ring up the whole day and the whole night to our friends and were so excited about it. We couldn't believe how we could talk to some people who are away from us. But this is what it is that your instrument is all ready but when it starts working, it starts working. And the whole thing then [UNCLEAR it looks/becomes] so fantastic and you start feeling that power within you by which you know also all the answers to all your [UNCLEAR absolute/absurd] questions like, “Is there God?" You ask the question now in your heart, “Is there God?" and the answer will be given through vibrations, you see. You ask about any absolute question, a rapport will be established. Like you are a computer and the computer which is very minutely built in so many years and ages and so many [UNCLEAR kind/guidelines] of wisdom that now it just starts. It is just that.

Now if I have to say that it can be understood rationally you cannot understand because the triggering takes place by which you enter into the realm which is beyond and there you see everything and you feel the whole thing is just a [UNCLEAR game/dream], a drama and you are just a witness which is also established in the value system. Now I am just separating [parts] here because we are mostly have come through that [UNCLEAR train/way]. But I was amazed that if you are sincere about, Christianity also [UNCLEAR about/got] churches and they think that they are good for nothing.

So then I have to say that Sahaja Yoga is not any religion outside. It's not an organized religion by human beings. It is a thing that is within us, is spontaneously happening within us and it works out absolutely without any concern to your community, race, or to your colour, or to the nationality, or to the position or whatever may be the relationship you may have with each other. For the husband may get Realisation; the wife may not.

My own two daughters are not yet realised. Can you believe that? But My own grandchildren are born realised and they are great people.

So this is what it is possible. And whatever is so and in this country, I must say as I have said it many times that I think this is the heart of the universe. That's how I was just placed in this country. I didn't come otherwise. I was just placed. As you know My husband got elected to this job and I had to be here.

So I came down and saw how people here are very much more balanced and are very wise and really scholarly types and if they get to anything they do it very fast. Get to anything itself it's very difficult.

Americans, perhaps they have been disillusioned by so many nonsensical movements that everywhere they go they are [UNCLEAR searching only] and they want to see it. [UNCLEAR And/Now] let's see what's it all about. It's another story UNCLEAR [for you all].

So I have to tell you one more thing that you haven't come to give Me anything. Actually, you cannot give Me anything. That's the sign which is. I'm the One who can only give you. Like you take so much from nature. What can you give it? You cannot. But after Realisation you'll be surprised you can give vibrations to the nature. And this can be done in a way that nobody can do otherwise. If you, if you see a farm which has been vibrated and which has been tilled by realised Souls you'll be amazed. They produce ten times more wheat and the wheat has a special glow about and it is so nice. I've seen with My own eyes and I was amazed. I have been amazed about it. You see, these things are so much to be understood and you can deny but unless and until it happens to you, one should not believe it but once it happens you will be amazed and then you must believe it. Because even then if you do not believe then it's a dangerous thing because then the vibrations will die within you and they start disappearing from you and then you are amazed and then you call Me and say, “Mother, it was all right first day. I got it but then I lost it." So that should not happen to all of you.

I wish you all a very good life. Let's see now what is the situation with all of you and let's work it out.

We have people here who are just like Me and they got realisation and now they are growing and they are enjoying their life and they are not at all bored. Also they are doing no compromises. I do not want to tell you at all, `Please do not do that.' About many things that [UNCLEAR should be] understood. They are aware of it, you see. And it will happen Your all priorities will change and you'll be such a different person that you could just not do that because you [UNCLEAR won't/want to] enjoy yourself.

When you start enjoying yourself, when you get the nectar of life, when you get this [UNCLEAR and want it/worth within you] then you do not go for these cheap, frivolous [UNCLEAR things/states], then you won't destroy it. It is automatically from within. It is not done by any force or by any conviction, or by any talking about it. It just happens.

So may God bless you.

Such a big [UNCLEAR lecture/large subject] you know that I cannot [UNCLEAR talk/cover] in this short time and I have to tell you why I have been late at you. [UNCLEAR] perfect but I was very late and I went round the [UNCLEAR whole/suburbs] [UNCLEAR]. Perhaps the vibrations had to go round and I had to go round. Gavin is always saying that. And that's how Gavin got lost. He never gets lost normally. [UNCLEAR] and again, after all, he represents part of you but there are so many others who can master it and I had to go later.

So I was enjoying this. And now I was saying, “It is very late but I would like to see how the position is." Before that I would like you to ask Me sensible questions, but why I say sensible questions because you know there are some really cracked people, some just coming from the lunatic asylum. We had one like that. And he came out with such a horrible question I looked at him and I knew where he came from, [UNCLEAR went all right/were not] Linda? But then we realised that he was very. He's cured now. He's cured. He's very much better.

So all kinds of people we have.

So I would request you ask sensible questions as good to you and which will be helpful to your [UNCLEAR life ultimately/ascent]. [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] vibrations.

Shri Mataji: I am all right.

Sahaja Yogi: You look fine...

Shri Mataji: I'm all the time all right. I wish everybody could have that. Very good. You ask the questions.

Sahaja Yogi: Excuse me, Mother, I have [UNCLEAR a handicap with hearing and such but/the theory in Sahaj] but if I look at your photo [UNCLEAR I'm able to/I did] feel the coolness in the hands immediately and I'm terrible for rests and I did feel after a while [UNCLEAR not only] just now, [UNCLEAR the/that kind of] pain disappeared which I had [UNCLEAR] [UNCLEAR questions/for discussion] etc. But it will that be sufficient, if I done [UNCLEAR nothing/that] each day and then do that for about ten minutes and I mean apparently I was being worked on as well by someone. [UNCLEAR Will/Would] it be OK [UNCLEAR with it/later]?

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes, it should be. You see, once you have touched it, also you've touched it. You are just there. But you have to maintain it and keep it up. I would say the situation is like this that if you are getting drowned, you see and you are brought in and put in the ship or on the boat, now you still remember that, you see, so many again have toppled out.

So steady yourself. Now somebody asked Me, “Mother, when are we steady?" I said, “When you are steady you are steady." You don't find this question anymore once you become steady.

So there is no guarantee of time or anything but it can be just a minute, a second also it can work out.

Sahaja Yogi: Thank you Mother. I am trying concentrating on the [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: It's already, you see, worked in you. And your ears can be improved also. It's not difficult to improve your ears. We'll tell you some methods by which, because of this center being in trouble your ears are affected. If you can improve this center your ears will improve, you see? All right?

Sahaja Yogi: Maybe it is something in.

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR] get anything? On both hands you are getting cold?

Sahaja Yogini: No, I suffer from epilepsy.

Shri Mataji: What?

Sahaja Yogini: I have got epilepsy. [UNCLEAR] also clearing.

Shri Mataji: Yes, that is clearing Haṁsa.

Sahaja Yogini: My Haṁsa?

Shri Mataji: Yes. All right?

Sahaja Yogini: I suffer from epilepsy Mother [UNCLEAR]. Doctor said...

Shri Mataji: I can quite understand, you see, because your Āgñyā is caught. But now I would say that... it's just for a short time. Now when did you get epilepsy?

Sahaja Yogini: I got the epilepsy last year.

Shri Mataji: Did you go to any Guru or anything? [MISSING.] Now, we should have brought. You know you'll be amazed we use some chillies or lemons [UNCLEAR] chillies and lemons, you see. And those lemons you can vibrate. They have such absorbance of vibrations that they keep the vibrations within themselves and in the night the vibrations come out and work on a person and then one could get all right.

So you worked it out? Good, good, all right.

So we'll work it out for you. Now, what else? What is the other problem? Epilepsy is cured but you have to be a bit cooperative, all right? Are you feeling better now?

Sahaja Yogini: The main thing is I've got it [UNCLEAR] since I got the epilepsy last year disturbing [UNCLEAR the right/of the] Āgñyā.

Shri Mataji: Shoe-beat, all right? It's a question of this center being blocked. And when this center is blocked then that also sucks [UNCLEAR] and that spoils the Haṁsa. But do you know a simple method of curing this one after Realisation is the mantra for this center is Lord's Prayer. After Realisation you have to say Lord's Prayer to get it cleared because Christ is the One who actually keeps us away from the spirits and, I mean, these horrible dead spirits, you see, who live on this. They don't want to leave you now. They hang around where they enter in, to live and trouble you. It's worse seeing the way they affect people. But I've seen in the churches; now for example here is a church and I'm going round and I saw huge, big these blocks, say, which are used for the tombs, you know.

So they must be having lots of dead spirits. Where is this? Now if you go to the church you will not get realised, but you get possessed.

I don't know from where this idea came into the mind of people to put all the dead in the church, in the city. I mean even if you want to have a church for them you can have them outside. That is only for the dead. But your children go there. You all go there. I mean, no wonder people are getting mad here because these are all dead spirits and out of them maybe at least five per cent are dissatisfied souls and five per cent are [UNCLEAR despaired] people. Because whether is a saint or [UNCLEAR different person, a sinner] they are all put [UNCLEAR there/together]. And they might be affecting you.

So I saw and I was rather amazed, such people used [UNCLEAR mugging/mumbling]. Have you seen? Have you noticed? Are all placed against the bottom. I mean, you should watch better now when are you going to the church where the deads, [UNCLEAR because look, how many are going to reach] the God? So this is what it is. You must understand all about all these things that can affect you, that can trouble you and then when we realise it then we can control them, I mean control our own problems and can control them also. They have no reasons to be here at all. We have nothing to do with them. They are dead and gone. We are in the present; they are in the past. They should be in the past.

So they want to just enter into this area and want to manifest.

Sahaja Yogini: Mother, You talked about the dead entering the living. Could that have happened to my mother? She was knocked down by a car and banged her head and three months later she found my father dead and since the [UNCLEAR] she is not the same person anymore.

Shri Mataji: So she can be cured, My child, absolutely that. Absolutely, she can be cured.

Sahaja Yogini: This is my father fault. [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes, of course. Yes, yes, absolutely. It's not question of haunting, you see. The father feels for the mother that he thinks that she is been knocked down by the car and he feels concerned about her.

So he is to be told and he can go.

Sahaja Yogini: I have thought that inwardly but I haven't able approach her for the moment and want to very much.

Shri Mataji: Where is she now?

Sahaja Yogini: She is in [UNCLEAR] in Yorkshire. She's not here tonight.

Shri Mataji: But you can [UNCLEAR get/give her] [UNCLEAR] and then [UNCLEAR]. It's not even [UNCLEAR]. All right? So that's now very common. It's a very common disease, very common disease. All right? It's very common.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, from my house, I have to speak on behalf of my wife, who let me here, you see, because she can't speak herself but she did write you a letter and we brought it this morning but there was nobody here so could get be in.

So it's actually a letter from her explaining the problem.

Shri Mataji: Can you tell Me [UNCLEAR just now what is the problem/the matter then]?

Sahaja Yogi: Pardon?

Shri Mataji: Can you tell Me just now what is the problem? You can ask her. If you can speak about it, but if you feel that it is not all right then I don't know.

Sahaja Yogi: No, the problem is that last August she began losing the power of her voice and now she can't speak at all, not to any extent. If she spoke you won't be able to understand her. And also she finds it very difficult to swallow and feels that she's choking when she swallows. And she's seen doctors and specialists, consultants. They don't know what causes it and they say they haven't any treatment for it.

Shri Mataji: Absolutely. It's just the same. It's nothing so difficult. All right? She's catching on the Viśhuddhi Chakra, here, this one, there, at the back and that's how she has got it. Very common. Then you come, you come and see our program.

Sahaja Yogini: This is the lady.

Shri Mataji: She's the lady?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: You can work it out on her.

Sahaja Yogi: My little boy here cannot speak or hear. He's deaf and dumb. Could anything be done? 36

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR].

So got any problems? You have?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: About you?

Sahaja Yogi: The Heart Chakra.

Shri Mataji: You have a heart trouble? Are you frightened?

Sahaja Yogini: No, not really, I'm not frightened. [UNCLEAR I've got this cold/Not frightening is the only problem] I don't have the energy to do anything. It is coming from the angina.

Shri Mataji: Angina is curable. You have to meditate. It's all right. Have faith. What do you want?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: This [UNCLEAR sacredism] you told Me it's a very small [UNCLEAR]. This, see this is a bondage itself. But this is [UNCLEAR] not very cold, you see. [UNCLEAR]. And certain thing it is totally absurd about [UNCLEAR] I mean, especially during the winter [UNCLEAR]. But really, you must have a bath. Whatever may be the cold or anything, you all have baths, every day. And then you go out, you see. And they take here because it's cold, they take bath in the [UNCLEAR]. But I was amazed [when] I was in some of Himālayas villages, they never take bath, always is cold, absolutely cold. You see because the difference in temperature is so much there, they don't do it much. That's why if you look to the persons here, they do not take bath too much. And solve lots of problems, see, of having very few bathrooms and this.

And secondly the another thing is that even if they take it, they take it in the night. But that should be religiously and should not be avoided because when you take your bath you should not go out at least for two, three hours because it catches. And secondly I've seen here when you go out mostly what happens that, I mean this portion is always kept opened because you see this portion is regarded as something which should be shown [UNCLEAR]. It will look hardly to cover this portion of your mouth and [UNCLEAR nose]. But I think this might be one of the reasons some women have [UNCLEAR], some problems. But if you could just, you see, if it is very, very cold by any chance if we could just cover this portion of our mouth, of our nose and the part of the mouth, you see, it would very good for us because there, you see, these troubles starts because of the sinuses and the sinuses get swollen up because of this cold coming on the nose. I mean, we cover the whole body, we cover everywhere but the nose is exposed. And because of that exposure, complete exposure, this portion gets inflamed and then the sinus starts working out here and because of that, you see, we get this trouble.

Now this is the Chakra which controls it, is called as Haṁsa, is this center here, which [UNCLEAR] come from there, which is quite [UNCLEAR] just below, yes just below [UNCLEAR the center] [UNCLEAR] here, which works it out. Now the best way to get rid of this coldness is to be cautious about the climate, cautious about, vigilant. But secondly there are so many things in Sahaja Yoga to cure this center which is the guiding one and which they will tell you how to cure this center, how to cure also this center. If you could cure these two centers then you cannot catch cold much. But another thing which is very good for the throat is salt. And there's a simple grandmother's [UNCLEAR recipe/receipt] for this [UNCLEAR] that you take and heat a little salt and butter and put that in your throat and in sinus, little warm so that it clears out and the salt absorbs the cold. It's very nice and you'll feel very much better if you go for that. And you can take an onion and roast it and foment it here, cut it into pieces, cover this portion nicely so the sinus could be cured. It should be [UNCLEAR done twice or three times/maintained for some time] before sleeping [UNCLEAR]. And there some other things also one can try.

But there is another method by which we can cure cold forever so that we can ever elude it which is called Neti in what you call, in the Yoga. Because we use Yoga wherever it is required and wherever the point is. We do not use Yoga in the way people do, indiscriminately but wherever it is required. Like Neti. It is required for people who catch very much on this center and get diseases. It's a kind of a water carrier that they have. We call that [UNCLEAR bluh]. And that one has a, what you call, as a snout which is coming out just like a, just like a kettle. And when you put a little tepid water and salt in it, you can start pouring that water from one end to another and you'll be surprised that because of gravity from the other side it goes down in a proper manner, just like as if the water is poured down, you see, it goes on falling down. And when [UNCLEAR it/the salt] [UNCLEAR] it sucks because of the vacuum that is created. It sucks all the mucus and everything from this center to the end and you can also use it the other side, like that. If you do it for some or ten days both the [UNCLEAR types/sides], you see, that you can gradually reduce it and gradually reduce it. Then you absolutely get rid of cold. You do not get cold much. Because the salt goes there, sucks our all the problems and say about the treatment lasts about for few months or so which I can also teach you sometimes but [UNCLEAR] because I'm not experimented with it. Try to see. Because this is the first time I've seen that in this country I also catch cold. Because I have to have vibrations for your cold so I get cold. When your throat is all right My throat is all [UNCLEAR sore/swollen] because I accumulate that vibrations as cold and then it passes through you and you feel all right and I feel ill. It's like that.

So it is the cold is the problem which you have as the national problem. And it should be dealt with it on a national basis on these days and this can be worked out. It will become absolutely cleared. It's not difficult. But if you have that problem you can work it out sometimes. You can get rid of the sinusitis. For the time being you can just heat the onion [UNCLEAR] it is very good [UNCLEAR] and use that butter. Butter, heat a nice butter to a boiling point and put some salt in it and let it cool down as much as you can bear it, I mean. Put it in the, here and see that it is quite cool and good for [UNCLEAR throats/thoughts] and then you can pour it through the nose and sip it up. It will be useful. It soothes your membrane and also salt is sucked, what you call it, through osmosis, it's sucked to inside. It is another grandmother's [UNCLEAR recipe/receipt] which is very good for that.

If you have the salt here I can vibrate it for you. It's very good for the throat. You should use vibrated salt for the Viśhuddhi. For liver also if you can use vibrated sugar it's good. I think that many people are suffering from liver, which you have not here but you all come there and I know you are a lot.

So if you have [UNCLEAR] [UNCLEAR bring it to this program/this is the problem]. Now what we do is to, from the hands, you see, the vibrations [UNCLEAR start/are] flowing. When we do our hands in such a way that we put a sort of a [UNCLEAR] or sort of enlightening our aura so that nothing enters into us and you can enlighten others' auras also. There are so many ways how to put the bandhan but the vibrations must flow. That's the first. If there are no vibrations just get bandhan [UNCLEAR again/at the throat].

So it is about physical [UNCLEAR system/fitness].

Something else you are worried about?

Sahaja Yogini: Can I help a dog with a damaged spine, Mother? [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Whose?

Sahaja Yogini: My mother's dog. It's very cute. It's got a damaged spine through [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes, by all means. Why not? You see, it's such, you got the vibrations, go. It's very simple, you put one hand to the dog and another hand to the photo. Just feel. It's [UNCLEAR good/cool]. [UNCLEAR I might say] it's your mother's; otherwise if I told you or anybody else's you would not have tried. Try, it's very simple. Just put your hands, just try. Give bandhan.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: How are you [UNCLEAR]? Are you all right? Are you feeling any Cool Breeze in the hands?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Good. Are you feeling also? You'll be amazed, you'll start looking much younger, all of you after [UNCLEAR]. I mean, I couldn't recognize people after Realisation. Then I used to get realised Souls, I must say. They said, “Mother, we've been to You. Have you forgotten?" I said, “Oh, what happened to your faces after that?" And they were so relaxed, you see. It's good, living in any place where so many people got Realisation. What about you? Are you feeling the Cool Breeze?

Sahaja Yogi: I feel.

Shri Mataji: You?

Sahaja Yogi: Thoughts and swirl.

Shri Mataji: Let others see you. Come along here.

Contents: 1979-06-16*, Public Program, This is not the Work of Mediocres, Doctor Johnson's House, Birmingham, UK

I am really sorry we got here, achieved here such a late but I would say but the things have to be done according to the timings of the Divine, you cannot plan out your own things. That's how sometimes one has to be later and sometimes one has to be earlier. But one thing is definite: the time has come for the final happening of your being. This being has been passing through various phases of life. You know that, that you have been a small little amoeba and then a fish, a reptile and that's how the evolution went on till you are today sitting here as a human being.

All this has happened to you without your knowledge, without your deliberations. And you have taken for granted that you are a human being and all the rights as a human being are your own. In the same way you have a right to be something more than what you are, because even today you do not know what is your purpose: why all these effort was put in to create you? What is the meaning of this life? Is it pointless? Just you were created for nothing at all, for thousands of years? In such a manner that so many things were discarded, so many shapes were discarded, so many forms were discarded and then gradually, one by one, they started disappearing from this Earth. Ultimately we find there are so many human beings now on this Earth that it is not easy to explain how, in this short time, you were created and so many were created.

Whether you believe it or not, but there is a Source, there is a Controlling Power, which does that.

The human beings themselves have been talking about God, have been writing about God, themselves.

Of course they were guided by incarnations who led them do this kind of a decision, no doubt, but still, animals do not think of God, they cannot think of anything abstract.

So there is an awakening within every human being that we are not complete and there is something of the beyond.

Now if I say that just now we know about this Universe through our senses, it's just a dream: is a fact.

Is just a dream. You are not going to believe Me that this is all a dream when you can see it very clearly.

But don't we see everything in the dream clearly? In the dream are we not related to all the things that we see, in the same manner as it exists today? So when I say that you have to be awakened out of this dream and jump into that awareness, which is complete awakening, you might say that is it going to be from one dream to another dream and from this dream to another dream? How is it am I going to prove that even that awakening which is of the beyond is? You start feeling the vibrations as you have heard about it. But how are you to believe that even those vibrations that you feel and the Supreme Power you feel, the All-pervading Collective Consciousness you feel within yourself, is also [not] another dream and you have to be awakened beyond that? I would like any one of the Sahaja Yogis to answer this question if possible. Can you tell Me that? I would like to know if any Sahaja Yogis can say definitely that the dream, that you have come out of it now, because you are feeling the vibration, you are feeling the collective conscious within you yourself is also not another dream. I want you to think about it. Can anyone give explanation? Can anyone think of an explanation that even that All-pervading Power you are feeling is not a dream?

Sahaja Yogi: The dream doesn't change.

Shri Mataji: Beg your pardon.

Sahaja Yogi: Dream doesn't change.

Shri Mataji: But how can you say? That you are still in a dream and how will you say whether it will change or not? How can you say definitely that it is not going to change? Supposing you see why should you believe Me also. You should find out well I am taking you from dreams to dream and again to another dream. Bala let's have you: you are very clever. Gavin, you are intellectuals. You know I told Gavin that I'll ask you a question. How do you say that these vibrations that are there, you are not dreaming about them?

Sahaja Yogini: If they are there how can we dream about them?

Shri Mataji: You see, but may be that, in this case they are there because you are in another dream state, the third one!

Sahaja Yogini: This is my personal opinion that this dream for me. It is one that has come true.

Shri Mataji: True, but what do you say that for the next dream, what about the next dream? Maybe something else would be there.

Sahaja Yogi: We can test that by vibrations.

Shri Mataji: But even vibrations could be dream! You see, you just think about it, why am I saying that you don't just accept Me as I am saying it? You should keep your mind on the alert.

Sahaja Yogi: We don't think.

Shri Mataji: You don't think about it. Why not? You can also think about it and this is the point.

The point is not that you don't think about it, but, that in the dream whatever you have, now you have come to this state of consciousness where you are just conscious. Then whatever you have in this conscious stage cannot be used in your dream; you cannot relate it to your dream. But when you get realised then you can use that finding, in Sanskrit called [UNCLEAR] to solve the problems of this dreams. You see? That is why that is not a dream. Whatever creates the dream, the ignorance, you can face it by the findings of Sahaja Yoga. Every minute you can face it as you have done.

So, it should not be a criteria that I do not take any money from you, so you just believe Me. No, you should not believe on this point.

But the thing is, if your dream, that is today's conscious mind, where we are in the center in the conscious mind, when this conscious mind receives super-consciousness, then that consciousness can be used to solve the problems of this dream. And this is why we have to know that whatever you achieve through Sahaja Yoga breaks all the dreams.

Later on you can even use it for the dream itself, because you will start Absolute State and you have that absolute awareness which we call as Chaitanya Lahari, is the vibration by which you can judge everything: the dream that was there and this conscious mind and also the future that is God and his ways. All these things can be felt through these vibrations.

The obstructions which come your way not to feel, we call them as badha. Obstructions are called as badha: means by which you cannot feel them fully. Maybe the instrument is not alright, maybe there is something wrong. But the feeling that you get of these vibrations are not clear-cut in your mind and there is a Vikalpa. `Vikalpa' means doubt. The doubt is there because your feelings are not quite clear-cut.

There is a vicious circle on this point. Even when you do get your vibrations, then doubt comes in, because your feelings are not yet all right.

So when you feel the vibrations perfectly well you can be doubtless. It's a vicious circle. Because of the doubts you do not feel the vibrations and because there are no vibrations you are in doubts. This is the point, even after realisation, [that] one has to know beforehand because we have had experiences, because people came to My program, got realisation and they never come back. The reason for that is, this time is very important and that is the time when your Kuśhal, your capacity, achievement, is tested.

Realisation people get it, vibrations they do get it. But your capacity to be steady into that state is only possible if you, yourself, you are determined to do it. Otherwise you are again thrown into the same plane. Like if you are getting drowned and somebody tries to save you, brings you on the boat, but still you are not sure whether you are in the boat or sinking deep and slip down back again. Again he puts you back. Again, you slip down. This thing goes on. But if you could stick on to the boat with determination it helps much more, because that is how you are going to know your meaning of life.

Because of this little problem I have seen, in Sahaja Yoga, we get people who are excellent. This is not the work of ordinary people, of mediocres. There is a saying in Marathi language [of Saint Tukārām], "YERYA GABALYACHE KĀMA NOHE" "It's not for the lousy to come into it." So this is the point where you have to achieve that and that point is very important. Why I have today started with it [is] because I have seen many a times [that] all the efforts sometimes are lost just like that.

Now here placed within you, all the Chakra that are shown here. Would you like Me to tell you the names of these Chakras here? Yes. Now this Chakra is the first Chakra of the center within us, which is in a subtle form we do not know about, but we know about it in the gross form, again in the dreamland, we can say. The gross form is called as the pelvic plexus. But it is manifested by this subtle Chakra known as Mūlādhāra. This is a very, very important Chakra within us, because that is how we started having life.

You can say carbon was introduced in life. Without carbon you cannot form life. And so this is the Chakra where, this is the state when we really became living beings, the life pulsated in us and that is how it is demarcated. It also represents all the matter that we have been. Because carbon stand in the center of the periodic table, as you understand and that is the highest evolved element because when carbon was introduced then only we started pulsating as living beings. But it has nothing to do with Kuṇḍalinī.

So all the living beings are at this level now, but while you have a higher position, all of you, built in you, though they also have the capacity to have all these.

So the human history starts straight from here, is the base. That's why it is called as `Mūlādhāra' Chakra, [meaning] the base of the root, the base of the root.

Now which is the root is this one [the Kuṇḍalinī]. This one is the germinating force within you by which you evolve to a higher state and this is placed within your triangular bone which you can see with your naked eyes. It exists. But if you tell a doctor he won't believe you. I was Myself a student of medicine and I would say “Now, how to talk to these people? It's better to learn their language so that you can talk to them." It exists there and many of the people who are here have seen this pulsating in them. This one.

And this Kuṇḍalinī is the force, which is kept there, residual force, which is kept there for your rebirth, as they call it. The Brahmin is called as a Dvijaḥ means the one who is born again, reborn. As Christ himself has said, that you have to be twice born. Like an egg of a hen, you are born, living in this dream and in the cocoon of your own being. When you are ready, the Mother can pierce on the head of the cocoon and can bring you out, though the transformation has been done by you, within yourself, without feeling it, through the Divine force. And I feel today is the time, you are just ripe for hatching, as they say.

The blossom time has come. The time of transformation has come. And thousands have to be transformed.

You have to know the meaning of your life because you were created for a purpose. From amoeba to this stage you were brought. And now the One who has created you, the one who has given you all the beauties and bounties of this Universe, wants you to know Him and enjoy all the bounties, like the Father bestowing properties, all His enjoyments on this Earth, out of His love. Is the manifestation of His love that has brought us to this stage. And His love only is going to give you that status by which you are going to be enthroned into the Kingdom of God. Instead, I know people have been harmed much more.

Is very, very simple proposition, which is difficult for human beings to understand, that this was desired as a father desires for his son, even when he is not his father, he thinks of a son, how he is going to bring him up and how he is going to bestow all his love and all he is earning on that child. In the same manner, the Great Father has planned the whole thing in such a beautiful manner and He is going to look after His own Creation. No one can destroy it. He is Almighty. Only thing is that you may destroy yourself, because He has made you free. He has given you freedom. He has treated you as a friend. Because if you have to be enthroned, you have to be a free person and you must know how to enjoy the glory of freedom.

In that freedom if you have chosen something wrong then you cannot blame God for that. But even if it is just a mistake then He will work it out with thousand fold of His glories and mercies to see you, that you are safe. He's going to use all His powers to see that you receive that beauty that is promised. That is what Sahaja Yoga.

Sahaja means spontaneous. Perhaps we do not understand the full meaning of `spontaneous', because `spontaneous' itself is an abstract word to understand. It's just His spontaneous power that works it out. He is spontaneity Himself and His powers are spontaneous. His love is spontaneous. You can see everywhere how nature is spontaneously doing thousands of things which we cannot answer, neither can we understand it, nor can we appreciate it. Like a little flower becoming a fruit. We just take it for granted; if there are flowers, all right, take it, they are there. If there are fruits, we eat them. In the same way we have taken for granted everything and we have taken for granted Sahaja Yoga also. It's going to work out, it's going to be within you and all of you are going to get it.

In this center, the second center which you see this center first, because this is the center, which is called as the Maṇipūr center, which controls our navel organs or, as we can call them, as the solar plexus. There is a solar plexus which controls all the organs in the stomach, all the viscera and this center [Swādhiṣhṭhān] actually comes out of this center. It is an additional center of this, which revolves around this area and looks after organs that are inside the stomach. As God has made you in His own image, you can see that, that this is the place where

God has created this Universe, where the stars and all the galaxies are created.

And then the Earth is created down here and we have a sun and a moon.

But in our being itself also we have got all these centers placed within us. This is the star of Jupiter you can say. All of them have also stars which are like push buttons as they say. All these big stars, are push buttons in the viscera or in the stomach, abdomen of God Almighty. In the same way, we too have got this center, it's very important. If you can see here that it is surrounded by this water element and this center is meant for your freedom.

So, first the life started existing in this water and the seeking started.

The seeking started because we have in-born, built-in, sense of seeking. Amoeba seeks the food. Animals seek also food and also other things like protection. It learns how to protect itself. But the human being seeks the meaning of his being. This seeking here is our something today. This side is the, this blue line [Iḍā Nāḍī] that is shown within you, is the line of your existence which manifests your left side sympathetic nervous system. And the line, other line that is shown here is the line of your creativity [Piñgalā Nāḍī], of your physical being which is represented by or manifested by your right side sympathetic nervous system.

In the center [Suṣhumnā] is the seeking. And you see that there is a void, there is a void in between.

You do not know how to approach from there. Human being have this center as critical point because after the point of protection, animals rise, they learned methods how to protect themselves. But this is a point, which is very important, where human beings have raised their heads up. This center is a very, very vital center because that is the point where human beings have accepted their responsibility. They have accepted the situation that they are something. The `I'-ness started with this center. Because at this center, as it is shown on the figure is slightly wrong [because] you can say that is connected on both the sides, at this center, when the human beings start using these two powers within them, of one of existence and another of creativity or we can say emotional, mental and physical power, they released from their being fumes of tensions. And these two fumes as we have shown there, go into the brain and form on this side the superego and that side as the ego.

Now how super ego is formed and how ego is formed and what it is, I will tell you in short. As in a factory, when there is activity, you see the fumes coming out; in the same way, when we have our emotional activity or our physical mental activity, the fumes, which represent all the activities of that [UNCLEAR] are accumulated in these two balloon-like structures. These two balloon-like structures, when they meet then a human being is separated from the mains. Animals are not separated. Only human beings are separated. They have [been] given that freedom. When they are born, in the a Fontanelle area as you can see in childhood is very, very soft. And you can see the pulsation through which the power flows into the limbic area. But when a child grows and his two activities grow just like that, there's calcification of that bone and you find that the head here becomes hard. That's why sometimes people say `hard nuts'. This hard nut is the place where this Kuṇḍalinī has to pierce. She has to rise from her seat, go upward and pierce that Fontanelle area. Which we all know is called as baptism. This was the baptism that John the Baptist said, not that you get Baptists from some theological college or from some training or some sort of a clownish looking people. They cannot do it. They may dress up like clowns and say, `Alright I will baptize you.' It's absurd! What is their authority to do such things? And that's how when, in the modern times you feel, if you ask people, “Do you believe in God?" “No." “Why?" “Because our clergyman is like that." But the church should not assume that they are representing God.

In the same manner, in every religion, the so-called Hinduism, which you think is something very great and people have exploited you is even much worse and much worse than Christianity could be any time.

This sort of exploitation is one of the greatest hurdles in your getting the realisation. One side the seekers, the innocent seekers who are seeking. They don't find it in church, so they go to an Indian temple, where they may purchase some ganja and end up in some [UNCLEAR] or something like that. That is one of the greatest hurdles I say today, that the way the innocence of the people is being exploited by people who think that they can sort of make money. They are not worried about their own seeking. How can they respect your seeking? Or [they do it] for some sort of a flagrant or you can say sadistic happiness out of it? This center, the whole of this center, which is supported by your sustenance, is disturbed [by that].

Here a human sustenance is retained and created and looked after. And there are great incarnations who come on Earth to teach that this is the sustenance you should adhere to. But there are also horrible, wicked, evil geniuses who come on this Earth. They come in this area and they disturb your sustenance.

That is the, as I said, the greatest problem that is facing Me. Actually, it would be something like a beautiful garden I come to and I find beautiful flowers around and I'm just coming and here I find the flowers mutilated for the selfish end of the absolutely depraved and low type of human beings, they should have horns actually and tails; that is how depraved they are. Even animals with horns are thousand times better. They want to retard your progress. And that is how we find today the situation is at the blossom time. That all the flowers have [UNCLEAR]. Otherwise they were to be fruits, very beautiful. It was to happen with all of them with great care and concern, to form that peach. But now they have come up to this level and here we find them suddenly destroyed by the nonsensical horrible people who actually are of no virtue. You cannot understand the anguish. Now it is for the flowers to understand this.

I was happy to learn that people have started calling themselves `flower people'. It was a good idea.

But they started another style of self-destruction out of frustration. Others are destroyed as well, as you are also destroying yourself. The other side of it is also very, very tragic. I met one of the Sahaja Yogis here who had broken his back because he did parachuting.

So I said, “Why did you do this?" What a thing to do parachuting, of all the things! Because I know his value. I know he's substance, I know this he is a genius. I said, “You should not have gone for parachuting. You are not the type, from planes." He said, “Sheerly out of frustration I thought better get my [UNCLEAR]. Still I came out of it, then I thought I must get something more the way I did it. I did it very well. But still it is there. There must be more there." But some of you have over-done everything. Why? Because you have not been able to evaluate yourself and find out about yourself, to know about yourself and what is the material you are.

When you are the hope of the whole Creation, how is it that you did not [take] heed to your own being? And this is the second hurdle that I have to face, you have to face [and] all those who believe that they should get realisation have to face.

This is how I am describing the void here. Just I'll have to do in a very short time and you know that subject matter is very great.

I would suggest that let us have The Light first. Let us get the Enlightenment. Then it would be easier to talk about it. Without Light, what am I going to describe? And why should you believe? So better have your light. Better feel it, manoeuvre it, understand it and then use it. First time when this Kuṇḍalinī touches the Brahmarandhra or when it opens out at this point, then you start feeling the cool vibrations.

So actually, that has happened? Let us see, in medical terminology the central path, which is the Suṣhumnā, represents the parasympathetic nervous system. I do not want to bore you with the medical terms because I have been bored Myself quite a lot. The central path of this Suṣhumnā is manifesting the parasympathetic and if you go and ask doctors, they'll say, “Oh, we don't know much about it. Don't ask." This is the point; this is the line by which we manifest our present. Now today, just now. Today is also true, but this moment. We cannot stay on this moment, either we go to the past or to the future, but we cannot stay here. If we could stay here, then we could see these two things clearly. But we are all the time jumping and we cannot see because the past is finished and the future doesn't exist.

So we don't see anything. Sum total is, that we don't see anything.

We can only see something or feel something if we could steady ourself on this parasympathetic, which we cannot; medically, they say that we cannot tap the energy of parasympathetic. Now this is what we have achieved up to this point as human beings. This is our achievement, which is felt in our physical being, in our emotional being and in our mental being. But also, there is another being which is our Spiritual Being which we can aspire but we cannot feel it and that Spiritual Being resides in the heart as Spirit. That Spirit sees you, It knows everything about you, but you cannot get to it. Your own attention does not reach that, that's why you cannot feel it. For example, you see this pillar; so the pillar is not you, you see these flowers [so] flowers are not you, you see this hand, so this hand is not you because you see it.

So there are two things going on all the time. Then, you see, you have a brain, that means you are not your brain. Then you see that you think, then you are not your thoughts. Then the one that sees everything is the One that resides in the heart. This is the reflection of God Almighty, Who resides on your head, on your heart.

Now immediately, if you start jumping as a jumping jack, that how do we talk of God. I am just talking of it, I am not saying that, `Here is the key.' Later on we'll find out really all what I talk is true or not.

But for the time being it's just a hypothesis and you just listen to this as a hypothesis.

So the reflection of God within us is the Spirit and when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, she touches the feet of the God Almighty, this is symbolically I am saying, [then] immediately, you become enlightened by the Spirit and it starts pulsating in you, in your heart there is pulsation. But you cannot feel that pulsation in your body usually. When that happens you start feeling that pulsation when the Spirit pulsates. And when He is the One who is part and parcel of the whole, you get connected to the whole, you start feeling the whole and that's how you actualise. You actually get it within yourself, the manifestation of collective consciousness.

It's very much higher than that of animal consciousness. You are very much higher than that of a animal awareness. Though many human beings aspire to be animals, it's surprising! Like, if the animal has to pass through the filth, he doesn't feel it, but human beings can't. They do not feel the colour, they do not, I mean, they do not enjoy the colours. They cannot enjoy the a good painting, for an animal, if you show him a painting, he won't understand what is a painting, he doesn't know what is the beauty.

So, in the same way when you become your being, your consciousness becomes collectively manifesting.

That means you become one with the whole. Say you are yourself somewhere here in the image of God, then this self becomes connected with the whole. You can feel the connection, that's how wholesomeness is established within you. How it's happens is that you start feeling the vibrations flowing from your hand and all those Chakras, which are enlightened, get enlightened here and activated. All these colours will tell you which Chakras are related to which finger here. With this sketch here, you can make out all of them.

Now when these are activated, you start feeling others on these activated hands. You can start feeling their centers. You can start feeling your own centers. This is what is Self-realisation, that you can feel your own centers. All other nonsense has no meaning.

People talk of Self-realisation and end up by going to some sort of a cemetery. They try to show that from the dead they are going to get you something that is above limits. This is the only way that you get your realisation. If you say a seed sprouts through its primule, that's the fact. But if somebody says that you can sprout a seed through, say, the trunk, can you do it? Or through the cotyledon [UNCLEAR].

In the cotyledon you can have the germinating power which is not. It's all programmed in its place and built-in within us. And this is the instrument, which is there within us and only through this instrument you are going to get your realisation. There is no other way out. And this one is such a beautiful one because here is your Mother, is your individual Mother waiting for this thing. She is the one who guides you. She is the one who took you into spirituality, She is the one, She told that there is something above and she is just waiting for a chance to rise and give you back that realisation.

So, all the centers which are in you or in anyone are reflections of the centers of the Primordial.....

(perhaps part 2 of 06-16) Now in this world[s] there are [cults], as they call them, [are not good]. They have made a mess of this Kuṇḍalinī knowledge. If you read some Kuṇḍalinī book you do not come to [UNCLEAR master it/might know]. They think in the [UNCLEAR most/worst] [UNCLEAR], ever born, [UNCLEAR that/like] Christ perhaps they thought as if He was a [immoral]. All sorts of perverted things they have said about this Mother [UNCLEAR Earth/of Christ] while She is the most loving thing that you have ever had. She is the one who is going to bestow this bliss on you. Why I'm doing it? Horrible ones have tried to malign Her, defame Her, insult Her and have tried to rouse such things that insult absolutely, accordingly. Every time I have to tell you about these ugly things which I don't want to talk about because it's so ugly to talk of this horrible play. But they are there in the [body] and I have to tell you. I have to warn you all the time. You have to be very, very careful about it.

Now, I think this is such a big subject that I don't know how will I be able to, to give the complete idea about it. But so far I think I have explained to you that you have a purpose in life and there are milestones of your evolution. They are put in you as centers, subtle centers which you can see with your eyes [UNCLEAR concretely/completely] and can feed through the second [force] and there is ego and superego within you which has given you the freedom as independent personalities and you can act as independent people and with this personality only you achieve that higher state as well you achieve [UNCLEAR that/Dhyān] the manifestation of that Divine force through you starts flowing. To end up that I would say that you become a holy personality, that you become the real instrument of God, that the power starts flowing through you and you see it flowing and working and [UNCLEAR]. Of course again [talking] about the [states], they give you [no] powers whatsoever and take [UNCLEAR along/away] all the powers [that you have]. But the whole creation has been created and you have been [manifested] as human beings to achieve your own power.

So, there's a sweet story about Rādhā and Kṛiṣhṇa. Once, you see, Rādhā was jealous of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa's flute.

So She went to Kṛiṣhṇa and she said, “What is this? All the time you are putting her in the lip. I don't like it." He said, “Why are you jealous?" She said, “I'm very jealous of her. What is her specialty? What is so special about her?" He said, “Why don't you go and ask her? It's a better thing you go and ask." So She went and asked that, “What is your specialty that He's all the time [taking you] near His heart and all the time He gives you [His lips, this]?" She laughed and laughed and she said, “You know what is My specialty. My specialty is that I have no specialty here, that I became a [hollow]. I'm absolutely a [hollow] and He plays and the world enjoys and I still looking [forward to do it] and I just [watch for] all that and people say that it is the [Mur.lī] [looking for, it is] the flute that is played. But I am [UNCLEAR] and [that I am] just a [hollow] personality." So Rādhā went to Kṛiṣhṇa and She said, “All right, next time You [bring forward, wait for] hollow personality [on Your lip, all right]." [That is what it is].

So whatever is promised [UNCLEAR] has to be done. God never makes promises which He [UNCLEAR].

May God bless you all.

I hope you all will get your realisation and you will be steady. That's very important because, as I've told you, it's not meant for lousy people. Thank you very much. I'm so happy to see so many of you, who [have become], who are deep people, who have been seeking all [UNCLEAR their lives/the time] and they have to realise that [UNCLEAR this/it] is the only way it has to be done.

In general, I don't know how people charge money for it. If something it's within, it's very, very low type, [to grab the money]. You cannot charge money for your love. I went to India and they told Me, “Mother, can You give us the list of people [whom You have cured]?" “What? It's very odd. You don't ask Me such questions." “Just [if] can You give us a list of the people whom you have cured." I said, “I have not made a list." So he said, “Oh, really! Why not?" I said, “Do you make a list of people whom you feed, whom you love, [which is the] [UNCLEAR] your own children? You make a list of all that. How many times you have [UNCLEAR] to your children? Only you enjoy yourself.

So where is the time for these nonsensical things as to list?" It's very [UNCLEAR joyful/joy giving]. It is that beautiful [play of Divinity, is that].

May God bless you again and again.

Let's see what happens, how far they [UNCLEAR go/grow].

I would say you ask some questions. Then if you can ask some questions. But you should not be very sensitive about it because people ask Me very, very direct questions. Then when I give them answers they feel hurt.

So they want to hurt you for everything because you are already very much hurt. I do not want to hurt you but it happens. It happens like that, that you ask horrid questions and when I tell you the answer sometimes you feel hurt.

So just ask Me questions.

Sahaja Yogi: We had also relaxation and [UNCLEAR] from both of these. We have done already that.

Shri Mataji: [What sort of the relaxation], My child? Just tell. I can [agree] if there are some results.

It's effective. It's a possession. Only thing they possess people. They get the pain. When they are possessed they get the same [thing]. But they relax because somebody else has taken their responsibility, but physically they can't bear the pressure and [they will have] contortions. It's very easy to find out.

You must be having lots of lunatic asylums here. [You must go and see them] since they are possessed, how they behave. The epilepsy is one of them. If you have seen in epilepsy how people get into a kind of a posture from where they cannot get out for hours together. It is possession. It's not only that your stomach is absolutely relaxed but even relax the stomach of others.

Sahaja Yogi: Only thing is through God's realisation.

Shri Mataji: Beg your pardon?

Sahaja Yogi: Only thing is through God's realisation.

Shri Mataji: What is?

Sahaja Yogi: The Self-realisation, it's only through God.

Shri Mataji: Of course, of course. You see there are, some people just arrived there they are, in fact, but some people go to a certain stage. The first stage of Realisation when the Kuṇḍalinī crosses over the Āgñyā Chakra is called as thoughtless awareness. Only in the thoughtless awareness you can start curing people. You can cure people if your Kuṇḍalinī has crossed the Āgñyā.

So far there are many people who can cure but they don't know how they do it. They don't know how to manoeuvre it. And then you have this Kuṇḍalinī rising above the fontanelle which we can call, as [the time] I call it a Self-realisation, because that's the time you become another human being, [you go into collective] consciousness. [With that] you can start giving realisation to others, correcting your own Chakras, everybody's Chakras and you can start feeling it.

So many things will happen. [I mean there is endless] if I, I cannot tell you how you realise the bliss of the Divine like that. It's something so wonderful, you should be amazed. Like [these days] we have here one Sahaja Yogi. In the beginning, you know, I had only six of them for four years, for your information, in England.

So I worked with six of them. And while [there], you see, in the beginning I said, “Let's see how this thoughtless consciousness works." So he said, “My father has not written any letter." I said, “All right. You don't write to him. You just think about him and feel his vibrations." He started getting a heat here and a burning here.

So he said, “Mother, what does that mean?" I said, “All these centers are of your father." So I said, “You telephone to him and find out. He must be having bronchitis." He had bronchitis. But when this fellow talked to him, bronchitis he got all right. It's that fantastic, so fantastic. I told you that from thoughtless awareness you jump into collective consciousness, collective awareness. This collective awareness gives you the powers of collective consciousness by which you cure others. You are sitting down here; you can cure other people, you can awaken their Kuṇḍalinī, even give them Realisation. But then the person must talk to you, say, on phone or somehow. He should be connected. And that he should know [about, that] this, there is a movement by [some] deliberations of somebody who is, we call it, Sahaja Yogi.

Then, the third state is complete Self-realisation. You get that state, which comes when there is, we call it as Nirvikalpa Samādhi, means [UNCLEAR where/when] there is doubtless awareness, that you have no doubts anymore left about it. It's not the rational, but it is a state in which you settle down. In that state you have no doubts anymore about it. Then the powers are dynamic and you start working on so many dimensions that you are amazed how things work out.

For example, I'll tell you we have a lady here, (she's doubtlessly, I'll not say) she's doubtlessly aware.

She worked to the every Chakra, [or her Chakras are]. All the time her vibrations are flowing [out]. She wrote a letter to Me saying that, “Mother, there's a girl who has got cancer. She is about ten eleven years of age. And I don't know how we can help her. She has come all the way from this Hong Kong. And they are saying that she has to die within [this year] time." I said, “All right." And she's now going to America for further check.

So she went to America and the American doctors said, “She has no cancer, nothing.

Who told you she has cancer?" This is one of them. No more cancer, [dying], nothing happened. And thus you cannot believe, it is so fantastic.

So this is the stage of doubtless awareness. First is the thoughtless awareness; then the doubtless awareness. Now, the awareness word, you see, is a, in the dream we call it awareness only. Say, my wife says that normally what we are in conscious mind [we may be] in a dream.

So this is also awareness and even after that is awareness. But in Sanskrit there are two words: one is Buddha; another is Prabuddha. You should put `pra', means enlightened.

So, we shall, we should call it enlightened awareness.

So it is thoughtless and enlightened awareness and enlightened awareness is also termed as Samādhi.

So is Nirvichar Samādhi. And the second one is the doubtless enlightened awareness, is the, the Nirvikalpa Samādhi.

So there is no Vikalpa. But this has no effect for the [them] as to understand very carefully what is a Vikalpa. And that I think that I will tell you some other time. And this is what is the Self-realisation.

When you have achieved that, from then there is God realisation starts. Then you start controlling the nature, you start controlling all that you see and you become the master of all that, but you do everything for the Hita, means for the well being of yours and of the whole. Your connection with the whole becomes absolutely clear-cut, when you become God's realised, means your awareness becomes so pure and so much effective, as if people will say that, `Look at this man. How does he do it and how it happens?' That is the state also is possible. After all, the whole creation has been through Sahaja Yoga, spontaneously.

And in the same way this is also spontaneous. There are only two persons who were born to incarnations who were Divine and who became themselves incarnations. They were born as human beings but became themselves incarnations. But even that can, can be covered by love.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, You also say that there are many, many people which are now [in demise] and in [UNCLEAR]. Why does God allow this?

Shri Mataji: He doesn't allow. You allow. I've told you; you have to think of it. First thing, you should not allow any who takes money how that can be in the name of God. You remember? You have Christ before you. He [rose], He took one whip and whipped these people, in the church. A man like Him who said that, “Forgive them for they do not know what they are doing." He whipped those people. That's what they deserved. And you go to them and bow to them. [Though, While] you are all very intelligent people and now such intelligent people are being attracted to this kind of a nonsense and an absurd thing, while poor, simple, uneducated are better off. They know all that, “Oh, we understand all that." They know such things. They are not stupid, you see. You must understand when you have money all these thugs are going to come along with it.

I say the other position now. Let's see. Supposing somebody comes out of the jail in India. He has no social position. He cannot live socially valued.

So he says, “All right, let me take another form or let me have a drama." He makes a camouflage out of it. He makes a person who is very friendly or very good.

Now he [needs you] be clear or other, there, or even runs after some other persons, makes no difference.

Then he comes out. He says, “You see, I will show you the water will come out of this pot, just now." Previous that he must have arranged that there might be a pipeline going and he must have put some sort of a clock there and which he must have picked up and showing that the water is coming out. And people will say, “Oh, this is a great miracle. You see the water. He hit there and the water has started coming out." So a [calculate] person has to go from the back door and see how it is and see about the pipeline.

He should be on the alert. This alertness if you do not keep in spirituality. Even after realisation you have to be alert about your attention. First, the alertness is about others, but after realisation the alertness is about you, because within you there are thieves who have come inside.

So you have to watch them. But you people are so simple and so innocent. But I really don't want to involve in your freedom or dreaming.

These are taking the good job of it, no doubt.

Sahaja Yogini: Mother, means could, we could get Realisation from then we become really that organization? Do we have to be [thinking] of that or we have...?

Shri Mataji: No, no, you have, you see, with some people it just goes up and goes down. There's one horrible Guru we have in India. I don't know what he does that you raise the Kuṇḍalinī and bring it up and it is again sucked back. Again you bring it up and again it is sucked back. [UNCLEAR Or/Oh,] you don't know how much one has to work hard. It's hard thing to be seen now. But one has to work hard morning till evening, the whole night. Last night I didn't sleep just about 2:30. Though it's a terrible job, it has to be done. There is no guarantee about it. Now you will understand one thing, very simple thing, because you see, you are coming from a different experience that here nothing is selling, nothing is reality.

Is the will that you get your realisation. It's God's will that He gives you realisation. It's in complete freedom that [UNCLEAR you could get it/there]. He cannot overpower your freedom because He's not speaking English. You are all elected. Is the other way round [story], you see, so there is no guarantee of anything. Do you understand such a situation?

Sahaja Yogi: If face to face deny that, if we have to deny that for God. And we go to Gurus means that this is something new between us that we may know. It's going to be an issue that we all agree.

Shri Mataji: Yes. What?

Sahaja Yogi: As far as understanding our rationalisation or the others.

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Sahaja Yogi: It should be.

Shri Mataji: Yes.

So you have said the other part.

Sahaja Yogi: Or how can these people, these men continue and speak of God as if they own Him? [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: But I know Kuṇḍalinī in them is almost damaged. They have achieved their doom long time back. You see, a person who is absolutely shameless, what can you do about it? They will not wonder affects you. You see, [they know] so I was telling you that there are, [your] Karmas he is playing with you.

And one of the monkey's tail was cut.

So he wanted everybody's tail to be cut. That is they are [ascetics].

They want everybody's tail to be cut. Only thing that you can do is not to have anything to do with them.

Sahaja Yogi: But how do we know an authentic, a person who is not such a Guru?

Shri Mataji: How do we know? Because if a person makes you authentic that person is definitely authentic.

Sahaja Yogini: How?

Shri Mataji: If, if it is, you can see very clearly, it's even though they say they will give you these powers [and these] you cannot manoeuvre them. You cannot understand them if they do not even have the `know how'. See, why I am saying you are all authentic engineers because you know engineering. All right? That's how you are authentic. If you do not know how to do anything how are you authentic? So the one who gives you the authenticity itself is authentic. If he gives you the powers by which you all will know how and you all then can bestow [UNCLEAR that/your] powers to others, then you can say that he is authentic within. Or you all know all about it. I tell you what happens. Now I'll tell you what is this [within you]. Now it has happened [and is there]. You see, they are Greeks.

So they have to be translated. Don't get upset about it. What has happened? Really, should I tell you? Now the thing that has happened is that you developed your societies, you developed your countries and you became developed countries, all right? You developed your brains also too much and the whole thing was right side movement, as we call it. Too much mental activity; you started analyzing everything. You thought you can analyze everything, something like that. And you developed too much of ego.

You can say about a fifty years back the ego of, say, British persons was so great that it was pushing all the superego on one side. But then the suppression became painful and hurting, you see.

So the other people who followed them, they tried to push it back, all right? They said, “No, it is too much of ego. We just can't bear it. [UNCLEAR]. You have been too egoistical." So they started pushing your superego.

Now when they start doing that, what happens, that the wobbling starts in your brain. And you [are not] sure as to whether it was ego or superego, you are playing with [it]. You could not understand.

So it was first to begin with. Then the war broke out. Hitler came in and he broke your families. He broke your value system in something sublime and supreme. All these things happened. Then people like Freud and all that came in to give you another kind of a thought which also destroyed you. Now the very uncertain conditions and uncertain thinking, you were all placed in that permission.

So when something came from a foreign country, about which you had no knowledge and ignorance because better not think about it because by thinking what have we done? By thinking we have invaded other countries, by thinking we have ruined our families, by thinking [you had that].

So better not think about it; let's accept it. Whatever they say let's accept it. And when they came out with great words that we set the [world], the domain of this and that you just get [UNCLEAR charmed/chocked] like that, but natural. Though I would say that you are the right people for, Sahaja Yogis. You are the people, You are those supreme people who have been selected by these thugs. Because now you know all the method of the thug and now you are not going to go more in that. This is for the immunity to be developed within you that you have to go there and there's nothing to fear [now] because your Mother is quite [protective]. You were the last crucified for others because you could only do that. It was only your strength that could bear it up. It was nice that strong flowers were taken up. If they were just the weak flowers would have been finished.

So you have to play that role. Why worry about it? We are going to work it out.

So don't worry about the cars. You are a master of it. Doesn't matter.

Moreover, you'll be surprised, unless and until human beings go through that first, experiences [that], they do not come to Sahaja Yoga also. Do not feel that this boy wanted Me to go to Brighton. I said, “Right. You go to Brighton. Then I'll join, not now." But they always try to remind Me what sort of a place it is. “Mother, I don't know but poor things, You know, they are [UNCLEAR]." They went back to Brighton. And not a single soul came to [UNCLEAR]. But they found [them all that have gone there] which they are all jumping, shouting. Their intrigue inside was so much that they had to [take, mount on] another play and another play. It's going on there.

So let them go through that. What am I to do? I cannot force you. You know I've started My work in 1970 actually, but with one person. In this England for four years I worked with six people, as I told you. But it's all right. Most of them, even they come in a big group sometimes. Yesterday, for example, we went down to another place and most of them were there, most of them, except for two or three. They were six and I was trying improving their throats and one lady was having epilepsy, another one having another trouble and was just improved. You are the ones which are described what we call the real [valuable people].

So what does it matter? Nothing has gone wrong with you. Not to feel [bent down]. [I'll do it] very carefully. You won't be hurt at all. You're going to get the whole of it and all the secrets, all the secrets. And you are going to master this art and you are going to change the whole world; don't you worry. You will know your powers very soon, how [bad] of it you are.

So doesn't matter about it. And don't [hover] about the past.

Somebody must be [keep in the row]. It's nice they chose such strong children of Mine. I'm very happy that they did not put their hands on the crippled ones.

So there's nothing to worry about. All right? May God bless you all.

[Aside:] What's wrong? Following a wrong question. What?

Sahaja Yogi: Can you a bit explain about Karma?

Shri Mataji: Karma, all right. That I must explain to you. [UNCLEAR They are/The/They are, the] another story, but where do they get it, I do not know, that you have done your Karmas, you must cleanse these.

So why are they there? What are they doing? These are the sweepers. Why don't they sweep all the dirt? Why should we clean the dirt? You are paying that. They are paid for it. Who does the Karma? You know that? The ego does the Karma. Do the animals feel that they have done any Karmas? They do not accumulate any filth. Why do we accumulate of the [whole, the Karmas]? Because of our ego is there. Because we feel, `I am doing it.' All right? [UNCLEAR Oh! Only] you don't do anything actually, you know. I tell a story about some villagers going on an aeroplane and they were told not to carry too much luggage.

So they were very [UNCLEAR powerful/cautious]. When they sat down they took all the luggage and put it on their head. People said, “Why?" They said, “You see, we don't want that the aeroplane to carry too much luggage." In the same way you are carrying your Karmas. It is absurd. It's only your ego does the Karmas. When your ego falls down, when you are [opened out], you do not do Karmas. You know that you do not do them. It's very nicely explained in the Gītā book, because these people have not told you anything about it, so clear-cut, that the Karmas become Akarmas when you get realisation. Gñyān, what is Gñyāna is [the] awareness. Now when the awareness is enlightened then you become Prabuddha. That means your ego falls down and moreover it's sucked in. Ego is no more there [UNCLEAR is, and] the myth of doing Karma is finished. And these people play on that myth, by saying “You see, all right, you are carrying this luggage? Now you better carry even the aeroplane on your head." You better put all these aeroplanes on their heads. And their Karmas? Who is going to cleanse them? Have they thought to it? They are talking about your Karmas; what about their Karmas. Karma is a myth as long as you are in the [myth]. For example, in a dream you are running fast to save yourself from the police. For any [fault] you cannot find the ladder. You find half of the [UNCLEAR dimidiate].

Then you jump onto this and jump onto that.

So the dream is over if I tell you, `Now, better you jump,' you'll say, `Oh! The dream is over.' Instead of awakening you if I say, `All right, run, run, run. Still the police is after you.' Then the police will catch hold of them, those who did it. It's all mythical.

It's said very clearly that it becomes Akarma. Like the sun giving you the rays. Does it do any work? No, it emits, you see. It just emits. Like people say, “Mother, You must be very much working hard.

You know all." But you know, you see, I just emits. I don't know do any work, nothing. It just emits.

That's My nature. It just flows.

Some say, “Mother, how can we return it back?" Like we have a girl, she said, “Mother, I know very good how to massage Your Feet." I said, “All right, come along. Do it." She started massaging My feet and her feet became relaxed and she felt relaxed and she felt [light]. She said, “What's this, Mother?" I said, “This is what it is." Because

I don't do anything, absolutely a lazy person. Just sitting down. It just emits, it just flows, it works. Like the sun's [rays] come and change the whole world. The chlorophyll is created but the sun. The sun doesn't say, `I do it. I have done this.' This is exactly what happens to you when you get realisation: the vibrations start flowing. Then you say, “Mother, it is not rising." You never say, “I'm not doing it. It is not coming. It is not working." You talk in third person. You never talk in your own way that, “I have not done it. I have not achieved this. I have given realisation." You never say that. You say, “He's not realised." Now your own son is there, He's not realised. You say, “Mother, it's not working. What to do?" So the Karmas whatever are done, are not felt.

So what is the Phala about it? What is the fruit about it? Nothing.

I'll have to give you another lecture on Gītā. I think then you will understand, that you do not do any Karmas and there are no Phalas about it. See, it is just a myth and this is what Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa wanted that you to realise.

So He played His diplomacy and I will tell you about His tricks because I'm the only One who knows. [And you'll all know] about His tricks, that you don't do any Karmas.

So there is no Phala about it. But when you are in the dream you cannot say it. When you are awakened, then you just know.

You do know, it's not going, it's not coming, it's not working. It has to work out. It's not solved.

Today before coming here I went to see the [UNCLEAR] place. Again the others were saying, “Mother, no, it's not going today. It's not coming [UNCLEAR along/up]." The left catching, the right catching, there's nothing left. But the moment I felt [she has touched] Realisation, she was telling, “Mother, see my left is bad." She herself was saying so.

So they say, that is left, that is right, that is first, that is another one. Like the children say. If you take a child and say that, “Now, will you [not] go home?" So they said, “This boy will not go." That means they are different from this boy now. “This boy will not go." They speak in third person, in the same way you also speak in third person. The whole thing becomes Akarma.

So the myth has to [vanish]. The dream has to be dissolved.

Sahaja Yogi: If there is no Karma does that mean there is no reincarnation?

Shri Mataji: Well, how can you say that? There is no Karma. There is no reincarnation. All these are their ideas; nonsense they talk like that. Then why did Kṛiṣhṇa Himself reincarnated so many times on this earth? Did He have any Karmas? He was Yogeshwara Himself. You should ask them.

Sahaja Yogi: Who? 51

Shri Mataji: Why did He incarnate? Did He not? He came as a fish. Then He came as this and that and that and then He came as Rāma, Paraśhurāma and then He came as Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. Why? How? Because He at least was beyond Karmas. Actually, I will explain that how it works out. You'll understand, this is all right side activities. That when the whole machinery was set up, the whole office was set up, you can [so there, you can take a hall]. [You have] to [become, be some] officers appointed.

So, the people were selected out of their good deeds and good behaviour. They were made into Gods and were put permanently into places to act as officers. Like you have an officer here who will allow you to come inside the hall. A public place or you can say a public office has got officers appointed. But you are the people who are going to be received, you see. For example, the Queen has to come.

So you appoint somebody to see to the coach. Another one is appointed to see to the laying of the red carpet. Then third is appointed with the flower bouquet they are standing. And when the Queen comes, they are positioned in their places, then [UNCLEAR]. But you are to enter into the hall. You have to come to the stage. It is you, for whom these all these permanent fixtures were created. Why do you want to become permanent fixtures there? They are [UNCLEAR] about that. Who is going to come on the stage? Who are going to be [adorned]? We are in the central path. They are all settled on the right hand side and left hand side. These are called Gaṇas on the left hand side and on the right [MISSING]. Why this Universe was created? Why all these elements were created? And their Gods were created. Why? All these Chiran-jīvas were created. Those who achieved the state of permanent Chiran-jīvas are. Why? Just about you. All right? Which is the other myth they have given you? [Aside:] You can, [UNCLEAR]. Yes, I'll have some tea more.

Sahaja Yogi: Can You talk a bit more on ego escapes?

Shri Mataji: What's it?

Sahaja Yogi: It seems that the ego is, is the main problem. We have to go beyond [the ego].

Shri Mataji: No, no, no, it's not ego. It can be both, My child; it could be ego or a superego. You see actually nowadays, you see, it is more superego; you will be surprised.

Sahaja Yogi: Like You are saying going beyond the ego.

Shri Mataji: No, not only ego.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: It could be ego or superego. You see, I'll tell you how. That people, I must say, you are not ego and superego so you'll understand. That, say, an example of ego is, that say a child is having the milk from the mother or in complete joy the child is. And then you remove the child from that joy.

Then he develops a ego. He says, “Why has he done it?" Then you tell him, “Don't do like that." Then he develops the superego.

So the conditionings come through superego and the ego is the one through which you assert yourself and the superego is the one through which you receive conditionings.

So both could be there. And with the people who have been to these funny, horrible people, more is superego than the ego, I tell you. I wish they were more egoistical so really slapped them nicely on their faces. But they were not. They were so humble to accept them.

So they are conditioned, they are more conditioned and much more affected by ego run by [evil people]. And say of superego run by [fake Gurus].

So we have so many cases of superego nowadays.

Sahaja Yogi: How can we be obstructed again in Divine road?

Shri Mataji: Instructed?

Sahaja Yogi: Obstructed.

Shri Mataji: You, you can be. If there is something wrong with your Chakras, there is an obstruction.

But the Kuṇḍalinī Itself looks after you. She Herself works it out. Then you can get vibrations there by other Sahaja Yogis. They can help you. They will have to jolly well help you because they will feel the obstructions within themselves. Unless and until you feel all right, I am not going to feel all right Myself.

Whether it is two nights or five nights makes no difference, you see. It is that what it is. I mean, [it's] even otherwise. If you try to save somebody who is getting drowned. If you think that you are doing it for others, you are sadly mistaken. It is somebody in you who is getting drowned. That's why you are there.

Contents: 1979-06-18 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Questions and Answers, Jim Proctor's House, Cookridge (10 kms NW of Leeds), UK

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR] most of them. He has done three for you, I don't know how we could do it.

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR Now we can do it perhaps just...]

Another Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR It's also near, this fellow said, that we can't do so...]

Shri Mataji: Now what have you done, My child? Why do all lament about you? What have you gained?

Sahaja Yogini: Not anything I do. [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Than what, why do you pay for it? You pay for something where you do not gain anything? What have you got?

Sahaja Yogini: I have not gained anything.

Shri Mataji: Hmm? What? What have you gained?

Sahaja Yogini: I feel a so much more relaxed person, I feel so a much more tolerant person...

Shri Mataji: You are not at all relaxed, how do you feel you are relaxed. I can show you just now you are not at all relaxed.

Sahaja Yogini: I must say it's a bit cold. [Sahaja Yogis laughing.]

Shri Mataji: You are not at all relaxed, I must say. Find out. There is now a different thought.

Sahaja Yogini: Hmm?

Shri Mataji: You have to take life as it is. You see? This is not the way you can [UNCLEAR] but it will happen. You see, when you will have all the bangs, you might be a beginner or something, then the bangs will start you will come to you. You must understand where you are going by the path on which people have fallen and faltered into... See, the man, is the man who tried has been hurt, the person who is the bang must understand and understand for himself. If these are not so, it is not working, it is not wise. You must learn from the people who are gone ahead and have faltered. If you do not learn from them, then you are not wise. Do go ahead, have a nice time there and then come back to Me. I may be available, will be...

Why are you supporting? I don't understand? How much money you want to pay now for this country? I have seen how it works. It's better for you all, I do not know who else, everybody know that. You cannot sell Gods Love and another thing, it must relate to something. After all you must know that when a tree comes up for blossoming time it had a seat, it had roots, it had trees, branches, then it came up, it has flowers and now the fruits are there. All right? It must have a big tree behind. And the whole thing should be related to each other. Unless and until you are related to the whole you cannot understand.

Sahaja Yogi: This is all very important, so what will be...

Sahaja Yogini: This is what we heard before? Yes.

Sahaja Yogi:... we have talked a lot over this. [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What goal are you related to, if you are related to a goal, what should happen? That you should be able to tell about another part. For example, you see our hand is, our body is old. See now, see now, because you cannot ask him this question, but you should ask Me. It is a good idea. But don't waste your energies to much of doing that. You cannot ask any questions to Me, you are not told anything. He doesn't know, tell you anything, what's or ever, all right, it doesn't matter if I tell you. See, We are the whole, all right? Your body is all right.

If I get a pinch here I know, My body knows. Another hand goes and helps you. If you are the whole, did you ever feel that we are about each other? But here see now, he was there, everybody says right is catching, left is catching. Yesterday you didn't feel any vibrations. And he, everybody was telling Me about you. Today if I tell you, he is telling about you. And everybody says the same. How are you connected to the whole? That's talking, it's different, this is actualisation I am saying. Talk, talk, talk, talk. We have had too much. Aren't you satisfied with that? What has happened to you? That's the main point.

Another Sahaja Yogi: One Yogi, ah who for some time did TM, told me that, ah, this is non Sahaji, was a great carrot stigma, they always kept a carrot on the front.

Shri Mataji: What?

Sahaja Yogi: Carrot and stigma.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Carrots and stigmas. They all are saying...

Another Sahaja Yogi: Carrot.

Another Sahaja Yogi:... a carrot. Like what we put before a donkey, to keep donkey moving and he would say, hmm, TM helps you to find that Siddhis you cannot get, so you can do this, do that.

So we all followed to get Siddhis. But no results, accept this feeling bad, lethargic and working other people, hmm and this ridiculous flying thing. They are not flying at all.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Not a bit, they have [UNCLEAR linkest] one.

Another Sahaja Yogi: And you do just, ah, remember? Because Gñyānadev...

Another Sahaja Yogi: I do no more.

Another Sahaja Yogi: He was talking. Now Gñyānadev started with the new courses for manifesting...

Shri Mataji: This...? Another Sahaja Yogi: Manifesting apples out of your hands and things. Quiet for that what turns on.

And you paid another fifteen hundred pounds [UNCLEAR and after sitting in]...

Another Sahaja Yogi: In, in, ah, what's gonna be the end of it? Say!

Shri Mataji: Go ahead! And you can't get apples otherwise in the market?

Another Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

TM gentleman: I want to say that my, my interpretation of such things as known is that is a physical manifestation of a material truth, it isn't the apple that's much of this, it's the fact that we don't know, we are not interested to do things like that. May be itself doesn't made it to no consequences. Now this flying in itself, but it just teach you that those things are possible.

Shri Mataji: He, I tell you, he won't do any magic personally, the one who teaches magic, all right? He teaches you all these things, he can even get a billion out of your head. It is not difficult. You see, that's what he is going to do with you, but that doesn't matter, what I am saying you should see to the main point. I mean if you are people who are really of a superior type and you think of one thing, what is the interest of God in giving you apples like that? Is that the thing He is going to give you? What do you think of God to be? What are you asking? TM gentleman: Is it not the proof that all things are possible?

Shri Mataji: What is possible? TM gentleman: Just something, it is an instant perhaps.

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR no things are]...

Another Sahaja Yogi: Now has anyone, do you know...

TM gentleman: Yes.

Another Sahaja Yogi:... is limited.

Another Sahaja Yogi: You see in anybody why...

TM gentleman: What I heard, that you have the authority? [Sahaja Yogis laugh.]

Shri Mataji: All right. You see, this is, even if the river [UNCLEAR].

Another Sahaja Yogi: Now I told you, I was on the first course ever in Switzerland and we were told, all right?, that there were people lamenting and it was on the video tape.

So much about that.

TM gentleman: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: I could tell you things that would make your hair stand up right away.

TM gentleman: But not whatever is you rather talked about it.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Exactly.

Shri Mataji: That's it.

Another Sahaja Yogi: But why? 54

Shri Mataji: Apart from that you see if you are possessed. And the other day I tell you there was a lady who got possessed. She started saying all kinds of things to Me. In possession you don't know what you talk. You see, any possessed person, you go and see the lunatics, they are possessed, how they do talk.

You don't understand what they are saying. You are possessed. That's how they manage it, is it not if, if somebody hypnotizes the person, you see, you can make him a little child. And you can give a bottle and the person, such a big person, like sixty years old person starts sucking the bottle. Have you not seen Hitler hypnotizing? It's just the same. It's just hypnosis. Another is your ignorance, you see, which he has used. Complete ignorance, you have no knowledge of Indian life or Indian things. He has to pay money to Indians to go to him, just to show that he has some Indian disciples.

Sahaja Yogi: I mean, you can't honestly say in what level of truth within yourself that you can actually...

Shri Mataji:... find.

Sahaja Yogi:... fly. I mean, if the ego is going to be hurt, something incredible, you got a method to yourself.

Shri Mataji: Rather difficult.

TM gentleman: But no longer, not just to me, I fly a lot to it.

Shri Mataji: Towards the same? Another Sahaja Yogi: In their methods it doesn't matter to them very much.

TM gentleman: Because it's the manifestation it seems to me.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Never the same. They lie.

TM gentleman: Just don't think...

Another Sahaja Yogi: What is the manifestation of a lie? Another Sahaja Yogi: What is the manifestation of them? Not a [UNCLEAR].

TM gentleman: We all know for instance that in, in, ah, everyday terms it is impossible for a person to [UNCLEAR agitate], we know that in everyday ordinary ignorant terms.

Shri Mataji: What is it? TM gentleman: But apparently some people can prove. I don't know, you [UNCLEAR], I know.

Sahaja Yogini: I thought there was some...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: Some are taking so whatever they can.

Shri Mataji: You see, don't listen to rumours.

Sahaja Yogini: How that? TM gentleman: That is well.

Shri Mataji: Would you pay for rumours something?

Sahaja Yogi: But that's not about rumours.

Shri Mataji: Why do you pay for rumours? TM gentleman: But I am not going to.

Shri Mataji: That's what [UNCLEAR] now. You see what I am saying. If somebody has sent you, all right, forgive.

TM gentleman: Yes.

Shri Mataji: All right. You must, that's what it is. That's why they have come up so much, but I tell you they are first class people. They way they have done it, I must say My hats off to their sincerity.

The way they are admitting it is a great thing and for you to open your eyes now to see for yourself.

Sahaja Yogi: Maharishi [UNCLEAR] says, Shri Mataji, shall I tell him about Maharishi's attitude to women?

Shri Mataji: You better tell.

TM gentleman: The attitude to what? Another Sahaja Yogi: To my wife.

TM gentleman: M-hm.

Another Sahaja Yogi: We wanna hear you all, please.

Another Sahaja Yogi: But, I am, I will not proscribe, I was one of the chiefs of the movement, I was national leader in various countries. My wife has been initiated for twelve years. My wife was slept, you could say raped by Maharishi in sixty-nine. She got pregnant, she aborted it. I can name at least seven women that he has slept. They did, believe me...

Shri Mataji: At least [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi:... more than I could tell you, which would make your hair stand on their head.

TM gentleman: I would not strain any more.

Sahaja Yogini: You can't [UNCLEAR].

TM gentleman: [UNCLEAR] it was voluntarily, these abuses.

Another Sahaja Yogi: What?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR He carried on finding, but he don't find at all.] Another Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR Do you want to tell more?]

Another Sahaja Yogi: Why, because I honestly and did there honestly believe that Maharishi would help her.

Sahaja Yogini: Ah, do you know?

Shri Mataji: You see they put him on a pedestal, because they are all very, you are all very simple people, are very simple people, you see and if somebody knows how to make a show you can be befooled.

Even the cleverest of Indians were befooled once like that. You see, We had one man, he was a different type of a person, he came to India saying that he has lots of money in the foreign currency, this, that and is a very big Doctor, he called himself Doctor [UNCLEAR]. Of all the persons, of prime minister Jawaharlal Nehru whom you know, is a very great man and a great person and nobody can believe that he could be befooled.

He and his wife befooled him so much that they gave him, you won't believe, three hundred Crores of rupees, three hundred Crores of rupees, without even finding what sort of a man he was. Can you imagine? And this man started a shipping company, but he was a cheat, you see? Even with that money he could have managed very well, if he had some sense. But he started cheating and he was found out in two years from now. Then he was put in jail. They had to freeze all the assets, but nobody could believe that a person like... even our prime minister today went for the inauguration with that fellow.

If you read his story you will be shocked. Indians are very clever here, that way, because you see they are quite cunning, they can, as they can cheat others, they know more who cheats them. You see, one better than the other, We can say, but even in India, in that country when easily people are not cheated.

You can do something else to them, but cheating is difficult. You can overpower them with your guns or something, but you cannot cheat them. In cunningness they are very clever. And they were cheated and they believed into it till yesterday. Imagine, when he came out of the jail he threatened somebody and something and he [UNCLEAR did not really care far away from it]. Can you imagine? And he, there are so many like that.

TM gentleman: Is everything that he says correct, so said the Maharishi, even to persons as he says.

What did he want, ah, learn to meditate, they were asked to [UNCLEAR] a thought, so it's not to give a Mantra away and he had great words, like you do. He has asked him about the mantra. He filled secretly proud, that these people who had given one promise stupidly one man, it's a great [UNCLEAR] they are terribly easily to You on the other day.

Shri Mataji: What does he say? Another Sahaja Yogi: What he is saying is this, to the, the felt proud because someone may have promised to someone on one day. They should easily break it, or give it up to [UNCLEAR] another time.

Shri Mataji: If you are made a promise to a crook you should. It doesn't matter even to tell Me or not. These are not Mantras, nor anything, but I tell you what...

TM gentleman: I don't think it matters particularly, I just find it quiet surprising now that You who is, who, who is helping to show the way to enlightenment should talk by making people, or not making but asking people to break promises they have made.

Shri Mataji: Of course, you have made a promise to a devil I should not ask you? Oh I feel, see, you must understand that promise that is made to God is a promise and not made to a crook. For example, I'll give an idea. This is a thing, you have lost your discrimination. Discrimination should be like this, for example it is nice to tell you the truth, all right? You must tell the truth. This was said by, long time back, one, one of our earliest writers, that he said that truth must be said and the, you must also tell, say something that is very, very appeasing and appealing, that is called as Priya. He means say the Satya and the Priya. Then Kṛiṣhṇa came and people asked Him, how do You combine this, because if you say something that is truthful may hurt others, they will not like it, it may not be Priya, it's not Priya, You see.

So Kṛiṣhṇa said, there is a difference. You must understand with discrimination between the two.

Say now something is, I tell you may not be today very much appreciable to you, but it is the truth. It will be appreciated by your spirit.

So what did He say? Satyam Vade, means, say the truth. Then He said the second sentence, Hitam Vade, in-between the two He said, Hitam Vade and Priyam Vade.

So that means, you must say something which is for the well-being of your spirit.

So ultimately it also becomes good and pleasing. Today you may not like what I am saying, but it will be pleasing you. Now discrimination sometimes you need. Now very simple: You see, I have lost that sense. That's what they do, by possession.

For example, `always tell the truth' is a thing everybody understands. Now somebody is coming with a tiger, say to kill you. He comes and asks Me, Mother where is that fellow I want to kill. Shall I tell him, he is there? Tell Me. You should not! TM gentleman: I don't really think that,

Shri Mataji: All right, I tell you, TM gentleman: [UNCLEAR] on, on, on what I am talking about.

Shri Mataji: This is absolute detached, because you are not understanding it. Now what I am saying, what should

I tell you, why should I not tell him? The reason is, it is called as [UNCLEAR], means it is unauthorized. He is not authorized to ask Me. He is not authorized to ask Me, that where is the person.

Now as you have come to Me for this thing your Chakras make no difference, till you get your realisation.

And why I asked you? I would like to see how much you are still identified with him. If you are identified with him, I cannot do anything about you, because evil is evil, good is good.

TM gentleman: Can I take your followers, who have a great deal of moral sense, for two minutes in the garden?

Shri Mataji: They have much more moral sense than anyone of you.

TM gentleman: [UNCLEAR] which You make to break their words.

Shri Mataji: No, no, no. Your idea of morality is very different. It is not a morality of the [UNCLEAR thugs]. The [UNCLEAR thugs] can combine together and keep, you see, promises.

TM gentleman: I don't think it makes, I don't think at this stage it matters whether or not Maharishi is right or whether he isn't. The fact, the matter is,

Shri Mataji: Now that's quite enough and that's how it's a fact, TM gentleman: No, not at all, if I make, if I make a promise I'll stick by it and I think it's seems like a cheap trick, to want to get them on to break that promise.

Shri Mataji: What cheap? You see, what am I getting by cheap tricks? What am I getting out of these cheap tricks, I mean when you say this cheap trick, I would like to know what am I getting out of these cheap trick, why should I do it? Cheap tricks are on him, to break a promise for him.

TM gentleman: Possibly in the end I laugh,

Shri Mataji: Hmm? TM gentleman: Possibly in the end I laugh, I got in the end a laugh. One paper [UNCLEAR], Shri Mataji: You got it, you are not a judge, you are not a judge of Me. I do not think your laughter.

An Idiot can laugh at someone, what can you do about it? It's not the point. The point is what am I asking you, your Mantra you have bought, because once you give up your Mantra you give up your miss-identification. Otherwise I cannot help you.

TM gentleman: Now possibly if You would have explained that before hundreds of reasons for giving up the Mantra, because that wasn't explained in it, it just came out of people, quite easily.

Shri Mataji: You see, TM gentleman: In other words, have there been an exploitation before hand, in an acquirement between two people whom you stop to meet them You,

Shri Mataji: Now I tell you why, TM gentleman:, [UNCLEAR] stop to meet You.

Shri Mataji: I did this when I started talking this Lady talking this and you are talking that. At least some who have got realisation would not [UNCLEAR] also God knows. Because you are not talking, that's somebody else talking through you and they are manoeuvring it. At least I didn't want to miss the chances of others. That is why I did not discuss. I always give a lecture, but this time I did not, because I know you are all going to talk and talk and talk. To that Maharishi how much did you talk and how much did he talk to you? But with Me you are taking all the liberties and saying all these things to Me.

Why? Have I given you money? Why are you saying all these things to Me?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: It's a fact.

TM gentleman: I said, the TM movement...

Shri Mataji: Than why, you are, TM gentleman: [UNCLEAR] it is a right of men, it is a fact,

Shri Mataji: Just ask Me. You have come here to take something from Me and you are talking all these things to Me. Did you say anything to that Maharishi Yogi of yours. Why didn't you ask Me?

Sahaja Yogini: It's not the debate you have.

Shri Mataji: You see, you must understand it's no question of debate and that's why I didn't want to talk, because I know that all of you would have talked. You see, this is it, that's why I did not talk, because you think you are all very brainy people. The way you are befooled you must understand that.

Not to feel hurt. He has really befooled you. Accept this fact and that is the reason you do not want to accept.

Sahaja Yogi: No ask for me.

Shri Mataji: It's all miss-identification.

Sahaja Yogi: We really have enough.

Another Sahaja Yogi: It's all right.

TM gentleman: Would You tell Me to me please, that when we have finished, with, with what things asked,

Shri Mataji: You see, I will tell you a last word on Maharishi Yogi. You see, I will tell you one thing, I am not interested in what you do with him or how you deal with him and how much you give to him.

I'm not interested.

TM gentleman: Hmm.

Shri Mataji: I'm only interested in introducing you to yourself, to giving you realisation. I have nothing to do with that man, but if you ask about him, I have to tell you the truth.

TM gentleman: Hmm.

Shri Mataji: You see I have nothing to do with him. You go ahead with him, you give all your money to him, when you are bankrupt, even then you'll come, I will give you, all right? TM gentleman: Yes.

Shri Mataji: But as far as he is concerned, if you ask Me the question I will have to tell you the truth...

TM gentleman: I wasn't going to ask about anything to do with TM...

Shri Mataji: Now you ask something else.

TM gentleman:... or Maharishi or anyone.

Shri Mataji:... because you see, I don't want to...

TM gentleman: I want to ask something...

Shri Mataji:... talk about him anymore.

TM gentleman: No I don't and this is why I...

Shri Mataji: All right, now tell Me,...

TM gentleman: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... what is it you are asking? TM gentleman: A-ham, what is the thing that you are going to...

Shri Mataji:... give you...

TM gentleman:... Give and I remember the best, the nicest thing I have heard is that You are teaching us to relate to the people and to, ah, release of illness of all description, to help to do that any more...

Shri Mataji: Of course.

TM gentleman: Is it correct?

Shri Mataji: You see now you must, you are talking that thing, what, what makes you sick, you must know, what makes you sick, why do you get sick, how are you made, what are your problems, what are you? All these things you have to understand. Not just to accept Me in the way you have accepted other nonsense, you see and that is why I wanted you to open out, but if you have these Mantras, these Mantras are the names of devils and if you keep them with you, if I know them I know how to ban them.

TM gentleman: Why have you not such meekly [UNCLEAR] for a Mantra.

Shri Mataji: Because I could do that. I could do that.

TM gentleman: Yes.

Shri Mataji: But within, you see the problem is, so it is that he got the vibrations and everything, but I knew it, he is going to catch it again. And he catches, he catch Mārkandeya. You see, some people grow very fast, but some do not. They are mediocres you can say. You go on like this all the time. We have people who are so. Now We have thousands of people here. You can ask them.

Some of them shot up like that. Now he is sitting here, he is from TM, Martin. How much time it took to settle down? Not because he is mediocre, because he went one to another to another to another... Now he is settled.

You must understand what are we, what are our problems, what are we inside, what is our subtle being, how to raise it and how to do it. It was all right to give a lecture, otherwise I would have given you a big lecture, all right? Till you have argued with Me much more. There is only two persons actually who doing arguing on this point. But otherwise they would have been the whole thing, don't you think so? [Shri Mataji laughs, then the Sahaja Yogis too.] He knows it, he knows that, because he is seeing something happen. You see, I wanted you to see for yourself. You see, if this thing is down, all right? And I tell you that in this school there are these things [UNCLEAR]. You are not going to believe, because you have freedom to argue with Me, you are not like you are with Maharishi or anyone of these. You have freedom. You are not going to believe Me when I tell you there are these things. It's better to put the light on and show the person. All right? There could be some blind people, still, but at least you will know those who have eyes. The blind you can't see each other, but at least those who have eyes can. Those who do not have eyes, we can open them later on, but at least eighty percent people will have eyes to see. All right? And another thing is people who would be here. You see their brain is overactive, they are in a speed, they are overactive. It is necessary to sooth their brain a little bit, their speed is to be reduced and then talk to them. They have to be tuned. [UNCLEAR] you will change, no doubt. Most of you will. How many will raise this I do not know, because I should say most of them should, because I have a feeling that England became people of very good, I feel that.

I don't know about the Americans, I haven't seen many of them, but Indian TM people are the worst.

I could not give realisation to one person in India who was from TM. Actually We were avoiding them. We never wanted them. You will be surprised how My disciples could stand outside, asking them, have you been to TM? They said yes. There is no program. One of them rang Me up. I said, no, there is program, I don't know why. They said, Mother we don't want to break our head.

You see, they were working hard, We were not working hard, you saw that. You are doing nothing.

Now you first of all change your attitude towards Me and Sahaja Yoga, but this is not a shop. And you are not bargaining for anything, more over it is a gift to you. If you want to have it, have it. Otherwise just don't have it.

[A Baby cries da da da, the Sahaja Yogis laugh.] [To the baby:] Da da da.

TM gentleman: [UNCLEAR That was not my question at all].

Shri Mataji: Now in Sanskrit it means gift, [UNCLEAR] yes. In Sanskrit means gift: `da da da'.

[Aside:] Have you meet? I must say that, I am sorry for all that did happen and you are going to feel sorry also. As a Mother I, you don't know how I feel... They are all My children, you don't know how I feel But be wise, try to be wise. If you have no wisdom I cannot help you. That is one thing I cannot put into you, you have to be wise. On small things like that you slip off. I am here to give you the ocean and you are closing your eyes. Do you know even when a little thing goes into the eyes you cannot see the sky. Don't do like that.

I am not to gain anything out of you. Keep yourself open, you are going to be the looser, not Me.

TM gentleman: I wasn't really attacking you.

Shri Mataji: Ah? TM gentleman: I wasn't really attack,

Shri Mataji: Nobody is attacked.

TM gentleman: Now I was a bit closed, my eyes were very wide opened.

Shri Mataji: Now the way you said, you see, what I am saying...

TM gentleman: You are talking to TM, I could have attacked TM [UNCLEAR] and to me both of them are wrong, because they are going, a-ham, to [UNCLEAR Astemoon] [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: How many have you be, how many years have you been with TM.

TM gentleman: Two years.

Shri Mataji: Now how many times, how much time have you been with Me?

TM gentleman: Tonight.

Shri Mataji: Will you please have some patience?

TM gentleman: Yes, yes.

Shri Mataji: All right. Please sit down. Before that you will have some patience, all right? If it works out, well and good, if it doesn't work out it's all right. If you think you can go you can go.

TM gentleman: I bought the [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You better go, because you are spoiling everybody's chances.

TM gentleman: I am sorry, I am sorry...

Shri Mataji: If you are disturbing everyone, you can go,...

TM gentleman: All right.

Shri Mataji:... that's the best.

TM gentleman: OK. I must really say I appreciated what we have done [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No, no, no. Why should you say like that? TM gentleman: Because I really did, because [UNCLEAR]...

Shri Mataji: You are disturbing for nothing at all, you don't want to hear what I have to say. When are you going to give Me a chance? Here you are, you are saying I should have discussed. All ready it has around one hour has passed, you are not being satisfied talking about it. Now, Sahaja Yogi: Just listen to Her.

Shri Mataji:, nothing for you to open. Why don't you keep quiet for a while?

Sahaja Yogi: Just listen to Her answers.

Shri Mataji: Just listen for a [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: Please, bitte.

TM gentleman: I am doing.

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah, just listen.

Shri Mataji: You can't, TM gentleman: I just answer,

Shri Mataji: You better go out for a while.

TM man [angry:] I go out, I really! Was it that.

Sahaja Yogis: He can getting a tab. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.]

Shri Mataji: That's better. [UNCLEAR All the children have to be asked]. [UNCLEAR] he will be all right. Nothing at all, you see, what I am saying. He got his realisation, he got his vibrations and some sense else. [UNCLEAR]. This is the position, you see now, where are you and where are they.

You see, I told you, that will be a [UNCLEAR]. All of them are not going on the same level. It doesn't matter.

So, let's talk of something else, all right? [Shri Mataji laughs.] That's how we stand.

[Aside:] Put your hand here, you see this [UNCLEAR] the right has to be moved. You can get in one hand, tell Me, all right. Come along! Ha ha! It's gone.

Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All right, you give one [UNCLEAR]. You see, we clean ourselves, ourselves, all right? And our self can be cleansed. Let it, just keep your [UNCLEAR]. I could not take out your watch, [UNCLEAR] all right? Just listen! You see, if it does not work out, it does not work out. If he comes up, you will be surprised, My two daughters are not yet realised, My own daughters are not. What can I do, what, you see, it is a thing that has to work out, if it works out very good, if it not works out, time! What can you do about it? You see, We can only try to work it out, try to cooperate, that's all. It is a gift of God, it's a grace of God, it has to come into you. If it works, well, if it does not work, then you cannot blame Me for that. Now you should blame yourself. Try to, this is what you are seeking.

Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR]. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] The children are [UNCLEAR]. [Sahaja Yogis laugh again.]

Shri Mataji: They know how to manage, these children know it better. They said, why bother Mātājī, let's [UNCLEAR] go on! [Shri Mataji laughs.] It's all right.

Sahaja Yogi: I mean it, I need a lot more communication.

Sahaja Yogis: I agree. I agree with you.

Shri Mataji: You just have patience, all right. Again the same thing I tell you, you have been with Me and you follow one hour or two hours, all right? You did something, it's a very fast subject that I am going to give you, the complete, the most secret, the most human talk, all right? Come along. But one attitude, again I am telling you, that you are doing it for your own wealth. All right? Secondly that, when you want, you should change your attitude, that you are going to a market.

It's not a market, it is not a selling any things here and instead of I be with you, actually you are with Me. That has to change next, all right? So try to understand this point. This is what it is. Say if I am a Divine Person, then you have to please the Divine Person. The Divinity is not going to fall at your feet, all right? You understand that? And when you understand that, then you can go further.

You see, if you go to any Guru, real Guru in India, first they will hang you by your neck, then by your legs and [Shri Mataji laughs] till they reached you with a [UNCLEAR paper, Chintā they call it], you see and they will not allow you to come near there. Anybody who comes, they throw the stones. They'll go on torturing till they find you are absolutely ready they will not agree. Me, I am different, I am a Mother, I teach you and understand you. Apart from anything, the greatest desire is to save you people. All right? Have you got this chart here or something to talk at night? If you go to the [UNCLEAR] I will tell you.

Sahaja Yogi: It's all right.

Other Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Who is there? What's he saying?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] agreement.

Shri Mataji: No, no, no.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Now I must sit here with my feet towards you and I [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All right, there is the protocol.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Say now, supposing if I am Christ, you have to be respectful, you see? Something because of that type I [UNCLEAR]. Supposing they do that, it has an effect, all right? But you have to be respectful.

So here it is, now can, have a look at it. [UNCLEAR]. Now turn round a little, I will tell, now, come along, see for yourself, isn't? Here it is. You can put the other way round, yes. See now, this, ah, picture is here of you which shows what you are, all ready and how much you are developed up to the human level. This is the human being as it is to Me, all right? Now these are the subtle centers within you. Now if these centers are in within you or not you can see with your naked eyes. When the Kuṇḍalinī moves you can see them moving.

You can even see the pulsation of the Mother Kuṇḍalinī. In certain cases you see them very clearly when there is obstruction.

Now which is the Kuṇḍalinī...

[Aside:] [UNCLEAR] sit here!... is that you see a coiled thing that is the Kuṇḍalinī. Now what is this Kuṇḍalinī? This is a renew, a germinated force within us, which gives us the second birth, which connects us to the whole. Like as every instrument has a coil you see which connects it to the mains, in the same way God has placed His residual consciousness within us and that triangular bone for our rebirth.

Now this has got, if you see there are seven centers: one, two, three, four, five, six, seven centers, which are the subtle centers within us and they give manifestation to the gross plexuses which we know in the medical science. Moreover if you see for the left hand side, the blue line, it represents the aspect of the existence within us. That is also aspect of God. And when this aspect is shut off, there is destruction.

The other side, if you see is the yellow line which gives us the aspect of creativity, of our mental activity and physical activity. Now both these aspects are represented outside in the gross. These are the subtle points. These are the undercovers by the left hand side sympathetic nervous system and the other one by the right hand side sympathetic nervous system. Now our evolution up to the point you are is shown by the white line that is there in the center.

Now the central line is called as Suṣhumnā, which represents, which manifests outside in the gross as parasympathetic nervous system. All right? So we have three systems within us, one is the left side one, which gives us existence, the right side one which gives us mental and physical being and the central one which gives us our evolutionary state, for which we have evolved.

Now we must think why we have evolved from amoeba to this stage as a human being? Now if you are evolved with some purpose there must be some purpose for us to be [UNCLEAR unfolded]. As we are not yet perfected we have not known our meaning, we are you can say confused and worried.

So there must be some method God must have planted within us to be that. It must be His plan, has to be, because if He has created this creation, He is not going to destroy it.

So now what is that thing that is within us is this, the Kuṇḍalinī, this residual force which is placed in the triangular bone, which rises, passing through all the Chakras and pierces through the brain which we call baptism in the Christianity, that is the fontanelle bone here and then it enters, our attention enters into the subtle being that we are, by which we get connected with each other.

Now you can turn your faces I tell you, you can turn your faces. You all are like say birds and there is a string going through Me, but you cannot feel the string, you are on the bird, your attention is on the bird.

So supposing by any chance it happens, it's a happening, you, your attention goes onto the string, then you can pass into everybody's bird. In the same way the collective consciousness is established within you. It's not talking, it's not lecturing, it is happening, it's actualisation which is being promised long time back, that you are going to get your own Self-realisation, that you are going to be the fruits and that you are going to be one with the whole is being promised by all the religions and all the scriptures.

Now why these religions look so separate, because the integrating point was not there, otherwise they are all flowers on the same tree. And they are taken away by the people, they say, this is my religion, this is my religion.

So they become dead and ugly, that's how the religions are formed, you see? But the basic point is that all the great incarnations, who came on this Earth, exist within us from all these centers.

Now let's start from down below, all right? The lowest point is the center called as Mūlādhāra Chakra. Now what is Mūlādhāra? Mūla means the root. It is the support, support of the root and what is the root, is the Kuṇḍalinī.

So this support of the root lies below, below the Kuṇḍalinī and this is the one that manifests the pelvic plexus within us which also controls sex. Now this center doesn't play any role in Kuṇḍalinī piercing, what you call [UNCLEAR chaida], it just lies there dormant down below and looking after the protocol of the Kuṇḍalinī.

On it resides the Deity of Gaṇeśha, who is the embodiment of innocence. There, from there the innocence comes forward. Now He, this Gaṇeśha has incarnated on this Earth as Jesus Christ. He is the One who is the embodiment of innocence and is the highest, the purest Incarnation. The reason is, because His body was also made of the principle of Brahma, means principle of, say, what should I say, from Brahmadeva [UNCLEAR what should I say] principle of Divine Power, I say, for the time yet, because to that I will come to that later on, what this Brahma Tattwa is, all right? Now that is the principle, is, He is the embodiment of that. That's why His body was resurrected. Now this is a very important Chakra, because this is the center where the innocence is there. Now see what this Maheśha means to Me, now when We come to this center. To Me He is the jump of [UNCLEAR arya], Him is the jump of [UNCLEAR arya]. Now the center of, this center is that important making your seat, so you jump on your seat.

So basically that is the force, that is the force of Kuṇḍalinī. If that Chakra is harmed then it's very difficult to raise the Kuṇḍalinī.

So first you do is to finish that. You see, the chances of your realisation will be reduced by so many, he had this problem. He had this problem.

So many of you had, he had this problem. Who else was there?

Sahaja Yogi: Kate.

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: Hmm.

Shri Mataji: He had this, they all had this problem. There was another gentleman whom I remember very badly who made it hard to bring it up. All right? So this, ah what's the gentleman, on the left hand side he is sitting, or the one who was your friend...

Sahaja Yogi: You mean Peter.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Peter [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: It's Peter who just came up so.

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. He had that problem, very bad. I don't know, he must have jumped too much. Perhaps he [UNCLEAR] for that, that's all right, but now it's better.

So what I am saying, now to hit up on that center which is the basis of your divinity, innocence. See the subtle attacks he has made, all right? So and then their Kuṇḍalinī is waiting there for the moment to rise. Now the other centers, who are also there, the green center, you see, is in the center here. It's, it manifests the solar plexus within us.

The solar plexus looks after all these areas on the stomach, physically and mentally it looks after other things, like say if you are a fanatic it is spoiled, if you are a fanatic it is spoiled. If, if you starve too much, fast too much it is spoiled, if you eat too much also, any extreme you do, it gets spoiled. It is also spoiled, you see, all the Ten Commandments that we have in the Bible are represented by these ten petals that are there. You see? Around that is that area where actually it exists in the stomach of God, We can say, this is the Bhava-sāgara. This is what we have to cross, you see there is a void, from there to there is a void and this we have to cross. And this is the thing which is crossed by the Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

Now what happens that around that, ah, that water-like thing that you see there, you see that is the one where ten, the primordial Masters were born, [UNCLEAR] primordial Beings. Now they were incarnated of innocence of all this ten aspects and they were incarnated on this Earth, say from Abraham, Moses, then We had, ah, Mohammed Sahib We can say, or We can say Shirdi Sāi Nāth, then Nanaka, Janaka, all these people incarnated as Gurus.

Now what do they do? They, they, they give you sustenance, they give you sustenance. Now sustenance is, is, for human beings is different. For animals it's different. For example now this is gold, all right? What is the sustenance of gold, is that it is untarnished, it cannot tarn, you see? What is the sustenance of carbon, that is a valency, you see, it is just tetravalent, all right? In the same way, what is the sustenance of human beings that this Ten Commandments which are going to us have to be intact. If you miss that, then you get spoiled, your human being can catch if you lose this sustenance, all right? So this is what is religion, if you can follow, because, the English word I don't know, but the Sanskrit word `religion' comes to us from a word known as [UNCLEAR dhara eti sadhana], means `the one which is sustained', is the Dharma, is the religion, that sustains us, by which we become human. By which we become animals is the ani... is the Dharma of the animals. By which we become human beings is our sustenance. And this sustenance is maintained by the Gurus in that area and they look after us, they are born again and again, again and again to tell us about it.

They, people might say, what's wrong in drink? Why did Mohammed Sahib say, you should not drink, Nanaka has said, Moses said that you should not drink. Why He did this? Now there is a reason which you cannot stop it. If I tell you, don't drink, you cannot drink. I give you a very good reason for that, absolutely scientific, absolutely scientific, but you won't stop.

So what should I do? You see which is the other way is, why do you drink? First of all I should find out the reason for it.

I find out the reason that because you get bored, that's why.

So because you do not want to face the reality, you have an escape.

So I do it in such a way that you say face the reality. Once you face the reality, which is so beautiful, you start enjoying it, you don't even remember that you have to drink. People have to remind it and when you drink you get a stomach pain, so you just don't drink. Automatically you do not drink. You are not to be told, that you don't do this, you don't do that. That's not necessary. Just by raising your Kuṇḍalinī it can work.

Now all these Sahaja Yogis who are here used to drink, used to take drugs. They had given up their jobs, you are supposed to be seeking. Now they are perfectly all right, they have given up drinks, they are enjoying themselves, they have given many realisation, they are curing people.

So this can be done if your sustenance is put right. All right? The sustenance is also ruined by these methods. How? You see, they will tell you to be celibate.

Now the age of celibate according to all Indian standards is only up to, at the most twenty-five years, because till twenty-five years you are a student, studying with the Guru, there you lead a celibate life.

Then after that you have to marry for twenty-five years and marry `one woman and one man relationship' should exist and you should live happily, have children and when the children are about five, six years of age they have to go in a forest and there lead a celibate life and studying. Only for the students is celibate life. But here in the student life also they will marry and when they grow up they will not marry, because we are confused. Now celibacy after a certain age has no meaning, it's a ab,... [MISSING.]... which is decided by Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa and there are sixteen petals, which means we have got sixteen sub-plexus which look after our nose, our eyes, our ears, our throat, our [UNCLEAR] the joints and the tongue and all that and also that.

So this Viśhuddhi is a very important thing, because it's all our face, Viśhuddhi is all our face. Now if your left Viśhuddhi is catching that means that there is something wrong with your idea about yourself, that you are suffering from a kind of a guilt, maybe, or maybe that your relationship about your sister, or the sublime relationships you are not sure about it. You do not say, for example, a person has a bad Viśhuddhi.

Sometimes it maybe that he is having a bad time with his Sister. He is not treated very well. You see your sisters, can you imagine, your sisters to [UNCLEAR cry sometimes] and if you have a bad time with your sister this can work out. If you just say that I, I, I love my sister, finished, it comes all right. With very,

Sahaja Yogi: How about the brother?

Shri Mataji: Ah? A brother is, brother is right Heart, right Heart, the brother is right Heart. For mother is heart and father is also right Heart. You see, brother is right Heart and this is, left is, ah, sister. And also this points [Shri Mataji shows] brother, but I won't say it is so much as brother as here [Shri Mataji shows]. You see it is a very [UNCLEAR] way, because your elder brother you can feel it in the right Heart and the younger brother here [Shri Mataji shows].

It's quiet, in details if you go it's very interesting to see all these relations be in such a [UNCLEAR] way. Why? Because you have chosen them. When you are born you choose your father, mother, everyone, you choose all of them. That's how family is very important, but the way the families are today, you see, I can't even tell for example if I have to tell him, you will tell Me, no, no, my father is a very bad man and he does this, he does this, he does... You see the whole system is spoiled because of the Dharma, because of the Religion, you see? A father doesn't understand his duties as a father. The son doesn't understanding his duties as a son.

You see, who had asked you to go experimenting with everything. They have also experimented with family life. With everything they have, be on our own, children are on their own. Now if you are on your own you are cancer, you have a cancer within you. How? Because the cell which becomes on its own has no relationship with the whole, is a cancer, say, is a malignant, say. Say, ah, say loyal is there Nābhī, they can't understand, supposing somebody says, I'm on my own, I don't observe any laws. All right, you better go to jail. That's what it is. In the same way when we start doing all these things without relating ourselves to the whole, we commit all these mistakes and by which we spoil our Chakras.

Now this Chakra that is in the center is, is on the cross of, We can say the, where the optic nerves cross each other, We can say optic, hmm, Chiasma as it is called. On that point it is a very subtle center, which controls your ego and superego, as you can see it... all right. And it controls your eyesight at the back. Now he had, say ah, a weak back because of his eyesight you can see that here [Shri Mataji shows] and this weakness, you see, was stopping the Kuṇḍalinī. First the Kuṇḍalinī was sublime there, you will get up a much better eyesight and even not Me it is backed out, come, because the light when it will start spreading here it will be absolutely a different point. I give you an example of this man, you see, he wrote a [UNCLEAR] of area, he was suffering from cancer and I shouldn't tell you, but I did cure him and he [UNCLEAR] cured. The secretary was here early, he told Me another story when I went to his house, the Presidents house and this first secretary told Me there is one boy who, one girl, she is gone blind, because there was fire in the house, you can say her eyes opened out, her eyes are open but she is absolutely blind and she cannot see and she just sees downwards.

So I said all right, that's it, let's have a look at her. She came down and what I found when she saw the fire some spirit went into her, because she got a fright.

So that was all setting down. Just as sure as you have a light, just like this she loses her fright. There was light in My head and in My hand and the girl started looking. Because she saw the stripes on my hat, you see, she was very innocent child, when she saw this [UNCLEAR] was there. And then she said I can see it and she was absolutely cured, hundred percent.

There are many cures like that, but what I am trying to say, that it is only possible if you have a light yourself. Supposing you are not enlightened, then how can I enlighten another candle? So that's why I said, first of all get enlightened. Then we talk about it. All right? Otherwise there would have been at least [UNCLEAR cowing] numbers, I can't say. But at least eleven numbers are, I say we mean, are [UNCLEAR delated]. I have to deal with only two person and I couldn't sell it one, but another one did came to Me, thank God.

So you see that one, that is what, this was, I would never had another talking, all would have talked so much that there would have been no talk.

So I said, better let them find it, because it's a better idea so that I can talk to them and have some [UNCLEAR] all right.

So this is the Chakra which We have got here [Shri Mataji shows], it is, which is in the center, which manifests at the back and in front. Now in front this manifests where you have got a [UNCLEAR trunk].

Actually it can't be [UNCLEAR called] a center. We should say and this one is the Kārttikeya, that is one of His powers.

So Christ has come at this center and if he pierces from here than He is in the center, on the Optic Chiasma [UNCLEAR] there. He came here because He said, I am the gate. That is the gate, you can see that, He is on the gate. And She came here to show how to cross the gate.

So His resurrection is this [UNCLEAR] Chakra. That means you all can be resurrected. He had made the gate for us and we are all going to be resurrected through that gate. He didn't say, I am the destination. He said, I am the path and I am the gate, I am the door.

But He is not the destination. Now where is the destination? Is there, disappears the darkness. This center is to be opened out and that is the Mother's job. And if that is done, then only you have a meaning, otherwise it has no meaning. Any work that is not completed has no meaning. In the same way you have no meaning, you don't know why you are here. What is your meaning? Once that breaks properly then the vibrations start flowing through you, then you can see the manifestation. Within one minute you can start it, it's a very moment, you, out of you something will started growing.

And imagine, you can't partake it, too much vibrations of yourself, because you know, as I told you, TM is a horrible thing, that you should know who this fellow is, but some of the people came. I was so horrid [UNCLEAR] and [UNCLEAR] point out, it would not add to it. It's just odd, behaving like a wounded Mother, all kind of taking Her names, hate like [UNCLEAR endorsing] is that, very unhappy.

She is your own Mother! And She is the One who has lived with you all your lives, all your seeking. And She was just saying that I cannot come up and I am wounded. And there were [UNCLEAR]. She looks wounded and that's how I came to meet this horrible fellow whom you know.

I am not telling you any to befool you, if I tell you, he was shocked. He must have gone wounded [UNCLEAR] how to go back.

So when he started with his Mantra may I started giving you realisation to clear people. Otherwise you would have got caught up. And some of the Sahaja Yogis were very upset and they said, Mother what about these TM people? They are very pitiful. What do I have to do? I said, I know.

Now it is wisdom that you must seek God and then you come to Sahaja Yoga. Get your realisation first! Do not just start talking about it, with your [UNCLEAR] guest. Get to it, learn it, I will tell you all the [UNCLEAR], everything I will tell you, every details about it. But now what his priority is, that also I will tell you. He takes you either to the right or to the left. With anyone, where will you [UNCLEAR]. Many here did sympathize. What happens others? Left hand side is the subconscious area and beyond the subconscious area is your gate to subconsciousness. There all these types you must try, horrible and bhoots and all that, they live there, there live everybody dissatisfied souls and they are all there.

As soon as you cross over it gets over. Now the names that he had given are the names of the left side bhoots hugged, that type of people are there. But with Christian names he has given all the left side names which again all start to the left side and for the grown up people on the right hand side, because when you are grown up, then your ego is developed and you start moving on the right hand side. That's why he has given you the other one. But it has only a meaning up to this, say for example [UNCLEAR] all right? So I move on the, this side from the line, but after I need not, this is the main thing, they [UNCLEAR] is true, the rest of them are nothing, but just bhoots.

You tell people now for example, a Mantra [UNCLEAR] `you are raised up with pigs,' all right? It isn't a Mantra of Chakras, it isn't a Mantra of Deities, it isn't a Mantra of Kuṇḍalinī and whatever it has to do with a Mantra? Another thing and it is very simple to understand as I have told that before to you that supposing there is given a name or even one [UNCLEAR] say you go on saying: `Elisabeth, Elisabeth, Elisabeth.' It is too ridicule enough, you see? It's a [UNCLEAR], finished.

Now I am talking about the Queen of the world, Queen of the universe or say, King of the world, King of the universe and you say all: `Rām, Rām, Rām'. Is He your servant? Call Him what an [UNCLEAR] to call Him? You have not even entered into the Kingdom of God, you are just talking for this, sitting down here. Who will be coming from servant to that place. There could be a very light in the name Elisabeth. I can [UNCLEAR] Queen Elisabeth is not going to come running, unless and until if you are connected. If you call somebody there it's a [UNCLEAR recombination] of servants, if you go there, you [UNCLEAR], all right? But you are beyond that, maybe there is God.

So you have no authority to call Him, but again I say [UNCLEAR a Mantra has a meaning] it has no meaning.

All the Mantras have got a meaning, because [UNCLEAR] has a meaning. [UNCLEAR]. But if there is no meaning it is evil, even [UNCLEAR] but they say nothing like you, no [UNCLEAR], nothing. In Sanskrit language it is [UNCLEAR] very scientific, every [UNCLEAR] has a meaning.

[UNCLEAR] without any mud, means [UNCLEAR]. Any name you take [UNCLEAR] has a meaning, every [UNCLEAR] has a meaning, everything has a meaning. It is never no meaning at all, that it has no meaning. Now he found out [UNCLEAR] has no meaning. At the most it [UNCLEAR] and the Kuṇḍalinī rises, all right? [UNCLEAR]. For example here it means [UNCLEAR] these are the sixteen and these are the sixteen petals there are, if you have any one of these spoiled, if you say with this [UNCLEAR]. But why do you go to that? I think, even if it is later on [UNCLEAR], but what [UNCLEAR].

Contents: 1979-06-19*, Public Program, What Have We Done Towards a Higher Life, Caxton Hall, London, UK.....

Every time we have some people who are new and I have to again introduce the subject, tell you about it.

We are here because we are seeking. We are seeking something of the beyond because we have a feeling within us that there is something that is beyond. But we have no guideline to understand what we have to do about it. In all the scriptures it was described that there is higher life, there is eternal life, there is Kingdom of God where you have to enter, that you are to be reborn. All this is Greek and Latin to most of the people and how to achieve it is another problem that faces us. For this we must ask one question to ourselves, `What have we done to achieve this human state?' From amoeba to this stage how did we come? Do you know what you did, what effort you put in, how many times you were standing on your heads breaking your bones? Did you see any cockroach working it out? Did you see any dog doing that or did you see yourself any time? Have you any memory of that? What have you done? In any human behaviour have you seen that for doing anything important we had to do something about it? For example, we have eyes. We have them. We haven't done anything about getting them; they're fixed properly. And this nose being fixed just in the center, we haven't done anything about it either. All this that we are supposed to be, of which we are very proud, we think we are Mr. Such and Such and Such and Such you see, the Mr. Ego part. We must know first of all that this we have not done, we have not created ourselves.

What else are we creating? Let's see. We have created this thing here. Now this is all dead, from dead to dead. What living work have we done, anything? Can you sprout a seed? Can you, even one? Even one you can't do.

So that means we have done nothing so far. It's only a myth that we believe into that we do this and we do that.

Some people travelling by train, if they put their luggage on their heads and think that they are carrying the luggage, what will you call that? It is the same way, is our being created specially for a special purpose. You may call it God. You may call it nature, whatever you may call it.

But it is not done by you by any chance. Once you understand this then the second point comes in, how are we to be Self-realised? How are we to be in that consciousness? So the answer is you cannot do it Sir.

If it is a living process, you cannot do it by anything. You cannot work it out. Is difficult to understand this proposition, but it's a fact that you cannot do anything living and you cannot do this most dynamic thing within you that you take your second birth. If you could accept this assumption then we can go further, that you cannot do anything about it.

So now we come to this conclusion that somebody must do it. The one who has done it so far is going to do it again. The one who has made this has also put a cord with it. He has made all the arrangements.

In the same way, the one who has created you has made all the arrangements in your machinery, in your instrument, in this living machinery. He has created you so beautifully, you can't imagine. And then here you are today just to be connected. And this can only be done through the Grace of God.

A light which is not enlightened cannot enlighten another light. If you could accept this concept about your seeking, then we can go further with it. But if you think that by standing on your heads or paying Me some money you can achieve your realisation, I am sorry, this is not the shop that sells it. This is a gift from God, is a Grace of God which is bestowed upon you, which you have to receive it. As you have received everything else, you are going to receive it also. But while receiving this being as a human personality you never said anything about it, you never questioned it. But when it is the Self-realisation, I find everybody's mind is very, very active.

Now, you did not do it through rationality. Did you go to books to know how to breathe? Imagine if you had to read about it to find out how to breathe, what would have happened to us? Half of population problem would have been solved just like that. Very easy to do that way, isn't it? But people just go and read books about how to get realisation. It's most surprising thing, I feel. How can you find it in the book, something that is living, which is to be actualised, which has to happen to you? How can you do it? But, you see, in our human understanding we are on our own, you see. Everybody is running amok, everybody is on their own. They think they have no connection with the whole. They are made by themselves. They are created by themselves. They are great people and they can run themselves very well, which is not a fact. You are a part of the whole and the whole has to decide for you how He has to enlighten you. It is He who has to make all these arrangements and it is He who has to bestow that gift upon you. This is Sahaja. Saha means with, Ja means born. It is born with you. Like a seed has got all the manifestations it has to pass through, all the maps that it is going to create, manifest, many trees that it has to go through in that little seed in that microscopic way, in the same way God has also placed in you long time back all the maps that you are going to be.

So your plans have no meaning compared to His plan. Can you plan even one seed like that, even one? [Aside remarks apparently referring to a member of the audience:] Just laugh it out. It's all over, all right? The joke is over. She is one of them who has been jumping for it. That's why she is laughing.

Now, so it is effortless. It is spontaneous. No need to grow horns for it and wear funny dresses like clowns going around very seriously you see, that you are religious people, you are this, you are that. Whom you are proclaiming? The one who has created you knows you very well, thoroughly well. You wear any dresses, wear horns, or wear anything, He knows you too well and He knows who is ready for it and who is not. Supposing you paint a leaf like an apple or like a flower, do you think it will become a fruit? In the same way, even if you paint yourself as seekers write down and they put something like nails into their cheeks and they do all kinds of things in the name of God... Oh God, I tell them why don't they have wisdom to sit down quietly? It is His job. He knows when to do it, when is the blossom time, how to do it. By doing all this, you have really ruined your instrument which is inside you like this.

Now you may say that, `Mātājī, how do you know about this one?' You should ask Me a question that way, `How do you know that there is an instrument?' I say that you should not immediately say, `All right, whatever You say is all right,' no. But it will happen to you that this germination will take within you and then you will start knowing how I know. But for the time being let us see that as if you have entered into the first year of science, then once you have got something in you then you can see for yourself what happens. But a boy, who is shy of going to school, or of college, is just standing in the door and the mother is pulling him in, “Come along. Sit down. Sit down." He says, “No, no, no, I am going away." Like that if you behave then what am I to do about it? So just be open, come and sit down and I will tell you what is your being, what is the beyond and what you have to expect. And when it happens, you see for yourself, then only you believe into Me. There is no use having blind people because you have to be awakened. If you are blind people, how am I going to awaken you? So you have to be absolutely open-minded.

But, say, somebody comes from somewhere. He has read some book in Tibet or even Timbuktu. He comes to Me, “Mother, in that book such and such thing has been written." Now, am I to go and read all those books for you? First of all, leave all your books outside. That's the best way we can manage because most of you, I know, have read too many books and these books are sitting in your head and they will not allow any ideas to go into your head.

So you have to vacate it a little bit, little bit for Me also.

The other day I had to ask somebody to write all the books he had written and he took about fifteen minutes to write them down. Then I said, “Forget the books. Write the authors only." Still he was thinking and thinking and thinking. It is so horridly sickening here the way people go on reading everything that we get, everything that we get. Even if they see a parcel which is covered with a newspaper, they will read that. Every advertisement we'll read, every shop we must read, every... I mean such mad people, I tell you. They don't have to buy something, but they will read the value of that. All the time we want to read something. That's why, after so many days, somebody has written a book. I said, “All right, you read it because without reading you won't listen to Me.

So better read it." So this is a happening within us, which is spontaneous as I told you and this is the instrument we have within us. Now, if there is instrument or not you will not know. Like, in this room you come in, it's all closed, It's all dark and you cannot see anything and I tell you that go and speak on the mike. `Where is the mike? We can't see it. How to speak?' Then you come around groping for things here and there.

You may hold something as mike and start speaking. And you said, `I'm speaking to everyone there,' and there is no connection at all. It is all darkness. You can't see anything. Anything could be a mike for you. Maybe somebody's hand you might hold and say, `Hello, how are you?' and all that. Yes, you can do anything in the darkness. Anything is possible.

So it is necessary that there should be a light, all right? If there is no light how are we going to see? But it is difficult for human beings to understand that there is already a button within us which works it out. You don't bother about it. But the problem is they think they are going to enlighten themselves, when they are in darkness. How are you going to do, I don't understand that. But because Mister E g o, ego, is so strong that you cannot believe that you cannot just do it. It is nice to watch your Mr. E G O. He is an interesting fellow, you see and he comes to you in such a funny manner that he denies all the truths of the world and you take to something that's absurd. Like, if I tell you, `All right, you have to pay me five hundred pounds per month,' you will starve yourself, eat potatoes, collect that and bring it to Me and come down and sit down and you have to stand on your heads. You will do that, three nights, three days together; you wouldn't mind. But if I tell you, `You don't have to do anything. You cannot pay Me anything. Just sit quietly it will work out.' You say, `What? She's useless, nothing. How can it be? She doesn't take any money, nothing. How can it be? It's absolutely useless.' So it is discarded.

This is the ego pampering that people have used in their propagation of ideas. Try to understand it. Ego can make an idiot out of you, I can tell you, absolutely an idiot out of you. And they know how to pamper your ego. They will say, `Come along. You are the Archbishop of Canterbury.' So you become Archbishop of Canterbury. They'll say, `Come along sit here. You are this, I'll garland you, you are Bhogānand, you are Dhongānand.' Indians understand the meaning of this. And they will put you into new garments. You'll say, `Oh, I have become such great saint, you know and this...' You'll wear a garland and this and walk about. What is that a sign of? Just tell Me. Only you feel like laughing at it. But they believe into it. They make you believe, you know, that you are great saints. All right, then you are great saints. You are awarded such and such great position. You think, `Oh, I am so great.' It's everything empty inside. When are you going to face up to yourself and see that, no, no this is not the way? There must be some genuine innate within us that God must have placed that we are going to get it.

It is He who loves us, He who is compassionate. It is He who has created this beautiful universe and He's is not going to destroy it. He will not allow you to destroy it, let the whole Satanic forces work out.

He will see to it that it is safe and that you get His powers so that you enjoy them. Like a father who earns all his life, saves his property, makes a beautiful home for the children for them to enjoy. In the same manner, you understand the Father of fathers; how much He must have thought of you, how much to give you, what bounties to pour into you.

So, this is the instrument as they, as you see them here.

This one is the cord as I said, the germinating power called as the Kuṇḍalinī. That is called as Kuṇḍalinī in the Sanskrit language because Kuṇḍala means a spiral, Kuṇḍala. And there are three and a half seeds placed within you and this is an energy. This is an energy which starts from here. This is a residual energy [UNCLEAR which has created the whole kingdom... created by God of the child.] It resides here. The residual one resides here for the last happening of your evolution that is the breakthrough in [UNCLEAR the awareness]. It is set down there very nicely placed in the triangular bone so that nobody can touch it; it is so well [UNCLEAR boxed] inside there. It stays there quietly recording all that you are doing in the searching. There it records spontaneously not because you belong to a certain clan or a certain club or certain dress, because you are a human being. Only the human beings have to surrender to the Kuṇḍalinī within them.

And this is through this Kuṇḍalinī only you get the desire to know of the germinating power. Within you all these centers are placed in such a way which you can see with your naked eye when the Kuṇḍalinī start pulsating there. You can see the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī also here. It starts pulsating very violently in people who have an obstruction [UNCLEAR]. But in people who do not have any obstruction [UNCLEAR it does not pulsate]. But in this also, [UNCLEAR as it is,] as the people are very anxious, to have it; they will have it somehow. We have had as a demand [UNCLEAR if the thugs are] there.

So there is an [UNCLEAR aura/argument] when Kuṇḍalinī is there. But they said, “No, Kuṇḍalinī needs help with because that [UNCLEAR pulsating]." You cannot enter into this Kuṇḍalinī unless and until you are really authorized by God. [UNCLEAR] here outside this prostate gland where there is a pelvic plexus. According to them this center which activates or which manifests the pelvic plexus, there is the Kuṇḍalinī so that they say that is [UNCLEAR sex energy].

And it suits us very well to understand. Now everybody does sex in [UNCLEAR animals]. Are they going to get realisation faster than you? They don't have any sex education. Are they going to get any such state? How can it be [UNCLEAR insane]. [UNCLEAR This plexus] which is under our control.

It has to be in a place which is not under our control because it is spontaneous and can only be handled by an authority. Say, for example, I have something on which I have an authority. I keep it in a place where My servants can't touch and nobody can touch it. Only under My control, isn't it? Or should I keep it open to everyone? Then what is My control? But it is very hard for people to understand that it has nothing to do with sex. Sex is a different thing. It is the ultimate relationship with husband and wife. Kuṇḍalinī has nothing to do with it.

That's why it's placed below here [UNCLEAR]. When the Kuṇḍalinī pierces it doesn't even touch this Chakra. On the contrary on this center there is an embodiment of innocence which we call as Śhrī Gaṇeśha.

He is the one who incarnated later on here as Jesus. He is innocent and that's why innocence means in the purest sense which cannot be contaminated or destroyed by these things. That is the source of our evolution. But then I find they [UNCLEAR]. I met somebody a great psychologist. And he told Me that he went to India and he read about Tantric, Tāntrikas and was very much impressed by it. “Really." “Yes, they told me great thing that you can achieve your realisation through sex." If you go to some country [UNCLEAR to its gutters and its outlets and its buffoons], how can you understand the reality of that country? You do not go to any country [UNCLEAR] in a wastepaper basket, do you? But I don't know why these wastepaper things are even worse than that, are so much impressive to these people. I have nothing to say more about this subject because it's a sacred subject of [UNCLEAR] I agree [UNCLEAR if you want to have sex have it/with it, they want to have this happening].

Nobody has to run away from the sex. It is another style of [UNCLEAR] not only that they will say [UNCLEAR], all right, let him enjoy the way. Why because in the [UNCLEAR]. And you take it very easily into your heads like that. Now it's a big warning today. You will know that all these things, either running away from the sex or running towards the sex, is not going to take you to your realisation. Only what is going to work out the realisation is God's grace. For this you can't allow [UNCLEAR].

There was a gentleman from [UNCLEAR] who came to see Me on the way to the airport, imagine. He was just going to the airport, coming there to learn about Self-realisation, you can imagine, [UNCLEAR such a short time]. Of course, I don't [UNCLEAR do this by-the-way]. And he came there, on a running horse stopped for a while. And he would not listen to Me, see. And somebody saw this photograph outside [UNCLEAR]. What did he learn? He said, “He said that the Kuṇḍalinī is in the [UNCLEAR]." Oh God, I never said that. He wrote it down like that very nicely. And so many people started writing letters to Me. “Mother, when will you come here? You see we want to have our Kuṇḍalinī awakened." Because it was connected with a sex symbol, just imagine what absurd thing. Everybody was interested in talking.

So I told them, “What is this nonsense?" There must be [UNCLEAR a misunderstanding]. This fellow was out of his mind. [UNCLEAR] I don't know how [UNCLEAR]. They all stopped writing to Me.

They're not interested. Do you think God's temple is a brothel? What have we done to Him? How much we have insulted Him? You think.

Now the Kuṇḍalinī comes up to that center here [UNCLEAR] which I have told you last time is the solar plexus. It is very important [UNCLEAR]. I told you about these things [UNCLEAR] first the animal state [UNCLEAR]. I mean, that they [UNCLEAR]. Then at the human state when [they reach] they raise their heads [UNCLEAR start thinking of God/start thinking].

Animals don't think of it. They take it for granted [UNCLEAR]. There are many human beings are like that.

They don't know. They take it for granted and settle down nicely, morning read the newspaper, go to the office, come back home, go to the pub, come back home. All their life is lived like that. [UNCLEAR They used to/First they] die, again they are born, [UNCLEAR they used to die].

They have no seeking. There are many human beings of this kind. But there are some great persons who have been seeking, seeking and seeking for ages. Now this seeking starts at this level and the solar plexus is the one [UNCLEAR]. You start thinking about the beyond. It comes to us in our previous life, in many guidelines in many [UNCLEAR].

Various incarnations tell us that there is beyond. For example [UNCLEAR]. There are ten primordial masters [UNCLEAR] the principles of [UNCLEAR] within us [UNCLEAR] all of them are there. All those [UNCLEAR] came as incarnations actually placed on this Chakra and are within us. These are the ones [UNCLEAR].

So that's why we have to imbibe all these primordial masters, the real ones, I have to say. They [UNCLEAR] that there is a light beyond. This is all is a dream. Is all is myth the reality lies within us.

So we start thinking about this awakening of this dream.

The other day I asked the question, because I want to ask questions also, so that the knowledge is absolutely open. There should be no secrecy about it. I ask the question say that you can say that `Mother if this is true, then the second one could be also secondary.' But it is not. Because the findings of the secondary whatever they are like vibrations [UNCLEAR] can be used [UNCLEAR] and that is why it is not [UNCLEAR].

Now these things have been described to us by many Gurus and, we can say, many great incarnations who came on this earth and they told us about how we have been conducting our life and how we should conduct our life, how we ought to live our life. All these great people and the scriptures have given us the idea that there is a life beyond, there is an eternal life which we have to achieve.

So the supply starts also from the people who want you to achieve that eternal life.

Now, the people who try to do that, first they must know that as it is a spontaneous thing you cannot pay for it. For example, how much money will you pay to sprout a seed? You don't put pennies there and pour water. This is the first principle we must know, absolutely. It is a gift. The second principle is that if somebody has to give us something then his life has to be above board. But many people like to cheat themselves morning till evening wasting their lives in the name of seeking. You must know that human life is the most important thing God has created and you have to find out your meaning. You have to get it. You are the ones who are going to get it and nobody else. They go into all kinds of nonsensical things in the name of seeking. Like, they will say, `All right, if you eat potatoes you will get God.' Yes, there are people who say like that but we believe into all these, we will starve ourselves and then die. Because as it is, the pocket is finished so you die. We have to live on a diet [UNCLEAR].

Secondly, we have to know that when you get Self-realisation, you should get your own powers. You should not live on the powers of somebody else. But you should manifest your own powers and that you should get Self-knowledge. How will you get your Self-knowledge unless and until your attention goes above you? Unless and until your attention can see you, how can you get your Self-knowledge? For example, now if I say that you are this light, you say, `No, Mother, we are not,' because you can see. If I say, `You are this chair,' you say, `No.' `You are this body.' `No.' `Then you are this thought.' `No.' You can see all that. But what is seeing it? The one that is seeing it is the Spirit is the Ātmā within you. Unless and until your attention touches that spirit and sees through the window of that spirit, you cannot understand what is the matter with you. If you are sitting in the house, how will you know what's the matter with the architecture of this house? You have to go outside and see. In the same way, unless and until your attention goes to that position from where you can see what is wrong with you, you cannot understand what is yourself is, what is your being is, what are your Chakras like. But the most surprising thing is that when it happens to you, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises piercing all these centers and opens out of the fontanelle bone, then you start feeling the vibrations flowing in your hands, is the actualisation.

What flows through you is the pulsation of the Spirit. And you can see the pulsation flowing through you through which you can judge your own centers and the centers of the others, because you jump into a new awareness called as collective consciousness. Actually, it is actualisation. It is not lecturing, “You are my brother; I am your sister” till there is a war. As soon as the war starts, forget it. It's a fact.

It's an actualisation within you that you start feeling others within you, that you know that we are part of the whole. Not through your brain, but through actualisation in your awareness it happens. Unless and until that happens to you, you are not to believe anybody. We are seeking the wholesomeness, our wholesomeness. We are seeking our relation with the whole. We have to become the whole. For that, there is this mechanism placed within you and when this happens, you start feeling the whole. And this is what is you are seeking.

But actually what happens [is] that it works on you like a human awareness, you get another awareness which you can call as super-consciousness. But there are other consciousness which we can call as the subconscious mind and the supraconscious. Like in the past is the subconscious. Supraconscious is the future. That's on the left and the right. You can start moving on these lines. And there could be some spirits, some dead spirit, they may jump on to you and you will start behaving in such a manner that you cannot control. What is going to happen is that the Kuṇḍalinī rises very smoothly within you and gets that state. You become that. It is the becoming through this happening. We should certify and not anything else. Talking about it or giving lectures about it or collecting money for it, this is all absolutely nonsense. When you'll discover it, you'll be shocked.

So first thing you must know that you have to achieve it within yourself as an experience, as an experience, not as a shock or a sensation.

Some people feel very happy I told them, they went to somebody to see, they said, “What happened to you?" He said, “I was getting shocks all the time." I said, “What, shock?" “Yes, there was sensation about it." I said, “Will God shock you all the time?" I mean, imagine how they you expect such things to happen to you that you are shocked all the time? Another one was shaking all the time like this, you see, shouting all the time. I said, “What is all that?" He said, “That is what I have got now, Self-realisation." I said, “Oh God." Somebody was shouting like a... you can say crying like a crow, sometimes like a, like a lion roaring.

Are we going to become crows now after becoming human beings, or frogs, jumping like a frog? Why are we cheating ourselves? Don't you want to become that superhuman being? This human life is very important. Don't waste it. It's a misidentification. You have to become the higher personality where you feel the whole is the main point, where you can feel your own powers emitting by which you can cure people, you can give them mental peace and you yourself can raise the Kuṇḍalinī with your hand. It's so simple. Now people say, “How can it be? It's so difficult?" Yes it is. It is for people who do not know the job.

Now supposing you want Me to fix it up here, I cannot do it. I just cannot. I may fix it there or there; I don't know how to do it. And it will take four hours for Me to fix this one, I can tell you. But, say, Douglas knows the job. He does it very well. I have no problem because he can do it. If he can do it, I do not feel inferior to him. Why should you feel inferior if I know the job? Why do you feel inferior? Immediately everybody will ask, “How do you do it?" But I know the job. You should see for yourself if I know or not. If I know it, you better have it. If you know some job, I do not feel inferior to you. In the same way, if I know, what's the harm? I mean, somebody has to do it. If I had not done it, you would have done it. But perhaps they selected Me. I don't know why. I have to do it and I can do it.

So it is better not to quarrel with yourself, misidentifying with your... with things which are not true, which are false and keep yourself away from the truth. Try to achieve it for anything whatsoever. It is most important is to know your meaning, to get your powers. What I do is just to give you the key. It is your own power.

It's all your own. It is your own right to get it. There's no obligation at all, nothing. Nothing in return.

It's just love that flows and works it out. You don't have to pay for it. You don't have to do anything.

You just receive it. It is a gift. Do not criticise it but receive it. That is the way it is.

Now this is the subject, as I said, cannot be covered in such a short time. And I have been talking and talking in various places, in [UNCLEAR Charlington]. I would say if you have any questions, you can ask. But ask, please, sensible questions. You see, not like, `In that book I have read something,' and all that, but something sensible. Don't try to show off your knowledge, because with your knowledge you have achieved nothing. If you had achieved, then you [UNCLEAR]. The other day one lady told Me, “I am all right. What's wrong with me?" I said, “Nothing, you go home and sleep, that's the best thing.

Why did you come here? That's the only mistake." If you are seeking, then all right, come as a seeker and then have it.

You do not know anything about yourself, where are the centers. You do not know about others. You cannot do anything about others. You cannot say where is the other person is moving, what is his trouble, what is his problem. And then if you think that you are perfectly all right then thank you very much, but don't disturb others.

So I would request you to ask Me questions which are sensible, which are good for your evolution.

I know who are the real seekers and who are not. And despite all that you will be amazed, Kuṇḍalinī awakening is blessed on everyone. But those who do not take to it, do not accept it and do not go about it, lose it. God is not going to fall at your feet for it. But I have seen, because in Sahaja Yoga there is complete freedom for you, complete freedom for you... And I am in My own complete freedom. That's why I respect your freedom. But that doesn't mean that you should try to disturb others. That won't be good. You have to be considerate about it and please ask questions which will help you and help Me. May God bless you.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I have already told you, My child, that you did not know anything about you and you became a human being. In the same way, even if you do not know through My lecture, you can become that and you get the light within. And then I'll tell you all about it. If you want Me to tell you all, all, every detail, you'll get bored and I'll be bored too, all right? So let's have it. Like I would say I have done the cooking for you so you have it; enjoy it. And then I'll tell you from where I got this [UNCLEAR Gurupad], all right? Is that all right for you? Nothing to worry. You cannot know it through language. It has to work out. It has to work out within you and then you will know. And you'll be amazed how you will grow, how you will mature. We had a boy of sixteen years who came to Me only six months back and if you see his knowledge you will be stunned, you will be amazed.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: See, it is not a power of electricity. It is a power that loves, that coordinates, that thinks.

Can you think of such a power that loves? So it's all right. You will see it and work it out. You'll be amazed how it works, that it starts flowing through you, all right? Then you, you, somebody is suffering, he's got a pain, you just put your hand there. It's a state which is described in the Bible, all right? Sit with your hands like this in any case when the questions are asked. Put your both the feet straight on the ground. Just, just stay. You need not be very serious. Neither should... you shouldn't be very frivolous. Is the, is the thing of play, you see. It's a play of God.

So it happens, nothing serious. If it doesn't happen also today, doesn't matter. I am going to be in London for minimum six years.

So you can have it. See if it can happen in a second then why should you worry? It is going to work out. Please put your hands like this, just like this. You may close your eyes if you can.

Some people might get little utter in the eyes. There's nothing to be worried about it. Keep your eyes open. That means your eyes are very tired; just then keep your eyes open.

Now you watch your thoughts. Just see, ask your mind, `What are you thinking?' Just watch your mind, what it is thinking. If it is blank then the second step you should see if you are getting any Cool Breeze in the hand. Which means the first one where you have no thought. And the second one, one may feel heat in the hand or tingling in the hand or may also feel a numbness. But after a few minutes you will start feeling the Cool Breeze. And it works so wonderfully that second time you come I won't recognize you, such a change that comes.

Now those who are feeling Cool Breeze in the hand please raise your hands, all of you. Those who are feeling Cool Breeze, all of you. What about the Indians? [Hindi.] Again let's see, good. Again let's see, good. It's working out, very good. It's working out, good. See, it will work out just like the tree, if you see the blossom time the flowers are turning into fruits, you see. Gradually it works out.

So leave it alone.

It should work out. If it has not, there's nothing wrong, just allow it to work out, just allow. It's the greatest thing that should happen to you, just allow. Close your eyes it would be better because when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, you see, eyes get dilated.

So just close your eyes. You'll feel better. Just close your eyes.

Liver, very bad, horrible liver and suicidal tendency; heart, very bad. You look after him. He's your friend.

Do not disturb others. Keep quiet. Be quiet. You have to be there for five to ten minutes at the most.

Please close your eyes.

Please close your eyes if you are asking for something eternal. Be humble about it. Be humble about it.

You say the mantra of Gṛuhalakṣhmī. All of you should keep your eyes closed. Now those who are feeling Cool Breeze raise your hand. All those, all those who are feeling Cool Breeze raise your hands.

Good.

Are you feeling? Not yet? They'll all come and see you if you are really that or not, so nothing to worry.

If you are not feeling it's all right. If you are sure you are not feeling then raise your hands. If you are not feeling, you are sure, please. Who else? You, what about you, are you feeling? Are you feeling? Are you feeling any Cool Breeze in the hand nothing? This lady, nothing? You two, three and four. [Hindi.] All right, you got it, Cool Breeze, yes. Are you sure you got it? Good.

Have you been to some Guru? Have you been to some other Guru or someone? Nowhere, nowhere whatsoever? Have you been to someone? Have you been? It's all right.

So somebody should attend to them. Come along, just see. Now you come along. You just get up and see for yourself the powers.

Contents: 1979-06-20 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, When in darkness, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

Then he starts treating people. Then he passes negativity more and it starts appearing to be something good, you see.

Sometimes you also feel such a desire to acquire more powers because these spirits are very cunning and they establish that kind of an atmosphere.

So one has to be careful. You see, there's a regular warfare going on. And that's why we have to just keep our spirits all right. And cowardice has no place in this war.

The whole thing will work out very well if people are identified with the truth. But truth, as you know, is very difficult to identify with, very difficult for human beings, absolutely next to impossible. If you tell them to be idiots, they'll accept it. If you tell them to be stupid, they'll accept it. Any sort of a thing that makes them look absolutely donkeys, they will do it. If you tell them to be false, they will do it. If you create any atmosphere of falsehood, they'll accept it. But the truth? Very difficult, very difficult. Even you may know that some people will see My photograph, all right? And they get the Cool Breeze. But when they see Me fully, they cannot. Because when they see the photograph there's a lot of darkness still in them.

So they believe into Me because of that part of that is darkness, because I'm just a photograph.

But as soon as they see Me they just don't want to accept Me.

We had a very nice place in Delhi. I asked Gregoire to go and speak to the girls of Delhi University, him being a young white person and handsome and all that. They were all very much impressed. [UNCLEAR] when he was saying that there's somebody like that they were feeling the vibrations all right. But when they came to Me, they never felt any vibrations. Just imagine, from Gregoire they were feeling, not from Me. But then they recovered from it and now they are much better off. This was the thing.

So because of this, you see, the people who represent darkness and falsehood are more successful. The spiritualists are much more successful than a saint.

Someone makes a comment: I never had to pay any money.

Shri Mataji: This can be also because they do not know; they're well intentioned and they think they've got powers. They assume it. And by that they have a satisfaction to say that we are doing good to others. But they do not know the know-how, you see. That is the point because here the people are not that cunning as we have in India. If they know that they are doing harm they will not do it. We have very cunning people in our country. Even if they know they are doing harm, still they will do it if they get some money out of it.

So they haven't got any conscience about it at all. Here if the people see that they have done good to someone then they start believing it, you see, thinking they have powers, this, that.

Because sometimes also they get a vision, sometimes they get a feeling. All these things can be there due to these spirits coming in, you see.

In India it is a very common experience of many people. They worship a deity all the time and suddenly they find that the garland that they put into the neck of the deity gets up from there and comes into their own necks. Then they think, `Now God has accepted us as great saints.' This is their idea. Now it is nothing but some dissatisfied soul, you see, puts it on them. And they start believing into it, that it is God who has done it. Then they will start a big place and they will announce to everyone that, `I am a saint and this will happen and that will happen.' And people are also impressed you see, with this kind of thing. And they would again ask this thing to happen.

There are people who start getting this red kumkum from their hands, you see, flowing.

So people believe into it. They think that yes, must be something great otherwise how can this red powder flowing from their hands? Or sometimes ashes start [owing]. And we have got, say in Bombay [Mumbai] we have a temple, we have a temple of Mahālakṣhmī and they think that Mahālakṣhmī temple is the place where the Goddess resides. No doubt there is a very genuine temple, I would say not temple, but even the statue is absolutely genuine. But the people who are there are so funny that they get hold of some maid servants you see and then spirits comes into them. They start doing, “Hhhmmm, hhhuuu” like that. This is called as [UNCLEAR Dhagini Terrini] means there's a big pot you get for water. And in that water they go on saying, “Huuuun, huuuun” inside the water. And they get those spirits into them and then they go on, “Huuuun, huuuun” like that. All the people go on like that, all these maid servants. And then these people come and ask them questions. Like what is the horse we are going to get? Where is my brother? All this and they answer. Then they believe into it.

So they get some money. But these women are horrible women in their own lives and they are always sick and they are very unhappy. But they believe into it. They believe into all these things and they do it. And while doing it, they don't know that they are doing anything wrong but they get sick and they are very, very unhappy and ultimately they die a very bad death.

There was one like that in Poona, whom they called as Mamaji, means uncle. And he was a very, very famous man in Poona. Even the police used to use that man for doing this spirits' job. But they knew that these were spirits and these are not Gods. Only these women, the way they do it, they think it is the Goddess has come into them. Now Goddess should have some sense to come into these horrible women, isn't it? But people don't think about it; so they believe into it. But this man, this gentleman who was in Poona, because I was staying with the police commissioner there, the police commissioner called him.

And so he came and he told Me, “Mother, I really wanted to meet You for one reason that I'm now fed up of these spirits that I've used and if You could get rid of them I'll be very happy, because now I'm being tortured by them. And I know what sort of a death I'm going to have. They are going to eat my flesh one by one and I'm going to die much earlier before my death, the way they will torture my life." So all this, you see, he was frightened about because he had seen other also people who did this kind of work, Tāntrikas, suffering.

So he was very much frightened.

So I said, “All right, then you ask for the Parama, means the highest. You ask for that superior thing, superior most." He said, “All right, I ask for it." I said, “All right, say thrice that you ask for it." He said, “Yes, give me that, Mother. Give me that. Give me that." I said, “All right, I give you that." And he got his realisation.

So he got the vibrations and all that.

I said, “Now you have lost all these horrible bhoots and their powers and now you have your own powers coming in and they will act. Your own powers will act which you can be able to manoeuvre and help others." He could not believe in Me you see. He thought that whatever he had for twenty-five years, how can he get rid of them just like this? So he went to the police commissioner and told him that, “Oh, Mātājī is telling me like this. I don't believe it. I can always call the spirits." The police used to use him you see, for detecting crimes and things.

So he said, “All right, if you think so why not call one of the spirits? Say your mantra." He started saying mantra. Nobody would come in. He tried for half an hour, nobody would come in. He said, “Do you mean to say I've lost all that?" He said, “Yes." He said, “Now thank your stars you will have better death at least." That's how it works out.

But even in Sahaja Yoga you will be surprised, in the beginning of Sahaja Yoga, even in the beginning of Sahaja Yoga...

So it so happened that I went to America. Before going to America I told this lady that, “You are all right but your Guru has been doing all these tricks of spirits.

So you will get those spirits into you and it will try to entice you, because they don't want to give up their people. They have no freedom and once they try to get out, they just try to again entice you." So she told Me, “No no, You just don't worry about me Mother I will keep myself all right." Then you know, in her own house she started a center, put up My big photograph. And people who come to her and she started first giving them Sahaja Yoga and this and that. Then suddenly she started feeling something falling from her hands and they were some rice, the rice which is being reddened by this kumkum. We call it as Akṣhata. And she was so surprised at it that it has started falling from her hands. And gradually everybody was surprised and they said lots of people started coming to her. Then they started asking her questions like, “Where is my brother? Where is my father? What is the horse?" this, that. And she started answering that, that, “You know this horse is going to win this race” and they won that race.

One fellow had put lot of money somewhere and he had forgotten about it, in a big house.

So she told also where is the money. They were all very much impressed, you see, because they are very materialistic people. They are only interested in what money we are going to get or what health problems they have.

They are not interested in Self-realisation. Very, I should say, low graded people they are.

So they were just worried about this, not worried about Self-realisation. And all such people started coming to her who were not interested in Self-realisation, but in all these things. And she became very popular; she became so popular that there were, sometimes used to be three thousand people. And she had to take a hall and this and that.

And I came to know about it somehow within Myself and I immediately sent a telegram saying that, “Please stop all that nonsense and please don't do all this." And she could not believe Me. Then when I went to India about a month later, you see, she had not yet stopped. And by that time what had happened, she said, “No, Mātājī came to me and She told me that to carry on and I saw Her standing before me, She said so” and all that. In that short time that I was there, I mean one month or so I was not there, she started using a big birch you see and a big stick to hit people, to take out their devils, she said. And she used to hit them back very badly on their backs. And it was so horrible that some people broke their backs and all sorts of things happened and she was using a stick. And sometimes a very flexible one, you see, so that they would get marks on their body. By the time I reached, you see. And she came to see Me and some of the Sahaja Yogis joined hands with her.

It was so silly that I just could not understand how these people all joined hands with her. And then she came to Me and she said, “I've started a very good organization in Your name Mother. You must come. You must come." So I told the Sahaja Yogis, “None of you need come. I'll go Myself." So I went down. She came and she opened the door of My [UNCLEAR thing] and she washed My feet and lots of water she brought and she then washed My feet with milk and all sorts of things. I was just feeling very embarrassed you know, of the whole thing. I didn't know what to do. I went up to the room and she made Me sit down there and all these people were singing My praise. It was very embarrassing. Everywhere I could see all these horrible, these spirits sitting down there, you know and mocking at her. I said, "[UNCLEAR] you are going to [UNCLEAR] great [UNCLEAR]." And you know I didn't know what to do and how to tell them that they. And then they started, "Hoooon, oooon." I said, "Had it now here." I said, "All right, I'm all right. I'm going back." She said, "We'll do your Pūjā." I said, "No, no, you are not well. I'm going back home, you come and see Me." She was very happy. Next day she came, she thought I am going to say, `Oh, bravo. You have done very well.' So when she came and sat next to Me I said, "Now see." She said, "Mother, see how many powers You have given me. I am so powerful." I said, "Really? I must say you have some powers isn't it?" She said, "Yes." I said, "All right, will you tell this gentleman about him?" So she started telling him that, "You were born in such a place and you have a house like this." He said, "Not me. It's not me, you are telling about somebody else." And there was a lady sitting there. She said, "You are a person who has got a clerk in your business who is like this, whose name is this." She said, "I don't have a business. I don't have a clerk." She looked at Me. She said, "Mother, have you taken away all my powers?" I said, "If they were your powers I would have respected you and loved you. But these were somebody else's powers. As soon as you have entered into My house they have left you completely. And now you go back you can get them back again unless and until you say that I want the eternal, the eternal and eternal. And after this you have to be very, very particular and watch yourself, your attention, whether you are accepting these negativities or not." She said, “Yes, I want the eternal, eternal and eternal." She was all right. She went back home and she was all right for about fifteen days.

But you see, popularity of that kind is very difficult. To avoid the temptations, you see. That's why it is said, “Lead us not into temptations” with that same thing, “but deliver us from evil." The same evil, because evil is standing in every corner and watching us. And she fell into this. And when she fell into this, she started another organization of her own. She started this and that and she is so [UNCLEAR frantic]. Nowadays, for your information, she is a very serious patient in a lunatic asylum.

So human beings are like that. They take to such things. I mean, that time only about one hundred and fifty or two hundred people used to come and meet Me, while she was getting three thousand. People want darkness, they want falsehood, they want that somebody should hoodwink them, they want somebody should befool them. They want to live with the befooling, you see. And those who know this and know how to handle it, they will just keep you on the run, you see. They will keep you on the run all the time that they befool you from this place to that place and that place to that place.

Now, there can be people who are extremely simple-hearted. But the simplicity goes to this limit that they cannot recognize the reality. You have to be in the center. Otherwise you can become a simpleton.

And that simpleton-ness can really be very killing. But if the person is say, very intelligent, who relies on the intelligence, then they will be [UNCLEAR unreal]. They'll pump up your ego. They'll do this and do that and somehow or the other they will get you there because they are extremely cunning people.

They are the embodiment of cunningness.

So you cannot outwit them because whatever intelligence you have is limited while they have such a lot of intelligence of such a crooked nature that you cannot go to their level. After all, you have your conscience with you.

So they have no conscience. They play about so much that they really hoodwink you and you do not know about it.

And that's how you will find that all the incarnations who came on this earth were killed, crucified, poisoned, like Mohammed Sahib was poisoned, or harassed, or sent to forests like Rāma and Kṛiṣhṇa tortured by many Rākṣhasas who went to kill him. All sorts of things. I mean, there is no incarnation who has not suffered.

So that now people think that if you do not suffer you cannot go to God. See this is another madness people have, that you must suffer to go to God.

So they are all carrying the cross. It was for Christ to carry the cross, not for you.

So there is no need for you to be that miserable and take the sufferings of the people. There is no need at all to suffer. There is no need at all to unnecessarily torture your bodies, unnecessarily torture your being to such a limit that you are absolutely useless for the day when you are going to be crowned.

So this is what I tell you, that falsehood is easily acceptable to people. People accept falsehood with such gusto and with such force and they do not even see what is happening. They just rush to it because we have lived with it. First of all we have lived with matter. We are identified with it because we have lived with it, because we do not know what is the truth. We have lived with untruth. We have lived with the dreams. We have not lived with awakened state. We are not yet identified with that awakened state. That's why you are awakened, then you go off to sleep. Again you are awakened; again you go off to sleep. You are more identified with sleep than with awakened state. That's why it happens all the time.

Sometimes people say, “Mother, Sahaja Yoga also when we get realisation again we go down." But what can we do? You see, it's not the responsibility of Sahaja Yoga that it should just shoot you off to that place. It is also your responsibility in a way that if you have had problems within you and there are pouches and ditches where you are physically hurt, mentally hurt, everybody hurt, so then what happens? That power which has really touched on top goes back and tries to stand up. It happens like that so nothing to feel bad. It will again come up. It has to make your instrument all right because your instrument has gone into horrible things.

Especially very funny habits one develops by these horrible devils coming into them. Even a person, if he drinks too much, then know that he is possessed. If a person he talks very much, or he jabbers, or is harsh, then know that he's possessed. All the time if he has a habit to snap at someone, shout at someone, or strict at someone then know that he is a possessed man. Or if he has a habit to be quiet unnecessarily, you see, tries to be quiet all the time, then know that he is possessed. Any extreme behaviour is only caused by spirits. Actually what happens that when we go to the extremes our human awareness cannot bear it.

Then what happens that we just ask for help from outside. And there are many busybodies around. They just enter into you and start munching. There is no need to strain your being so much, to go to extremes.

You have to be just in the center.

Actually, this country or any of the Western countries, I thought, could have been very good for you because you are saints and that you would have lived with a very temperate [UNCLEAR temparent] life.

There was not such problems as we had in India or in any other developing countries. I thought you will be much better off here, but on the contrary what I find: the material life that provided everything for you made a slave out of you. You even have habits of matter. Now when you have habits of matters there are some other habits can be put into you. And the habits that are put into you by these...

Any man who has left no sense of, you can say, the Dharma, or of his balances is a man who is possessed.

Anyone who is doing a crime which he does not understand is also possessed. Or a human being, say a man having a relation with a man, is possessed condition. If a woman has relations with a woman, it is a possessed condition. It is not a condition of a normal person. And human beings have to be normal human beings. If a woman, if she doesn't care for her chastity and she leads a fast life that means she is possessed. If she goes about with many men that means she is possessed. If the men do that they are also possessed. They cannot be normal people who do all this.

You see, whatever are the sustenance of human beings are also the powers of human beings. Like that we can see the people who are in the center, the people who are sustained, they do not have all these temptations. I mean, they just don't like it; they are just normal people. And that is what one loses gradually by doing extremities. And you don't even realise. The whole society could be like that, possessed, with ideas. We can see what foolish things we are doing in this country. I know in India they do all sorts of nonsensical things. But like telling lies and cheating people, fraud and all that is very common in India.

But here the other things are there. Like the way we are wasting our energy in nonsensical things about sex and about flirting and all this nonsense. Flirting is nothing but a virus infection of sex. You see, your eyes are caught up. Really, it is the infection of the eyes and it comes into the eye, you see.

Then you start looking here and there. You don't know what you are doing. Flirting, if you ask them they have no joy in them. You just see round, you see one face to another, one woman to another. Then the woman got it, if the woman gets it you know. You are just looking like this. You don't know why. It's a such a waste of energy. Actually, I didn't know what was flirting. But once when I went to America, in seventy three, a young boy came to Me and he said, “Mother, why do I look at all these women? I waste such a lot of energy. Why can't I keep straight? What is the need to look at them?" They do not know anything. Any woman passes. Then the woman also would dress up in such a way that she would attract [UNCLEAR] others.

So that, you see, this is also another kind of fraternity working. And the whole game starts. You find even in places like people are above sixty years, they do the same nonsense.

Something surprising that even they are not mature, because if you get this poison into you then you do not mature. It's like any fruit, you see, which is infected cannot mature. It's an infection. When it comes into you, you do not mature. That's why you find even eighty-year-old people behaving like, just like silly young twenty-five-year-old, you see. That sort of people you find so common here, where you feel so ashamed and embarrassed. When a eighty-year-old woman starts telling you about her love affairs you just don't know where to look. And it's very common; they boast of it and they talk like that. Their talking is so funny that you can't imagine. It's most embarrassing, the way they talk about things and the way they live.

There was a lady who told Me, she is a lady from a good family and an ambassador's wife and she told Me there is a very great writer here, she was about eighty years of age and she writes lots of books on philosophy and things.

So she invited this lady, the ambassador's wife, for a lunch party. And she said, “Why lunch? I could come for dinner with my husband." She said “No, no, no, I want you for lunch and give you a nice time. I'll get you a boyfriend." She said, “Are you joking?" She said, “No, I have one of my own, about twenty-four years. Of what years' age do you want?" She was shocked. She said, “What? I don't want all that." She said, “You must know. You see, you women are no good. Eastern women are no good. You must learn how to enjoy life." She said, “I'm sorry I'm not learning that." She just put down the phone.

Now this lady is writing books on philosophy. See the stupidity to which people are doing. And she is one of the most successful writers in England. I don't know her name. She didn't tell Me the name. But this is what it is. She is successful because she is spreading darkness, because you know people want to live with whatever they were in. They were in darkness. They were just matter. See, this dead matter is just darkness. It has no awareness in it. Then the animals have little bit of awareness. And they come to a point when they are human beings. They have passed through millions of years with that ignorance and that darkness and they more adhere to it than to something that is beyond. They only evolve because God's grace is there. Otherwise they would never have evolved. Because God has put some sort of a seeking in their stomach that for food, for other things, they start evolving. And when they start evolving they reach the stage of human consciousness.

Now at human consciousness if I have to say that you have to face the reality, why should you? You think that if I have to face reality then I have to work for it. Because that is another thing you have done so far. You think that you have done something all the time to achieve something. If you have to achieve something then you must put in effort. Then you do not want to take that path when you were dark, that we have done nothing to become a human being. And that if we have to go further we are not to do anything about it. On the contrary you start running fast, very fast and if you know the place that you take two running jumps and go to hell. It's like that, for example and you speed up so much on that that you land into difficulties. That's why it is necessary to understand that you are human beings. At this time you are given freedom, absolute freedom, because you have to see your own evolution. Because you are free you can see. If you were part and parcel of God and if He had done for you then you would not have seen it, like animals have not seen it. But this you have to see and you have to be aware of it. That's why you have been given freedom.

If you are not away from Me how will you see Me? And this is the reason you were separated from the whole, so that you can see that you become the whole, while the animals do not see it because they're dark. They are part of the whole, they are looked after, they live like that, they don't get ego, they don't get superego, they do not speak up suddenly, they do not do all these things, as you do. They do not have insurances. They are sensible, we think.

So we go down to them and want to learn something from them.

And what do we learn from them? Their sex behaviour, imagine. This is human brain, you know, specially made. We are clowns. The way we look at things I don't know how. Whatever is to be done we just do in the other way round. Like what you have to learn from animals that they are one with the whole, the trees are one with the whole. When there is spring the trees will bring out yellow flowers, when there is the summer they bring out the red flowers and that's how they express the colour. While they are looked after whether they are here or anywhere, they are looked after, the nature looks after them. There is a circle between them. If the trees have the leaves they emit carbon dioxide. Then that has to have a circle again.

So the leaves have to fall down into the ground because nature must take nitrogen from them and must replace it back to them, to nourish them again so they can go into that cycle of movement and from how it moves from one end to another. How carbon dioxide goes into the air and how it is again reconverted back and how the whole thing is worked out in a cycle is done, but they do not know all about it.

They do it blindly; absolutely blindly they are doing it, because they're blind, because they don't need to know. Like the small little babies and puppies of the dog, if you see, they are blind; they don't know how to go about. They just feel their mother and just go and start sucking the breast and take feeding.

You've seen them, very sweet ones you see. They can't see anything. They just smell something and they go down there and eat.

So the mother looks after them at that time and she does everything that is needed even when they are blind.

When you are also little children, when this is not covered up, closed, your mother looks after you.

Your father will look after you. They treat you just like a part of them all the time. All the time they are worried about you. Not in modern times, of course. Modern times are one of the most convoluted times. But they used to do that. But you are grown-up. Then they give you freedom to know that you are grown-up. And that is how God wants you to know that you have evolved. You have received your realisation. That you have become what you have become, because you have to now really re-manifest God's powers. This is the thing we have to understand. And then we should know what is our role in life and what are we doing, where are we, how are we placed, what is our position. This should give you the complete energy to get to the sap and work it out.

May God bless you.

We are all seekers. That is to say that we all feel that there is some purpose in our life. That we realised that we have not had our fulfilment, that we know that we do not know why God has created us.

We also do not know for definite if there is a power that is called as God's power, His Divine Power. It is said that, in all the scriptures, that the Divine Power permeates.....

Contents: 1979-07-08 Guru Pūjā, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

Today is the day of Guru Pūrnimā, this is a full Moon day, that's why it is called as Pūrnimā. The Guru has to be like a full moon, means completely growing, completely matured.

There are sixteen Kalās or the phases of the Moon and when the complete Pūrnimā comes in, the full Moon day, all the sixteen Kalās are completed. You also know that in the Viśhuddhi Chakra there are sixteen sub plexuses. When Kṛiṣhṇa is described as Virāta, He's called as the Sampūrna, the complete incarnation of Viṣhṇu's aspect, because He's got the sixteen phases completely done.

So today's number is sixteen. Six plus one, seven.

Now we have to understand the importance of Guru. Why should we have a Guru when we have God? We've got Shakti, then why should we have a Guru? What is the need to have a Guru? Guru means `the weight', the weight. We get our weight from the magnetic forces of the gravity of the Mother Earth.

So Guru means gravity, a gravity in a person. Why do we need a Guru? Because to know God is easy, specially in Sahaja Yoga, to be one with Him. As soon as you get your Self-realisation in Sahaja Yoga, the modern Sahaja Yoga, immediately you become entitled to give realisations to other. It was said that Guru is the person who makes you meet the Divine. That's not true, because any Self-realised person in the Sahaja Yoga can raise the Kuṇḍalinī and can give Self-realisation to others, immediately after they have touched the Sahasrāra or opened the Sahasrāra. But normally a realised Soul cannot do it. Any born realised Soul cannot do it on its own, it has to have authority of Me as I am today.

That's why it was said that Guru is a person who makes you meet God; he raises the Kuṇḍalinī and makes you one with God. Because in those days when the Gurus were Self-realised, when the Gurus were realised, they had the authority and power of raising the Kuṇḍalinī only after they had reached a very great state of evolution, complete purification, complete detachment.

So it was not possible for people to give realisation when they just touched realised state. Most of the Gurus in the olden days started by first cleansing the people. First cleanse them, one by one, raise the Kuṇḍalinī, brought it to every Chakra and then gave them realisation. It was a different technique altogether. You can say it was a bullock cart technique.

That's why one mantra was given for particular Chakra where was the problem, where the Kuṇḍalinī was stopping. For about, some people used to get it for even for ten years they would work out on one Chakra. I've known people who have been working on Āgñyā for ten years, twenty years. But you know in Sahaja Yoga we clear it out just like that. That has something to do with your particular Guṇa [UNCLEAR ulterior].

So the first conception that a person who makes you meet God is the Guru. Has to be little bit advanced because for you now it's a child's play to raise the Kuṇḍalinī and make them one with the Divine. But still you don't become Guru in the Sahaja Yoga terminology. Even if you have Vikalpas, you have doubts about Sahaja Yoga still you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī. Even when your Chitta, attention is not clear-cut still you can... the pure truth, how? How it has worked out that way, so beautifully? It has worked out I would say at this juncture, maybe later on I will tell you. But it’s pure Divine, which is not contaminated by whatever state you may be, its flowing, absolutely pure Divine. With others it was different, they had to cleanse it, clear it out. As an instrument you are perfect, but as a Guru you are not.

Whatever maybe your defects or whatever you may be lacking, you raise your hands the Kuṇḍalinī will vibrate at your beck and call. On your fingers it is going to vibrate tremendous power. You can ask anyone they'll tell you they are surprised and jealous of you. They can't understand that how by raising your fingers that you are perfect instruments because you are created by somebody very perfect.

But you are not perfect Gurus, that one has to understand. And that is why you need a Guru to tell you that what is percept.

Now as I told you that Guru means gravity. You cannot say where is the axis of Mother Earth is? You cannot see it, I mean you cannot see it, you cannot feel it. But they say there is an axis on which Mother Earth rotates. It's an energy, an energy on which this Mother Earth rotates. In the same way you have an axis, which is your Suṣhumnā, which gives you the gravity.

The first important thing for a Guru is that your gravity point is one, everything centers on gravity.

Unless and until your attention is completely fixed on to that gravity point within you, which is called as Dhruva -'constant', in the fixed point, you cannot become a Guru.

So the gravity in you comes to you by clearing your attention by looking at your attention where does it go? How do you reach your gravity point or anything that has a gravity point? How do we discover it? We go on balancing it and when the balance is complete that time we say this is the gravity point.

In the same way your attention should hold your gravity point in complete balance.

So the first thing is that you should be balanced. But a balanced person is not a fixed person. He is not rigid. But an imbalanced person is a person who runs here, there, there. Even after coming to Sahaja Yoga running after this, running after that, running after that. Such a person cannot achieve much. Fix your gravity point, balancing point in Sahaja Yoga.

This is much important than doing anything else. First of all fix your gravity point, then you'll be amazed that whatever you see apart from Sahaja Yoga in the light of Sahaja Yoga you'll realise that how it relates to Sahaja Yoga and it relates to you gravity point.

Say it is against it, still you will see where it is against. If it is for it, you'll see where it is for. For example you'll read books immediately you will know what is the truth, what is not the truth. But if you do not have that point fixed or attained, then you'll be slipping down this side or that side. Everything else can attract; you can slip down from truth.

So that point has to be fixed first of all within ourselves.

`Dhruva Pada' you can call it. The Kuṇḍalinī position of the fixed point from which we understand that everything radiates from it. Everything is controlled from here, the light within us by which we see what is darkness and what is reality. But to all this even if you glorify and say all the names and chant everything it has no meaning unless and until you develop discipline about it. Discipline is the `Sthai Bhav' or you can say the `emotion of permanence' for a Guru Seva or becoming a Guru.

You must discipline your body, discipline your mind, discipline yourself. Say in Sahaja Yoga it's such a simple thing to have, I mean you are just collectivity, but you are not a Guru.

So how do you discipline yourself? Some people, say, have awkward way, in their body. Then they should get to it, they have a proper way in their body. Mould your body. It is not to torture your body but to be master your body. For example: I would not say that you go and sit in the cold ice water. It's wrong, you freeze yourself and make your bones horrible. But you must do all that is required to give you a supple body and a body that can live under any circumstance. Little bit of course you have to insult also that you should be able to sit on the ground properly, that you should be able to sleep on the ground properly. There should be no problem about these things. You have to discipline.

Sahaja Yoga is a real blessing, but can be sometimes a blessing in disguise. If you take it for granted you'll drift out. You won’t go very further.

So the body should be such that it should be able to take lot of load upon itself, should be able to do lot of work. This is for you to decide about your own body. Now you see your Gurus body how it is? I take lot of work out of My body. I work for hours together. I can keep awake for hours together. I'll never even once say that My body is no good. It is such a nice thing I have. But it, there is a very great Tapasya, penance. Tremendous penance, because it's a human body which has to work out some things, you know at the time of Rāma, He had to walk bare feet all the way.

He was a king and He had to live in a hut.

So do not be dominated by luxuries and comforts. I do not mean to say that you unnecessarily torture your body, that is not the point at all. Because I must give a balancing point always. But do not pamper your body that is become a hurdle for your penance. Keep your body clean. Respect your body. And it will be very happy when it will know that you have used it for the diving purpose.

There's a Indian word, which we call it a `Bhaitak'. I don't know if there is a English equal to that.

But `Bhaitak' means the power to sit. That's the gravity. How long can you sit in one posture? “What is your `Bhaitak'?" Like any studies or anything they'll ask, “What is your `Bhaitak'?" “Have you got the `Bhaitak'?" Is the power to be seated on one point. How long can you sit continuously? That is how you judge your gravity. Unless and until you have a `Bhaitak', you cannot be a Guru.

So the body is to be brought round properly. It has to be sublet. There's no question of becoming thin or fat but the body should be such that you should be able to use it for your purpose as a Guru.

Sometimes, you will find you can't sleep on the ground. When you sleep on the ground 3-4 days, your body will be very happy. It will pain 1 or two days, it will pain. But do not insult your body.

See the other side of the situation, we don't take our bath, we don't keep ourself all right. Then we are insulting our bodies. Look after it. You may have to look after its softness, gentleness of the body.

Treat it with respect. By becoming barbaric you are insulting your body.

So the body is very important.

This is made of five elements. And all these five elements within us, as Gurus, has to be sparkling.

I can go on like this but now you think about it. You think what have you to do with your body. How you are going to use five elements within your body to cleanse them, make then beautiful so that your light sparkles. The gravity comes to you in your body this way that you start generating your power or your principle of Gurutva, principle of your mastery through this point of your gravity.

The second point is your attention should have that gravity. Your attention is very important. A person who is easily disturbed is not a deep person. Or easily taken to something like say emotions or easily to some other say intellectual pursuit. As Gurus there will be temptations. People will be challenging, if a person comes out with a very big intellectual fleet or something like that. Then immediately you'll feel challenged about it and you say, “All right let me handle the situation." Handle it at the Sahaja Yoga point, on your gravity. Just sit down on your gravity and see to itself. Immediately you will know how to handle the situation. You need not talk to that person, you'll handle the situation all right. Not on intellectual level but on your gravity.

The attention has the gravity; it pulls down the ego and the superego of other people. Then you will not be frustrated off-right. Also if you can start from the outside it may work out in human beings; it works out. Like study your behaviour how you behave towards others. Or study your attention how it behaves towards outside, what attracts your attention? What attracts your attention? Study your attention, by that study you will be able to fix your attention in its Maryādā, in its boundaries. Once you put the boundaries to the attention then the depth starts developing. The person who has no boundaries can never have depth, he will be spreading just like that, always, no depth at all.

So you have to put boundary by understanding your attention, that no not more than that, all right not more than that.

Some people in Sahaja Yoga I've seen, they get interested in a patient. For them that patient becomes important. Or get interested in some person that he must get realisation, say my mother, my father, my, my. And all the time they are talking about it, my jobs, my clothes; some sort of a my and they don't know how to draw the line. You must know where to draw the line, is Maryādā. Otherwise the whole thing will utter away, you'll become a frivolous person. There won't be any gravity.

So you must know how far to go with a person when you are dealing as a Guru. Then you are a master. But if you do not know where to draw the line, you may be crossing the line and getting into his clutches.

So the best way is to handle the situation is to get into thoughtless awareness. Again and again and again and again you establish that.

Some of them complain to Me that it's not easy thing to do. It's the easiest thing to do, if you give up all other useless things that you are doing. And then gravity will give you the wisdom to do the right thing at the right time.

Ashram is the place where one has to learn to be a Guru, but I find it is a not always a good experiment.

Once they have an ashram, they take it for granted. They think this is the place for us to nicely come and live and some people will work, some will be enjoying, some will pay some will not. It's most. You must immediately find out the person who really has the spiritual authority and try to follow him. Instead of that we try to mix up with people who are of lower spiritual authority. And he sleeps till 9 o'clock, everybody sleeps, in an ashram nobody should sleep after 6 o'clock, it's an absolute thing. Absurd, you must sleep early get up early. You all must get up at 6 o'clock, you know what time your Mother gets up? And what I find that nobody is up here. In India they all get up very early. But I find that nobody is up here and My attention is on Me.

And you don't realise that how important all these things are this is the training time for you. For this you are born, you've been seeking this for ages now, you got it now, you must discipline yourself, but I've seen in Ashramas where people pay a big amount, they get a better service 4 o'clock, 3 o'clock, because in Sahaja Yoga everything has to come from you. This is the time it is.

At the most I can ask people who are not all right to go out for a while live outside and then join ashram. That helps a bit, but not more than that because I am also a Mother though I am a Guru. It is you who should mature yourself you'll mature much faster than I force things on you. Finding faults with others but not with yourself. Must have a discipline, a time in the morning to get up, do little Pūjā or something; at least spend half an hour all of you together. You should be ready by 6 or 6:30, sit down, do meditation. I have to lay down rules for you now because you do not want to lay it down. I am also amazed that many people do not know My Ār.ti even after so many years, by heart. That is what Sahaja Yoga is, is because it's a Mahāmāyā.

So you have to learn it yourself, you have to do it yourself.

It’s easy to talk about Sahaja Yoga, very simple stand up and talk because you've heard from your Mother, you talk. It will have no impression on another person; it will flitter away, because must come from your center of gravity. This is the greatest thing you can do to yourself is to discipline yourself fully.

And completely disciplining yourself and make your body all right, your attention all right.

Attention is corrected by many ways. As I said watch your attention, where does it go? Now what else are we going to talk but Sahaja Yoga? Is there anything more beautiful or more interesting, more manifesting than Sahaja Yoga is? And what is the job of the Guru? Is nothing but to expose the Parabrahma itself, the whole working of the Divine, that is the job of a Guru. To expose the complete working of the parabrahma is the job of a Guru in the modern times. Not only raising the Kuṇḍalinī. But after raising the Kuṇḍalinī you should be able to tell about all the Divine Powers and everything. For that you have to learn, you have to read, you have to understand.

Do you understand now the difference between old Guru and modern Guru? Because they brought with such tremendous discipline that hardly one or two would be Guru. They went through such studies and such interrogations and examination and test that by the time they were or so they became Gurus. But we have to be quick and the best way is to rate yourself.

Perhaps the tradition of the Western countries do not give much impetus for discipline. That's called cutting off yourself. But a disciplined person is the only one who can be a Sahaja Yogi. Spontaneity works best in a disciplined person. Discipline person is the one who knows the technique and the energy is the spontaneity. But a person who is frittered away what will spontaneity do with it? It cannot work it out, the instrument is so horrible.

So you discipline yourself and others will be disciplined by your behaviour.

Once you have disciplined yourself, when you become a Guru, you have certain privileges as master.

And it was used as a weapon by many masters before, you need not use, I am just telling you as a side issue. All the Gurus had tremendous temper. Like I would tell you Allaudin Khan Sāb who was a great musician, was the master of Ravi Shankar and My father was the political advisor to this Mahārāja of Mayyar and we went down there, I was there also. That time Ravi Shankar was artist of fame a bit here and there. I mean he is quite a good artist still though his Guru had a very great respect for My father.

He used to treat My father very revered.

So he was playing something, he was very good at Mridang. He played the Mridanga for My father.

So in that days the tune, the lahara is there, tune has to play was a simple tune just to play the mridangam to be played on that.

So My father asked Ravi Shankar to play.

[MISSING.] And at the slightest they will take a bass and hit you, see.

So people used to be very careful when they were sitting near the stone. The people would stay away from them. They would throw stones; they'll keep a chimta, big chimta like this. Anybody coming near them they would hit them. At the slightest thing they gave a chimta to a disciple. It was a long thing, you know, made out of iron and a chimta is a double prong thing. And they would hit the person thomb like that. It was the situation before I came in here as you know a Guru, you see it is difficult to be a Guru and a mother I cannot do both things together.

But that was the situation, even those great artist today who are playing great things like you'll hear now we'll have Khan Sāb you go and ask him about his Guru, how much time he was beaten up, absolutely beaten up any swara they did wrong, was absolute chastity, absolute discipline. If the Guru said, “Five o'clock tomorrow” even if Guru comes or not, five o'clock you have to be there. For any art in the Indian style was like that, complete discipline. Without discipline not even education was imparted. Terrible taskmasters. And that's what they used which you need not use, here in Sahaja Yoga.

There is no need to use temper in Sahaja Yoga. That is because I've not given you, imparted any knowledge to you, with temper. Perhaps there could be hardly anyone who has seen Me in a temper.

So that is not the way we Sahaja Yogis are going to impart knowledge to others. We have to be very mild and sweet because in the pattern of your own Guru, because She's sweet, She's very mild and She's very persuasive and kind. In the same way you have to be, because that pattern you haven't learned. That's why don't take to that kind of a pattern where people are in a big temper and they come out with a big temper. It doesn't behoove a Sahaja Yogi to be like that. I mean, they had such tremendous powers also that they could just make somebody into ashes, see, with such a temper they lived. And they had one Guru somewhere like a, I would call it Rock of Gibraltar, that you face him and you hit your head. At least one surprise, you must have a good hitting from him. Otherwise he is not your Guru. That was the system.

Now we have a great artist sitting here. He must be also remembering his, [UNCLEAR], his Guru, who must have really beaten him nicely before he imparted knowledge. They said, “Without you hit and chisel you cannot make a good disciple." And this time you are going to challenge that and to prove that our Mother was extremely kind and still you are chiseled out beautifully by your own chiseling. That's why I request you to do it yourself because I cannot do it, as a Mother.

And that's why it is your responsibility. I mean, that way today is the day where we all have to decide that we are going to be Gurus now. I am going to retire as a Guru; it's all right to be a Mother to you people. Now you have to be Gurus of other people and for that you must know what you should achieve.

You have all the powers within you; you can manifest them also. But you cannot have a following unless and until you become a Guru. This is the only difference there is. If you want to have a following then you must chisel out yourself in that fashion that as soon as people see you should say, `Here is somebody,' with that gravity.

I think that would be sufficient for today. We have Pūjā. Only thing, a last, most important thing is that you cannot make a drama out of it. It has to be a reality. See, by standing like a big, imposing person, you do not become that. On the contrary people will think you are mad. It should be from within that you should develop that dignity within yourself, that poise, that balance, that understanding, within yourself.

A kindly poise, a beautiful personality, benevolent but standing above everyone else by his gravity, depth, gentlemanliness, generosity, proper bearing, neatness, cleanliness, above all, love, heart like an ocean, most forgiving.

I'm sure next year we'll have some Gurus here who have already got some disciples around.

May God bless you all.

One day I must tell you about all these [herbs]. This flower [foxglove] is sacred to Lord Shiva.

Contents: 1979-07-16*, Public Program, How Truthful are We about Seeking, Caxton Hall, 10 Caxton Street, Westminster, London, UK

The other day I told you about the instrument that we have already within ourselves, for us to have our own Self-knowledge, which is an actualisation, which is an experience, which is a happening by which we become That. It is the becoming, it is not any brain washing or sermoning but it's a becoming I'm talking about. When we say, we are the seekers of Truth, how truthful are we about this seeking? This is one point we should try to understand. Are we really, genuinely seeking? Are we genuine about it, or we are doing it because it's nice to say that we are seeking the Truth? If you have to seek something genuine, you have to be truthful yourself.

This is one of the greatest hurdles in Sahaja Yoga. Sahaja Yoga is a system by which you jump into the Truth itself. You become the Truth, you don't see the Truth, you don't understand the Truth, but you become the Truth. It is most amazing thing that human beings don't understand what to expect out of Truth. They are seeking Truth but they have no conception about the absolute value of Truth. Truth, we cannot compromise. It doesn't have two sides: like you have day and night, you have right and wrong.

It's absolute! There is no compromise about it.

For example, as the other day I told you that when you get your realisation, you start feeling the cool vibrations flowing from your hand. And these cool vibrations are the indication that the Divine power has started flowing through you. Now, these vibrations that you have are flowing through you like a Cool Breeze, are absolutely genuine, they are much more genuine than genuineness, because human beings always have relative idea of genuineness. For example, say, if you take carbon atom, it can be placed in any way, it has got four valencies, but it can be placed any way in a molecule. You can change the form of it, but still, if you go to the details of it, the carbon will remain carbon. And a hydrogen will remain hydrogen, in it's basic structure.

So, the Truth that is the basic thing, cannot change. You cannot mould it, you cannot befool it, you cannot act it. When these vibrations are flowing from you, if there are no vibrations then you are not there. Nobody can say that you are there, that you are a realised Soul because you are carrying a big horn on your head. You may carry any signs and signatures saying that you are a great person, you have so many following and there are so many people running mad after you. But still you are not a realised Soul and you are not. Even if you are crucified and you are a realised Soul you can feel it that this one, the one whom we have crucified, is the one who is emitting vibrations.

But if the seeker is not truthful or is conditioned and he's trying to cheat himself all the time, he is not going to gain anything. In Sahaja Yoga you have to gain. Nobody else has to gain, it is you who has to gain.

So, you have to be genuine about it. You cannot purchase it with money. You cannot hide it by any false means. You cannot kill it. It is eternal. If you loose your vibrations in your hands, many people have told Me that “Mother, we've lost the vibrations, now, what to do?" As if they have achieved something great by loosing the vibrations, sometimes I feel. It's a mistake! There's something wrong with you somewhere which you must get it corrected. If you think by talking or by befooling, by hiding things you are going to achieve anything, you are sadly mistaken.

So, we have to be extremely truthful to ourselves, we have not to cheat ourselves when we are facing God, when we are facing Truth.

There are some people in this world who destroy others and there are some who destroy themselves.

In the same way, there are some people in this world who cheat others and there are some who cheat themselves. There are so many things in this world which helps you to do that, is to cheat yourself.

So, be on the alert! Like you read some books, they pamper your vanity, sometimes, pamper your ego and make you feel `Oh, I'm all right, I feel all right!' And you think that you have really achieved the goal that you wanted to, because certain books say `so, so, so, so...' Or maybe, somebody is a man who is not interested in your well-being and your Truth-seeking, may give you an idea that `All right, this is the Truth, all right!' So, you believe that this is the Truth and you accept it, that this is the Truth.

And with that kind of a conditioning, with that kind of an idea within your head, you go ahead and carry on your life. One life, two lives, three lives... You are supposed to be a seeker of Truth! How many lives are you going to waste seeking? Are you really genuine about it? Or is it, because there is a fashion that one has to talk like that or similarly [UNCLEAR]? Of course, to cheat other is, of course, is a sin, no doubt. But to cheat yourself, itself, is also a big obstacle in the seeking of Truth.

So, we have to realise that we are here to face the Truth. And God has created us in such a way that He has placed everything so beautifully within us for this thing to happen, for us to get our Self-knowledge.

You are not to go in wilderness to find it out! You are not to read anything about it! Which university did Christ go to, or Kṛiṣhṇa go to? What education did Rāma have as far as university education is concerned? You have to read within yourself, your own book is within yourself and to see for yourself, in a very humble manner to understand, `Where am I?' Sahaja Yoga is a system which says, `saha-ja', `saha' means `with' and `ja' is `born'. It is born with you. Everything born with you is genuine. Do you know that? We do not know. Our hands are genuine, they never cheat us. Our feet are genuine, they never cheat, do they? Our eyes are genuine: you see something white, it looks white, it is white. Our eyes never tell us that it is black. Only when we are sick, then the whole composition changes and you get all kinds of wrong information from this body of yours.

Your heart is genuine, but we teach our heart to cheat, we teach our eyes to cheat. We have pretensions and the Truth knows you.

When I say this we should not have self-pity about ourselves. It is never the way to go from one extreme to another. This is a very common condition of human being. If you tell them one thing, they go from one end to another end. No, you just stand in the center and see for yourself: How much genuine are we to receive the blessings of God? Are we really seeking God or we are seeking something else behind the name of God? I tell you, everyone who professes any religion should just have this test and he'll be surprised that either he is seeking money out of Him or he is seeking power out of Him or he is seeking some sort of a physical or maybe a material advantage of Him. That is how we are disillusioned by these people who teach us about Truth, because we find that they are not seekers of Truth, they are cheating themselves. A seeker of Truth has his attention all the time inside, on his seeking. He is not bothered about other things.

The seeker wants the Absolute, the Perfect. The seeker doesn't want something that he's not seeking.

That's why innocence is the best way one can seek. Like a small little child once was lost in a fair.

So, the child started crying for the mother. And the police people got the child in the hand.

So, they said, “All right, just now wait, we'll get your mother, but first of all you have something else." They gave a nice balloon to the child, to play.

So, the child says, “No, I don't want any balloon, I don't want. I want my mother." So, they said, “All right, let's take you down, we'll give you some ice cream to eat, some chocolates." The child says, “No, I don't want any chocolates, I don't want anything like that. I want the presence of my mother. I want my mother. I won't have anything else." They tried and tried their level best to pacify the child, but the child would not take anything else but would just ask for the mother. Because child had lost the mother and it was seeking the mother, it was doubting everything else but that.

But our sense of discrimination, our sense of understanding, our wisdom is so developed, is so foolishly developed, I would say, that we always miss the Truth and grasp the untruth. I don't know how human beings can do it? It's difficult for animals to do but human beings just manage. That's all we have done so far in the history, if you see. Such great incarnations came on this Earth. What did we do out of their lives? We crucified them, gave them poisons, we put them in the jails, we did whatever was possible out of them. How many followed them, one or two? But take Hitler now. How many followed him? Because we have a special identification with falsehood, not with Truth, we have lived with falsehood all our lives. Moment to moment you'll find we are doing like that. In the name of money, in the name of power, in the war, they say, everything is fair, in the name of so-called love. With all this, we expect to find the Truth? Also we expect that Truth should fall at our feet? So, to all the seekers of the Truth of this world, I request to know that if you are seeking the Truth, this time you don't miss it.

It is a genuine, absolute, eternal, joy-giving, being within yourself. Yourself, within your heart it resides, is the Ātmā, is the Spirit within you. It does not like cheating. It knows you are cheating, it knows all the field, Kṣhetra-gñya [knower of the field]. It knows what you are doing, what you are playing with, what you are doubting? It knows everything.

Because this Spirit within you is one with the Whole, it keeps absolutely in harmony, unison, concord, with the Whole. It is we, with our intelligence you may call it, or ego, or superego, whatever it is, we try to cheat it. It doesn't like it, at all.

If you have to become that, if your attention has to get dissolved into that Spirit, then keep your attention pure. Purity is the way you are going to get into it. It is something between you and yourself.

It is something which is your own concern within yourself, it is for you to decide and to understand.

If you are getting vibrations in the hand, if the Cool Breeze is coming, if your Kuṇḍalinī has touched the Sahasrāra, maybe, it is the Grace itself is pouring into you. But do not take it for granted. You will not progress fast if you go that slow way. You can only progress if you go on drenching yourself in that Grace. This is the first problem of Sahaja Yoga, I find, specially in the West. And that's why I have seen, that you are more enamoured by people who are not genuine and least bothered about someone who is absolutely genuine.

The second point that comes to My mind, which is very important, the other day I hinted at it, that when you get your Self-realisation, it's just the Grace that you get it, at the first shot, you do get it. It's just the Grace that you get it! To maintain it, is your job. You lose it very fast, so many of you.

Because as soon as you get it in Sahaja Yoga, you start doubting it. Firstly maybe, because you do not think that you are capable of getting a Self-realisation. You undervalue yourself, because you don't know how much God loves you. His creation will be destroyed if He does not give you Self-knowledge. It is out of this Divine Love that you have got your Self-realisation. But you lose immediately the vibrations so many of you, because you start doubting.

What are you doubting there? Because you are confused! What are you going to gain out of doubting or lose out of doubting? There is no shop here. There is nothing selling. You have paid no money for it.

You are not going to lose your powers or anything. If you are a king, you'll remain a king, may become even a greater king. If you are a student, you might become a better student. What is there to lose that you've started doubting and playing with it? Perhaps, very few realise the value of Self-realisation. I've seen the sick realise it more than the healthy people, sometimes, because sick feel comforted in their body. But how shallow we are! Just think of it.

Sometimes, this Ambrose, this Amṛut is given to someone who doesn't know the value of this.

I had some great saints in India who told Me, who know Me and who know My work, that, “Mother, You are wasting Your energy on these people, they are no good." They don't want to come down.

I say, “Why do you say like that? I know they are seekers of the ancient times, they're great people who have been seeking the Truth and today they are born as normal householders." But they said, “They are so identified with other thing that it is going to be very difficult for them to accept the Truth." You have to steady yourself on the platform of Truth, which itself plays around. It tests you.

There are ways of testing you. Every minute it is testing. You have to settle down on it. While, I've seen many people saying, “Then why should we lose vibrations?" I mean, see the attitude, I'm saying. You are a seeker. Truth is not the seeker, sir. You have to settle down there, isn't it? You have to sit down there, isn't it? Because you are going to gain, you are going to get the joy that is Truth, that is Love, that is Eternal. It is you are going to benefit.

So, why be that shallow? Why be that frivolous? Because you are people, of ancient ages, have been seeking the Truth.

There're people you have seen the other day, I had met a man who was on the TV or something and he was talking big thing about wholesomeness and also of seeking and Self-knowledge. When he confronted Me, I found him absolutely shallow, good-for-nothing, absolutely useless fellow.

He said, “I must have the experience." I said, “Why must you have, sir? Why do you entitle? Because you can give big lecture in BBC, because you have read this book of this man, that book of that man?" It judges you, My children, it judges you every minute. You are judging it, but it judges you! Perhaps, I hope in My lifetime, I may be able to see that Truth is dawn upon this Earth, in your heart and that thousands and thousands of you, who are really the seekers, receive it. But it's a living process.

It is not a artificial process. It is not just a movement, linear movement like that. It is a living process.

There are so many things that have to work it out. Like you can have many plastic flowers, but to get one flower, how much time one has to spend watching it blossoming? This growth does not cut anyone, it doesn't move in a linear way as other growths do: like your power, like your political, economic growths. They move in lines, they have no relationship with others, you see. There is no relationship with the Whole, they have no sense of proportion. Like somebody's nose increasing, somebody's ears increasing. It's a cancer! All these movements will lead to cancer, means they will eat you off. They have to eat up somebody to make their way. They just start blindly moving one side, then they cannot turn round.

It's a wholesome, living movement. And that takes time. It can work out very fast. It can go into a chain reaction. I can assure you: if you all decide to be genuine about it and humble about it, if you little bit change your attitude about Sahaja Yoga: that there is nothing selling here, that you are the seeker, you have to knock the door, you have to ask for it and then you will be blessed.

This is the biggest gap I find and that's why sometimes, I feel extremely helpless. Please, try to understand. Please, understand this is the situation: you are seekers, you are really genuine seekers, you have been seeking for thousands of years. It has been said in the scriptures. And you are born on this Earth to get your right as the citizen of Kingdom of God. But seek That! Do not seek anything else, because nothing else is important, neither fulfilling, nor rewarding, neither perfect.

Today, we are going to have the meditation now after this. In Sahaja Yoga the meditation has only one simple meaning is that the Kuṇḍalinī has to rise from the triangular bone there and has to touch the Sahasrāra, here and open you to the subtle point. This is a simple thing, is meditation.

After realisation also, meditation means the same that you keep your Kuṇḍalinī high up hanging there.

You are with the subtle collective consciousness, with the Universal All-pervading Power of God's love.

Once you are there, you are just hanged up into that blissful state. Then diseases don't come to you, then mental tortures don't come to you. You become a witness and you become the instrument of that power, which is all-pervading and you get the collective consciousness within you. It happens to you.

If it does not happen to you, then genuinely, there are some defects somewhere, which one has to correct. For which I am willing to work hard. And there are so many who have got it also.

So, you are also going to get it and you are also going to feel it. There is no problem about it. It is a gift, it is not an enticement. Do not mislead yourself any longer, you have done quite a lot. Now please, receive the gift and establish it within yourself.

Do not identify yourself with all false ideas. Say, if you are a Christian then, `I am a Christian. Only Christ is the One.' Yes, He is the One, no doubt, but He means many thing. Or if I'm a Muslim, then Mohammed Sahib is the only One. Or if I'm a Jew, then I do not believe in Christ. There are many like these mad caps all around. You are not that type! Get over these boundaries and false identifications and raise your vision higher, which is called as Adhiṣhṭhāna, you put yourself higher than what you are. Which you are! And just say that, `I'm a seeker of Truth! Does this behove me, my personality. How can I think like that about it!' The Truth has to be universal and has to be for all of them, whether they are Christians, Jews, Hindus, Muslims, atheist. It has to be for every one of you.

So, you do not put it into compartments and strangle it, because then that is the end for your seeking. That is the death of your seeking.

As I told you before, a tree has many flowers and it has beautiful, one, whole personality. People take the flowers with them saying, `This is my flower. This is my flower.' They remove it from the whole and the flowers become ugly and die out. The sap of life moves in the tree all over, it does not stick on to one flower because it is one in unison with the power of God.

We, human beings, are separated, specially for the purpose of our independent development, but, in our wisdom we should be able to see all this around us and learn from it. There are so many thing which teach us that do not get into compartments. Does a tree say that `I belong to England' or `I belong to India'? If it cannot prosper in one climate, it does not, that's all.

As human beings you are the highest and are the wisest and the best. Let God see how this blossoming time flowers you into beautiful fruits of His work, of His creation.

May God bless you all! Will you put your hands like this, towards Me, just like this and take out your shoes? Now, you are here for seeking and not for any mental acrobatics.

So, please, tell your mind to shut up for a while.

So far you have not been able to find it.

All right, so let us go ahead. And now do not put your mind to any exercise. Just put your hands in a very simple manner like this, in a most comfortable position. Do not put any strain on your body. If there is anything tight, please, remove it. And let us sit little comfortably. Just most comfortably, but put both the feet touching on the ground.

[Pause for 2 minutes.] Please, close your eyes. Please, close your eyes, because when Kuṇḍalinī crosses over the Āgñyā, there's a dilatation of the pupil. And then eyes little bit, you see a little bit, blind for a little while, but please, keep them closed, otherwise the Kuṇḍalinī won't cross, you see, because She doesn't want to disturb you, you see.

So, She'll keep below the Āgñyā.

Now, if you cannot close your eyes properly, in the sense that there is a little flickering in the eyelids, please, open them.

[Pause for 30 seconds.] Don't be angry with yourself, you see. It is not true of everyone what I said you. But it is a little bit in everyone of us, a little bit of that lacking sometimes, you see.

So, please, don't be angry with yourself, but love yourself. By loving you will be able to judge it; what is good and bad for you. Just don't think about it. It will work without thinking. With thinking it is not going to work out.

So, just leave your thinking one side. You've not to think. Most of you have become blank.

[Pause for 30 seconds.] You have to get it like a small child wants to have his mother. In the same way, you have to get to the Truth. That's all, very simple. But tell your mind to rest a while, not to take you to too much thinking.

That is very important, because this mind only cheats you all the time. Train it up properly.

[Aside:] You should record it, vibrations.

[Pause for 2 minutes.] If you are getting any Cool Breeze in your hand... All those who have come for the first time should see if there is any Cool Breeze coming in your hand, through your fingers, fingertips.

[Pause for 30 seconds.] You are [UNCLEAR] to the experience. Very good.

[Pause for one and half minutes.] Now, those who are getting Cool Breeze, please, raise your hands, all of you.

[Addressing someone in Hindi:] TUMHE NAHI Ā RAHE? [You are not getting it?] [UNCLEAR].

Those who have come today for the first time, please, raise your hands who are getting Cool Breeze.

For the first time...

[Asking a Sahaja Yogi:] AA RAHA HAI UNKE COOL BREEZE? NAHI Ā RAHA? UNKO BANDHAN DO TOU TUMHARA Ā JAYEGA. [Is he getting Cool Breeze? Not getting? If you give bandhan to him then you will get it.] Now, those who have come for the first time and are not getting Cool Breeze, please, raise your hands.

First time and are not getting Cool Breeze, please, raise your hands.

Have you come for the first time? Have you? This lady... ask her. Have you come... Yes. Are you getting Cool Breeze in the hand? Then raise your hands.

Did you follow My point? Those who have come for the first time and are not getting Cool Breeze, please, raise your hands.

Hanna is he getting Cool Breeze? HĀN? [Yes?] What's the matter? Doubting? You are going to waste all your time, like this, My child... [UNCLEAR]. How are you going to listen? Please, raise... Are you getting Cool Breeze? No. Then again, raise again... All of you who have come for the first time and are not getting Cool Breeze, please, raise your hands. Are you getting Cool Breeze? Good. [UNCLEAR]. I'm so happy! Very happy! You all have got. Are you feeling better now? One, two, three, four... and four... What about that lady there? Are you getting Cool Breeze, no? Getting it? Very good! All right, let it work out. Close your eyes, it will work out, all right? Only four people are not getting vibrations. Have you been to any Gurus? Have you been to any Gurus? Guru, Guru.

What you call them, masters or Gurus or I don't know... what all names. What do you say to Gurus?

... a lady from this place and she told Me that: if there were some film stars coming or some film was to be shown then there would be many more people, the whole place would be packed out, but people have no time for

God. It never amazes Me, it's very true. We have taken everything for granted but we cannot take it for a longer period. You have seen that, in all the affluent countries, wherever people have achieved their well-being through material advancement, [the people] have reached to a stage where they start thinking, why are they created? what is the purpose of their life? Why are they here? Are they here just to be born, earn some living, spend some money, run after power, run after other superficial things, which do not give you a fulfilment [of] the joy that has been promised to us through all the scriptures.

And then they start thinking `After all what is it we are here for?' One has to think why we are made human beings from Amoeba stage. What was the need for us to be human beings? There must be some purpose for our living. When this stage is reached then people don't care for cinema stars or for any awful personalities, so-called, politically or economically, but then they ask for something that is of an eternal nature.

So today we are here to find out if there is something of that kind existing or not. I say there is, but you can't see it. It is all-pervading, you just can't visualise this. You have heard about it that there is God's Divine Power, All-pervading Power, around us. For example if I say that there are lots of pictures around, you just can't see any pictures, except for these bare walls. But there are many pictures here. If you just open the television set you will know that there are many pictures around, but there has to be a television set to catch it. And that catching has to be done by our awareness. But our awareness, as it is, the human awareness, as it is, is not subtle enough to catch that Divine Power about which I am saying.

Now in India we have been talking about it for thousands of years. Even in this country you know that there are so many people who are seeking truth. That stage has come now to many countries and has to come because, when one realises the futility of life one starts thinking `After all why are we here?' When God has made us from Amoeba stage to this stage, He has placed an instrument within us to achieve our last stage where we can become His instruments and that His Divine Power, which is all-pervading, that is flowing through us, we can perceive and we can visualise it.

It's a question of actualisation of this experience, it's not sermoning, that I stand here and talk about God and all `You must be like this and you should not do this and you should not do that.' But it's a question of actualizing the experience of that Divine Power within you. If there are some medical students here or medical doctors they will understand that, within us, there is a system which we call as Autonomous Nervous System, which looks after our Autonomous work, means which is done by `Auto'. Now who is this `Auto'? In Sanskrit language, if you translate it, it would be Swayam Chalit –'self-movement'. Now who is this Swayam, who is this Auto? This is what they have not been able to say. For example, if you run fast your heart will start beating fast but automatically it comes down. Now who does it? There must be someone who does this job. Even the heart that is beating, who is beating the heart? Who is digesting the food? Who is looking after us? How are we born? Human beings cannot even transform one flower into a fruit.

While there is Someone who is doing millions and millions of such living things while human beings are doing only dead work. Like there was these dead stones and dead clay out of which we have created this beautiful hall. But this is all dead from dead. We are just changing the forms. Living things we have not been able to achieve and have not been able do.

We have to become really living or enlightened. Unless and until we are that we cannot do it.

Now what is the system, within us, that God has placed is to be understood, in short. Because if I start telling you all the engineering you will be bored stiff. There is an engineering, for example if I have to tell you to put the lights on, I just tell you that “Please push that button” and it would be on. But, if I have to tell you all the engineering that worked out this electricity here and then all the [description about the] way the history has brought this progress in electricity, you'll be completely bored stiff. That's why I said, first of all, you get the light inside, by putting your hands towards Me and getting the Cool Breeze flowing into you. I wonder how many of you have got it? Those who have got it and those who haven't got it, both of them, we are going to look after that.

Now the thing is, it's a living process which has to happen to us. Or I would say it's an evolutionary process, the ultimate of it, the end of it the Yoga. Yoga means the union with God. It means two things, one is the union of your Self with God and secondly it means the deftness, the Kaushala, the technique, how it happens and which way it works out and how you can manoeuvre. These are the two sides of Yoga.

Now when we think of Yoga, normally we think about standing on our heads or reducing our weights or something like that. It's just a very wee, wee part of the whole Yoga even according to Patanjali. Patanjali has brought Haṭha Yoga on this earth, but it was to be done only up to the age of twenty years, when you lived a very celibate life in the jungles. And the few things that we are doing, called as `Āsanas' has a very big significance, no doubt, but it is to be used with a proper understanding of it. For example, it's an exercise, physical exercise, to keep your particular centers, in your being, alright. But if you do not know what are the centers, what's the matter with you; supposing you do not know what's wrong with you, what exercise are you going to take? You might be harming yourself.

We do not take all the medicinal shop just to cure one disease and if you have no disease, what's the need to take such a strenuous thing like Haṭha Yoga. I mean it is such a mistake, I would say and such a misappropriation of the knowledge that people start thinking that, if we have to take to Yoga, it's only for our physical being. But we are not only the physical being; we are also emotional being, we are also mental being and we are also spiritual being.

Yoga means our union, the attention of human beings should become one with the Divine Power. This is a simple meaning of Yoga is `the union'. The rest of it is just a means to an end and those means if they are used in such an imbalanced manner and so much in a biased manner, or you can say, only a wee part of it, then, you can imagine, what will happen to this body.

This Yoga has to take place. According to all the scriptures that is the way we have to be. Unless and until that happens to us, we can never be peaceful, we cannot feel alright and cannot feel that we have any meaning in life. But it is much more than that; like, in the scriptures, in the Bible, Christ has said that you are to be born again. Now what does that mean? Even in the Koran it is said that you have to become a Pīr. First of all you have to become a Muslim, means you have to surrender yourself and then you have to become a Pīr. Only by surrendering it does not work out.

So all these things that we heard so far and the science that has progressed so far, lead us to one point that: there is still something missing in us; we are not yet perfect beings. We have to know our meaning.

We are not yet perfect and something has to happen in us that should give us the complete idea as to what we are. For example, now this [microphone] is an instrument we have created here, for a purpose, but unless and until it is put to the mains, it cannot work. In the same way, if we are not put to the mains the instrument that is a human being, cannot work it out and that's why this happening must take place.

But for that what are we to do? What did we do to get this nose? And what did we do to get these eyes? What did we do to get this body? Nothing. We have taken it for granted. In the same way, what are we to do for our future evolution? Nothing.

What did you do to become a human being from a monkey stage? Nothing. And in the same way you are not to do anything, but this has to happen by God's grace. It is His grace that is going to work it out. And when somebody who has the authority of this grace, or somebody who can manoeuvre this grace and the one who is already graced or, we can say, the one who is already a Self-realised person can only do this. Without this the life has no meaning, no joy, no happiness. Many people these days you find are talking about tensions. “We have too much tension, we have too much of worry, life is very fast. What to do how to live?" The reason is, you are still lost in your ego and superego, because you think `I have to do this, I must get it done' and `This is my idea of doing' a particular thing. You depend on a certain conception of something to be done and when you find it is not done you get frustrated and unhappy.

Because all your attention is on what you can do and not on what God can do to you. It can only happen if you become a part and parcel of that Divine Power. Otherwise, by giving lectures, that `you just leave everything to God' it is not going to happen. It's a happening which has to work out within you, that, suddenly you become that, you become the part of that great dynamic force and it starts flowing through you. And through this only, you'll be amazed that wondrous things happen and miracles take place. For example, we'll say cancer.

Now the disease of cancer cannot be cured, except for with Sahaja Yoga. You'll be amazed, we have cured so many patients of cancer. And once you get your realisation it is very hard to get to cancer. The reason is, the power that we have got stored within us, we are using all the time through our sympathetic [nervous] system. Now that power is limited and that limited power gets exhausted. When the energy comes to the least position then we get so excited that the cells in that system start growing on their own.

Like, in a broken home, a child starts running amuck.

So these cells when they become amuck, or they start on their own, they overgrow and malignancy sets in, that's how cancer is caused.

Now this cancer can be absolutely corrected if you, somehow or other, pour that energy into that person, into that patient. Now this energy is all-pervading as I say. I mean, you need not believe Me, but if you keep your mind open you will know that this power exists around us. And this power is stored within us up to a point. If you could, somehow or other, open up yourself to this Divine Power then the power is all the time flowing in you and you do not have any problem of exhausting it. For example you are going by a car and the car has got limited petrol and you are worried and you are in tension, because you think the petrol will be over. But supposing by any chance, if you are connected to the mains and all the time this petrol is flowing in the tank you won't have any problem. In the same way if you could be connected to this Divine force you will be surprised, you will not worry.

As you know, rationally also, that worry doesn't give you any help. It never gives you any help, on the contrary it exhausts you. This worry is a myth and all such myths, we have so many of them, one better than another. And we are so much misidentified with all these mythical things of the world and we are so much worried about useless things that [in spite of] this beautiful life that God has created us as human beings, for us to enter into His Kingdom, to enjoy His blissful presence, we have become the most miserable animals. No animal is as miserable because they never commit suicide. We are the only animals who commit suicide and who try to do all kinds of nonsensical things. We are the people who are known for creating all kinds of institutions like insurances and such instruments by which we suggest that we are extremely insecure. Animals don't have any sense of insecurity. They live in the jungles, they have always the danger of a higher animal trying to harm them, but they are never that upset, they are never that worried. Why human beings have to worry so much? The reason is simple, that the human beings have not yet achieved this oneness with the Divine.

Now this oneness with the Divine has to be achieved, by human beings and God has given us freedom to be ourselves, to begin with. He has given us freedom for one reason, so that we should know what is right and what is wrong. In our own freedom we should decide. No use going to churches or to temples or any place where people give you lectures saying `Don't do this and don't do that.' You are a human being and a wise person, you know for yourself what is wrong and what is right. But why is it that we do not take to the right course? For example, we see a man coming out of the pub, falling all over, people beating him up and taking him away to a police station. But here we are anxious to enter into the same pub, to come back in the same way.

Now, you cannot explain these things. Why human beings knowingly do such things, but they do.

The reason is they are not yet clear-cut about what is their being. They have not evaluated themselves, they have not been able to understand what an important thing it is to be a human being and once this happens, this happening takes place, I'm not saying it is a lecture but a happening, it takes place, you immediately become a transformed personality, a different personality, a different personality and you'll be amazed after this what happens. It's a wondrous thing and I hope it will happen to all of you.

Now today, somehow, our people from London have not yet reached and we have had a little misunderstanding about timings and things. But whatever it is, whatever is the small number we have from Cardiff, I would like to work on you people and to see and tell you all about it, what we have within ourselves and what is the thing that works out your system. Now within ourselves, we have, at the back, if somebody can stand here I'll show you. He's Doctor Rustom from England. He's come, he's also a psychologist and he's with us now. If you can turn round I will show them now.

In our body, here in the triangular bone, resides that germinating force and that germinating force is there, which rises through the spinal cord, through six other centers and emerges out of the Fontanelle bone area in the brain. Now what we `baptism' is the same thing. When this happens, this portion becomes absolutely soft like a child's portion. When you are a child you are not yet free, in the sense that God has yet kept you under His care. But when you start growing the ego and the superego, on both the sides, start developing and you form a complete `I'-ness.

So you become `Doctor Rustom' or you become X, Y, Z. Now the same thing is lying down here, that germinating force and She rises, She's called as Kuṇḍalinī and She rises straight on, like this, between, passing through, the different centers which are denoting our evolutionary force. Like we can say that we have all these stages of our evolution within ourselves and these are all the stages which are placed within us and these are all the different centers, which are seven in number. One is below the Kuṇḍalinī and there are six above it. Out of them, the one that is here, is the center between the Optic Chiasma, where the two optic nerves meet. And that's the point they call the `third eye' and that's a very important point and this is the point of Christ. This is the point where you see this red mark [bindi] is the point of Christ and when the Kuṇḍalinī rises She awakens all these deities. For example, Mohammed Sahib, is in the void. All the Guru's like Mohammed Sahib, all the prophets, are in the void here, in the stomach. Because these people haven't arrived I haven't got My map [Chakra Chart] here but they might be arriving any time then you can have a look at it.

And like these centers that are here, we have all these deities, these leaders who came to save us, on this earth. We call it in Sanskrit `Dash Avatāras' [ten Incarnations]. And then we have so many prophets like Mohammed Sahib and like Moses, Abraham. All these are great Prophets. They are all settled within ourselves here. You will be amazed that they are in a dormant condition. When this Kuṇḍalinī rises upward She gives power to all of them and they start working and then they open out here, on the head, on top. You can see Dr's head, he's here, is absolutely like a child here. Is just like a child has a dimple, or you can say a portion which is very soft. In the same way it happens to you in your head and you become one with that All-pervading subtle Power.

And this, once it happens, then you get all the blessings of physical health, emotional well-being, many mad people have been cured by this and also of mental enhancement; that you start seeing things as they are. Because you enter into the realm, as soon as the Kuṇḍalinī crosses over this point [Āgñyā], you enter into the realm where there is no thought. You are aware, but you become thoughtless.

In thoughtlessness, only, you can see things much more clearly. Because supposing you see a particular scene, there is a thought in between. Then you start thinking `how much it must have cost? From where it must have come?' and you cannot enjoy that scene directly. But if there is not thought, like a rippleless lake, the whole joy of that creation is reflected in it and you start enjoying it. But it only happens if the Kuṇḍalinī has crossed up to this point. But when it pierces through this [Sahasrāra] you start feeling the Cool Breeze in the hand, flowing.

Now all these centers are reflected on our fingers here. All these centers like, from here you can say, one, first one is here. Second and then the third and then the fourth fifth and sixth and this is the seventh.

All these seven centers are reflected on our fingers and hands, on this one and this one. And after that you can start feeling your Self and others on these fingers, to begin with. Later on as you grow in it and mature in it, then you start feeling within yourself. For example, this starts moving from, say, this center, which is below the Kuṇḍalinī. And this does not take any role in the awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī, except that it informs, [the Kuṇḍalinī] that, there is somebody who knows the job.

Now this Kuṇḍalinī rises without any harm, without any trouble, in a very straightforward manner.

Now there are books, you might have read, some of you, that, “Kuṇḍalinī rising is the most hazardous thing, it creates lots of problems" and all sorts of things. But here I am before you. I must have given Kuṇḍalinī awakening to thousands of people in India and abroad, but have not seen this thing happening to even one person. This thing happens to people who do not know the job because supposing you do not know what is electricity, you'll always get a shock. And then you will say that “electricity means shock." If you do not know how to manoeuvre the power and if you are not authorized to do it, if you do something unauthorized, you are going to fall into problems.

This is what happens and this is why there is such a lot of writing against Kuṇḍalinī. People say Kuṇḍalinī should not be risen. After all this is the germinating power within us. It's like a primule, it's the `Aṅkura' within us, which has to sprout to make us living and enlightened. This is what we have to achieve and this is what we call, is to be `born again'. And this Indians know very well that we all have to be `born again', we have to be Self-realised and we have to have Ātmā-sākṣhāt-kār. Everyone, who has a little idea about the scriptures, knows about it.

Now as far as the science is concerned. Science people cannot understand it because they deal only with the wee part of life. What is science is, that you are dealing with the dead. Whatever is available, you just take it out and see for yourself that it is there. For example, you can say that there is gravity.

Alright, but why? How gravity has come into it? Why gravity has come into it? No scientist can answer.

But they are such arrogant people that they think that there is no God. How can they say that when they cannot answer a few questions like this? For example in the body, in our own body, he's a doctor and there are many other doctors. I Myself have done medicine and they cannot answer many questions like, for example, there is something like acetylcholine and adrenaline, two chemicals in our being. Now when they are in the body, their mode of action is that they have to augment or to relax, cannot be explained.

And they say that they behave like human beings, we don't know how they think about it. It cannot be explained.

Another simple example could be that when any foreign body goes into your stomach, then you throw it away. Anywhere in the body, if there is a foreign thing coming in, it is thrown away. But when a child is to be born, you know that the foetus is retained. Not only retained but looked after and nurtured and matured. And when it is ready then, exactly at the right time when it is absolutely ready, then it is thrown out of the system. Who does this? Who does this understanding? And who manages this? The discrimination between the two, doctors cannot understand. They can say that “here is a finger and if you open it there is this muscle" and “there is this thing and there is a heart" but they do not know why it is there, why this finger is placed here, what does this mean and what does it relate to.

Now with your naked eyes, you can see the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī in many people. Now as it is there are very few and most of you have got it, but when there is somebody with an obstructed second Chakra or third Chakra, then you can see the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī.

So many of these, who are here, have seen it. With your naked eyes you can see it. Then as, it rises higher and higher, you can see the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī, you can see the wave moving up. And inside you can feel absolutely peaceful in your brain.

You become absolutely thoughtless and aware of it. This happens in a split of a second, if you are really ready. For children it takes no time, it happens just like that.

But, you see, for elderly people, or people who are involved in some extreme habits, like a person who is an athlete. We had, the other day, a big tennis player coming over and it would not rise, because he was full of it, you see; he was a big tennis player and a big man and a great person; so the Kuṇḍalinī said `alright, wait for a while. You're too great for me!' So it would not rise.

And then with some people who are `Atikarmis' –'very hard workers'; working very hard, doing something too much. With them also, the Kuṇḍalinī doesn't rise. Those people who are temperate, who are in the center, who are not arrogant, who are humble people, only for them the Kuṇḍalinī rises. And I have seen people that cannot understand why, in very simple, ordinary people who come to Me, the Kuṇḍalinī rises and when these big, big people come to Me it does not rise. It's a simple thing is, that, are you a human being who has led a normal, balanced, simple life? If you are an abnormal person, then the Kuṇḍalinī is not for them. It is for the middle type of people, the people who have led a life of a middle path; not of extremes. There are so many factors to explain to you, especially if you have a physical problem. Say somebody's suffering from diabetes, which is a common disease of the modern times and doctors cannot cure it. We can cure it, no doubt. The reason is that diabetes is caused to people because there is one center which thinks and which looks after, also, the pancreas and also the spleen, the kidneys, the liver. Now if you are a person who is a planner all the time, planning for tomorrow and planning too much and `we must do this'. And all the plans fail. If you plan too much the plans will fail. If you just see the plan of God and fit your plans with it, that's the way to be successful in your plans.

Now when you start planning too much, you plan it so much that this particular center, which we call as Swādhiṣhṭhāna center, which manifests the Aortic plexus within us, is given such a lot of work that it stops supplying any energy to the pancreas and, as a result, we get diabetes. But if you could give a balance to that particular center, by giving power to it, you can cure diabetes very easily. Diabetes, people who lead a very temperate life, they do not suffer from such a disease like diabetes.

There is heart trouble now. Heart trouble is a very common thing that people suffer from. That is also caused by the over-activity of the mental self. For example, Haṭha Yogis, so-called, who are worried about their physical being and everybody is trying to be a wrestler or a cinema actor. They run, I have seen people running for hours together and miles together. They lose all their power, even, to feel. They lose all their feelings for anybody else. They become dry people and such people can get a heart attack in no time. Those who are great thinkers and those who are planners and are great politicians, you can say, or great economists and all that, those people also get to heart attack. The reason is that the life is very imbalanced. They do not see to the left hand side, they do not see that they have an emotional being also within them which is being starved. And they freeze the left side. By that freezing they get the heart attack.

Once you come to Sahaja Yoga, you become one with the Divine. The force starts flowing through you and you become radiant. You become much younger. You start looking much healthier and your temperament becomes very happy and jolly. You don't worry then because there's a hole here [at Sahasrāra] and all the worries pass through that hole. You cannot worry. Even if you want to you just can't worry.

You don't mind, you take things as they are. If there is a palace for you to live it's alright, if it is not you can sleep under a tree and enjoy yourself. Such a person doesn't take any sleeping pills or any such medicines that requires attention from people who are all the time worried about something which is very, very temporary.

Once you get this eternal thing flowing in you, this gives power to all your beings and completely integrates you. For example, those people who do some work, then they think `Oh, mentally it's alright, but emotionally it's not alright. You see, I'm working in the office but I neglect my wife. I don't know what to do. Now this is alright but that is not alright. Should I do it or not?' All these problems are solved because you get completely integrated. All your being supports you. You start feeling your Chakras.

That is what is Self-knowledge. You start seeing them, feeling them. You start understanding what's the matter with you, where is the problem, where is the catch; `where am I catching? what is troubling me?' You start curing yourself.

You can feel others also because you jump into a new awareness called as collective consciousness. For example, in every country, if you go, or in United Nations, if you go and here there, people give big, big lectures. They'll say “We are all brothers and sisters." Now how are we to believe this? It's not a fact for us. You see, we have to just tell ourselves all the time “We are all brothers and sisters” but we are not.

That's what we realise. We think we are all separate people, how can we be brothers and sisters? But by this happening you just become one [with them]. Like you become a part and parcel of one being. You can feel your own finger. In the same way, you start feeling others.

What happens is that, now, as you are all sitting separately, you are all connected with each other through a thread that is passing through you. But just now you are disconnected because there is a blockage in between here, in the head. Once this connection is established then you start becoming one with everyone. Like if this finger has, supposing, lost its nervous feeling. It cannot feel other things and the body doesn't feel it either. But supposing the nerves are opened out, then it starts feeling the whole.

In the same way we can understand it, that, supposing there are many pearls and there is one string passing through them. If your attention is on the pearl, then you think `You are separate, I am separate, he is separate.' But somehow, if your attention passes into the thread then you can pass into everyone, and you are collectively one.

When it happens, then only, this unity that we are talking about is established. This wholesomeness is established. It is not by giving lectures and telling people that we are brothers and sisters and we should live together. Husband and wife cannot live together, let alone the whole world. Unless and until this happening takes place this won't work out and that's why this has to happen.

It is that the time has come. This used to happen to one in a million. At the time of Rāja Janaka, who lived in Bihar as you know and there are many people from Bihar, there was only one, Nachiketa, who got realisation. Can you imagine that? But today the time has come, the blossom time has come.

When there is the beginning of the tree only one little flower appears. After some time there are three or four flowers appearing. But when the blossom time comes many flowers are transformed into a fruit.

And this is the time that has come and if people miss this time, it's going to be very difficult because the time is coming when the last sorting out will start and all those who have not achieved this will be sorted out and will be taken away. Like the husk of the wheat which has not yet ripened.

So the time is very important. Give up your ego. Give up your arrogance and just get it. To get to it you don't have to pay for it because you cannot sell love. This is God's Divine Love. Those Gurus who take money, know that they are the ones who are here just to cheat you.

You cannot sell it in the market. You cannot sell it. Those who are selling it are sinful people. God's love cannot be sold in the market. But we have lots of these commodities being exported these days, from India also. Here also, I have seen, there are many people who have come up and, about them, all the Purānas, all the scriptures have talked about calling them `fake Gurus'. “This cannot be sold. This cannot be worked out. It is effortless" is written everywhere and that's why it is necessary for us to understand that, when somebody tries to say that “Alright, you can pay for it” he is just trying to pamper your ego.

You cannot learn it by education. You cannot get it by talking about it or by arguing about it. It can happen only within you if you are in a mood, in a condition or in a deserving position to receive it. But there are so many deserving, I am amazed that, there are thousands and thousands who are deserving. If they only come to Sahaja Yoga it can work out.

So the system of Sahaja Yoga is not My own, as such, as people think, that it's My own. It has been going on for ages and ages. Everything that has happened in this world, that is living, has been spontaneous. Even the creation of this world has been spontaneous. In the same way, this happening, where you jump into this new awareness, where your evolution has to culminate, you have to become that, is also spontaneous, effortless and done through the grace of God.

May God bless you all.

I would like to have some questions from you and then I would like to see if you get this, because that is the main thing, is to get to it. Have you any questions? Please ask.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That's it, correct. That's the trick. He's got the right point, you see, how the Kuṇḍalinī rises. As I said it's a spontaneous thing. Now how a flower becomes a fruit? How a seed sprouts? It works out this way, it's very simple to understand. When the sun rises the sun’s rays fall onto the fruit and the fruit has got the built in mechanism within it, or the seed has got the built in mechanism within it which just starts. In the same way, you have got the built in mechanism within you and maybe I am authorized for that and it works out in My presence. But once it works out in you, it works out in others.

It's like one light enlightening another light. For example, only a candle which is enlightened can enlighten another candle, isn't it? But once the other candle is enlightened you can equally enlighten another candle. It's like this. Maybe I'm the one who started this joke. Do you have any objection for that? And then you can do it and the others can do it. It is something, just enlightening another light.

Because it's all ready. Your candle is all ready. Once I enlighten you, you will start enlightening another person. It is that spontaneous. Alright? Question: Do you need to put in any effort?

Shri Mataji: Nothing, nothing. You do not need to put in any effort. If you do not put in any effort then it works out faster. Effort spoils it more. It's like this, I would say, that supposing you don't know how to swim and a person who knows how to swim comes along and he tries to save you. Then if you try to put in an effort, you make it difficult. But the person who knows how to swim, can teach you how to swim, later on, after saving you. And then you can teach others also.

So just now if you put in effort it might hamper the progress. But it just works out in a very very simple manner.

It radiates from My being, what can I do about it? It does. And it was there since I was born. I knew about it. But I started My work much later because I wanted to do it en masse. That it should happen to many people.

So I had to study what the problems with human beings are, how they are obstructed. You cannot do it with effort. That is one thing which is difficult for man to understand and accept, because of our ego comes in. What did you do to become a human being? Just think like that. Nothing. But the beauty of the whole thing is that, only after you have become a human being, at the next stage of evolution, you are going to see it, you are going to watch it and you are going to know it. This is the only thing is that, because you are a free person, God has given you a speciality. By raising your head you have developed a center within yourself, by which, you have become separated from the whole, no doubt, but also you have developed yourself in such a way that, when you get your realisation, you can feel it and see it, that you have become a different person.

It sounds very fantastic but it is very simple too. Now how do you do it? If I tell you, as I have told you, that you have to just put both your hands towards Me for the time being. Just like this. Just like this. And it works out. In the way we do to a Mass [UNCLEAR], you see, in the same way, you put your hands towards Me. Your finger tips are manifesting all the sympathetic centers within you and they receive. And it passes through your hands and gives an invitation to your Kuṇḍalinī and it works out. But even, say Doctor Rustom, or any one of these who are here, realised Souls; they look like you only, but you can see from their faces, the way they are, that they can do it too. And you can do it too. It's a very, very simple method which should be worked out and once you learn how to manoeuvre it and understand it, it works wonders.

But it happens, in this country I've seen, especially and in the Western countries, especially, it happens that, after realisation they start rationalizing it and thinking about it,

“How can it be?" They forget the experience that they had and then they go down.

So please, do not go down, but go higher and higher today. It is an experience. We have, from Cardiff, somebody sitting here who has received it. He came all the way and he got it there and he's just here and so many of them have got it all over the country here.

They have lost their identity as, say, `Britishers' or Indians and all this and they have become so much one with each other. Such integration has taken place, you have no idea.

May God bless you all.

Let us see if it works out in you. And if it does not work out we'll have to see what are the centers, where are they, how we have to work it out. It's only with movement of the hand that you can do it, because the force is flowing through your fingers. It happens and it should happen to you because it has been promised and that is what God wants to see, His creation coming to its fruition. He won't allow His creation to be destroyed, which he created with such care.

Come a little forward because when the music will come in, they start coming forward, you see.

So that they get disturb. [UNCLEAR].

Yesterday, I met a lady and she told Me that she was seeking God. I said, “What do you think of God, what are you seeking?" When we say we are seeking, do we know what are we supposed to seek and do we understand how we are going to feel our seeking complete, that we have reached the destination? As last time, I told you that seeking has to be genuine, from a genuine heart and that you cannot purchase, or you cannot put in effort about it. But today I would like to tell you what are we seeking.

Let us see how the seeking comes within us, from where? As shown here, there is a center called as Nābhī Chakra, which is here in the center [UNCLEAR], Nābhī Chakra, which is placed in our spinal cord and manifests the solar plexus which is placed midway under your navel. This is the center that creates the seeking within us. Seeking is only possible when something is living. For example, what is the seeking of this chair? It cannot think, it cannot move, you can put it here or you can put it on the street. You can smash it and throw it away, again use that wood for some other purpose or make a stool out of it. It has no seeking of any kind. Only when a thing becomes a living being like a amoeba you can take a unicellular egg. It starts manifesting seeking because it is supposed to seek. Not the dead.

So those who say we are not seeking are as good as dead. Those who say we are seeking are living and also kicking. The little bit if you understand that a desire is created within a little animal, called as amoeba, by giving him hunger.

Just think of it. It has no brain. It has a just a small nucleus but it can feel it is hungry. It has to eat something to grow. It also knows it has to reproduce and then it starts seeking. It also knows how to take the food in, but it does not know how it digests. That part is not his job. Even for us just the same.

So the seeking starts in a little amoeba and the whole evolution is based on that seeking, gradually improving and improving the ways and means of seeking, while the desire is that of food only, alone. There is also another desire or, you can say, an emotion, in the smallest of amoeba is a sense of preservation. It knows the dangers that can finish his existence. When this little amoeba becomes a human being, in thousands and thousands of years, then the seeking is changed. In the beginning it starts, of course the food seeking is still there, that's the basis, you must have food to begin with. Of course the methods are improved, changed, evolved for the seeking of food, but there is also a great understanding of how to preserve yourself and your clan. The clubbing starts from a very early age, even ants understand that.

So they understand that we all have to club together, unite together, integrate together, if we have to protect ourselves. And this seeking of wholesomeness also develops gradually in the human beings and the expressions of that is, you can see, all our efforts to preserve ourselves and to be clubbed together. These efforts are expressed in our political and in our economic enterprises. Now in the human being a new seeking starts: is to have power over others. Animals do not seek power, they have. For example a tiger is much more powerful than, say, a poor rabbit. He is born like that. And a rabbit does not want to become a tiger. He does not try like every Dick, Tom and Harry would like to become a prime minister. But a rabbit would not try to be a tiger, he understands `I am a rabbit and I must develop my means of defences and my means of offenses by which I exist.' In the same way the tiger acts, he is aware of his powers and also he is aware of his limitations. And some of the animals also have a power of leadership in them. They become leaders.

You must have seen some birds that they have a leader, one leader going and wherever that leader changes the direction, all of them change as if they are like the tail of that leader. In the same way, the same way that goes that bird goes, the leader goes all of them follow.

So this also is expressed in human being in a very big way that there are some born leaders who lead a group of people to some destination in which they fulfil the seeking of that group. Now the seeking of the groups could be money, mostly it is. Now money animals don't understand, this is the creation of human beings only.

So for them money becomes very important because it is their own creation. We had barter systems, but then we thought it is better to have some sort of a medium which will convert one good into another, so we start the money.

So the focus of man's attention from food goes to power and from power to money.

Sometimes if somebody has lots of money, then he wants to have power. It's but natural. There is nothing wrong in it, as such. Fundamentally, it is a thing which is natural for human beings to run after money and then run after power or vice versa.

But beyond that starts another seeking, is the seeking of knowing why are we here? What are we doing here? What is the purpose of our life? Why God has created us? To what purpose, to what end or it is just a joke going around? Are we just foolishly being born, getting married, having children and dying like amoeba? Or have we any other purpose? Many human beings do not go beyond money or health, they want good health. I mean animals don't take any exercises as far as I know. But human beings can go to any extent to preserve their health, but for what? I mean, you may be a wrestler, for what? Just to fight each other? You might be the healthiest person living on this earth, but for what? You are just a waste.

What is your use? You may be the wealthiest man going in the best cars and the whatever you may call it, all the so-called luxuries of life and material well-being, but for what? When such a question comes into our mind the new kind of seeking starts, which asks the question, why are you here? Are you here just to run in this rat race morning till evening, earning money and earning power and doing all useless activities, pleasing others to show off your money or to extract some money from others? Is that the aim of your life? Now this is the beginning of the fourth enquiry, or the fourth dimension in your awareness. This enquiry is also the flowering of the same rudimentary thing called as hunger: hunger for spirituality, hunger for God, hunger for higher things of life. It starts within us, that I call is the genuine happening. In this seeking, we get confused, because by the time this seeking starts in you, you are already famished and finished. How? Because you are already conditioned by all kinds of nonsensical things going on. You may be calling yourself a British or a Indian or some sort of an Australian or I don't know all sorts of things that people call themselves, but in the eyes of God, you are just a human being, You are, I mean you don't have a tail to begin with and you don't have your head bent down like this you have your head upright.

Whether you are in Africa or India, or in England or America, it's just the same. As long as your head is up like that and you don't have a tail, of course some people must be having, the way they behave, you are definitely a human being. And if a human being if he is evolved through various experiences of life and realises that none of these experiences have really given him the fulfilment and the answer to his question `Why are we here?' then the turning point takes place in his life and he becomes a seeker. Not before that.

Those who go to Gurus and say, “Mother, will you please give a job to my son” then you don't know what to say, you should say to such a person, “Now my child, you are not yet fit, you are not yet mature to come down yet." Or if you go to someone to ask for, say, a diamond ring. Or anyone says that I give diamond ring in the name of God and you are quite satisfied with such an answer, then you are no good as a seeker, no good. Useless for Sahaj Yoga specially. Or somebody who says, “I will cure you" and for [UNCLEAR curative] you go to someone, alright, the person may cure you, but you are no good as a seeker. Why should God cure anyone who is not seeking God? I mean, why should I repair this instrument if it is not going to carry my voice? Or else some of you, if you go to a Guru and if he tells you a story like this, that you have to pay me some money for this, because if you don't pay me money you cannot be involved into this kind of a thing, you better slap such a Guru on his face and tell him that `What do you think of me?' It's complete indignity to your seeking. He wants to involve you through taking money from you. Can't you see that he is insulting you by saying that you are such a materialist, that when you give me money then only you will be attached to seeking of God? Just think of it. All such arguments people give you and if you accept them and if you follow such Gurus you cannot mature for seeking.

As you have to be genuine, you have to be wise to understand that you are seeking your fulfilment.

You are not seeking money and diamond rings and these tomfooleries that are going on and you are not there to witness them and these foolish magical tricks of people, but you are going to witness the magic of God. Then in the seeking also you must know that if God is the universal being, anybody who professes that we are the chosen ones and nobody else can be a chosen one or he was the only prophet and he was the only God and because you belong to some organization, it is nothing but absurd fanaticism and ugliness.

Do not deceive yourself. Please try to understand: self-deception will never be forgiven by God. Amoeba, does he deceive himself if he sees the food there, does he? Or a lion or even a frog, it has such a little brain. It understand what it is seeking, Will he deceive himself? But human beings deceive themselves morning till evening. We have to seek God. We have to seek our fulfilment. We have to relate to that wholesomeness that is God, the primordial being. The whole of it, this is what we have to seek. You are created for that.

If you study a little foetus in the womb of the mother, you will be amazed that the whole of the foetus is looked after by the navel cord from the mother and though all the portions of the foetus are not yet fully developed as to get connected with the brain completely from the very beginning, still through one channel it is fed, looked after, managed. Then the child is removed from the mother when the child is born and gradually all the sensations and coordinations of all these different sensory organs and organs of motion and organs of automatic functions are created gradually, very gradually, as he starts growing. But once the connections are established, a human being starts acting. On his own the whole body acts together; it knows when it is pinched. Here in the finger the whole body knows that you are pinched, the whole knows about what has happened. The whole connection is established. It's a living process, it's a growing process which works out. But with human beings there is a very big problem. The biggest problem I would say that they are always identified with imperfections, with wrong ideas and only in the human being these things happen, that's why one has to be careful. Dog can smell better than you do and it knows what to eat, what not to eat. You don't know. You don't know what is a real Guru and a dirty Guru and horrible Guru and a vicious man. You cannot make out.

Somebody runs out of the jail, he wears a dress, comes to England, “I am the Guru", great and thousands will be running. They don't know and the more he has, the better it is.

But there is a way. God has already placed that within yourself. For your growth he has placed within you, only He is testing your genuineness but if you are so obstinate as to stick on to some misidentified nonsensical things you cannot work it out. Be free from all these things, open out yourself. You all have to be aware of the whole. You all have to get Self-realisation. Though by that, God will feel your fulfilment of His creation, no doubt and He has to do it, He will do it, but He'll have to work very hard. And still and still if you do not accept the truth, then the truth will be expressed, no doubt, but then, the untruth has to be destroyed. And at that time, those who are identified with untruth will be also destroyed. Before that, take heed to your wisdom and know what we have to seek? We have to seek our wholesomeness, which we have partially expressed in our political and economical and social clubs.

All this has to be integrated, all the great religions which have been propounded in the growth of human beings, which have substantially helped in the growth of human beings, which are the substratum of their living, has to be integrated in that habit. For example, I meet supposing a Hindu, then he says, “Mother, how do You talk of Christ? We don't believe in Christ." Now you are a very great person not to believe in Christ. Who are you not to believe in Christ? What do you think of yourself? What do you mean by saying that you don't believe in Christ? Do you know it is blasphemous to say such horrible things about any great incarnation on this earth? There are some who say, “We do not believe in Moses, or in Guru Nanaka or in Mohammed Sahib." Who are you? I don't believe, I don't believe. What is your belief? On what it is based? Why do you say such things? What do you know about them? Only by going to churches or going to these mosques or going to these synagogues. They are blind making you blind. What have you achieved but nothing but stark fanaticism? It's a disease. It's sickness.

Just come in the Kingdom of God and you will see that they are all seated there on the dais, they are all together and you like fools are fighting. Did they ever say that, for example, when Christ came did He say that Moses was wrong, did He say so? When Nanaka came, did He say that Mohammed was wrong? Did anyone of these great saints say so? Then who are you to denounce them? This is one of the greatest hurdles of so-called seekers. Then they are identified with their Gurus. I asked them one question, “If you are so much identified with your Guru, go ahead with them; why do you come to Me?" “I come to You, Mother, because I am suffering from asthma, since I went to that Guru." “Then ask him to cure you. Why do you come to Me? If your Guru has given you whatever you wanted, why should you come to Me? If he is a real Guru, I would see it written large on your face. I can make it out and I'll worship that man who is a real Guru. I will go all out to meet such a person and I will regard him as the greatest blessing for Me also, but they are very few and all hidden in the Himālayas or some places from where they do not speak.

Nobody listens to them. They are very few. One of them tried to go to America; within five days he was back in India. He wrote to Me saying, `Mother, very difficult.' " Because you are identified with games, with playing games, you like people who play games with you.

You do not like people who tell you the truth. This is it. You have to have it but you must know is the concern. How can anybody who loves you can tell you something that is detrimental or injurious or absolutely dangerous for you? They will not tell you, those who are fake will never tell you about anyone.

They will say everything is fine on the other side of the earth, till somebody genuine comes up. They are not going to say a word about it, take it from Me.

So in your seeking first of all your misidentifications must drop out. You are so misidentified with so many things, like people would say, `Why should we follow Christ, He was a Jew.' I mean, He has to be born in some place somewhere. And as it happens you have to belong to some religion somewhere. You have to be born in England or you have to be born in India, or maybe in Timbuktu. I mean, you have to be born in some place.

So the rest of them say “No." And those who live there also say, “He is no good because he was just born like us here." They want somebody to drop from heaven. It is so funny.

So for us, those who are genuine seekers, must open their mind fully and if you want to waste your time, go ahead; you go ahead with your Gurus, go on wondering their marvels, giving them money, giving them your women, giving them your property, giving them everything that you have, getting sick, mad, ending up in lunatic asylum, I will not say `Come, My child, come to Me.' But even then from the lunatic asylum also if you realise your mistakes and come, then God is the ocean of forgiveness. But from the very beginning I have to warn you, all such people are wasting their time and My time.

So please all such people who are still very much misidentified, please do not trouble Me with their arguments too much.

Because always I find that they are supposed to be true seekers like the lady yesterday and she started telling Me, “Have you read this book?" and “Have you read that book?" I said, “I would, but by reading that I do not find anything in you. You have read them, what have you achieved? Have you achieved anything?" Nothing. “Have you seen this Guru and that Guru and that Guru and that Guru?" I said, “Maybe, but what about you, what have you got?" She has asthma. One eye is blown off, she cannot sit, she has got a rigid body because she says she has rheumatism. She is actually possessed. And there she is a seeker and then she asks Me a question, “Mother, I am a seeker and why should God be so unkind to me?" “You did not use your wisdom, My child." Even today, take heed to wisdom and know that thy God loves you with all His heart, with all His soul whether you love Him or not. He has placed this seeking within you. He has placed all these instruments within you. He has placed all the things so beautifully that spontaneously it works in no time. But people are such, they come for realisation and if I tell them “Alright, you come and sit near Me." “No, won't sit." “You please take out your shoes” “No, I wouldn't take out my shoes." There are many like that. Even if you tell them “Why don't you sit down with both the feet like this because you will be relaxed, you see." There are many more reasons for what I say, why I say so. But still “No, why should I do?" There are certain things which are very important for Self-realisation if you want to have it. You better do that. The whole attitude should be of understanding, that here you have to take from Me something. It's a gift for you and there should be no obstinacy about taking this gift. I mean, that we do not do in normal courses. If there is a gift for us, then we do not become obstinate about it. Do we? Do the human beings become obstinate when there is a gift coming in? But only when it comes to God they wouldn't even take out their shoes. It's such a great thing you are asking for, which is the flowering of your seeking from amoeba stage to human stage. In the human stage also thousands of years you have been seeking and today when you are at the threshold of it, why are you obstinate? I say in Sahaj Yoga you get your Self-realisation. No money is to be given or taken. As a by-product, you get your health alright. Of course your material things also are alright. Many things improve as a blessing of Sahaj Yoga. But the real thing that happens to you is that you get Self-knowledge. You get Self-realisation. That there is light enlightened within you and you start seeing yourself, your centers and the centers of others because you also get contacted with the whole, you get your wholesomeness.

This is what Sahaj Yoga has to offer to you and if you want to have that, please have it. The rest of it is just a by-product, because if there is a light you do not falter, you walk straight. You don't say, `My legs improved because there were lights.' No. “My eyesight improved because of my light. Because there were no light there was a problem." As soon as there is a light everything becomes alright and you start understanding the whole, you know how the whole thing is and you start walking straight and you know where to sit and what is the chair and what is the person.

This is what you are seeking, then you are a seeker and you are a true seeker and you are to be blessed and it's My job to see to it that you reach there. You get your own powers, not of your Guru but of your own. And that you understand yourself you get your Self-knowledge and the knowledge of the whole. But if you are not that, My children, I am sorry, you are still a baby in the seeking, you have to still grow more and grow more and then you come to Me when you are grown enough. Otherwise it's a headache to work on a person like that, or to give them Self-realisation or anything whatsoever. They are using sometimes Sahaj Yoga for curing people. You do get cured, no doubt. Even cancer can be cured with Sahaj Yoga. It can be. It can only be cured by Sahaj Yoga. That's the point in it. But again it will come back to you.

We cannot promise, guarantee anything. Unless and until you rise in Sahaj Yoga and become the master of Sahaj Yoga we cannot guarantee. You may get back the disease again.

Why should God not have a sense of giving for something as you have? He loves you, no doubt.

He wants to give you because He loves you, but if you are wayward and if you are prodigal by nature, why should He continue to give you is a simple question that you should ask yourself and then ask for realisation, you'll get it. After getting it also there is a period of doubts because first you get thoughtless awareness, which is called as Nirvichar Samādhi. When we say awareness in the normal terminology, it means alertness to anything is awareness. But when we say Samādhi it means enlightened awareness.

You get thoughtless enlightened awareness. And then you get doubtless enlightened awareness. The stage between the two in some people is so little that they just are there. I have some people here who just got it and are there. They don't pass through these two stages. But there are mediocre and there are also absolutely bullock carts I would call them, they cannot move with the time of the jet. In these modern times, imagine a bullock cart being pulled by a jet, big problem. But if you are of that calibre and that quality you get both the stages just like that. There is no doubt after that. But then there are some who get into doubts. I don't know what they doubt here. They had the experience, they feel the vibrations coming, they see Cool Breeze flowing through them. They see it working on others. They see the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī, the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī. They're getting better in health and everything improving.

Still they are doubting and wasting their time. And everything is delayed, their cure is delayed, everything is delayed because of that. Alright, so we have here jet planes, we have here supersonics, we have missiles and we have also bullock carts.

See, it takes lot of things to make this world, isn't it? And so I take everything. All right. With all My love I engulf them. But I would request you not to slow your progress like that. What are you doubting is the question, that I do not want anything. If you are paying for something, then you should doubt it.

You are not paying for anything. What are you doubting? What am I to gain from you? But still so many of them sometimes come and tell Me, “Mother, now we are doubting." I say, “Alright, go on, when your doubts will be over, you do come and see Me." That's how it is. I would request you to try to tell your mind that you have done all kinds of things. You have been to all sorts of Gurus. You have been to all sorts of nonsensical books and you have been to all kinds of doubts. Now settle down for a while. Settle down. Tell your mind not to mislead you and get it. This is your own; this is your own property; this is your own right to be there.

So get it and if any doubts are coming, tell them to wait for a while.

May God bless you all.

I don't mind answering your questions at all. I would love to answer them. But My experience is when you tell them to ask a question they speak like possessed people. They have certain things, kinks in their heads and they come out with it. And they would not bother that Mother has little time to give realisation to others, such a great thing has to be done and they'll take out from somewhere something small and will go on harping on it and disturbing all the others and taking the time being very, very selfish. And then the quarrel starts which [UNCLEAR] to answer their questions there are some here who will say that I have too much patience with all of them. And I try to give all the answers, as far as possible, so I will try to answer. But if you are just fond of talking, talking, talking, then I am really tired, I would request you to get your realisation, settle down with truth and glorify your being because you are glorified by God, the Lord who has created you. If you have any questions you can ask but as I have said it be careful that you are not disturbing others and asking foolish, stupid, useless questions.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: This is a very easy question, Madam and I don't think I should answer at this stage, why? Because this question you ask yourself and you'll get the answer, alright? Questioner: But I have got an answer [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Now see... Alright, I'll tell you one thing, alright? The question is alright, this comes to everyone, when they see Me they ask such a question, but I'm little tactful, I would say, because when Christ said, “I am the light, I am the path” what did you do to Him? Questioner: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes, he said so, so what did you do to Him for that? Questioner [replies]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Alright, you did not but others did, alright? When Kṛiṣhṇa said, “I am the One you should follow, I am the One you should surrender to” what did you do to Him, did He tell anyone else? He just told Arjuna, why? Questioner [replies]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Then what's the use of telling you about it also? Let Me work it out, then you will know. It's better you come in the light and see Me, alright? And see yourself.

So, that's what let us do because this is a question which can be answered in the light. Like you can say, “Is there a charge, or not?" Questioner [replies]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Alright... alright. Yes, now, as a Guru is a guide to that God within you. To become that because that God in you is away from your attention. Your attention is not speaking to the God's kingdom. Your attention is away from Him and this is a method by which the attention rises and becomes one with that spirit which is in your heart, which is knowing you, which is understanding you, which is correcting you, also guiding you and protecting you, but you are not there, you, the one you are today is your attention is not there and that's why you are not yet collectively conscious.

Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No, it's alright, but your attention is not. See the difference! For example, My brain, alright, has its attention, say for example, on My finger, alright? But My finger has no attention on My brain.

Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You see the reality can only become there by being there.

Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No, you cannot, unless and until you become the reality. You have to become [UNCLEAR].

Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No, then you see you are not there, you can see only see Caxton Hall from outside.

When you come inside, do you see the whole hall? Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That's true, but you have not become... you are seeing from outside, you are not inside.

You have to enter in, that's why. You see, you have not yet entered it. You are there, but you have not yet entered it. That's why it is said you have to enter into the Kingdom of God. You have to be reborn.

Your awareness has not entered into it. Once it is entered, then you'll be amazed, then you will be able to feel everybody else's centers and you will know what they are inside, where is the problem and you will know also where is the problem with this.

Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Who? I don't want to say that, I am very tactful, but there is something about Me, no doubt, which you will find out, there must be something...

Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Alright? So let us have it. It's true, there must be something, but I do not want to say something now, some of them know and you will also know it and you will also know the whole thing, but gradually let it work out.

Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Christ told His disciples who never believed it till He resurrected [UNCLEAR] and today I tell you anything, you will not believe Me, I do not want to make you useless, so you first get your realisation and then you'll know. First you know yourself and then [UNCLEAR]. Let us have it now, alright? Questioner [intervenes]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I know, yes, that's why I said your attention is not there. Of course, no doubt about it.

Yes, that much I must accept. I have to accept and [UNCLEAR boast] many things, I know, but I'm little scared of that! Alright? [Shri Mataji speaks in an Indian language with another questioner.] He has asked Me a simple question which is a very sincere question. He said, “How are we to believe there was Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa or Christ and this and that?" That also is another very important question, is that how are we to believe that They were there? Was He, were They there or not? Now this is a question, which, OK isn't it I don't know tactfully if it is correct or not but I would like to tell you that these centers, all these Chakras, have got all these deities in them about which I have been telling you. Christ is here and Kṛiṣhṇa is here. [Interruption.] Now, just a minute, just a minute. Now, how do you know if they are there or not? Is the point. When you get your Self-realisation you will find that from your hand a Cool Breeze will start flowing. You'll become that, then you will enquire how it has happened. It has happened because these centers [recording becomes inaudible in patches as Shri Mataji probably moves away from the microphone to point to the various Chakras on the chart]... top part of your head... here, at the fontanelle bone area... and then you start feeling the Cool Breeze... After that, you'll be amazed...

[MISSING: it seems that Self-realisation follows but it is difficult to decipher this from the tape.]

Contents: 1979-07-26*, Public Program, Modern Seeking, In Search of Joy, Enfield (North London), UK (other date 07-25)

It is really very fortunate that I could come to this place, as it was arranged by My first Sahaja Yogi, I feel very proud to be here. There are so many others who live in this area but so far they have never arranged a program in this area, though they belong to this place. And there must be something in this area, that so many of them are already there.

Today, in these modern times, we are standing at a very precarious position. On one side we find our material affluence has not rendered us any help as far as the Joy of the Spirit is concerned. We have achieved no joyful state by achieving all kinds of scientific discoveries and the so-called flights of our scientific mind. In a way it is nice that we have started realizing that it is not this matter, which is going to give us joy. It is a simple thing one has to understand, that matter can never give us joy but can only give us domination; it can dominate us, can enslave us. For example, if you make a chair out of the wood, then you cannot sit on the ground; and if you get a very comfortable sofa set made for yourself, then you find it hard to sit on a chair made out of wood, so that you cannot live without the habit that is formed within us due to the subtle domination of matter. We go on changing forms of matter, one after another and we find that we have not really achieved anything, as far as our real joy is concerned.

Now we must know what is joy is: as it is described in all the scriptures of the world, joy is a state of mind which does not have duality. Like day and night, like happiness and sorrow, it does not have that. It's a state in which you feel you are beyond all the waves of thought, all the waves of identification and you start enjoying yourself. This joy that we talk of doesn't come from matter, nor does it come from your mind; it comes from the Spirit, which is in your heart. You may say, `How are we to believe that there is a Spirit?' Of course, you have to know that there is a Spirit only in a hypothetical way. It's just a hypothesis I am putting before you. You need not accept it at this moment, but I say there is a Spirit in your heart.

Now, Sahaja Yoga is a system by which your attention enters into your Spirit; it's an actualisation. It is not talking, it is not sermoning, it is not conditioning, but it is a happening. And this happening takes place within us because we are made that way. God has created us specially for this last happening within us, where we become connected with our Spirit and thus we become connected with the Spirit of all the people and actualise the experience of collective consciousness. It's no question of giving any, what you call the brainwashing about it; it's just a happening that has to take place within you. And this has been promised in all the scriptures: they say it is your second birth or they may say it is Self-realisation; and there are many other words people have used but it is just the same.

Now, if God has made us, I mean, even if you do not believe in God, say Nature has made us, a human being, out of a little cell like amoeba, then why has He done that? What is the purpose of our life? Has He just made us to live like other animals who come in this world, enjoy their life and die, or reproduce, at the most, or to create these things out of matter which are not joy-giving? Has He created us for that, or there is a purpose for it? The way we have evolved very beautifully from amoeba stage to this, we can see that there must be some purpose behind the whole program. Even if you read chemistry or physics, in chemistry you can see there are periodic laws and if you see the chart of periodic laws you'll be amazed how beautifully every element has been organized and how these are placed in the chart and how they act according to the valencies they have. It is a remarkable thing the way even the periodic laws of elements, who are supposed to be dead, are so beautifully working. When we come to any such programming we start wondering how one could have achieved this tremendous power. For example, we see so many flowers turning into seeds, without our knowledge they grow up really microscopically and suddenly you find lots of fruits are available. We cannot even sprout a single of seed and here we find thousands and thousands and millions and millions and billions and billions of these seeds sprouting every moment and the One who is doing it has to be some great personality.

But what about us, when we are facing life with questions: Why are we here? We start thinking about it and we find no answer to it. This is what I call is the modern seeking, which is such a blessing for us, that we are seeking something beyond and we are not satisfied with whatever we have. This is the greatest blessing and, once you have this blessing, then only you can be really rewarded for that blessing, because you have to knock at the door, otherwise the door won't open.

Now, let us see here within us, what sort of a programming is there on display. Now, all that is put here you need not take it for granted just now. You can only say that you cannot see these things within you, but as a hypothesis it's an absolutely new knowledge for you, so just keep yourself open to it. This is the body of a human being and, as God has said, that you all are made in His own image, you are made absolutely in His own image, but still you are not aware of yourself to be aware of the whole. For example, if this is the Body of God, all the small cells on this body are human beings and they have to find the connection with the whole. If the Primordial Being is the whole, we have to find out how are we connected with that and how we become wholesome. This is the basic seeking we have got within us. In this seeking we are actually seeking that point by which we really get connected to the whole. And that point is the Spirit within you, in the heart. This mechanism is placed within you; it is there, it exists. And there is a residual force in the triangular bone, in the coccyx here, which is kept ready as the germinating power. This is called as Kuṇḍalinī in the Sanskrit language. Now, if I use Sanskrit, you shouldn't think that it is something Hindu, because there could be a confusion like that, that it all about Hinduism I am talking about. But there is nothing like Hinduism, because there is no one God about Hinduism, it's only, you can say, a philosophical discovering of the seers.

Now, this Kuṇḍalinī is present in every human being. Because India was such a country that they did not have to face problems of the nature so much, people went into meditation and saw this residual force existing in human beings. Even in the Bible it is written that, “I will appear before you as tongues of flames." Now, we do not understand, neither anybody can explain, what are these tongues of flames. In every religion there is an indication about Kuṇḍalinī, in quite a clear-cut words, but because we have no idea as to this knowledge what it is, because it was kept as a secret knowledge for quite some time, we get confused and in that confusion, what we do is to condemn it as a knowledge belonging to a particular region. These are all universal things and they cannot belong to any region or to any language or to any nation as such. It belongs to every one of you and all of you have got this residual force placed at that point in the triangular bone.

Now, when the Sahaja Yoga, which means: saha means `with', ja means `born', the one which is born within you; this right of union with the Spirit, with God, is born within you. Saha means `with', ja means `born' and it also means the `spontaneous'. And whatever is the spontaneous is the easiest: like our nose is born with us, our eyes are born with us; we don't have to do anything about them. In the same way, this also Yoga, means this power to unite with the Divine, is born with you, in the sense that this germinating force is placed within you.

And this germinating force is the one which connects you with the Spirit. This lies dormant there, in three and a half coils. And when this Sahaja Yoga practice starts, you can yourself see with your naked eye, the pulsation at that point. You can see it moving with your naked eye; anybody can see it. You can even photograph it; you can even take a film of it. You can see the pulsation in the triangular bone absolutely there. Then you can even see the pulsation rising onto different centers. All these centers are subtle centers of the power within us, which has given us evolution. And when this rises within us, it enlightens all these centers that are within us, these subtle centers. From down below if you see, the lowest one it doesn't touch there, it is already there, it is the center of innocence; then the second, then the third, then the fourth, then the fifth, then the sixth and the seventh.

So it crosses only six centers. And each one of them manifests outside. These are the subtle centers, as I have told you, inside the medulla oblongata, or you can say the spinal cord and also in the brain, as shown there, there are two centers in the brain, one here and one in the limbic area. They manifest outside: the gross plexuses which look after our organs; like we have got the second center, which is there, is called as the Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra and this one manifests our aortic plexus. Aortic plexus looks after our kidneys and our liver and also pancreas and the spleen and another kidney and also uterus. That is the center which goes round and round over that green area and looks after these organs that I have talked to you about and supplies the energy that is required through the right hand side energy that is coming into it.

This is the energy of creativity within us.

Now, the center, the one which is called as the Nābhī Chakra is the one that manifests solar plexus.

It also looks after our visceras and our intestines, stomach and all our digestive organs. Now, this is the center for our seeking. As a small, little amoeba we seek for our hunger of food. When we become human beings, hunger of food is there; then we have got also seeking for, say, money; then seeking for power. But we reach a certain stage where we start seeking the Divine. All these seekings start from that center which is called as a navel center, which gives rise to the solar plexus. Now, the solar plexus, which is manifested outside in the gross, as I have told you, looks after your digestion and other organs, which surround the viscera.

Now, the center above that is called as the Hṛidaya Chakra, or you can call it as the center that gives you cardiac plexus as a manifestation. This center is very important; if a person suffers from, say, a sense of insecurity, this center goes out of order and when this center goes out of order then one starts feeling the palpitations and also the breathing becomes very difficult. Now if this center is spoiled then we get a disease like breast cancer and lung cancer. Cancer is a disease which is caused by the malfunction of these centers. And because doctors cannot reach these centers, they cannot cure the cancer, because they can go only up to the plexuses, which are gross manifestations. They cannot go into the subtle, because they have not themselves become the subtle. When they become subtler they can enter into these centers and cure it. But it's very difficult to convince a doctor that he is still not perfect in his awareness and he has to perfect his awareness and then he can treat people. Of course, we have some doctors also who have become Sahaja Yogis, but they have not been able to convince many doctors either. But when the doctors themselves get sick with cancer they come to us for treatment. And recently we have treated one lady whose husband was My professor in medical college and who is himself a very well-known doctor.

But his wife is now sick with cancer, so he came to Me, the one who was My teacher, to get a cure and we did cure her.

So this is what it is: that cancer and all such subtle troubles, can be only cured through entering into these centers. But the entry comes through the awakening of that Kuṇḍalinī only. Unless and until this Kuṇḍalinī awakens, you cannot enter into these centers.

So we treat outside and we cannot enter inside.

It's only not for physical, even for mental trouble. If you have a mental trouble, say, the above Chakra is there, the Viśhuddhi Chakra; this is the center when human beings lifted their heads, this center developed, now, if people are suffering from mental trouble, this center on the left hand side goes completely out of order. If the left hand side power is out of order, then a person can be absolutely possessed and could be in a lunatic asylum. We have had recently a girl coming from a lunatic asylum and she came to our program and she got cured completely. She went back and they said, “No we don't want you here. You are perfectly all right. We don't want to waste one bed for you. You are perfectly all right." She's all right; she has three children, of course, her husband had divorced her. But she's all right now, she's absolutely, perfectly all right.

It's a very simple thing, because if the light passes through that, it opens out also this top Chakra, between this Chakra and that Chakra, the one higher is, the top Chakra. When it opens out you start getting the Grace of God coming into you and then all the energy that is exhausted or malfunctioning is [UNCLEAR completely all right]. That time you start feeling in the hands Cool Breeze-like thing and you become that.

Now, the center above it is a very, very important center for us because it is the center of Christ. It is the center where Christ has entered, as He said that He is the door. He had to enter through this door.

Now, how are we to believe that this is Christ's center and not somebody else's? When this Kuṇḍalinī is rising, which you can see with your naked eyes, as I have said it, you'll be amazed that when the Kuṇḍalinī stops at that center, unless and until you take the name of Christ it won't open; you have to take His name. On every center there is a deity, but specially this center where you find My red mark is, inside in the brain, where there is a crossing of the Optic Chiasma, there is a very subtle center which controls your ego and superego in your brain and which gives you really the path, or you can say the gateway opens out for the entry of your attention to this Kuṇḍalinī into the Kingdom of God, which is the limbic area in your head. The Kingdom of God is in your head here. When you pierce this topmost center, which we call, in common Christian language, `baptism'; which is a happening, which is not that you go to church and somebody who says, “All right, I'll baptize your child." It is not that way, because these people are not authorized, they cannot raise the Kuṇḍalinī. Unless and until you raise the Kuṇḍalinī, you cannot say a person is baptized, you are just mechanically done. Anybody... you cannot get his certificate in the university that you can do; it is a thing that has to be within you; you are to be empowered by God. And through your movement of your fingers, the Kuṇḍalinī should rise. Only such a person is really entitled to be called as a Baptist, is called as a person who really gives you the baptism. And you can see, when the Kuṇḍalinī enters here, you will see that the fixed part of the head becomes softer. And that is the time you start feeling the cool flowing through your hands.

Now, you can see on your hands all these centers that are there, you can feel them on left and right hand side[s]. They are demarcated with these colours by which you can make out, if you place your hands towards, say, Me and if you are getting catch on this finger or this finger, you can make out what center is catching. And then the method, the technique, of how to cure that center is also absolutely exposed in Sahaja Yoga.

Within one month's time I have seen people have become masters, absolute masters. We have here [UNCLEAR] the one who has organized and so many others who are sitting here; they are all masters of Kuṇḍalinī. They are normal people; they are just like you, to look at.

You don't have to change your dress or announce something or denounce something or give up something. It is just a happening; you become that. And it is within you. You know, you can see, you know you have it. But you do not put a signboard on you that `I am a realised Soul.' But such a person can feel another's centers and can feel his own centers. This is Self-knowledge side. First the Yoga takes place by which the knowledge side. The first stage is of knowledge, that you start knowing about your centers others' centers, because on your head here, where the Kuṇḍalinī touches, is the Feet of God Almighty and They are expressed in your heart and your Spirit and that's why you touch the Spirit within you. And once you have touched the Spirit within you, you touch the Spirit in everyone. You start feeling; actually it happens to you. Small children even, when they get Realisation, immediately they start telling: “This is the finger catching, that is the finger catching." It's a subjective knowledge; means you become the master of it; you have that knowledge. Like human beings have much more knowledge than animals have. They know what is bad smell, what is good smell; they know what is beauty, what is not beauty. Animals cannot say that. In the same way, here it becomes your power. Your awareness itself develops a new dimension, an enlightenment, by which you start seeing in others what is the matter with them and what is the matter with you.

So the second stage is the start of knowledge, that you start getting the knowledge as to what is your centers and what is the centers of others. Now, at this stage, when the knowledge starts, you see, we are so conditioned that we have sometimes some conditionings within us and we pick up one sentence here and there and we start doubting. This `doubting Thomas' is a very great thing in this country; I have seen, I'm sorry to say. But In India the Kuṇḍalinī doesn't rise so fast as it rises in the Western countries, because you are really saints and you are seekers and you are genuine. But the second stage in India doesn't happen so much in India as it happens here. I sometimes say that you have got food to eat and some people do not have teeth to eat the food and some do not have food when they have teeth, something like that.

So the Kuṇḍalinī rises in the West so fast.

Specially in America, I was surprised, thousands of people came to My program and suddenly the Kuṇḍalinī rose and they got the experience and the second moment they started doubting. Now, this is something, for Me, it was very queer when I visited America, when it was in year seventy-three, I was amazed that how people could start doubting about it when they had an experience of it? Why don't they see whether it is true or not? Before that only they have started doubting, without even seeing what it is, whatever She has said is correct or not. Then they are walking off without even seeing it. I just could not understand their mind. I said, “What's wrong with these people. Why are they behaving like that?" I just could not understand them that time. But now I understand, I understand it now: because of your questioning mind, you see, you cannot get out of it very easily and it starts questioning. You must question about everything; that's the style it is; the life is like that, that you have to question about everything. And you must question; it's a good thing; you should not follow anything blindly, readily. But when you have got it within you, still you go on questioning because, when you are standing, say, in the water, you are afraid of the waves, but you are aware of the waves and you know there are waves. But supposing somebody lifts you from there and puts you in the boat, still you have the same thing working on you, sort of, that feeling of giddiness that was there and you still think: `I am sinking.' And then you start questioning: `Am I on the right path or not? Am I on the wrong path?' Because of this problem so many fake people have taken advantage of you, so many fake people have taken and they have really minted money in this country and so many other countries. They come and tell you, they are something very big and bombastic and they tell you: “You are not to ask us any questions. You have to pay so much money to us. You all don't have to tell anybody what we tell you. You all should be separated.

You must meet us separately, privately." And a secrecy develops establish; I call it a `spiritual Mafia' and people are literally frightened of them. They are so afraid of them they think that: `If we divulge this thing, then we will be finished in our progress.' And there are many people who have come in this country, your country, also in other countries and have really exploited you completely and taken full advantage of your spiritual naivety.

One has to know that it is a living process, the end of your evolution. This is the time which I call as The Last Judgment. In this only, you are going to be judged. And this is not going to be paid for. You cannot pay for it, you cannot pay for it. You have to just see that you are judged where, that's all. It is a different attitude when you go to a Guru who takes money and a different attitude when you come to Sahaja Yoga.

Please remember that this is a gift for what you are. And also, if there is any problem, it can be corrected and can be put right. It's all free and it's a gift, because it has to happen, it is all promised.

Just think, the whole Creation will be wasted if God's children, like you, do not know what He is and you do not enjoy your fulfilment. That's why this has to happen.

But if your attitude is like going to a shop and you start asking that, `How many times should we do it? What is the way should we do it?' then it does not work out. It is a very spontaneous thing like, I would say, a candle is there and I have to enlighten another candle.

So one candle which is enlightened just enlightens another candle because it is just there. In the same way, if I am an enlightened person, I just enlighten your candle, because you are just ready for it. And the enlightenment has to be absolutely free, absolutely free of charge. You cannot pay for God; you cannot pay for your Self-realisation. I wish that the Western people could understand this. When I asked some of the people that, “Why did you pay for this Guru and why didn't you ask him a question that, `Why we have to pay so much of money?'?" So they said that the Guru said that, “You Westerners are such that unless and until you pay for it you are not involved." I said that, “You should really have seen that this man has no respect for you. What does he think of you: that, unless and until you pay for God, you won't be involved in God? To that limit?" Because all these institutions, so-called institutions, I call them, which have worked for God, have been working on moneymaking. Anywhere you go: “What are you doing?", “Oh, we are collecting funds, we are having a fete." For what for the fete? Is this the job of God. Is He here to look after the poor and the rich through you people? Who has created poor and rich, is the human beings have done it. God has not done it. God is here to bestow upon you that bliss, that joy, which is surpassed by all material enjoyments and happiness.

Once you get this, you just start enjoying it so much that you understand the futility of all these things.

And you can live with very few things and you can be the happiest person. I have seen people who came to Me who were alcoholics, absolute alcoholics and the next day they gave up drinking. Because you start enjoying yourself so much, you never get bored; you get so relaxed that you just stop drinking.

But the only problem, as I have told you, that you go home and start doubting and then I cannot help you. You have to know that there are imperfections in all these centers. As a Mother I have to warn you that there are imperfections because of your naiveness about things. Nobody has guided you properly.

Some of the people who have been to some of these Gurus and some of the other cults and things, have bigger problems than the rest of them. If you have led a very temperate life and a normal life, it works in no time and you do get it. And as it is, I have told you that you are real, genuine seekers who do get it. But the Kuṇḍalinī is again sucked back if there is a problem in any one of your centers. For example, you are a liver patient; so at the first shot, after seeing Me, the Kuṇḍalinī will shoot up, it will give you an experience but again it goes back. It's your Mother, so it goes back to your liver. And you can see it pulsating, you can see it, everybody can see it will go there and suggest that the liver is not all right. And it will supply to the liver, look after the liver and then comes back and then goes.

So it is so, that if you have any physical, emotional or mental problem, the Kuṇḍalinī comes back and goes; so you have to have patience only.

It is not just like touch and go. With some people it does; for example, Cooley, the one who was here, first day he came to Me in a very big crowd, I would say and such cool vibrations that I started calling him `Cooley' because he was really remarkable. He's a Greek boy from Cyprus and I was surprised the way he got his Realisation. Nobody got that cool, so I called him `Cooley'. And I had met one doctor Cooley, he was a very fine man and a realised Soul who, you might have also heard his name, he was doing heart operations and things. He looks also like him, so I called him `Cooley' and though his name is Anthony I started calling him `Cooley'. And since that day he is keeping up, though he catches a little bit on his heart, because he has done all kinds of things like Karate and Haṭha Yoga and all kinds of things for his physical side and he has put a little imbalances, but his vibrations he has never lost. There are many like that we have. And there are some people of such high calibre. Recently I met about five-six of them; I was amazed, such great saints I said...

So it is the judgment you will have of your own, but do not judge Me. I am beyond your understanding, just now. Till you have your vibrations established, you won't be able to judge Me; it's rather difficult.

So I would request you that it is a question of judging your Chakras, your centers and it's a question of judging the centers of your friends and other people and understanding them. And when you will understand all that, then you will start understanding Me also. Because many people do like this: that somebody will see, in India, I was wearing a white sarī without a border and he said: “Why are You wearing a sarī without a border?" I said, “Now this is too much." Such frivolous and shallow people; do you think they should enter into the Kingdom of God? They really require more seeking and understanding of the subject.

So we have to understand, this is the greatest chance of our life. We have been seeking and seeking all our lives.

It is described in one of the Purānas that once Kali, is the one who is ruling nowadays, the modern times, is the worst of all evil persons, who was caught by another, Nala [UNCLEAR], who was harmed by this evil personality. And he said that, “I am going to kill you. And you are the worst of all. And I don't know why do you exist on this Earth." Then he told him that, “You can kill me but I also have a meaning.", “What is your meaning and what is your fulfilment and why should you be there?" So he said that, “My importance is that, when this Kali Yuga, this modern times, is come, then people will go all wrong, confused and be in a big confusion. But that is the time all the great saints who are now roaming about in the jungle and forests and finding God, will come back as ordinary householders and will find the Truth." Nala said: “For that reason, I must leave you, because you must exist and this should happen, because these saints have been seeking God for so many years." And that's how it has happened.

Now, for giving lectures, you see, there's no end to it and I've been lecturing and lecturing, from Greece [in 1978] to Scotland, to here, to all the places and they have got many tapes about it. Because this is vast knowledge and, if you gradually get exposed to it and you'll be amazed how great you are and how much knowledge there is within us.

So far whatever you have seen is not the Truth; It is beyond.

Whatever you see now is just an illusion of the Truth. The Truth has to be within you. When the Light will come in you, then you will understand, the truth is that you are an instrument of that God. Like this instrument is connected with the mains, now we can use it; in the same way, when you are connected with the mains, the Divine Power starts using you. You become a hollow personality and you can manoeuvre it and you can place it and you know how to use it and how to apply it, how to explain it and how to give others also Self-realisation.

You'll be amazed; we have people here who must have given realisation to hundreds of people. But in India we have people who have given Self-realisation to thousands. And some of the saints are very highly evolved saints who lived on Himālayas and on so many mountains in India, who do not want to face the public. They came to see Me, one by one and they said: “Mother, what are You doing? Why are You giving these powers to people? These are ordinary human beings." I said, “Maybe it's the will of God." But it's not that, because the time has come, the Blossom Time has come. When in the tree there are one or two flowers, when it is a small tree, we are not bothered and we do not see it. But when it is a blossom time and the tree is fully grown, there are many flowers and these flowers easily turn into fruits; and that is what is happening today. But we have to see how many of us really can get it. And this is the attitude one should have; a humble attitude one should have.

Thank you very much.

Of course I would like to have some questions from you, but you must understand that we are dealing here with many people and you should not completely bring some prestige point, or some sort of a thing that you have been doing before and keep everybody clogged to it, so that everybody benefits by it.

Thank you very much.

May God bless you.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You see, when I say `He is on top of your head,' it has a symbolic meaning. It means God is everywhere; His light is everywhere, all right? And `He is on top of your head' means that, as you are a human being, now, you see in the picture, as shown here, that there are two sides within us: left and right side. One is our emotional side, we can say and the other is the mental and the physical side.

Now, when these two sides start working in the human being only, then what happens, because of their shape being like this and the brain being in a prism-like form, a kind of a by-product of our activities of emotional side and of our physical and mental side, starts coming out as balloons, I mean, this is all psychology I am telling you and that is called as ego and superego in our brain. When this ego and superego start growing in childhood, when the child grows to about twelve years of age, then what happens that our fontanelle bone area, where we get our baptism, becomes calcified. And that is how we get separated from God, in the sense there is a power of God within us, in the heart, expressed as Spirit, but the God's All-pervading Power is not felt by our awareness, we cannot feel it. We know there is God.

I'll give an example, a simple example, for example if I say there are many pictures around here, you won't believe Me, but if I put a, for example, a television, or video tape, or something like that, something like that which will catch it, you will get all these pictures in that, but you do not see. What I mean is that God is around you, His is everywhere, His power is everywhere, it is all-pervading, but in a subtle way.

And the Kuṇḍalinī has to rise through our fontanelle bone and enter into it. This is the way we have to enter into that All-pervading Power. This is what I am trying to tell you. When I say God is in your head I don't say God is sitting there; no, I don't mean that. What I'm saying that His Power there, is to be felt through this baptism only. It does not flow to your hands or your feet; it flows upwards. It flows upwards and comes out. That's how we are made; you see, we just can't help it. For example, if it is from here, it is from here; you cannot question it.

So, when it opens out, our attention gets permeated into that All-pervading Power and we start feeling it within. You can understand? It's more symbolic. Literally, if you take it, I mean, it will look odd. He's all everywhere, no doubt, but you cannot feel it, He's not in your awareness, means your central nervous cannot feel it, isn't it? But then you start feeling it, you get connected then and a rapport is established. It's like a, I can say, a computer. You ask questions like: `Is there God?' Immediately waves of Cool Breeze start.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... When it settles there the Grace descends on these two centers, we call them Iḍā and Piñgalā Nāḍīs, these two channels they start... But if you have read about Kuṇḍalinī: horrifying experience, you see, all sorts of nonsense, forget it. Because those who have written also in English have not gone into it that thoroughly and are misunderstanding. I don't know what sort of translations they have made, because they have said that there are four types of Kuṇḍalinī rising: in one which is described like an epileptic fit, I think; another one is something like a possessed person; the third one is another jumping, hopping type; and the fourth one is the one that I am talking about.

So they call it, this is in [UNCLEAR Mahā/Sahaja] Yoga, they call it `Sahaja Yoga', you see, or Siddhi Yoga. These are the three names of Sahaja Yoga: one is Mahā Yoga, means the `greatest Yoga', another is [UNCLEAR Siddhi/Siddha] Yoga, or the Sahaja Yoga; they call it by three names. But they are saying that there are four types of Kuṇḍalinī Jāgruti. This is not; there are four kinds of people who proclaim to be the Gurus, actually. You see, the one who is a demonic person, when he gives awakening, he has no authority; on the contrary he puts a spirit in you and you get these epileptic things, you start jumping and you start hopping and you start shouting, sometimes you roar like a lion. All these things happen when a person who is not an authorized Guru but a demonic personality.

But we can think they could not translate some of the words perhaps. I can only say that that must be the misquotes. They must not have understood the words they called as Rākṣhasas and Piśhāchas as we call it. I don't know why they have not been able to place it and call it its type. You see, it is unauthorized. Any person who is unauthorized who tries to raise the Kuṇḍalinī can do tremendous [UNCLEAR damage].

It's very practical, you can understand: if I do not know how to handle this and I put My finger in to some two holes I find, I get a shock and I say that Kuṇḍalinī rising is a shock, because you don't know where to handle it, what to do it. And there also people who are absolutely dangerous and you can call them absolutely unauthorized. And if such people try to be holy people, they really are troubling the Sādhakas, means the ones [UNCLEAR who are seeking].

So one has to have an authority and one has to be a Sahaja Yogi, means the one who has the power to raise the Kuṇḍalinī. If he does not have a power to raise the Kuṇḍalinī and to know how it rises, what are the Chakras, then whatever he is doing is absolutely absurd. The one who does not know cars, for example... [UNCLEAR] if you are not a driver and you start driving, then... In the same way, you do not say that car moves in four ways: by one it kills people, by another it jumps out of rock. You do not say like that. In the same way, this Kuṇḍalinī rising has been written in such a funny way in some of the very, very thick English books, that I was amazed, how could they not see this simple thing? Perhaps, you see, they have read some books and taken some translations from them and they didn't have the experience or a proper man to guide them. But there is nothing like that happens in our centers [UNCLEAR]. Now in London itself we might be having about three to four hundred people who are really very good Sahaja Yogis and really... in London city itself. And we have had thousands of them in England; nobody has said like that. But I have seen funny people coming. One man came in India itself and was sitting with his both his feet towards Me and the people said, “You cannot do like this. You cannot put your feet towards Her." He said, “Let me sit like this, otherwise my Kuṇḍalinī... [UNCLEAR]" “What happens?" He said, “I start hopping like a frog." Now the simple thing is, after becoming human beings, are we going to become frogs? We should understand, we are not going to become frogs and animals, that we are roaring like lions.

And then another thing we should understand: if it is for our evolution, will God put something like this and torture us for nothing at all? He is the Ocean of Compassion and

He is the One who is going to give us all the properties that He has within us and is bestowing on His own loving children. Is He going to make us miserable [UNCLEAR]? Even, people talk of suffering, that you must make your body suffer, why? Why should you make your body... God has made this human body... these self-destructive things are not needed at all.

You don't have to destroy others, neither to destroy yourself. You must have real compassion for yourself to begin with. All these methods of starvation and doing all kinds of horrible things to your body, are nowhere near [UNCLEAR]... are not to be done. It is not necessary. As if we didn't know that Christ Himself crucified just to pass through that gate and to make a way for us. Then why are you still crucifying yourself for nothing at all? Are you Christ? If you are doing it, then why? Everything He did is useless. That's why I felt that it is of importance that here is the... [UNCLEAR] the area of your fontanelle bone, here is the Kuṇḍalinī. And there are many people... in Sanskrit language, in Hindi language, it is said that, “Here is the Anāhat Anāhatā, here is the pulsation. You can feel your pulsation when it comes up, then the pulsation disappears and you become [UNCLEAR one with it]." It is very simple, has to be, because whatever is important has to be simple. For example, your breathing: now if it is for that you have to go and read some book and then take it from some man by paying him money; how many people would exist on this earth? Everything important has to be very simple and spontaneous. Except when somebody is sick.

Any questions? Or would you like to have the experience? Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You see, acupuncture and all these systems, were started by, in the Chinese, there was a very great Sahaja Yogi was Lao Tze. He started acupuncture actually. And He has described Self-realisation in a very clear way, absolute clear way and He has said that nobody who is not a Self-realised should do acupuncture at all. He has prohibited it completely for people who are not realised Souls; but everybody is doing it. When you do in an unauthorized way, you do cure, but you create an imbalance in the body. I'll tell you how... For example... [UNCLEAR]. Both these centers look after the liver; this one and that, part. Now, these are the two points where they put the needle, supposedly. Now, what happens, that by putting the needle there, a sort of an emergency is created in these two centers; for example, this one and this one, all right? When the emergency is created within us, these two centers start exhausting their energy, they start giving more energy and more energy to the Piñgalā, in the sense they start giving energy to liver and liver gets cured. But there is no balance, because liver gets all right but you may develop some other diseases. You may become a person who is absolutely dry; you will be such a person that you will have no feelings for others. Because, if you start using this power too much, then the left side is neglected. If the left side is neglected, it will freeze and you will have the heart of a stone.

And we do not see human being as a whole, we see him as a part, that's why we do not understand that liver-curing is important, but what is important is that the whole of the man should be all right. What is the use of curing liver and getting cancer? It could amount to something like that.

Now, a man who thinks too much, you see, works through this center, who plans too much, thinks too much, works through this center, because this center converts the fat globules for the use of the brain when you are thinking. Now, such a man neglects other organs which are looked after by this center. The man who is a great planner will have diabetes as a disease because his left side is completely frozen, he never uses it. He becomes emotionally a dry person and he develops diabetes. Doctors cannot cure diabetes, why? Because they do not know how to give a balance to man. But supposing if a realised person does it, then he connects the person, the patient, to the mains. And then if you take energy from there for one person, doesn't matter because you are exposed to the mains and it is flowing all the time. You see, this is the difference. That's why, in acupuncture, I have yet to come across people who are Self-realised, I have yet to come across; and I have met many. And they don't like it when I tell them, “Don't do acupuncture before Realisation." One should not do anything in a naive manner, because you are creating problems for others and for yourself also. Because by doing such things you are creating bad Karmas for yourself. You are doing bad things, you are ruining people and that's the bad Karmas are coming into you, because you do not know what you are doing. For example, if you tell somebody to put your finger into the hole, they will get a shock, unknowingly. And he gets a shock, of course he gets a shock; something will happen to him, no doubt, but something will happen to you also, that you will have bad Karmas in you. You will have a much less chance of Realisation than others have, because you have done something wrong to others, by mistake also. That's why don't enter into something which you do not know; is a wrong thing. Never enter into that thing about which you do not know. First you should get into it, see for yourself how it is; otherwise people may take you into very difficult situations. I have seen people in extremely difficult situations. I know of a lady, she had a Guru with her, she had cancer. I was amazed: most of the people who have Gurus, wrong type of Gurus, get cancer. It's most surprising, but I have seen it. Because the left side catches. Most of them have Gurus or they go to spiritualists, left side catches.

So all these wrong cults and things that have started, without actualizing the experience, are very dangerous and one should not do it. But nothing to be that worried and upset. It's a fact, see, one has to understand that, if you go into anything... supposing there is fire and you enter in, you'll be burned.

And also some spiritualists also cure, I've seen that, but they put another spirit into you. I had a lady in India, she came to Me, she went to a spiritualist to cure her husband from drink.

So he gave up drinking and he started [UNCLEAR].

So she went to him and he became an insolvent, you see, very rich man.

So she said, “This is even worse than drinking." So she said, “Somehow or other, remove this from him." So then he became a thief, a kleptomaniac, he started thieving things from her because he had no money left also.

So he used to thieve things; he did not know what he was doing. And then she got the fright of her life, because this man suddenly became all these three and the whole thing was there and he started manifesting all three devils within him. And still today we have not been able to cure him. It's like that. And the woman herself is now suffering and she gets these [UNCLEAR fits].

So these things are very dangerous, like calling the spirits; one should not play with these spirits at all; we should keep them out. Try to tell [UNCLEAR God], because He is really the one who keeps us away from spirits.

So we are really surprisingly funny, in England, I have seen, all the churches have got all the dead bodies there down below your feet. Your children go to church, everybody. I don't know from where did you get this idea of putting all the dead in the churches. All right, if you want to put them in charge of God, have a different church for them. You are taking your innocent children, your people there. All of them are just under your feet, they are sleeping there, you disturb them and they catch hold of you; they are not yet [UNCLEAR reborn]. And that is what it is; we have not to go near spirits. Spirits and all those things, are not going to give us any powers. May seem all right at the time, but we have to ask for our own Spirit and our own powers. They give terrible trouble to Me also because, whenever a person comes from a spiritualist, he is singled out and it's very difficult to give him Realisation and it takes the maximum time. But even if you have been, I mean, [UNCLEAR we have worked, we have done it], so nothing to worry. Once we cure, you see, if we cure about five or ten people who are coming from spiritualists, I'm sure we will solve that problem.

So shall we have now? Now, how do we do? You have to just put your feet, in a very relaxed manner, on the ground. Why on the ground, like this? You have to be relaxed, so that your body is little bit relaxed and there is no problem of your Kuṇḍalinī to move. If you have very tight belts or something, you can loosen it, if it is very tight. If it is lightly tied it is all right. Or a tie or something, you find it tight. If it is not tight, it's all right; makes no difference. But there is a little expansion of the spinal cord when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, so better to give it a chance to rise. And you just have to put your hands like this, just like this.

Now, these are the fingers, as I have told you; all the sympathetic centers of the left and right are here. And when the power flows inside, it invites in the Void, there is a void in between, they are shown connected but they are not really connected within us and when it enters there, the Kuṇḍalinī receives the information at the point, I'm sorry, when it reaches the last Chakra through these two: Iḍā and Piñgalā Nāḍīs. You see, these two; Iḍā and Piñgalā Nāḍīs, through them it reaches the first center there, you see; then a kind of a bridge is created on the Void, because this center informs the Kuṇḍalinī that somebody is there who is authorized and then She just starts pouring out by itself. And it passes here and you become one with it.

At that time, what happens? First of all, when it crosses this center, Āgñyā Chakra, then you become thoughtlessly aware, means there is no thought. You are aware, you are not fainting or anything, but you become peaceful, no thoughts are there. If you watch yourself, some of you must have been already without thought. To test it you watch Me without thinking, can you do it? If you can do it, that means you have crossed this point. When you cross this point, then you start getting Cool Breeze in your hands and you feel really relaxed. After this, how to use the Cool Breeze and all that, you should again meet and understand it. But one feels extremely relaxed and it's a very joy-giving experience.

After that, one should try to keep thoughtlessly aware; try not to think. Tell yourself, `I don't have to think, I don't have to think,' and go off to sleep. You get a very nice sleep. If, after this, you get this Yoga Nidra for, say, about twelve hours, nice sleep; or, say, ten hours, nice deep sleep, then you will be surprised that you will be established at a point where the doubts from the thought do not come into your mind. Because that's the one thing which is very dangerous. But when it establishes a little higher, then you become `doubtlessly aware', when it becomes absolutely a conviction, then you do not have any doubts. But it is not through rationality; it is through the state you achieve within yourself. And, after that time, you start giving Realisation to people, and, only if it crosses even Āgñyā, you can cure people.

But don't do that. First thing you establish yourself, know yourself fully and take it. Nothing to show off, but to understand that we have to know ourselves fully and we have to explore all our powers and to be ourselves, genuinely, with all humility and then only we are going to give it to others. Let our lights be fully established and then you'll be put on top of the rock where people can see you and can know that here is the Light which is guiding us. Let's have it now.

Please put your hands like this. You can put the paper down here if you want to, for the time being.

Sit in a way that you are not uncomfortable. Comfort is important at this point. You should not be uncomfortable, because attention isn't running; just put your hands like this. But while sitting you must allow your feet to touch the ground fully, touch the ground fully; because the Mother Earth is one of the elements which has created some of our centers, so She sucks in some of your problems.

So put your feet directly on the Mother Earth, just like this. If it is easy for you to take off your socks also, it would be a good idea, because mostly socks are of nylon and they insulate you completely from Mother Earth. If you feel like taking off, you should take it. It would be good thing.

Now, what happens, as I have told you, that in your hands you start getting Cool Breeze. Close your eyes because there is a dilation of the pupils when the Kuṇḍalinī crosses over this; so please close your eyes. There is no hypnosis; you can see that. You have to close your eyes and see if there is no thought.

You just keep your eyes closed. But some of you may not be able to close them because there will be a flickering in your eyes; maybe some of you. If so, then you can open your eyes. But if there is no flickering and if you can silence it, close your eyes and keep them closed.

Some of you might be feeling in your fingers a little heat also, possibly. If so, just throw it away like that. Or maybe some tingling, maybe. It's due to some physical problem in the body. Just throw it away, if you feel the tingling. Now put your hands back.

Some of you who are wearing specs also; if you can take it out it will be better.

You'll be all right.

Some flowers become the fruit first and then later on, one by one, they are transformed. In the same way, it doesn't happen to everyone at the same time; so be a little patient with yourself.

All those who are getting the Cool Breeze in the hands please raise your hands, all of you. Raise them high; even Sahaja Yogis. Good, good. Don't open your eyes; it will work out, just work out.

So many have got it and so many are going to get it. Gradually it will work out. If it is not working out, nothing to worry; it will work out, it's working out.

Now let us have people who have got Cool Breeze, all of you. All of you who have got Cool Breeze please raise your hands. [Shri Mataji asks people individually what they are feeling. Mostly inaudible.]... Can you put your left hand on your liver. Liver is the common problem in this group...

... Did you go in the graveyard?

So much already has been said about Sahaja Yoga. As I also told you before, for new people I would like to say that `saha' means with, `ja' means born. It is born with you; it is with you. The germinating power which is going to connect you with the Divine is born with you. As you have a nose, eyes and face in this body, in the same way this germinating power is within you, has been there for ages. In all your seeking it has been with you and now the time has come, the blossom time has come, you can say, that people have to receive their connection with the Divine. Otherwise, Divine will lose its own meaning. Unless and until you have your own meaning, unless and until you have your own fulfilment, your Creator, who has created you, is not going to get His own fulfilment. That's why this grace, this special gift to the modern people, that you can really get your Self-realisation.

But as Regis has pointed out very rightly, that we have all the instruments very nicely placed within us, but since we are born we are attracted all the time by people who come forward with theories that they can introduce you to Divine, or sometimes you feel that you can find it out.

Sometimes we waste our time in very shallow life, all the time destroying ourselves or destroying others. All these things have a bearing on your instrument, which is a fact.

So when you come to Sahaja Yoga I would request you to understand that there is no [UNCLEAR] here.

It is for your betterment. It is your right also to achieve it and to get it. You are made human being from amoeba for this only. But this right comes to you because you deserve it. If you are not of that calibre you cannot get it. You have to have that calibre to get it. Those people who come here, I know, they do not get realisation and then they start saying that, “Oh, Mother, we never got realisation” as if they are very proud of it. There is nothing to be proud if you do not get your realisation. One has to be serious about it and should get your realisation now and here. If your calibre is very low, what can one do about it? What can one talk about it? I mean, in these days when people are so ego-oriented no one wants to listen about it unless and until you are hypnotized. In your freedom you do not know how to be humble sometimes. If you could be humble, if you could know one thing: that so far you have not got it and you have to get it, because that is what you are seeking, that is your own right to have it, that you are created for this, that you have been seeking for ages now and you have been mislaid, have been misused, hoodwinked and you have been carrying on for days together, for years together with all kinds of tomfoolery. But when you come to Sahaja Yoga you want everything like that. That's a sign that you are free. That's a sign that you are free also to argue. It's a very good sign. I feel happy about it. But sometimes freedom can be abandonment. Freedom which does not have the background of wisdom has no meaning at all. Use your wisdom. This is not a place where you can pay for, no. You are going to cash your seeking. If you are genuine seekers, all right. Even if you have had problems, even if it was mistake, one would go all the way to see that you get it and you will get it.

But are you really seeking, is the point. I have seen people come here, just sitting down because they belong to a particular group or something, just to come and see, what we call in Hindi Tamasha –'theatre'. It is just the show they want to come and see. Is this the way are you going to waste your life? You have to evaluate yourself. You must know that you are seekers of the true nature and you are not bound to anyone because you have faith, because you are carrying somebody's symbols on your heads. You have to be yourself. If you pay respect to yourself, I'm all with you. But if you have no respect for yourself, if you do not evaluate yourself and you want to waste your time with nonsensical things, what am I to do? You just tell Me. What would you do in My place? I have limitless patience for you and love, lots of love for you.

I have told you that I am going to work it out for you and work it out and work it out. I am not going to be tired of that but you must little bit cooperate because you have to gain something, not Me.

First thing you must understand that you cannot hold Me. I am a very difficult person in a way that you can only hold Me through your sincerity. I know everyone who is insincere, out and out. You will yourself pay for it.

So be sincere to yourself. Is it difficult to be sincere to yourself? Be just sincere to yourself.

Do not be conditioned by things which have not given you anything so far. Be sincere to yourself, respect yourself, evaluate yourself that you are definitely something of a higher level that you are here today. You could have been in the pub.

So you must get for which you have come here. There is no difficulty at all in getting that. On the contrary, on the first day most of those who have got realisation here, will tell you, have got the realisation with such a tremendous experience but have also lost it because when the Kuṇḍalinī, which is in the triangular bone dormant lying, when She knows that there is somebody who can give you realisation, who has authority to give you realisation, She rises. You can see with your naked eyes. We can show you. The other day we had taken a picture of a person whose Kuṇḍalinī was pulsating. It was interesting to see how clearly, even in the film, it was showing. You can see with your naked eyes. This is what should happen to you is the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī.

The other day I was amazed that somebody told Me that in the Patanjali Yoga Shāstra it is written in the third chapter that, “You must put your attention to the Deśha." Now, what is the English translation they have taken for Deśha? What is the Deśha? Is the `country', is the `nation'. What translation they have taken is the `territory'. Now this is something absurd, because supposing you have to pay attention, say, to your heart, heart center is governed by the deity of Primordial Mother, Jagadambā. She governs it. She is the Queen of that Deśha, She is the one who does everything. When you have to do the correction of this area, you have to go to the Queen, ask Her permission, let Her know your difficulty and She will correct you. While they are saying that, let us say, bronchial tube. This is just a territory. Now supposing we are in this area sitting down, all right? Now this is a territory of this place. We have to do something here. Can we do it? Are we supposed to do it? No. We'll have to go to the authority, ask the gentleman.

He will put his own people or his own artist or his own architects or whatever is the job is and correct it by his own authority. Can we correct anything here if we want to? But these small things also you have not been able to see so clearly. [UNCLEAR it is] that by calling some name of the Caxton Hall, Caxton Hall, Caxton Hall, do you reach there? All the science of God is going to be exposed before you, completely. You are going to know the complete science of Divine Laws. They are very different from the ordinary laws we know. But first enter into the Kingdom of God. That's why I say first get your Self-realisation.

Some people, of course, in the former days, cleansed all these Chakras one by one, but they were all realised Souls. I don't find any one of these people being realised Souls. First important thing, a realised Soul never takes any money from anyone. It is beyond his dignity to live on the money of other people. Secondly, he doesn't show of his powers, but he gives you powers. Thirdly, he never keeps anything as a secret. Is it a Mafia going on, that we should keep secrets? When we are talking of collective consciousness, when we are talking of the consciousness of the whole, how can you keep it a secret? Every one of you have to know what's wrong with others, what's wrong with you, what's wrong with the whole. Otherwise, what is the use of such secretive people? Imagine in this whole body of ours, if one cell becomes secret, it does not communicate what is has got and another becomes secret. You may develop gangrene or you may develop horrible diseases like cancer and something like that. A person who is a realised Soul is an open, open slate. Anybody can see such a person. It's an open slate, absolutely an open slate and you cannot by any chance purchase such a person or dictate such a person. He lives in his own world and once you get your powers you become the same.

In Sahaja Yoga when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, I mean, by no other means it rises, only through Sahaja Yoga it rises, when it rises and opens the Sahasrāra here then you become one with that All-pervading Divine Power. You become. Is an actualisation, is not a lecture or anything like that, is no impression on you, no cinema, nothing. Is a thing that happens to you by which you start feeling on your fingers the different Chakras and the different happenings in other people.

Now the trouble with us is like this, we have had many fake people, many scriptures, many books.

Some say the Christianity disillusioned them.

Some say Hinduism has disillusioned them. They are all disillusioned so they think everything is an illusion. Now one should know that if there is a copy, there has to be something, the absolute. Every copy must have an absolute. Otherwise, how do you get the copy? But you can make out a copy. Say, in his days Constable was copied by somebody very well. All right. He sold also. But they found it out that it was not Constable. Then the reality that is expressed and manifested through a realised Soul, can anyone copy it? You can find him out in no time, just like that, if you are little bit intelligent and alert. That's the second point. Not that you are not intelligent; you are all very smart. But there is somebody who can outsmart you. And that outsmartness comes in confidence in your own smartness. The person who has outsmarted you is the one who has copied. And this copy can be found out only if you are a connoisseur. Now how do you become a connoisseur? Not by surrendering to every person, no, but by getting the degree as described in all the scriptures. Now what is the degree described in all the scriptures? Is that you must get your second birth. You must get your Self-realisation. Did any one of them say that to you, except for Me, that you are here to get your second birth? You are to be born again. While they will tell you, “Yes, but it is very difficult. You will have to pay for your Karmas. You will have to do this. It's not an easy thing. You go on for fifteen years." I don't say that. But what do you have to give Me is difficult, is your sincerity. When you pay money you become sincere about it. There is something absurd about human beings I really don't understand. Actually, when I pay money I should become little bit confused about it. But people become really sincere when they pay money. You see, you go to see a cinema, all right? You pay money for it and it's a horrid one. You cannot enjoy it anymore. I mean, it's terrible. Still you say, “Let's go through it. After all, we have paid." So the payment of money is the fixation, I tell you, first of all and then you think that, `Oh, we paid it.

Now we should pay little more,' like a competition starts. And you do not see what the other person who has done twelve years where is he and I have done one year, where am I. You are all running a rat race there, reaching nowhere.

Self-realisation is a thing which is an actualisation, should work in you. At least in some if it has worked, it is there. How many there are people who will say that, “We are Self-realised"? Recently I had a note from one Guru because by mistake I said perhaps he [touched] Self-realisation, to come and verify from Me whether he's a Self-realised or not. Very few people will say that, that, “I am a Self-realised Soul." Very few people will say that because they know what they are facing then. Self-realisation does not give you any horns, on the contrary, you become so humble. I've seen people who are Self-realised who are sitting down here, have given realisation to so many.

We have one boy, Mahārāj, in South Africa. Today only he rang Me up. He has given realisation to so many people that he says, “I can't believe it." He's cured people of diseases, he has done this and he has done that. He says, “I can't believe it, Mother. For what have You given me all these powers?" Just now somebody from Glasgow told Me that he has given ten realisations to people on one day. You can see the Kuṇḍalinī rising, you can see the working of it, there's actual in it. You are the scientific people. Why do you believe into some make-beliefs like that? That you go on for years together and ages together, killing yourself, killing your money, killing your wife, killing your children and achieving nothing whatsoever. You have to have the knowledge of the Divine. And that is only possible when you have the eyes to see. Those who cannot see, how can you describe the colours, the beauty of that love, the working of that love? So I say, I request you, that you get your realisation. Be sensible children, be nice, be good to yourself, get your Self-realisation, that's most important and then work it out.

Now for Sahaja Yogis who are already realised, a little bit of it I have to talk to them because I'm going to India for a month. And what I have to tell to Sahaja Yogis today is that they are realised, most of them have got vibrations, they are getting vibrations all right, they get caught up very much and they are getting involved so detachment is to be worked out. Now detachment is a thing people don't understand what it means. They will wear some sort of a dress to show they are detached. They'll take one cot and sleep under a tree and say they are detached, you see. There also they will have a lock to their box, you see. Or else they'll go in the Himālayas and they'll think they are detached.

Detachment is a state of mind within. It's not without. It is not to [UNCLEAR], cannot be expressed in clothes or in a kind of a way of life or and all that but it is a thing inside and the best way to judge it is when you try to give realisation to someone: Are you in sympathy with that person? Because, say, he is from the same Guru you are, so are you giving realisation to that person? Are you more concerned with that person because he's from the same clan from where you come or from nation where you come? This so-called sympathy, sympathy is a wonderful word, sym-pa-thy. `Sym' is to share and `pathy' is the pathos.

So you will share the pathos. It's the best part of what sympathy is. Sympathy is not the thing.

Compassion, it just flows, just flows. You don't have to sympathize with anyone. Just it flows and works.

That is compassion that comes out of detached being which just flows, is not bothered about what clan he comes from, what country he comes from, no association with your outside, whether he is your brother or sister or not, whether he is your enemy or not. You just work for that person out of compassion, like the river flows, like the sun shines for everyone. In the same way you become a Akarmī, means you are not attached to the Karmas that you are doing.

This is a very simple rule one has to follow, is not to sympathize with anyone and then this leads to another problem. You sympathize with someone and you will get hundred and one every day who will be just telling you and crying and telling you how miserable they are, absolutely miserable.

So how will you correct them by sitting with them and crying or just telling them, `You get your realisation first.' All this is coming to you from your left side or from your right side. Be in the center. We will work it out. It is a different state of mind where you reach; it is a different state of awareness where you are. It is super-awareness where you see the whole thing just like a drama where there is not unhappiness and happiness but only joy [UNCLEAR giving]. This detached stage is an achievement which Sahaja Yogis should develop.

It's very easy being alert about your oneself, when you start taking interest in others or in whatsoever, whatever is the thing. For example, a child, if you give him a child, now if he comes here, it will start running all over the places, touching everything, jumping over it, doing this, doing that, finished. It might collect few candles, make some sort of a toy out of it, throw it away and go away. The child is not bothered as to what is the future of that or past of that. It just works out and finish it. It's just a play. But I cannot do it by giving you this sermon. You have to achieve it.

Sahaja Yoga is experiencing and achieving. The one who achieves, achieves for himself. The one who experiences, experiences for himself and when he does that, he does for the whole. He creates a nucleus for the whole and the whole starts working in such a manner that you are amazed how in a collective way so many people start getting realisation. Each one of you who are Sahaja Yogis are capable of giving realisation to one thousand people every day, minimum. But you don't try, you are shy, you are humble, you do not want to claim that you are a realised Soul. Actually, I should ask them to put on their heads saying that, `I am a realised Soul.' What's wrong in it? But you feel shy about it, you don't talk about it, while I have seen people without any knowledge, without any authority, will have a big flag and a big ashram and will be somebody, will be beating the drums, `Here, stays the Falana Yogi. Come along, come along, come along.' And everybody will be piling up and you go and find some horrible hypocrite sitting down there, wearing artificial moustaches and artificial beard.

But for Sahaja Yogis it is important to find out as many as possible, to give them realisation, to bring them to realisation. Work it out in your own way. Find out what's the matter with people, why they are like that. Sit down, discuss it, find out why people are not coming to realisation and going to false things which are of no use. Think about it. You are the best to tell Me and you are the best judge.

For you meditation is very important because after realisation you can see in your light what are your problems are, without being afraid of them. And also you know in Sahaja Yoga techniques how to cleanse yourself, how to take out your Karmas, how to cleanse yourself completely and how to get completely rid of all your problems. Take it up seriously, meditate. You know how to meditate, you know how to clear out, you know what are the Chakras which are caught. Help others. Meditation must be done religiously and regularly. There aren't much `don'ts' in Sahaja Yoga, because Sahaja

Yoga itself looks after many of your things. You cannot keep your old habits. It just drops, you see, drop automatically, but you must meditate, you must learn how to meditate and if you have any particular problem you can ask your friends, no harm in asking, not to feel shy about it and you all must help each other. We are all part and parcel of one being and we have to help each other as much as possible. And if those who have known Sahaja Yoga for so many days and who are now quite well-equipped with the knowledge of Sahaja Yoga, you must ask them. Take their advice what is to be done, how to work it out and steady down yourself. You have to steady yourself. Unless and until you have a proper attitude towards Sahaja Yoga it won't work out.

If it is just a tertiary matter or secondary matter it's not going to work out. It has to be the first thing in life and the rest of things should be secondary because you are evolved, all right, but your evolutionary is not yet steady and you have not been able to give that fulfilment to your being which gives you complete satisfaction and complete joy. Unless and until you achieve that state you are not going to be happy with yourself either.

So please try to meditate and meditate. People give excuses: “I can't meditate here. I cannot meditate there. I can't do." This is all wrong. This is not the way you are going to improve. It is for you to achieve. Wherever you get the chance you try to meet these people in the ashram, see there and try to find out places where one can work it out and one can give realisation to others. All shallowness of life, all foolish hankerings and things will drop out gradually. But if you want you can also because now you are Self-realised, you are well equipped and that you have got special powers to do that.

Now I am going to India. I am taking your message to your brothers and sisters in India. They are in thousands, you know that and in the villages they are so simple and nice and spreading like fire in India in the villages, not in the cities, because city people are developing themselves. They are getting sophisticated. I think the village's people are very simple and Sahaja Yoga is working wonders there. In the same way you can also find out here many people who are of very simple nature who would like to come to Sahaja Yoga. Through many methods you can invite them. For example, I would say, this boy in South Africa, he came down here, stayed here in the ashram. He was realised long time back, but he learnt all the techniques. He went back to South Africa and he, first thing he started was to give out the photographs to people for treatment and many people got cured gradually and then he had some problems. He telephoned to Me that this is happening, that is happening, but for such people who are in need of physical benevolence it is better to work it out that way with some people and then the news spreads and then gradually people come to you. But there must be some people with sound physique also who want God, who are seeking God.

In Sahaja Yoga you will find meaning to all the religions of the world, to all the great incarnations who have come on this earth because they came here to give you all the steps which are required for your evolution. You all should now concentrate on the Chakras which are not all right within you. Concentrate on the Chakras and the deities on the Chakras. Wherever is the problem, you just concentrate on that and put your attention to it. With your attention you can clear it. Take the name of the deity at that point, as you know the mantras are, you know how to coin the mantras yourself. Now you know all the Shāstras of mantras.

So you put your mantras properly wherever is the need. Then you put the complete attention flowing Dharana absolutely, you see, till it sustains it completely, continuously and then you go into your enlightened, enlightened awareness, Samādhi.

So this is Dhyān, Dharana and Samādhi.

Enlightened awareness is, first of all, is thoughtless awareness.

So try to keep in thoughtless awareness and also later on into collective consciousness. These are the two stages you have already reached. Try to maintain them, clear them and establish yourself there. This is the way it should be done. And as we call in Hindi language Bhaitak, you must have a Bhaitak, means you should be able to sit on it, you should be able to do it for quite some time, but not with what you call a kind of a obstinacy about it, but out of joy.

As long as you feel the joy of it, you start doing it and you will be amazed to see how you establish your Chakras and your deities and at the beck and call of you, just even a mention of that, it will start working like that.

I want whatever I am, I should give it to you, all that I have, because I have nothing to gain. I had all these, all years, all ages. What I want is that you should have it now and let Me see you prosper, like the Mother Earth flowers in the blossoms and the fragrance spreads. I would like to see all of you blossom and your fragrance spreads throughout the nations and the whole of this universe, the whole of this world, the whole of these nations should be transformed into the new world of this grace and bliss of God. May God bless you.

Every one of the Sahaja Yogis must get at least ten people by the time I come back. Try. You can do it. Thank you.

The Master is going away. In the same way you should also know that whatever talents you have you must increase them and increase them and get more and more people for Sahaja Yoga.

Those who have come for the first time, please raise your hands. For the first time, please raise your hands. Now, can you come here forward? I would like to see you. Please come. Let them sit down. Sit please. Give them some chairs. Here, that's comfortable.

And the obstruction in the Sahaja Yoga comes from physical being very much. If you are not keeping good health, then first that hurdle is corrected, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises. The second one is from your mental being. Supposing you are a very disturbed person, also you get a problem, in raising the Kuṇḍalinī there is a problem. Now and the third one comes from your mental attitude. Say, if you are over-read and some conceptions are in your head about Self-realisation, also it takes time. The fourth one, which is the most important thing, that if you have had any spiritual drawbacks, initiated by some people who want to sort of exploit the situation, then that becomes a very big hurdle to you. Even if you have been interested in, say, in the spiritual sort of thing, going to the spirits and all that, that also has a very bad effect.

So one should not worry. Even if there is a problem, it can be corrected, it has to be corrected and it could be corrected. But as I said that realisation is within your reach, nothing to be frightened about. If there is any such problem, we'll correct it. For that we use a method, a technique which all the Sahaja Yogis know.

For example, they raise your Kuṇḍalinī. I can raise also. I raise My own Kuṇḍalinī on which I raise your own Kuṇḍalinī. This is called as Dhyāna Yoga. Actually, Sahaja Yoga is the Mahā Yoga. It's the greatest Yoga by which, you see, you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī of another person with your own hands because the vibrations are flowing from your own hands, the Divine vibrations, which can revitalise [UNCLEAR]. It can give you a balance. If it is more on the right or left, you can give it a balance. If any centers are in problem you can give them vibrations and the centers can be all right. You can cure the centers.

And the centers can be given more power to come together and work it out. Like cancer disease now, for example, in which the centers are suffering, these two centers get separated because the cells become on their own, start extracting the energy too much and there is no control left. Now when this happens then it is necessary to bring both the centers together like this from the left and the right and put them together like this. For that it is necessary to give vibrations there and that is why some people will have to give you vibrations [UNCLEAR]. But that should not upset you. You see, it is so surprising that some people when they are given vibrations they don't like it. They don't like this. They are so sensitive about them. But there is nothing going to go wrong with you. See, when Mohammed Sahib taught people how to do Namaz they all used to laugh at it. What He taught was nothing but the Kuṇḍalinī rising. He just taught the Kuṇḍalinī rising. And by Kuṇḍalinī rising He wanted people to get realisation, but they all went wrong because there was nobody Self-realised to do all that job except for Him or His son-in-law, his daughter or His grandsons. The rest were all good-for-nothing people perhaps or maybe they declined after sometime. And the whole system of Namaz became just what you call a formal stuff and nobody knows why, what it is like. But they are just doing it because they are told; nobody laughs at it now.

When it was genuine everybody laughed at it.

In the same way the technique of Sahaja Yoga is to be understood gradually by you. If others are giving you vibrations you shouldn't mind. Tomorrow you will be giving, you will be giving realisation to others. You are going to do it yourself, everything that they are doing today. And there is nothing to feel funny about it, just they will just move the Kuṇḍalinī at the back just like that or they might just give you a balance like this. There is nothing to feel so much upset about it. There is nothing nonsensical about it. It's a technique which is written in all the Scriptures. Kabīra has described it. Nanak has described it. All the other scriptures of Shañkarāchārya has described it. If you read Mārkandeya he has described it.

Nothing new about it, but because you do not know it you are naive about it. That's why [UNCLEAR]. But nothing is going to harm you. That is how you cure people and make them feel better. There is nothing to be upset about anything whatsoever.

Now we have some people here who are born realised and they have the knowledge of Kuṇḍalinī within them. They are born like that. We have one little boy [UNCLEAR], he's a born-realised. He lives in Holland. There are many children who are born-realised and they understand Me much better and they start working on Kuṇḍalinī in no time. And most surprising I find most of the Sahaja Yogis' children are born-realised. Even those who come to My programs, their children are mostly born-realised. And I request people to bring their children because perhaps they are here because of their children and they understand it very well. They know how to work it out. They know how to carry it out. I don't have to tell them anything.

So one has to know that there is something which is very, very genuine and clear. Only thing is you do not know about it, you have not seen it, felt it. That's why you find it little different. But it is different.

It is a different thing, isn't it? After all, when you come to London, you find London is little different from India. And here you have to use something which you do not use in India.

So, is little different, but still you have to use it if you have to live here. In the same way when you enter into the Kingdom of God, you have to know how to use your hands, how to use your fingers, how to use your whole movement of your Kuṇḍalinī and [UNCLEAR... of which] that gradually you will learn.

So, nothing to be afraid of. But again and again one has to say that it's a serious matter. [UNCLEAR You cannot prove]. You may get your realisation just like that, you'll feel very nice, but do not give it away. Come back again, assemble together, establish yourself and then you will know what you are fully well and how much you are capable of. May God bless you.

It's all right. You put all your hands just like that. You may close your eyes. Now, just watch. If your eyes are closed without any strain or without any flickering of the eyelids then it is all right. But if there is any flickering please open them. If there is no flickering in the eyelids then it is all right. You can see yourself. Now when the Kuṇḍalinī rises above the Āgñyā Chakra which is this where My red mark is, in the center of the brain where the Optic Chiasma is, then you become relaxed. [MISSING.] [UNCLEAR poise] and with great understanding, you just watch yourself. Is there any thought in your mind? Just see for yourself. It is you who have to certify yourself. Now, if there is no thought then you pay attention to the top of your head very slowly, not in a very pushing manner, you see, just here, pay your attention there.

They are putting off lights because there should not be much strain on your eyes.

Now what happens is you start feeling Cool Breeze in your fingers coming towards your palm. Maybe you are feeling hot. If so, throw it away like that, if you are feeling hot. Keep both the hands not together but away from each other and pressing both fingers like this. Just press them forward like that. But both the hands should be on both the feet. Now keep your eyes shut because the dilatation of the pupil takes place when the Kuṇḍalinī rises.

Those who are feeling Cool Breeze in the hands, please raise your hands. All of you who are feeling Cool Breeze in the hands. Good. Are you? Little bit? Not yet? Are you feeling? Little bit, little bit, it started just both [UNCLEAR feet] you are going to get it very soon. What about you, My child? No? Please put your hands here. Are you keeping all right health wise? Better now, see. Put both your feet like this straight on the ground, here. Feet on the ground like this, separate, better. Are you getting? Are you feeling? Little bit, yes. Are you feeling? Not yet. All right. You don't feel it? Just see. Wait and see.

It will work out. It will work out. It is going to work out. It works out.

Just you can feel there, if they are feeling all right. You can get up and see if it is there. Come up.

Should get it. Come here. Yes, she's got it. She's got it.

[UNCLEAR]. It started uprising? [Aside:] She'll get it till the end.

Keep your seat. Keep your eyes shut. This is the greatest experience of the ages now. Keep your eyes shut. Enjoy yourself, absolutely. Enjoy yourself. What about you? Not yet. [UNCLEAR Otille] you have some problem here? Here? All right, that's it. It is there. Where you are? All right. It is at liver, liver. Just you look after your liver. [I'm very] sad. Is he all right now? Good. It is. [UNCLEAR Let Me see. He hasn't got?] Got it. Heart. Put your hands on his back, [UNCLEAR]. Just hold your [UNCLEAR] all right. Hmm, liver.

Contents: 1979-08-18*, Public Program (Hindi), Ātmā and Param'ātmā, New Delhi, India

[In August 1979 Shri Mataji returned to India from UK at a very short notice.] The sudden arrival is for various reasons. In Sahaja Yoga sudden arrival has a special significance. We must have seen many incidents in our lives, which have suddenly happened. They do not mean anything to us. If we try on intellectual level, we cannot understand why a particular incident has taken place in our life.

It has been the way of human being, that he wants to understand everything through reasoning. This is correct on his part because his awareness is not yet awakened. When his awareness is limited and when he is searching the proof of everything through his intellect it is difficult for him to adopt some other means which are outside the scope of reasoning.

You have heard a lot about Param'ātmā, Ātmā, Ādi Shakti etc. You have also read about them in books.

Every now and then, man talks about Ātmā and Param'ātmā. There have been many incarnations, who have told that you should first realise your Ātmā because man cannot reach Param'ātmā, without knowing his Ātmā. As you cannot identify colours without eyes in the same way, you cannot attain Param'ātmā unless you meet your Ātmā.

You cannot intellectually understand Param'ātmā. It is only through Ātmā that you can understand Param'ātmā.

So far, all saints have said “be alert in the observance of your Dharma, search your Ātmā, understand the Ātmā that is residing in you." What is Ātmā? What work is it doing residing within us and how is it related to Param'ātmā? It is said that Ātmā is the reflection of Param'ātmā in our heart. This reflection is like that of the sun in water.

Although reflection of the sun is seen in water, he is away in the sky and not in water.

Similarly Ātmā is as much as it is seen, it is beyond all that and not limited by it. But, for any reflection to be clearly visible the mirror which is the cause of that reflection must be clean. If the mirror is not clean, or instead of mirror a stone is there, the sun's reflection will not be seen in it.

In the same way, that man looks disturbed who has not yet become clean like mirror, so that he can see the Param'ātmā's reflection within himself. Although the sun is seen taking different shapes on the ripples of flowing water, he is steady at his place and it is only his reflection that changes its shape. Similarly, the reflection of Ātmā appears to be absent or it just shines for a moment and disappears, in the person who is full of sin and wickedness or whose heart is loaded with false ambitions and desires. It thus entails that all these, body, mind, intellect, ego etc. that we know, should be converted into a mirror. It should be transformed into a mirror.

How will it happen? God has made that arrangement within us.

Many incarnations have worked for evolving us from amoeba to human being and have brought us into our present stage. When we are moving about as alert human beings. We are alert but not enlightened.

A blind man is very alert but one who has sight sees everything without being bothered about it. A blind man can perceive small, small things. He knows small details of every place. One who is having the sight looks at only those things which are worth seeing and which he wants to know about. Kuṇḍalinī Shakti that is residing in us has been placed in us by Param'ātmā and has been created by His desire.

Kuṇḍalinī Shakti creates our mirror, develops it and cleans it. Slowly She makes it capable of receiving in itself the reflection of Ātmā. In Sahaja Yoga you know that awakening of Kuṇḍalinī is very easy and spontaneous. But Sahaja Yogis must know that they have come to Sahaja Yoga primarily to clean their mirror, to wash their sins and past deeds, to become purified of all the dirt that has been accumulated within from time immemorial. They have not come to collect sins and dirt, but to become pure. Many Sahaja Yogis are aware that Kuṇḍalinī is that current which passes through their Chakras and awakens their Chakras. When the light comes on your Chakras you can know their condition even on your finger tips.

This is the knowledge. This alone is to be known.

So far the knowledge that you have had was not enlightened. There was no light in it. Now because of the light, you can know which of your Chakras have problems. There is a way to clear the Chakras of those problems. How to do it, is also taught in Sahaja Yoga.

You cannot see the filth as long as there is no light. It is not visible in the dark. You will see it when light illumines within you.

So the first object is, to accomplish the light, to what people call, achieving the truth or knowing the truth. First we should know the truth and in the truth we initially come to know what our qualities are. In Sahaja Yoga, man easily accepts his faults, because he can see them in the light.

Suppose there is a spot on this sarī and it is dark. If someone points it out, we won't agree and may even feel offended. But if we see it in light, we would be surprised that there is such a big spot and we have not noticed it! We won't feel bad about it and would like to get it cleaned somehow, immediately.

Suppose if there is a catch on some Chakra, say on Āgñyā, you will understand it yourself. You will have some pain or some such similar feeling. In the light you will understand that you have problem there; and you will clear it. But if you are not sensitive and do not feel the problem, you may go mad and may land in lunatic asylum without even knowing that your such and such Chakra was caught and such filth entered inside you. Similarly you never know even if you contact some disease, because you are sitting in the dark. In the darkness you do not understand whether you are sitting on a snake or some bomb has fallen on you. When the light shines inside you, you realise which calamity you are facing.

So the first glimpse of knowledge is regarding yourself. You know your problems.

In Sahaja Yoga, people get the realisation. Immediately thereafter man sees his own faults and as human nature is, he starts running away from Sahaja Yoga. Initially, he gets scared, the very moment he starts seeing his own faults. He cannot believe that so many faults exist in him. He is scared and then he starts doubting. You have seen; thousands of people come and get the realisation but they do not come again. What is the reason for it? If hundred people are realised only ten per cent come back. It always happens.

Therefore Sahaja Yoga is developing rather slowly. That does not matter. It's reason is that man is so much identified with himself that he does not want to know his faults; and when he knows them, he starts running away. But it is better to know your faults and correct them, rather than carrying their burden from life to life. People do not know what time has come. It is the last chance. You won't get any more chance. In Bible it has been described as the `Last Judgement'. Your last judgement is in Sahaja Yoga and how it will be done can be judged by yourself. When the light comes within you, you judge yourself.

“See my such and such Chakra has been caught." Then you say “Mother, I have a catch on this Chakra." You know that I am ready to put in all efforts for you. You can also work on each other. Thereby you can completely clean all your faults, problems and sins etc. Why should you carry that burden? Instead of throwing it off people are running away from Sahaja Yoga. This is human brain.

That keeps thinking and always remains worried. There is nothing to be scared of. If you become little steady, you will realise how big is this power, which not only brings into light your faults, but also removes them and removes them completely.

So, first of all you must know, that Kuṇḍalinī Shakti is extremely holy and virgin. This virgin power makes us clean and pure. In Sahaja Yoga. She is very much pleased to give you the realisation.

Then there can be only two possibilities. Either you recognize the Self-realisation within you and rise up to its greatness and go deep in it; or leave it altogether. There cannot be a third alternative. As someone asked, “How many turns are there in London?" Only two? Left and right.

Either you completely accept it or leave it. If you have decided to accomplish it and to completely clean yourself, then the reflection of Ātmā will shine in you. In this Kuṇḍalinī Yoga you become aware in collective consciousness, you remain aware in collective consciousness and you clean others also while cleaning yourself. Others' sins are also washed. It is regarded as auspicious, here.

Some persons are very auspicious whereas some are quite inauspicious, latter ones bring calamities in the house or in the country they enter. There will be difficulties, wherever they stay. One gentleman came to Me. He was a young man of 23-24 years. He said “Mother I am quite inauspicious." “How do you know?" I asked. He said “I am very inauspicious. Even children are afraid of me. When I go to a house the family has to face some difficulties or the other, or some bad event occurs, that people are now convinced that there is something wrong with me and I am inauspicious, because it has happened repeatedly." Such people are inauspicious because all darkness of sin is associated with them and it is so deep that like a blind person they face tremendous difficulties, grief, sorrow, sickness etc. and ultimately they are finished in that. If such a person visits a family someone from them may even die.

Considerations regarding good or bad omens is in vogue in our country since time immemorial. Those who are saints, although they are care free, have no place of their own they may not be bothered about their clothes and food and may be staying in jungles, bring prosperity wherever they go. This is also told about God. If you want to recognize God, His biggest identity is that the biggest auspicious is in His hands. He does good to all and makes all happy. Touch of His feet makes everything auspicious. There are six gifts of God, which bring prosperity, well being, happiness etc.

Whenever incarnations came, great and auspicious works were done. But now the time has come in which that work will be done, which is the most auspicious work ever done, thereby, you also will be the doers of auspiciousness and will realise the Spirit residing within you. This is the ever great work of Sahaja Yoga and the incarnations. It should inspire the entire society. In this great eternal life, when shadows of Kali Yuga are enveloping the whole universe, your torches (flame) should burn high and in their light you may attain auspiciousness, joy and prosperity. It is necessary, for this, to keep your lamps clean, you should wash your sins and past deeds. Your past deeds are washed along with your ego.

Karmas are done by your ego. You must have observed that after coming to Sahaja Yoga, you can very easily see your ego [Ahaṁkāra] and how it works. In Sahaja Yoga also, you come across many temptations and in that when your ego dominates, you forget whether you have to go to Sahaja Yoga or Sahaja Yoga is to come to you.

Many people when they surrender to their ego, turn their backs to Sahaja Yoga expecting Sahaja Yoga to follow them. As long as your ego is enveloping, you cannot have the glimpse of your Spirit. But it is useless to fight with your ego. In Sahaja Yoga you do not have to fight with your ego, but you have just to see because your attention is itself awakened.

Your ego cools down by just seeing, as your attention is enlightened and in that light you witness the play of your ego any laugh at it, any laugh at the ideas given by your ego. As you start seeing yourself, your ego starts getting deflated and as your ego is deflated you rise in your light.

Sahaja Yoga is a very subtle process. Few people know that it is a very subtle process. Suṣhumnā Nāḍī is extremely small, extremely thin, exactly at the center of Brahma Nāḍī, reason is man's attachment to his Karmas. That extremely subtle channel Brahma Nāḍī is loaded with sin and dirty things and thereby gets so much narrowed, that very thin fibre of Kuṇḍalinī could pass through it. Imagine that Kuṇḍalinī is like an enlightened rope made of small fibres. Its very thin fibre could pass through Brahma Nāḍī. This is the condition.

You have all seen that this is a very subtle, very deep process. Most of you have seen Kuṇḍalinī's movements and pulsations. She tries to make, somehow a small opening at the bottom, so that it becomes possible to pass at least one strand through the extremely narrow passage of Brahma Nāḍī and with that very subtle strand She pierces the Brahmarandhra.

Initially this happening takes place very easily in most of the people. But She again coils down due to the pressure of the burden and then they even forget that the peace, serenity and cool vibrations etc.

which they had once received are no more with them.

They are shocked when they see in the light that these things are embodied in themselves. Then they get scared and become suspicious. Man's intellect comes up with many doubts. The first doubt which is very common, is “Who is Mātājī?" This is the first question. I want to tell you that you cannot understand Me as long as the eyes of your Spirit are not open and you should not even make efforts to understand.

First you open the eye of your Spirit.

When Śhrī Rām came, people said that they accepted Parashurām, when Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa came they said, they accepted Śhrī Rām and at the time of Śhrī Nanaka, they accepted Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa when Christ was here they accepted Abraham. All of them had taken human form. But it is all the play of Buddhi [the intellect] how interesting it is! Now, I have come and people are accepting Śhrī Sāi Nāth [of Shirdi]. But when he lived here, he did not even get anything to eat. Why was it so? He was also a human being. As long as he was alive, he too was considered useless and tortured but when he died he was regarded as Bhagwan [God]. What is the reason of this all? Why has man been like this? You will have water of the Ganges, where She flows. If She is flowing here, will you say `We do not accept Her as the Ganges!'? There may be nothing at the place where She was flowing earlier, or may be, only a Nullah at present. If you want to take it as the Ganges you go your way. If the Ganges is flowing at this place, why not accept it? It is not easy to understand human intellect. It is the most difficult job in the world! It is easy to understand God, because He is what He is. He does not have such double dealings. Man has a variety of qualities, not just double. All animals from snakes and scorpions to elephants, horses and lions are residing in him. You will not understand at all, why his brain is working in this way.

Now when the Ganges is flowing why don't you take water from Her? Imagine this plug has been connected here. Will you connect in its place a plug which is out of order? It is quite pragmatic. I cannot understand what hallucination is there on human intellect, that he does not accept the truth which he is seeing but accepts something that is not seen? Its reason was understood long back and that is Ahaṁkāra [ego]. Man has too much of ego. If you had accepted Śhrī Rāma in his days, he would have told you to get your Kuṇḍalinī awakened and get the realisation and get established in Sahaja Yoga. Had you recognized Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, he would not have played Sahaja Yoga in Gokul, but would have given you the realisation and told you to practice Sahaja Yoga. If Śhrī Nanak had been accepted, there was no need for him to break his head telling you to do different things. He would have simply taught Sahaja Yoga, but very few understood him in his days.

Now, when he is not here, you have built Guru-dwaras in his name. When Mohammad is not here mosques have been made, because they think now Mohammad Sahib is in their hands. Now Rāma is in their hands and they can make his temple and say, “This is our temple, this Rāma is our property. We have authority over him and whatever you have brought, all money and other things, offer them to this idol." You say all this because you think you are the authority of this idol. It is sheer ego because of which man thinks, that he can keep God in his control and for that he is making all the show. Every time the same show was repeated. Even now, I see big temples. What is happening in them? What is going on even in those temples having `Swayambhū' idols? Ego makes donkey out of man. Even donkey has its respect. Donkey also may have some sense of propriety but an egoist can be worse than a donkey. If a man is equated with his ego, then the result is a donkey. I always say, you will be surprised to see how the ego is inflated in a man. If one gets excess of money he goes astray. One out of one lakh rich people, talks sense. If they receive money, they will think in which pub they would go or to which dirty woman they would go etc! Never would that man think, that the money he has got could be spent on the work, within himself and without that would be acceptable to God and would bring His blessing. They will make the show of ego even in that, they will make a temple and inscribe on it that the temple of Śhrī Rāma has been built by such and such person in the name of his father. What will you call it, if not madness! If his father had done some work, automatically he would have become famous. By seeing such dreams of false ego man remains away from the truth. Even though man sees the truth face to face, the ego teaches him not to accept it because by accepting the truth he would be free from ego.

It has many remedies. Say a man receives plenty of money and becomes very powerful. Excessive power also makes one a donkey. One behaves like a joker and becomes a laughingstock with too much of power because that goes to one's head.

If a woman becomes extremely beautiful and she takes it into her head that she is a ravishing beauty, then she goes down to a Nāḍīr. Why does man become a donkey when he has excess of something? Its reason is, he cannot wield it. If he is an emperor, even millions of rupees have no value for him, but let a pauper have some money and he will be flabbergasted.

If a real king comes to power, it does not matter for him at all. He lives in the world like a king and is not bothered by small and petty affairs. But an ordinary person cannot, because he has no ability to wield an excess of anything.

He cannot go to an extreme when he attains the extremes of his Spirit, rest everything becomes valueless for him. On the contrary, due to his ego he loses his freedom and day and night he remains in such nasty hallucination that like a fool he thinks that he is being praised. Never can he think as to what he is doing and which is the right path for him.

Now the time has come to stop and see. It is now time to rise and to know. It is time for you to stop wherever you have reached on the mount of your ego and look back.

So far, you have not achieved anything, you do not know anything. Accept it with humility and let it be imbibed in you. You have not yet understood your Spirit. With your every step, you are getting more and more involved in dead things that put you in the fetters of dependence and enslavement of your six enemies [passion, anger, greed, pride, temptation and jealousy], stop for a while and see your mirror there itself which is within you and you will find the Param'ātmā of your eternal Ātmā residing within you. Know Him and go deep. Enjoy that bliss and with that light dispel darkness of the world. This is very great work and many people are not sticking to this great work. That is the difficulty. Thousands will come here if I start mesmerizing.

One such fake Guru reached London. He emptied the pockets of ninety thousand people, he charged $6,000 from each person. Sixty people from them came to Me, they were suffering from epilepsy. I asked them as to what he taught them, which mantras he told. At the cost of six thousand dollars, those poor things, got the mantra, inga pinga tinga! This mantra was passed to them secretly in writing and they were told that by chanting this mantra they would get many siddhis.

Today, those people are on the roads, their homes have been ruined, their plight is miserable. Had they been wise and tried to understand, they would not have gone to such a person who was pampering their ego. Always he would tell them “you are a great person, you are phongan and all should come in their best etc." Those who fill their coffers, keep inating other people's ego and all people in the world like such persons.

Big newspapers, will bring out their advertisement and write their praise because those persons have money which attracts money. Big celebrities would call on them. But inside, there is a big falsehood. Can we say man worships falsehood? But man himself lives in a big falsehood, which is his ego.

One who preserves such falsehood and is carried away by it, invites his disaster. Why, I am repeatedly asking you, why are you inviting that disastrous end? What is the reason for which you do not want to know yourself? Why don't you want to surrender before God? Why are you following wrong people? You are ready to sacrifice even your life for those who are robbing you, destroying you, who have done all harm to you because they have mesmerized you. Have you got no capacity of your own to understand what is going on? Param'ātmā can be known, only in complete freedom. You are getting scared of whatever little freedom you initially experience in Sahaja Yoga and want to go back to your old state of dependence. Sahaja Yoga is very simple, but you people are not.

There are many complications in cities. You have to pass through considerable pressure and strain, because of which you have to face big problems. Hence, initially, you have to become simple.

You know, that My work has great impetus in villages. Ego is more powerful in cities. Due to small things, people become egoists and that is why they surrender to those who pamper their ego and run away with their money. You just keep looking at them and receive disease. You will be surprised, all those patients of deadly diseases, like cancer, etc. whom I have cured, all of them without any exception were the victims of fake Gurus and Tāntrikas. I have not seen any cancer patient who was not connected with a false Guru. That's why it is said that doctors cannot cure cancer. You would now understand, how wicked, inauspicious and harmful these people are! Even environments around them are bad. Those who go into their environments come to such a tremendous grief that you will be shocked to know. Very large number of people have died in Morvi, some of them were innocent, but worst kind of sin was to be committed at that place. You have heard that those people had decided to buy for a Sādhu a huge land in Kucch.

Man must see and think in whose hands he is playing and how he is inviting his own disastrous end. I am telling you as your mother and persuading you not to go to such wicked people and invite your disaster.

Do not destroy your Spirit by going to such people. You should understand your Spirit. There is no need to spoil everything in the oscillations of questions and counter questions. Get realisation first. First know your Spirit. I will do the rest.

On what basis will you ask questions before that? Have you got any means to ascertain who is genuine and who is fake. You must know your Spirit first.

So long as you do not know your Spirit it is useless to discuss because it is a very subtle subject and not shallow, that you could come and see somebody's face and say something and that's all! Never get into such a mess that you cannot come out of it.

Sahaja Yoga is a superb feat, it is extremely great.

Sometimes I Myself am amazed at it! It is such a fantastic thing. It looked really very difficult how would it take place in a man and then grow further.

Jesus could be considered as the last man, to do a lot of work and after Him we can say on Guru principle Nanak Sahib came. Even in his time so many could not know their Spirit. He was breaking his head on advising the people. He had taken human form but still He was not recognized.

I was with Him, in fact with all of them. I am glad that there are about 10,000 persons in this country who have come to Sahaja Yoga and attained their Spirit.

This is the last judgement! Let us see what happens. Whatever people come is alright for Me. Even if they do not come, it's still alright. Remember, God will not bow before you. You have to accomplish Him in your own freedom. If you have not achieved Him, it is not His fault, nor is it of Sahaja Yoga, mine, or that of Ātmā.

You, who are having your ego, will have yourself to blame. It is your wealth or your asset and it has been given to you only because you should accept it, know it and enjoy it.

May God bless you.

Contents: 1979-09-24 Navarātri Celebrations (3rd Day), Kuṇḍalinī, Śhrī Shiva Shakti and Śhrī Viṣhṇu Shakti (Marathi), Amar Rundal Mandal Bhadar, Mumbai, India

Until and unless power of Shiva is not united with Spirit, there is no Yoga [union]. When this union takes place then only your realisation is complete. Shiva always lives in the heart in a detached way (one who knows every thing about us).

Someone is there inside our heart who knows every thing about what we are doing. We know that if we befool ourselves and torture ourselves, there is someone residing in the heart who knows every thing. One who knows, is Shiva. He is residing in our heart as Spirit. Till the power of shiva and the Spirit are not united, both the powers should be understood as separate. The power of Spirit is detachment and eternal. It cannot be blotted. None can kill it. It is detached and it is not attached to anything. It sees everything separately. Take an example of a Gas Lamp which has glass out side and the fire inside like wise in our heart that is fire which is Spirit which resides inside and is awakened and emits light. Rest of all is not awakened. To get awakened means to get collective consciousness. This is called eternal which enlightens in our attention. I have told already that there is a fire inside Gas Lamp which produces big amount of light. Like wise is union but the Gas which is inside the Lamp is not awakened.

Awakened is that fire in our heart it is awakened in the form of Spirit. Rest all is sleeping. Kuṇḍalinī in all of us is the power of Shiva. The pure power of Mahākālī is in our Kuṇḍalinī. We have not used this desire. This is pure form. That is sitting in the Kuṇḍalinī. Fortunately, if it is awakened it gets united with Sadāśhiva. Then the Spirit residing in our heart is sparkled and that sparkle enlightens the Spirit.

The power of Shiva is not the power of Shiva but it is too. In the beginning you saw that God and his powers are same. Sun and its rays are one, moon and its light are one. These are not separate. Likewise moon and moon light are not two. But human beings cannot understand that both are not separate but they are not united also. Because creation is taking place. If it is in the God nothing can be created. When God's realisation takes place creation is there. There is union of shiva with Kuṇḍalinī then the power of creation takes place. Union of creation power and Shiva power results into the power of Viṣhṇu. Viṣhṇu is the power of knowledge means everything that came into our consciousness is knowledge. Bookish knowledge is not knowledge. When human being searches God then we can say that his Viṣhṇu Element is enlightened completely. If it is not awakened then he is of lower standard.

This power of Viṣhṇu is located in the Navel. We have several misconceptions about Dharma. But Dharma is pure and eternal. It is not imagination but is reality. It means that if the atomic number of carbon is four then every carbon atom must have the same atomic number. If the colour of Gold is yellow and it doesn't fade then it is Dharma of gold. Everything has been given its Dharma (snake, scorpion).

This is the power of Viṣhṇu. This Dharma has reached up to human level through evolution. Human beings have got ten Dharmas (valencies). These ten Dharma should be present in human beings, if it is not there then the man is devoid of Dharma means he is not human being. Either he is a devil or animal.

To become a human being all the ten Dharmas should be present in void. This is truth and now to look after these Dharmas God have created a different arrangement in human beings. Human beings do not know that we should remain in these Dharmas. Viṣhṇu Shakti incarnated in the World up to the level of human beings. You know that God has incarnated. First of all you were fish then tortoise then Varah [in the form of pig]. It means everywhere you saw that at each step of your evolution God took birth and showed you the directions because none could do it and only the power of vishnu takes incarnations. None of others takes incarnations. For evolution there is need of incarnation. Evolution is the power of Viṣhṇu Shakti only, so Viṣhṇu Shakti only takes birth. We call it as Mahākālī or the power of Shiva. Mahākālī Shakti sometimes takes birth whenever Her followers were in trouble. She protected them but the main incarnation that is helpful in our evolution he is Viṣhṇu.

Now Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa is the whole incarnation of Viṣhṇu that is why he is called as whole. He is Virāta.

To understand you see that if this World is Virāta, you are a part of it.

So this part should be awakened and should feel that they are the part and parcel of this whole and that is why I have given you Sahaj Yoga.

Now you came up to Viśhuddhi Chakra. This is the Chakra of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. It has sixteen petals and 16,000 nerves. On Viśhuddhi Chakra human being raised his head. His speciality is, he got `I', the ego. I am this, I am that. This feeling of separation happens by special process. Our super ego and ego meet near Brahmarandhra [Sahasrāra]. When both of them are bloated Brahmarandhra is blocked. Then you become man, you are, `a', `b', `c', `d.' Likewise you become. You take yourself as separate. I am special, he is special, they are like that etc. But in reality, you are not separate. Everyone of you has same power but until and unless you get that consciousness you cannot think about it. That is why God has created you separately.

God has created you in a different manner. God has given you freedom. You are different than animals.

Now you should learn something. When you will know yourself then only you will feel that you are the element of same matter. When this component would meet the whole then only the completeness takes place. Till Dharmas are created and to establish it only Kuṇḍalinī pierces the Sahasrāra as realisation takes place. There is none other procedure.

Someone says how is there only one way? There is only way for fruit to sprout in the tree. Likewise there is only one way for Kuṇḍalinī. Now what other religion say? There is much dispute about it. You take the religion of Christians. Jesus Christ told that I am the gate, I am the way. Śhrī Jesus himself was the way and gate. But he didn't use the word Kuṇḍalinī. Now if someone says that is there the knowledge of Kuṇḍalinī in Muslim religion, I would say, yes it is there completely.

Namaj means nothing else other than this. How to raise the Kuṇḍalinī is only told in the procedure of Namaj.

Mohammad Sāhab told that stretch both of your hands on knees and pray through Namaj. Then everybody used to laugh. Why to do? Now today we cannot even talk to the followers of Mohammad Sāhab. Mohammad Sāhab was incarnation of Ādi Guru Dattātreya. But how were the circumstances you should see. The incarnation of Dattātreya was not respected. People did not understand. Yet he told about Namaj. You pray like Namajis, all the methods of praying by Namaj awaken your Kuṇḍalinī. This second power is Viṣhṇu power which reside in you. All these Gurus are the incarnations of Ādi Guru. We respect them a lot in Maharashtra. They are in our Void. Many people are the followers of Ādi Gurus.

But they have problem of stomach. This is amazing. If you worship the Ādi Guru, you should have good stomach. Your void will be in trouble because it is not awakened. Dattātreya is not your slave. Who is Dattātreya? I know him that is why I don't explain. Are you prepared for it? Have you authority? Now a days there are egoistical false Gurus who try unnecessarily and are present everywhere. They don't have authority to talk about Ādi Guru. All these authorityless persons go towards their destruction and take their disciples too. In the same manner you have thought of awakening Guru Tattwa, it has many defects and that is why your stomach is in trouble.

Now, through Sahaj Yoga you will come to know about the problems. How to balance its integrity? How to awaken Ādi Guru Dattātreya within? Once Dattātreya is awakened within you, then the religion will spontaneously gets awakened. Then it becomes very difficult to do adharma [anti-religion]. The most important thing is that all these Gurus said that you should know it. First thing is that human being should not be addicted to any drug or intoxicant. They say that Shirdi Sāi Nāth used to smoke. He was different But you don't have to smoke. Any addiction whether it is wine, tobacco, liquor, etc. all are against your Guru Tattwa. Why you should not drink? Because by drinking, your Dharma and Guru Tattwa are damaged. Then fanaticism and conditionings of religions are also very harmful for Nābhī Chakra. If we have fanatic people with us, they will have the problems of stomach. Because fanaticism is harmful for your Viṣhṇu Tattwa. Not only this but even Guru Tattwa is destroyed by such thinkings and conditionings of religion. The one who is fanatic, means `I am very great hindu, Muslim, Christian and all others like this' can never do Sahaj Yoga. What do you know? Today you are born here, tomorrow you will be born in China or in another religion. By which way you decide? I cannot say this in India because we know here that you are reborn.

So, what were you in your past life? Do you know? May be that in your previous life you were an English man. All the great saints of India have born in England and in West and those English and Western people are born in India.

By seeing the politicians today in India, I am doubtful that may be the Western and English people are born in India? Now, you all should understand that when we talk about religion then it is more within than external. There are many examples for it. You can take example of Śhrī Rāma. There was an old lady without teeth, living in jungle, without taking bath. She brought the berries for Śhrī Rāma by tasting it that if they are sweet or sour and offered them to Śhrī Rāma. In Maharashtra they are very particular about this that they will not eat of it is eaten by others. Will you eat those berries? But Śhrī Rāma enjoyed them with love! He told to Sītā that, “I will not give you even one, I will eat them all. I never got such taste ever." Then that old lady said that I have more and they are broken by my teeth. Lakshmana became very angry seeing all this. Then Sītājī said that “it is true that even I have not tasted such berries ever in my life. Give me more and also to my brother-in-law." It is described so beautifully.

Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa went to Vidura's home and had the meals. He himself took birth in the caste of Milkman.

You are very special personality. (Fanaticism) means you don't know what is Hindu religion. Everyone has same Spirit and rest all revolves around it. God is in everyone. This has been said instead of that castism is made by us. Caste is according to your nature and everyone has different nature. This should be understood. `Swa' [Self], `Bhav' [meaning], you don't know yourselves. What is the basis of classification of your caste? This is reason of blocking of your Viṣhṇu element. Means to plan and make imagination, this is not right, that is not correct: how did you know it? How will you identify it? For this your Viṣhṇu element should be awakened. This is in your Nābhī Chakra. After enlightenment of this Chakra, I said that creativity develops from Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra. Workalcoholics mostly suffer from the problems of this Chakra. As you know that the power of Viṣhṇu is absorbed by Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra. The one who is workalcoholic doesn't have time for his evolution and does not know his meaning.

He cannot think of it. They suffer always.

Now there is the power of Viṣhṇu and Shiva. Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra is originated from Viṣhṇu Chakra only. When Kuṇḍalinī crosses six Chakras, it is called as complete Nirmal Vidyā. The desire of God enlightens all the Chakras and pure elements are established in you, means all the deities get awakened.

They are awakened and you start getting their attributes.

You know the effects of awakening of Lakṣhmī element. Lakṣhmī does not mean a very rich person.

Lakṣhmī means charity by one hand and by one ashray [protection] in by two other hands lotuses. Misers don't have this element. The person who is like a lotus, is very loving and caring means if anyone comes to his home, he respects and expresses his heartily feeling for the guest. He has Lakṣhmī elements. How many have this quality? It is equal to nil. But you feel that the follower of this element are those who have plenty of money to carry on the donkey. They cannot be Dharmic. Śhrī Christ says that people having plenty of money cannot inter the kingdom of God. Any camel if put in the hole of needle, can cross it but such person cannot stay in Sahaj Yoga because he would see nothing except money. None, neither father, mother, son but the money. Only how great am I and how much money do I have? Now if money is not there he has nothing. More money means more ego. Limited amount of money which suffices your need is needed. Such thoughts if you have then only your Viṣhṇu Tattwa is awakened, means if your attention comes on solution instead of money then you are on ascent. If you feel that solution resides in getting money means you make one home, then you feel to have motor car, then a building. No end of your needs! You are never satisfied. Money is static.

So you get this attribute from money. If you are static then there is no solution. If someone is habitual of chair, he cannot get rid of the chair. To be static is to make habits. If you are involved in any static things then you are attached to it. You loose your dynamicity and ruin yourself.

You can find the solution from nothing except that is dynamic. God's Power can give you solution.

Until you become Spirit you do not have solution and satisfaction. You earn money, get the higher position but still your face is wry. But who has this power is in joyous state, is a prince. You will see him and come to know that he is in connection with Divine Power. You must ponder over now. There should be the solution. We were artificial, we did this and that, over now. What to do now? Then you proceed towards to your Dharma state. Now still your mental activities teach you like you will call a Brahmin [Hindu priest] and say I will pay you for worshiping! Otherwise, you would go into the temple and give donation. You feel great that you have donated or will construct a temple. What about the temple inside? God is there? Did you awaken the God inside. Residing inside is your Spirit. God is inside. Why don't you awaken him? Reason is that it is very difficult for you to face yourself. He can't face himself. For that Kuṇḍalinī is there. Kuṇḍalinī rises and awakens the deities. Many people think that it is very hard to awaken it, but it is not true. You saw it yesterday how easy it was? How many people got their realisation. They felt Cool Breeze. This is very easy. One who knows should do it one who doesn't should not. Need not to try if you don't have authority. Everything that is very important [like breathing, heart functioning etc.] should be easy going. The power of Shiva resides in your left Heart because he has Spirit and power both.

At this stage when Kuṇḍalinī pierces Brahmarandhra the light scatters the surroundings and lightens it and you achieve a new state, new dimension. Your consciousness gets a form and is enlightened. You have a lamp inside which is burning. It has no meaning. It is not awakened. Likewise is your attention.

It is enlightened and emits light and it can see everything. Now if you cannot see anything what is the solution? You must have your realisation. Without it there is no achievement. This has to happen. This is work of God. God has created this beautiful universe and if this creation is not nourished, God has no meaning.

So He has to do it and how to do it He knows it.

Some people say mother I am devotee of Shiva. Yet they have the problem of heart? Yes, it is true [without Kuṇḍalinī awakening] devotee of Shiva will have cardiac problem. Un-authoritatively if you worship He would be angry. He is the source of your existence. If you do it, your existence will be in trouble. That is why you suffer from heart diseases but what is the solution? What to do now? Ask for the forgiveness from Shiva. We should say `Oh God! Please forgive me. You are ocean of compassion and pity. Please forgive us. We would not stray now.' Now here in Maharashtra there are many Gurus. None is true except a few. Rest all are cheater. More than that you keep their photographs in your homes. Now I declare that Kali Yuga is over and Satya Yuga has started. Those false Gurus can give you cancer and except Sahaj Yoga you will not be cured.

So beware of if you worship these false Gurus. You would be ready to face the results also. Being a Mother I am telling you all this in My compassion.

Sahaj Yoga brings light in you. This light will make you know how much filth is outside. Falsehood is growing faster. Fanaticism is in the action and people are wasting their lives by going here and there.

You don't know God has created you with compassion. You have crossed many generations to reach this stage of human beings. You should gain something from this freedom who are we? How much labor has He made to make us, in compassion, by giving nourishment, beauty. Human personality has reached to a stage. You must think over it. You should know who are you? Like a soldier who knows where should he go, he knows the map and understands what he needs. Come and have your well beings. Do not waste your time behind these Gurus and find yourself and know to get rid of these Gurus. Don't have argument with them. This is not your job and you cannot do it.

This is true that how much powerful you are but still they are so negative that you cannot fight with them.

So I would say again if you have gone to these Gurus, leave them easily. If you do it you are going to be benefited.

Sometimes when I see the varieties of these false Gurus I am sad, I am shocked and so angry that if destructive powers are used they would be easily finished but what to do after destruction? All the condition is because of Kali Yuga: “Yada Yada Hi Dharmasya, Glanir Bhawati Bharata" but who are the Yogis of this type? “Parittranaya Sādhunam, Vinashaya Cha Dushkritam." Evil is in Yogis, so evil is to be separated from their minds. Then only they can get complete realisation. I can see it they are there in your mind. They should be thrown out, clear your mind. I have to take them away from you and give you your authority, position and your attributes to settle in you.

May God bless you.

Contents: 1979-09-27 Navarātri Celebrations (6th Day), Śhrī Kuṇḍalinī, Shakti and Śhrī Jesus (Marathi), Hinduja Auditorium, Mumbai, India

The subject `Śhrī Kuṇḍalinī Shakti and Śhrī Jesus Christ' is very attractive and interesting. It is altogether a new subject for the common people because nobody has at any time before, attempted to establish any connection between Jesus Christ and Śhrī Kuṇḍalinī Shakti. On the Virāta tree of religion, saints of various kinds bloomed as flowers in many countries and languages. It is only the Virāta who can know the relation inter se amongst these beautiful flowers. Wherever they went, these flowers spread the sweet fragrance of religion. But even the people surrounding these saints could not grasp the significance of that fragrance.

It is therefore, futile to expect the common people to understand the relation inter se between a saint and the Ādi Shakti, the primordial Mother.

You would be able to experience or understand My view point if you could attain the plane from which I am talking to you. Because at present, you do not have the necessary equipment to comprehend whether or not what I am telling you is the truth. In other words, you are not yet equipped to understand what the truth is. Until you are able to understand the meaning of the Self, the physical body would remain imperfect and would be unable to verify the truth. But once the physical instrument is connected with truth You are able to verify the Truth. It follows therefore, that first you have to accept Sahaja Yoga and get Self-realisation. After Self-realisation, the vibrations of `Chaitanya' begins to flow from your hands.

If a particular matter is true, then waves of cool vibrations would start flowing into the palms; but if the same be untrue, hot vibrations would be felt. In this manner, you are able to know as to whether any particular matter is true or not.

Whatever the Christians know about Lord Jesus Christ is on account of the Bible. This book is very enigmatical. It is so much deep and profound that many persons have not been able to understand the hidden meaning of the Truth embodied therein. The Bible says “will come to thee as tongues of flames." Israeli people explained this to mean that, “When the Lord would incarnate, He would be emitting flames of fire and therefore, they would not be able to witness Him." The real meaning of this is that “you would witness Me in the Sahasrāra Chakra” You will find many references to the Kuṇḍalinī Shakti and and Sahasrāra in the Bible, but only a brief reference is possible here.

Jesus Christ has said that, “Those who are not against me, are with me." It means, “The persons who are not against me belong to me." If the Christians are asked to identify these persons, they have no knowledge about them.

Two great powers are combined in Jesus Christ. The first power is that of Śhrī Gaṇeśha, who is recognized as his original power and the other is that of Śhrī Kārttikeya. Because of this, the incarnation of Jesus Christ is of complete `Brahman Tattwa' or `Omkār'. Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, He being the father of Jesus Christ, bestowed a number of boons on Jesus Christ prior to his birth. One of these boons was that, “You [Śhrī Jesus Christ] would dwell on a plane higher than that of mine." This could be explained to mean, that while the plane of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa is the Viśhuddhi Chakra, located at the base of our neck, the plane of Jesus is Āgñyā Chakra, which is located at the junction of the optic thalamus [pineal and pituitary glands].

The second boon granted by Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa was that, “You [Śhrī Jesus Christ] would be the support of the whole universe." The third boon was, that “You would be the first to receive one-sixteenth part of all the offerings made to Me in Pūjā." In this way, after bestowing a number of boons, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa permitted Śhrī Jesus Christ to incarnate on the earth. You would understand these things better, if you read `Mārkandeya Purāna'. Śhrī Mārkandeya, the author of the Purāna has beautifully explained a number of such subtler points.

In the same Purāna, there is a graphic description of Śhrī Mahāviṣhṇu. [See Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 18 (Nov-Dec 1983), p.26.] If you would listen to this description while in meditation, you would notice that the description is of Jesus Christ only.

Now, if you study the etymology of the word, `Christ', you would know that the word has originated from a corrupted form of word, `Kṛiṣhṇa'. As a matter of fact, the father of Jesus Christ is Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa.

That is why He is called' `Christ'. The manner in which his name Jesus' originated is also very interesting.

The mother of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, Śhrī Yashodā Mātā; was addressed as `Yesu'. Even today, we notice that in northern Indian somebody named `Yeshu' is not addressed as such but as `Jesu'. It is therefore, clear that from `Yashodā' came the word, `Yeshu' and then further became the word `Jesu' and finally the name `Jesus Christ'.

Whenever, Jesus Christ told stories about His Father, he was actually speaking about Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, he was talking about Virāta. Although, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa did not reincarnate during the period when Jesus Christ lived on the Earth, his teachings centered round the theme as to how the seekers should know the `Virāta Puruṣha' or God Almighty. The Mother of Jesus Christ was the Goddess Mahā, Lakṣhmī, herself.

Mother Mary is none other than the Goddess Mahālakṣhmī. She is the Ādi Shakti the Primordial Mother.

Therefore, Jesus Christ used to address his Mother as the “Holy Ghost".

Jesus Christ possesses all powers of Ekādaśha Rudras, that is eleven powers of destruction. These powers have their centers located around the cranium of our head. When the incarnation of Kalki takes place, all these eleven powers perform the work of destruction. Out of these eleven powers one is that of Śhrī Hanumāna, the other of Śhrī Bhairava. In the Bible, these two powers are named as Saint Gabriel and Saint Michael respectively. After Self-realisation in Sahaja Yoga one can awaken these powers by addressing them in Sanskrit, Marathi or even in English. The Nāḍī on our right side, which is known as `Piñgalā Nāḍī', is activated by the power of Śhrī Hanumāna. Whenever, any sort of pressure or constriction develops inside this Nāḍī, it is instantly relieved by Chanting the mantra of Śhrī Hanumāna. Similarly, even by chanting the name of Saint Michael one would experience relief in the Iḍā Nāḍī. Iḍā Nāḍī is on our left side and and manifests the power of Saint Michael or Śhrī Bhairava, Obviously, chanting the Mantra of their names relieves any trouble or constriction on the Iḍā Nāḍī.

The aforesaid matters can be verified by any person after Self-realisation in Sahaja Yoga. The purport why I am telling you all this, is to impress upon you that it is absurd to quarrel against yourselves after grouping as Hindus or Muslims or Christians. If you could see the principle behind all this, you would realise that all these saints are like many flowers on the same tree of religion and are connected with each other because of the one and the same power.

Perhaps, you would be surprised to know that in Sahaja Yoga, the awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī very much depends on the condition of the Āgñyā Chakra of the seeker. In the present age, many persons are found with highly inflated ego [ahaṁkāra]. That is so, because most of them lead an extremely egocentric life. It is on account of the egoistic attitude, that man fails from his true religion. Man is misled and therefore remains continuously busy working, thinking etc. Which are complementary to the growth of the ego. Jesus Christ is of great help for securing freedom from the ego.

As Paigambar [prophet] Mohammad wrote about awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī and the ways of protecting oneself from wicked [Satanic] powers, so also Jesus Christ told in very lucid manner about the powers in us as well as the weapons.

The first among these weapons is `forgiveness'. The one which operates in the `Proksha' form in Śhrī Gaṇeśha principle, manifests itself in the form of `forgiveness' in human principle. In fact forgiveness is a very powerful weapon. It protects man against the ego, If somebody hurts you or puts you in trouble or insults you, then your mind is engrossed in contemplating on these matters and you get disturbed.

You continue to think all the time about such a man and by repeated remembrance of these events you put yourself in trouble. To overcome such troubles, we advise every such person to forgive one and ail.

Forgiveness is thus a very powerful weapon we have received from Jesus Christ. It enables one to get rid of troubles caused by others.

I have told you earlier that Jesus Christ possessed a number of powers and that He was endowed with the powers of `Ekādaśha Rudras'. Then how is it that He was crucified and could not save Himself from this dreadful event? Jesus Christ, with His several powers, could have completely annihilated His opponents in a moment. His Mother, Mary, was none else but Ādi Shakti, the Primordial Mother Herself. She also could not bear the atrocities on He; son. And yet it happened. Perhaps God desired to stage a drama.

Really speaking, Jesus Christ was beyond happiness or sorrow and he had to enact the drama in perfect and faultless manner. How foolish were those who crucified him! Jesus Christ rode on a donkey so that foolishness among the people of those days could be eradicated. If you suffer from headache and you pray to Jesus Christ to forgive all those who have put you in trouble, you will be cured of your headache without the aid of any medicines. However, before such a thing can happen, you have to awaken your Kuṇḍalinī by accepting Sahaja Yoga and get Self-realisation. The reason is that the Āgñyā Chakra, which is the Jesus principle in you, becomes active only after awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī in Sahaja Yoga and not otherwise.

Āgñyā Chakra is very subtle. The physicians are also unable to notice it. There is a very subtle door in this Chakra. That is why Jesus Christ said, “I am the door." Jesus Christ incarnated on this earth for facilitating the passage through this door and he himself was the first to pass through it.

People crucified Jesus Christ because of their ego. They could not conceive of an idea that some human being can appear on the earth as an incarnation of God. Their intellectual pride could not accept this idea and they rejected the Truth because of the ego. What was the bad deed for which Jesus was crucified? He had on the contrary cured many people of their ailments. He preached the Truth and taught many good things to the people. He showed them the way to live a very cultured life. He always preached Love. In spite of this, the people tortured him. But they would bow before those who teach filthy and rotten things and make a fool of them, What a height of stupidity! These days any Tom, Dick or Harry becomes a Guru, robs the people, squeezes money from them. Such persons are held in high esteem. On the contrary if a good person, who stands by the Truth, wishes to show the true path, the people, not only won't listen to him but assault him. To educate such very stupid people God Almighty sent His beloved Son, Jesus Christ, on this earth. But the people crucified him. They have been, ever since repeatedly doing the same thing. If you read, you will find that whenever God incarnated, or any Sage or Saint took birth on this earth, the people have harmed them and tortured them. Instead of learning from them, they behaved with them stupidly. We will notice the same story about Śhrī Gñyāneśhwara and Śhrī TukāRāma, the great saints of Maharashtra.

Similar treatment was meted out to Śhrī Guru Nanaka and prophet Mohammad.

Man always runs away from the Truth and tries to embrace the untruth.

Whenever there is an incarnation of God, or a Saint is born and you ask a question whether such a person is an incarnation or whether he is a pious Saint, a Sahaja Yogi would immediately feet the Cool Breeze on his palm, if the answer is in afirmative.

The past events in one's life, result in strengthening the ego; for instance one boasts that he is a disciple of such and such person etc. Man is unaware of the factual evidence facing him. Obviously due to the strengthening of ego, he loses sight of the real meaning of the Self [Swa]. It is therefore necessary to understand the meaning of the `Self'. Suppose the river Ganges is flowing from a particular place and you go at some other place and say that Ganges is flowing from that place and that you are actually sitting on the Ganges, this will be ridiculous. Therefore, accept only that which is factually or materially present before you. In the case of Jesus Christ, the circumstances were similar. Jesus Christ tried to awaken the Kuṇḍalinī, but with great difficulty could give realisation to some twenty one persons. But in Sahaja Yoga, thousands have got realisation. Christ could have given realisation to many more but His disciples thought that He could only cure sick persons and that there was no other significance of realisation to them. On many occasions Jesus Christ demonstrated walking on the surface of water. This could be because He himself was, `Praṇava' [UNCLEAR] `Omkāra.' In spite of all this, people could not understand that Christ was the son of God. In Sahaja Yoga, a number of seekers have got Self-realisation and got rid of the diseases. Man should, therefore, understand that the ego is very subtle. Another thing I want to tell you, is about fighting with your ego. That is not correct thing to do. The ego is not in any way effected by your fighting with it. It should get absorbed in your own Self, When your attention is focused on the Kuṇḍalinī and it pierces your Brahmarandhra and therefore, merges with `Virāta', it is at this stage that ego is absorbed. The real ego is the ego of the Virāta Shakti. In fact Virāta is the real ego. You cannot free yourself from the ego. What do you do? That which I do is ego [`Aham Karoti, Sah Ahaṁkāra']. You just ask yourself as to what is it that you actually do? You can do nothing except changing the form of dead matter. Can you transform a flower into a fruit? You are endowed with the nose, the face, the beautiful human body, How did this happen? We achieved this human form from amoeba. How could this have happened? It is undoubtedly the grace of God Almighty which enabled us to have this beautiful human form. Can we repay Him for this? Can you do anything which is similar? After man succeeded in producing a test tube baby, his ego swelled considerably. Really speaking here also man did not create any living organism. As in the case of crossbreeding of two plants, so it has been done here by uniting two living human cells. But how much it has inflated the ego balloon! Then, Man reached the moon, how much further ination of his ego took place! What is our ego in comparison to His, who created the sun, the moon, the stars and the whole universe? In fact our ego is false. It is fake. The true ego is the ego of the Virāta Puruṣha. Because it is the Virāta that is doing everything.

You, should know that it is the `Virāta Puruṣha' who alone is doing everything. Therefore, let all things be done by the Virāta, you are just like a machine. Suppose I am speaking before a microphone and My voice is carried to you through the medium of the microphone, then the microphone is only a `Sākshī' or a witness. It is I, who is doing the speaking and the power is flowing through the microphone.

In the same way, you are simply an instrument of God Almighty. The Virāta has made you, so let the power of Virāta flow through you and understand the meaning of `Self'. In order to explain the meaning of the `Self', Jesus Christ incarnated on this earth with his seat in the Āgñyā Chakra. Āgñyā Chakra is very complex and is the seat of the subtle principle of `Omkāra' or `Praṇava'. In fact Jesus Christ is the `Omkar', the `Praṇava'. The connection between the Kuṇḍalinī and Jesus Christ is the same as the one that exists between the moon and the moonlight or the sun and the sunlight.

The Kuṇḍalinī, that is Mother Gaurī, created Śhrī Gaṇeśha by Her willpower, Tapasya and noble deeds.

It was when Śhrī Gaṇeśha prepared himself for incarnation that Jesus Christ was born.

There are many things in this world in respect of which man has not been able to find any satisfactory explanation. Have you ever considered how a seed sprouts? How you breathe? How you make movements?

Where from the power in your brain comes? How you came into this world? There are many such things.

Can any man satisfactorily explain these things? We say that earth has gravitational force. But from where this force came? A number of things need unfoldment. This is because you are under the influence of an illusion. You have yet to come out of that illusion. Your illusion has to be blown up, otherwise it would grow from strength to strength. For spiritual evolution of man, it is necessary to demolish his illusion. At every stage of evolution, the incarnations have appeared. All of you know that Śhrī Viṣhṇu incarnated as Śhrī Rāma and wandered in the forests. He staged a beautiful drama to demonstrate the life of an ideal king. Similar was the life of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa and the life of Jesus Christ.

When we study the life of Jesus Christ, one thing is noticed prominently. That is the stupidity of the people of that time. Because of that stupidity this magnificent personality was crucified. And what height of stupidity! When the people were asked to express their opinion as to whether a thief or Jesus be released, the Jews demanded that the thief be released and Jesus Christ crucified.

We know the state of these people today I The sin committed by them will not be washed away in many many lives. And even now these persons are enveloped in their ego. They think that they have done a virtuous deed. Even now, if these people seek pardon of God, saying that, `Oh God! pardon us for crucifying your sacred principle. Forgive us for destroying your sacred principle,' God will immediately forgive hem. But man finds it very difficult to apologize. He commits a number of evil deeds. How many persons can be found in the world who have worshipped the Saints? Take the instance of Śhrī Kabīr or Śhrī Guru Nanaka. The people have persecuted them at every step. In this world the people have not given anything to the saints except harm and torture. But I tell you now, that circumstances have changed.

The Satya Yoga has commenced. You may try, but now you would not succeed in persecuting or torturing any saint. This is due to Jesus Christ himself. For Jesus Christ has set in motion a mighty power in this world which would make such wicked people suffer. They would be punished. The Ekādaśha Rudras of Jesus Christ are all in readiness to strike. Those who would now torture any saint, would be completely ruined. It is a great sin to torture any saint. You try to understand this from the example of Jesus Christ.

Do not commit such stupidity hereafter; otherwise you may get completely ruined. If one great lesson is to be learnt from the life of Jesus, then that is that you have to remain contented in the state in which the Almighty has placed you. Jesus did not change his mission, He did not separate himself from the society, considering himself to be a `Sannyāsī'. On the contrary on occasions he attended certain marriage ceremonies and made the arrangements. Tile Bible says that at one marriage occasion he transformed drinking water into fresh grape Juice. Now, man has picked up this one incident to suggest that since Jesus Christ made wine out of water, he used to drink wine. In Hebrew language you would notice that the word wine means pure juice of fresh grapes. It does not mean alcohol.

Jesus Christ incarnated to open the Āgñyā Chakra and to dissolve our ego. My job is to awaken your Kuṇḍalinī power so that it could pierce your Sahasrāra Chakra. This work is of collective nature; I have therefore, to do it in the case of one and all, I want to tell you about Jesus Christ, Guru Nanaka, King Janaka and a number of other incarnations and the way they relate with the collectivity. Similarly, I wish to talk to you about incarnations of Śhrī Rāma, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa etc. and also about Śhrī Shiva because all the powers of these Gods and deities are in us. Now, the time has come for collective consciousness to manifest.

In this Kali Yuga, all those who are seeking God shall find Him and millions of people will be able to do so. Sahaja Yoga is the Last Judgement. This is described in the Bible. You are judged only after you come to Sahaja Yoga. For that purpose you, however, have to surrender yourself completely after coming to Sahaja Yoga. After getting that, which means everything, it is important to dwell in it, to be settled and stabilized in it. Many people ask Me, “Mātājī, when would we be stable?" The answer is very simple.

Suppose you are sailing in a boat. Then you know when the boat becomes stable: so also while riding a bicycle, you' understand that when you do not wobble, you know you are in balance and stable.

So also in Sahaja Yoga our stability is understood. The judgement in this matter is to be made by the individual himself. It is only when you stabilize in Sahaja Yoga, that the state of thoughtless awareness is established.

So long as the Kuṇḍalinī power does not pass through the Āgñyā Chakra, the stage of thoughtless awareness is not reached. This is the first step in the way of thoughtless awareness of the seeker. As soon as the Kuṇḍalinī crosses the Āgñyā Chakra, the thoughtless awareness is established. It is the power of Jesus Christ which is instrumental in opening the subtle door located above the Āgñyā Chakra. For that purpose you are to recite the' Lord's prayer' composed by Jesus Christ. After crossing this door, the Kuṇḍalinī power enters the limbic area of the brain. It is after the Kuṇḍalinī enters this area, which is also termed as the Kingdom of God, that the state of thoughtless awareness is established. In the limbic area of the brain there are Chakras which activate the seven main Chakras and also the secondary Chakras in the body.

Now, let us consider the reasons why the Āgñyā Chakra is spoiled. One of the main reasons of this deterioration are your eyes. You should take great care of the eyes, as they are very important. Then the Āgñyā Chakra is also spoiled on account of bowing before or touching one's head at the feet of an unauthorized Guru. That is why Jesus Christ has told not to bow one's head before every person or place, because by doing so, you unknowingly lose everything whatever you have gained, You should bow your head only before an authorized person, that is the one who is an incarnation of God. Do not bow before any wrong place. This is very important. If you bow your head before a wrong person or place, your Āgñyā Chakra will get constricted.

In Sahaja Yoga, I have noticed that nowadays, many parsons have spoiled their Āgñyā Chakras. The reason is that these people follow a wrong Guru or bow before or touch their heads at wrong places. Many of the eye diseases are caused due to such wrong practices. In order to keep the Āgñyā Chakra in proper order, one should always read the scriptures and the sacred texts. One should never read unholy literature.

Many people may say, `What does that matter? On account of our profession, we have to do certain things which may not be strictly proper.' But then, by doing such unholy activities the eyes get spoiled. I never could understand, as to why people are bent upon doing wrong deeds. Even by looking at any unchaste and filthy man the Āgñyā Chakra may get constricted.

Jesus Christ firmly told, “Thou shall not commit adultery. But I tell you, thou shall not have adulterous eyes." Thus, it again comes to the eyes. If your eyes are unholy, you have eye troubles and your eyes get weakened. This does not mean that if you have to use spectacles, you become an unholy or improper person. It is the law of life that you have to use spectacles at an advanced age. The eyes are spoiled because you do not keep them steady and are always moving them from one place to another.

So also the attention of some people is constantly shifting from one object to another. These people are not even aware that such action spoils the eyes.

The other reason of deterioration of the Āgñyā Chakra lies in the manner in which you work. If you overwork then you become work conscious. The work that you are doing may be good, but even then, if it is beyond the normal level, be it over-reading, overstitching or overthinking, it will spoil the Āgñyā Chakra.

The reason is that while you overwork, you forget God. During the course of such work, God consciousness does not stabilize in you.

The Kuṇḍalinī is the Truth. It is sacred. There is no hypocrisy in it. It is not some thing which can be purchased in a shop. This is the absolute Truth. As long as you cannot recognize the Truth by following Vama Marg or the wrong path. When you will merge into the Truth, when you will get absorbed in it, only then you would understand that you are but an instrument of God Almighty, the Holy Father, that you are the instrument through which the power of God flows and that you are the instrument of the same power of love of God, which pervades the whole universe and directs all movement therein. This power is made available to you only because of Jesus Christ, through His crucifixion, What a great sacrifice on the part of Christ! It is due to Him that our Āgñyā Chakra has opened. If the Āgñyā Chakra of any person does not open, Kuṇḍalinī would not rise, because the Mūlādhāra Chakra would also remain constricted till the Āgñyā Chakra remains constricted. If a person's Āgñyā Chakra is too much constricted, the Kuṇḍalinī power would not rise, whatever efforts you may make. For removing the catch on the Āgñyā Chakra, we apply `Kumkum'. This has the effect of reducing the troubles of the ego as also other troubles. When the `Kumkum' is applied on the forehead above the Āgñyā Chakra, the Chakra is opened and Kuṇḍalinī rises.

Such is the intimate connection between Jesus Christ and the Kuṇḍalinī Power. Śhrī Gaṇeśha, who is stationed at the Mūlādhāra and protects the modesty of Śhrī Kuṇḍalinī also opens the door at the Āgñyā Chakra, for the Kuṇḍalinī to pass through it.

What is it that we have to do for maintaining the Āgñyā Chakra in order? The ways are many.

Extremity in every action spoils the society and therefore excessiveness in any walk of life is not proper and should be avoided. Maintaining the balance enables our eyes to get rest. In Sahaja Yoga, there are a number of remedies for this, but it is absolutely necessary to get Self-realisation, first. Then there are many exercises for the eyes which help to keep the Āgñyā Chakra in a healthy condition. One of these is to watch your own ego and think of yourself that, `Yes Sir, what is the plan and where do you propose to go?' This is how you may address yourself as if, you are observing your own image in a mirror. If you do this, the strain on the eyes due to ego will be minimized.

The other area which is very important is that part of the back of the head that is exactly behind the forehead. It is in the area which is at a distance of about the thickness of eight fingers [about 5 inches] above the base of the neck and is known as the area of Śhrī Mahāgaṇeśha. Śhrī Gaṇeśha incarnated as Mahāgaṇeśha and the same incarnation is of Jesus Christ. Śhrī Christ's place is in the center of the forehead and is surrounded by the kingdom of the Ekādaśha Rudras. Jesus Christ is the Master of that kingdom. The Ekādaśha Rudras comprise of Śhrī Mahāgaṇesha, as also Śhrī Shadanan [The Lord with six faces]. If you open your eyes, after awakening of the `Kuṇḍalinī' you would experience that your vision is somewhat dimmed or blurred. This is so because when the `Kuṇḍalinī' awakens, the pupils of your eyes are dilated and get cooled. This happens on account of the action of parasympathetic nervous system.

Mere thinking of Śhrī Jesus Christ or contemplating or meditating on Him would relieve Āgñyā Chakra.

At the same time it should be remembered that merely following the conventions or traditions and the lines of succession made after Him does not mean contemplation of Jesus Christ.

Now, I will be telling you some eternal truths. Foremost amongst them is that looking at any women with evil intentions is a great sin. You can realise the extent of the enormous sin that is being committed by several people who stare at women at road sides with evil intentions. Jesus Christ told about this matter some 2,000 years ago. But He did not tell it so openly. That is why I have to remind you about this bad habit. Jesus Christ told about this matter and was crucified. Jesus only told that this should not be done, because it is filthy. He did not tell about the bad consequences of this action. This habit makes man behave like a beast, as his mind is day and night engrossed in evil thoughts. In our Yoga science it has been advised that the mind should be controlled and kept on the correct path. You should approach God with all attention centered on Him.

We are made out of Yoga. Our's is the land of Yoga. We are not egoistic, nor do we want to be so. We desire to live on this land as Yogis. A day will dawn, when the whole world would bow to this country, India in reverence. Then people would know who Jesus Christ was and from where He came! He would then be worshipped with due respect on this sacred land. In India, even today, the modesty of women is protected and they are treated with proper respect. All over our country, we regard the mother with great reverence. When the people from other countries would visit this land they would know that it is in this country that real Christianity is practiced with great devotion, but not in countries which profess the Christian religion.

Jesus Christ said that “we should be born again." In our country we refer to this process as “Dvija' or born for the second time. The second birth of any human being is possible only by awakening of Kuṇḍalinī power.

So long as the Kuṇḍalinī is not awakened, one will not acquire, the second birth and so long as we do not have rebirth we will not be able to recognize God. You read the Bible after realisation. You will be surprised to know that Jesus Christ has told nothing but the importance of Sahaja Yoga. Everything has been explained with minor details. Those who have no insight, misrepresent the matters.

In reality, giving Baptism means the awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī power so that after it rises and pierces the Sahasrāra, there is the union of the All-pervading Power of God and the Kuṇḍalinī power. This is, in fact, is the final job of the Kuṇḍalinī power. But the clergy know nothing about this. On the contrary, they are vainly trying to do something which they are not even authorized to do. Otherwise you will find these clergymen involved in all sorts of acts of kindness, kindness to animals, service of the poor, service of patients and so on. You would say, “Mātājī, these are all noble deeds." Yes, certainly they are noble deeds, but then, it is not the work of God. It is not the work of God to serve the poor by paying them money. The real work of God consists in helping the people to enter the Kingdom of God and to enable them to unite with God. To make their life full of peace, prosperity, happiness, beauty and grace, is in reality the work of God. God will not catch the feet of the persons who commit theft, or speak lies or wander around because of poverty. To help such persons is an act of kindness and can be done by any person. You would notice some Christians involved in proselytizing work. They would go to a remote corner where the Ādivāsis [Aboriginals] reside. There they would do some work of service to the Ādivāsis people and then convert all of the Ādivāsis to Christianity. But one thing should be made clear, that this is not the work of God. The work of God is eternal.

In Sahaja Yoga, the patients get healed when their `Kuṇḍalinī' is awakened. In Sahaja Yoga, we do not perform any work of pseudo-kindness. If we go to any hospital, we can easily heal 25-30 patients. With the awakening of Kuṇḍalinī they are automatically healed, because within us is the power of Love. Due to awakening of `Kuṇḍalinī' this power of love starts flowing through their bodies and the same power cures them.

Jesus Christ healed many with the same power of love flowing through him. Jesus Christ did not help anybody with materialistic things. We have to understand these things minutely. Do not repeat the mistakes of the past. You get yourSelf-realised. This is your first duty. After Self-realisation your powers are awakened. These awakened power have healed diseases like cancer which are considered as incurable.

In fact you can cure any disease. Diseases like cancer can be cured only in Sahaja Yoga. But those who get cured again resume their old paths and habits. They are no more in search of God. Such persons remember God only when they want to be cured of some disease. They do not otherwise think it necessary to seek God. Why then should God care for those who do not desire to be the light of God? Such persons, whether cured or not, would not spread the light in this world, God would light only such lamps which would spread the light in the whole world. Why will God cure the stupid people? Why will God help those who do not wish to do His work or those who do not want to seek Him? The work to relieve poverty or social work should not be mistaken for the work of God.

Some people degrade the relationship with God to the lowest level. At one place, I observed on an advertisement board: “Śhrī Sāi Nāth Bidi." To use the name of God in such filthy manner is an outright insult of Him. By relating every petty and mundane things with God, you commit great sins. You should know this. “Sāi Nāth Bidi" or “Lakṣhmī Hing", advertising like this is an insult of God. What do these people gain by doing so?

Some people say that, “Mother, this will do us good." What is this good? By that expression they mean they get more money. If a business is carried in this fashion, one or the other day it would surely bring them in trouble. This is the insult of God.

Jesus Christ came to save and liberate the whole mankind. He was not the personal possession of any particular sect. He himself was `Omkar' incarnate. He was `Praṇava' and the `Truth'. The bodies of the other incarnations were made up of `earth principle', whereas the body of Jesus was made of the, `soul principle' [UNCLEAR]. That is why He was resurrected after death. And it was only through the resurrection that His disciples could know that He was no other than God Himself. Then they started beating the trumpets, started reciting His name, started delivering lectures on Him. The most important thing is that God incarnated. If the people should recognize Him and secure spiritual development and bliss, this would enlighten the soul and spread happiness and bliss everywhere.

May all of you acquire the Yoga of God. Many many blessings.

Contents: 1979-09-28 Navarātri Celebrations (7th Day), Kuṇḍalinī and Kalki Shakti, Sunderbhai Hall, Mumbai, India

Today I am going to address you in English language, as desired by you. Even tomorrow perhaps we may have to use this foreign language.

Today's subject is the relationship between Kuṇḍalinī and Kalki. The word Kalki, actually is an abbreviation of the word Nishkalank. Nishkalank means the same as My name is, which means Nirmalā: that there it is a spotlessly clean, something that is spotlessly clean is Nishkalaṅka, without any spots on.

Now this incarnation has been described in many Purānas, will be coming on this earth on a white horse, in a village of Sambhālpur, they call it, Sambhālpur. Is very interesting how people take everything so literally. The world `Sambhāla' means: `bhāla' is this forehead, `sambhāl' means `at that stage'. That means Kalki is situated on your `bhāla'. Bhāl is the forehead. And here He's going to be born, that is the real meaning of the word Sambhālpur.

In between, Jesus Christ and His destroying incarnation of Mahāviṣhṇu, called as Kalki, there is a time given to human beings to rectify themselves, for them to enter into the Kingdom of God, which in the Bible is called as Last Judgment. That you'll be judged, all of you, will be judged on this earth.

The population of the world is the maximum, they say, because all those, practically all those who had aspirations to enter into the Kingdom of God are born in the modern times and are going to be born very soon. This is the most important time, because Sahaja Yoga is the Last Judgment. It is fantastic to hear this, but that's a fact and it's the Truth. Though you can understand that Mother's love makes it very easy for you to get to your realisation and that the whole story of Last Judgment, which looks such a horrifying experience, has been made very beautiful and very tender and delicate and doesn't disturb you. But this is the Last Judgment I tell you and you all are going to be judged, through Sahaja Yoga, whether you can enter into the Kingdom of God or not.

Now in Sahaja Yoga people come in with different kind of attentions or Chitta. There could be people who have too much of `tamasi krutya', or what we call the inertia or the more sort of sluggish or slow moving temperaments. These, when they are exaggerated, people take to spirits or take to alcohols or to some such things which take you away from Reality and make you numb within.

The other side is, as you know right hand side people, who have got too much ambitions. They're extremely ambitious people, they want to win the whole world and they want to become something independent on their own, malignant and cancerous. They do not want to keep their relationship with the whole.

You can see in this Kali Yuga, how people have gone to their extremes.

Some of them are very much indulging into too much of alcoholism or you can call it something, running away from your awareness, from your Self, from Truth, the Beauty. The others are, denying it, they are denying everything that is beautiful and are ego-oriented.

So we have people who are superego-oriented, very much conditioned and lethargic and lazy and absolutely primitive. The other side is that we have people who are extremely ambitious, dominating and are destroying each other by their ambition and competition. These two types of people of extreme nature, are rather difficult to enter into Sahaja Yoga, but, the people who are in the center are easily absorbed in the Sahaja Yoga. Moreover people who are less complicated, simple hearted as they are in the villages, are very easily absorbed by Sahaja Yoga and they take to it without any difficulty. Say in the city you can see the result of so much of work of Mine that there are hardly about 2 to 300 people today over here. But, if I go to a village, the whole village, say up to five to six thousand people come round and all of them get their realisation without any difficulty. Because here people are supposed to be very busy, they have so many other preoccupations. They think other things are much more important than seeking God and wasting your time in such pursuits like seeking God.

Under such circumstances, Sahaja Yoga takes its roots, very sweetly into the heart of all the seekers.

It works very spontaneously. You get your realisation without any difficulty, without any effort, without paying for it, without going into any sort of strenuous exercises.

But, when we talk of Kalki we have to remember, that between getting our realisation and entering into the Kingdom of God, we can falter very much. This is called as `Yoga bhrashta sthiti'. People take to Yoga, they come into Yoga and are then enchanted still by their pravrutis [tendencies]. For example an ego-oriented man or a money oriented man or a man who wants to dominate, can form a group of people whom he would dominate by his ideas and can go in for a fall and the rest of them will also go down.

In Sahaja Yoga itself. This has been happening in Bombay [Mumbai], very, very often, it's a very very common thing that has been going on. But this is called as `Yoga bhrashtata', where a person falls from his Yoga, he comes down on his Yoga, because Sahaja Yoga gives you all the freedom, whether to fall or to come up.

But if you go to any other Guru, doing any other sort of Yoga in which purification takes place and where people are trained and disciplined from very childhood, in those Yogas a Guru will somehow or other see that you are injured or you are hurt so badly that you have no connections with anybody else, like an operation. They take out that personality and throw him out.

But here it is left to your freedom to understand that, you have to keep to the mains, you have to keep to the group, you have to keep to the whole and not to one person here and there who is trying to overpower the rest of you.

In Sahaja Yoga anybody who tries to come up too much comes down, because in nature you have seen, nothing grows out of bounds. Like human beings are of a certain height, the trees are of certain heights, everything is controlled. You cannot try to show off in Sahaja Yoga, neither you should try to make a different group or a different type of some special thing. Specially I have seen in Sahaja Yoga there are people who come up and ask people to touch their feet. It is most surprising that invariably such people get exposed in no time and one knows that they are gone cases. Because their Chakras are caught they're badly caught, though they may not feel for a while. Their vibrations may be there, but they go down and down and down, till they are completely finished. Now this `Yoga bhrashta sthiti' is the worst thing that can happen to anyone. First of all you don't get your Yoga. And if you get your Yoga and then jump to this sort of a condition, about which Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa has described that you go into Rākshasa yoni.

Those who come to Sahaja Yoga must know that you have to stick on to one thing, properly, otherwise what is the yoni left, if you die without Yoga maybe you are born again, maybe, of course your... this life is wasted! But if you try such tricks after coming to Sahaja Yoga and try to impress on others that you are a very great realised Soul or that you have achieved this and achieved that, all this nonsense that you have been doing before getting to realisation, then, there is a very serious offense and you are punished for that. This is the power of Kalki, which is secretly working behind Sahaja Yoga.

For example there was a lady who came to see Me, wanted to publish something about Me and she was paid by some horrible fellow. And she published something nonsensical something that I never do.

So everybody was very annoyed and angry and said: “Mother You must punish her and we must take her to courts, you must do defamation, this that." I said “I'm not going to go to court, you better go give up these ideas." But nobody would listen, you see. It so happened that that paper closed down for three and a half months; and they had such a big setback. Of course this is not done by Me I would say as far as Mātājī Nirmalā Devī is concerned, but is done by Kalki. Kalki, means there are eleven powers, which are, guarding, the beauty of Sahaja Yoga. Anybody who tries to play around with Sahaja Yoga is harmed very badly.

So today is a day of telling you about, the dangers of playing with the Divine.

So far, people have been taking them for granted. They have tortured people like Christ, they have tortured great saints, all the time human beings have been torturing and I've been warning in every lecture practically, that, don't try that trick today, because Kalki is already on! And don't try to trouble anybody who is a saintly person who is a good person! Be careful about it, because Kalki is on! And once this power comes on you, you would not know how to hide yourself! Not only those who are Sahaja Yogis, but this I am telling to the whole world today, that, be careful! Do not try to harm others. Do not try to take advantage of others and do not try to show off your own power! Because once this destruction will start in your life, you won't know how to stop it! Once I went to, I think I have told you before also this thing that I went to Andhra Pradesh and there I told people, that "You should not grow anymore of this tambaku, tobacco." And they were very angry with Me, because they thought this was their living. They were minting money and indulging in all kinds of things making too much money and doing all kinds of `pāpas' [sins].

I said "In this world today you have come not, for creating more pāp and more Karmas on your head, but to do the cleansing of the Pāpas, the `papaksh talana.' You have not come here to add to your sins, but to cleanse them. This is the time of cleansing, that's why I am here as Nirmalā, to cleanse it, while, what are you doing is to add to your Pāpas, what are you going to gain out of growing this horrible tobacco?" But they would not listen to Me; and then, in three of My lectures, it is on the tape, people are saying, that I said that, "Be careful! The Kalki in the sea will take the spite on you. It will come on you!" And you know what happened in Andhra.

Same with Morvi, I will tell you. Only last year some people met Me from Morvi, some very big people from Morvi. And they all believed in a horrible `saint', who was a horrible fellow and who has really destroyed families after families. I told them: “Why do you believe in this man, he is taking your attention to materialistic things? Why do you believe in him?" Every house in Morvi had the picture of this horrible saint. And when I told them they would not listen to Me, they thought that, I was just warning them because I was sort of jealous of that fellow and you know what has happened about Morvi. Is a fact! All these things have been said in the presence of other people, so that they have noted it down, that what has happened, in what place and how Mātājī has said.

Before that, also in Delhi once, I met some of these people from Vrindavan and who were telling Me, about the pandas and this and that and I said: “All of you give up your professions horrible people you are! What business have you got to make money in the name of God?" And all those pandits and pandas and all these people are horrible parasites on the society. You get out of your jobs or this... the river Ganges on which you have been feeding yourself will one day, ruin you completely." And when the floods in the river Yamuna and the Ganges came in I was in London, I saw on the TV all these pandas running away with all their Khomchas and everything.

Of course, with these horrible people when you associate, when you live with them, you also suffer.

The innocent suffer. Why should you be impressed by such people? That's the thing you have to pay for! When you are impressed you are so compromising. “After all doesn't matter we are going there, so we must give something to this fellow also, he is a panda, of our forefathers, sitting down there and begging money, sitting before the river Ganges." Imagine: the Giver of Love and the Giver of Joy is flowing there and these people are sitting with their backs towards the river and asking money from you. What silly people they are, such stupid, useless people! And you pay them money and you think that you have done a great Puṇya by donating money to them! This sort of life we have been leading, a compromising, not understanding, what is Truth, what is not Truth. One side is a complete blind faith into all this kind of thing that is going on in this country and all over the world but specially too much in this country. We are simple innocent people, with lot of `bhavikta' within us. That's true, but that doesn't mean we should be stupid and fools.

For example, the other day at a meeting in a place called Awargaon, I said that, these people, in the Viṭṭhala's mandir, called as bhadaweii, should be nicely punished for the way they are ill-treating these saints, going down there on their feet for days together and something must be done to them. And everybody was a little annoyed when I said, because for these poor people, these bhadawas, who are Rākshasas incarnate, are something great. They break the heads of the people, who walk all the thousand of miles there, they break their heads just like coconuts and all of them have pain in the head. Such cruelty they confer on these innocent simple people and do you think I should support them when I stand for Truth and for Religion and for Compassion? When I said this some people, you see, who had some vested interest, must be the relations of the bhadawas or whatever it is, got angry with Me. But thank God, within three months time, the whole thing has been taken over, by Government.

It is so common with us that we see with our open eyes what is happening. Still we will be going on doing the same thing in the temples, even in the name of God, we are doing sins after sins! We are adding sins to our sins and, instead of clearing it out and understanding it through our developed brain, we just go on adding it. This is what I call the people who are tamasi, who do not use your brains, they are mulabuddhis. They just follow somebody because there's some sort of a hypnotic influence or some sort of a charismatic movement that is on in the West, you can see, these charismatic people will take thousands of rupees from them! Thousands of rupees! And they will give them epilepsy, gangrene, if not that, madness, lunacy all sorts of things. But people like mad are running after all these movements and are adding up to their destruction, to their, pile of sins that they have committed, instead of spending some time in cleansing their sins. This time, what we have got, is a most precious time and one has to be very careful and alert about oneself. One should not depend on any other person for help in this. But should try to completely consolidate, one's own being into the Kingdom of God and occupy the highest seat in the Heart of God Almighty.

Because when Kalki will come, He will slaughter all these people without any compassion! He is devoid of any compassion! There are eleven Rudras in Him, means there are eleven destructive powers absolutely powerfully settled in Him and when I see all that, because I can see all that, this emergency grows into Me and I tell you: beware of it! Don't play fool with it! Don't take it easy and do not compromise with nonsensical people! Stick on to the right! Otherwise, the day is very near when Kalki is going to come! The other type of people are, who think no end of their intelligence. They have denied God. They say “Where is God? There is no God. We don't believe in God. It's all nonsense, science is everything." What has science done so far? Let's see that! What has science done for us? Science has done nothing so far, it has only done all dead work! It has only made you ego-oriented. All the West is ego-oriented, they are finding all the methods of committing sins. How to commit the worst sins, they are finding methods and there are certain Gurus in India, who are also supplying the knowledge: how to commit even worse and worse and worse sins.

So, they can easily go with two running jumps to hell.

Whatever is wrong is wrong, whether it is today, tomorrow or yesterday or thousands of years back, whatever is wrong for your Dharma, for your sustenance, is wrong! The new phrase, is that “What's wrong in this, what's wrong in that?" That question will be answered by Kalki only! I'm just telling you that it is wrong and it is extremely wrong, it is against your ascent, it is against your being and then you will not have any time to repent and to ask this question, “What's wrong?", you will be chopped off. That is what, is the Kalki incarnation. He is going to come on a white horse, as they say. It's a tremendous thing that is going to work out! Every human being is going to be sorted out and nobody can then claim! See? Everything is being advertised. Everything is being published even this instrument [tapping the microphone] that is created by science, we can use for spreading Sahaja Yoga you know, that if I put it on My Chakras you get the vibrations and you get your realisation. The whole science is subservient to Sahaja Yoga. Like, the other day some TV people came, they said “Mother we want to have your TV done." I said “You be careful. Before doing it. I don't want any publicity, but whatever you do it, do it properly." Through TV we can give Sahaja Yoga. Supposing I am there, on the TV screen, I can ask people to put their hands and there can be thousands who can get realisation, only seeing on the TV. Is a fact, that this is emitting from My being, is a fact! Why should you feel angry about it? Why don't you come and test it? Why should you be hurt, why your ego should hurt you if I am like that? If you are different, it doesn't hurt Me at all! If you know one work of say, organizing this or that, I don't feel bad. Why should you feel bad if somebody is a Divine Personality? Why did you feel bad that Christ was a Divine Personality? Why did you murder Him? Why did you kill Him? Why did you torture all the people, who were such saintly people? You were very wise and sweet, isn't it? You have been very kind and nice people, running after all kinds of wrong type of useless misguiding people. There are so many, now, who have come to misguide you. They are taking money for you for misguiding you! They are taking money for giving you sins. They are nicely, booking you up for a trip to hell, they themselves are booked nicely there. And when I say, about them, people feel very hurt that why should Mātājī talk against these Gurus? They are not Gurus, they are Rākshasas! Once Christ stood up and said “These devils and the children of devil will have to go to hell!" Then people got after Him, they said, “Why do you say such things against them?" They don't say anything against each other. Christ said “The Satan is not going to speak against his own house." They are very friendly with each other. There is no problem among them. They are very kind to each other, now all the disciples are being distributed: “You take such a lot, I take such a lot and all of us will go to hell directly." It's properly organized like one train is going first then the second train will leave, then the third train will leave.

The other side of this kind of ambitiousness and the kind of ego-orientation and money-orientation we have, all the time we are busy with this money! I call it a `bhrama', call it a hallucination. It's a big hallucination with you people, that you are running after money. It's another hallucination that you are running after pretātmas [bhoots] and dead bodies. These are two mirages you are running after. What are you going to get out of this money? Go and see somebody who is supposed to be a very, very rich man! Just go and see, is he a happy man? What is the analysis of his life? So-called successful people, you just go and see them, what is the success they have? Who respects them? When they turn their back, people say “Oh God, whose face have I seen let me go and wash my mouth!" Are you auspicious? If somebody sees you, does any good comes out of you, some `shubha' [auspiciousness] happens to that person? Are you `kalyanamay' [full of benevolence]? Are you `mangalmay' [full of auspiciousness]? What sort of a personality are you, just judge yourself and that judgment can take place, here in Sahaja Yoga.

We had a patient who came to Sahaja Yoga and he told Me “Mother, I'm a young boy, but I don't know what has happened to me, that I have become inauspicious." I said, “How do you know?" He said, “Wherever I go there's a quarrel between husband and wife; something goes wrong with the children; the children start crying and shouting and screaming. And now I'm hated by everyone, everybody says `there is something wrong with you.' " I found out about him, what was the matter, he got cured. Now he is emitting beautiful vibrations.

You can have very negative vibrations going out of you, you might be, doing sins without your knowledge and you would say, `Oh, Mother, I'm getting all the vibrations, I'm very good.' Such people always deceive, themselves and others, very good at it. `Oh, nothing wrong with me, I'm in first class condition, my vibrations are the best' and, that `I'm doing very well.' Who is going to judge you is your deed. What good have you done to others? Recently we had a mishap like that. And I found all those people who were touched by that gentleman, had left Swādhiṣhṭhāna catching. Very bad! And when I told them that this was a wrong thing to do, is to make this man so important, they all got after My life. There was a doctor who had come to see Me, who is a Sahaja Yogi.

His son came to see Me, he is eight year old and a very good boy, had a realisation, but he had a very bad Swādhiṣhṭhāna.

So I asked him “Does this man come to your house?" He says, “Yes Mother, he comes very often." Despite My warning he would go to their house and they would entertain that gentleman.

Instead of telling him that `You go to Mother and get yourself cleared out!' You see they are enticed and hypnotized by such a person. I asked him, I said, “Have you got this man coming to your house?" “Yes” he said. I said, “All right! Go and beat him with shoes, as we do in our Sahaja Yoga." And the boy got cleared out.

Do you want to ruin your family, your children, everybody, because you're adhering to some hypnotic fellow? At least have some consideration for them! There are many like this, but in Sahaja Yoga it is very easy to desert and even in London I know who is going where, what they are doing. I write to them, I tell them, “Don't do it! Just don't do it, have nothing to do!" Immediately you must understand, that, our Mother who knows these things. She knows and if She has told us it is the thing that is to be done. Not to be argued! Did you get your vibrations through arguments? But still in Sahaja Yoga also people falter and that's the worst thing they will do, because Yogabhrashtas are the most condemned. Where will they go? I have to warn, all the Sahaja Yogis who are here, because Sahaja Yoga is the Last Judgement! Not only that you will be judged, that you are entering into the Kingdom of God, that you become the citizens of God, is correct. But apart from that, that you are capable of being there, whether you have the complete surrendering and understanding of Divine laws. Even if you are belonging, to say, India and a citizen of India, but if you do mistakes and if you commit criminal laws you'll be punished. Even then! So, even if you become the citizen of God, you have to be very very careful about it! The second thing, I would like to tell you, is about the destroying powers of Kalki. Today's lecture is going to be very sharp for you, because the incarnation that you have asked Me to speak on is a very sharp one, is the sharpest of all. We had, say, Kṛiṣhṇa's incarnation when He had Hanana Shakti [Killing Power]. He has killed Kamsa, He has killed so many Rākshasas, you know as child also, He has killed Pūtana and so many people. But, He had leelā also. He had love and He did give concessions to people, He forgave people also.

But Christ, who is the embodiment of forgiveness, forgiveness of Christ is nothing, but is the power of sustenance within Him. If He explodes... the whole forgiveness can come on us, as a big disaster if we are not able to understand the value of His forgiveness. He has said very clearly, that “Anything said against Me will be tolerated but a word against Holy Ghost won't be tolerated." He has clearly said it! And now you have to understand that Holy Ghost is Ādi Shakti.

One has to understand that such an incarnation is imminent. And Kṛiṣhṇa's powers, are given to Him, which are only Hanana Shakti. Brahmadeva's powers, which are only Hanana Shakti are given to Him.

Shiva's powers, which are just Hanana Shakti, the part of it which is a Tandava [dance of dissolution], is given to Him. Then Bhairava's Shakti, which is also, you know what Bhairava has got as a symbol of killing, is a big sword-like thing and also Gaṇeśha's Parusha; and also Hanumāna's all Navasidhis, which are going to destroy, are given to Him. All Buddha's forgiveness and Mahāvīra's Ahimsa is going to turn upside down. All these eleven powers are going to come on top of us when we will be finished with Sahaja Yoga, when we will be absolutely sorted out and the last killing will be done by Him.

I wish it was just a killing it is not going to be ordinary hanana [killing] like even Devī has done.

Because Devī has killed all these Rākshasas thousands of years back, but they are back in the seat again, all these Rākshasas.

Now the problem is very different, at the present moment, which you should try to understand. That in the olden days, till the Kṛiṣhṇa's time when He says, that “Yada yada hi Dharmasya, glanir bhawati bharata. Vinashaya cha dushkruthām panitra na echa saguṇa." These two words you must understand.

To destroy the Dushkruthām, means the cruel people or the negative forces and to save the saints.

“Sambhavami yuge yuge” “I'm going to come again and again." But the problem of the Kali Yuga is that there is no pure and simple person as a Sādhu or as a Rākshasa.

So many Rākshasas have entered into your brains. You side with so many people who are wrong, who are doing wrong, who are doing all kinds of wrong things in the name of politics, in the name of religion, in the name of progress and education and all that. Once you have sided with them, then they are in your brain, they are within you. And when they are within you, how to destroy the dushkruthāms? They are within you! You may be a good person, but you may be destroyed because of having them in your heads.

So there is no hard and fast rule as to say who is a real negative and who is a real positive.

Only the Sahaja Yoga is going to cleanse you and make you absolutely positive, positively good people and religious people. This is the only way, because your aṅkura, when it starts giving you realisation, you feel your Self, you feel your Self and with that Self you know that you are your Self and not this mirage. You start enjoying that Self. Once you start enjoying it, you give up all these things that make you compromise and make you a horribly mixed-up person. All this confusion can go away! So it is essential that we should take to Sahaja Yoga in the most dedicated manner and redeem ourselves of our all wrong doings and also others whom we know and this is the only thing that we can give to our friends, relations and all the world around! People invite others for dinners, have drinks, this, that. What do you give them? Nothing? They will give presents on a birthday they'll go round and give garlands and exchange good wishes and everything.

There in London when there's a Christmas day, the cards pile up to such an extent that no letter can be sent for ten days before Christmas. And where is Christ? On the Day when Christ is born they'll go in for a champagne. Such foolish people, even somebody dies they'll go for a Champagne. Champagne is their religion now and whisky is their Kuṇḍalinī. They cannot understand God. How can they, when they have made God according to their own conception of falsehood? As a Mother, I have to warn you, be careful. Do not play about with your Self. Do not go down, but come up, come up and come up. I'm here to help you. I'm here to work for you day and night, that you know I work very hard for you. I'll spare no efforts, to help you and do everything that is possible, to make you all right to pass this examination of Last Judgment. But you have to cooperate with Me and you have to go headlong about it and devote most of your time for Sahaja Yoga and for imbibing all that is great and noble.

Kalki is a very big subject, and, if you see the Kalki Purāna, is such big book, of course lot of trash is also in there. But, when is the time coming, if people say, we'll say this is a living process. When the work will be finished, when we will see that there's no more chance of having any more people in this life, Kalki will come down. Let us see how many come in, but there is a limit, also, of that.

So, I would request you, to go out, call your friends, call your relations, call your neighbours, all of them.

Tomorrow is the last day of My program here of Navarātri, where we are going to have a little felicitation from the Mother. To Me the greatest felicitations will be when in this Bombay [Mumbai], I will find more people realised, taking to Sahaja Yoga seriously. And after coming to Sahaja Yoga not to indulge in backbiting and small petty-mindedness and getting angry with each other, but being sensible and wise.

It is most surprising those who are supposed to be the cream of the nation, the most sophisticated people, are so petty-minded and useless.

I have to tell you these things because of the immediate emergency that is coming forward before Me.

And I am only praying that it should not be in Bombay [Mumbai] that it should start. Bombay [Mumbai] had gone into the verge, if you remember, the day when Rajesh Shah phoned Me that, “Mother, what about rain, what about rain, what about rain?" I wouldn't answer him, till he said: “Mother, I know you are angry with Bombay [Mumbai] people, but still forgive them, once again!" And that is the night when you started getting all this rain.

Next calamity, beware of it. I have to tell all Bombay [Mumbai] people, every time I come back, I find this kind of a nonsense of these Sahaja Yogis, getting after one man somewhere and getting lost.

And the another thing is that Bombay [Mumbai] people are still most unaware of what is going to fall into them. Most unaware how they are made from amoeba to this stage, what God has done for them and what they have to do for God. It's a very very sad affair, extremely sad, for the whole of the country because people try to follow this Bombay [Mumbai]. There are so many people who would like to follow an actor and an actress than to follow

God. This is the trouble, with our superficial temperaments.

I have to say that we have tomorrow a very good program and also a book has been written The Advent by Gregoire de Kalbermatten, who is a son of a baron and a Swiss boy and when he came to Me I could see clearly that he's a seeker, though he was a gone case, he was like a schizophrenic person. He was absolutely a gone case, but I could see in him, that there's a big seeker within him and I had to work hard with him for a year to bring him round to his normal senses. But when there is not even seeking within you and when you go that astray, what is going to happen to you? I don't know.

So be careful, be very very careful. Today is the day of warning you, because you have asked Me to talk about Kalki. He is placed on our forehead. When the Kalki is caught up, the Chakra of Kalki is caught up, the whole of murdha [brain], on top, goes out of order. In the Kuṇḍalinī awakening, we find that the murdha is all out of order, it doesn't rise. The whole head becomes a blockade. Such people do not allow the Kuṇḍalinī to rise above, the, we can say, the Haṁsa Chakra. At the most they might try to raise up to Āgñyā, but the Kuṇḍalinī falls down.

Of course one of the reasons as I said that if you, put your forehead before wrong Gurus, also, you suffer. But too much thinking also creates a problem on the right hand side here and one of the aspects of Kalki gets spoilt and there is an imbalance is created, on this side.

The whole forehead, if it is full of lots of bumps, then one must know that the Kalki Chakra is out of order. If the Kalki Chakra is out of order, the person is about to go into some sort of a very bad calamity, is a sign of a person who is going to get. When the Kalki Chakra is caught up all your fingers start burning.

On the hands and on the palm, sometimes even in the body, you get terrible burning. A person's Kalki Chakra catching means, he might be down with a horrible disease like cancer, maybe leprosy. Maybe any such diseases, or maybe that he is about to collapse into some sort of a calamity.

So Kalki Chakra must be kept all right in balance. At least there are eleven sub-Chakras of the Kalki Chakra. And out of them, at least try to keep some of them alive, so that the others can be rescued. But if all the Chakras are ruined, then it is very difficult to give you realisation.

What is the thing one should do, to keep your Kalki all right? To keep your Kalki all right you must have that awe for God. If you do not have awe for God, if you are not afraid of God, if you are not afraid, that if you do wrong He is there with His wrath and that He is a wrathful God and that He is full of poison for us, if we try to do anything wrong, if there is no fear of that. Not that it is to be hidden from Me, or from anybody else but not, you yourself know that you are doing wrong. If you are doing something wrong and you know in your hearts of hearts that “I am doing something wrong” please, don't do it! Otherwise your Kalki will go out.

When you have that awe for God and you know that God is all-pervading, He is all-powerful, He has powers to raise us, to this state of higher being and also He has power to bestow all the blessings that He has. He is the most compassionate God, or we can say the most compassionate Father, that one can think of. But in the same way He has a wrath. And that wrath, when it falls upon you, be very very careful! As a Mother I have to warn you, be careful about the wrath of your Father, because if He comes on you with that wrath, nobody can stop it. Nobody can stop it and the compassion of Mother also, will not be listened to because He may say that “You have spoiled your children by giving them too much looseness." So I have to tell you, that please don't do anything that is wrong and do not, make Me feel bad about it. Because, for a Mother it is very difficult to tell these things. It's very hard, for a Mother, who has a tender heart and a kind heart for you, to say all these things. But I have to request you that don't play about because your Father is full of wrath and He can punish you if you do anything wrong.

But if you do anything for Him or for your own being, for in your Self-realisation, you will be placed in the highest position. Today you may be the biggest millionaire, you may be the richest man, you may be the greatest political leader, you may be the prime minister and all that nonsense, in the presence of God, those who are dear to God will be placed at the highest positions and not all these worldly things which look so interesting and enchanting to you. The most important thing, where are you as far as far as God is concerned, that relation you must establish by first finding out your Self, your Ātmā, through Sahaja Yoga and then relating yourself to that.

May God bless you all! Now we'll have a session of Sahaja Yoga for you to get corrected and I would like those people who have not been here before to come forward, to get their realisation and all the Sahaja Yogis to help Me today, because today being Kalki's day, vibrations have been bit too much!

Contents: 1979-09-29 Public Felicitation and Advent Seminar (8th Day of Navarātri), Joy and Depth, Sunderbhai Hall, Mumbai, India

Śhrī Vijay Merchant, Mister Rakure, all the Sahaja Yogis who have come here to express their love for Me and all the rest of the people who are in the search of truth. It was really a very gracious of Śhrī Merchant to come and inaugurate this book. I have been from My childhood watching his cricket. I must say I'm quite a big cricket fan Myself. I think cricket is the game which is really Sahaja, between one extreme of football and another boring game of golf. And I always have been appreciating the way he has been managing our teams and has been such a good captain to our country and I've been admiring him, the way he has been able to handle the glory in the field of cricket. Even after that, instead of wasting his life like all other successful people of this life in retirement, he's doing such a great work and such a feeling he has for all the downtrodden and the poor people of this country shows that he is a very sensitive personality. I'm very thankful to him the way he is being kind to all of us and have been here and spoke to us about his own work. I agree with him entirely that the downtrodden or the ones who are not so well off as we are or, we can say, the one who is not such a good batsman, the weaker one, has to be helped and sustained by the stronger one.

This is exactly what we are doing in Sahaja Yoga. What we are doing in Sahaja Yoga is that we are reaching to the roots of poverty. We are not just trying to do the, do the patchwork of just improving the material conditions of people. Because you have seen in the world people there have been very affluent in the countries like Switzerland and Sweden where people are very affluent and they are committing suicide.

The maximum number of suicides are coming from Sweden. I've informed you last time that we had some people coming from Sweden and their vibrations were something like the dead bodies. We have to know the roots of our troubles first of all. If we just try to treat the symptoms we cannot go too far. And maybe that we may cure one symptom but may cure another symptom.

I'll give you a very simple example of My husband's sensitivity to his organization which is World Shipping Corporation. He is another philanthropic gentleman and he wanted to do a lot of good for the drivers who were in the organization. And he said, “Their pay is very little and the women and the men are really living in substandard conditions. We must do something about them." And so he started raising their pay. After three months or so suddenly I had a call from a lady. She said, “We are the wives of the drivers and we want to come and see You." I said, “It's a good idea. You all must come and see Me” because in Shipping Corporation I always had a very motherly role towards all the employees and they would always come and tell Me if they thought that it would be difficult to talk to My husband. Now they came round and they told Me that, “It's nice that he has given us lot of pay, but do our drivers know how to handle that additional money? Now they have taken to drinking, they have taken to bad women and they are not even giving us money what they were giving us." What is the basic root of poverty? It is not God. It is human beings, the human beings who have got too much ambitions, human beings who are all the time running after the mirage of money. In money-oriented societies of the West have created this kind of mentality, even in the East where people want to have everything of the world. They want to have today the house, tomorrow the car, day after tomorrow the helicopter. Maybe they may like to have even a big jumbo jet to themselves. How do you curb this? Unless and until you bring those people who are en-massing these money too much and extracting the money from the poor and on the other hand the poor who do not feel responsible enough to create work for themselves and not to be parasites on anyone. These two factors must to be tackled at the same time and Sahaja Yoga is the only way you can win.

Now you must have seen that in Sahaja Yoga mostly the people of about middle class people are there.

Very poor people are also there; we have lots of poor people from the villages. In the Sahaja Yoga when the Kuṇḍalinī rises you get your own power within yourselves by which you feel satisfied and this too much of hankering after money, position and all that dies out and such a person himself thinks of the others who are around, because on his vibrations he can feel and he can feel the needs of others. As far the sick that are poor or sick who are the rich, even diseases like cancer and leprosy can only be cured by Sahaja Yoga.

We treat people without taking a single pie. We have cured thousands of people all over the world without taking a single pie from them, whether they are poor, rich or anything. Mentally there are many people who are disturbed. For example, most of the money of the poor goes for drinking. They drink like fishes.

They waste their energy in drinking. You might think I am talking on prohibition, but drinking is against human sustenance. Now you cannot ask people to stop drinking. It's an impossibility. If you tell anybody that, `You stop drinking,' he cannot stop. Most of the poor people so-called poor, sometimes I feel have lots of money to waste on drinking. We must see to the other side of the poor also. By giving them more money, are we really making them responsible, are we making them better people, are we making them good citizens and are we making them one with the Divine force? So supposing a poor man comes to you and he is a drinking fellow. Now you cannot tell him, `Don't drink.' If you tell him, `Don't drink,' he'll hit you hard. If there are ten more, that's more danger and such prohibition has never worked. But you'll be amazed to know that in the Amart Nagar district there are thousands of people who have just given up drinking just like that by getting this realisation. Now what is realisation? If we understand in one stroke you will know that this is what we should have first and then other things should follow. Is that you by realisation you get to know yourself. You get to know your own powers, which are again within. You get to know what are you and you get to know the absolute.

As you said, is very true; without getting to Self-realisation, you will not know what is really right and what is wrong. There cannot be any absolute value because you have not yet discovered your absolute.

Everything is relative. That's why there is a confusion. But supposing you discover, supposing I say, keep it as a hypothesis, you discover your Spirit, the absolute. If you discover that then relative whatever are the problems you know through the vibrations that are flowing through you, you can make out whether it is right or wrong. If it is wrong the vibrations will stop immediately. I've been saying that cancer cannot be cured by anything else but Sahaja Yoga and we have cured cancer of so many people.

The other day I went to Saskar and you know there were lots of sick people around. Out of them was a blind man from the year when he was five years and for about twenty-five years he has been a blind person. His both the pupils were turned upside down and he could not see anything; he could only see the white retina. And he started seeing within ten minutes time. If you want to write you can write to the President's sister and ask the secretary, Mister Madapa. There I have also cured our President, no doubt, but apart from that there was a little girl who was the daughter of a sentry who was a Muslim gentleman. And he called and he said that, “This girl cannot see at all, Mother and she's a young girl of seven-eight years and she's lost her eyesight because there was a fire." She also within five or ten minutes started seeing so clearly that she saw My husband's suit which had white lines on it.

Sahaja Yoga is the only way you can solve the troubles of the downtrodden. There's no other way out because unless and until you are realised you have, must have seen how these social workers react.

I have also been in the social work and I have seen their reaction, how they behave. Because they are imperfect. Till this instrument is put to the mains, this cannot work out properly. It is still an imperfect instrument. You must get the instrument perfected. It's all ready. The instrument is within you; it is just to be perfected. All your diseases can be cured.

Now what about poverty? Poverty, as you know is the Lakṣhmī Tattwa. It resides in your Nābhī. The Lakṣhmī Tattwa resides in your Nābhī and if your Nābhī Chakra is cured, your Lakṣhmī Tattwa is cured.

In our country because of black magic, because of horrible Gurus, because of all kinds of bad things we think about others as far as Nābhī is concerned, because of fasting, nonsensical fasting, because of going to temples and taking bad Prasādas, all these things have caused the augmentation of the Nābhī Chakra.

Now here the Sahaja Yogis who have come have definitely gained materially. All of them have gained materially. If there is anybody can stand up and tell Me, “We have not gained." We have had very poor people coming to us. We had one gentleman coming to us from Kalwa. He told Me, “Mother, since I have joined this Sahaja Yoga I'm very well off." I was surprised because every time he would come from Kalwa bring Me a garland. I said, “What happened?" He said, “I don't know but I was walking on the soil of my land every morning and suddenly one day a gentleman came to me and told me that, `Will you please sell me your this clay from your land, at such and such price?' Because it's a very good clay, very good fabric make. And he started paying me such a lot." “Perhaps you do not realise, sir, that these vibrations are dynamic, are blessings of God and once you touch them, the Lakṣhmī Tattwa improves just like that." You don't have to bother to look after the downtrodden or anything. Anybody, whether he is rich or whether he is poor, when he comes to Sahaja Yoga he gets related to the whole.

This sensitivity in all the people who are doing work, good work for helping the poor, becomes really enlightened. Only by touching a thing you can cure people. By just standing there you can stop accidents.

By just thinking about it you can manage the whole show. It is that is how, by going deeper into it, with a deeper being, that is the whole, the Virāt, you learn that you are a part of the whole. Only you have to be connected; the dynamic starts flowing in. But of course you cannot become very rich in Sahaja Yoga, neither very poor, because as in the nature these imbalances are never there.

The other day I told you a human being grows up to, say, certain height to five, six, seven feet; that's all, not more. Even the, say, a mango tree grows up to a certain point. The nature looks after. God looks after you. He does everything. Let us be connected only to God and He looks after this. I agree that philanthropic work is a very essential part of a country like ours. But we have to know that philanthropy is not the job of God. Human beings have created poverty. Human beings have created all these problems.

So they should solve their own problems. It is not the work of God. God's work is to bless you, to gift you. When you go to Him, when you enter into the Kingdom of God, He blesses you. Not too much, not too less, but the satisfaction and the and the joy of owning it. Actually, we do not own anything.

Whatever we own, so-called, is just a myth in our minds. Even in our poor people we have given them sometimes very wrong ideas and they have formed the sort of a group thinking they are very poor and they can assert a political pressure and all sorts of things. You have to be careful that when we want to do something for the poor, let us do it from the within and not from the without. Actually, this is such a wonderful country. Here you don't need much. You have seen Me: I can sleep on the street; I can move about [UNCLEAR anywhere/any way] I like.

There is no need to have too much. That's why Gandhiji always said that we should press on our Sāgara –'void'. He told all the Gandhivād, Gandhi, Gandhian people that you should have less. But what you find, most of the Gandhivādīs have the greatest amount of black money, the greatest amount of diamonds and the greatest amount of money. They might wear ordinary clothes but I have heard they are not. This heart has to be changed. Unless and until you change the heart of the people, unless and until sincerely they really feel the way you feel, not only that but they just feel it as an actual feeling within themselves.

For example, if there's a poor man standing before Me, immediately I can feel his Nābhī Chakra. I can put My hand on Nābhī Chakra. I can solve his problem, just like this. It's a fact; you know that. All the Sahaja Yogis who are here most of them are Sahaja Yogis will say that Mātājī has done. The poorest of poorest can be touched by Lakṣhmī Tattwa and can be cured. That is the most important part, that his Lakṣhmī Tattwa must be cured and not his money or materia.

Now the difference between Lakṣhmī Tattwa and materia you must find out. Lakṣhmī Tattwa is a person.

He may be just an ordinary driver, but he can be like a Batcha. You see, we had a driver with us for many years. He was just like a Batcha and I knew that he was like a king because he was a king in his previous life. The way he was like a Batcha, that nothing would disturb him and everything would satisfy him. If you tell him that you have to wait for three hours he'll wait. If you tell him he cannot stay here now, you can go and sleep anywhere, he'll do. Whatever you tell him he will not hesitate and he was such a happy personality. Now, the reason is, I would say he's better than many rich people who cannot sleep in the night and who are all the time thinking about dirty tricks that they are going to try and many of these politicians who are just planning all the time all the dirty designs. We have to purify ourselves from within. Poverty is just a mere myth of that symptom. Now to say that people are very much tortured, I know that they are being, of course, very much put down. But what is the solution you have? If the solution is to give them some money, or to have them money wise or to just put little cure, that is not going to help. You have to awaken their Lakṣhmī Tattwa.

I am going to the essence, to the base of it, from where the problem comes in. Lakṣhmī stands with one hand like this, one hand like this and with two kamala in Her hand and She is a woman with a very simple sarī, white sarī. Be sure a Lakṣhmī pati, a person who has got Lakṣhmī, the satisfaction of Lakṣhmī has always a way of giving. All the time he is giving. If the Lakṣhmī Tattwa of all these so-called multimillionaires is awakened they will be frightened of keeping all these black money with them and extracting the blood of the poor. If the Lakṣhmī Tattwa of the poor is enlightened they'll be ashamed of begging and being parasites. No use developing parasite tendencies into them. A parasite is to be hated like leprosy.

In this country we have had enough of this beggary. Our leaders also have become greatest beggars of the world. All over the world if you go, you feel so ashamed. It does not matter if half of this country is damned because they can be born again. But live with your self-respect. This kind of beggary that is on and this kind of begging that we are doing with other countries is so shameful for us because God has given us such a blessing of this Yoga Bhūmī. What a mess we have made out of it by not understanding our own values, our own culture and our own heritage that we have got from God.

This is the only country in the whole world which is Yoga-oriented. Do you understand the importance of this country? Not only that it is Yoga-oriented but also, also it is a Puṇya Bhūmī. Here all the great saints have come and lived. Even Zoroaster whom Parsees worship is nothing but an incarnation of Dattātreya and you know how we worship him in our Sahaja Yoga, how we worship Mohamed Sahib in our Sahaja Yoga, how we understand where He stands within us. The deeper, the intercurrence of all these problems of the whole world can be solved by you people, the Indians. You are being blessed to be Indians in this country and not to feel so bad if you don't have one helicopter or one transistor. Poverty is of the mind, I can tell you. It's not more of eating or non-eating. If a person has a mind which is sickening he may be the multi-millionaire still he'll be crying, `I don't have this. I don't have that.' Nothing can satisfy human beings and you know the economics law is such that, `No want is satiable in general.' In particular, everything is satisfied but nobody is satisfied. With Sahaja Yoga you can give them satisfaction and self-respect. Develop their self-respect. Teach them how to come up, not to look after them as just downtrodden.

I have had a very good opportunity of working for a blind school here. And the blind school people wanted to collect money and this and that and all that and I said, “Nothing doing. You are not to make them begging girls. They can all work out something for themselves." They started working out. Then they made some nice things and bed covers and this and that.

So they said, “Now, who will market?" I said, “You go all out to do the marketing for them." But then I told them that in Japan I was surprised that the blind were taught massage. I said, “You give them realisation and let them do massage. If a realised blind person gives massaging, all these foreigners would be paying them at least hundred rupees per massage, minimum. And if that person is blind it's much easier to do the massage." But the people could not accept this kind of a thing. They said, “No, no, Mātājī, then, You see, You should not give them realisation." Here we lack the understanding of the depth of our problem. They, they said, “Mātājī, how can You give realisation to these blind [UNCLEAR too/people]?" And the blind people would have got it in no time. Only they could have been cured and they would have had this realisation. But because that organization belongs to other great people of great thinking and wisdom they would not accept such a situation where I would say, `All right, you bring all your blind and I'll try to give them their eyesight.' They are not willing to accept this.

I will tell you a very simple example that I cured a leukaemia of a little boy of ten years who was a patient of blood, blood cancer patient in Delhi. Of course, we never charge a single pie. No Sahaja Yogis allow to charge a single pie for whatever he does; you know that. Not a single pie. And this boy was cured. He was brought by Doctor Mulher and Doctor Mulher referred Me to the medical institute. The medical institute came to Me and just see what was their proposition, “You give us the list of people whom You have cured, how You have cured, where they live and all." I said, “For what? I'm not asking for any money. Nothing is selling here. You are as if you are going into cross-examination, as if I am out here for any donation from you. You just come and see for yourselves. I don't write the names of people whom I give food or how many morsels they have eaten. This is My love that is flowing. It's My love that is working out. You people can't understand love. You want Me to write down all the people I have cured.

I refuse to do it." This is the way they look at a thing. They do not know the power of love for us now.

It is necessary first to generate the power of love through Sahaja Yoga. It is very easy.

Sahaja Yoga is not the blessing of one year or one Yuga but of all the Yugas. You have to get it. You have to get to know your Ātmā. You have to know your Self and the Last Judgment is here now. There is no need to think of another Last Judgment coming in. Here, now, by knowing your Ātmā you will get the power of God flowing through you, like when I put it to the mains, the power starts flowing through us. And then this power can communicate that dynamic power. What is this poverty? It's at the Feet of that Lord. You can just throw it away. I agree that going to temples and churches there is no God.

But even going to poor will not help, I can tell you this much today, but going to the roots of poverty, by understanding why there is poverty and why human beings behave like this. You have to transform the whole thing. You are still in the flower state. You all have to become fruits. All of us have to become fruits today. If we are not fruits we cannot solve the problem of our country and of another country. If this takes place, if this tremendous transformation takes place in our country today, then the whole world is going to be led by us and in any case it is going to be led, which I am sure, hundred per cent sure, that the time it's coming when the whole world will have to listen to us on this point to solve their problems.

There are countries, communist countries are there; people have everything. I've been to all the countries. I've been to Russia. Those who talk of communism should go to Russia and see for themselves.

Those who talk of capitalism should go to America and see for themselves how stupid and silly and useless people they have been, how their society is finished. Money cannot bring you happiness. If you want to make people happy then awaken their Nābhī Chakra, as they call it, or you can call it the Lakṣhmī Tattwa.

And the Lakṣhmī Tattwa can only be awakened, only be awakened through Sahaja Yoga by which the whole country will be transformed. Like you go to a barren garden and you see the garden absolutely in a barren condition. Suddenly water comes in and the power of the water generates all that affluence and suddenly you find the whole place bubbling with joy and that's what is going to happen to this our country, which people think as to be poor. Still I would say we may be poor outwardly because we don't have very good clothes maybe, according to them and we don't have too many plastics with us. What is their affluence? It's nothing but plastics and rubbers. They eat plastics and they sleep on rubbers.

They don't even have so much of natural cotton with them. Our affluence is our Yoga, is our power, our sustenance, our humanity and our humanity has to be sustained.

We have to have many more people like Mister Vijay Merchant who think of the whole, of the all the people who are suffering, but philanthropy of Sahaja Yoga is different because for Me who is the other? When somebody is just a part and parcel of My being, itself My finger is paining; I'm just rubbing it and I must do it. For that I don't have to awaken people; they just get it. You just stand near a person, you get a headache and you ask the person, “Have you got a headache?" “Yes." You rub your head and rub his head and just finish it off. You just cannot help it because the macrocosm, the Virāt, informs you when you are one with it that, `see, the other fellow is suffering.' You become that. You become collectively conscious. It is not a lecture or anything but it's a becoming within you that you start feeling on your fingers, on your fingertips, what are the centers catching, what is the problem of the other person, how to cure it, what to do it. Everything, all this knowledge is given in Sahaja Yoga, absolutely free. Out of so many who are sitting here you can ask how many have been suffering from diseases have been cured completely and since they have been realised not a single pie has been given to the doctors.

It is not necessary to look after your health, not necessary to do much about it. We have had people who have had three heart attacks and now they are going strong. We have had people who had leukaemia, who had all kinds of diseases. Today you won't believe they ever had that disease because now the inside is completely into balance, integrated and blessed by God's Divine Power within you. This is our heritage.

We have to cash on it. And by this only we are going to remove the poverty, one day you will see and not by patching up few things. I would request Mister Vijay Merchant and we have another great social worker with us, is Gidubai Kotak, that you should pay little more attention to our Sahaja Yoga and see the dynamics of the Sahaja Yoga. You'll be amazed how one person, the person who spoke to you just now, was from Rahuri, these two persons. They have given realisation to ten thousands people. Just go and see their houses. Just go and see their children. They are bubbling with joy, with happiness and you do not see any poverty in their hearts at all. Their hearts have been enriched and they are doing so well.

Because the energy comes within you, the Saraswatī Tattwa is also enlightened and you start thinking as to what is to be done and how to, how to make your life happy.

But money is not everything; food is not everything. Unless and until you get to know your Ātmā you can never be happy.

So go to the roots and it's so easy. You don't have to pay anything. You don't have to have many organization, nothing. It just works, just like this.

So why worry and why just think of something terrible? Now more we are ahead, talk to Gidubai also that they were enamoured by one Guru who were showing some miracles. And I, I had met somebody from Morvi who came to see Me and I told him that you just don't have anything to do with this horrible fellow, because a day will come when Kalki is at work and there will be destruction. He wouldn't listen to Me. I went to Andhra. For your information I tell you I went to Andhra. I told to Andhra people that, “You don't grow this tobacco." In Andhra there are two types of people: one who are making lots of money; the other are the so-called poor who are doing lot of black magic. I talked to both of them. I told them, “Don't do black magic because if you do black magic Lakṣhmī Tattwa will disappear." If the black magic comes from this side, the Lakṣhmī goes from the other side. And they just didn't listen to Me. And I talked to these people who were growing tobacco. They wouldn't listen.

There are on three tapes, there is a lecture, where I said that the sea is the incarnation of Dattātreya.

It will take a respite, I, believe Me. And that's what has happened with it. We have to understand that God knows all of us. He knows us in masses and He knows where we are going and what we are doing.

Your Bombay [Mumbai] has escaped recently a very big drought. But please take heed and take to God. It is no question of going to Himālayas, of course and no question of running away from it. But get it within yourself, try, as many as you can bring in here, if the saints are there. Those who are Sahaja Yogis are saints. Then God definitely will bless you, definitely will bless you. And the same people who are realised today have done tremendous work in the villages. They have emancipated so many villages without any money, without anything. When I go in the villages I'm really surprised how people get cured, how they are helped, how they get energetic, how they understand things. It's most amazing.

So the power of all the powers, that is the power of God's Love, let us take to it. Let us take advantage of Him and leave everything in the hands of God. Only get Him into everyone you think who is suffering. You get Me hundred people who are suffering, I will see to them. Today if the whole hall was filled I would have cured all of them. You know that I have done it. It is not difficult. It is no boasting. It's a fact. It's a fact. It works in five minutes, for so many people can get it. But people do not want to face reality and they do not want to attend to it.

Now we have already so many Sahaja Yogis in Bombay [Mumbai].

So you can imagine I've worked here for nine years. We have some more of course in the outer centers but here in the center we have so many or little more.

So you can see how people are. And the work you are doing from outside, it's all like a blind person going doing this work, that work, that work, that work. Politicians also think they are doing great work. All right, they are doing.

Social workers are also doing great work. Everybody's doing. But there's no coordination, there's no integration and there's no satisfaction of what one is doing. The reason is all of them belong to the one whole and they have not yet connected with the whole, which one has to do. We are finding our wholesomeness all over the world, whether we are Indians, Americans or anything. We are all just trying to find out our wholesomeness and the answer is Sahaja Yoga. It is Sahaja Yoga. There's no other answer to anyone of these problems. Today I am telling you, again you can tell Me afterwards.

You give Me your problems. You tell Me who are the downtrodden. Let Me see. Let Me see who are the downtrodden.

Now you, somebody wanted Me to go and see the fishermen. I said, “All right, I'll go and see them." I'm sure if I, they get realisation, their fishery will improve, definitely, hundred per cent; I'm sure of it.

Everything improves because God's blessings are there and God has got the six qualities which makes Him Bhagwan. It's one of them is Shubha, Auspicious. Another is Kalyan. Another is Aiśhwarya –‘dominion’. Like these the six qualities of God. These six qualities emit from the being and once you face it you get it. You want to do Kalyan; all right, then face people to God and this is the way by which you can face it. You don't have to organize churches and temples or anything. It's just the energy which has to flow, Shakti that has to flow. Like you can see a wood is lying there, has nothing. But if you enlighten it, it gives you light, fire, everything. In the same way enlightenment is the only way to solve the problem and all of us should try to enlighten as many people as possible.

Our work, of course, is more for the middle class because the extremes do not take to us. But when the middle course increases, the river flows on both the sides. She can feed on the both the sides. Gradually the both the sides can also join [them], but the depth is in the center, in the Madhya Marga –‘central path’ and there it works out. It is only the middle class, which can work it out because they have the values necessary, they have the feelings necessary and they have the blessings necessary because they lead a very normal life.

Once they learn their swimming they must know themselves before helping others. You must help yourself, you must become yourself, before you help others. Once they achieve that, they can easy help, easy help others and that has been done. It is such a silent work of Sahaja Yoga that we have not maintain any statistics. We have not yet been able to say. Here there are people who have given realisation to minimum of ten thousands or eight thousands people. There are people who have cured thousands of people who are sitting here just like ordinary people, but they don't know about it and they'll say, `We didn't do, Mother.

It just worked. It was just happening. It happened.' So this is what is a very dynamic force.

I would request all the social workers to open their eyes to this tremendous discovery that has come to our country and to see for themselves what it is like, what it means. It transforms a personality into such a dynamic web that an ordinary boy can become a great cricket player. An ordinary musician can become a great musician. An ordinarily dull boy can become a first class student. It has happened. There are many who will say it has happen in their cases.

So many things have happen like this and so we have to depend on the mercy of God for this. Only thing is we have to desire and ask for it. I think, the other day I had a talk with one of the political leaders. I said, “Politics without Adhyātma –‘God’ has no life." In the same way I'll say, “Social work without Adhyātma has no meaning." Without Adhyātma, without the Ātmā in it, without the Spirit of God in it, you are doing it because in you something is dying, in you something is feeling, that what is feeling in you is the part of the whole.

So know the whole and you'll be so dynamic.

You'll be so great and the whole thing will flow from you and you can really help thousands of people.

I hope, it's a good thing today we have two great social workers here and I put forward to them this kind of a proposition.

So on behalf of all the Sahaja Yogis we render all our services. Any number of downtrodden people you have got, you send them over to our centers and we'll see to them.

May God bless you all.

... has his own way for some time. I said, let him try.

[About the microphone:] Is it working or not? Hmm. Ah?

Sahaja Yogi:... It's just recording, it's just recording.

Shri Mataji: Ah, it is not a loudspeaker.

Sahaja Yogi: It's just a tape.

Shri Mataji: Oh, I see.

So then... now this is just... [Sahaja Yogi fixes the mike.] And, he had started, you see, doing some sort of tricks which I did feel about him that he had started doing some tricks about his realisation, because that's the only thing one has to be very careful, that one can get into.

And he had gathered spirits, because he got interested in curing too much. I told him not to cure anymore, I said you can give My photograph, but don't get into curing part, because if you get the spirits you wouldn't even know and will you be insensitive to it and then you will have problems. And then he had such funny spirits in him that those people who came to him, you see, were influenced to give him money by those spirits. And some people were compelled, I mean they couldn't help it. The only idea that worked into their heads was that they must give money to him. But this was nothing, he started showing My photograph in the eyes and photographs of Sāi Baba in the eyes and all such nonsensical things.

[Aside:] Hello. How are you?

Sahaja Yogi: Fine.

Shri Mataji: How is your back?

Sahaja Yogi: My back? I'm thankful I have got.

Shri Mataji: And that's how he did lots of bad things.

So one has to be careful, when you see somebody, this is happening to someone who is gone ahead, be careful about it, because the ego, you see, can betray you. He felt that he was a great Sahaja Yogi and he is doing such a lot of work and he must do lot of curing. Actually your attention should not be too much on curing because if you catch, also you would not know after some time and the whole thing will become, Hello Sudha, how are you? Come forward.

So now we have to be very, very careful as to what we are doing and how we are going to go ahead with Sahaja Yoga.

[Aside:] Very good! We have to keep the purity of Sahaja Yoga, Suchitta. It is called as Suchitta [a sound mind], is the purity of Sahaja Yoga. You must understand Sahaja Yoga in its pure form and that, now when you have got the Yoga, you have to settle down and also purify yourself in relation to Sahaja Yoga. Because so far, you have not felt the Absolute, before getting realisation. See, realisation is, that you become one with the Absolute. You know the Absolute. Once you know the Absolute then only you can know the relative. Unless and until you know the Absolute you are in confusion, because everything is relative and that's why nobody knows what is really right and what is not.

So you have to have an absolute point, like you have one `metre' in Paris, which is a fixed thing, then when you say it is ten metre, then it is ten times of that metre which is in Paris [from this point is calculated in kilometres, the distance between Paris and other cities]. But because we have not found out our Absolute we are in confusion. And in that confusion anybody can take advantage of it.

So the first thing is that we must find out our Absolute and the Absolute is the Spirit.

Spirit is existing and creating waves without any percussion. For example, if I have to make a sound I have to clap My hand with, one to another, or else you can understand this way, supposing you put a, supposing you throw a stone in the pond, then the waves start rising in the pond. That means the stone has to hit the water to create that pattern of waves, but can you think of some stone which is in the pond without any percussion creating the sound? That's why it is said that Spirit is Nispanda [motionless], it doesn't, it doesn't, we shouldn't say it doesn't vibrate, it does vibrate, but doesn't create this Spandana [motion, pulsation], it is not a thing that goes into any percussion, just without any percussion it creates.

For example, I am sitting here, you can feel My vibrations, the waves are coming, without any percussion.

It just emits.

In the same way, your Spirit when you feel it, when you touch it through your Kuṇḍalinī, when it is awakened, it is an awakened thing, but when it is connected with your attention, then your attention receives those waves without percussion which flow in your hands as Chaitanya Lahari [waves of Chaitanya] as these waves. And because it is coming from the Absolute, you can get a complete answer about the Absolute from this. And on this point so many people have got Realisation in it, that you can ask any absolute question and have a realisation. That's why first is Yoga, then Kshema. First is the Yoga means the unity or as called in Sanskrit Yukti –'connection' of your attention, is called as Jīva and your Spirit called as Shiva, these two must meet and unless and until they meet, you cannot reach your Absolute. And once you have felt the Absolute, you can decide all the rest relatively. In Sanskrit it is Akbar, is Absolute. And there is no Paraspara [reciprocal], means there is nothing relative about it. It's an absolute thing.

But as you have seen that to know it also, you take time, fully. To be submerged into it, you take time. This growth takes time and that's why one has to be careful, not only careful but one has to be alert and one has to work it out. To be absolutely one with it, one has to mature.

The maturity point starts when the germination starts. If you are not even germinated, how will you mature? So the maturity starts after realisation, you start also Kshema, you get your Kshema, means your well-being, after Yoga and then you gradually start maturing and once you mature understandingly, properly you have to keep a certain amount of purity, Suchitta, that one has to keep. If you do not keep that Suchitta that purity within yourself and that truthfulness about it, you won't progress that fast. I mean it is nobody else's business, it is your own business, it is for you to do it. If you don't do it you are the looser. I mean the attitude of all the seekers has to be that of a seeker, that means you are seeking and when you are seeking you are asking for it, you are asking for a gift. Now whatever is to be done for getting that gift one has to do, with full understanding, with full maturity.

Now when the maturity starts also in the beginning some people are quiet confused. If they are able to get out of that confusion then they can establish themselves, but if they cannot and they still remain in the same confusion then they can be, they can be there, they can be lost and they can never get out of it. This confusion has to be fought, has to be faced, has to be seen. Now the confusion comes because of conditionings you have had, lots of conditionings you have had, you have had lots of brainwashing, also you have had physical problems, mental problems and also the atmosphere and all kinds of other things that have spoiled your instrument. But because of Kuṇḍalinī awakening your Chakras get enlightenment and as, through enlightenment, you can see everything. Now, if there is no enlightenment in this room you just don't know how to correct it, but when there is enlightenment you start correcting yourself and rising higher and higher.

Some people achieve maturity much faster than the others, despite the fact they may have been ruined by many, but still they do it, what does it work? What makes it very quick? It's the left side, what we call as the Mahākālī's Power or we can call it as Icchā Shakti, the power of desiring. If the power of desiring is very strong and comes from your heart, absolutely from your heart, then it works much faster.

So one has to develop an innate feeling from the heart. See, nothing is, nobody else is going to look at you, if you want you can deceive yourself. If you want you can land behind. But only from your heart you have to feel it, that you have to mature into it, you have to come up to it. Once you put your heart to it, everything will work out, because the whole force is coming from your heart, because in the heart resides the Spirit.

So only judging point is: am I doing it from my heart? Am I doing it superficially? And only thing, that you do from your heart gives you really joy. And when you really do it from your Spirit, then it should give you the greatest happiness and joy and you yourself now, so many of you are receiving the blessings of joy, the blessings of oneness with others, friendship, the pure friendship, pure relationships of just enjoying each other's Spirit. Not anything else, not the body, not the mind, the intellectual pursues and talking and all that, but cheeriest feeling each other's Spirit and the fragrance of that.

So nice to see you all again here. [Shri Mataji laughs.] Now, say we have problems of different types for, I think it is more pertaining to the country and pertaining to the, I would say it's little localised type, like Bombay [Mumbai] people have their own problems and Delhi people have their own problems and most of them have the same style. It's most surprisingly. And like, we can say people from a village are, particular village in the style of that village is, they have their own problems.

So the Mother Soil has also to do something about it. Now in Bombay [Mumbai] I would say we have really some very great Sahaja Yogis, very deep people, but so far, the social side has been very poor, in the sense it didn't spread this way, but very deep and the roots have to go down and there are very few roots that are really required, but branches didn't spread out. Delhi is another, Delhi are like branches they went round like that and I think London are the fruits I should say or the flowers here, that the way things are, but very vulnerable, very vulnerable, because of being so placed, you see. And so many bees are hovering around. All kinds of problems are there, blessing you of developing immunity to all sorts of surroundings. Now if I exclude you completely from the madding crowd as you call it, then it will happen that you may not develop that immunity which you should have.

And if you go too near to these people also you might be affected which you do get affected because there are horrible negative people here.

So the best thing would be that first of all, you develop yourself, your Sahaja Yogis together, develop good bonds among yourselves and form a group and then go on enlarging that group, as a whole and that would be the best way we can all be protected and somehow it is working out that way. I am very happy, you have taken a very sane attitude towards things.

Now talking to other people about Sahaja Yoga and about this method of realisation, which is the only method, I find that in the west already people have gone on other lights. To them sex is more important than anything else, to them money is more important than anything else, sort of things are there.

So when you talk to them about it, you see, they may recoil on that point.

So you have to sit down and develop a brain trust among yourself, because it's a very delicate matter how to impress these people. You see, instead of impression you might create depression in their minds.

So the best thing is to sit down and discuss among yourselves, because you are one of them and they are one of you. And you know what are their problems, you see, how certain things are suddenly accentuated so much. And the main thing is, the main argument would be: “What's wrong?" You see, that's what I've faced “What's wrong?" “What goes wrong with it?" Unless and until they come to Kuṇḍalinī awakening, they would not know what's wrong, because then they will see for themselves that the Kuṇḍalinī is stopped and it wouldn't rise because of this point and this point. But they won't come, you see, so how to bring the bull to the fodder, that's the problem.

Somehow or another you have to sit down, all of you, because now we have mostly Sahaja Yogis and find out ways and methods of how to approach these people when they, you have a discussion among yourselves, because I may not be such a good guide on that point, I think you would be the best to deal with the intellectuals of this country and the leaders of this country and the people who are supposed to be, models and ideals for the rest of the people.

So you can see for yourself what is so impressing about them and how to bring this to their heads, that if you do all these things which you do not see how harmful they could be. But for that, you know, in India what they have done for example as I was talking to you about Rajneesh, three, four Doctors got hold of some of the people who have been to Rajneesh, you see, just because they became little nutty there. They got hold of them and then they examined them thoroughly and then they found out what was the matter and they published a paper about it. See, like that, if you can, because you see they had complete faith in righteousness, in leading a sane life and all that, so they wanted to know whether they were correct or not. When they found out those people and they found out the problems they had, naturally they could write about it.

Something like that should be done, I think, to convince people that these methods if you take to, though apparently they do not show any bad results, but inside they create such problems and vacuums and they are so injurious and how ego itself is injurious and how ego is pampered by these things.

If you could talk to them in that fashion it would be a good idea. That's for the Sahaja Yogis. If you have any questions you can ask Me, then We'll deal with the newcomers who have come down.

From the Sahaja Yogis, any questions? I haven't seen John Donne [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: He's gone to [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: He is still there?

Sahaja Yogi: He's gone by now.

Shri Mataji: So now, joined it, yes.

So anyone of you has any questions on Sahaja Yoga you ask Me, that's better. Then I'll talk to the new people.

So how are you? Better? Anyone seems to be very much better. [Shri Mataji laughs.] How are you Lindsay?

Sahaja Yogi: Perfect.

Shri Mataji: [talks in Hindi with a Sahaja Yogini]...

Mhm, she has written a poem in Sanskrit.

For your information Rajesh is also getting married now, ah he is marrying a girl from England, she is Chandaria, you might have seen that one. You must have seen him, some of you have seen her. She is a very good girl.

So our family is going to increase now in size.

So, no questions? Something? Shandor? All in thoughtless awareness? [Laughs.] I mean the name of our Sahaja Yoga is really Mahā Yoga, is the one where you meet, you know.

So this is a Mahā Yoga, because the whole thing has been Sahaja only.

From the very beginning it is spontaneous, everything, I mean our Nose, Eyes everything has come to us spontaneous, we have done nothing about it. But now the thing where we really meet the Ultimate, that's the point is called as Mahā Yog', means the greatest Yoga. Like till I came here, till you didn't see Me, it was still half way, so Yoga was not there, whatever it was it was not real Yoga, you see, you are making preparations, you are making all the arrangements and everything was there, but when we meet is the Yoga.

So the point where you meet is the real place and that's why it is the Mahā Yoga. Like you, I am coming to London by plane, till Frankfurt I am not in London, till I have landed in London also I am not there because I haven't yet met you. Till I met you at the gate there was no Yoga, so that's the point, that's the movement, the splint of the movement where you meet your Spirit, is the Yoga.

So it is actually Mahā Yoga, but in the beginning I didn't want to call you, call it a Mahā Yoga, because as it is the serpents of ego were there... [laughs]... with all their complete hood on top of My head so I said, better start it with Sahaja, because if I had said, this is Mahā Yoga they would all come and hit Me hard saying that: Oh God, how can that be? But it is that! And now it is being established that there is something about it, that it is working out because people have seen their Kuṇḍalinī rising, they have seen the, ah, all the Chakras being awakened and everything with their own eyes and now they believe in it, that they know that there is something about it and that it is happening and there is something about this Lady also, that this is happening, otherwise it is a difficult thing. I mean it is very difficult, no doubt. To raise the Kuṇḍalinī is very difficult, but it would be something like a very naive person trying to do something, you know, like first putting the hands in the plug, then writing one book that Kuṇḍalinī means, you get a shock. Then another book that electricity means you get another shock, like that three, four books will come out like that and people would start believing that electricity means that you get a shock, you get a heart attack, you get, ah, get a, you start jumping with it... But the one who knows what is electricity is the only one who is a Sahaja Yog. But the one who is, supposing has done all the job of connections and things is the best engineer and for such a person everything is just a play. About certain diseases in this country also I have been able to find out. What We can do is one of them is this [UNCLEAR] or what you call this arthritis. Is absolutely curable, but I was thinking we need not tell them how We do it, because let them come to realisation, then we'll give them. It's very simple.

Is there somebody suffering from that? You are? All right, that is because...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: In your neck?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Yes, but still... but still, still, it will work out, in no time. Oh, ah, I can tell you how it is to be done. But ah, that's, that's where I may not help you, but all others can. It is because of too much vibrations there, you are getting it.

So if somebody, some, any Sahaja Yogi can put the hand, ah 070, that is you put your hand on his back and on his, this thing and just put your hand outside and it will all, it will be all going out in the atmosphere.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Shri Mataji [UNCLEAR] that?

Shri Mataji: The books? The books... [Laughs.] You know your Sahaja Yogi disciple there, your Sahaja Yogi friends I should say, or your brothers and sisters are ashamed about it. But what to do is see this is our, in our country is getting expert in being inefficient and they also started some strike in the ports, you see, so the ships were not thanked Bombay [Mumbai], they stopped sending all the ships from Bombay [Mumbai].

So most of the ships were coming from Calcutta or from Madras [Chennai], so I told them you better send all the books to Madras [Chennai] or to Bombay [Mumbai], ah to Calcutta and send them over, but then, you know, it was a very hazardous things to do.

Somebody has to go by with the books and all the way in the, they have to go by train and somebody has to put them.

So then I told them that what is the maximum time? Then they said, fifteenth of this month a ship is leaving. I said all right, so We can expect it within say a Month time from the fifteenth onward, so the books would be down here very soon. Before that you make all the preparations, send them things for the book. And they said that there is no income-tax for books in England and we were have been unnecessarily worrying about it.

So there are, the books are already, all packed up. They wanted to send a load with Me but I said, now who is going to pay for the freight? Because if I had come per Air India I could have brought a big thing, but, you see, I couldn't come per Air India so also I couldn't bring the thing, but doesn't matter, it will be coming in any case. And people have given very great report about the book, it just came out very well and is very, very nicely explained most of the things. But one has to go into details now, somebody is translating it in Marathi and also in Hindi, but We have to go now into Details of many things.

Now in the book still it is not mentioned that this is the last judgment, I don't know if I have told you all ready that this is the last judgment about which we have been hearing. This is how you are going to be judged and that part We have not yet said in the book, which one has to see. After all, this is how you are going to be judged, what else? [UNCLEAR trifle that God] is learning German now somebody, I never received any letter from him neither I, but ah, some was saying that he got his addresses, brothers address also. You should find out! But some other books should come out from you people. A smaller book which can be given to people who are not yet realised, or something, would be much better. Who are all the new people who have come today? Can you come forward? Please come! Please come! Come up, come along, come, yes, come forward! Sit down here! Sit down! It's very simple! Who else? Please come forward, all those who have come for the first time, or who are not yet realised!

Shri Mataji: How are you, I am asking. How is he? All right? Ha? All right now? How are you keeping?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR it depends].

Shri Mataji: Hard? Still? Very much better now? Much better, ah? Hmm. Just put your hands straight like this, put your [UNCLEAR]. Can you take out your socks, it would be better, because we have to earth the, you see we have to use the Mother Earth to take away some of our problems. If you could take out your socks, please? Just put them down on the ground like that, straight! Yeah? Just straight on the ground! Yeah? Just hold your ears and it will go away. Just... your... [UNCLEAR] is his Āgñyā a little bit, the Āgñyā is little bit...

Close your eyes, just close your eyes! Just close your eyes! Their Āgñyā is very strong.

You have come for the first time there? You got your realisation? Have you felt your vibrations? Good! Where is [UNCLEAR]? She has done lot of good. It will be recorded, this will be good, you see.

What they do is to record all the My vibrations and [UNCLEAR so they record] the lecture of that.

So it has a double effect...

What do you say? He said? Sahaja Yogis: Nābhī, [UNCLEAR]. Right Nābhī! The Nābhī.

Shri Mataji: This lady, it's better? What do you say? Hmm? 071

Shri Mataji: Right Nābhī, hmm? That's all?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] Viśhuddhi. [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Right!

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All right!

Sahaja Yogini: Yes!

Shri Mataji: And this one?

Shri Mataji: All left. Raise your Kuṇḍalinī, they'll get it. You all raise your Kuṇḍalinī, all of you.

Tie it! Just say the Mantra, My Mantra and just raise your Kuṇḍalinī! [Sahaja Yogis take the three Great Mantras.] I mean, try this one, is: `Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Mahā, Nirmalā Devī'. That's all! To establish Me as Nirmalā Devī is the point. namo namaḥ! Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

a. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Say it seven times! All this!

Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

a. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

a. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Ha, just see the vibrations! Let's see, it's all right! Feeling the cooler, cool in the hand?

Sahaja Yogini: Hmm!

Shri Mataji: Feeling it, Cool Breeze like this. What about you? Not yet? It's too hot! What about you? You turn on left to the right, you see? You went to some Guru or somebody? No? Did you take to drugs? Never? Hmm?

Sahaja Yogini: I didn't.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What's that?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR]

Shri Mataji: Small thing. All your ordinary secrets. Not that, another style.

She's got it, here just do this, close your eyes please, I care for it. Hmm? Put your attention absolutely loose! You are not to do anything, all right? Just leave it alone, just don't put it on a particular point, just leave it alone! Then it will work out! It has to just go up, so just leave it alone! Close your eyes! What do you say? Peter? Left to the right!

Sahaja Yogi: Yes!

Shri Mataji: Put it left to the right! Now, raise the Kuṇḍalinī! If Haṁsa is caught, catching you have to say Praṇava or you can say `Omkāra', if you say Praṇava or `Omkāra', you see, Om, the Mantra is for that. Let's try! Just say: `Oṁ Twameva Sākshāt Omkāra Sākshāt'. Just say that for the Haṁsa! Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Omkāra sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Omkāra sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: See! See now! [UNCLEAR The vibrations have started from Me]. Especially for TM people.

Hello, Hester come along! May God bless you! You have been very dynamic? [Laughs.]

Sahaja Yogini: I couldn't [UNCLEAR come sooner].

Shri Mataji: Say, what do you say? Peter? Please come to the Sahasrāra, all right? While Sahasrāra is Moksha-dāyinī it works out better, the Mantra, just try! Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Moksha-Dāyinī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Moksha-Dāyinī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Moksha-Dāyinī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: He has got it! He has got it now.

Sahaja Yogi [to the collective]: Can you sit down please! Let us correct the center Heart!

Shri Mataji: It is the center Heart, but his vibrations are coming.

[To a Sahaja Yogi:] Little bit hold your breath! Little bit hold your breath please! You must have done some Prāṇāyāma, have you done some Prāṇāyāma, hmm? The breathing exercise?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Three years I have done/the breath I have hold].

Shri Mataji: You have done it. Hold your breath for a while, please! Om sākṣhāt [UNCLEAR], Om sākṣhāt [UNCLEAR], Om sākṣhāt [UNCLEAR] Om sākṣhāt [UNCLEAR].

Now all right? Please tie it! Tie it up, you all of you tie it up! If you tie it up your own, you see, it will keep that thing tightened up.

You are better now? Put your hands like this! See...

[MISSING.] You have little heart, is it? So you come forward, let's see, you come forward and call him also. Hmm, let's see, come, come forward! Just you sit with your both the hands towards Me. All right! So all of you can do it now, sit down! Now, just put it, you all say the Mantra on heart, that is Shiva... Sit down! Sit down! Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Shiva Pārvatī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Shiva Pārvatī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Shiva Pārvatī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Say the Ātmā Param'ātmā, all right? Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Ātmā Param'ātmā sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Say it again! Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Ātmā Param'ātmā sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Again! Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Ātmā Param'ātmā sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Is it better now? Sahaja Yogis: Hmm!

Shri Mataji: Hmm. Put your right hand to the heart, let's see! Is it better?

Sahaja Yogi: I don't know.

Shri Mataji: Is it?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR I want to express...]

Shri Mataji: You all people raise your left to the right, better. Left to the right! Trice! Reach fully heart in it, do it with the full heart. Now raise your Kuṇḍalinī, come along! You are all right, both are all right, you have to work on her. She will be all right, don't you worry, just try to work it out. All right? Are you getting Cool Breeze in the hand? It is good, you are all right. Great, ha? Now what about her? Marcus? Both! Both! You are too young, too small, can you guess? When did you start?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Now you are all right, isn't it? You are all right, I think, [UNCLEAR]. Better! You are this. Haṁsa is a problem. You did Prāṇāyāma, isn't it?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Now I does and that's why I really did come to this program.]

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR That's the reason why I did come to this program.]

Shri Mataji: Here? All right, that's why... It's very bad here, still. But you are all right otherwise? You feel all right? What sort of meditation you did? What was the name?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR I have to say, I am selling books and, ah, in the first moment, Shri Mataji, I cannot.]

Shri Mataji: Oh! [Shri Mataji works on the Sahaja Yogi.] Now, better? I think, keep your eyes open might help. That's it, that's Sahaja Yoga really does that job. You did it for many years? And there was no picture, nothing? [UNCLEAR On your own need it] just like that. This [UNCLEAR Rombard]-fellow, is it? [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: But who bought you this, this, ah, Pradak? Who told you about this style, who was the man?

Sahaja Yogi: I read a book, some book of [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What does he say? That's why you get this wobbling. What is there, Marcus, how is he? They are all in meditation, all right. Ah? Another Sahaja Yogi: It is Nābhī, left Nābhī.

Shri Mataji: Wobbling? In the head?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: The whole thing gets upset with this concentration...

[Aside:] Patricia come! Come! We try! [UNCLEAR]...

This is why you were getting all this trouble.

Better now, is he settled down? Ah? Better? Some Patterns I have to teach you also... but you have to make it. Better now?

Sahaja Yogi: A little. Nābhī.

Shri Mataji: Ha?

Sahaja Yogi: What I feel is left Nābhī.

Shri Mataji: Left... better? [Aside:] Just it takes away the energy.

Now better? Hmm, better now! Much better! That's why you met with an accident, you know? Because of this done by left [UNCLEAR]. Hhm? Another Sahaja Yogi: Also left Viśhuddhi!

Shri Mataji: Yeah! It is left, you know that.

[Aside:] That is very bad. Better now?

Sahaja Yogi: It's a...

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Two of them vibrate, only...]

Shri Mataji: Left he... ah!... Now, better now?

Sahaja Yogi: [laughs].

Shri Mataji: [laughs also].

Sahaja Yogi: Better!

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Now they have become active, you see? Now! Good! Ha? Left! See how active! You can see the difference between this and that! Now? Here I...

Sahaja Yogi: It's a...

Shri Mataji:... thing. Give Bandham to this new people, all right! Good now, it's better. Ah! All right, give him a bandham! Right Swādhiṣhṭhān! Ha! Raise it! Still on the left? [UNCLEAR Is it really touched in realisation? Is it because of this action?] Now!

Sahaja Yogini: Viṣhṇugranthi!

Shri Mataji: Ha?

Sahaja Yogini: Viṣhṇugranthi! Yeah!

Shri Mataji: Is it? Sahaja Yogis: Right Viśhuddhi! Yes! It is all right Viśhuddhi.

Sahaja Yogi: Vitala?

Shri Mataji: Vitala Rukminī!

Sahaja Yogi: Vitala Rukminī.

Shri Mataji: Aha! Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Vitala Rukminī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Vitala Rukminī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Vitala Rukminī sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Hmm? Good? Yes? See if the Mantras are awakened, how powerful they can be. All right? It is good now? You are really all right? Taking the vibrations... Let's do this way! Put your hands towards Me! I tell you, you see, if somebody doesn't get the vibrations, why? If you turn on the Swādhiṣhṭhān like that, all of you, on the Sahasrāra, like this, you see? It works out! Come and see for yourself! Come! Come! Just turn it! You see, how... it's better? See, it [UNCLEAR soothes]. Let's turn it like the, like a numb, you see, it is actually the trouble of, ah, Shiva. The other way is that way, trouble ah, Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR That means He is troubled].

Shri Mataji: Trouble, you see? That's the trouble. It is troubling.

Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: It is all right? Get the Cool Breeze!

Sahaja Yogi: It is really, Shri Mataji!

Shri Mataji: That's good! Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That hand! Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You see? Just try, he too has a heart trouble, just try somebody on him, come along! Marcus is [UNCLEAR], just try on him! Come in, you just try! This way! Put one hand towards Me and put your on the,... you can help each other! Just put your hand, left hand towards Me! No! No! On the left hand, yes on the left hand!

Sahaja Yogi: Can you just [UNCLEAR]?

Shri Mataji: Yes! Like this! Little open fingers, open finger! Yes, like that. You see?

Sahaja Yogi: It is very hot.

Shri Mataji: For your Heart to open out it is.

Sahaja Yogi: Very hot, very hot! In the left Heart...

Sahaja Yogi: The [UNCLEAR austerity] is not doing it! 075

Shri Mataji: You see, it is opening up, you see... first still become hot, then it will become all right, you see?

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, I can... it is very hot.

Shri Mataji: It is going to the Heart, you see? Now to the Āgñyā, now turn to the Āgñyā, turn your Āgñyā! All right! Sit down, comfortable! It just works out. [Laughs.] Back Āgñyā, is it? Back Āgñyā.

[Surprisingly and very loud:] Ah! Ah! One! Another Sahaja Yogi: It is Haṁsa, still...

Shri Mataji: Haṁsa is the point, you see, Haṁsa is the point. Take it out from My Haṁsa is the best way, you see it? Then greatest hanker is Haṁsa, that's the thing you have done it. Let's put your hand like [UNCLEAR], you see? How many people must be doing like this... place your hands... This man who has published the book must be prosecuted.

Put your hand towards Me! Really, they should be prosecuted. They have no business to teach such methods from which you get headaches, you get all kinds of problems, just get...

Give him your vibration! Another Sahaja Yogi: Also goes to right Heart, I think Mother. Across! Then up to right Viśhuddhi, circulating I think.

Shri Mataji: Now Sarva-Chakra-Vibhedini, we just say it, if it is going from one to another, we just say Sarva-Chakra-Vibhedini...

Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Sarva Chakra Vibhedini sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Say it! [Shri Mataji laughs very loud.]

Sahaja Yogi: Say it again?

Shri Mataji: Again, again! Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt...

Shri Mataji: Right among the other! Sahaja Yogis:... Śhrī Sarva Chakra Vibhedini sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Sarva Chakra

Vibhedini sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: All right now? What do you feel in both the hands? It is all right! Much better! Put yourself into Bandham! May God bless you! It's all right, keep it up! Only the Mantra is: Omkāra. For the head: Omkāra. It works out especially. You see, it is very much spoiled, you know. Be careful! So say Omkāra, Omkāra always, it keep you all right! Just how it is all troubling [UNCLEAR]. All right, may God bless you! Now let's have you here! Should we... I would like to see all of you, today, because we are most of us are sick. Just see, it is... just you put your hands as shown under My Feet, let's see and witness the problem. It is the heart, it is a low blood pressure also... low blood pressure...

Sahaja Yogi: It is the Swādhiṣhṭhān.

Another Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR We did work on the centers of him].

Shri Mataji: Now you said you have given up...

Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Still there! After it, you get this after... you hold it here, it's the best. You hold it here! What I find is that your Superego gets combined here just forming a loop.

Just hold it tight! Now all right. [Loud:] Now! Now!

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Shri Mataji: That's it! [UNCLEAR Cemetrey!] Better! Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Mahākālī sākṣhāt Śhrī Mahākālī sākṣhāt. [Loud:] Ha!

Sahaja Yogi: That's it! Another Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] the Heart. How... left Viśhuddhi...

Shri Mataji: Hmm!

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji [laughs very loud]: Ha ha ha! Another Sahaja Yogi: We are so frightened, is it really, how you are laughing.

Shri Mataji: [all the time laughing very loudly in a surprising way.] Do you see? Always you get rid up all over London... Ah! Wah!... It is burning! All the cemetreies I give them a bandhan. All the cemetreies of London, England...

You are better now?

Sahaja Yogi: It has opened up.

Shri Mataji [very loud and surprising]: Ha Ha! Ha Ha Ha Hie Ha!... Hou!

Sahaja Yogi: It is open now, it works!

Shri Mataji: One is all right! It is all right, you see this is the only lecture is that, you have with you brought the problems of these people in the cemetrey. They should think they are back now and they should come back to get their liberty. Let's put them away! Now better?

Sahaja Yogi: They are capable of doing this.

Shri Mataji: Now what has happening this time? Better now? Is cool coming in?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes. I read them now.

Shri Mataji: What, you write the name of cemetrey? Get it nice there!

Sahaja Yogi: Cemetrey!

Shri Mataji: Cemetrey! Another Sahaja Yogi: Of sanction!

Shri Mataji: A letter, do that! When you write that you beat all the people who are there and they take away, all right? Another Sahaja Yogi: Shri Mataji, it is the last judgment and there must be the resurrection!

Shri Mataji: That's why they have to come, you see, that's to the thing it. You see, it is the last judgment! I didn't tell you this? You are all right! You have to be all right! It is an operation, that's why it is increasing. Good, may God bless you! Now you see this point now, let's see, it's a matter of fact. All you sit here! Placing that side! Now, place that side! Come along! What's your name?

Sahaja Yogini: Hellene!

Shri Mataji: Who?

Sahaja Yogini: Hellene!

Shri Mataji: Hellene! Now, you be careful, all right? Just sit like that! Can you...

Sahaja Yogi: Yes it's told, Hellene.

Shri Mataji: Now be there! What you call them crossed legs, can you? Come along! Now let Me see, what's the matter here? Oh God, you didn't get any pain over there?

Sahaja Yogini: Hmm?

Shri Mataji: No? This is like the tonsillitis, it is...

Sahaja Yogi: You see, look! Shri Mataji [very loud]: Ha! [Aside:] What's the time now?

Sahaja Yogi: Twenty to eight.

Shri Mataji: I would like to see all of you in My way. [Loud:] Hello! How are you! Another Sahaja Yogi: Three more new people.

Shri Mataji: Ha?

Sahaja Yogi: Three more new people are inside.

Shri Mataji: Yes... whom you have given realisation.

[Loud:] Hello! Come here, I would like to meet the new people. Hmm! This Lady…

Sahaja Yogi: This Lady [UNCLEAR]. She is the mother of Malcolm, she came to You before in...

Shri Mataji: Ahh! So changed! Let's come! Hello! Sit down! Sit down! Come along! Please be seated! Yes! Come! Come up! Better this way! Do it! I am talking that! Get it here, get it here for yourself, you see? Now can you put your both the hands on the mat, that's it! Hmm? Be careful now! Oh God! It is very hot, hmm? Ah, your hands are very hot! [UNCLEAR Your smoking made it that bad?]

Sahaja Yogini: That's why [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogi: She hasn't smoked that much, Shri Mataji.

Shri Mataji: What? That's why... I am seeing. Did you say any Mantras or something?

Sahaja Yogini: No, Shri Mataji.

Sahaja Yogi: Did you say any Mantras?

Sahaja Yogini: Nothing.

Shri Mataji: No, nothing? [To a Sahaja Yogi aside:] [UNCLEAR That would be a better idea, she should put the left to the right]. All right?

Sahaja Yogi: I can ask her. Have you... what work do you do?

Shri Mataji: What work do you do?

Sahaja Yogini: No at the moment, nothing.

Sahaja Yogi: What have you been in the past?

Sahaja Yogini: I have been a student for three years.

Sahaja Yogi: She has been a student, Mother! What else?

Shri Mataji: Hmm! What student? Hmm?

Sahaja Yogini: Arts!

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogini: Arts!

Shri Mataji: Arts. But you have been getting colds and things like that, in your past?

Sahaja Yogini: I didn't.

Shri Mataji: There is another problem, I think, you see, here the people don't understand hot and cold somehow. [Shri Mataji and the Sahaja Yogini talk silently:] [UNCLEAR It is working in that way... now you should see this... completely].

How are you? You know it? Please answer! You have to tell Me your names. Now I would like to go a little loudly. Please come here, very good at English names, come let's have it! Hm?

Sahaja Yogi: Kingsley.

Shri Mataji: Kingsley, it's a nice name.

Sahaja Yogini: Sarah!

Shri Mataji: Sarah.

Sahaja Yogini: Dowling, Dowling.

Shri Mataji: Dowling? Another Sahaja Yogi: John.

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah! Another Sahaja Yogini: Newart, Newart.

Shri Mataji: N-e-w-a-r-t?

Sahaja Yogini: Yeah! N-e-w-double n.

Shri Mataji: Double.

Sahaja Yogi: It is all right. Newart.

Shri Mataji: Mhm.

Another Sahaja Yogini: Olivia, Olivia.

Shri Mataji: Olivia.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Darrel.

Another Sahaja Yogini: Grace, Grace.

Shri Mataji: How you said? 078

Sahaja Yogini: Grace.

Sahaja Yogi: Grace.

Shri Mataji: Grace again. It is a very good name.

They have told you all about Sahaja Yoga? How to go deep into it? How to help others, how to help yourself? The next time I will starting the series on Sahaja Yoga again. Today I just wanted to meet all of you.

So have you been, anyone of you have been to Gurus or someone? No? None of you?

Sahaja Yogi: You have been! New

Sahaja Yogi: Yes!

Shri Mataji: To whom? Which one? New

Sahaja Yogi: I have been in it for a while.

So many Years backwards it was.

Shri Mataji: It is all right.

Sahaja Yogi: To [UNCLEAR] he was, Mother.

Another Sahaja Yogi: The Āgñyā, he got a big [UNCLEAR] across the Āgñyā.

Shri Mataji: They didn't beat you, or something? New Sahaja Yogi: No, they have me not beaten.

Shri Mataji: But you see one fellow who was here, he comes quiet often, nay?, what's his name? [UNCLEAR]?

Sahaja Yogi: Roland.

Shri Mataji: They beat him also.

Sahaja Yogi: Oh, cruel!

Shri Mataji: Oh you can't say the whole, oh the poor thing. They used to beat him. Now they have started near over yesterday, there was a big program over these Buddhist and they...

Another Sahaja Yogi: That's why! I can see! Another Sahaja Yogi: That's [UNCLEAR one from Hare Kṛiṣhṇa] from.

Sahaja Yogis: Some are very...

Some nice directions... [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Is he?

Sahaja Yogi: He came from the same place.

Another Sahaja Yogi: They are eventually off.

Shri Mataji: Ah! Really?

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah! Another Sahaja Yogi: They ask if you should come and if you say it, if you come they give you a book from them, I know.

Shri Mataji: But it may be against their principles, you see. Yesterday they were talking in a, now what they are doing? Nothing but offering food, how do eat the food, how to mix the food and all this nonsense, isn't it? Where is Sahaja Yoga and where is all these going on? So if I tell them, now all this is not going to give you anywhere, they might be shocked. I can go and talk to them in any case, let's see. They wouldn't beat you anyway. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Because this is going too far, [UNCLEAR].

I washed it a little bit and he was amazed, you see. One brought a bowl and talked of a sort of a protocol and he sat before the person, repelled his name and did go to the other fellow who did very seriously.

[Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Yes! There he mixed up something, then they made six bowls out of it... Isn't it? All this goes on! New Sahaja Yogi: I didn't see.

Shri Mataji: You didn't go to this one?

Sahaja Yogi: He was in India.

Shri Mataji: He was in India? New

Sahaja Yogi: Ah a lots over here, from where I did come. [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hmm? New

Sahaja Yogi: I never heard... [UNCLEAR it was nice as they were talking about that].

Sahaja Yogi: But he...

Another Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Are you on TV now?] 079

Shri Mataji: Where did you go? You went to the same place where this [UNCLEAR], business? New Sahaja Yogi: Ah, no, I don't know.

Sahaja Yogi: This was somewhere in England...

Shri Mataji: Hmm, but where were you in India? New Sahaja Yogi: Now I have been all over there.

Shri Mataji: Yes, he is. Let's ask one sentence. Now ask the question: Mother, are you the Himālaya?

Sahaja Yogi: Ask: Mother are you the Himālayas? New Sahaja Yogi: Are you the Himālaya?

Shri Mataji: You just say: Mother are you the Himālayas? New

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, are you the Himālayas?

Shri Mataji: Again! New

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, are you the Himālayas?

Shri Mataji: Again! New

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, are you the Himālayas?

Sahaja Yogi: Shri Mataji ask him to say, are You the Daughter of the Himālayas?

Shri Mataji: That's going too far. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] He has been in the Himālayas, is all right now. Better? That is not bad. [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: I feel very cool. It was just something about [UNCLEAR]. Āgñyā is a little bit hot...

Shri Mataji: Did they touch your forehead, these people? New Sahaja Yogi: They said when I was one years old there was an accident...

Shri Mataji: Oh, I see. They did not touch you? New Sahaja Yogi: One year of age, where I have been...

Sahaja Yogi: They didn't touch you there? New

Sahaja Yogi: Did they do it?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] wish you? New

Sahaja Yogi: I am not. Like we did it similar to the Hindu religion.

Sahaja Yogi: You got something about? New

Sahaja Yogi: Similar! [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Better now? Are you better? Hmm? You get involved with things too much, is it? You get involved...

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You are? You keep aloof. Hmm! This also can work out. If you keep aloof before realisation...

Sahaja Yogi: You keep aloof!

Shri Mataji: Aloof.

Someone says, ah! You see? Before realisation, Nirvichara. They have to become this...

Sahaja Yogi: Ah I see, Shri Mataji, otherwise it is just...

Shri Mataji: It is artificial. You see upon?

Sahaja Yogi: So that's why the Viśhuddhi catches. She is too much involved in that play.

Shri Mataji: You see, she is not yet a Sākshī. Did you? You should be... That is just like taking a Sannyāsī, this is artificial. This should happen to you, isn't it? Aloofness should happen to you. You should not act as if you are aloof. You are not! Ha! You see? It's better now? You are not? Now let's see!

Sahaja Yogi: It needs more attention.

Shri Mataji: It just turned out. [UNCLEAR Jacky], you have got Cool Breeze? Come in! She got it.

Sahaja Yogi: I feel Superego.

Shri Mataji: A little bit is there. And you are still a student?

Sahaja Yogini: Mm, I have finished.

Shri Mataji: You have finished now? Where were you studying? 080

Sahaja Yogini: Ah, Manchester.

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogini: Manchester.

Shri Mataji: It's over?

Sahaja Yogini: They say it, up now. The time of now.

Shri Mataji: You are better, you have realised?

Sahaja Yogini: Mmhm, but the pain in the back, it is so much on me.

Shri Mataji: You see. Now. Better now? She will rise all right, she is all right. She will be all right, she has to be given Photograph and just to work out. See her eyes, how much dilated they are. See, a little black. [Surprising loud:] Hahaha Hahaha! Āgñyā, see your Āgñyā! Terrible! Now, it will come. It will be all right. You can take out your socks, it will be all right. Hmm?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You got it stitched there, or?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR No, the problem is the fat and all of them, they don't know him...]

Shri Mataji: Now I don't know. It is the same.

Sahaja Yogi: They don't want [UNCLEAR the oil].

Shri Mataji: It is the same.

So how they burn, just see, this is negative forces. How they attack a saint.

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Better now.

Sahaja Yogi: Her Haṁsa is gone.

Shri Mataji: Mhm.

Sahaja Yogi: Better Haṁsa.

Shri Mataji: All of that, I would say. Just take it like... on the Haṁsa is, that's why I was all the time today putting on to the Haṁsa. Now? I still worry. You are better now? More!

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR It is better her, left Haṁsa has caught].

Shri Mataji: Hello, how are you? May God bless you! [UNCLEAR Mala] couldn't come today?

Sahaja Yogi: No, he has to work.

Shri Mataji: Hmm.

Sahaja Yogi: He intends to come.

Shri Mataji: Hmm.

Now see how forgiving tears your heads, can you see? It flows down. Just now, you can see ahead just now, you see, later on you will know, you see, how many bombs here are hide, all right? The head is not evil, but when evil grow you will be amazed how your head will be very evil and producing any bombs or anything. And you all have a head. [Laughs.] The Nābhī also has caught, right Nābhī... all right?

Sahaja Yogi: Nābhī, Void, Swādhiṣhṭhān... full [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hmm!

Sahaja Yogi: Just to remind.

Sahaja Yogis: It is over the forehead... you see...

Shri Mataji [again very surprising and loud]: Ha! It's better? Another Sahaja Yogi: Lewis is going. You see?

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogi: Now they all are weak, all these Chakras.

Shri Mataji: Best to see.

Shri Mataji: Left Swādhiṣhṭhān. It's absolute.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Turn down!] 081

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR Turn down, turn down!] You see, left side? Āgñyā, you see? It's all right.

[UNCLEAR] [UNCLEAR It is all the peoples problems], even worse. They are the parasites, I tell you, real parasites. Yesterday they were all English people? Are they all English?

Sahaja Yogini: Some are Canadian.

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogini: Some are Canadian.

Shri Mataji: They are difficult. Canadians have a difficult. It's good, put your hands towards Me! It's perfect. Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: A catch in the Āgñyā.

Sahaja Yogi: How old are you? New Sahaja Yogi: Sixteen.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Sixteen.

Shri Mataji: Mmh. You cure the... left to the right... Oh, what have you got? Mmh, where is Mammy, she is there? There are all...

Small child: [UNCLEAR] Mammies love.

Shri Mataji: Isn't? Small child: [UNCLEAR] Mammies love.

Shri Mataji: That Mammy you have. No one. That is a little one. Change with Mammy? Small child: Hmm.

Shri Mataji: Mhm. How many [UNCLEAR] of Viśhuddhi are there? You see it? How clear? [Sahaja Yogi laughs.] See how it clears the Virāt, you see, the picture where He controls the Virāt.

Sahaja Yogi: It is Kṛiṣhṇa who controls.

Shri Mataji: With Kṛiṣhṇa is... there is a great hight, you see and the [UNCLEAR pituitary] were it is [UNCLEAR], you see both combinations are the connection between the two, not difficult for Me.

He is the son, He is the Father. This is... are his parents catholic?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Protestant?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What church?

Sahaja Yogi: He doesn't go to church.

Shri Mataji: Now... better now? This is the place they come...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Not married as you are...?

Sahaja Yogi: They are.

Shri Mataji: Hmm? Now they told you not to get married, or something like that?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hmm? Another Sahaja Yogi: Nothing, nothing on that happened.

Shri Mataji: Nothing like that.

So now you think of your marriage, just for a while. Will you? Not of Sannyāsa. [Loud:] Ha! You see? It is better? Hmm! Another Sahaja Yogi: I feel some Void.

Shri Mataji: Void? Void are you feeling? All right, after the question you put the hands here, all right? You do that after the question, looking at My...

Mother, are You the primordial Master?

Sahaja Yogi: Mother are You the primordial Master?

Shri Mataji: Hmm, again!

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, are You the primordial Master?

Shri Mataji: Again!

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, are You the primordial Master?

Shri Mataji: Hmm! Feel it! Another Sahaja Yogi: He is clear.

Shri Mataji: Hmm? It has moved up. Most of Heart. Heart, Nābhī has come up to the Heart...

Contents: 1979-10-15*, Public Program, How Realisation should be Allowed to Develop, Caxton Hall, London, UK

Most of you are Sahaja Yogis here. [UNCLEAR].

Now those who have got realisation, those who have felt the vibrations, must know that, they are now developing, into another being. The germination has started and you must allow the germination to work out its own way. But normally, when we get realisation also, we do not realise, that it is a tremendous thing that has happened within us. That this triggering, which is an impossibility, has taken place within us and it has to work out slowly. It has to develop and evolve us into that and because we do not feel it, we do not take it that seriously as we should, our realisation.

Moreover, they are surrounded by people who have not felt the vibrations. They do not know this area, they have never seen it. As Guru Nanak has called it, it is Allakha. They have not seen it, they don't know about it, they don't know there is a power of God that exists, which understands, coordinates, cooperates with you, which is working in the collective being, which makes aware, you aware of that collective being and of others also. This Allakha, or we can call it Aparoksha, which is not seen by any one, which no one knows about.

They talk about it, they talk about Kingdom of God. They talk about, God's Powers, Divine Power.

It's all talk, talk, talk, talk, talk. But once you are triggered into it, you have to grow into it. Unless and until you grow into it, you'll be dwarfed, specially for people who have come, from fake Gurus and from false, things that they have been following. They don't know, how terrible these things are.

Like you are on a crocodile and suddenly you discover it's a crocodile, how fast you would run from that? But even the understanding that it is a crocodile and it is going to eat you off, doesn't come up so easily.

So this one doesn't realise also, as you do not realise that triggering which is the most difficult thing has happened to you, it is difficult. But it has happened to you, you know why it has happened.

You take that one for granted and also you take the devils for granted. At least don't take the devils for granted. Run away from them as soon as possible.

Meditate meditate and try to establish yourself, in the realm of Divine Love. I say it is Divine Love.

You can not understand what is Divine Love is. You cannot understand any human being who loves you only for love's sake. Just because that person loves you, he goes on loving because he enjoys that loving.

In Sanskrit it is called Avyāz, that there is no interest, Avyāz, it's just flowing. Even when it corrects you, it corrects you in love. And the protection of Divine Love is the only way you are, germinating. That love gives you that warmth needed, that strength needed, that confidence needed. Everything is given to you by that Divine Love.

So, one has to realise that it is love and love and love is the basis of all this creation. God has created this world, this universe, only because He loved and He wants to bestow this blessing on you because He loves you. But how far you love yourself is the problem. How far you understand yourself is the problem.

You do not evaluate yourself and that is the reason why, though the Kuṇḍalinī has risen and you have got realisation, your vibrations are flowing, the growth is very slow. Because attention has been outside and even after realisation it is outside.

Sometimes it is sucked in, again it goes outside. Then we do not change our old habits at all. We go on sticking to those old habits. Our structure of life, our styles of thinking, continue to be the same. Again we find ourselves lost into the same shambles.

Now Sahaja Yoga gives you realisation all right, but also it gives you a long rope to hang yourself. If you do not pay heed to yourself and to your being, if you don't love yourself and understand that you are the instrument of God by which for the first time you are going to give realisation to people. You are going to save people from getting drowned and this is the first time you are made like that. This capability you never had and no human beings have, which you have got now today. Very few people had this capability, very, very few people. But now you have got that capacity and you do not want to evaluate yourself.

How important it is. If you could realise, then you would work it out. Allow the blossoming to come up.

On the contrary I find, today because you are all Sahaja Yogis I can talk to you like this, normally it is about Kuṇḍalinī and all that, but I find that, you do not see the movements of your Kuṇḍalinī. If you try to understand She's the one who loves you the most, because She is your individual Mother. And, if you try to follow Her you will see, that She's suggesting where is the problem with you, what you have to correct, what you have to do. Because She wants to perfect you, She wants to help you.

So if you start watching it, carefully, with love, with understanding, She's very playful, extremely sweet, full of beautiful plays like a little child. She will tickle you here and there, call for your attention. She doesn't trouble you. You have to be just alert about Her and She really matures you. You have seen people with time how they have matured. But you have to pay attention, to Her and to yourself, otherwise what is your value, without enlightenment? What is the value of a human being without enlightenment? What is the use of having human beings if they are not enlightened? What is the use of this instrument if it is not put to the mains? The rest is all useless. Isn't it? And it is you who have to, raise the people.

You have to enlighten the people, as we have some gas lights, you see. A man runs up to the gas lights to lighten them. He only has the power of capacity to do it.

So he runs up the street, lightening all the gas lights. It is he who has to do, he is appointed for that.

Sahaja Yogis must realise, what is their value? What have you made out of Sahaja Yoga? How many people have you saved? How many people you have helped? Instead of your own problems are so many and you are creating problems for others by talking, by discussing, by arguing. You can not discuss it out. You must know, you can not argue it out. It has to work by itself. By arguing, discussing, fussing, judging, confusing yourself, you create a problem for your Kuṇḍalinī to work it out. Are you not seeking your Spirit? Are you not worried about the salvation of your own Spirit? If so, what are you doing about it? That's the most important thing. I think everybody realises this, that only achieving Self-realisation is not the end of it, because it's just the sprouting that has started. You have to go further, you have to have compassion for others who haven't got it as yet. You have to think about them, you have to give it to them, work it out, put all your minds to it.

But still I find people are busy with other things. They go back into the same circle. You should be busy I don't say that you should not do something for your living, you have to do it. This is one thing very important for us to know, that we have to work it out. We have to allow it to grow within ourselves.

But I mean if you say that, “Mother, we have all faith in You, that's all." That's not sufficient. What faith do you have? What do you mean by “faith"? It is such a vague term. What is faith after all? Have you ever analyzed the word “faith"? Some people think that we have all faith in Mother. If we sing Her praise, finished. For that one has to reach a certain stage, like Ādi Shañkarāchārya had reached. Have you got faith in yourself is the point.

Who is having faith in Me, is the one who has no faith in oneself. You have to have faith in yourself and in all your fellow being, all this other Sahaja Yogis. I have already told you that Sahaja Yoga is not going to work out individually. Anybody who thinks that, `I am something greater than the others' is a gone case.

Nobody should work Sahaja Yoga for oneself in that way. You have to work collectively for every one of them. Any one of you who thinks that you have something higher than the others have, you are sadly mistaken. It's like one eye saying that, `I am higher than the other,' or one nose saying, `I am higher than the eyes.' Everything has its own place in the body of Virāta and everybody is so important, as well as, dispensable.

You know what happens in Sahaja Yoga very common in India, not so much here, I mean Indians do this way. They have certain very good points like, I mean wherever I go I find them very much matured and very much developed, because they are not such thinkers as you are. You are great thinkers, visionaries, intellectuals, you see. And I was thinking all the intellectuals will be developing a horn here like this after some time and when you see them you'll know that these intellectuals who are denouncing God and denouncing all His ways.

They are not intellectuals I would say, to that extent. But they fail in certain things, while you fail in certain things. They always had this kind of a thing that somebody came up like a one man, he said, “No, I am something great” you see. Then, he says, “I am this, I am that." Goes on with this kind of harping and he shows down other people. And then suddenly, such a person is brought down and the people are shocked. “Mother, how... what happened?" You cannot, you see if you have to even pull a dead carpet like that, you can not pull one side of it, you have to carry the whole. Only one person can not shoot off, in the whole game. Now you take My, position. Yes I know I have all the powers, everything is there of course. I am supposed to be, much higher and all that, supposed to be, I should say. But confronting you, I have to come down, I have to fight the way with you up, the hill. Every step, we have to go together hand in hand. You know that.

Somebody's some Chakras are catching. All right so I put My Chakra into play. It works out. It works out that way, but you know that how much I have to struggle. How much I have to work hard. It's a task, giving realisation. My Kuṇḍalinī doesn't need anything. You know that, but still She has to carry your heavy Kuṇḍalinī on Herself and, raise it. It's a very heavy thing. Only a Person, of real love can do that. That's the only criteria. The one who does not have love, cannot do it. It is too much a thing to do. The whole body, vibrating, every center vibrating. It's not easy. But it's just the love, the compassion between, you and Me, which soothes Me, which covers all the tasks and the labor and the thing that I have to put in. And sometimes it's such a wasteful thing I feel about some people. It is such a waste with them, but still the love, that has brought us together, gives that soothing feeling and you feel so cheerful, every morning you get up with a new, fragrance within yourself, feeling so happy about it.

So be careful. In dealing with people you have to deal with love, not with criticism or in any way showing them down in any... When you are not any way higher than anyone, then there is no reason it should be done like that. If you are getting any way higher, you are helping the collective being, but in that if you are feeling that you are higher than others you are again coming down because you are pulling down the collective being. If you put down anyone, or condemn anyone like that, then you are putting down that person. And, you should not also correct, because I am there to correct. It's not easy to correct others. You may hurt them. You don't know even the ways of correcting people. Unless and until you have those powerful vibrations which are emitting from your being just love, then you can do it.

Because of a ego-oriented society, we are very good at hurting others. We dominate others. We don't even know that we are dominating others. There are so many ways, I've learned in this country we have, by which we dominate, in a very subtle way. We talk to people, in such a way that we are dominating them. Do we ever think, sit down, how are we going to talk to others, suggesting our love to them? I'll tell you again and again that Sahaja Yoga is nothing but love, love, love. How much you love others is the main point. Despising, criticising, is not good. Yesterday, you were just the same, today you are better off, they are going to be better off still. Of course, some people who are very heavy, who very troublesome, you should tell them plainly that, `Sorry sir, you are very negative, we can't bear you.' There are some cunning people also who may come in and try to trouble you. To a point is all right, then you have to tell them off that, `We are sorry.' But even to judge whether a person is negative or what sort of a thing he is doing, you are just thinking about it, you are rationalizing. Not through rationality, but through vibrations. Because rationality a person may appear to be a very nice person, may be, or a lady coming in, see and the lady will be a terrible stuff.

So how much you meditate, means how much you love. When you think of others, think how much you love them, just try to think how beautiful it is. If it is not love, it is hatred. It's like a scorching heat you see, which will completely take away all the beauty, the smoothness, of your heart.

Only through love, Sahaja Yoga is going to spread. All these, years you have seen the powers of hatred.

You have seen how people hate, how they talk about each other, how they treat each other. There's no tenderness about them, there's no kindness about them. How sharp they are with each other. You have to change all that now. You have to create a world of people who love each other, for nothing. Not for money, not for positions, not for beauty, not for sex. Only for love's sake, only because, you have been blessed by love.

From next time we'll be advertising and there will be many more coming who are new people to Sahaja Yoga. And I am sure it is going to increase. But I have told you that all of you must find out how many people you can bring in yourself and work out. I must say Jim has done a good job, very good job. I'm very proud of him. He has gone and done such a lot of things and single-handed he has worked it out, fighting such a horrible monster there, but he's done it. All of you must support him and also such people who want to do something.

Put your mind to something like that. All the time we are thinking about jobs, this that, that. This is a very precious time which should not be lost. All our lives we have done jobs, earning money, marrying, having children and dying. This lifetime let us do something special, for which this whole universe was created. Open the gates of heavens for the rest of the people. You have to be assiduous. There's no compulsion in Sahaja Yoga you know that very well. There's no timing for it. There's no forcing for it, because I say it is love. If you do not want to do it, nobody is going to force you.

But, as I said Sahaja Yoga gives a very long rope to hang yourself, till you go into illusions completely and you wouldn't even know that you have lost all your vibrations. It is to that extent. If we have entered into something, which was unprecedented, we have to take the ways which are unprecedented. You can not go about with the ways that you have had before. You have to change your methods. Judge every action of yours through love. How much sacrifice you can make for others? What can you sacrifice for others? What service can you do for others, Sahaja Yogis I am saying. There is no sacrifice in it. If you see it, what is the sacrifice? It is love.

If you love someone and you want to take say, a rose for a person and you go to the market, with great difficulty you get the rose. When you get it you feel happy. But then you get the thorn in the finger, still you don't mind. It's bleeding, doesn't matter. Then, you are just waiting to see the person there. And when you see the person, you forget all that is, gone in between and you give that rose, just to express yourself, symbolically. And how happy you feel that you have been able to give that rose to that person.

This we do everyday in our life. But in Sahaja Yoga, you do it without even knowing it. It's happening.

You are transmitters. Everywhere you are sitting in meditation you are transmitting vibrations, do you know that? At that time if you are thinking, say of your jobs and your other things which you have been thinking before, the transmission is poorer. Think of love. Think of the whole country, think of the whole world at that time. You are transmitters of these, waves of love and love will flow from you.

I told you once that you are made, in the form of Gaṇeśha and that's what you have to do. You know there are vibrations from you coming out. You are sending vibrations out, you know that. That means you are like any deity which is, thrown, out of the Mother's, I mean Earth's, womb and a big temple is raised and thousands of people go to worship that. And they say it is a temple, of a Jāgrut Devatā, means a person... jāgrut means enlightened, awakened. And that's just, a stone, a stone that comes out and people build a temple on top of that and go there and worship that, while there are so many already sitting here, so many jāgrut, realised Souls. These are living, these are moving, these are understanding.

They manoeuvre. The stones only emit vibrations, to clear the atmosphere, but you, you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī. They can not raise the Kuṇḍalinī, you can.

And what are you doing about it? Such a precious thing you have got. What are you doing about it? Is it because there is no business with it, that we are taking it so slowly? Supposing it's an enterprise, then everybody would be up and doing. Is it? We have to change our ways and methods of understanding.

The reward of God is thousand-fold, than any enterprise can bestow upon you. When He blesses you, you wouldn't even have words to thank Him, to that extent He goes.

Are we depending on Him or on our own old ways? We have to change very much, we have to transform ourself into new style of thinking. It is very, very important. I hope you'll think about it, what I have talked to you today. Don't take, to life which, has not brought any happiness to you. You have your friends, who are Sahaja Yogis. Change your friends. Change your methods of life. You'll enjoy much more.

This is, for you to understand, about yourself and about the importance of Sahaja Yoga is. Unless and until it is an enterprise, nobody takes it up seriously. This is, the style of, Western thinking. It has to be whether it is hocus-pocus or real enterprise, doesn't matter. As long as there is money exchanges, everybody is up and doing. But when it comes to Sahaja Yoga, they have no time, even to meditate.

Because we have not yet loved, we have not felt that love within ourselves. I wish you could all feel, that depth of love. Then you would go all out, to work it out for yourself and for others.

I would like to have some questions from you, Sahaja Yogis, if possible. But somebody should try to give him, he can get it in no time, realisation. Is there any question? Ask Me, anything practical.

Because we have very few new people today we can just have a very nice chat.

Lady: Would you explain to me about sometimes when You say if you put your legs out it's just not good for your Kuṇḍalinī, what's wrong? I mean if it's not sexual tantalisation or something what's wrong with having your legs just stretching out in front of you?

Shri Mataji: In front of Me? Will you do to the Queen of England? Lady: I don't mean if somebody is there.

Shri Mataji: Before My photograph? Will you spit at the... no, no what I'm saying if your Queen's photograph is there will you spit at her? Lady: Is that a spit?

Shri Mataji: Yes, it is! It is an insult. Putting your feet towards somebody is an insult. Is a common thing! Lady: Is it only a custom in India?

Shri Mataji: No, no it is a custom everywhere in the whole world. You have lost all your traditions, doesn't mean that there were no such traditions of putting away feet on somebody. Imagine, somebody coming down to see you, somebody whom you have to respect, you put your feet up? I mean, anybody can understand, even a child understands this. You see the sense of our respect has come to us from inside, not from outside. It's not rationality. It has come to us from our unconscious. We know how we respect. Say somebody would say that, `What's wrong in talking like this to someone?' You see. Supposing somebody says, now you know that, even a child knows if he is talking to elders, he'll put down his head.

But here, you see everybody is so abnormal. You don't know how to do everything because everything is rationalised, you see. Tomorrow, you might say, `What's wrong if I stand on my head?' I mean do it, but that's not the way. There are certain normal ways of protocol, of praying. How do you pray in the church? Imagine, in the church you go and sit with both your feet towards the priest. What will he say? “Put down your feet!" These things are innate within us. Human beings know already lots of things. They are not animals.

They know lots of things already. You don't know how many things are built in you. In a very beautiful way in your, understanding as a human being you know so many things. Nowhere in the world you'll find anybody putting up their feet before anyone whom you respect. It's not a sign of respect. There's no question of India or anything. Only thing in India people have yet preserved all their sense of respect. In other places, they have so rationalised and so ego-oriented that they have no respect for anyone whatsoever.

Lady: You take it only as a sign of respect, supposing that somebody is sitting alone and they don't have Your picture or they don't have anything, is it all right to stretch their legs?

Shri Mataji: Then it's all right. I mean, you see it is.

Lady: Somebody said that if you put your legs out it's creating some bad energy or something. That's why I wanted to check.

Shri Mataji: No, no not that way, not losing energy. I was just thinking about stretching the feet before somebody whom you respect. Say, My Photograph is there or I am there. Now, you respect Me.

Isn't it? Then you will not like to sit with the feet. That's what I'm trying to say. But, you see, losing energy and all that is not there at all. Who told you that? That's not. You sleep like that. You don't sleep with the feet on the ground. How can it be? If anybody says that, you should not take it for granted.

You see I think all this is not so important also. Even you sleep, how do you sleep? I mean, it is so simple and natural.

You know this is what happening with rationality. See very simple things become so funny that you, I don't know what to say. That's why I said a horn will be growing from here, all of you intellectuals.

You'll be having a big horn coming out so people will know, all right, all right, we know these people.

Nobody will face them. You see, this so simple. Because you are so complicated, all simple things look so horrid. Is a question of respect and is a question of... If you are sleeping, of course you stretch your feet like that, straight. It's all right. While you sit down, you can sit like that, there's no harm. You need not be cross-legged all the time. It's not necessary. If you are doing some sort of a exercise or something, you can be like that.

But everything, now say, for example, you have got hands. Now this is for many purposes, all right? It is for taking vibrations, it is for eating, it is for scratching. Now, if you are eating at that time if you want to scratch, now what to do? It's a question like that. See whatever you have to do, you do at that right time, with the way you want to do. If you need your feet for something, running, you should run.

When you have to sit down, you should sit down. When you have to sleep you must sleep. I mean this is normal. Sahaja Yogis does not mean that you should cut your noses. No it doesn't mean that. It means you have to be more beautiful. It doesn't matter, you see even if you bend ten times. But it does matter if you pull back yourself, even once. Doesn't matter. To be humble, to be more humble and more humble, is so sweet and good. You see makes you more cultured, more harmonious and beautiful.

Gentleman: I have a problem.

Shri Mataji: What's it? Gentleman: I've been, in my humble way, devoted myself, to the spiritual realisation of myself, I adopted meditation, I completely lost number of years. I realised that state in subtle awareness and I feel myself highly elevated from this material world, the feeling of bliss, absolute peace, happiness and joy.

And, I see, the Spirit which I construct upon in a very glorious, boarded way, in a boarded, shut, boarded way. That state continues for some time, but doesn't stay for a long time, for a long number of days. After short time again I find, you know, I come down. And this goes like a curve and when I find that from the height I have come down, I feel little disturbed. Why it is happening? And, I have found that more I detach myself, from my family, from my work from my friends from other things, the lighter I feel and the greater number of peace I get from meditation. Now, trouble stage is this... about one year ago, when I would see a beautiful girl, a beautiful lady, I would remain restless perhaps for two days, three days or something like that. When I learnt about Patanjali's Yoga...

Shri Mataji: What Yoga is this? Gentleman: Beg Your pardon?

Shri Mataji: What Yoga you are doing? Gentleman: Now, I'm just saying that now, I'm perfectly all right.

Shri Mataji: What was that you did? What Yoga did you do? Gentleman: Well, as a matter of fact I'm not following any Yoga as such but I have studied Patanjali.

Shri Mataji: Patanjali, all right.

Gentleman: And, then when I met... Now the concern is this: that attraction which I used to have sometime back is eliminated. But still I do find a stern will within myself to maintain that state of mind which gives me lot of bliss, for that moment disappears and then again I revert to that. That is my personal problem. I think I've tried to be very open.

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes, it's correct. All right. Now, the first thing what Chakras are catching? That's it Now, see to do Patanjali was a mistake in the very beginning. As a Mother, I must tell you frankly, all right? Because Patanjali cannot be done unless and until you have some realised Guru behind it. If you start doing it, it is unauthorized. See, it is an unauthorized thing, to do. Like, supposing I am not a say police man. All right? And, I start behaving like a police man. I'll be arrested. In the same way, you did it in an unauthorized way. By doing in an unauthorized way, you see, you have started in the wrong direction, all together. The direction was wrong. And the bliss and all that you get it, is not the bliss that we are talking about. That's a bliss one gets when, you see, shirk responsibility, you can get it. You see if you can get out of your family and children and all that, one can feel blissful if he thinks that it is having a sort of a, pressure on you, or a kind of a, attachment or something.

But in Sahaja Yoga what happens is, that you become a personality when you are in the drama but you are just seeing it. You become a Sākshī. That should happen. That's the reality. That's how it should happen. Once it happens to you, then you will just start seeing the whole thing as a drama. You understand? What is he saying? He is getting? Yes, he is a realised Soul. Yes, he got realisation. He got it. What about this gentleman here, in front of you Marcus? So it should happen in the most natural way, in a spontaneous way. And, God has given you that aṅkura which is called as Kuṇḍalinī, which of course you know Kabīr and all these people have talked about it. But it is a Sahaja method, it just happens to you, with a realised Soul only. You cannot do it yourself. If you try to do it, you will be making a mistake. And that's what has happened in you.

So now we have to completely sort of neutralise the effects of that. And then we'll raise your Kuṇḍalinī by which you'll get your realisation. By which, gradually you will get your vibrations and you'll start understanding. All right? So, you just now forget about that what you have done it. And it's going to work out. Then it's a permanent thing.

What about his vibration Marcus? Left, or right? You've got your realisation is it? I'm asking him.

Is it all right? There's a catch on the left is it? Are you feeling something? You get what? Anybody who has any problems about Chakras, any one of the Sahaja Yogis, anybody who has any problem about their own Chakras please ask Me you see because to, next time we'll be having lots of people here, then we won't be able to talk, so better ask Me about it. Danesh what is your problem? Āgñyā. I can see that clearly, from here. You have to forgive people. Do you understand that? Forgive and forgive. What about her vibrations? Now just see.

Contents: 1979-10-19*, Public Program, Getting to Know Yourself, Gayton Road, Harrow (near London), UK

Today we have gathered here to know something about ourselves and not about others. We know that we are human beings and that God has created us from a small little amoeba to this complicated structure called as human being. But does He have any plan behind it? Why did He make us a human being, which is such a beautiful thing according to Me? What was His purpose in creating us? Have we reached that point to understand what is the purpose behind our creation? And that is why it is necessary, sometimes, one has to reach that stage to know what you are. Are you only your body, your mind, your intelligence, your ego, your superego, or there is something beyond within you? Is there any undercurrent, which works out the whole creation and you? Have you got any role to play in the whole plan of God Almighty? If so, what is the role and where do you stand in relation to Him? If I have to say that there is a great meaning in your creation of your own being and that you do not know your value, you are not to just believe Me, neither to deny Me, but keep a open mind of a scientist. Like a hypothesis if I put something before you, you have to just see for yourself it works out or not.

Now within us there is an instrument, a living instrument, which is being placed very beautifully, as it is shown in this figure, created by God every time we went from amoeba to this stage. And these different lines that you see, three different lines, are the undercurrents of our autonomous nervous system, which we call as sympathetic and parasympathetic nervous system. We take everything for granted. We take our own being, human being, for granted. We never think. How did we get all these? We take for granted many things, many miracles, like a flower becoming a fruit, a little seed becoming a huge big tree. But now the question is to answer why and how these things happen. The time has come. This time had to come sometime, is promised in many Scriptures. Perhaps the time is there for you to see whether it is true or not. Now this instrument that is placed within us is shown here which has...

[Aside:] Can you take the thing from him? Just if you can lend your... we'll be thankful. Thank you very much.

... is called as Kuṇḍalinī. This is placed in the triangular bone of our being, is very nicely placed there.

It is the germinating power within us, the primule. In Hindi or Sanskrit we call it ankur which when sprouts gives rise to a new being within us, which we know from all the Scriptures, is called as the second birth. We have to have the second birth. It's described in all the Scriptures, all respectable ones.

Now what is the second birth? It's not some artificial ritual by some unauthorized people. People talk of Self-realisation. People talk of the All-pervading Power beyond. But it is there such a power existing.

It is there something beyond that we do not see. Now it is for us to see for and to find out, but how? How did we become human beings? We don't know, spontaneously. How did a flower become a fruit, just spontaneously. That's a living process. It is all built in, it is within the seed, it is within the flower. It is within you to become that. It's spontaneous, Sahaja. Saha means with; ja means born. It is born with you. It is spontaneous. You cannot do anything about it. You cannot stand on your head, you cannot do any exercises, you cannot jump about, you cannot say anything, but it has to happen within you. Now how does it happen? How do you enlighten a light? Say there is a candle, which is not enlightened, you have to bring one enlightened candle and enlighten that. It's very simple. Because the candle is ready to be enlightened, you have to just put your candle near the other candle and it just gets enlightened. It is that simple. But the difficult part is you do not get an enlightened, enlightened candle easily. And if you get it, you butcher it.

We have had many such people on this earth before who talked about it, who said about it, who would have done this job, but they were butchered, they were killed, they were poisoned and they were crucified.

We always denied the truth. We would not accept it. What was the reason? Because we are identified with untruth. It is difficult to jump to something and to depend on something which we have not known and easy to depend on something that we have known is our ego. Now within us these three powers act.

One comes from the right hand side and goes to the left hand side...

[Aside:] No, it comes from the... yes... this comes from the right hand side, the first one... You stand up and show them it will be better.

Now, this power, left hand side one... yes, is, in the Sanskrit language this channel is called as Iḍā Nāḍī and this power is the power by which we exist, which gives us the power of existence. And in the same manner, the same power can destroy, because negation of existence is destruction.

The second power that we have is the power of creation, which runs from your left side of the brain downward to the right hand side. Now the central power which you see there is the power by which we have evolved. And as far as you have achieved, as far as you are a human being, as far as is your awareness is expressed up to the point it has reached. But you can see there is gap in between and this gap has to be filled. And this is the gap I am talking about. And for this gap you have got this special power which is called as the residual power or the germinating power which is coiled up and kept there ready for your germination, is the Kuṇḍalinī. Now there is an instrument here and it has a coil too. If it is not put to the mains it has no meaning. In the same way if your instrument is not put to the mains you have no meaning, because you have to find out the absolute part. You are still living with relativity. That's why all this confusion is whether you talk of communisms or of capitalism or of democracy or of any other `cracy', it's all a confusion still. The reason is you have not found out your absolute, what is your absolute that is within you, in your heart there, inside, placed as your Spirit.

God is reflected in your heart as your Spirit, called as Ātmā. Unless and until your attention reaches that Spirit, talking about it, doing anything about it, it's absolutely useless. You have to be really born again. It's an actualisation, which should take place. It is not talking or doing any ritual or anything else. It has to happen within you. Without the happening, it has no meaning. And it does happen and it has happened, for thousands of people have been blessed by this. Now when this Kuṇḍalinī rises piercing those six centers, first of all it integrates you. These six centers represent your different aspects of being.

When this Kuṇḍalinī rises, She integrates you with your Self. For example, your mind goes on one side, your body goes on another side, your heart goes on the third side. All these things get integrated through this piercing of this Kuṇḍalinī, through these centers which are six above and one below. The one below is for the protection.

Only human beings know that there is something like innocence. The lowest center is of your innocence.

Now, we never think in science that there is something like innocence and that innocence plays a very big part in our physical being. It is impossible for human beings to [UNCLEAR] because they themselves are disintegrated. For example, science analyzes you and disintegrates you. Maybe you will have to get one doctor for one eye and another for another eye. The condition is so bad that you are absolutely analyzed and you are, you do not know how to relate everything within yourself. Now this Kuṇḍalinī when it rises it goes through all that and pierces the fontanelle bone area which is called as Brahmarandhra and you become one with the Divine. Then you become one with that All-pervading Power and you become collectively conscious. You become. It is not lecturing that we are all brothers and sisters, we must all love each other, we must form United Nations and this and that. It is a happening that takes place. By that in your awareness it happens, by that your own being starts feeling it. Even a child gets it. Even a child may be a born-realised. And then only decoding is needed that on your fingers when there is enlightenment all these centers of the sympathetic nervous system get enlightened and you start feeling all these centers in your hand.

For example, we had somebody who first came to Me, one of the very first ones and he just couldn't understand how could he, he had become collectively conscious though the vibrations starting flowing through his hands and he could feel the vibrations and this.

So one day he said that the base of this finger is burning. Now this is the finger for the throat, on the right hand side, for the physical side.

And he said that, “Somehow when I think of my father this base is burning." I said, “You telephone to him and find out what is the matter with him. He must be having a bronchitis or throat trouble. Because these are for the father and these are for the mother." And he telephoned and found out that mother talked to him and he said he is down with the bronchitis.

But then gradually you start using this. And you are amazed that you have become really a part and parcel of the great being, like a little cell in the body of the whole, like the microcosm with the macrocosm.

The relationship is established and you become collectively conscious. Again I say, you become. Then, only, you feel the peace, the bliss that is promised to you. And you feel that the vibrations are flowing through you like Cool Breeze in your hands. It is described in the scriptures, it is described in the Devī Māhātmyam that you feel it like Cool Breeze.

I was surprised the other day a Jew girl, one of the Sahaja Yogini, she told Me that it is called as Ruah in Hebrew language, means wind. A Holy Spirit, Spirit is called as Ruah meaning cool wind. And even in the Bible or anywhere, any scripture, if you read you'll find the Cool Breeze is expressed for the Holy Ghost, for the Holy Spirit. And you start feeling the Cool Breeze which is all-pervading, If supposing there is a person who is possessed, then you find it little different. A person may start shaking before Me. But for a very short time, it doesn't trouble you. All the wrong ideas about Kuṇḍalinī have come from people who have been really naive about it. First of all, a person who is not Self-realised and is also a very holy person, a person who is not of that level, has no business to talk about Kuṇḍalinī. He's not authorized to do that. Like a village man coming over here and putting his fingers in the plugs. If he says that Kuṇḍalinī means a shock and the electricity means a shock, it's just the same.

I haven't seen even one person, I have been now to various countries and in My own country, thousands of people have got realisation without any shock or without any dancing or without any jumping. Nothing happens outside; everything happens within. But with your naked eyes you can see the Kuṇḍalinī pulsating.

With your naked eyes anybody, whether realised or not realised, if there is an obstruction in these, one of the centers, the second or the third, then you can see it very clearly. You can even follow it up with the stethoscope and you can see the pulsation rising and you can see the pulsation going up in the head, here.

It is that clear-cut.

Now it is better that we believe into it. We have done lot of nonsense by not believing. This is spontaneous, this is living, this is just emitting. You cannot do anything about it. You cannot pay for it, toll it. It's insult. It's an insulting thing to think that you can pay for anything that is spiritual. Those people who collect money in the name of God and live on that money are the most condemned ones. You cannot pay a single pie whatsoever for your spirituality. It is the love of God. How can you purchase? Only your ego people satisfy. They pamper your ego and you think you can pay for it, you go ahead with it and then you have all the money lost to them and then you start saying, `Oh, God, what has happen? We've lost all the money, we've given all the money and the fellow has run away.' They just won't take your money; they put spirits into you, they hypnotize you. They take away your money and you are left with such problems.

I've seen people developing heart troubles, epilepsy, horrible possessions, cannot sleep for days together.

They fall on the street, they just jump, they start shouting, screaming, growling like animals. Are we to become animals now? Or are we to become birds to y? What are we to become now? Or there are some people who have been jumping like frogs.

So are we going to go down to that level or are we going to become something more? Already if you see in psychology, Jung, I hope you have read, has described that you have to become collectively conscious if realisation has to take place. Many psychologists have accepted the existence of collective consciousness. They say that there is something universal unconscious within us, which gives us dreams and symbols of universal nature. This is what you touch when you get your realisation and this has to happen to you, which cannot be argued. You cannot argue about it. I've seen many people who even get realisation go home and think about it. What can you think about it? What can you think of a fruit becoming a seed and a seed becoming a tree and tree blossoming and again becoming the fruit? What can you think about it? What can you write? All these writings you cannot understand unless and until you have found out the absolute. It's also relative. If you have to understand whether it is the truth or not, you must find out the absolute value of yourself.

Now it is such a wide subject that I've been speaking now for years all over and it could not be covered even, I would say, even a little bit so far. There's a big book they have published, we haven't yet received them from India, about it.

So those who are intellectuals can go through that and satisfy their intellect.

But it's no question of your intellect because your rationality and intellect is limited. This I am talking about the unlimited.

Something has to trigger it and that triggering takes place through this Kuṇḍalinī, which is within you. No intellect can do that, only the Divine Love or someone who is blessed with that and even people when they get realisation they can do it themselves. It is so.

You may not just now absolutely blindly believe Me, it's not necessary, but you must try to get to that.

After all, what is the purpose of your life? Aren't you asking for that? If you do not get it what will happen, people may say. All [UNCLEAR]. In these modern times, for example, cancer, heart attacks, physically, diabetes, all the incurable diseases, multiple sclerosis, all are awaiting, gout, all kinds of diseases, mental problems, people can't sleep. It's all going towards destruction. You are being destroyed because you have not achieved the absolute that is required today for your existence. Today is a very different time. One must know it's the time of Last Judgment that has come. And this is the way you are going to be judged.

This is the chance you have got to judge yourself and that God is going to judge you.

So you cannot avoid this. If you try it is not going to help you. As a Mother I have to tell you, you must have patience with yourself, respect with yourself and you must know that you are extremely valuable and don't fritter away yourself for small, small things. All the time we have wasted our life with all sorts of nonsensical things.

We have no time for God, we have no time for ourselves and we have no time for something for which we are born.

May God bless you! Let's have the experiment. That's the best. And if you have any questions ask Me. But should be sensible questions, you see. I've seen people always ask such nonsensical questions that the time is wasted and those who really want it, really don't like it.

So if you don't want to have it you are welcome to go away. If you want to have it, it's very simple. It will work out. There's no problem. And if you have any sensible questions, please ask Me.

No question at all? So you are just waiting to have it, is it? That's the best, best group I ever seen so far, I must say. Let's see what happens. All right. Just put your hands like this. Take out your shoes. Now and don't ask too many questions. Now people say, “Why should we take out our shoes?" You see, just to get contact with the earth, you see. Especially this place is so good I feel that we are just really on the earth itself, you see.

So just take out your shoes, very simple it is and put your hands just like this, just like this. Now, you may close your eyes, if you can.

Some of you cannot because you might find a flickering in the eyes or maybe that you just cannot completely close it and some may be shaking their hands a little bit. All such people should open their eyes. The rest of them should close their eyes. Please sit with your both feet like this. Just tell this gentleman also to sit with both the feet like this on the ground. Yes, yes, would be better. Moje be neekal lijiye [If you take out socks would be even better]. [Hindi.] If there is something tight, say, on your back or, say, on your waist or something, just loosen it a little, if it is tight there, very tight. If it is not it's all right. You can take out even glasses. It's all right. Keep your eyes shut and see that there is no shaking in the eyelids or in the hands or fingers. [Hindi.] You will find that if you watch your thoughts most of you will find there is no thought coming to you. This is called as thoughtless awareness or I call it as thoughtless enlightened awareness because Samādhi means enlightened awareness. This is Nirvichar Samādhi. It is very quickly it happens. [Hindi.] And then will be... just you feel in your own fingers, you see. You will feel first, maybe some of you may feel little hot breeze-like thing and then you will feel Cool Breeze coming within you. You feel very relaxed also with that.

Feeling it? Are you feeling in the hand? How are you feeling? Feeling in the hand Cool Breeze? Good.

Please keep your eyes shut properly, all right, till you feel the Cool Breeze coming in your hand.

[Hindi.] All those who are getting Cool Breeze in the hands, all of you, raise your hands. Let Me see.

It's good. It's good. Aren't you, not yet? All right, keep your eyes shut. Keep your eyes shut. It's good.

Now all those who have been to a Guru before and are not getting vibrations please raise your hands; those who have been to some Guru. But you are getting vibrations all right, so it's all right. Those who have been to any other Guru before and not getting Cool Breeze in the hands. If you have not been to any other Guru then it is all right but if you have been to some Guru, somebody else, then please raise your hands. It's all right. You are all right, you'll see. Have you been to some Guru? You have been. All right.

You come here. I'll have to see you. Just come down. Come in front door. We'll have to see you. Who else has been to the Guru? Just come forward. Those who have been to the Guru please come forward, just here. Now please keep your eyes shut till you get it. Just keep your eyes shut. Only the people who have been to Guru I would like to meet them here if you do not mind. Please come for one minute. Just come. Please come. Nothing to be frightened of Me. I'm your Mother. Come along. Come off. Nothing will happen. Just come on. Please. Sit down, sit down. [Shri Mataji is inquiring in Hindi about the Gurus every person has been to before.] Now all those who are getting Cool Breeze please raise your hands again, so many of them. Now please put down your hands. Those who are not getting Cool Breeze please raise your hands. Three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine. Now I would like to go down and see them. [Hindi.] Just go and see these people.

Contents: 1979-10-20 Diwali Pūjā (Diwali Day), Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

He was killed by Shadanana (Kārttikeya) was the son of Pārvatī and Shankar. Was the powerful expression of the Rudra Shakti, that is the killing power of God and He was created specially for this purpose to kill Narakasura. Then the, this one was, this Rākshasa, was such a menace and he had ruined so many peoples lives. He has done such a havoc and people didn't know how to find protection. That time when Narakasura was killed by the Shakti in the form of Shadanana [Kārttikeya] there was celebration all over, people celebrated the next night and the next night was the darkest night of the whole year is tonight. The 15th day of the waning moon is called as amāvasya.

So this is the darkest night. There are always dark nights every month once but this is the darkest night of the whole year and just before this Narakasura was killed and all the lights are put in the house and lots of these lamps are burnt. Of course electricity lights are different from these, as you know that they burn badhas all the time.

So after the death of Narakasura, he had a big army of his own when he was powerful and he had hypnotized many people, so to get rid of the residual ones altogether they lighted all these lamps, so that all those devils who were still roaming about should all be burnt out and you can understand in Sahaja Yoga how a lamp burns and how a badha is taken away by a lamp. But still all the lights of the house must be lighted. You go and light all the lights in the house. Outside and inside everywhere there should be light. No room should be kept in dark because they hide in the darkness.

So no corner should be dark.

Then you know that Rāma killed Rāvaṇa on the 10th day of the rising moon. That was Dussehra and he was burnt. And He returned back by an aeroplane called as Pushpak to Ayodhya to His own capital where He was crowned as king on this day. Now we have got astrologically, there are 3½ auspicious days where you don't have to consultant any books of astrology which are called as Pañchang, to find out whether it is an auspicious time or not. For any Pūjā, for any good work you have to do, people consultant, in India, the Pañchang the book to find out which date is auspicious which is not. One of them is today.

Is a day you can do anything good, decide anything good. Today is the day to take an oath to think of something great, to visualise something big, to ask a boon, to do a big Pūjā, is one of the greatest day.

One of the what do you call them muhurtās which where you do not consultant these books. And that's why the Rājyabhishek of, I mean the crowning ceremony of Śhrī Rāma took place on this day.

So there are so many aspects [for this that] after Rāma had killed Rāvaṇa, the Satanic force, this Diwali was celebrated. Also this was celebrated much earlier when Narakasura was killed. And this is how we express our joy and happiness. Our gratitude to God that He has always protected us with His power, the Shakti and has destroyed all the rākṣhasas and all the evil forces of this world. This is the time of Thanksgiving. On this day we have to go to our elders and give thanks to them for whatever they have done for us. To all those people whom we have to give thanks today is the day when we have to ask God to bless all these people. For us also to be very jubilant, I am very happy today because now I feel from tomorrow Sahaja Yoga is going to take new strides. From tomorrow starts the new year. And the new year of the Shālivāhana, Shālivāhan calendar. There are two calendars, one is Vikram another is Shālivāhan, of the Shālivāhan and that is the dynasty, you know that that they were My forefathers who started this Shālivāhan.

Now there are two stories about Shālivāhan. One says that this gentleman was making a branch and was standing on it. That's why it is called as Shālivāhan but actually it means the shawl. The shawl is called as Shali in Marathi language and the one who carried the shawl of the Mother was called as Shālivāhan. And when some Sahaja Yogis went to India, if you remember that in Rahuri, that is the place Rahuri Nandgaon, you have also seen where My ancestors lived and all that place. They gave you the shawls to wear. And I asked them why did you give them shawls? They said these are the Shālivāhanas.

All of them are Shālivāhanas now. That's why we have to give them shawls. They were very happy to do that.

So tomorrow is the new year day.

So now, why is it necessary to have a new year day in our life? By last year those who got realisation are very lucky people but plodding through Self-realisation one loses all the enthusiasm and idealism that one has when you get realisation. You think of doing so many things about it. When you get realisation you are so much engrossed into it. You enjoy it so much that you think that now the time has come for me to do this and that and that. And I going to contact these people and I am going to give this to this one, I am going to do this work, I will show to Mother that what She has given me, I have made it many folds. Because it was a new experience, great experience, the only experience you have been waiting for. And that you also decide that I am going to now become the torch bearer of this great light that has come into me. And I am going to form one of the lights of this dīpawali. Dīpawali, dīp means these lights and avali means the row of lights.

So I am going to be one of them. And we are going to enlighten the path of the people who want to have Self-realisation. All these great ideas come to us when we touch our depths. And we feel responsible for all the rest of the humanity. But then we gradually realise that there are lots of problems with our ascent, own being and the Kuṇḍalinī goes back into it and comes up again and you realise that you have to correct yourself quite a lot. Then this correction portion starts you start thinking about yourself more than about others. And also other things which we are identified with us like our own personal problems, our own personal ideas, ambitions, professions and all the things that with which we have been enamoured so far start peeping into our minds. And we start forgetting that moment when we got our realisation and all that we promised within ourselves to do.

So, the new day comes to remind you doesn't matter whatever has happened has happened, it's finished. Today a new day has come to you again for you to promise again. Again start enjoying, knowing that the sun has come and now the refreshed, the newness, the freshness of life and then you again start with greater enthusiasm on the new day, with new ideas, with new promises, with new vows and with greater understanding about Sahaja Yoga. Those you have got now realisation they have to know actually what happens as you mature. You start changing your attitude. Today only, somebody asked Me a question, now that's what should happen to all of you. After sometime the attitude is changed, changed so much that you know that you are no more seeking now you have to give. We just talk of giving and not of seeking anymore because you have found it full. Till the pitcher is filled, the water can be poured into it, when it has come to the brim, then it says no and nothing. Anymore you pour into it will go into others.

So this attitude when develops in you, you should know that you are mature. This attitude is the only test to see that it is matured. No questions, no problems, only thought that really covers the entire space before us is how to bring others to this great heavenly atmosphere of Divine Love.

First one has fears then he develops protections. He is worried about giving all the time bandhans to oneself, looking after one's own vibrations. Then he catches he is worried, he doesn't want to meet some people, condemns others and he says that you are not alright and he shuns some people. All these things happen, gradually we become absolutely one with your satisfaction. And then the question starts how should I love this person? How should I give my love to this person? How should I express that he also jumps into the same heavenly bliss? Then the attention becomes stable. We don't pay attention here and there. All your attention is on this. You become thus the Gurus of the Sahaja Yoga. This attainment has taken place in many of you. You had ups and downs. No doubt but forget all that. It is so gratifying, so beautiful to see that in My own lifetime I am seeing this thing happening within you, that you feel so responsible about it. You cannot force others about Sahaja Yoga. That you must know.

There cannot be any coaxing about it but only your love should convince another person. Your love should make another person feel that he should also follow the same path which leads to such beautiful life of love. Your example itself would show. The whole priorities change. The whole atmosphere changes. And you become something very very different. If somebody asks what happens when you enlighten the light? Then it gives the light. What happens to it? Really it was not giving the light was the problem. Now, it is enlightened for giving the light to others. But the light goes like this in the beginning.

So those you have got realisation should know that it will happen. First that will happen are doubts that you have become into a light. Because you belong to a society which doubts everything especially sanity. And you start doubting it but doubting or thinking about it, you never got it. You got it just like that. Why did you get? You got it because you, somebody has loved you very much and has been gracious. Because you have had this seeking in your previous lives, you have done lots of goods which have been rewarded. Your checks have been cashed in the bank. How are you doubting it? That means you are doubting yourself, nobody else but yourself, because you cannot believe that you have got it.

So don't go into another trip of doubt. By doubting you will go very slow. And sometimes it reaches such a point that I start doubting also for a change about your capacity, that your calibre as to how far you are going to go in Sahaja Yoga. Because Sahaja Yoga is not the job of useless people. They have to be very very special type. If they are ordinary people they can never take to Sahaja Yoga. They'll come up little bit and again go down, they will again come up and go down. But once you come into it you are not to be goaded much really if you start enjoying it then you will go on with it, you cannot give up. Because that is the source of all enjoyment.

So today is the day of enjoyment. Let us be happy that we have killed the darkness within us and we have put our lights out for others to be enlightened to give light to others of God's love.

May God bless you all.

Contents: 1979-10-22*, Public Program, Problems of Ego, Caxton Hall, London, UK

From next time I'll start the series because those who are not here, I mean, sort of lots of people will be coming when you will be advertising. Cooley [Tony Paniotou], did you advertise for today or for next time? He's also not here? Not, yes, so we'll start it from next time, you see, the series like that. Would be better for people to follow.

Those who have come for the first time should sit in front, is better. You see, I can look after you better. All right? Just put your hands like this.

Today I was thinking of telling you about the ego problem, because I think everybody feels that that's the biggest problem they all have; and there's a big ego trip one gets into and they don't know what to do with it.

So first part I will tell you how the ego rises and how, what it does to us; the second how to understand it, how to tackle the position of ego and put it in its own aspect.

As you see in the map here, the yellow stuff that you see on top is the ego. The balloon that is yellow is the ego. You see down below it starts from the Swādhiṣhṭhāna. This is the colour of the bile within us and this Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra which is for our creativity is directly connected to that ego there. And when it starts rotating round the Void and going to the various parts of the Void, it collects all the problems of the Void. Void is that green circle within us where physically we have in the Void, we have uterus, we have kidney, it's a complete viscera: all the intestines, ascending, transverse, descending colon, liver, is the upper part of liver more, then also pancreas and the spleen.

So all the problems of these organs are collected by this Chakra which moves. It comes out of the Nābhī Chakra and moves round and round and round and collects all the problems. It nourishes, gives power, the vital power to these organs and also it generates necessary power for our creative action. It also collects the fat cells of the Void, convert it into the proper cells for the brain, for its use, for the grey matter. All this work it has to do, one Chakra.

It manifests aortic plexus outside. On the physical level we call it as aortic plexus and it has got six sub-plexuses which look after all these organs. This is meant for our action. When we go into action, this Chakra starts working. By the first power, which is on the left hand side, we desire. But by the second one we go into action and it's called as kriya Shakti. Now when this action starts within us, it produces the byproducts or we can say all the problems of these organs, which are to be deposited somewhere and they are all deposited in the brain as ego.

All the problems that we have out of these, this creativity and the action of all these organs are to be counterbalanced and as a counterbalance the ego develops. For example, now I have to come and meet you all here. I had to get out of the house, I had to change, I had to drive, whatever it is, then I came, I had to put in effort. I had to plan out how I'm going to talk to you, that I don't do normally, but I'm saying in generally people do it. And I put in the effort to come in. Now how am I to justify this, all this effort? What is the satisfaction that one gets out of doing this effort, this kriya, this action? We go on doing some action and why should we do it? After all, action means, any activity means exertion, botheration, problems, so best is to sit at home and do nothing of the kind! But we do not do that, we take up challenges, we rush up to it. All this we do with our kriya Shakti, with our right action. Because we do action, we have to have a satisfaction about it. As a reaction to that, ego develops. If we do not have the ego we would not do anything, is a fact. But ego is the one that rationalises all our madness, the rat race we are running into. If we did not have the ego we would not go into this nonsense. The more we try to rationalise our activities, the more ego develops to satisfy. “All right, very good, very good. Now you are a successful man, see? You're a very successful man, you have got this, you have got that." Lots of misunderstandings creep in when we pamper our ego like this, or I should say that when we are satisfied with our ego, that we really get lost. We get identified with our ego and not with ourselves.

So if you do some work very well: supposing you have, say, made a beautiful poetry or, say, not piece of poetry but say you have made a very good painting, then you would like people to appreciate. If they do not appreciate you, you think you have done nothing, though you have done a beautiful poem, of a canvas. But still you will be so dissatisfied with yourself unless and until people appreciate you. They must garland you, they must say, `Oh, you are great, you are really unique, you are a genius.' You know many artist who created great art, got trapped into this kind of misidentification. When they created some great art, the art could not give them satisfaction. They had to go to ego and Mister Ego would not be satisfied unless and until everybody says, `Yes, yes, you are very good. You have done this, you are a genius, you are this, you are that.' That's how the ego develops then within us.

But a situation can arise where even when we have done nothing, we want to take the credit. Then we call such a person egoistical who says, `I will do this, I have done this, I, I, I, I', then we call him an egoistical person. Because he gives words to his ego, that's why we call him egoistical. But all of us have got this Mister Ego there, sitting on our heads. When it starts bloating, the more successful you are, the worse it is. The more you indulge into planning and thinking, the worse it is. The balloon goes on, you see, pumped as if you are pumping a balloon, you see. The more you pump, the more it becomes. And you can never realise that you are not that ego. Then you start feeling very nice about it, because everybody says, `Oh, what a great man he is.' The whole society develops on those lines.

Today only I was discussing about the way people give you `C.O.B.', I don't know, `V.I.P.' and `M.A.D.' like that and we carry those banners with us. And we expect everybody should respect those banners which have been given to us, you see, because we've done some work, somebody has recognized us, branded it, stamped it, so we believe really this must be something great.

So we accept that brand and we want to keep it up.

So there's a doubly fixed thing that you are really rewarded for what work you are doing.

That's why people start become nuisance also. Supposing in a society some people do not find any significance to their lives. Then they will go to Oxford Street, stand there, wear funny dresses, start jumping and singing something nonsensical and people make a nuisance out of themselves. We have seen people who paint their hair in different colours, put pencils in the noses, I think and do all kinds of mad things just to attract the attention of others; because we want to attract the attention of others, because our ego is not yet satisfied. But this ego is never satisfied. It goes on asking for more food, more food and you enjoy it too.

When such a ego is bloated within us, we cannot understand what we are doing. People can befool you like that. It's very easy to befool a person who is ego-oriented, than to befool a simple person. A simple-hearted man not, cannot be easily befooled, because he's not on a trip, you see. But those who are on a ego trip, you tell them that this is the best way to go to hell, they will be the first booking their seats. There will be a queue for it and people would be asking for it, `All right, if it is so, it's good.' That is how many Gurus in this world have come forward, have befooled you by telling you that you will get these powers, those powers, that will happen, this will happen. And they know how to pamper your ego.

For example, they might say this is a world organization of spirituality and you are the head of the world organization; and you believe it.

Ego means misappropriation. You believe in it because you think that `after all I must be something and I have done this, I have done that.' But actually what happens physically is then when this balloon spreads on your head all over, the aura of the brain surrounds the heart normally, normally; but when there is ego problem, then ego surrounds the heart. And when ego surrounds the heart, the brain is cut off from the heart.

So you are a non-integrated person, or we can say disintegrated. Your heart runs one side, your brain runs another side, your body runs third side, your emotions run fourth side.

So four people running four horses and that's how you are completely torn [apart]. I mean, it's impossible to stand on two stools, but if there are four with two legs, it's a big feat to exist.

So this kind of ego trip comes in, by which you start behaving and living in this world in a very unnatural way. And if somebody says that `No, not your ego, not that. That's not you. You have to be yourself. Ego is not yourself. Do not be satisfied with this ego,' then you don't like it. Because you are much higher than ego, much greater than ego, much more than what you think your ego can do. With ego what, at the most what can you do, say? At the most what can you do with your ego? What people have achieved through ego? Nothing. Whatever they have discovered even in the sciences has come from the unknown, from God's own treasures. If God has given you some knowledge of the unknown, you should not feel pampered about it and think that `Oh, this is what we have found.' No, He graciously gave you this knowledge which has come to you, so just take it with humility.

And this ego is very, very dangerous for Kuṇḍalinī awakening. Now you look at the diagram, imagine the whole of your head is covered with that yellow stuff and this blue thing becomes a very small one.

So first of all the desire to seek, itself, is diminished. You see, you go for seeking as if you are going to a cinema hall. There is no combination of what you are thinking and your heart. You are not seeking from your heart, you are seeking just with your brains. Because you have read three, four books, there's a fashion, everybody is seeking, everybody is looking as if they are seeking something, so let us also seek. It is not coming from your heart, because you can see that the activity of heart has become practically zero.

You do not desire anything, it is what your ego desires you run after. Anything that doesn't satisfy your ego, you get upset about it. One must go on all the time saying that you are the fastest horse, you are the greatest person, you are the most unique personality, then only you are satisfied. It cuts you out so much from your heart. That's why we cannot find joy, because joy you can only get through your heart.

But this Mister Ego gives you some sort of a satisfaction which is very superficial, temporary, leads you nowhere.

With this ego-orientation only you get so many diseases, as I have told you before, like diabetes, heart attack, we can say also cancer could be one of them, arthritis you might get. You also get with this too much thinking, paralysis, paralysis is because of that and kidney failures. The worst is liver. Because of over-activity, liver is neglected. We are least bothered about the liver. If you tell a child “don't eat chocolates" in childhood, I mean, it's an impossibility, you cannot talk like that. I mean, I just once said that why not stop giving chocolates to children, who cannot digest it because their liver is not that; or make something that is digestible to their liver from childhood, till they grow up. And why not dilute the chocolates also a little bit more? So the question comes in then, that `How can you do it, Mother? It would be chucking out everything and children would protest without chocolates.' Gradually they'll forget.

The liver problem starts within you. You become thin, lean, pale, aggressive, all the time grumbling, grudging, sulking; never in joy, never in happiness. You call it tension, stress, all these things, it's nothing but over-activity of this Chakra. Tension is because the whole of it is covered with this balloon and the balloon is still going on and on and on. That has to reduce. Sahaja Yoga is the only way really we can face our ego, because through Sahaja Yoga only we can see ourselves. But it is an impossibility with human beings to face themselves, even after realisation they find it difficult.

For example, all our misidentifications are there. Say I'm dealing, say, with English disciples here.

Before I start saying about the misidentification of the English, I must condemn all the Indians of the world and all the Japanese, Chinese, Greeks, everybody else and then I should say, “There's also something wrong with English." Otherwise I had it! Unless and until at every stage I condemn all the rest of the world, I cannot talk of saying that we also have certain misidentifications which are sitting on our heads, by which we are oppressed, we think that this is the correct way of life; by which we have oppressed others.

And this ego business is so much prevalent in our society. Now, with all due apologies, I am talking about the Western society. When it comes to India I talk to them, but now I'm talking to you and think that I am also a Western person.

So I can see certain things as a Western personality. I don't feel bad about it. For in the so-called certain traditions that we have, today only I was discussing, you see, like on the table we have to sit for dinner. All right, simple thing it is to sit on the table for dinner. Now dinner is there because God has been gracious to us; for our well-being, for our friendship we are all going to sit down. But go to any formal dinner or you arrange a formal dinner, people would sit down, ten times discussing where is the seat of X and the seat of Y and the seat of Z. But if there is a slightest mistake in placing the people according to their date of birth, their face colour, their head colour, their height, their noses, their length, their upper lips; any difference is there found in the `Who's Who' book, you see, that somebody was placed little higher in M.A.D. degree, then you had it! All the good wishes of entertaining people, of doing some good friendship, of having, creating something very, very great is all lost. All the effort is lost and you are left wondering, “Now what have I done? I did consult all the dictionaries and the `Who's Who'." I mean, this `Who's Who' is another ego-pampering, you know. But despite that there was a mistake somehow and the person has taken a very big objection that Mister X, who is one day junior to him, has been made to sit ahead of him. It's the greatest calamity to his ego. The poor chairs do not know what happens for their different shapes, you see! How much we fight over all such things, pampering our ego.

So on and so forth, we have so many things. But if I say `Scrap all this nonsense,' why don't you scrap it? Why to have all this, protocols, this, that? What is the need to have this seat for this gentleman, that seat? After all, if there are ten people for dinner they can find their seats, there won't be a chaos for ten people. Even for twenty people, even for three hundred. Why should there be seat allotted? If you have invited three hundred people, all right, they'll all sit down. If they are remaining they'll sit down for the second one or for the third one. What is the, such a hurry of having that program altogether, or in such a systematic way that everybody feels unsystematic after that, everybody feels disturbed and upset after the program is over? With all the system, with all the corrections and with all the great planning we do, ultimately we find all have become nitwits. There must be something wrong about it. And it becomes a frenzy, with mob-like behaviour people have, you see. Everybody will come out with very big faces, `Oh, what a mismanagement, you know, they did this.' What is it? One can't even understand what is the value of these things. That's why we have to be like small children. To them it does not matter where they sit. And so we are grown-up and matured, supposed to be mature people also; while children are still innocent and still ignorant and still they have to grow up. We are supposed to be up-grown: what has grown within us is nothing but this Mister Ego, not you.

When this happens, when this happens in the worst possible way, you know, today's paper I was reading about this Ripper. Now the conclusion is reached that he's not a psychopath, but he is on an ego trip. He's doing all this for his ego satisfaction, because he telephones to the police, he sends a, what you call a tape to the police that he should be caught. He tells them “You'll meet me here” and still they cannot catch him.

So he thinks, oh, he's such a great person that nobody can catch him, the greatest thief ever born who could not be caught.

So that is what you call, he's not a psychopath, but I don't know what name will you give to such a man. I mean to a egoist like this, the one who lives by ego, tries to satisfy his ego and if his ego is not satisfied by something, he doesn't feel satisfied. I don't know what should you call him.

Now, how to overcome this ego? Because people start seeing gradually this: it happens. They start seeing Mister Ego, `Oh, very great, you see it's coming up, giving me ideas, all right.' You feel sometimes very depressed with the idea that this is Mister Ego I was identified with. All right? You see your ego.

Then when you see your ego, then what do you do with it? Or if somebody says “Better watch your ego” then what happens? You start fighting it. You say, “No, I will not say anything, I'll just keep quiet. Let them say anything, whatever they like." Then you'll become another type. You become a person who is suffering from superego.

So you are left with desires, but do not act and you'd say that `Let others aggress me, I'm not going to aggress anyone. I'll be very careful about non-aggression.' But by this kind of a thing, what happens that when you raise the left side, I mean, left side which goes up on the right hand side, superego, it presses the ego down but again is bounced back and there's a kind of a bouncing going on. By this behaviour when you fight your ego, the ego sits on your head much more. The more you try to fight ego, it sits on your head.

You are not to fight it. Supposing you take a balloon and start hitting it, it will hit you back further.

Go on hitting it, it will go on hitting. Now, which is the way to deflate this ego? How do we deflate a balloon? In the same manner, take a pin and give it a prick. You just look at yourself, say, `All right, Mister So-and-so, now how do you do?' and you laugh at yourself. You said, “Oh, you were very unhappy, you see, when you saw that you were not placed very much. All right, now have a pin from me!" And that's how you deflate it, by seeing it, by all the time making fun of it yourself and piercing a pin into it.

Not by deating, in the way people say that you deflate the whole thing by pushing it down or by killing it, but actually just making a hole in it.

In the same way, if you start looking at yourself and make fun. Human beings only know very well how to make fun of themselves. No animals know that. If you learn how to make fun of yourself, your ego will go down. Otherwise this ego will suggest whatever you are doing is the best, `This has to be done, that has to be done. I am the best, I am doing everything good.' And you might be torturing someone, aggressing someone, you might be just playing into the hands of ego like a madcap. And you might be a real madcap, but you don't know that you are. Because with ego a person becomes successful, so-called, he becomes very brilliant, shines out, in competition he comes up; and nobody dare say a word to him, otherwise he'll have punch on the nose, you see.

So also he becomes very mighty and powerful and everybody hankers after such a behaviour and such a thing.

But a time comes when he realises that `I was hanging in the air. I forgot my basis and now I have to come down,' like Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall and they had a great fall. Such a beautiful... this thing is, written long time back. And all the men... all the king's horses and all the men could not put Humpty Dumpty back again into its own shape, you see? So don't be Humpty Dumpty and don't live with that idea of being a Humpty Dumpty. Is a simple thing to fight your ego. And that happens very often in Sahaja Yoga, is a very common happening in Sahaja Yoga where your Kuṇḍalinī itself, you see, creates such situations that you are flabbergasted at your ego.

You don't have to judge others, just see yourself, because it is for your own good. If somebody is egoistical it makes no difference to you. Or non-egoistical, makes no difference. Only thing is, you should really see for yourself what is good and what is bad. That's how it works out. Otherwise, as I always say that when I give a lecture immediately we start thinking of somebody whom we think to be egoistical.

Actually I'm saying to each one of you to see it, would be a better idea.

Now this ego when it covers your entire head, the complete Sahasrāra which is shown there, the white area gets covered. Your Brahmarandhra, the portion from where the Kuṇḍalinī has to pierce also gets covered. It's very difficult, the whole thing is covered and this is small here, the gap is here. Now you cannot open the gap here. You have to open the gap here.

So this has to go back like that and this has to come up in the center like that. Then only Kuṇḍalinī can come up.

So what happens at such stage, you will find such people have a left hand very weak and right hand throbbing.

So you raise their left, put to the right side. Again raise their left put to the right, again raise their left put to the right, so you bring down the ego like this. And once the ego comes down, then this comes up and the gap comes in between and then you raise the Kuṇḍalinī in the center. Kuṇḍalinī will come out and then you tie it up.

This is Śhrī Vidyā. This is the knowledge of Shrī, of the Holy Spirit. All other knowledge of where you have to sit in protocol, what you are, is all Avidyā and nonsense. Reading `Who's Who' I don't know what you will become, monsters or maybe some sort of a Frankenstein-style personality. This is the Vidyā, Śhrī Vidyā is the secret Vidyā of the Holy Ghost, by which you balance your ego with superego, your desire and action should be equal; and then raise the Kuṇḍalinī, put it up and tie it up.

All these days people who been realised Souls, great people, have tried to point out the problems of ego, have talked to you. They said, you shouldn't have ego; ego is the worst thing, one should not be identified with ego and all that. And as soon as they have said it people have started just finding out how to do it and in doing so they have become great `Gurus', themselves egoistical. The fact is, you do not do anything. This is not ego, but is a mirage of ego that you have got. You really do not do anything, everything is done by God. He is the Doer, He has the great Ego. Your ego is just a copy, made artificially.

Like He creates the flowers and you make plastic flowers and say, `Oh, we have created flowers.' He does everything. It is He who expresses His ego, while you feel you have done something.

It happens to you when you get realisation, when your Kuṇḍalinī pierces the Brahmarandhra, then you find the power flowing through you. And when you put your hands at somebody you find the Kuṇḍalinī rising there and then you find that you can feel the centers of that person and catching of his centers and you're amazed. You said, “Mother, how is it? Just now was nothing, suddenly what has happened to me?" Because your ego has subsided and has become one with that of God and you are giving vent to that power of God. You are playing the role of an instrument, of a hollow personality and through you is passing the power of God which is doing the real work, while you are thinking `I'm doing it,' without getting realisation. But after realisation you just feel, `Oh, it's flowing through me. I can see it flowing, I can see it working, it is...' You'd start talking in third person, you don't say `I'. You just say, “It's going, it's coming, it's not there. This is catching, that is catching." It is in the third person you talk. You do not say `I am catching.' You do not say also that `I have risen the Kuṇḍalinī,' you say “The Kuṇḍalinī has risen." Who has risen it? You never say that you have raised the Kuṇḍalinī. You just say, “The Kuṇḍalinī has risen. It is not coming up. It's just going there” as if you have become an instrument of some power which is flowing through you.

And this is how we become one with that and all our Karmas dissolve into akarma. Karmas are only the effect of our false idea of our ego. When there is no ego, where are the Karmas going to be? If there is no one who is doing and the doer is lost, then who's going to do the Karmas and who's going to take the load of the Karmas upon themselves? Like when there is an organization, then it says, “I have got assets and I have got these debts and these are the things” you see. But the association or that organization disappears, then who has the debt? In the same way, you as ego disappear and there is no effect of your Karmas, all finished. All that was when one Mister Ego was there. When Mister Ego has gone, all liabilities have gone with him.

We are something different now. Now we have become the Self, the Ātmā. And when we have become the Ātmā, then we are one with that Universal Being and He is making us do everything. Like My fingers don't have ego that I'm doing something and I'm touching the thumb, because it is a part of this body.

Our nose does not have an ego that it is something special which is breathing. We say “I breathe” we don't say `this nose breathes.' Neither the nose would say this mouth with which we eat food, it never says that this, `I eat because of my mouth.' When you become one with that whole, then you just feel that the whole is working and we as part are working with it; and all the responsibilities are finished.

This is a little talk about ego today, because I felt I should tell you that in Kuṇḍalinī awakening so far in the West, we have always faced this problem of ego. Also of superego; those who have been to the Gurus have been possessed by their Gurus. And these come as a relief to ego-oriented society, because you have been, a horse has been running, all right and you have been running on the horse.

So somebody comes and says, “All right, now, I'll tie you up to the stomach of the horse and I'll be sitting on the horse myself." This is the possession part of it.

So you feel relieved, you know, quite relieved: after all, you don't have to ride the horse, you don't have to jump. And the rider becomes somebody else, you see, you feel also that there's no responsibility, the rider is doing it.

But after some time under the belly of the horse, you start having all kinds of physical problems. With superego you have physical problems. That's why is better to have superego than to have ego, because you know you don't want to have any more of physical problems. But if you have ego you never get physical problems, or physically you may improve; you know, you feel very fine, on top of the world, you see. That is the biggest problem. But you get mental problems: you can't sleep, you go on thinking, thinking like mad, you cannot stop thinking. You go on arguing that it should be done. You think that everybody should do your work, while you are the most important person ever born.

So we have only one choice left, is to be in the center, to watch your ego and superego. For all the Sahaja Yogis who are realised have to watch themselves, not others. You should not expect anything of others, just expect something of yourself for a change. With ego you do that and expect something of the others, in superego you do for others. But in Self-realisation you emit your Self as joy, love and beauty.

May God bless you all.

Now, should we go in for vibrations and realisation? Now for the new people I would request if they can take out their socks it would be even better, they'll be freer. Put both the feet on the ground and sit in a most relaxed manner. Now as you must have understood, it is a happening. You cannot force it down, you cannot work it out, it has to happen to you.

So no effort is to be put in, nothing. You just leave it, it works. Put your hands just like this, in a very relaxed manner. Even for Sahaja Yogis it is very important that they should go on exposing themselves more and more to Divine Power.

And then when the Kuṇḍalinī pierces the fontanelle, you'll immediately start feeling the cool vibrations in your hand. But it happens in many various stages in many people. For example, some people may not even get the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī at all, some people, very few. With some people it rises halfway, again falls down. With some people it gets caught up in different Chakras, centers which are not all right.

With some people there may be physical problem, so you might feel some heat coming out. Specially with liver you get the heat coming out, lot of heat is there with the liver. And with some people it could be very cold. Both things are not all right: you have to be in the center. If you start feeling any cool in the hand, then it's perfectly all right. But if there is, say, a hot coming in the hand, doesn't matter, you can just throw it away and it will work out, in case it is hot. But if there is trembling in your eyelids when you close your eyes, then please open your eyes. Kuṇḍalinī moves up in everybody, it works in everyone; only thing, it has reactions according to the person who is facing it.

So if there is any reaction, or if the Kuṇḍalinī doesn't rise, there's nothing to feel bad or argue about it.

By argument if I could do, I would take you to courts and argue there things. But by argument I cannot do it, you see, it has to happen in you. I'm anxious that it should happen, in the same way you should be also anxious that it should happen to you. There cannot be argument about it, you see, it's a happening.

How can you argue about the sprouting of a seed? If it does not, you cannot argue with it, you see? It has to sprout. It's as simple as that. If it is not sprouting there's something wrong, all right? Then those people who are realised who know this, those who know Śhrī Vidyā know how to raise it and raise your Kuṇḍalinī, tie it up and all that. But even that, people have objection. They don't mind becoming naked and dancing and doing all sorts of nonsense, but if somebody raises the Kuṇḍalinī and ties it up, they don't like it.

There is nothing to be afraid of Kuṇḍalinī.

Somebody told Me the other day that English people are very afraid of `Kuṇḍalinī' word. Now some English people who went to India came by the back door, I believe, met all kinds of horrid people who had no right to talk of Kuṇḍalinī, who were unholy people, unrighteous people: naturally they had very bad experiences about Kuṇḍalinī. As I say that some villager comes and puts his fingers into the, into the holes of two plugs and says that electricity is a horrible experience. In the same way it might have happened to many, but there's nothing to be frightened of. It works out very well and it gives you what you are asking for.

She is your Mother, eternally your Mother. She loves you the most than anybody can love. She's not going to give you any trouble. She's just waiting for you to have your second birth.

So there's nothing to be frightened of anyone. And also about Gurus, you shouldn't quarrel with Me. If your Guru is all right, I will Myself write a nice letter to him. But if he is not all right, he has ruined your Kuṇḍalinī, he's ruined your Āgñyā, he's ruined your Chakras, then I have to tell you that something wrong with the fellow, because you do not know. Supposing there's a policeman, he comes to your house and he says there has been a thief in your house. Do you get angry with the policeman? In the same way you should not be angry with Me, because if your Guru is a real Guru, sat Guru, then I would really worship that man, I'll be really happy; but I have yet to come across, they are very few, very, very few.

So what's the use of being identified with your Guru? He never gave you your powers, he was just showing off his own powers and was promising you that today you'll become a frog, tomorrow you'll become a bird and third day you'll become a fish and then amoeba, I think. You'll end up as amoeba, I believe!

Sahaja Yogini: [comment].

Shri Mataji: Otherwise they, she's saying, another thing they can tell you: if they don't give you anything, they've taken away all your money and everything, that you must, you see, you must detach yourself from your money, your family, “Send your wife over to me, I'll look after your wife, you be detached, you see. Give me all your money, everything very nicely'", still she's saying that.

Then also you say that “Still, sir, I have given you everything, still I haven't got it." So they'll say, “Now you go to Himālayas. Otherwise that's the reason, you'd better go to Himālayas.

Give me your palatial building, I'll live here very nicely. Give all the money that you have and you go to the Himālayas. And you'll be an unmarried man, that's a better, you'd better divorce your wife. You see, she's the one who is standing in your way." And he sends you to Himālayas to freeze there and to die.

Sahaja Yogini: [comments further].

Shri Mataji: She says, “Where is the pure person?"... She says, “Among ten thousand, You are the only one." No, even if they are not pure, they should not be sinister. You are much greater people than they are, because you are not realised, you do not propagate anything, you do not preach anything.

These are not realised, nothing, they have no authority. They have nicely have their flags on and they are collecting money. Fundraisers! All right, put your hands towards Me again. Take out your sock, socks. Now, it's all right. Put both the feet like this, put your hands like that.

[Aside:] You want some water? Close your eyes, please close your eyes. Now, the first thing that happens is if you watch your thoughts, there is no thought in your mind. That means it has crossed the Āgñyā.

Sahaja Yogis must go in a chain. All of you hold each other's hands, all of you each other's hands you hold. Not you, not, the people who are realised already, who are. You just hold each other's hands, that's all. Put your hands like that, yes.

Close your eyes please, all of you. Please close your eyes. Are you getting Cool Breeze in the hand? No. Yes, close your eyes, it will work out. It has to work out, is the point. It will work out, you just don't worry.

Some of the Sahaja Yogis are getting more on the right, I think, less on the left hand. Should put their left hand towards Me, right hand up, in case such a situation is there.

Feeling something? Hot. It's all right.

[UNCLEAR] make straight, straight neck. Make it straight. Not it will, backwards, just make it straightforward [UNCLEAR]. Those who have come for the first time, those who are getting Cool Breeze raise your hands. In the hand. If you are getting Cool Breeze in the hand. Good. Both the hands? Very good. Please put down your hands. Left, left, not right so much. Right hand is the problem, what's the problem? Right hand is it? Alright, where is your father? Do you write to him quote often? No? Now you promise Me that you'll go and write to him a letter. Alright? Just promise. Put your left hand on here, yes and now you promise, put your right hand towards Me.

What are these rings you are wearing? Better take them out, is better thing. Is to take them out for the time being. And also your kala take it out for a while. Just for five minutes. You are getting something cool in the hand? Nothing so far? This gentleman here, are you getting any cool? There only, not in the fingers. It will work out, it will work out. What is he catching? Just see. Tell Me. Viśhuddhi. You are smoking something? Viśhuddhi is very catching. Now can you take out? No, it's alright, forget it. Forget it now, let's see. Alright, it's alright. [Hindi.] That also. Accha. Better cut it out.

Alright, put your hands towards Me. Put your hand, left hand, here. Since when are you getting this spasm? Since you have come to this country? Alright, just push it like that. Still Viśhuddhi's there, is it? Just come here Marcus, come. Just work out his Viśhuddhi. [Sighs.] This is his Āgñyā and this and that.

Now, have you been to any Guru or someone? [Aside:] Just Viśhuddhi's here... Viśhuddhi...

No? For this, but not to any Guru as such.

She's great, I tell you, she was teaching Me, She was telling Me that Nābhīs are catching on both the sides. And what about [UNCLEAR] what are the Chakras catching? You've been to some Guru? No one.

Have you been smoking? You too smoking. Are you alright? Are you getting Cool Breeze in the hand? Are you relaxed? Keep your eyes shut, it's the greatest thing that can happen to anyone, just keep your eyes shut. What about you? In both the hands you are now getting? Both the hands? Nicely. Good.

What's your name? What's your name please? Nick. What country you belong to? Cyprus. Cyprus obviously [UNCLEAR].

And this lady comes from what country? England. Great. From which part? Answer: Essex.

Shri Mataji: Very good. You have not gone to any Guru or anyone I believe. That's good.

So what do you do? You are a housewife? Lady: Psychology.

Shri Mataji: Still I must say you have maintained yourself very well. Otherwise when the psychologists come here I have such a problem with them. They are themselves suffering from psychology.

[To a child:] Yes, come here, come, come, come to Me.

Let him feel the Chakras which is catching. Are you better now? Not yet. Viśhuddhi... Are you alright? Freddy? Getting it? Good. What's it? Left. Did you go to any Guru? No one.

Smoking you also? Not much. Put your hands there and one hand outside, just see. One hand outside like this. Good. [Hindi.] Better. Viśhuddhi is terrible. Good. Are you better now? Starting. Got it. Better now? It's improving. Yes. It will work out, it will work out. What have you been smoking? Something wrong? Hashish. [UNCLEAR].

He feels the vibrations [UNCLEAR]. Heart. Now, Nābhī. Left. Now how is it? How is your brother now Mark? He is out of intensive now? Then it's alright. Better. How do you find the gentleman sitting before you, just see, here. And the lady there. They're alright. Do you live in London? Essex. You have come all the way from Essex today? Oh, I see. In this London university? Oh I see, I see. Now, is better now? This gentleman, are you better? Anything whatsoever, nothing. Warm still. Alright, let it pass out.

What about him? Much better now. Alright, good. Just see him, let's try. Still left, left Viśhuddhi. Left, here is left. You are the one who has really helped Me the most of all, I tell you.

So bring your friends also with you. What about her? He feels right Heart, let's help him.

Shri Mataji: Go and ask him to ask the question about Śhrī Rāma.

Are there new people? Have they got realisation? Warm. Put the left to the right, you'll be all right.

Who'll come, who... These two are realised Souls, aren't they? So they must, they must come and see here, you see, come and see things there, come along, one or two, come along. Come along, come along.

Put yourself into bandhan [Laughs.] Now come along, make effort, yesterday you asked Me that, come along, make some efforts now. With this gentleman first of all. Alright, try on her. She too had hashish so better try on somebody else. Now you don't do on that. What about you? Come along. What's...

Don, allow these people to work on you. Come along, you, come along there. Be careful Don. Work on her, those people who have not had hashish.

Marcus had hashish [laughter, She laughs].

Oh I see, so did you smoke cigarettes? Ah, you too. Cigarettes and hashish. What else? That's all? No, you have been smoking cigarettes and hashish. Both you have smoked. Both have today also, before just coming before here. Constantly. Alright, you put him left to the right, all of you, come along. You'll be alright. Once you'll find your Self you won't smoke, at all. You'll enjoy your Self [UNCLEAR]. You all go up to the, you see, this place.

Sahaja Yogi: [says that a lady's father died.]

Shri Mataji: Tell her to tell her father... she has to tell the father that he shouldn't worry about her. Did you ask the question? Did you ask the question? Now are you better? Not feeling much in the hands. Alright. Still. Alright, just come, alright? [Hindi. Then probably to a child:] Sit down, sit down, sit down, sit down. Yes? Good. Better now? Now rub My foot.

Now let's see. Yes, rub it. Rub it hard. Really hard. Rub it hard. Hard. With your fingers. Hard. You too. Press with both the hands, press with both the hands. Void is caught, catching, Void, Void catches with this one, the left Void.

Ah! Are you relaxing now?

Seeker: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Very well.

Seeker: [says he is feeling suspicious].

Shri Mataji: You are suspicious of?

Seeker: And frightened.

Shri Mataji: Suspicious and?

Seeker: And frightened.

Shri Mataji: Frightened of whom?

Seeker: You.

Shri Mataji: Me? Why? I am not as bad as hashish is! Why are you frightened of Me?

Seeker: I had another Guru.

Shri Mataji: Who is he?

Seeker: Mahārāji.

Shri Mataji: Who's Mahārāji this... you were not suspicious of him?

Seeker: I'm suspicious and over it.

Shri Mataji: That's correct, that's good, that's very good.

Seeker: It's good to be suspicious of everybody.

Shri Mataji: No, no. You must know who is the right and who is the wrong type. If you are sensitive you will know yourself. What do you expect is to get your own powers, isn't it? To become your Self, that's what should help you, not all other tricks of giving experiences and this and that. You have to become your Self. Isn't it? Like all others said.

Now, there's nothing to be suspicious about. I have not taken any money from you, nothing.

Nothing selling here. See? Alright? Now, you are asking for something great, something Self-realisation I am talking about, no experiences, it's Self-realisation. Yes? Now rub it on the Void, here. [UNCLEAR].

Better now she? Āgñyā? She's never been to a Guru she said.

You did some Prāṇāyāma also? Prāṇāyāma? Breathing?

Seeker: Breathing, yes.

Shri Mataji [to a child]: Just see, just see! Is he alright? Is he alright? Really? Where is the problem? Come, come, tell Me.

Sahaja Yogi: Sahasrāra catching.

Shri Mataji: He said I'm doubting. Suspicious.

Sahaja Yogi: Sahasrāra, heart.

Shri Mataji: Heart also. Hold your breath. Good. Again hold your breath, hold your breath.

Sahaja Yogi: The Suṣhumnā has a hole... doesn't flow. Hole? How long were you his disciple?

Seeker: Four, five years.

Shri Mataji: And what did you get out of him? What did you get? Nothing.

Seeker: I never mistrusted him. I still don't completely mistrust him.

Shri Mataji: You do not mistrust him.

Seeker: No, because I don't know if he has done any harm and I don't know if he does any harm.

Shri Mataji: He hasn't said anything about hashish and cigarettes and why you...

Seeker: Yes, he said I shouldn't, it's since when I was first his devotee I didn't smoke.

Shri Mataji: Now you started smoking after becoming his devotee.

So this is the achievement.

See, if you have found your Self, [UNCLEAR] you enjoy your Self, your Self so much, alright? That you just don't run away from your Self, minimum of minimum, that should happen to you.

Sahaja Yogi: Mūlādhāra... And His Kuṇḍalinī doesn't move.

Shri Mataji: Doesn't move?

Seeker: No, I can't feel any movement, sorry.

See. This Raktabīja's...

Contents: 1979-10-29*, Public Program, Knowledge of the Divine, Caxton Hall, London, UK

(other date 10-28) Every time I face the new people I have to give an introductory talk and Sahaja Yogis get sometimes impatient about it. But we have to understand that this is the knowledge of the Divine. And those who have not known about it are to be told. And those who have known should know that there are many things they have not known, which they have to know. Still there is a lot to be known.

Supposing I tell you all about it and you do not get your realisation, you do not get your Yoga, you do not get your connection with the Divine, then it is useless. Talk will remain talk. You may verify it; you may find it the same written in many scriptures. Many saints have told you the same thing, it has no use.

The knowledge, Gñyāna, is useless without Yoga, without the union with the Divine.

When you get the Yoga, also, when you are realised, you get your realisation and I do not give you the knowledge, then your realisation is also useless. I've seen in this great country many realised Souls are born. They live as realised Souls, they don't know what are they, they act as spiritualists, they call themselves, whatever people call them. But they are not aware that they are realised Souls! They commit mistakes, they go onto wrong paths, get confused about their realisation.

So, it is necessary also to know what have they got, what does it mean, how to use it, how to go ahead with it and how to develop.

Many people who have been here in this hall have got realisation. Once they get realisation they feel so satisfied about it that they just don't come next time. And sometimes, after a year or two years they appear saying that “Mother, we are again lost." So, to get realisation is the most important thing, absolutely important. Because if you do not start your car, you do not move. You go on describing everything: that now here we are on Leicester Square, now we are here, but you are not there, you're just talking. The car has to move first, has to start and when the car has started then you must also know the roads, how to go. Then the car starts and bumps into something, then you feel `what has happened? Our car has started!' So, these are two things: one is the Yoga, is the realisation, true awakening of your Kuṇḍalinī and the another is the Gñyāna, which is the part which gives you complete knowledge and mastery over your powers. For example, you go to a house and the lady gives you the keys, “All right this is your house, you use it as you like it." Say, I come to England and somebody gives Me the keys. I don't know how to use your washing machine! And I don't know how to use the oven! Though she has given Me the keys, I have entered into it; I should know how to use it. I should know also what are the don'ts and what are the dos.

Before entering into the house, what's the use of knowing, also? Of course, it may help you, if you have little knowledge about it. But you cannot practice anything because you have not entered inside it. The machinery is not before you, you are not facing it.

So, in Sahaja Yoga one has to first get into Self-realised state and then should know thoroughly how to use that state or how to be in that state, how to manifest it, improve it and stabilize it. For this you cannot go into courses, that is for definite. Should we do fourteen courses outside, has nothing to do with Sahaja Yoga. You have to get the keys.

Secondly, you cannot pay any money for it. You cannot purchase it. It is very difficult for human beings to understand this part: that you cannot pay for it. That is one place where you cannot pay and purchase. It is not that you are going to judge the Sahaja Yoga, but Sahaja Yoga is going to judge you.

It's just the other way round. It is not that you are going to purchase Sahaja Yoga, but Sahaja Yoga has to purchase you and has to accept you. It is very easy to do any other nonsense, just you pay the money and you are there enrolled permanently. You become the member of any group, very easy. And you can club together and be satisfied, “Oh, we are this and that." You can bind yourself as anything but not as Sahaja Yogis unless and until you have got it. It is that essential, that authentic, that intrinsic, that innate, that you have to be that. You can be an Englishman if you get a British passport. You can be a director anywhere if you can qualify for that. But you cannot be a Sahaja Yogi by doing thing, any, anything that you have been doing to achieve for worldly things or worldly positions, worldly possessions.

We see so many such phenomenas in our life. Like we cannot see or cannot manoeuvre, cannot do: a flower manifest into a fruit; as we cannot germinate a seed, we cannot do this living thing, which has to be done by Divine Power and not by human power. Once you get it, the Divine Power starts flowing through you, then you can also charge the dynamo. There is no false certificate that can be given. You may be having a son who is not realised, you may stand on your head or do whatever you please, you just cannot certify unless and until he has got it. It is such a strange thing, so unique. But do you know this is what you are seeking? The rest of the things can be sought. This is the thing which can only be requested for, to be prayed for, to be asked for. You cannot demand it, only the grace of God can work it out.

Today I happened to read Bible, part of it and I was amazed how John has revealed so many things about Chakras and this, but of course, in a very mystic language. He calls Chakras as the plug in his genius and the deities as the angels. He has also described the realisation. It is so wonderful to read it, but only after realisation you'll understand, because it's a very, very deep writing and you cannot read much from it, mystical, sounding vague words.

Now, we are here to seek ourselves. Everybody is floating an enterprise like that, everybody is saying, “Oh, we are here to help you to seek yourself." I may be one of them, too. Why should you believe Me, in any case? The first thought that will come into your mind is, `Why should we believe Mātājī?' You'll believe in Me blindly, it is not going to help Me at all. Neither it is going to help Me, if you are going to deny. Like a scientist, just keep your eyes open. Keep your mind open. Because this is what you are seeking, not in this lifetime, you have been seeking for ages. And unless and until you get it, you are not going to be satisfied; you are not going to find your fulfilment. This has to happen to you.

I don't know how far Gavin has been able to explain to you what to expect out of Sahaja Yoga. But it is the actualisation of this experience I'm talking about, which has to work out.

Here you see they have drawn a human being as he exists with his Divine instrument within himself.

These are the patterns of the energies which are undercurrent of the sympathetic and parasympathetic nervous system. The sympathetic nervous system is managed by two channels within us: one, on the left hand side you see with the blue line, is the power to desire, is called as kriya Shakti. And the another one, on the right hand side, with the yellow line, is the power to act, which is called as the kriya Shakti, the first one is called as the ichcha Shakti. First, one has to desire and then he acts and these two powers exist within us as left and right sympathetic nervous system, which doctors can see outside the spinal cord, but this is inside the spinal cord and inside the cranial bones, inside the brain as you can see it there.

These all can be related to the gross nervous system that doctors can see, but they are subtle energies within us. The one which runs on the left hand side is connected with the seventh Chakras down below or you can call it the first Chakra. This gives us desire to live and also desire to die. All desires gives us emotions, it gives us existence and when we deny our existence, then it gives us death. The other one is the power of action for which we use our physical being and our mental being.

So, this represents our physical and mental being.

The central one is called as the path of knowledge, Gñyāna Shakti. But the knowledge we know of is very different from the knowledge I'm talking about; I mean the subjective knowledge that we have achieved as human beings through our evolution. For example, a human being is much higher in his awareness than the animal. His awareness is a thing that he has achieved through his evolution, which is built in you, which acts subjectively. For example, supposing you take a rose flower, you know it is a rose flower and you enjoy it. But for an animal, it makes no difference whether it is filth or a garden, it can pass through it most unawares.

So your Gñyāna Shakti, means your awareness or your knowledge, knowledge that is awareness. Human awareness is developed to a point and still has to develop more, has to manifest more. It has to have another dimension, because of a certain gap in between. You can see the central line; this green gap gives you the Void, gives you an awareness which is not yet complete. The completion of human awareness can only be achieved if he reaches the absolute point. Supposing you have not reached the absolute point, then whatever you are talking is relative. Relative to relative creates confusion.

So, the idea of righteousness, idea of holiness, idea of sin, everything is relative.

You have to reach that absolute point by which you judge whether it is holiness or not, whether it is sinful or not. That we have to reach, that absolute point is within us, placed in our heart, which is called as the Spirit and is the reflection of God Almighty. In Sanskrit language it is called as Ātmā. That Spirit resides within us, it watches all our activities, it knows everything about us and it informs the lowest Chakra there, which records everything that we do, all our conditionings, all our ego trips, to that three and a half-coiled energy, which we call as Kuṇḍalinī. Kundalan means coils. This is the Kuṇḍalinī as called as the Serpent Power.

Now, horrible things have been said and written about Kuṇḍalinī. I read, I mean when I even heard about it, I was really shocked, the naive description of it! I've always said that it is like a villager going in the city and putting both the hands into the plug and saying that electricity I know, don't tell me about it. See what happens, it gives you a shock and you just fall back and you break your neck.

Those who do not know about Kuṇḍalinī have written about Kuṇḍalinī because this is the only area where nobody can control you. You can write anything about God, against God or do whatever you please, who can check you? There is no law which forbids. You can write about Kuṇḍalinī whatever you feel like.

She is your Mother. She has been born with you several times. She is the one who is going to give you realisation and do you think your Kuṇḍalinī is going to harm you by any chance? Is going to torture you, is going to trouble you? And if you have to achieve the highest through the Divine Love of God, is it going to be torture some? Did you get this nose and these eyes and mouth and everything that you have as a human being out of some tortures? You never even felt how it has happened! How gentle it is, how kind it is! It is your Mother who is sitting there waiting for a moment to rise. Now the whole thing sounds very poetic to a scientific mind. But poetry is also part of human beings. If it sounds poetic, it is the poetic work, of the Kuṇḍalinī. God is not only science; he is also love, beauty. He is not only dry truth, he is also joy. He is joy: he is joy, because he is truth, he is truth because he is beauty.

So, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises within you through these six centers that are shown here, it pierces this area, which is called as the fontanelle bone and gives you Self-realisation. This is called as baptism. You cannot go to a theological college and become a Baptist. Nobody can brand you a Baptist. You have to be realised. This fontanelle bone area has to be pierced through by the Kuṇḍalinī, then only you become one with the All-pervading Power, with that subtle power, it has to happen; this germination has to take place within you. You are still at a seed stage and just by branding a seed you do not become a tree.

So, it has to happen within us and has to happen beautifully and spontaneously because it is a living process of evolution. We have evolved into human beings from amoeba; nobody has done anything about it. And we are not going to do anything about becoming that for which we are made.

Somebody who has created this machinery is going to put you through to the mains if he wants to use it. But in between there's a little problem. Everything was ready, just perfect; just to be connected to the mains. But, the instrument was given the freedom to choose.

That is important for evolution, very important that you should be given the freedom, a complete freedom to choose whether it is right or wrong. Nobody can force that onto you. In all your freedom you have to choose whether you want to enter into the kingdom of God or not. Nobody going to force you there, to enter. It has to be your desire, it has to be your asking and for that, freedom has been given. To use these two powers of your desire and of your action which gives you the idea of your accelerator and of your brake, to know how to drive your own car, so that the master behind it hands over the keys to you and car to you.

It was necessary for you to learn these two powers to be managed, but in your freedom and in understanding yourself, you have committed mistakes: you have bumped your cars too much. It was said that keep in the center. Do not go too much left or to the right or you'll get into bumps. Either you went into the left or to the right. And when you try to correct your right you went into the left, to another extreme, to correct to the left you went to the right. By going to the extremes you'll be bumping your car. And this is exactly what has happened to us. Doesn't matter; the car has to be repaired, it has to be done.

Little patience can work it out. There's nothing to get annoyed with oneself.

When the car starts it goes free fast. Then you should know how to slow it down, how to organize it.

Then you have to become the authority yourself of discrimination. I don't have to tell you that this is not good or that is not good. How is it possible? Because you become one with the Divine, you become one with the primordial Being, with the great Being, with the Akbar. And you start acting according to that.

Just is a subjective manifestation of your awareness takes place by which you understand what's wrong with you and what's wrong with others.

It is so precise and correct, you just feel on your hands, on your fingers as shown: all the centers that are within you, which are created out of different elements, immediately you know what is in imbalance, what is more, what is less, left is more or right is more, what is wrong with you. Even a born-realised child[ren]s of two years who can talk, can tell you what's wrong, because subjective, you start feeling it: this is happening, that is happening.

All this understanding comes to you, because it is Self-knowledge. But when you know about yourself you also know about others, because you jump into collective consciousness. You jump into, I say, you become collectively conscious. It is not, I say, `We are all brothers and sisters,' you see. Have United Nations for it. And use it for giving jobs to everyone. It's not that way. It's an actualisation that takes place: you just become, jolly well you'll have to feel it. You cannot get rid of it, it becomes your awareness.

You just feel it and that's how you correct it. Everybody is a part and parcel of that great Being: as this finger can feel this finger and as when it is hurt this finger goes to sooth it, in the same way the whole is more important than individual.

So when we are seeking our wholesomeness we have to know only through Self-realisation by becoming one with the Self, you are going to get it.

Talks, talks, talks, we have had many. Let's have the real and get it. You cannot argue about it, it happens. Specially in this country, I've seen, because you are great thinkers and analyzers, everything you try to analyze. But this is beyond your thinking; you go beyond your rationality. Because rationality is limited and you have to be triggered into something unlimited, so you have to leave that. You have to go into that space; you cannot explain it by thinking. But then, when it starts flowing through you, you use your rationality to understand `why this finger is burning?' it is decoded in Sahaja Yoga, all the knowledge.

In Sahaja Yoga you know all the decoding of all the signals you get from the Absolute. Your computer starts working. But who has to decode the computer and the numbers? All that is explained; that is what you have to learn, that is known as Gñyāna.

After realisation what one has to do? Also point comes up sometimes. Supposing, I have enlightened this one, what have we to do? Is to give light. What a question! When you are enlightened, after enlightenment what do you do? Is to give light, that's all. That's your job, is to give light. But how to manoeuvre it, how to organize it, that's the thing you have to learn. For which I'm willing to work very hard. And everything that I say, you have to verify it and you have to see for yourself. After realisation, if you start doubting, we had people who started doubting. What are you doubting here? I don't want anything from you. I'm sitting here just to give, not to take anything, then what are you doubting about? They start doubting and the progress is much less. But some people are of very high calibre in this country.

Are of a very great high calibre and once they get it, they just get it like that.

In [UNCLEAR] there was one gentleman who went to someone and was ditched and deceived and absolutely was looted. He just saw My photograph. There are, Gavin himself has got his realisation only through My photograph. There are many here who have got it through My photograph only. But they are people of calibre.

So, I said that Sahaja Yoga is going to judge you and you are not going to judge Sahaja Yoga, you cannot. You cannot measure it. It is an ocean. Just enjoy it and be your self. It's a gift which you have been asking, so just take it. It's absolutely free, you cannot pay it and don't think on these hopeless worldly ways. It is love of God, the grace of God, which one has to receive. Just enjoy it.

Just have it. That's what it is and we should work it out.

Now I have a system, specially in these countries, that people can ask Me questions. But it happened like that that questions were asked by extremely negative people mostly. I would answer them; they would take everybody's time who were anxious to have realisation. And then just as soon as we started, `all right let's have the realisation', the person would get up and go away. It's common practice. The person is not at all interested in Self-realisation, seems to be more interested in question. I thought if you give more chance to a person who is negative and useless than to people who really want realisation. Now, if there is a question, I still would like you to ask Me, no doubt. But be sensible and considerate.

Thank you very much.

May God bless you all.

Be considerate when you ask a question, but ask. It's nice to ask, you know, because I have no questions, that's the problem. Not to fear, please ask the question.

Lady: Have a question.

Shri Mataji: You have been always asking, I am not going to allow this time. She is useless. You asked Me.

Somebody else should ask Me. Her questions are always like that, has no meaning. You'd better get your realisation, perfected. Anybody else? Ask. She's been every time asking questions, but you don't want to perfect your realisation. You must perfect your realisation. Yes, ask Me, loudly.

Question: I'll try not to be negative, but I tried to come to organizations and I searched quite a lot.

Shri Mataji: I can see that.

Question: Of different organizations...

Shri Mataji: All right.

Question:... and always I come to the same question that people who are interested in truth, how could they come to such an organization as Yours?

Shri Mataji: I have no organization. We have no membership. This is not an organization.

Question: But...

Shri Mataji: Now, I'm very happy that... Please, sit down, all right? I know. He is a seeker; he has been to many organizations. There has to be. It is written already in the Bible, there have to be many like these, you see, coming up. All right? But first of all, I've requested you that here we are not selling anything, to begin with. We are not selling, nor are we going to loose in any case. Maybe, your ego a little bit, maybe. Because we are identified with our ego, we think our self is our ego, you see which may not be pampered also, as in another organization. I've been, seen people who are very honest, they go to other organizations and they find that only their ego is pampered and their pockets have been vacated.

No, that's not here. Now, I also do not guarantee that you will get your realisation definitely. It's like germination. If it works, I'll be the happiest person and you'll be the happiest. If it doesn't work, please come again, we'll work out.

So, again if you have started judging about it, it won't work out. There are fifty per cent people here who are realised people and they know your problems. They haven't given Me a single pie; nothing! But if you come here, you have come in your own right, because you are a seeker and I respect you for that and I love you for that. And I'm here for you. Not in London, I didn't come to London for that, I came by chance. You know that My husband was appointed here to this U.N. thing, he was elected and I had to come here. But also this is God's desire that I should be with you because there are so many seekers! So, I'm with you here.

If you have been to many organizations and many thugs also, I must tell you very, very frankly that you'll have problems much more than anybody else will have. It's going to be difficult to give you realisation, because all these organizations do spoil your Kuṇḍalinī and your Chakras. I've yet to meet one organization which doesn't spoil. Except for, there are some real people who live in the forests and they have disciples. But I can make them out: if they are coming from the real Gurus, I immediately know.

But no organization, so far, I have known, who has even kept your instrument intact. They have spoilt your Āgñyā; they have spoilt other centers, which are so vital, just to get some money out of you. I don't know why they have done it.

I know you are tired of seeking, but no more you should repent about it. But if you have been to other Gurus, you must tell us, because we have problems correcting you. Even if you read the books, even if you just think of them or even if you have a photograph, it acts negatively. It's a problem.

So, I request you to let us know if you have been to any Guru. I wish I could tell you the experiences we have had how people who went to other Gurus and there were things that we had to correct. And most of the Sahaja Yogis are here who have been, at least half of them or most of them have been to some Gurus somewhere and have known this, that there is a problem. Doesn't matter; if your Kuṇḍalinī is preserved even by them, I'll be very thankful.

All right? Correct now? So, should we start now? Let us see how it works out? Now, put your hands like this.

One has to be extremely positive after realisation, about it. If you go down, you'll move very slow: it is like three paces forward and two paces backwards. When you will reach? You'll never reach. Before that, I do not ask for anything. But after that you have to do it. Secondly, when you put your hands towards Me, as shown there, all these fingers have got the centers, the Chakras dormantly placed on these fingers: one, two, three, four, five, six and seven, on the left, on the right: left sympathetic and right sympathetic.

So, when you are placing towards Me, like as you place towards this one, it radiates heat. In the same way, I radiate this Divine Love. You will also radiate when you'll be realised, when you'll be enlightened.

So, when you put your hands towards Me you take this radiation within yourself.

It goes within yourself onto these: there are two very important Chakras, which work it down on your these two lines and inform the Kuṇḍalinī through the lower Chakra to rise. And you can see with your naked eyes the pulsation of Kuṇḍalinī in some people, who's this Chakra is catching, with naked eyes you can see. You can see the even rising of the Kuṇḍalinī. If you have the stethoscope you can feel the throbbing going up. When it reaches here, it throbs here and then it stops. That is the time you are realised. But some people have lots of imbalances. Now, how do we remove them, imbalances are? Supposing, the ego is too much on this side, there is no space here.

So, you have to push down the ego. If the superego is too much, you have to push down the superego.

So, those who are realised people, also radiate this, this Divine Love, this integrated force of vital energies and there, through their vibrations manoeuvre it by giving these radiations, they take it down.

You can also do it. You have to learn only that. And then they raise the Kuṇḍalinī, so the Kuṇḍalinī starts. If there is an obstruction you can see the Kuṇḍalinī going there. For example, somebody has a liver trouble. You can see the Kuṇḍalinī going there and throbbing. If you have, say, the kidneys trouble, the Kuṇḍalinī will go there; poor thing will supply to the kidneys and then come up. That's why the first thing that will happen to is that physically you will be cured. We have definitely cured cancer. The president of India was suffering from cancer, was cured by Me. If you want you can write to him and ask.

Cancer can only be cured by Sahaja Yoga, by nothing else, is also another fact. But doesn't matter; don't get too frightened about it.

Just now, let us have the Kuṇḍalinī moving. Let us see if it starts. It has to start. By anything you cannot do it. Only through Divine radiation you can do it. But I've seen horrible Kuṇḍalinīs; I've seen doing this work. People are not aware of it: what we have done to harm ourselves? People are not aware and that's why sometimes it takes time, doesn't matter. As I have patience and love for you, please have patience for yourself because you are a seeker. You are a seeker of truth and that's why I'm here.

Now please put your hands like this close your eyes. And you have to put your feet on the ground.

The reason is that the Mother Earth sucks in lots of our problems. Now the people who are realised also can help Me, they are just like My hands. You have to also become My hands. But when they move their hands and all that you are not to get frightened of them. They are the people who are salvaging! They have to help you. If they know swimming they have to fetch you to the shores. They have to extend their hands to you. Don't be frightened of them. Come on the shores and you are going to do the same thing.

There is nothing to be frightened, we are not going to do anything, might be, they might feel, if you are realised or not.

So, just put your hands like this.

Now, you have to close your eyes. Close your eyes, please. But some cannot close their eyes because the eyelids will flicker.

So, please open your eyes, in that case. If your eyes can be easily closed without any flickering, then keep them closed, that's a very good sign.

Now, if you feel anything like little shaking in the hands or anything like that, then open your eyes.

Nothing extra should happen. If it happens, then open your eyes. Even if you feel heat in the hand, you will not feel much, but if you feel slightly even, which you think is little unbearable, then open your eyes.

When you close your eyes, most of you will find you have no thoughts in your mind already. This is called as Nirvichara Samādhi, is called as thoughtless awareness. If this Samādhi, if this state is achieved after thousands of years of meditation, as they say, is the most difficult thing, I agreed. But there could be someone for whom this could be only just a play.

Contents: 1979-11-11 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, The Meaning of Yoga (Sahaja Yoga the Mahā Yoga), Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

`Saha' means with; `Ja' means born, Sahaja, is something that is born with you, that is innately built in you that sprouts by itself in you, which manifests itself. Like you can see a seed sprouting into a tree. This is what is Sahaja.

Now all other Yogas, which go along with it are part and parcel of Sahaja Yoga. They cannot be separated from this Yoga. I think the people have misunderstood that there are four limbs of Yoga.

That would be a misunderstanding as to think that they are separate or different. When we say that we have eaten this food, it does not mean that like a bolt it has gone inside the body and passed out of the body like a bolt coming out. Does it? It means that you tasted the food in your mouth; it means that it has secreted some saliva in the mouth, later on, it has passed through the trachea, esophagus, going down into the stomach part and then to the intestines and then to the larger intestines. All this movement along this passage is done through the other kind of the movement which is existing in the organs itself like the stomach itself pushing it down, coming from your brain. The sympathetic and parasympathetic coming into play and working it out. It is a big system and the organization that is working it out.

Now if you want to separate it; that the digestive system is different, the respiratory system is different and your heart system is different, other brain system or nervous system is different, I mean you can't take it out like that, your brain hanging on one side and your digestive system hanging on the other. It is one integrated form of organization which is a living organization, which understands each other, which reacts to the demands. You cannot separate the system, but as it is, our brains are so disintegrated or they are good at that disintegrating everything within us and without that we want to disintegrate the living thing which is Yoga.

Yoga is not a dead organization. It is a living process. Absolutely a living process. When it is a living process, you cannot do anything about it.

So it is Sahaja. At the most you can shift it a little bit and push it here or there, push it around and all that. If a tree is coming up, like in Japan and they will like to give it a shape, then they will cut branch first and bend it a little more another one and bend it this way, that way and give it a shape. But whatever is living is working out spontaneously within us with many complicated organizations which are living themselves and are aware of what they are doing. For example your body is much more aware of Me than your rationality. Say, you are a possessed person. You won't accept that you are a possessed person. I won't say Myself also because I don't want to get very kind of thing which is in stock there. I know human beings, that if you tell them something like that you could be out for any sort of trouble.

So I don't tell you. But the body knows Me and when you come before Me, the whole body shakes. Because it is a living body, it knows Me, it is not a dead body.

So whatever is living, is so well looked after, so well organized and in a living way which we do not understand because we deal with the dead. Suppose I have to start this instrument then I have to know that there must be a cord that I have to put to the mains. I always say that Sahaja Yoga is like that; you take out your cord and put it to the mains. But do you think it is that simple? You believe that? That you just pull out the Kuṇḍalinī and put to the mains? No, it is not. When the sprouting of the Kuṇḍalinī starts, when awakening starts it passes through the various centers. How will you explain the Kuṇḍalinī which is at the base of your spinal cord rising upward? Now, If I tell you that this is even more complicated than your digestive system, that the Kuṇḍalinī which is an energy as we call it and which thinks, understands and loves you and knows each and everything about you in this life and lives before.

If she is so capable, she knows everything then she is entity by itself. And if it has to come up to your head, is it easy? It is the most difficult thing. If you have a stone lying somewhere, you can pick it up and throw it anywhere you like. Even if there is a little worm it knows how to get out of the way of a big bull coming round. And if a bull, if it sits somewhere, impossible to raise it. You try your level best. There are some very drastic methods for that in India. You have to burn some red chilies and put that smoke in the nose of the bull, like that. Then only the bull will rise. Otherwise you try anything it won't rise. It will be settling itself nicely on the ground.

So you come across such bulls also.

Sometimes it happens like that. But to make this Kuṇḍalinī, which thinks, which understands, is the individual mother of an individual which has been born with you all the time, who knows all about you and who loves you most and She is `the one who is going to give you the realisation, your second birth. She is your mother.' This kind of a Kuṇḍalinī that exists within us must be the most difficult person to rise. Has to be. That is why people say, Kuṇḍalinī raising is very difficult.

So one has to find the methods of how to make the bull rise. Because this Kuṇḍalinī is `absolute Dharma' righteousness, absolute purity, ideal-most personality that you could think of, which does not tolerate any nonsense.

She is Nirmalā you can call Her. She is Purity personified. She does not accept any nonsense, no compromise She is within you. See how beautiful you are. She is not afraid of anyone, cannot be enticed, enchanted or tempted by anything. She Loves but Her Love is that pure that nothing is higher for Her than her own love. She cannot reconcile to anything. And she is the one who is going to give you your Self-realisation.

So, for human beings who desire to raise Kuṇḍalinī, they have to find out methods of pleasing Her.

What makes Her so unhappy? Why doesn't She rise? They have to find out the means and methods. And as a result of that probe has brought forth other Yogas, which we call as Rāj Yoga or they call it as Haṭha Yoga, or the third one they call as Kriya Yoga, I think Kriya and Rāj is about the same and Bhakti Yoga and Gñyān Yoga and Karma Yoga. All these are the methods human beings want to employ to make the bull rise. When they get frustrated, they want to hang themselves by the nearest tree.

So, that also is another frustrated Yoga. Then Sadistic Yoga, then beating Yogas, then beating others Yogas then it goes on like that, you see, flowering into better and better things. Then fanaticism, because human beings find it difficult to sit still they get a challenge. `Oh this bull does not rise, I will make it rise.' Moreover they haven't got the authority. Even those who are Self-realised they have no knowledge because Kuṇḍalinī is not made by them. Like, even if I get this machinery, I do not know how to handle it, how to use it? I may try but I may burn my hands instead. Such a hotch potch of endeavour brings forth so many Yogas in this world. And everybody is baffled at it that how it is that there are so many Yogas and this Yoga and that Yoga and Buddha or Mahāvīr or Christ. Then Church Yoga “And what is wrong in witchcraft?" somebody said the other day. Nothing wrong but the bull will settle down better, it won't rise then.

Now, so they have tried to find out what should we do? Stand on your heads, bull won't rise, it won't.

So what should we do? We should know what is the Kuṇḍalinī that is within us. All these Yogas that have come up, have been depicted from the experiences of people. Because some people when they try to raise the Kuṇḍalinī `so-called' say they started jumping. The Kuṇḍalinī does not rise.

Some people started taking off their clothes or may be some such sort of a funny thing. They felt heated up.

So people thought let us take off our clothes and we'll find God.

Some people felt some sort of a grip on the stomach or some of them did see also these things happening within.

So they called it a Moolbandha. The `bandha' has taken place, something has gripped there.

So the KriyaYoga is that, you take out your tongue from here. You cut this thread of the tongue from here and you push it back here, touch the tip of the tongue here where normally it is wagging. Push it back here at the Viśhuddhi center, they think the Viśhuddhi is here. The problem is that they think the Viśhuddhi is here.

So they push it back here. They think they will achieve the raising of Kuṇḍalinī by this. It is just the other way round, we are trying, you see. The effect cannot reach the cause.

You have to go to the root of cause to come to the effect. Did you see My point? Supposing the Viśhuddhi Chakra which is here, a very subtle center behind, is spoilt then the effects are felt, say, here.

And your tongue gets affected, your eyes get effected, your nose gets affected, your cheeks get affected, There are sixteen you see. All these can get affected. But by tickling your nose you do not touch the Viśhuddhi Chakra. Isn't it? Did you see My point? For example, something goes wrong at the center from where the electricity is coming here. By tickling it here you cannot correct that one there. You have to go to the roots. Or on a tree you find a fruit. All the fruits are getting rot.

So by treating the fruit, can you treat the disease? You'll have to go to the roots.

So these people when they saw things happening to human beings they formed different type of methods. All are wrong and all are right.

Try to understand, this is a very simple thing. After realisation all of them are right. Before realisation all of them are wrong, Before your car starts, if you start turning the wheel, or using the brake, you are spoiling the car. When the car has started and you know how to drive and you have become a master of driving, then everything is right. Otherwise the same car which has to drive you from your house to this Ashram will land to somewhere. In the same way, the same thing before realisation has no meaning. After realisation only you start understanding.

So let us take the case of Haṭha Yoga. It is based on centers, no doubt. It is based on `Īshwar Pranidhana', no doubt, all the Ashtangas, all the eight sides of Haṭha Yoga. See from human point of view, I'm saying. For them why Haṭha Yoga came into being.

It's first that they should fix their attention on Īshwara Pranidhana means they should fix the attention into the existence of God. Not blind faith. But to understand that there is God, so that you humble down yourself. Then you should go to the realised Soul as a Guru. Guru means a realised Soul minimum. Any Tom, Dick and Harry becomes a, Guru, is a nonsense absolutely. He has to be a realised Soul and if he is a realised Soul he will say like that.

He doesn't talk of separation, he talks of authority, because he is there he has that authority. Those who talk of separation and crying and weeping and woes and all that are blind like all others. They have no business to be there There is no humility about it, I mean if I have a red shawl, I should say, “I have a red shawl." What is there to feel humble about? I mean whatever you are, there is no harm in saying what you are. When you are not that, when you don't have that and you say that you have, it is arrogance. But when you are there, you have to say. That Christ said, “I am the light, I am the path." I mean he was not trying to be arrogant about it. What is there to feel bad about it? So Haṭha Yoga itself is done under a person who is a realised Soul. Not only realised but who knows. Who has mastered the art of Shakti-pat is the raising of the Kuṇḍalinī minimum. Of course Sahaja Yogis just raise it like that. It is different. But no other Yogis can do that. It is only you, because you are authorized, that you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī just like that.

So what these Haṭha Yogis have done they have boiled it down to only the physical sense.

So you have to have Īshwara pranidhana, Yama and Niyama and that too before twenty-five years of age, you have to discipline yourself in a way that you should understand, what is right and what is wrong. Now those who have done all the wrongs of the world before they are fifteen years of age, now at the age of twenty-five are trying to learn what is Yama and Niyama. How can you do it? Just tell Me now. Supposing you have spoilt the car completely. At the most you can ask for insurance, if you have paid for it. But how can you expect the car to come out absolutely new, as if it has come out from the factory? A house which is being completely mutilated cannot be renovated. Isn't it? That would be madness.

So one has to understand that these Yama and Niyamas and all these things are not meant for us. At least for the Western people, in any way.

Let us accept it whatever it is in experimentation or whatever it is we have committed lots of mistakes or may be we have been experimenting, again I'll say the same word. Whatever we have done we have done a lot of harm to ourselves, to our body and to our mind. Because we had nobody to guide us. Alright.

We didn't want to harm ourselves but by mistake it happened. Now what to do? It is a very sad affair. People are sick. They cannot do Haṭha Yoga. The atmosphere is sick. The whole place is sick. They want love, they do not want exercise. They do not want scouts. They want somebody to love them, to heal them, to cure them to establish them.

There is no word of love in Haṭha Yoga these days because you pay for it. One thing you cannot pay for is your love. How can you pay for love? And that's why this modern Haṭha Yoga is just a misnomer. But after realisation you can do Haṭha Yoga because you are purified, you are cleansed, you are healed, your wounds are alright. People are wounded, they are so much hurt. They are extremely unhappy. You touch them and feel it. Why talk about big things when they do not even have energy to sustain themselves? It is a strain on them. And none of them are realised Souls neither are they masters of Shakti-pat.

So that's why it was said, “You go to a Guru who is a realised Soul. Go into the jungles before twenty-five years of age you should be there and practice under his guidance in complete celibacy in the atmosphere of complete celibacy." Now come to Kriya Yoga. When we take to Kriya Yoga, it is taking out the tongue as I said cutting it out and putting it back here to tickle the Viśhuddhi Chakra. I mean I don't know sometimes, your rationality also goes out, I think. By doing like that do you think you can excite this great power within you, which is discrimination, which understands each and everything; you cannot be fooled by that.

So all these tricks which we have been trying by ourselves of poking yourself here and poking yourself there, we are just spoiling your instrument for nothing at all. But it happens, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises through the Viśhuddhi Chakra, that when the dilation of the Chakra takes place it happens that your tongue is pulled inside. It happens that your eyes get dilated. I hope they do not put Atropine to dilate their eyes to get their Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

So it happens like that Bandhas take place the stomach holds the Kuṇḍalinī with the Bandhas. It closes down the Chakras when the Kuṇḍalinī comes up, it closes down automatically so that the energy is kept upwards it is not allowed to fall down. All these things happen within us. These Bandhas happen which some supraconscious people might be seeing and they want to think that if you pull your stomach like this, put your tongue inside, Kuṇḍalinī is awakened These things happen as a result of Kuṇḍalinī awakening but by doing these things you do not awaken the Kuṇḍalinī. Now did you follow My point? Did you? It is clear now.

That is why these Kriya Yogas have started, this jumping has started. Even the nudity has started.

All this as a result of some people who are trying to raise the Kuṇḍalinī. Even in the center which it rises all these things happen. When your health is not alright you are sick, your heart is working, laboring very hard to look after your physical being, you try to make it even weaker by taking these strenuous things.

And by using the other way round methods, as I told you, you also spoil your instrument like the electricity has to come so the electricity must flow from there If I start blowing from here or poking from here, with frustration also breaking this one here electricity is not going to come, only this will be finished. Do you follow My clear-cut idea? It is very clear that if you are going to spoil your own instrument you are not going to get the energy to rise within you.

But one who is a realised Soul he would tell you first of all he may raise of your Kuṇḍalinī, minimum, awaken your Kuṇḍalinī and ask you to make way for the Kuṇḍalinī to rise gradually. Human beings when they raise their Kuṇḍalinī they raise it by every Chakra. They bring the Kuṇḍalinī to, say, Mūlādhāra, of course they cannot touch it. The Kuṇḍalinī would come up to, say, Nābhī at the most. Then how to keep it there so they will say, “eat less, do not take away your attention too much, you must eat very little food so that there is no much attention on food. You must be detached." This is before twenty-five years of age. “Do not starve too much. Eat at regular intervals Do not pay much attention to anywhere outside" so that the attention is kept there so the Kuṇḍalinī does not drop down from the little inch of progress it has made in twenty-five years.

They are born again and they move at the pace of an ant and they fix your Kuṇḍalinī by inches there and they say do not lead any adharmic life, you have to lead a very virtuous life, like a horse, you see, when you have to train the horse you put these two blinds around so they have to train the horse before it starts really running the race. But with this the most important is the love of the grand parents who are with them, in those days they used to be... to look after the children and the love of the Guru and the training and the discipline of the own self. The Gurus who take money from you what are they going to train you up in? Business management or dubious methods of cheating? Their own lives were so beautifully blended with their love, with their knowledge and their whole understanding that it has a direct affect on the character and the personality of the pupil. While now in India no body can write an epic like Rāma's.

We do not have any Rāmas now. We won't have perhaps. Nobody writes, they only write stories. Now we have poems coming out of India like your horrible Lord Byron, he is born in India now. He has left your country.

So like that all the dynamism in literature is also finished because there is no ideal before the people. They cannot think of a perfect personality.

So the epics are different in the same way when we go to learn these things we see our Gurus so-called, we see their lives. The impression that we have within us is also just the same and they cannot teach anything unless and until they themselves have the light.

Now this Kriya Yoga is also just the same thing. It is described by great saints in India that those Jalunder Bandhas and all these Bandhas take place, means the bondage take place in the stomach in the heart and all these granthis are broken. Yes, it happens in you also when the Kuṇḍalinī rises. It does happen because I am quite a big master. I do everything Myself. I do not leave anything to you, till you have got it. Only this thing you have to do is to freely choosing the path of Self-realisation. That is the only thing you have to do `to be absolutely free.' In all your freedom you have to accept Sahaja Yoga. If I find you have not chosen it by your freedom you get out of it, very fast, you would not be there. You will simply run away. If not, I will see to it that you run away.

So one has to understand all these Margas, all these paths, even like Bhakti . I have told you about three types of bhaktas. One who are asking for kama.

So many have come to Me for, say, cures, so many of them. It is a good thing. It is a good chance forMme. Then they get cured; then they have that love since they are Mumukshus and they can become very great Sahaja Yogis. In India there are many who have come like that they first come for treatment and become very great Sahaja Yogis.

So they can pass through all these various stages.

So one has to understand that this is the time of Mahā Yoga. Where all these Antar Yoga means all these happenings inside take place automatically. I have something to do with your Kuṇḍalinī very much and she knows Me very well too.

So much so that as soon as she sees Me she is up there so happy. And the first impact is so great you feel she is got it. She rises with such thumping joy, you get it. But again you go back to your crutches, Even you have lost all your troubles and everything finished.

Now still you want to have your crutches because you are identified with them.

So you go back to your crutches and again want to become lame. This is just acting going on for some time.

But if you act for a long period you become lame. Because you have been playing games, you see. And now the game is over.

So you have to accept yourself that you are great. And that you have got it now within yourself. It is there now you are a light. You have to accept that you are a light now. You are not the same you were before and you are transformed into this flower. You should have faith in yourself and confidence in you.

Because you have been so far identified with people like that with bad experiences, indifferent experiences, you do not want to believe that there can be an experience of that kind. You do not want to accept it.

But if you understand it a little bit you will settle down nicely and I am here to make you the master of it absolutely the complete mastery over all this.

When Mahā Yoga comes in, you do not have to worry about anything else. All the Yogas are at your feet. You just raise your hands just like this and the Kuṇḍalinī will rise. It is a fact you just try. Anybody is sick, you put your hands like this the person is going to be alright. Try yourself.

This is Mahā Yoga. The culmination point of Sahaja Yoga. Once you achieve it you do not have to do anything else. Then you become that because only everything works for the Becoming and if there is something that just gives you the whole thing, then why should you do it. All things that have happened to you after you have come to Sahaja Yoga I am going to give you a list of those and what are they are called in Sanskrit language.

Thousands of years people have had to work for it. But you have got it just like that. It is a fact. It is difficult to accept that you have got just like that without doing any hard any big exercises, is not it.

But just wait and see what you have got. Of course some people do not get it because there is a problem.

Some problem is there. But do not bother, it will work out. But those who got it should know that they have got it because of something and that something you have to discover. That is what you have to find out for yourself. There is a reason why you have got it like that. Like mantras also, somebody told Me that there is a Guru who gives mantras according to the age. It is all nonsense. Complete nonsense it is.

You see, even a realised Soul would not give you a mantra, that is why it was regarded as a great thing if somebody could give you a mantra. Now every Dick, Tom and Harry like a donkey brazes in your ears and you think, `I have got.' They are trying to befool you, they do not know they are befouling themselves.

Whatever they have done they will have to pay very heavily.

So mantras are never given just like that you have to know various points of a person, as to, who is your kula-Devatā, the worship of your family, what is your personal worshipping God, what is your horoscope, what are the stars you are catching. At this point giving of the mantras, the time is to be determined, at a particular time of the horoscope what is the time of the horoscope that tallies with the Guru's horoscope.

That is why people used to have one or two people, Even a person like Gñyāneśhwara gave a name to only one person in his life time. Here these Dick, Tom and Harry are giving names just like they are distributing, I do not know what? Nothing is more easily available more than these names of horrible things. If I told these Indians they will know. [Hindi.] You should have some sort of an authority which you can use and every mantra which you say will be awakened. You know that after realisation it is such a wonderful thing to see that even if you are not yet out of your possession still you work it out. Still nothing happens to your Kuṇḍalinī raising system, nothing happens to that, still you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī. Isn't it? Still you can give realisation to people. You may be possessed all this time, fighting with the spirit but here with one hand you are raising Kuṇḍalinī automatically.

There are lots of spirits which are trying to possess you. You are feeling them with one hand that side and with one hand you are raising the Kuṇḍalinī. Nothing would go wrong with the person whose Kuṇḍalinī you are raising. To that purity. Otherwise to give mantra and to take mantra a person has to starve for seven days. Not to see a man's face or a woman's face. All sorts of vidhis [UNCLEAR] are there, then only you can get it. There some people tell the disciple to wash their hands 108 times every day. All sorts of these neti kriyas and all that has to be done before a mantra is given. It is a big ritual.

Why? Because you are so vulnerable. It is like a phosphorus. And you cannot put phosphorous into some body's hand. You have to make all arrangements till you can do it safely.

But supposing you become all powerful then what? Everything becomes a child's play. Everything becomes so simple. You are raising the Kuṇḍalinī. You know there are centers. You can raise it through the centers. You know how to awaken them. That is why it is Mahā Yoga.

It had to be this way, sometime, otherwise how are we going to save this world? How this creation is to be justified? We have to find. I mean God has to find some method by which all of you who are seeking Him are to be blessed and that he should be manifested so that His work should be completed.

So this is Mahā Yoga which encompasses all the Yogas. There is no need, now to go to stone ages to come back to human stage. It is something like that. Or else you can say that now if I have to go to India, I need not go like Columbus and end up in America.

Somebody who knows the way has come to you.

Who knows everything. All about it.

Somebody who has done all this who knows all the tricks of trade and also knows you very well, though still I am learning.

About human beings I have still to learn a lot. They can be quite queer. I do not know why they behave like this. Cannot understand, Oh God It is a great revelation sometimes when you see human beings, how they behave. Very interesting. Very interesting creature, I must say, they never behave the same way. You cannot predict. Most unpredictable. Do not know, what they will come out with? Very interesting. After Sahaja Yoga you will also enjoy very much.

[Aside.] This is about so many Yogas I have told you. Now if you have any questions ask Me sensible ones, again I say. Ask Me questions because I have told you in a short way but later I will give you a complete idea.

Now let's see this one. Now this lama business is all wrong; all I must say very frankly. They do some tricks to spoil this instrument. Hypnotize. Do all kinds of things. It has brought about lots of problems.

Now everybody has got it. You have not got it so it is a little problem, does not matter. You have to little bit cooperate with Me and you will get it. You must get it. It is My desire. That is your desire also. We meet on this point.

Kuṇḍalinī is the desire of God. Is not desire for God, is the desire of God itself within you.

So it can be only awakened by that desire. It is the desire of God within you that is being blessed and the desire of God is the Shakti. And the desire of God is that He loves you. His desire is to give you all His powers and all his loving capacity. This is His desire. It is placed within you and is dormant.

So when it rises, His desire is fulfilled. And that is how you get your fulfilment. Unless and until you are God, you cannot command desire of God. But after realisation He gives you, bestows His power that you can manoeuvre His desire. You can raise the Kuṇḍalinī in the people which is the desire of God. And you can make Him desire. [Pause.] That is the greatest one can achieve, isn't it? [MISSING.]

[Few days (1979-11-1x) before arrival on a phone call to Pamela Bromley:] It's Mātājī here. And I want to come down to your meeting.

[Pamela wrote all the posters and Sahaja Yogis were amazed that there was a Cool Breeze coming out of the posters. The wording was “Come and find yourself." They thought the whole town was going to be jammed with people coming.] [Pamela was the only one with a car at that time and she goes to pick Her up at the station. She puts the children in the back and doesn't even have time to empty the ashtray.] Pamela Bromley [perhaps at an earlier time or during this visit]: I am having real problems trying to stop smoking.

Shri Mataji: Never mind, Pamela. Whenever you want a cigarette, just think of Me.

[They get to the station a bit late and there is no sign of Shri Mataji at all. They know Shri Mataji is coming by train and then the train comes in and they see Shri Mataji in the distance, at the far end of the platform, coming, walking and behind Her are Sahaja Yogis.]

Shri Mataji: See how the train waited for us?

Contents: 1979-11-15, Public Program, The Significance of Brighton, Hove, Brighton, UK

The name itself is so beautiful, Brighton. It has to brighten the whole country. I have been here twice before also and I always felt that if a chance is given to Me in this place, we can really start Sahaja Yoga in a big way and can... one day... become a pilgrimage. There are mixed vibrations in Brighton.

You have the sea. Also, the Mother Earth here has special significance, but when something Divine starts emitting itself, the evil comes in a disguise and accumulates in that place and starts fighting... fighting the Divine and that's how, it's a very mixed vibrations, I felt in Brighton. But on the whole it is a very good place, where Sahaja Yoga can prosper.

They must have told you about Sahaja Yoga. `Saha' is `with', `Ja' is `born with you'. This is the Yoga, this is the union... that you are seeking with the Divine... is born with you. It is within you. Everybody has said, “You seek Him within yourself." Even Christ said “You seek Him within yourself” That means you have to seek... it is your freedom... which cannot be challenged. You have to ask for it, for example, if God could, at this stage of human awareness, transform you to higher awareness... without you coming into that play... your freedom coming into that play... he would have done it long time back. But he cannot. You have to choose Divine in your own freedom.

You are seeking, definitely. Perhaps you do not know what you are seeking. But one thing is definite.

You are not satisfied with whatever you are... you think there is something beyond which you have to seek. Maybe some of you know, some of you do not know, what you have to seek. But there is something beyond, no doubt, which has been told to you by all the prophets, by all the scriptures, by all the great incarnations that came on this earth. It has been promised also, that you will be judged one day. The judgement, will be first your own... of yourself... whether you are seeking the Divine or some sort of a frivolous thing. If you are seeking the Reality and the Truth, then only, you are going to be chosen, then only, you are going to become the citizen of God's Kingdom.

Now, let's see who is this God and what am I talking about. In the beginning... it was just... a Silence... complete Silence. And out of the Silence, when it awakened, the Silence was awakened. That Silence is called as `Parama Brahma', in Sanskrit language. I am sorry, I have to use Sanskrit language, it doesn't mean that it is something Hindu. These ideas you must get rid of. Because in India, people have meditated much more, they didn't have to fight the Nature, like the one we were fighting now coming down to the hall. The atmosphere is so nice and warm, people can live even under a tree. They had lot of time, they didn't have to fight the Nature so much, so they had lot of time to meditate. And in their meditations they have found out certain things, for which they have used Sanskrit language.

So, this Parama Brahma, or you can call it, this Silence, the Absolute Silence, was awakened, got awakened because it, itself got awakened... like we sleep and we get awakened. And then this Silence became what you call Sadāśhiva, when it was awakened. And when this Sadāśhiva started breaking, in the sense that It wanted... It desired... to create. As we say, that the morning sun is breaking through the dawn... in the same way, when His desire started manifesting, His desire became His power and It got separated from Him. Now, whatever I say is just a story for you... you need not believe it, but I will reach up to a point where you will see something which you can believe into and then gradually, step by step you can believe into this theory. This is just a hypothesis for you.

So, when this desire became a power, his power... It was called as Shakti or MahāShakti or Ādi...

Means Primordial Power. This Primordial Power assumed a personality and entity, it had to, if it had to act. If you have only a desire in your heart, it's no good. We have to transform it into some form, otherwise it will... the desire will rise and it will fall off.

So, this desire got into a form, we can say, or entity, which is called in the Bible, as Holy Ghost and in the Sanskrit language as Ādi Shakti.

This desire, then created out of itself two more powers, one to act and one to improve on its own creation. Like that, three powers started acting and these three powers were created. Now, as we know that people have not talked about Holy Ghost much, in the Bible... nor in many of these scriptures, which have talked about the Father, have been able to talk about the Holy Ghost. Specially, when Christ's Mother Herself was an incarnation of Holy Ghost, he didn't want to endanger Her life. He didn't even say that She was the incarnation of Holy Ghost, because if they had crucified Her, he would have come out in his own destructive powers. But, the drama was to be played and She remained a silent person.

Now, this Holy Ghost is important... for us, because Father is just a witness. He is witnessing the play, the game that Holy Ghost is going to play. He is going to enjoy Her creation. He is the only witness of that game and She is trying to please Him by creating this, because it was His desire, to create.

So She created. With these three forces we have got, which I call: the first the Desire [Mahākālī]; then the second one was the Action [Mahāsaraswatī]; and the third one is the Sustenance, or you can call it the Evolution [Mahālakṣhmī]. These three powers acted, to create us, human beings. Now we are at a stage where we have reached, where one can talk about these things.

Even at the time of Christ, one could not talk of the Holy Ghost. What could you do with these fishermen? Just tell Me, how could you tell them about these things? That was just a preparatory thing, but you know, what a mess they have done. Quite a mess is there and people can't understand those who call themselves religious, how could they be fanatic? Fanaticism and religion are at dagger's ends. They cannot be one thing. You can see now in Iran, now. You can see anywhere, people, if they are fanatics, how irreligious they are, because religion is love.

God is Love and none of these `religious people' have expressed that love, so far, in a way it should be expressed. Nor have they taken over the work of seeking God. But other things they are doing, like philanthropic work they'll do, collecting funds, or having a jumble sale... or sort of a thing. That's not the job of a person who is seeking God. Under these circumstances, when we are face to face with people who are so-called religious, who have organized religions, or disorganized religions and fake people, we really get absolutely frustrated, we get flabbergasted and we do not know, what are we to do, because we are born seekers. We are born as seekers. We might have made mistakes, in seeking, but we are definitely seekers. If you were not seekers you would have been happy attending some dinner, or a ball somewhere.

But, no. There is something beyond, something beautiful beyond, which is being promised, which you feel there is, you are aware of it, the existence of that beauty, you are aware of it, but so far you have not reached to the source. And that's why you are seeking.

Now, these three powers are within us, also acting and they have shown here, if you see, [indicating the chart], on the left hand side is this blue line that is going down, is the power of our desiring, by which we desire, by which we express our emotions... and when this desire is no more left in us, in the sense that this power, when it disappears, within us, then we also disappear. And they have not shown the Spirit, but if you see this... [UNCLEAR]... line, you can say that that is the Spirit they have tried to show. This Spirit, is the reflection of Father God or the Witness God, who is within us, in our heart, while these three powers, have created like a curtain, between our attention and between Him. Now the attention exists in this green coloured Void.

It is sustained by our liver and that's how these three curtains keep us away from that spirit. We cannot see that spirit, we cannot feel it. We cannot manifest it, but we know there is someone who knows us. In Gītā, it is called as “Kshetragñya" who is the knower of the field.

So, we know there is a knower and the knower knows all about you and is tape recording all that you have been doing, your seeking, your mistakes, your turbulence, all kinds of things you have gone through, all is recorded in that tape and that tape is placed down below there, in the triangular bone which is called as the Kuṇḍalinī.

This is the residual energy of our desire, means when the whole universe was created, this energy of desire, Ādi Shakti, after creating the whole, She remains the whole, because She is complete. You can say, it's very easy to understand. Supposing there is light here and I put a film here, the whole film is reflected, but the film is intact. In the same way after projecting itself, what ever remains... is the residual energy, is this Kuṇḍalinī, means you are the complete projection of that Kuṇḍalinī, that power, which is desire power, which manifests later on into these two powers: the right side power, the one you see with the yellow colour, it's called the power of action; and the central power, which you have achieved up to a point and the rest is a void: you can see [where] the dotted lines are, is the power which is responsible for your evolution from amoeba to this stage.

We should ask a question, `Why did we become human beings, from amoeba to this stage?' Supposing I have some bolts, nuts, this, that... and I gather them together. Then, anybody would ask `Why are you making this?' So I can tell: `I am making a microphone.' But this microphone also has got a thread, here.

It is to be put to the mains. Unless and until it is put to the mains, this is not going to work out.

And this is what we have got, these three powers and the residual power there, which is the desire power, which is just sitting down there, which is going to desire your rebirth. It's your own Mother and when She desires it, She comes into action only when She sees somebody who's an authority, who has a power to raise Her, who loves the same way as She loves you, then only She rises. Not by any tricks, by standing on your head, or having an exercise, or beating people or all sorts of things, they have devised now. It is a spontaneous thing, Sahaja. Sa-ha-ja. Spontaneously it rises. I mean, supposing now somebody comes to Me: “Can you guarantee that my Kuṇḍalinī will be awakened? Or not?" I say, “No, Sir. I am sorry. May be, may not be. If you do not argue, too much, then it will." Why? What happens with arguments? I must tell you what happens. I mean... I don t mean you should not argue. You must... argue because, I know you have a problem. You are too identified with arguments, you can't help it. Doesn't matter. But when you argue, you use this power which is on the right hand side. By thinking, what happens is that you create that yellow stuff there and that yellow stuff in common words is Mister E-go.

And when you think, this ego rises like that and goes on pressing the other one, that is the Superego, which comes from your conditionings.

So this Ego, when it sits on this one like that, how are we to raise the Kuṇḍalinī, because what happens is that there is no place, no space, it has to be balanced like that.

The more you argue, the more it goes on like that. By argument, I cannot raise the Kuṇḍalinī. That's why I say, “For the time being let Me see about it. Don't argue just now." But, then people don't like it, you see, they feel challenged.

So, I say, “Alright go ahead." But what happens when you start arguing, the thoughts go on pressing you and that is why you cannot do it by any argument, by reading a book.

You cannot pay for it. It's absolutely impossible to pay for it. God doesn't have a shop. No, He doesn't know shopping, nor you can organize Him. We cannot organize God. He has to organize us.

So, any sort of an organized thing can not work it out.

It's absolutely like sprouting of a seed. You just put it in the soil, put some water, as I say I put some water of Love, I give you some water of Love, then it sprouts by itself. You have a seed, you have the primule, you have a sprout inside and everything is just ready. It has to happen. By getting angry, it doesn't work out. By anything that you can do, you cannot work out. You have to be effortless. You cannot put in effort for sprouting a seed. You cannot even transform a flower into a fruit. Actually we don't do much. What we do is dead. Whatever is dead we change into another, then we change into another. That's all. We have done nothing living. This is a living process and all living processes are to be achieved through spontaneity.

So, spontaneously it rises. It touches your Sahasrāra and you start getting the Cool Breeze in your hand. Now, apart from the Indian Scriptures, where it is described as Saleelām Saleelām, this Cool Breeze and Cool Breeze comes on you like a wave. Also in the Bible you have read that, it is the Cool Breeze.

So, the whole power is this power of desire, which has manifested into these three powers, this Ādi Shakti, is the Cool Breeze. It's like a Cool Breeze. And it is all-pervading. When this Kuṇḍalinī rises she passes through these centers, of course there's no time for Me to explain all those centers now and touches you. Now these centers are the subtle centers below our plexuses, which we know in our medical science, that these are the plexuses we have got within ourselves. And then you become Self-realised.

I cannot give you a lecture on that, or a brain-washing, you become Collectively Conscious. It's actualisation, that we should seek. It has to happen within you, so that you become that, is not just by branding anybody `you are a Sahaja Yogi', it cannot be. A Sahaja Yogi has to get the real baptism. His fontanelle bone has to become soft and the Kuṇḍalinī has to pierce it, then only he is a Sahaja Yogi.

You cannot have membership, you cannot have anything like that. It is so spontaneous and if it has not happened in you, then you are not a Sahaja Yogi. Till it has happened, you are still seeking. But it just takes a split of a second to happen in people, like children I would say. But it can take quite a lot of time with some people, because we have tried to harm ourselves, destroy ourselves. Actually in this country [UK] I have seen that there are very beautiful people born, very genuine, honest, humble. Great seekers of the past, of ancient times have been blessed to be born in this country and also in America.

But, they became impatient and in their impatience, they have tried to destroy themselves. And that's how if you have destroyed those centers, then there will be a little problem for a short time, we'll work it out. But you have to have it. You are born for this. This is evolution which has to take place. You have to know your Self. That's your right. You must get it.

But the way is not demanding, but asking for it. “Blessed are meek... blessed are those who are meek" has been already said before, that meekness is important, not your arrogance. If you sit on My head and say, “Give us realisation." You see that is not the way. I am not the one who is giving, I should say, but it's you, who are receiving it. Like the river Ganges flows you see, if you throw stones in her, you cannot get water out of her. You have to take a Pitcher, a hollow pitcher and dip it inside and it will fill, by itself.

So it is your own asking which receives... that fulfilment and you have to find out that fulfilment.

Without that you cannot be happy.

Now we have Sahaja Yogis in London of course, we are progressing with the pace of an ant, I should say. The reason is... it is Reality. You see all other organizations spread because, you pay the money and you become the great minister of state there, something like that. And you wear a locket, you become the great disciple of a great fake Guru you see, or something like that. It is very easy to do that way isn't it? But to become a Sahaja Yogi, you have to face yourself, you have to see yourself and then the beauty, when it dawns upon you, you can see that it is the Truth, that you have to receive and I have to do it.

You should not feel obliged, because that's My Job. I am paid for that, You can say. Giving you realisation is My Own Job. I have to do it. Your job is to take it, because that's what you are here for.

It's no question of any obligation. It's Love, just Love. I have to love you and you have to receive the love from Me. It just flows, it emits, only I am telling you the way how to receive it. But our human love, you see, is so aggressive, that we cannot understand someone who says, “I love you." We'll run away “You love me, then I'd better run away” because love means possession. You see human love is such, love means domination, is aggression. This is just Love, which soothes you, which raises you to a new awareness, by which you can feel on your fingers the complete enlightenment and your hands can tell you what centers are there, what centers are catching, in you and in others.

There are so many blessings of Sahaja Yoga, which I hope to tell you about when we have a seminar perhaps there and all these people can tell you also. But I don't know what are your problems. I would like to talk to you if there are any problem or question, but not too long. Because Sahaja Yogis get quite worried about it. The reason is they all have asked Me questions you know, quite a lot, they feel quite ashamed... to remember that, firstly. Secondly, they feel excited, that why aren't you getting your realisation you see, why are you asking questions, better have it, is in your hands.

So they don't like it.

And thirdly, they find sometimes that you are asking questions of no value, to yourselves, or to anyone.

So, one thing if you remember, there is nothing selling here. You have not paid for it. It's something that's just flowing, you see. Such a thing, no one knows of, you see, in this world. It's just flowing, something beautiful, if you have seen a scene somewhere... beautiful scene, you just watch it. In the same way, if [with] that attitude if you come, just to open your eyes to that, you have to... it's called Unmesh means opening the eyes... just to open your eyes to that beauty, that is your Self. For which you should be ready, to do it and there should be no doubts about it, because it's not worth it... it's not worth it.

But if you have any, I would like to attend to them definitely, no doubt. Moreover, sometimes we get very good questions. I have seen that some people who ask questions, are really very good and also give Me some idea as to what is the problem.

So that will be also very much welcome. But don't sit down with the attitude of doubting Thomas, that's one thing.

So you have to ask Me, if any question is to be asked, please ask Me because Sahaja Yoga is a very big subject and it is rather difficult to explain whole of it.

But this is the one by which you get your physical, mental, emotional and spiritual integration, because all the centers come into play... and [that] brings enlightenment in all these four aspects of your life... into the totality so that you feel your wholesomeness in collective consciousness. Now... is quite a complicated sentence, I have said it in short, but if you have any problem about it, you can ask Me, without any fear. Because I am a [your] Mother.

May God bless you.

[All the friends of Sahaja Yogis came for the program. Nobody else came from the posters. Not all get Self-realisation.]

Contents: 1979-11-18 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, How to Go Beyond the Ego and Know Yourself, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

But Sahaja Yoga is that triggering great happening by which the creation of God is going to get its fulfilment and is going to know its meaning, it is that great! Perhaps we do not realise it, but when we say, “We are Sahaja Yogis” you have to know that, to be a Sahaja Yogi, how much identified you should be with the Truth of Sahaja Yoga and so many misidentifications which are hanging on to you must be got rid of.

People call it a sacrifice. I do not think it is a sacrifice. If you think something is hampering your way you try to take out that hurdle. In the same way, if you stand out from your obstructions, you will be able to understand that these obstructions are standing in your way and they are not your own and that they are stopping your progress.

So you should get this misidentification out of your minds completely and try to be more and more your Self and not a misidentification. This is one the problems, I think, people have here. Whenever I get any complaints or anything, I understand that still the level of understanding about Sahaja Yoga is not up to that point.

It is a tremendous task! And for that, if you are the people who have to come up and if you are the people who have to fight it, you have to understand it in its full extent and also understand where you stand for it: how much you have to do? how much you have to improve yourself? Because you are the people who are going to take the Sahaja Yoga to that position where it has to reach because as far as I am concerned, I have nothing to do anymore. I have done it. Now it is for you to receive, you have to imbibe into it and you have to change the whole thing; that is your job and that is why it is a serious matter.

The second point I always have been saying [is] that, due to ego problem, we are very much disintegrated.

We are so disintegrated that the connection with the Divine is never properly established. As I have said it, that this instrument [microphone] if it is divided into five parts and all the five parts are fighting with each other, you cannot get anything done through this instrument, through it is connected to the mains.

In the same way if you still remain disintegrated you cannot get that connection. For example, people come down here, I have seen, for Sahaja Yoga; now they have other interests and there's other priorities and other things are there which are very important for them. All the time, they are wasting their time for that and then they will say that, “Mother, we are not progressing much in Sahaja Yoga." If you decide, as he [Mr. Venugopalan] has told you that, “We have to do Sahaja Yoga first and the other things are secondary” then only the Sahaja Yoga can be really established into you.

We'll have some Sahaja Yogis of a very high level, I know that and we will have some of very mediocre level, some will be absolutely useless and some would be absolutely thrown away. We'll have all types.

That also I know. Now it is for you to decide: where do you come? How far you are going to? If you are going to waste your time in thinking about other Sahaja Yogis and small, small things and trivial things as he has said it, your disintegration is going to be increased, you are going to [be] separated much more because all this decision is taken through your ego: “I don't like it, I don't do it, I don't see it." If you could somehow or other see your ego working, then you can get rid of it. And that is the thing one has to do; not to fight the ego. I never say, `Fight the ego!' But surrendering is the only way your ego can go.

And that's why the progress in the West, as you have seen it, is much less than it is in India. Now, take his case, I would say, particular case of [Mr.] Venugopalan: he's really remarkable because he is a man who is holding a very big position in India. Here I see, even if a person is a dishwasher [and] he comes to Sahaja Yoga, still his ego is so big [that] even our Prime Minister won't have such a big ego as he has! I mean, the way he will talk that, “I don't like it, I do this, this!" I am Myself amazed the way people [talk]! You see, everybody has become the King of England or what? The way they talk! This is something one should tell people when they come here, that, `Don't waste Mātājī's energies in arguing and this and that,' because everybody thinks no end of themselves here and that is the biggest hurdle that they have, when they even come first time, you find it so difficult! I have to show all My appreciation of their ego, all the time, just to satisfy them so that they come round. And this is how the progress becomes less.

Now, in his case, [Mr. Venugopalan] he is a person who has been to all kinds of horrible `Gurus' and his wife has been also to all kinds of horrible `Gurus' because of another extreme in India we have, that we must respect all the saints. But these days the saints are fake saints, not only fake saints, but some of them are devils! So they are not going to say, `We are devils.' When they do not say they are devils or whatever it is, they do not come in their proper form, these simple, innocent people, who are seeking God, just go to them, give their heart, do everything and then they find that they are devils. Once they discover they are devils, then they are surprised. Then they come back from there, they go to another Guru, they go to another Guru, but the harm is done. But they get rid of that harm because they recognize that harm has been done and they know, what is the Truth is, what is to expect. I would say it is the blessing of that country that people know what to expect. People would not like to go, those who are really of a very good quality people, will not go to a man who shows some sort of a a sensationalisation or some sort of a chamatkar, is a miracle, they would not go, but they will go to other subtler people, who are very cunning and they put up another kind of a show and just say that, “No, no, this is the way you can achieve the highest” and that's how most of the Sahaja Yogis in India also have been, except for the village people and the district people, most of the city people have been to some Guru or someone. But despite all that, they have left everything. I have told them, “You have to beat them with shoes." They'll do everything morning till... every day he does his sadhana for one hour though he's a very busy man.

Here [England] even to get up in the morning, people grudge. I mean, what can you do with such slow moving people? You see, it is absolutely very difficult! And this is what I feel that we must understand that we have a very great responsibility, very great responsibility in the West, because this has to happen in London, it has to happen in England to begin with and that's why you bear a very big responsibility. You have to evaluate yourself and you have to evaluate Sahaja Yoga, again and again and again. And know that what makes you slow is your ego, or even superego is there, no doubt, but ego is the main problem. I must tell you [that] ego is the main problem but I dare not say to anyone that, `This is your ego,' because that will just jump on to My head.

But try to see your ego, how it is deviating, because it is your own joy you are seeking, it is your own property you are seeking, it is your own that is hidden from you, for which you have been seeking for ages now; that is what I have to expose for you. What is there to argue with a person, who is trying to give you the highest? It's just a waste of energy. Do not waste your energy onto these things, onto frivolous things, about finding faults.

Now he has been organizing our Delhi Camp, he is the one who has organized our printing of the book and all. I have not known any problems there. You just tell them that, `This has to happen,' `Alright! I do not know how it works out.' You have stayed in Delhi. You have seen how many people were there. Never a problem! Did you hear anybody complaining? Or anybody quarreling or fighting among themselves? Nothing of the kind! You see, this is not the sign of intelligence either; of all the time trying to find faults with each other or trying to blame yourself. Both things are wrong. Best thing is to grow in wisdom, we must grow in wisdom. We'll, ourselves, see that we are becoming wiser and wiser.

Some of you are really very grown up and some of you still go up and down and some of you're still very low.

So all of us have to get up and all of us have to go together. If somebody has also achieved something it is of no use to Sahaja Yoga, as I have told you, it's a collective thing that is going to work out. All of you have to work it out and it is so sweet that you have real brothers and sisters all over the world today. When you'll go there with the full heart they are going to receive [you] as you have received him with full heart. But we all must come up! Come up to a point, where we can face each other with full love, with openness, without any worry about anything, without any fear of anyone; but just [that] they are your brothers and you are their brothers and that you have to love them.

That's only possible when we'll get out of our fears here. Because there is also another side to it that ego always has a fear; because it aggresses others it is afraid also because it knows others can aggress.

So this is a point we have got to think about. But that never means that in any way despise yourself, never!

You are saints, you must know that. You are realised Souls! How many there are realised Souls in this world? How many there are who can raise the Kuṇḍalinī? How many there are who understand what is vibrations? I'm going to tell you, on Guru Pūjā, what things you have achieved and how many things you have got within you, built-in now, which are working and how your Chakras are awakened through Sahaja Yoga. As he says, “Yes, it has happened." But what are we doing about it? It's is the greatest of the greatest that can happen to anyone; that you know. Also you know this is the greatest happening which was prophesized long time back as the Last Judgement. You know that this is the way you are going to be judged, so we have to work very hard, we have to work. It is effortlessly given to you, alright, but to maintain it, to keep it up to go higher, we have to religiously work it out with a very humble attitude, receiving more and more and more, imbibing it into your being. Let it trickle into your being, completely covering it. Let that joy, that Eternal Bliss come into you. I am so anxious for that. Do not make yourself a small person. Have a bigger vision, have bigger ideas because now you belong to the Bigger Thing, the biggest of all, the Primordial, the Highest, to the Virāt! If you realise your importance then you will work it out.

You see, if you see an Indian Sahaja Yogi, you will be amazed! He sleeps only for two, three hours or four hours, but he will not give up his Sādhana. If he can get his full sleep it's alright. First thing he sees is, `One hour for Sādhana in the morning. I have to get it out somehow.' But sleep? We have been sleeping all our lives! We have to correct ourselves, we have to rise, we have to go ahead, to achieve your own. That's the main point is! See your own selfishness, I am telling! To know yourself is the greatest selfishness. If you do not know yourself, all the selfishness is useless. As you call a Swārtha, in Sanskrit it is said `Swārtha', Swārtha means `selfishness'. If you break it `Swa' `Artha', if you know the meaning of your `Swa', means your `Self', then it is the greatest selfishness.

So this is what it is and we are very happy that he's here. We'll be going to India also, next year we also are planning to go to India and you are going to meet [them]. Lots of them may come to Delhi and Bombay. They are all waiting for you, they are all planning how to receive you, they are so happy that so many of Sahaja Yogis from London and all over will be coming. And you know how they look after you and how they are happy and how they are joyous.

And certain things definitely have gone wrong with us, we know that. We should understand them because these are the troubles of our over-thinking and over-reading and over-domination but we can get rid of it very easily. It is just to detach yourself and see for yourself addressing yourself, `Now Mr. how are you?' If you say like that, immediately your attention will go, through yourself you will see your outer being. That is very important. The more you see yourself clearly, the better it is. You have to face yourself.

And you do not want to face, you are afraid of facing yourself, because you have been aggressing others and you are afraid to aggress, in a way that is towards yourself. But there won't be any aggression because that's the perfect state where you see yourself and neither you aggress anyone nor you are aggressed by anyone, you just see yourself clearly. And that is what you have to see.

Gradually you start seeing your Chakras, seeing your problems, your thing and you know that how, gradually, it develops. But everybody wants a quick results. It's alright, if you want quick results, alright, are you like that? If you are like that you will get a quick results; if you are not, then be patient with yourself, not with Me, but with yourself, I am saying, you have to be patient, because there is a problem with you so you have to be patient with yourself and not with anybody else, that's is the main point.

If you are patient with yourself, this is a long promised thing which you are going to get. But you must learn to be patient with yourself and not to be angry with yourself, not to debase yourself or not to aggress yourself on to others. It's a very simple thing, it's the simplest thing to do, but because of our complex life and our complicated thinking we have become quite twined up into things. It can easily be got out of, you can just slip out of it without any difficulty. I know that you can do it so forget about all these things like, `My father, my sister, my brother.' All these problems will be burnt in no time as soon as your life runs straight. Everything will burn away, nothing will be left but your light and others who will come to you for enlightenment.

I know that you are going to have a big day for a Guru Pūjā. Before that I would request you to prepare yourself.

I may do something great but I must have a proper recipient so [for] that you must prepare yourself. Think about it, are you loving others? Are you in love? Are you in love with everyone? Just to think that you love everyone is so great! I mean you ask Me. Everybody says, “Mother, you look so young! How do you look?" It's because I always think of how much I have to love. You see, so much love I have to give to others. Just think how great it is to love others. You know how people treat Me sometimes, doesn't matter, I'll still love. I enjoy playing with it. In the same way you should love and love is the thing that is going to unfold beautifully like a lotus opens out it's petals and the beautiful fragrance starts flowing. In the same way, your heart will open out and the fragrance of love will spread throughout the world, it will ring into people. I know it can happen, the sooner the better and the choice is your own which you have to make a choice.

So I'm very happy because such a beautiful song to hear and just before Christmas which is a very big thing for Me, you know that. And in the same way we are having another Christmas now, Christmas to celebrate a new Christ, born within us. Let us prepare for His coming and how you prepare is not by running away from yourself, not by getting into frivolous things but by working it out, beautifully.

Cleansing, cleansing has to be done if the Self has to be established in the temple of this being.

May God bless you all.

Now first before meditating, in your heart, or, you should see in your heart and there try to put your Guru in the core of it. After establishing in the heart, you must bow to that with full devotion and dedication.

Now, whatever you do with your mind, after Realisation, is not imagination because now your mind, your imagination, is itself enlightened.

So project yourself in such a way that you humble down at the feet of your Guru and now ask for the necessary temperament needed for meditation, or atmosphere needed for meditation.

Meditation is when you are one with the Divine.

Now if there are thoughts coming in, first you have to say the first mantra, of course and then watch inside. Also you must say mantra of Gaṇeśha, will help some people. And then you should watch inside and see for yourself which is the biggest hurdle.

First the thought. Now, for the thought, you have to say the mantra of Nirvichara, that, “Twameva sākṣhāt Nirvichar sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ." Should say it thrice.

[Sahaja Yogis repeat a slightly different version of the mantra that Mother has suggested, three times.] Now we come to the hurdle of your ego because, you see, the thought has stopped now, no doubt, but there's still a pressure on the head.

So, if it is ego, you have to say, “Twameva sākshāt Mahat'ahaṁkāra...", Mahat means `the great', ahaṁkāra means `the ego', “... Sākshāt Śhrī Mātājī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ." Say it thrice.

[Sahaja Yogis again repeat a slightly different version of the mantra that Mother has suggested, three times.]

Now, even now, if you find that ego is still there, then you have to raise your left side to push it back to the right hand side, with your hand; one hand towards the photograph.

Push the left side higher and right side lower so the ego and superego get the balance. Do it seven times. Try to feel it, how you are feeling inside, you see.

Now you raise your Kuṇḍalinī up on the head and tie it up.

Again raise your Kuṇḍalinī up on the head and tie it up.

Again raise your Kuṇḍalinī and tie it up.

Now at the Sahasrāra you should say the mantra of Sahasrāra, thrice.

Sahaja Yogis [thrice]: Śhrī Kalki sākṣhāt, Śhrī Sahasrāra Swāminī, Moksha Pradāyinī Mātājī, Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ three times.

Shri Mataji: Now it's opened out if you see. Now you can open again your Sahasrāra like this.

Just take it down again and see that you are stationed there. Once this has been done then you go into meditation. This is like cleansing, you see, called as nyasa.

Now, if you find any other obstruction, you can also say, like, if you have got, say, Mahākālī's problem, you can say that mantra, clear it and then you sit down for meditation. Any individual thing, you can take it out, like, if you have the ego problem, if you think, then you should start with Mahat'ahaṁkāra.

It is what you have to find out: What is your problem? Where is the Kuṇḍalinī stopping? You can feel it within yourself.

Some of you may not feel. If you do not feel it, feel it on your fingers. If you are not feeling within yourself then feel it on your fingers, you can feel it.

Ah, better.

Reduce your breathing, will be better. Reduce your breathing as if stopping, but no exertion about it.

How is it now? Better? Where is the problem? Hmm?

Sahaja Yogi: Central Heart.

Shri Mataji: Central Heart? Alright, hold your breath. Not with great force, just ordinarily. Alright? sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā.

Alright? Leave it. Better now? Once again? Alright, hold your breath.

sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā. Hā.

Leave it. Better. Keep your eyes open. Again. Hold it.

sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā, sākṣhāt Jagadambā.

Leave it. Better now? Much relief. Alright? I mean, now left side. Put your left hand towards Me, right hand up there. Left hand towards Me, right hand like that...

Hmm. Like this. Douglas [Fry], like this. Better? It's liver. Overthinking gives you liver also. Better.

Better? Much better. It's coming down.

... Hmm. Better now? What is it? Where do you feel? Viśhuddhi? Better now.

Contents: 1979-11-21*, Public Program, Seeking in The West, Caxton Hall, London, UK

I'm really thankful to Gavin, the way he has explained to you. His method is very meditative by which he permeates. I think he articulates better for the understanding of the Western mind.

Now, I have been here in this country for so many years and I have been working on Western people and what I find is that there is a great seeking, no doubt. People are not satisfied with their life, with their mundane life. They think it is very routinous, they are bored, they think something has to happen.

Then there are some people who think that if these great books of scriptures have described that there is something Divine, there is something higher and there is something like what we call the All-pervading Power which is ruling this universe and if one has to enter into the Kingdom of God, then there must be some way out and we must find it.

From inside, they don't feel happy about themselves. They're insecure, because they think they haven't got what they have been seeking.

So there are markets open for such things and when the demand comes in there is a supply from everywhere.

Also from our great country that is India, we have supply of people coming down.

Today I was talking to the people who have advertised and this and that and they said that the market people have used all these adjectives, like: “It's a new way” “It's a new style” “It is what you're seeking, is inner experience, enlightenment” this, that, all that. Now one thing one has to say, that they are very clever, that they even say that there “No money is needed, no money will be charged, you will be accepted freely." So why are they doing this? I just can't understand. Why are they playing with the Divine? What makes them do all these things? It's a very dangerous game. If they really believe in the supreme Power of God, then they must know you cannot play with it. It's a very serious matter. Most of them sell it, all right? Most of them sort of have a go towards it.

It happens because of two things. One is complete ignorance, what you call, they are denying about spiritual life. They don't know what is God, what are His powers. They themselves perhaps are just leading, like a blind man, other blind people. They may be not be bad at heart. I don't say they may want to ruin others. But the others could be really negative, horrible people, Satanic and they give you certain concepts through their books, through their advertisement or whatever it is and that you accept and you live by that.

Now, whatever I say, they might say the same. If I say, `This is reality,' they'll say, `This is reality.' But saying is not the point. What should a seeker do? Seekers should ask for the real. Now, how? Say, I will say that, `Now, I'm going to give you a real cake to eat, or a real pudding to eat.' You must taste and you must see that you feel the taste of it and that it should be a cake and not a plastic stuff.

Now when you start testing these people also, you may get some sort of a scorpion biting in your tongue. Or maybe they might spoil you with it. It is that dangerous. They have done to many people like that. Those who come to Me, most of them were affected by some sort of a horrible person hitting them, because they are seeking.

They will also say the same thing as, “We speak the language of love and of heart." I mean, it is very difficult and complicated in this world, where people are playing games with themselves and with others.

They live with it. We should not play with ourselves. We should not play with the lives of others. It's a very dangerous game, as I have told you. Not only that, but it may reduce your chances of Realisation today. We should find out, is there something happening within us? Are we getting transformed? What actualisation has taken place within us? This should be the criteria. Have you felt anything in us? Actually, I never expected that one day I'll have to speak like other salesmen are there, that “This is genuine"; because so many have cropped up now. But it is impossible to make people understand that “Seek thyself” or Self-realisation, means you should know about yourself and about others. It's to jump into the collective consciousness. It's an actualisation. It is not just talking, talking, talking, or just brainwashing. It's a living force. If it is evolution, the living force has to work it out. It has to come up by itself. You should see it, you should feel it, it should be perceptible. It's not something in the air. But you have to give a little time to it sometimes, sometimes not.

Such complicated personalities we have developed because of our thinking and overthinking. We want to think about everything; as if we can even think about God. We go round and round ourselves, see, like a little cat getting into the circles of wool around her and then she doesn't know how to get out of it.

So we create our own cocoons in which we suffocate.

So it is necessary to little bit put down your speed and then see for yourself what you should expect.

When you say `Self-realisation', when you say `Self', what is it? Now, when I'm talking to you it is theoretical; you may think so. It's not, in a way, because Sahaja Yogis know it is not, but for normal people who are not yet realised, it's absolutely a theory. All right? You don't accept Me, but you don't deny Me, right? It has to work out. If it does not work out your need, we'll have to tell you that it has not worked out. It has to work out.

Now, aren't you wanting your Self-realisation? Why should you be attached to anything which doesn't give you reality? This, I cannot understand.

Some people, because they have paid the money, they think we should go through the, all the bad experiences. But it is not only an experience which doesn't leave its dent in you; it leaves a very serious dents.

So now we talk about what we are seeking, that is Self and Self-realisation and mechanism about which Gavin has said. Today I will talk about Self, because I have been talking about the mechanism so far and would be nice to change over the topic a little bit.

Now what is the Self we are talking about? What is Self-realisation? As I said, you can take it as a theory for you. You can accept it as a theory for the time being. But then if it is a hypothesis, it has to be proved. Give yourself a chance. Do not jump into conclusions suddenly. Pay some attention to yourself.

You have been running a rat race. Stop it for a while. This is for you, only for you people. I don't need it; you have to get it. It's a gift. But that should not make your ego just stand up like that. After all, a mother can give you a gift, isn't it? What is there to be so angry about it? Now, the thing that we are talking about is the Self within us, in our heart. He resides within us. We should say `it' resides, it's better, because it does not have any bias, it is detached. It is the reflection of God Almighty which is called as the light, the light that enlightens, that light that flickers within us.

That is the Self. That is the Spirit. That's not spirit the way people understand the spiritualist. This is your own expression of the reflection of God within you. God is reflecting in your heart, of which you are aware, but you cannot see through it. You need to follow My point, this one. There is light. Light enlightens, there is the flame, the light and this light enlightens everything. There are three things. The one that is to be enlightened has to know the One that enlightens it. You've got your life, you are leading a human life, you are a human being. God has made you a human being. Or evolution has made you a human being. If you feel challenged even if I take the name of God, all right, let us keep it that you are a human being because of evolution, all right.

Now this human being has to know that One, the One who has brought forth this evolution. Do we know how we have become human beings? Do we know why we have become human beings? Is there is any purpose to our life? Or we are just born here to enjoy life and die, or cry and weep and die? There is something to be known, but we have not known it.

So all these three things are in one personality, that is, the Self.

Now, these personalities are expressed within us in three ways. First is our attention. Through our evolution we have developed a personality by which we have an human attention. Attention is spread out like that. But directed attention is called as laksha in Sanskrit language.

So we have two types of attention. One is the attention as it is and once you put your attention to something, that is another attention, we can say, or the directed attention. This attention we have developed through our evolution; is within us, but is not yet, though directed towards Self, has not reached that.

So this Self, this Spirit, this Ātmā has got to enlighten that attention that is ours, because our attention is not enlightened. We have no discrimination. We are so confused. We don't know which to believe, which not to believe. We don't know why... is correct, or... is correct. We are so confused. Our attention is confused. Why? Because we haven't found out the Absolute. Why? Because in the darkness we are seeing our things. If our attention is enlightened, then we can see everything clearly, but is only possible if you touch that Spirit within you, that light within you.

So you are attention, you are Chit, but unenlightened one.

So human attention has reached a certain stage of development, but is not yet enlightened. I say so; you believe it or not, but it has to be enlightened. I say so and it has to be done, which you also ask for.

So the Spirit can be only known through the enlightened attention which you have and it can be only enlightened by the light. This is the problem. Once you understand that there is a flicker within us which we cannot reach, there is Somebody who knows about us everything, Kshetragna, knows about the field, what we do. But we cannot attain that. Though we are aware of it, His being there, there is some sort of a curtain in between. What is that curtain?, is of ignorance. This ignorance also can go, only if there is light: again the same problem. There is a curtain of ignorance and we cannot see that light which has to enlighten, because the curtains are drawn. We are in complete ignorance.

So the ignorance has to go, by discovering the truth about it.

So we come to the second point, that is the truth. Now, what is the truth, people will ask, what is the truth? Without the light, how can we explain? Supposing you find a rope lying on the road or somewhere and you're frightened. How are you to be convinced that it is not a snake but it's just a rope lying, unless and until you put some light on that and show for definite that this is just a rope and a myth? So your attention has to be enlightened, first thing and to get rid of your ignorance you have to find out the truth. And then you know that the Self, the Spirit emits joy, joy which is beyond the duality of sorrow and happiness. You have to go beyond that, beyond the duality, to be that. That's your destination.

So how to reach to that, is the problem. There is a way inside us, already created within us. The One who has created you, the One who has made you a human being, is going to arrange for you the same thing within you. Every seed has got a primule, a germinating power within it and it grows spontaneously by itself and it can create a tree. Then, is it not possible that God Himself has to worry about His own creation, which has flowered into human beings, that He should Himself do something about it? It's absolutely rational.

How much truth have you found out so far? Whatever is subjective in you, is the truth. The rest is only your endeavour, on your effort. Say, for example, if you know this is hot or cold, of course that is truth, that is subjective. If you can feel the numbness, yes, that is subjective. If you feel pins and needles, that is subjective. All the rest of it, whatever you do, is your effort, is to read something or to write something, or to inform something. God knows how much part of it is the truth and how much is not.

So the idea of truth itself is so confused, because the means of knowing the truth is so limited within our... You have to become with your Self as absolutely identified, then you can see through it what is the truth and what is not the truth. But so far, as a human being, what have we discovered so far? That there is a moon hanging in the air or in the atmosphere and that you go and find the same sort of thing that is here. That's not the truth, by any chance.

Who has made the moon and the earth? Who has made even us, this brain, which takes you to the moon? No questions have been answered by science so far. If you ask one simple question, why there is gravity in the Mother Earth? Why? One question, why? You ask the scientists, they cannot answer. It's just whatever is there. You see this hall is made, all right. Then you have seen this is how it is made.

Yes, it is before you. You see it. What is so special? What is to discover in it? How it is supported, why it is supported. But still why? Why is so much weight there supports so much of weight? Why? So, no questions can be answered.

Why are we human beings? Because the truth that we have found out is through our rationality, which is a limited thing, which can only tell you whatever is in the matter around us, or whatever you see in the human psyche that's happening, which you can see clearly. But why it happens, nobody can say.

So with that, we should not develop an inferiority complex. No, that is the amount of achievement you have got now. You have to go further with it, that's all. Not to feel inferior or in any way confused about it, or in any way guilty about anything, but just to be in the center to see that we have reached a certain point and we have to go further, finished. This is what you are seeking today: your wholesomeness. You are seeking in that, because you are just moving alone and you are not related to the moon. You do not know how you are related to England. You do not know how you are related to your own wife, or your children, everything. That evolution, the last bit of it where the instrument is completely created and that evolution where you have to jump into that higher evolution, into that personality which can perceive, which can perceive, I said. Again I'm talking about actualisation, which can perceive, can feel as a subjective experience, not as an objective experience, like for a poet, I would say, stand here and give you a big romantic scene out of this snow. And you may get into that imagination and enjoy it, but again you come down straight on the grass, on the ground. I am saying “the subjective experience” means that is to be built in your awareness. It's not just to be believed into or imagined into, but it has to be built in you, like a flower becoming a fruit. It is no imagination.

So then only you can get enlightened. Your attention will be enlightened. When the attention is enlightened within you, naturally you start seeing things from the real angle. The thing that looked like a snake to you becomes a rope. A person who looked like a bad person, starts looking something different, because you couldn't see the person. The whole entire personality changes gradually, but this movement can be very slow in some people, absolute snail's pace and in some people it is very fast. It trips very fast, depending on what sort of loads you have on your head, on your attention. If your attention is too involved and too much into... and too much into all kinds of absurd things, you see, then it takes time.

But if you're like a child, it works very fast and the impact is very great. Then also not to feel bad about it, that if you do not get it very fast, it's all right. I have patience and you should have patience with yourself.

So this is the spiritual contract we have to have within ourselves, is that, that you have to have your experience because it is promised to you. You have to get it and that you have to love yourself as I love you. Full faith and patience we have to see.

So these are the three things which come into place suddenly by a certain movement. And what is the movement that we have? We had gas lights before in this country and one flicker would be burning and when the flow of the gas would start, it would enlighten that light and the whole place would be filled with light. The flicker is burning in our heart and that flicker is there. While something has to happen, that force has to come from somewhere and that force is kept within you. It's really in the purest form, absolutely preserved in the backbone. In so many people you can see the rising of it and it passes through the center, the central line.

Now there are three lines, as you see. The one left side is the one which is the existence, which gives you the joy. The second one in this side is the line which creates your attention and the central one is the one that gives you the awareness or the truth, as far as you know it. We are aware of many things. For example, we are aware of the filthy odor; an animal is not. Human beings are aware of many things, but we are not aware of sin. We talk of righteousness.

We are not aware of a person, whether he is righteous or not. We are not bothered about ourselves, or whether we are righteous or not. We are very worried about our own cleanliness outside. We must have a wash, must always wash, put some good fragrance; you see, others should not feel our dirt and filth. We are not aware of the filth that we have within and others have that filth within them. We carry on; oh, we compromise: we can live with anyone we want to, we cannot feel it.

So “something new" means, what should happen? Should we start dancing, all of us? Or should we start singing or jumping, or standing on our heads? Or saying that we are very bad and something is wrong? There is this program coming tomorrow; they paid three hundred pounds for that nonsense. This all we can do. It's not difficult to stand on your head.

Some people were trying some tricks to fly and they were trying the tricks in a way that you do it in a circus, to jump on a horse, you see. You practice it and then you can jump quite high to get on to a horse.

So they were practicing, you see, that. You pay for it also, thinking they're going to fly in the air like that, you see.

All this foolishness and stupidity, we can all do it. It is in our effort. We are quite capable of being very stupid. Animals cannot be. This is other awareness we have got. If we want to be, we can be really stupid. Now, we see that stupidity around. We know that people are stupid, we have been stupid, playing stupidly. It's very interesting sometimes the way people are stupid, you know, quite flabbergasted at such things. We are ourselves. This is also human achievement, that we can be stupid if we want to.

The other achievement human beings have very nicely achieved and have maintained, is that they can disintegrate themselves. They had a gentleman coming to Me. He said that, “Mother, now I have no feelings." I was shocked. I said, “You have no feelings?" “No, no feelings for my children, no feeling for my wife, no feeling for anybody. If somebody dies, I don't mind." I was quite surprised at him. I said, “How could you achieve that? What are you doing?" He said, “Nothing. I am running for three miles these days and jogging." I said, “With that did you develop this thing?" He answered: “Yes and what a nice state!" Instead of getting joy, you develop a dry, cruel personality. A tiger would be cruel, as much as he has to be. Means he has to kill people and eat, that's all. But human beings can be cruel to any extent. I mean, you wouldn't find anybody like Ayatollah in any animal state, you see, somebody behaving like this. We have all kinds of things we have made by our disintegration. That's how we become spies and all sorts of things we do. We have wars, because we start justifying everything by our rationality.

So this is the achievement we have got so far and here we are, seeking God. Now, God is integrating.

He integrates, while we are busy playing games. His game is very different. He will integrate you in such a way that you cannot disintegrate any more. He'll give you that joy, that you will not go any more to these useless pleasures of life which are for a very short time and then you give up. He does that. He works it out that way. That's what we have to receive. If you try to do that, then He will know that you are doing it. After Realisation you start feeling it on your fingers, that you are doing wrong. Say, we can feel everybody's Chakras on our fingers, once you are enlightened. The centers by which you can guide others, by which you can guide yourself, by which you can understand yourself and others, is only possible if you are enlightened, if the light has come in your attention.

Now I feel this, I know it is cold. I feel that, I know it is hot. But if you feel somebody who is, suddenly you feel, you see, you are feeling hot here on this finger. Every person who is a realised Soul will feel this finger hot. Everyone will feel from that person. Now, what does that mean? If you feel this finger hot, what does that mean? That means the other person has a problem with his father, or he himself as a father; the fatherhood is challenged in him, just imagine. We have our father within us and the father that we are going to be, within us and you can feel it. No medicine, no human awareness can detect it.

None of your instruments can detect it. Like, this is the problem with this man, is that he is unkind to his father, or he is unkind as a father. You go to the psychologists, they'll ask you ten questions and end you up in the lunatic asylum. They will follow later! This is a little child, say, who is a realised Soul, can immediately say the same thing: `This is the finger that's catching.' And also you are to be told what is the decoding, what does this mean, what does this mean, what does this mean. You need somebody to tell you and I'm here at your service. Not only that, but you have to also know how to correct. I've said it a hundred times and again I'm going to say the same thing, that cancer can only be cured through Sahaja Yoga and a Sahaja Yogi cannot get cancer. It's a fact, but it's not easy to convince people.

Yesterday I was watching the film made by Mr. Wallace who was a very great scientist of this. What he said, that in this country it is so difficult to establish yourself, because if you try to say anything that you have got, people will immediately try to find out what you haven't got and they will deny you and they are experts in it. I said, “I had it!" But it is for you to get something. This is one thing, if you realise: `We have to get something,' then you wouldn't be that critical, you wouldn't be that frantic. You will settle down a little bit: `Let's see what I can get out of it.' You have to achieve something.

This is what is Sahaja Yoga. Sahaja, `Saha' means `with' and `Ja' means `born'. It's born with you, spontaneously in your evolutionary process. You are here now at this point. As it is shown here, there are these seven Chakras within you and there's a Kuṇḍalinī there, for which you can get a chart from these people and you can understand, as Gavin has said, that: “Four, five years I've been realised and knowledge is so great." It's very true.

And every day I'm learning Myself from human beings what sort of things they are have gone into, see: many things I have never known, that people could be that stupid or could be that cruel, or could be that funny. It is very, very surprising how people play games, how they play that cunning. I'm really flabbergasted sometimes, how they have lost their innocence and how do they believe that others have no brains? Give it up. It has no meaning. That's not you are here for; no, no! It's not meant for you. It's meant for some jugglers, or we can call them some horrible devils, not for you. You are seekers, you are saints. Evaluate yourself. If you are real saints, then you should not go in for anything that is not real: discard it.

About the mechanism, about the Kuṇḍalinī also, many people have written such a lot without knowing anything about it. Look at their audacity! I cannot imagine, how can you write about something which you do not know a word? Getting a shock somewhere, you start writing about electricity, its creation and everything; how can you do it? This is another achievement of human beings. They can write falsehood, they can tell lies, they can write lies, they can write books after books with lies. They can give you all that is non-knowledge, absurd, false, just because they think they must be significant somewhere. Or they can do anything. They can put their nose in such a way that it looks like eyes. Or something like that they are up to, something absurd.

Absurdity is a quality of human beings. Human beings cannot be absurd, but they are! Now, the animals are surprised at the absurdity of human beings. They just get confused: `Why is he behaving like this?' You might see your dog or cat sometimes puzzled at you: `Why is he so like this? What's the matter? Is he all right?' It has been happening to so many people around, you must have seen and you must be wondering, `What is it?' The thing is, they are not yet complete.

So all these things are only possible when you have the light. For example, when you are walking in the dark, a cat will see you because cat can walk straight on. A dog can walk straight on. There are some birds who can even hear the rumbling of the stones when the earthquake has to come. But only the human beings do not know anything about the future or the past and also does not know anything about the present. He is groping and his groping looks stupid and looks funny. But once the light comes in, then he walks straight. But his straight walking also is not going to help you, unless and until you walk straight and you get it.

So all the concepts we have about things may be stupid concepts. I have seen people, when they come to My program and if they ask too many questions I know that they will be the first to leave, just to disturb the meeting and to delay, just to show off, be significant. Mostly, ninety-nine point nine percent ask questions and they are the first to leave. After asking the question, they are the first to leave; is a very common experience that we have had before.

So Sahaja Yoga is a way of nature, is the way of God. He has given you the right to be that. It is your right that you get it. That you establish yourself is your own doing, where you put in your effort to establish yourself. But to get the light is all right, then you establish it yourself; look after it, grow in it, mature it, enjoy it. Then only, you enjoy. Unless and until you are grown, you cannot enjoy.

So you have to grow into it, then you will enjoy and that is the Kingdom of God which is being promised to you, in which you feel collectively conscious. This is what it is and that is the Last Judgment, which has been told. How are they going to judge you? Are they going to weigh you on the scales like the beauty contest? Think about it: how are they going to judge you? [MISSING.]... [UNCLEAR] the judgement is here and also there is a way of cleansing yourself, going ahead.

And takes time. It's not [MISSING] be cleansed through this Kuṇḍalinī. She works it. She goes round.

She cleanses you completely. She cleanses all your problems, gradually and then you start settling down.

That is how you are judged. She judges you. She tells, `Here is the problem. That is the problem.' You judge yourself. You see for yourself: `This is the problem. That is the problem'; you correct yourself.

Once you have corrected yourself, then you accept that correction. You are told how you correct. It's very simple methods are there, because the radiation of Divine starts flowing through you. As Christ had said, “Something passed through My body." But you have your own gods, you have your own goddesses, you have everything of your own: it's just mythical. Face it yourself. You need not believe into anything, but you need not disbelieve also. Just like as you go into a college, you have to study, not believing into anything or non-believing, but you have to see for yourself. You have to experiment yourself. In the same way, it is very individualistic in a way, but works out in a very collective method.

Now this time is over, I think. I've spoken today a different language, of the Self, of the Spirit. We have to think about the Spirit. The rest is all useless. We have to get to it, not by reading about it, not by talking about it, but by taking our attention to it. And you do not take it. Actually, it is the Kuṇḍalinī which is going to take. But let it work out; Kuṇḍalinī has to work out. It's very simple: like one candle which is enlightened can enlighten another candle, in the same way it works out. But if the candle is a little upset, then the same candle which is enlightened can also put it right. It is that simple. Not to allow your egos to be challenged in any way. It's a very simple method. Just think how you have become human being, in a very simple way. You never even felt. But first time, you are going to do your evolution, that you are changed, transformed, because it will happen in this lifetime.

I hope it will work out for those who are new and those who have been coming. They'll go deeper into it, to understand that it's only the light of the Self which one has to achieve and then you become that.

You dissolve into that. That's the beauty everybody has to achieve.

May God bless you all.

Now those who have come for the first time, I would request them to sit mostly on the first or the second row and the Sahaja Yogis can sit later on, because, you see, I can put more attention to them.

Oh, nice to bring the baby over. It's very sweet of you.

Please come forward, please.

These days I find many children who are born in England are born realised. They're just born realised.

You cannot make out between a realised person and non-realised person, but a realised person can make it out.

So many children we have seen are born realised and they have a special value. They have a special value: very special vibrations. You can make it out who are the born realised and they recognize Me, too.

So nice you brought them along and you must also know that if you have realised children as your children, you, too, have a very special value. If you do not come up to that, that's wrong. They have chosen you because they think there's something about you. Otherwise, why should they choose you? Self-realised people choose their parents with great care and it would be really failing them if you do not come up to that.

So, let us have the Realisation. Just put your hands like this: very simple way, is like that. If you could take out your shoes, would be better. Put both the feet on the Mother Earth, just like this.

Now, what do we do, is nothing but from your hands. As you know there are centers here, as I have told you. These centers receive the message in a subjective way. It passes through your Viśhuddhi Chakra there, because it goes here on to this center and informs here. From there it goes up and informs the lowest Chakra there, which is below the Kuṇḍalinī. This is the center of innocence, the first Chakra, is the most important and that informs the Kuṇḍalinī that: `All right, the message has come.' Then this Kuṇḍalinī starts rising through these different centers. These centers are landmarks of our mental, physical, emotional being and also spiritual being. And when they pass through that and the Kuṇḍalinī when it passes through that, it starts enlightening those centers and showing what is the problem. If it cannot move, it makes an indication on the fingers of the realised Soul. Then they can correct it there. Then it goes up. Then they correct it, because it flows from their hands, this, from their fingers, this power. They correct it and then by correction they allow the Kuṇḍalinī to rise and pierce this bone here, which is known as Fontanelle bone. When it pierces this bone, then you become that subtle form, you become that subtle being which is collectively conscious. You become, again and again I say, you become. But first thing what happens is that your attention is enlightened, that is, you start feeling the cool in the hand. Or we can say that the subjective truth is dawned upon you, that you start feeling Cool Breeze in your hand.

Now, it's written in the Sanskrit language also and also otherwise in the Bible, anywhere you read, that “Salilām, Salilām." It's the Cool Breeze. The Mother flows like the Cool Breeze. The Primordial Mother, the Ādi Shakti, or the Holy Ghost, has the Cool Breeze.

So it starts coming like Cool Breeze within us. That's the light of the Spirit. That's the Power of the Mother. That starts flowing and you start feeling it gradually happening to you. It goes inside and you see that, once it starts coming into you, that you turn to some other person, to find that you are giving Cool Breeze.

It would be nice if I see some people who give Me Cool Breeze, but so far it has not happened. That's the only problem, but if they could give Me, I'll be very happy. It's always you get it from Me.

So doesn't matter, because My style is just to give and give and give. I cannot take.

So far, I've not been able to take. I wish one of you could do that; I'll be very happy.

This is the peace. This is the bliss and by which your fingers get enlightened, your attention gets enlightened, you start feeling others, you start understanding yourself, where are you caught up. If you put yourself into a cocoon like this and you see watching: `Where am I caught up?', you can see. Sitting down here, you can think about anybody, your mother, father, anybody; you will know which center you are catching and all these centers denote something within you. But if you want Me to teach you everything in one day, it's not possible. You have to give some time to yourself, that's all. I think that's the only thing needed, is that you have to give some time to yourself and you have to value yourself. You have to do it seriously and take it upon yourself, so that your physical being, your mental being, emotional being is all completely cleansed and you enjoy your spiritual being.

So let's have it now. Let's see. Just put your hands like this, like that and you have to close your eyes.

Some people cannot close their eyes because they get flickering. If that is the condition, then open your eyes. This is not hypnosis, not any brainwashing, nothing of the kind. If it does not happen, it does not happen. But we have people here who can work it out. I can work it out also.

All right, let's have it now. Ah, I hope you don't ask Me questions, because it's unnecessarily a waste.

Some people have something in their head, but just forget it. You get yourSelf-realised and then we'll see about it.

But it's not only today. You have to come again. Come again and establish it within yourself and all the knowledge I will tell you, everything. No secrets will be kept and you will become master of this.

Good.

Contents: 1979-11-26*, Public Program, How to Get to the Spirit that Lies Within, Caxton Hall, London, UK

... and how it resides within us and how we are lost in the curtains of Māyā.

Today I'm going to tell you how we get to that Spirit.

There are two types of methods people employ in finding out that Spirit. One is called as Anupāya and another one is called as Śhāktopāya (described by Patanjali). `Anu' means a molecule. When we are lost in the Māyā, as I had told you last time, actually the Spirit is eternal, It is all-powerful. It never loses Its power whether we are old, young, whatever condition we may be, the Spirit has Its own power, all the time. But, the reflection of the Spirit in us, the light of the Spirit in us, depends on the quality of our reflector, how we are. And because of the quality being so poor sometimes, darkness is created within us and in that darkness, we do not know sometimes, even to that extent, that there is something beyond.

So the first style of seeking is Anupāya as you call it, which is depending on separating molecules after molecules. Because under these circumstances, when you are surrounded by darkness, you see Spirit just as a molecule or you can say a spark or a flicker.

Sometimes you just get a flicker of it.

As you know the thoughts arise within us and fade away. We see the thoughts rising and fading away.

And there are many thoughts all around us. Our attention is on those thoughts, moving all the time. It is very hard to find that space in between two thoughts, that's why what we see is just a flicker, you can call it, or a little atom of that Spirit, sometimes sparkling. And then the search starts among human beings.

From that darkness, from Tamo Guṇa they start searching and the kriya [action] starts within us.

So we can see in the left hand side as you see the Iḍā Nāḍī, by which we live in Tamo Guṇa, in desiring for it and then we move to the right hand side, on the Piñgalā Nāḍī, in which we act. In that action we try to find the Spirit. Of course, first we think it is in getting material advancement that you will find that Spirit, that flicker and so we go in for material advancement.

Now, material advancement is very different from the spiritual advancement. Or we can say the material happening, what we see, like a plane landing or a plane taking off or a collision of two trains or any such happenings are outside and spiritual happening is within.

Our attention is always attracted towards outside happenings and it is an impossibility to take this attention inside. That is why something has to happen within us to attract that attention inside. We cannot force our attention inside, so people try, normally, the Anupāya is that what you call Ashtanga Yoga and other Yogas, by which they try separating themselves from myth, from darkness; for which you need very astute, honest, sincere people, very young celibate, innocent people, those who have to live in the forest with their Gurus.

So they keep out their attention, which is called as Nirodha [restraint]. They stop their attention spreading itself. They concentrate their attention with the help of a realised Soul.

If you come to India you'll meet some real sages like that who live on top of hills and mountains, who are not easily available to people. They do not sell their religion or they do not sell their Realisation to people. Hidden away from the madding crowd, they exist there. One of them has told someone, some Sahaja Yogis that he has practiced Anupāya for twenty-one thousand years from when he was just a frog! It's fantastic that he carried on for twenty-one thousand years, every year, life, he was born and still he cannot raise the Kun.

d.alinī of others very easily! Still he does not have the power to raise the Kuṇḍalinī the way you Sahaja Yogis can raise! It's most surprising! He has given Realisation to only one person, only one. In twenty five years he worked on him; the same way, Anupāya. These are the people who are detached, veetragas. Not that you have to run way from anywhere, but living in the society only you can achieve it through our Sahaja Yoga or Mahā Yoga. This is shaktopai. But these people still are afraid to come in the cities because they could not make people understand. They do not trust human beings and they want to keep away from them. They are not married.

They lead a celibate life. They live up to two hundred years sometimes, sometimes a thousand years also. But it is a very individualistic movement, works on one or two people. Births after births they cleansed themselves. This is Anupāya.

So the search for the Divine or for the Spirit has been on for ages now, it's not a new thing that we are doing here. And you also have been seeking that Divine in your previous lives and many lives before.

But you must know that for seeking you have to go inside. It's not outside. And how do you go inside? Is the problem.

Some people say that if you go on suggesting, `I'm going inside,' you go inside. It's all imagination, because when the attention is out, the knower and the knowledge, both are different. Like if I see this thing now, for example, if I am not a realised Soul, I'll see this one and I will just think, `How much they must have paid for it? What is it made of? From where did they get it?' All sorts of these superficial things as you can call it. At the most somebody might say, `It's very aesthetically placed and it has very great balance,' and all that. At the most! But it is all outside, because the knower who knows about it is outside the knowledge.

So there's a tremendous difference between the happening outside and happening inside. When you see a train colliding you will say, `Oh, look at this! What is this they have done? This driver is wrong!' and that, `These people have suffered so much,' and all sorts of things. You'll start collecting money. Whatever we do normally, you see. But the knowledge about it is outside the knower that is your Self. But when the spiritual happening takes place the knowledge and the knower become one.

For example now this machine that is here, to a normal person as I told you will be, `It is so much, it costs so much,' or whatever it is, you see. But to a realised Soul it would be, `Is it vibrating? Is it emitting vibrations? What sort of vibrations is it emitting? It is good or bad?' Because then you start understanding it according to spiritual value and not according to material value. I hope you understand this point.

Spiritual value is an absolute value. And what is the measure of that is the spiritual joy. The vibrations give you spiritual joy, the good vibrations, I mean. What are good vibrations? Are nothing but the coefficience of this whole thing is emitting through it, the All-pervading Power, which is giving you joy. It is an absolute value. You take ten children who are realised Souls: you tie their eyes and ask them to put their hands towards one person. All of them will show you the same finger, which is burning; whichever is the Chakra they are catching. There will be no confusion, no second opinion about it, no quarreling, because that's what it is, because the knower and the knowledge is the same.

That is why when our attention is outside and we are seeking something or knowing something, then we start seeing it according to our thinking and who does the thinking is mister ego or maybe superego.

We are not there to think about it, so anything you give them, say for example you marry two persons in modern times.

So they'll sit down and work it out. How can you work out a marriage with your brains? It's a question of your heart. Just enjoy it. You give them food, they'll sit down and work it out, start analyzing it. They cannot synthesize it. The food will get cold, it will lose all its taste and the whole thing will be wasted. They make the same thing out of their lives. For nothing at all they create problems by thinking. Analysis starts outside, synthesis starts inside.

Now this Nirodha is the withdrawing of your attention inside as I told you is only possible through a happening within. Now how do you get the happening within yourself? For example, I am talking to you, you are paying attention to Me: supposing something falls down, immediately your attention goes to that happening.

So there has to be some happening within. Now, what is that happening, is Kuṇḍalinī Yoga and this Kuṇḍalinī Yoga is the shaktopai, is the, is known as Shaktipath, is the giving of the Shakti. Very few are entitled with this, I mean today these are all selling `Shaktis' there. There have their ashramas and this that, they are talking of Shakti, when that people start dancing, jumping, screaming like possessed people. That is not Shakti at all.

Only a person of a very high quality can raise the Kuṇḍalinī because he is to be authorized by God.

It's a very rare thing to give Realisation to people. Only such people who have been authorized by God can just move the Kuṇḍalinī straight forward.

So the Anupāya is a very slow action, is for few individuals who get out of this Māyā, this illusion and tell people that, “This is all illusion, is a mirage, you are running after a mirage. Don't run after this mirage." But still, people can't believe them. They crucify them, they poison them, they beat them, they do all kinds of things to them. I mean, they did not do any harm to anyone whatsoever that they should be treated so badly by human beings.

So, it is to be understood that your attention has to be sucked in. The Nirodha has to work out. Not by denying things, “Don't look at the women." “Don't look at the gold." “Don't look at things, your attention will be spoiled." Not by those methods. Or by taking you to the jungles, leading you a celibate life, making a very holy atmosphere around and just forcing you that you do not see that [which] is evil.

But when you see it again you go back to the same! There's no immunity developed.

So the attention when it's sucked in by Kuṇḍalinī rising, the first thing you notice is that there is dilatation of the pupil. Now, dilatation of the pupil will cause a kind of a blindness, normally. There was a lady doctor who had come for her Realisation to Me once and I tried to raise her Kuṇḍalinī, it wouldn't go beyond Āgñyā. While she was driving suddenly she felt that her eyes were dilating and she couldn't see, so she took her car on one side and she said, “For about a minute I just could not see anything, I was quite worried. I felt my dilatation of the pupil is taking place and I was worried about it that how I've become blind." And then again she got back but when she went back, she was seeing much better and there was a sparkle in her eyes, eyes were sparkling. She telephoned to Me, she said, “Does it happen?" I said, “Yes." To attract your attention from outside inward, Kuṇḍalinī does that to you, that She dilates your pupil. Now the doctors may come on My head and say that it is a parasympathetic or a sympathetic action. They do not know, they have not yet decided. It's the action of Kuṇḍalinī.

They don't know about Kuṇḍalinī. Even if you show them pulsating they will not believe it. They don't want to believe it. They want to remain outside, in ignorance. All of them are like that.

Now, everybody is saying that now outside battles are over, we have to have battle inside, we have to fight ourselves. Anywhere you go they will say that, “We must find our wholesomeness." Oh, big lectures you know! Conferences after conferences people are talking so big! Talk, talk, talk, talk, talk, talk, talk.

But when it comes to reality that you can have it, it's a very slow movement, still better than Anupāya.

By Anupāya who are living in the city they will not reach anywhere. They cannot. If you try to do all those things, if you do not have a realised Soul as your Guru and also the atmosphere, either you'll get into ego or into superego. You'll have a problem there. Either onto to the left or onto the right. Supposing you tell them, “Now, don't drink, don't smoke!" Immediately you'll get conditioned and Mr. Freud will stand up and say, “See, you are conditioned, you should have all the freedom. All right.

So go ahead! Do whatever you please!" So your Mr. Ego will become like a big balloon on your head, you see, if you do whatever you please. And then you will have a big forehead coming out eating everyone out like that.

[Laughing.] And I've given a nice picture of Mr. Ego, how it tries to handle everyone and how we are raising against everyone. This Mr. Ego gives us the feeling that we are something and it is that is the one, which keeps us in bondage of ignorance.

And it's like, I sometimes feel like of the fist of a boxer, you know, anybody tries to go near it, it gives you a bang back! Anybody tries to say anything about it, it will come out with a big bang on your head.

So if you do not pay attention to your ego and say, `No, no, no, no I must not eat this, I must not do this, I must not do that' finished! You go out on the left hand side and then you get the conditioning and then you may fall into the traps of Mister Rajneesh or someone like that who is conditioning you. And you cannot get out of it. You try your level best, you cannot get out of it, because they entrap you with their hypnosis, you go into your superego, you are hypnotized, you are possessed and whatever you may try all such people are very difficult for Sahaja Yoga. They think I don't know what they are doing, but it is not My knowing, it is your knowing is the point. The loser is within you and the winner is also within you.

It is you [who] have to gain, not Me. Sahaja Yoga is not for Me at all. I don't have to do it. It is for you to do it to gain that knowledge which is your Self. Only thing I can do is the `Shakti path' but actually I don't do it either, I can tell you. I don't do anything. I'm just sitting quiet. It just emits, what can I do? That's My nature, it just flows. It works out that way.

But we want, because of our ego, we want all challenges. Supposing I tell you tomorrow that, `You can only get it by jumping hundred times,' you will immediately start doing that. If I tell you, say, on another sort of a efficiency trick, that, `Supposing you do it hundred jumps in five minutes, you will get it faster,' you will do that. Or else I give you another kind of a `pralobhan' as they call it, temptation. Like you put five rupees today then I say, “No, no, you better put ten rupees” and you put that. It's like a running a horse, you know. Please, see how superficially we look at this. In this superficiality we are going to get lost completely. If you are really seeking then you find it and be there and get it, this is your own! We talk big; I find very, I mean I meet the people who are the cream of every nation, I should say cream.

And they are creaming each other, that's all. [Laughter and laughs.] Nothing more than that. They do not want to go deeper into it and talking about, “Oh, we understand, there has to be a Messiah, there has to be, something must happen to us; we should all become wholesome." Now they are finding fanaticism is troubling them so they are saying, “Now, these fanatics are there." And we are all fanatics when we are outside. I mean, if you ask Me, they look like mad people to Me. Such extremists, all [their] attention outside.

And an arrangement has been made within you, as I told you, of Kuṇḍalinī being placed at the triangular bone there. It's so beautifully it is constructed, just see the beauty of the Kuṇḍalinī. Even in seeking we have gone all out to torture our Kuṇḍalinī. We are not honest to ourselves and to our Mother, the Kuṇḍalinī, the One who is sitting there for us to give us our realisation, our rebirth. She is there, you can see for yourself with your naked eye. For example, some... one of the Sahaja Yogis who is a doctor went and talked to the doctors. I said, “Now, what are they doing?" They said, they said, “Yes, we know, we got the Cool Breeze in the hand, all right." “Then?" “And yes we see, we know there is something pulsating in the triangular bone." “Then? Does not intrigue you?" “But still, how can there be Self-realisation?" I mean, it is beyond any one to drink water for others and digest it and enjoy it. You can take somebody to the water, make them drink, push them down into it, but if they just refuse, then what can you do about it? And then they will come out of it and have a big conference. Big conference having, a big, big conferences, halls they'll fill it. And what are they discussing? How to know that you are a part of the one living organism! Again you take out some books, read here, have a big discussion, have a big party out of that and finished. This `Sunday School' seeking, is not going to help us.

First thing we have to be genuine about it that we want to seek it. As you know in Sahaja Yoga, those who have advanced, those who have really worked genuinely, without paying attention outside, have been able to know the Divine, to enjoy It and to give It to others. But anywhere in life you see, without genuineness, what are you going to achieve? It's like some mad man who's a Liaison Officer, you see.

Imagine what a job and a half! He's a Liaison Officer, so he is running with the flowers for one person, another for another person, he doesn't know who is coming. He may give flowers to somebody else, all sorts of madness. In the same way, we are like Liaison Officers, without any feeling within our heart. But with this happening you start feeling the other within you; you start feeling, it's an actualisation as I told you last time. And when that actualisation takes place only thing you have to do, is to allow it to grow, because it has happened spontaneously without your effort being put into it and it is going to work out spontaneously. Only don't stop its progress by your own ego and your own style of looking at things. You cannot make a career out of it or a business. It is to be enjoyed! Now I am surprised how human beings are not selling their children. I mean they are selling everything.

They are selling their hair, nose, eyes, everything that is possible under the sun, blood. But the source of all the joy that is within you is in the heart, is pulsating. That is called as the `Prāṇa Shakti' is the pulsating power of the Spirit within you, which is just to be enlightened.

So the whole attention gets enlightened.

And the difference between an ordinary awareness, where the knower and the knowledge are two different things and where an enlightened awareness, where both become one, it is tremendous! But nobody wants to practice it and see for yourself how dynamic it is! This is what the whole world is seeking today. This is what we are talking about and that is how the supply department from India for all the kinds of thugs are coming here.

So it's a big circus going on everywhere! Do you want to also running in the same circus? I mean, it is not to please Me, sir, but is to please your Self because it is only the spiritual value of everything whatsoever is going to give you joy, nothing else.

Let the awakening take place. Give some time to it. You have problems, the Kuṇḍalinī rises, alright. It touches the Sahasrāra, that's also correct. But many people they say, “Mother, when it has touched, why should it fall?" Now, it's not My fault. Mine does not fall. It falls because of your faults, whatever you have done to yourself. The Kuṇḍalinī has to supply, she has to look after you. You have been so cruel to yourself or to others, whatever you have done. You have done all wrong things so far, so Kuṇḍalinī falls.

Let Her look after all these things. She knows you have a problem. But if you are not genuine, She knows also that you are not genuine. She'll just disappear into your... as they call it the Mūlādhāra there in the triangular bone and will never rise. She'll be very badly frozen. When you start thinking about the Kuṇḍalinī, you just close Her completely there and She just goes down, she sees `This man doesn't know anything.' He'll have to take another ten births perhaps to get his Kuṇḍalinī again back in place. But with some people you know, it comes up and stays there. You must respect it. You must value it. If you value that, you have valued yourself and nobody else. By crucifying Christ, you cannot reduce His value by any chance. You have crucified yourself by that, when you crucified you.

So the good time is coming, Christmas ahead. Let Christ be born within us on our Āgñyā here in the crossing point. Let us remember all these great incarnations and prophets who came on this earth, who lived like us, like ordinary human beings, in the most ordinary way. They led a very ordinary simple life.

Some of them married also, had children. Why? They could have lived on the hails and mountains very easily avoiding all the nonsense. No, they did come to give you a milestone in your achievement of your evolution and this is what is the evolution, the Mahā Yoga where you become one with the Spirit. All the rest is useless, of no value. Spirit is your Self, is you.

You are identified with your ego, so you want to always satisfy your ego, “I like it." “I like it” means Mr. Ego likes it, really, most of the time. And the Self doesn't say, “I like it." It feels it. It feels within Itself. It's absolute. This is the `shaktopai', which many people are practicing. I haven't come across even one genuine person who does this, so far. I mean we had: Nanaka was there, Kabīra was there, we had in India, great people. And they have talked about these fake people. Even in the Anupāya, also Kuṇḍalinī has to rise in any case! It has happened in the case of Buddha and Mahāvīra. But I told you that they were the children of Rāma and thousands of years later, they got their realisation and they are like incarnations only, you can say, but they are different styles.

We have no time to waste now. This is the Last Judgment where we have to give up all our nonsensical ideas. You see, it's difficult to talk to people who have made business out of God, or some sort of a political issue out of a God. But sensible people should know that they have to know themselves first of all, they have to become themselves. And then they will know that they are really a part and parcel of the whole, of the Virāt, the Akbar.

You cannot know religion from outside like these people are saying, “Allah ho Akbar, Allah ho Akbar" and killing. Or sitting in the Church and, “Let's us sing hymn number such and such." Or in our temples selling all kinds of, what you call them, I don't know, drugs. That's why this contrast one doesn't understand how religious people could be like that. And then you get some nice people, `gentlemen', you know, `very good people.' Useless! “Oh, they are very good” alright, what will they do? They'll make some bridges or may have some tunnels or may do some creative work of writing some novels or something.

But still the knower and the knowledge is separated in them. They are useless to themselves, I am saying, not to others.

And the confusion has to go by achieving your Absolute. But all the time our attention is outside criticising others or finding faults with others or some sort of a trivial thing. All this sounds so trivial in this world, the way we are wasting our energy. Here is the store within us of our own earnings, of our own Puṇyas [good deeds] by which you have to get that is promised to you and to enjoy that and here is the key for you! Keep your minds open and take in. Have it. It's a gift as you yourself know that you have got so many gifts from God. How is it you have become a human being? What have you done to become a human being? This is a gift of God, this beautiful human body, mind, everything you have got it. And now that gift itself is going to transform you into the greatest of greatest gift, is to know your Father.

The One who has created you is anxious to bestow all His powers to you, like a father wants to bestow all his property.

So take it with both the hands and have it and enjoy it.

Before realisation, I do not tell you that you give up drinking, smoking or any kind of Nirodha. No, I cannot ask you to do that. But after realisation, jolly will you give it. You just do it because you now taste the ambrose, the Amṛuta. Then you don't want to have anything else. But till you have tested it, give some time, have some patience.

You need not be very well educated for this. You need not have a very good practice of say, standing on your heads! You need not be going to churches or anything. If you are a normal human being, it is going to work out. But mostly, when we do all these things, we are abnormal. Even in saying that we are seeking God, we are doing lots of abnormal things. We have to be absolutely normal. It is like this room being dark, you are sitting down here. Now sit down, it's going to work out. But we start jumping here and there, we get hurt. It's like going in a boat: just keep quiet, just be in the centre, with the centre of gravity of the boat. Just be there! That is Dharma. In your sustenance, stay there. I mean to remain good, you don't have to do anything. I mean to become bad, you have to do something, isn't it? All these things will come to you automatically when there is light.

Just be quiet. All of you are going to get it. That is being ordained, that's being arranged, organized very well within you beautifully. As in a seed everything is arranged, to create a tree, it's arranged within you. But you have to be together, work it out, understand each other and this group grows in that understanding, in collectivity and creates a nucleus for others to follow it.

So, there should be no problem for you to understand that it is a special grace. Because you are special, maybe I am also special and special people needed somebody special, so I had to come down here! Let's have it in a mutual admiration way, it will be a good idea. There is no need to feel obliged because I have to do it. I feel loaded with it and I feel lighter when you get it. Like a mother, I tell you, sometimes I have to be stern. I know the job of a mother. You need not be afraid of Me at all. I know everything about you, somehow.

Like we had one Douglas [Fry] with us and I suddenly asked him, “What about your birthday?" He was taken aback, he didn't know, [UNCLEAR it's stigia], how I know... knew that his birthday was there. And he really had a rebirth from the life he had. And when I said, he said, “How do You know, Mother?" I said, “I know what about your birthday." And I went to his house, saw him.

So overjoyed to see him settle down. It is amazing how your seed grows and how fragrant you become.

May God bless you all.

If you have any questions, please ask Me. We have little time.

There are eighty-four tapes already with these people and, if you want to have tapes for yourself, you can give them the tapes and they can tape for you or perhaps...

Those who do not feel vibration should not get upset. There's something wrong somewhere. I may not tell you on your face, as I don't want to hurt you in any way. But doesn't matter, I am going to work it out, you see, doctor doesn't come and tell you that, `You have got all these diseases and you may die next moment.' If doctor can do that, I am after all your Mother, so I am not going to tell you.

You yourself will know, later on, what was wrong with you. Because by knowing that, you are not going to help yourself. On the contrary, you are going to feel dejected.

Now please put your hands just like this, just like this. And both the feet on the ground, straight. On the ground.

I think perhaps next Monday is the last meeting, is it? Two more? You are going to have Me till the end, is it? [Laughs.] Alright.

So I was thinking of next Monday I'll be telling about elements and all those things how we are made. That would be better.

Now close your eyes please.

If you watch your thoughts, you'll find there are no thoughts. Keep your eyes shut. Just see there are no thoughts in your mind.

Now, in your finger tips you'll feel a Cool Breeze coming in. That means the Realisation has taken place because the Cool Breeze is the sign of the Holy Ghost, in Sanskrit it is `salilam salilam' described that the Spirit emits or radiates, you can say, Itself as Cool Breeze.

The light of the Spirit is the Cool Breeze. Power of God. It's a breeze like thing which starts floating or going inside your... If any one of you are feeling sleepy, keep your eyes open please. Be alert.

You have to be alert because this is the happening for which you have been desiring. See for yourself.

The more desirous you are the better it is.

Are you getting Cool Breeze in the hand? Good. Close your eyes and enjoy yourself.

All those who are getting Cool Breeze, please raise your hands, all of you. All those who are getting Cool Breeze in the hand, please raise your hands. All those who are feeling Cool Breeze in the hand, please raise your hands.

Now those who have come today and not yet realised and are not getting Cool Breeze, please raise your hands. Can you come forward? Keep your eyes shut, please. [Hindi.] That lady? You're getting the Cool Breeze in the hands? Are you feeling any Cool Breeze? Lady: Not so much [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Not so much so, so you started thinking about it, that's all.

Alright.

So for that you ask for forgiveness, that, `I should not think about it' and it will start flowing.

Alright? By thinking you did not get it.

So, it's alright now. Good! See how clever it is! Sardarji ko dekhiye inka garbar hāl ha [Look at Sardarji, his condition is not all right].

Still wearing that? What is that? Now see him what's the matter. On the heart he is catching. Now, better now? It plays tricks.

John, see here, this side. Don't watch others at this time. You watch yourself, alright? Very important.

You catch people. Just don't watch. Watch yourself. This is the time to watch yourself, alright? David, come forward here. John, you also come here, I would like to see you. John, you come here.

David, you come here. Lindsey, you also come here. That's it. You sit down there, yes? Lindsey just come here I would like to see you also. Just there. Just somewhere here. Just sit there.

Is that Allen? How are you? Better now? Better? Can you come forward? You also. Just let Me see. I wanted to see your vibrations also. Yes, please. Come forward. Can you take two chairs? You must see your vibrations. We must get ourselves corrected. There may be some sort of a thing because the vibrations if they are not sucking in alright, then there is some problem. Let's get it alright. What is there to feel bad about anything whatsoever. Well, Allen, just come here, if possible. All right. You can take a chair here next to John. Allen, please open your eyes, please.

Keep...

flight time by Shri Mataji and thus reached the airport after the flight departed, receives a message to call Shri Mataji.] Shri Mataji [on the phone]: Bala, the guard actually hit Me on My back. Contents: 1979-12-02 Guru Pūjā, The Declaration, Dollis Hill Ashram, London, UK

A month back, I told Rustom, that you must have, a Pūjā arranged, this Sunday. It's a full moon day and he asked Me what should you call is it a Guru Pūjā, or is it a Pūjā for Mahālakṣhmī, or Gaṇeśha's Pūjā.

So I told him call it a Guru Pūjā. And he asked Me later on, much later, when I was going to India, that why not also have the Christmas Pūjā over here? Today is a very, important day. Because, long time back, when Christ was just a child, He read from the Scriptures and declared to the multitudes, that He was the Advent, the incarnation, who is the Savior. They believed that a Savior is going to come. Today, long time back, on a Sunday, He said, He declared that He was the Savior. That's why today is the Advent Sunday. He had to live for a very very short time.

So at a very young age He had to declare that He was the Advent. Now it is remarkable to see, that before this, no incarnation said publicly, that, they were incarnations. Rāma of course, had forgotten that He was an incarnation. In a way, He made Himself to forget, played His māyā upon Himself to become a complete human being, Maryādā Purushottama and Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa also only told, one person Arjuna, just before he was to start the war. Abraham never said that He was the incarnation, though He was the incarnation of Primordial Master. Dattātreya Himself never said that He was the incarnation of the Primordial Master. With all these three forces, acting through innocence, came on this earth to guide, Moses never said that... though they knew He was great, He had overpowered Nature, but He never said that He was the incarnation.

At the time of Christ, one felt it was necessary to say otherwise people won't understand. If at that time they had recognized Christ, there would have been no problem. But still, human beings had to evolve, further.

Somebody had to cross the Āgñyā Chakra in the Virāta, to go through that door. That's why Christ came on this Earth. It is most surprising, that in this tree of Life, when the roots give out the shoot and the shoot gives out the branches and the branches give out the leaves and the flowers also blossom out of the same tree, those who know the roots do not want to know the shoot, those who know the shoot do not want to recognize the flowers. This is typical human nature.

I never said about Myself. Because, it was felt, that human beings have now achieved another dimension of ego. Even worse, than at the time of Christ. May you blame anything, you can call it Industrial Revolution because you were away from nature, or whatever you may call it. But human beings had lost all contact, with reality. They were identified with artificiality and to accept such a great reality is going to be impossible for them, that's why I never said a word about Myself, till of course some of the saints, told about Me, some of the possessed people also told about Me; and also people started wondering, that how the most difficult thing of Kuṇḍalinī awakening takes place, with that speed in the presence of `Mātājī'.

There was a temple in India and nobody knew about it, but they found that the ships which went near a particular spot, were drawn towards the shore. And it was difficult to ply them back and they had to put double force to take out of that attraction and they did not know that, there was some thing that was acting. They thought there was something wrong, with the depth of the sea... But, invariably it happened to many ships. Then they wanted to find out, after all what is happening to those ships. Why all the ships suddenly start getting attracted towards the shore.

So they tried to find out and when they went into the jungles they found a big temple and on top of the temple was kept a huge mass of magnet.

So through, rational understanding, people reach the point, that Mātājī has to be something exceptional, because, nowhere in the scriptures written down anywhere, that such an incarnation came on this Earth, whose mere glance, even thought, can raise the Kuṇḍalinī. Many saints, who are away from the madding crowd, sitting in the jungles, on the Himālayas, all know about it. Because their awareness is at a point, where they understand. They understand much more than you do, because you are still children, newly born. They are grown up.

But today is the day, I declare that I am the One who has to save the humanity. I declare I am the One who is Ādi Shakti, who is the Mother of all the Mothers, who is the Primordial Mother, the Shakti, the Desire of God, who has incarnated on this Earth to give its meaning to itself, to this creation, to human beings and I'm sure through My love and patience and My powers, I am going to achieve it.

I was the One who was born again and again, but now in My complete form and complete powers, I have come on this Earth, not only for salvation of human beings, not only for their emancipation, but for granting them, the Kingdom of Heaven, the Joy, the Bliss, that your Father wants to bestow upon you.

These words are to be kept within the bounds of Sahaja Yogis only, for the time being.

And today is the day of Guru Pūjā, not My Pūjā, but your Pūjā as Gurus. I anoint all of you as Gurus and today I will tell you what I have bestowed upon you and what great powers you already have within you.

Among you, there are people who are still not... been able to recognize. My announcement will work it out within them, the recognition. Without recognition you cannot see the play, without play, you cannot have confidence within yourself, without confidence you cannot become Guru, without becoming Guru you cannot help others and without helping others you are not going to be in any way happy.

So, to break the chain, is very easy, but to build the chain one after another is what you have to do. This is what you were all wanting to be.

So, be confident and be joyous and be happy that all My powers will protect you, My Love, will nourish you and My nature will fill you with peace and joy.

May God bless you! Now I would like to give the books first of all. And then I'll... about what you have got already within you. All weeping and crying should be over now. You have to wipe out the tears of others. Get out of your small shells and little problems, here and there.

First book, Cooley, can you give Me. [UNCLEAR]. Where is the pen?

Sahaja Yogi:... want a pen Mother?

Shri Mataji: I would like to write in Devalipi, because it's a mantra, isn't it? It has to be written in Devalipi your names, would be better than in English, though utilitywise English would be better, but from, from Sahaj Yoga point of view, I think, if I write in Devalipi it would be better and you will know it is your name.

So the first book. Advent!, by which we declare, the advent of your Mother, your own, very own Mother. Today, I would like to give to Gregoire, who has really worked very hard to write this book, and, I have tortured his life... and also Gavin, Jane, who have helped him such a lot and Maureen who has helped him to type and read My funny handwriting which had mutilated all previous writings of Gregoire [Shri Mataji chuckles]. We have had a very nice time together and now the book is ready. We should also be very thankful to Indian Sahaj Yogis, for giving all their assistance, to Gregoire, for the publication of this book. They have given the money and all the assistance. There are so many people who are to be thanked, but actually this is your own book. And the most important person whom you should thank is Cooley, or, Tony as you call him, because, he has taken the photograph, which turned out to be the best among all. He's not a photographer, by chance he had taken a photograph, it's such a Sahaja photograph.

And everybody said that this photograph should be... there. And everybody, not feeling jealous of anyone, have very sensibly behaved that the book should come out; and the involvement that everyone had; and they all helped...

Even the coming of book was so Sahaja, that, first it would not come. It has come at a time when we needed it the most: it should not have come earlier, because we wanted advent date for this book.

And, the coming of it was that, the ship people told Me that the books have arrived... and you have to collect the books and we have to take all... customs clearance and all that. But then they told Me that surprisingly, the customs people did not ask anything; they did not even open the boxes; they didn't want to know anything what was inside. They were all quite surprised. Normally, even if you say books they open it and see for themselves whether there are books or not, maybe something else coming in. And there was a niece of mine, who was there, who telephoned to us, that also spontaneously and I told her such books are lying with such people and just they arrived, it was that simple. And they t...

Should I write it here, or here Gregoire? Here would...

This is the cover, I would like, just show them, to give to Gregoire, just show round, with the peacocks. Peacock is the... is the Vāhana of Saraswatī.

Actually it is kept the other way round, you see? Sahaja Yogi [softly]: I think...

Shri Mataji: Beg pardon, what is it?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Chris] was trying to explain what Śhrī Kārttikeya was like.

Another Sahaja Yogi: He was just like Gregoire. [Laughter.]

Shri Mataji: Actually books are always done this way, you know? You can do it on the ground would be better. This way and then is covered like that, you see? It's always books are done.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother this way?

Shri Mataji: It's on this way it comes up. See? So, they are kept. Hm, I think then they go round.

Ya and, this is brought in... that side... this way and the pin must be put here or some sort of a thing.

Actually they have a ribbon with it, attached, when they tie it up the book like that. This is called as grantha, you see, the one which is tied, grantha.

All these books must be kept, tied in a proper cloth, in this way. And before opening the book you must wash your hands, properly. It should not be kept in every place you feel like: must be kept in proper places. And the due protocol of the book must be kept. It is very important.

Which are the names? Which are the people? Rustom: Gavin, your copy.

Shri Mataji: What is it?

Sahaja Yogi: We had to copy the [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Alright.

So to Jane, to... second to Rustom...

Rustom [interrupting]:... Walter.

Shri Mataji: Ah? [Pause.] This is the Guru Pūjā, I'm doing. [Pause.] Jane? There you go. Now I'm doing your one.

I'll use it.

All of you must have your individual copies. That is very important. And as everybody has different vibrations, it must be treated with the same understanding that, you all should have your individual thing with you.

[Shri Mataji writes the names of all the Yogis in Devnāgarī in their copies of the books.] Let Me just finish the work, alright? So now... Tony? What should I write? Tony or Cooley? Tony: Tony.

Shri Mataji: What's your real name? Tony: Antonakis.

Shri Mataji: Anthony. Anthony. Anth...? Tony: Antonakis.

Shri Mataji: Anta...

Tony: An-to-na-kis.

Shri Mataji: Antonacis. Nakir, `r' is there? Nakir? Tony: Ess. Nakis.

Shri Mataji: N-a-k-i-s. Antonakis.

Sahaja Yogini: that means live [UNCLEAR land upon].

Shri Mataji: Yes I knew you had another... An... to... nā... kis, nakis.

Tony: Anto...

Shri Mataji: Antonakis.

Tony: Yes Mam.

Rustom: N, a, i...

Shri Mataji: N, a, i, Naikis.

Tony: No. An-to-na-kis.

Maria: N, a, k, i, s.

Shri Mataji: Oh. Antonakis.

Sahaja Yogi: Antonakis.

Sahaja Yogi: So at last we got the truth here. [Laughter.]

Shri Mataji: Keece or Kiss.

Tony: Kis.

Shri Mataji:... tokis. [Long pause.] Now, you must know the meanings of this: “To My beloved son Antonakis With love My blessings Ma Nirmalā" Now, who else? Tell Me the names now.

Sahaja Yogi: Barbara.

Shri Mataji: and Mark. [Long pause.] May God bless you. Now. Maria. That's your real name, Maria? Full name? Maria: And the only one.

Shri Mataji: Only Maria. [Pause.] Go sit down. May God bless you.

Sahaja Yogi: David Szpiro.

Shri Mataji: David Szpiro. [Pause.] [Hindi asking about the surname being `Spiral'.] Rustom: Spi-ro.

Shri Mataji [while writing]: Spi-ro. Szpiro. [Pause.] May God bless you.

Rustom: Malcolm Mother. Malcolm.

Shri Mataji: Malcolm. Ma-la-kom.

Rustom: Mal-kom.

Shri Mataji: MalkOm [Pause.] Rustom: Patricia.

Shri Mataji: May God bless you. Patreeshia, Patricia.

Rustom: Patricia.

Shri Mataji: Patrisia.

Rustom: Patricia.

Shri Mataji: Ta? Rustom: Ta.

Shri Mataji: Patrisia, Patrisia.

Sahaja Yogini [softly]: C I a.

Shri Mataji: But it is Tra [rolled `r'] or Tra [soft “r"].

Rustom: It's Tra.

Shri Mataji: Tee, are, but you see in Hindi we have two.

Rustom: Tra.

Shri Mataji: Pat-ri, Pat-risia, is correct? Patrici... Patricia, Patricia. [Long pause.] May God bless you.

Rustom: Hester.

Shri Mataji: Hm? Hester. It is... Ha-sta? Rustom: Hester.

Sahaja Yogi: Hesta.

Shri Mataji: Hestā.

Sahaja Yogi: Hesta. With an `a' no `r'.

Shri Mataji: Hesta.

Sahaja Yogi: H, E S, T A.

Shri Mataji: Tee. Ha?

Sahaja Yogi: A.

Shri Mataji: `T'. Hesta.

Sahaja Yogi: Hesta.

Rustom: Short `a'.

Shri Mataji: Hesta. [Pause.] Hesta, May God bless you. May God bless you. Now.

Sahaja Yogi: Harry.

Shri Mataji: Hm?

Sahaja Yogi: Harry.

Rustom: Hare, is your name, ha?

Shri Mataji: Hari.

Rustom: Hare.

Sahaja Yogi: Hari? Hari: Hari Jairam.

Shri Mataji: Hari Jairam. [Long pause.] May God bless you.

Rustom: You, Peter.

Shri Mataji: P, E, T, E, R. [Hindi regarding pronunciation of Peter's name.] [Pause.] May God bless you.

Rustom: Felicity.

Shri Mataji: Felicity.

Rustom: Usko apta hai Ma.

Shri Mataji: May God bless you.

Rustom: Philip... Philip.

Philip: Spelt with one ell.

Shri Mataji: You have...? Philip: Spelt with one ell.

Shri Mataji: What's he say? Rustom: [Hindi about the spelling].

Shri Mataji: Philip.

Rustom: Philip.

Philip: P, h, i, l, i, p.

Shri Mataji: Philip. [Pause]. You can put some Music.

Rustom: Oh. Malcolm? Music.

Shri Mataji: May God bless you. Hm? Rustom: Allan.

Shri Mataji: Allan.

sākṣhāt, Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt, Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt, Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ

Shri Mataji: You did not say Viṣhṇu mantra.

Rustom: I said [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You said Mahāviṣhṇu... it's alright. When you say Viṣhṇu Shesha also you can say where the Nābhī is then say Viṣhṇu Lakṣhmī and Sūrya Chandra. See they are also Chakras, Sūrya Chandra.

So the Iḍā Piñgalā Nāḍī Shakti you can also say, so that [UNCLEAR]... it now... [UNCLEAR].

Rustom: Om Twam sākṣhāt Śhrī Lakṣhmī Nārāyaṇa Sheshāya namaḥ... Sūrya Chakra Swāminī Shakti...

... Chandra Chakra Swāminī Shakti...

Shri Mataji: See? How it's... [UNCLEAR]. You see? You can say Chandra Maṇḍal Madhyastha.

Sūrya Maṇḍal Madyastha. Means this superego and supraego.

Rustom: In the... they say Bhanu Maṇḍala Madhyastha.

Shri Mataji: Hm. Bhanu Maṇḍal...

Rustom: OK. Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Chandra Maṇḍala Madhyasthāya namaḥ Om Twam sākṣhāt Śhrī bhanu Maṇḍala Madyasthāya namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: [Hindi about Iḍā and Piñgalā] Iḍā and Piñgalā bolo.

Rustom: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Iḍā Nāḍī Swāminī Shakti namaḥ Om Twam sākṣhāt Śhrī Piñgalā Nāḍī Swāminī Shakti namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Suṣhumnā Nāḍī.

Rustom: Om Twam sākṣhāt Śhrī Suṣhumnā Nāḍī Swāminī Shakti namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: That's better. [UNCLEAR]. Much better now? Rustom: There's also Sarva Iḍā Granthi Vibhedini Shakti.

Shri Mataji: Oh. Iḍā Granthi Vibhedini is good.

Rustom: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Sarva Iḍā Granthi Vibhedini Shakti Mātāya namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Hm.

Rustom: Om Twam sākṣhāt Śhrī Sarva Piñgalā NĀdi Granthi Vibhedini Shakti namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Hm.

Rustom: Om Twam sākṣhāt Śhrī Sarva Sahasrāra Granthi Vibhedini Shakti namaḥ

Shri Mataji: Suṣhumnā Nāḍī.

Rustom: Om Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Sarva Suṣhumnā Granthi Vibhedini Shakti namaḥ. Om Śhrī Mahāganapataye namaḥ, Śhrī Saraswatī Mātāya...

Shri Mataji:... Now before doing any Pūjā, one has to do Gaṇapati Pūjā, because that is the first thing is holiness... is innocence.

So we have to, first of all, establish our holiness within ourselves, before we do any worship... or the innocence within us. You have to worship our innocence within us.

So all the cunningness, should be left... outside.

Rustom: Om Śhrī Mahāgaṇapataye namaḥ Śhrī Saraswatī Mātāya namaḥ Śhrī Gurubhyo namaḥ Vedpurushāya namaḥ AishtaDevatāya namaḥ KulaDevatā bhyo namaḥ [Someone coughs]... eksthānaDevatā bhyo namaḥ Shachipuram dharabhyam namaḥ Kalka parashurame

Shri Mataji: Listen to it carefully, now...

Rustom: Ashtavinsha...

Shri Mataji:... See now see now what is it. It is localizing the point, you see? Now, now say again.

Carefully.

Rustom: Kalki Avatāre, Shālivāhan shake. vaganvartamane, Ānand Twam sarvantsare...

Shri Mataji: Savatsare.

Rustom: Sarvantsare. Hema rutu... Don't know what Mase, Mātājī, can't find that.

Shri Mataji: Mase is... Kun sa Mase wa?

Sahaja Yogi: [answers in Marathi].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR Bhaidrabad].

Rustom: Bhadramase.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Māg, Māg].

Shri Mataji: Hm? Māg.

Rustom: Māg, Māgmase, shuklpāsh...

Shri Mataji: Pakshe.

Rustom: Pakshe. Kya Tita Mātājī? Kya Titu? [Mother, what is the Tita?].

Shri Mataji: Ti tau ayes Pūrnimā. [The tita is Full Moon.]
Rustom: Acha [Good]. Pūrnimā titau... Madhu yavasare, Aadidya divas dhanuvāsare, nakshatre, vishnu yoge, vishnu...

Shri Mataji: Kshatra, nakshatre ye to du.

Rustom: Ah, pit dhanu bha.

Shri Mataji: Dhanu.

Rustom: Dhanu, ah, dhanu, dhadu... ah

Shri Mataji: This is Sagittarius.

Rustom: Sagittarius.

Shri Mataji: See, we are putting the whole thing, where are we having the Pūjā, you see? So you have to find the location and complete that in London, where the River Thames flows and in the south...

Rustom: In the north.

Shri Mataji: Or, in the North of London and then at this time. And... what is the era and what is the month; what is the year; and what is the constellation, is Sagittarius. And what is the titi is the...

today is the full moon day... Like that, you see the complete location is being said.

Rustom: Acha.

Shri Mataji: This is to, inform the Gods.

Rustom: Viṣhṇu yoge, Viṣhṇu karane, London-ashramastite, vertamam chandrastite, Śhrī Sūrya Stite, Devgura shesha, shivgrahe shivyatav ata rashishtān-stite, shiv-satsu-evam gun.

a visheshan na visheshtayam shubha punya titāu.

Now we say... make a vow, so you have to repeat this after me.

Shri Mataji: Yes, you all have to repeat.

What have you got and what are your powers? [Pūjā seems to be underway. Shri Mataji is talking with the Sahaja Yogis.] If you say the mantra “You are the Mahat'ahaṁkāra." Mahāt means the primordial, the big and Ahaṁkāra is the Ego. It goes out. Just say that.

Sahaja Yogis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt, Śhrī Mahat'ahaṁkāra sākshāt, Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākshāt, Śhrī

Bhagavatī sākṣhāt, Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: Receding back, hm?... Just settle down. Hm! Now receding, that's much better.

Sahaja Yogi: Where's the Bowl the metal thing which was sent to be cleaned.

Shri Mataji: Better? Still. Quite a lot.

... We are talking of Christ. He's the one who is sitting down there to control our ego. To dissolve it.

Talking of Him. Christians have to be absolutely egoless if they think they are Christian. I mean those who follow Christ have to be egoless. Actually Sahaj Yogis are the real Jews are the real Christians are the real Hindus, are the real Muslims are the real Sikhs, because they're not fanatics.

Rustom: Nābhī's releasing.

Shri Mataji: Yes they are [Rustom discusses in Hindi with Shri Mataji about doing a Mahālakṣhmī Pūjā].

Rustom: Gregoire do you want to do the Mahālakṣhmī Pūjā? Gregoire and Jane, Gavin, Tony.

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR... go do it] all of them.

Sahaja Yogi: It's [UNCLEAR Debra].

Shri Mataji: Let's see.

Sahaja Yogi: Maureen? Rustom: All the people who did the book Mother, I thought I would get to do the Pūjā.

Shri Mataji: No-no-no... [noise on microphone]... as it is you have got the book as well as the Pūjā.

Those who have got the book should not [UNCLEAR] who haven't got it should.

Rustom: Not got it, but those who did the book Mother.

Shri Mataji: Oh did the book is a good idea. That's a better idea. Alright... I mean: I thought those who got the book. Those who did the book must, who else is there? Various Sahaja Yogis: Maureen, Gregoire, Tony.

Rustom: Those are the people who did the book? Who did the photograph?

Shri Mataji: Come along Tony, come along come.

Sahaja Yogi: OK Gregoire can you come along. [Microphone moved.] Rustom: Om, Śhrī Mahā...

Shri Mataji: What about your brother, Matt? [UNCLEAR]. He did the drawing.

Various Sahaja Yogis: Yes I thought of him Mother. Is he here? Pat? [Rustom reads shlokas while Shri Mataji explains how to decorate kumkum on Her feet.]

Shri Mataji: Put a line here. Put a line. Then, beyond the line you paint the whole thing. Now.

Get two more unmarried. Hesta where are you? Yes come along. Now you boys are to go away. Let them come. Then you see the married will have to come, five of them, for My sarī. Alright? Come along.

[Rustom continues.]

Shri Mataji: You draw a line, first of all. Here. Now you draw a line and you don't go beyond that line. No no not. But with one finger, one finger. Now you can use another finger.

[Shloka comes to an end followed by 5 min. of quiet while Mother's feet are decorated.]

Shri Mataji: Yes. It's alright. Doesn't have to look... Because we are going to put something now.

Give one to them.... two sides it has got... That is mangalsutra [necklace symbolic of a married lady].

Somebody, some married lady has to do that.

Rustom: Jane.

Shri Mataji: Jane. You can open it [the toe ring].

Rustom: Margy you can open it, it's just pressed apart. Pat. Ask Pat for the garland.

Shri Mataji: You should, pull it down further with that finger. [UNCLEAR]. This should be in front. You should see the thing coming... you see the ruby should come on this finger, it's a double-sided one. That's correct. Now this one, little down, press it a little.

Rustom: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Call somebody who's married. Sahndya, you can come along. Married women. [Marathi.]

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR]... hands...?

Shri Mataji: Hands? Married women will do My hands. [Marathi.] Ya. Come along, come here.

[Marathi.] Like that. [Marathi/Hindi.] Rustom: Towel. Pass me the towel. [Hindi.]

Shri Mataji: [Marathi.] You know how to do Swastik? [Directions for decoration of Hands in Marathi.] You see beyond this line, you have to put it on. With the right hand, with the right hand. All through.

[Marathi.] You draw the line like this Maria. Correct, now, you complete, you see, on the sides also.

No-no: sides of the fingers.

Rustom: You see the whole finger must be red.

So that no white can show up.

Shri Mataji: White, the white side of the finger. Backside. Frontside. Hm! See, how it's improving, see? [Marathi.] Good. Thank you. Like this [UNCLEAR]. Is alright. Now. [Marathi.] Peggy? You come here. One more married lady is wanted. Peggy has to be there. Peggy come here.

Six and seven? Yes come along. Pam is married too. How many here? You can put two and let Me also have two. Mary? Come along. Come, come, come. You have to put them together otherwise they'll break there.

Sahaja Yogini: Put three?

Shri Mataji: Yes, in My hands.

Rustom: Just put one on each.

Shri Mataji: Press My hand. Good. Now, you sit down here. Yes. Put [UNCLEAR] red on My feet. Right? Come along, put some red one My feet. Right hand. With all your fingers, all your fingers, come now. Good. Rub it here. Now on... [UNCLEAR]... Better now? Both the hands.

Sahaja Yogini: Both the hands?

Shri Mataji: Yes. Good. May God bless you. Is good. Come along. Both the hands. [UNCLEAR You twinkle] your fingers. Now. Half the [UNCLEAR]. [UNCLEAR Do] you make the line again. You see you are [UNCLEAR crossing], make the line. That's it. Stick to the line. Alright. It's good now.

Now do this one, also and... Take out, alright.

Feeling better now? Leave it here. Now, let's see. Little hot. Hm? Keep the line Hm? Alright. It's better now! Hard, rub it hard, very hard. Rub it very hard with your hands like that.

How are you now. Alright. Keep the line now. This line must be [UNCLEAR reformed/redrawn].

Alright, now, this one.

... Now everybody could not come, doesn't matter, for everyone they are doing it. You must think it's a symbolic thing, alright? So you do not differentiate. See if I touch something by My finger, I don't say I touch it by finger, I say I touch it. Understand that? That's how it is. `Cause everybody cannot do it: you need too much time. Now. Done. [Hindi.] The girls who are left will just come along. All the girls first of all.

Rustom: Kumkum acha hoon [Is the kumkum alright]?

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] All the girls who are left, Felicity and others also. Anna come along. Come along Anna, you come along. All those who didn't may go. Yes now, let them come along now. Those who have been here, come along all of you. Let them give one by one? Rustom: Kumkum? Kumkum isn't there. I'll...

Shri Mataji: Take this, in your hand, alright? Now. You'll give Me, out of...

Rustom etc: [Hindi.]

Shri Mataji: For the lower portion... No, no, kumkum itself.

Rustom: Where's kajal? But kumkum we have Mātājī.

Shri Mataji: Where it is? Sahaja Yogi and Sahaja Yogini: There, somewhere there.

Shri Mataji: All here. [UNCLEAR Nay] there must be the lower portion of this also, that has got kumkum.

[Soft talking. Shri Mataji directs the decorations of Kumkum and Kajal.

Someone takes some Photos.

Turmeric/Haldi is requested.]

Shri Mataji: Put on the right hand only on the right hand...

... You have again gone to the previous condition. Get over it. It's nothing serious. Is very simple.

Now. Alright?...

[Marathi.] Let him go and get the books now. How many more? Rustom: We shall need at least another thirty.

Sahaja Yogi: At least...

Shri Mataji: Bring the box, I think.

Sahaja Yogi: Eleven books here.

Shri Mataji: If you take Marcus, take... bring the book... [UNCLEAR] he will take them back.

Marcus, if you go with him you can bring it, but bring it fast, you see? Marcus: Thank you, Mother.

[Marathi.] [Sahaja Yogis sing Ār.ti Nirmalā Mātā and Saba Ko Dua Dena, recite the Mahā Mantras, Lord's Prayer and sixteen times Allah hu Akbar.] [Microphone is moved.]... [UNCLEAR Okist and] everybody had such terrible colds, that I also got a little bit of it.

So, that's one thing, and, if you want I can write it down for you and you can copy it.

So “how to cure colds and prevent colds?" [UNCLEAR Next time/That's...] Rustom: We can tape it Mātājī.

Shri Mataji: I would say better to take [UNCLEAR them and be comfortable], alright? So the thing that I want you really to know is what you have got and what are your powers, that is much more important. Now has he come back, Peter? Not yet. [Hindi question to Rustom.] [Noise on mike.]... talk about it? Should I tell you? Now, Alright?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR... the best kind of technology].

Shri Mataji: You can tape this. Sit down, sit dow, sit down, sit down, sit down. Ha. Mm.

The other day I told you about Shambhavopaya –'Shiva's method' and Nishaktopaya –'Shakti's method'. These are two methods of... [UNCLEAR cleansing people]. One is by which you cleanse people, very few of them, you take a handful of them and go on cleansing them, so their Chitta is completely cleansed, all their five elements are cleansed and... then the Kuṇḍalinī is raised and people get realisation. That's called as Shambhavopaya, in which... your personality is cleansed out completely. Another is Śhāktopāya, I said where there is Shakti, which, makes your Kuṇḍalinī rise, whatever may be the situation and then looks after the cleansing.

So, in our Sahaja Yoga, we have used the second part because there is no time left for Shambhavopaya. There it would be impossible to do it.

So in Śhāktopāya, normally people... what we do is Shaktipath, is to make their power, that is Shakti, to fall upon another one, like the reflection. Or, as we say, "the light is falling on us." So, they let their power, or their Kuṇḍalinī's power, fall on to the power of other's Kuṇḍalinī and then gradually raise it.

But for that, human beings as they are, they have their very laborious methods, for that also. Is that they first, they will choose your, what is the problem of Kuṇḍalinī.

So, they'll go through all your history, find out what sort of parents you have had and this and that, what kinds of dreams you have; they analyze you completely. And then also they find out what kind of diseases you could have had. For example, anybody who has got, say, eye's trouble, or trouble with the nose, or trouble with the throat, or with the stomach and all kinds of things, are avoided.

So you can imagine how many of us would fit into that category. And... then they would, also find out what sort of life they have led and what sort of parents they have got.

Mostly, it was done also to people who, actually at a very young age, went to the Gurus and asked for this Shākta thing, NiShaktipath.

Now, because of Me, it has become very simple, as you know is the Shaktipath, that what you have to do now is Shaktipath, means, to throw your light onto others. `Shakti' is power and `path' means to make it fall.

So, your Shakti can now fall onto anybody's Kuṇḍalinī and it can rise. Now, it was a very, very difficult thing. They said only person who is a `Vītarāga', the one who has conquered all his `rāga', `rāga' means any attachment, all the attachments, the one who has conquered. He's without any attachment, he's completely detached in life, can only do the Kuṇḍalinī rising.

So first of all, `Dīkshā' has to be given, is initiation. That you have already got. The day you came to Me you got the Dīkshā. You do not realise, that... how it happens. Such a lot of things have happened to you, telescopically, that you do not realise how many things have happened to you.

So, only for Dīkshā –'dedication', you see, a person is taxed quite a lot. I mean, you have to look after your Guru quite a lot and you have to take some fruits and things like that. Money also some of these nonsensical people take, but that doesn't matter, but even there is, some `Dakshina' has to be given, because, see, Guru has to be looked after by the `Chelas'. The Guru is after all, is not at all attached to your wealth or to anything that you give. But it is the duty of the Shishyas [disciples] to look after the Guru and that's why a little money is also... was to be given, to a Guru. I mean, of course they are now misusing the whole stuff, because the Guru has to live somewhere; he has to have a house and, all these things.

So a little money was also given, called as Dakshina. The whole thing is now so misinterpreted and has been taken to such a nonsensical limit, that people are just making it an enterprise. But the Guru had to be something, of that level, who would raise the Kuṇḍalinī. And that Guru was `Vītarāga', means the one who is, lost all attachment of the world, absolutely unattached.

Who's Chitta has been cleared so much, that there is no greed left in him, there is no temptation left in him. There is only forgiveness in the person. Such a person was regarded as a `Vītarāga' and when such a person, raised the Kuṇḍalinī he could. Only Kuṇḍalinī could be commanded by only such rare people.

So, first of all, you have got the Dīkshā of a Guru, without any, introduction.

So the Dīkshā you have got. You have got the Mahā Dīkshā also. First is the Dīkshā. Then what is the Mahā Dīkshā? The second Mahā Dīkshā is that you are given a Mantra, only one name is given, otherwise, normally, but this Mantra is also to be taken out. Because, the Guru, if he knows... I mean, these Gurus did not even know what Chakras you are catching. Just imagine! So, they used to consult your horoscope. “You have come at such and such time to me” say, “today you have come to see me. Now what is your horoscope? So, what must be your trouble? Under what Nakshatra [constellation] you were born? What was the name of your parents?" Then, there's a big science about it: they used to count from A... B... C... D... like that, and reach a point where they would find the words. What is the second word, what is the third word, like that and then they used to consult, it's a big Shāstra. And after consulting that they would find out what is the Chakra catching in you. And then they would give you a name, “Alright, say Rāma." You go on saying `Rāma, Rāma', till your right Heart Chakra is cured. This may take two years, three years, maybe two lives, maybe a hundred lives, you carry on with one Mantra `Rāma, Rāma, Rāma', always.

But this was to be done with all those consultations of your constellation and everything, your family, house, everything and then to be brought to that point where the Chakra is caught up. Now, supposing, your four Chakras are caught up...

[Sahaja Yogini speaks in Marathi and Shri Mataji replies briefly in Marathi.]... Because, you see, whatever is his horoscope denotes what is the trouble you are having, isn't it? Or what troubles you'll be having, physical, only, to begin with.

So, they would know through your Kundalee, means your horoscope, what was the trouble you are having. Supposing you are having a trouble in your stomach, so they would go round and round and round and found out one Mantra for the stomach. Because, directly they cannot find out, like the scientist, you see. Scientist, how they find out things? See, supposing you go to the doctor: he will take out your eyes, wash it nicely, put it back, say `eyes are alright.' Then he'll take out your teeth, make artificial teeth, jam them in saying that your teeth were alright [Shri Mataji chuckles]. He'll take out your ears, fix up something new, artificial, say it's alright, take out your heart, examine it, put another one there. It's like this, you see in the same way they used to do it, because, they were groping in the dark. As you people know about Chakras, they did not know what are the Chakras catching.

So, you can imagine, what a Mahā-mahā-mahā Dīkshā you have got now.

First is you have got a Dīkshā; the day your Kuṇḍalinī rises is the Dīkshā. Then you get your Realisation.

This is out of question they can never talk in one breath. You are kept hanging in the air, you see, all the time, upside down, just like bats in the night, you see? Then they would consult... other things...

like, they would see what kinds of friends you keep, to what people you are attracted, so the temperaments they will see. From that also they will judge. May give you another Mantra.

So, these Mantras you go on sitting and hours forgether [together] with them, all the time, reciting these Mantras, without paying attention to your other needs. And this was... when the mantra was achieved, they used to call it “All right. The mantra is `siddha' now for you." Means now this mantra you can use for somebody else, means only Rāma's mantra you could use, just imagine! Now, what have you got it? You have got your Realisation, alright. But Realisation means you have got the complete knowledge as to what mantra is to be made for, any Chakra whatsoever. You can coin your own mantras. Then you also have got, the power to know, all the Chakras which are needing the help.

You've got power to raise the Kuṇḍalinī, of other people. You have got power to fix the Kuṇḍalinī onto Sahasrāra if it is falling down. You've got power, to cleanse the Chakras of the other people and your own.

You've got power to fix the Chakras also by giving it a bandhan. You've got power to protect yourself from all negativity through your bandhans.

You have got power, to direct your attention to any place, by which you can know about anyone, who needs your help. You have got power to feel the problem in the collective, also. Like, what's wrong with London? Put your hands. What's wrong with London? Like this, like this. Frank? Never towards Me, it's dangerous.

Sahaja Yogini [softly]: Left Heart.

Shri Mataji: Left Heart...

Sahaja Yogini [softly]: Right Heart.

Rustom [loudly]: And right Heart.

Shri Mataji: And right Heart. [Sahaja Yogis start mentioning various catches.] That way, everything... but minimum left Heart.

Sahaja Yogi: And right Swādhiṣhṭhān.

Shri Mataji: Right Swādhiṣhṭhān. Now, you've got a language which describes something. See.

You've got the language to this, [UNCLEAR] when you said “left Heart." But you have not hurt anyone, by saying that. You Londoners are catching on left Heart, means what? That means you are going against God. You are not interested in the Spirit; you are materialists. You are egoistical; you do not care for your Spirit. You are trying to harm your Spirit; you are drunkards. You are going to ruin yourself in drinking.

But all this you don't say. You just say “your left Heart is catching" finished. You don't even say that you should do any forgiveness and all that. You only just put your hand like this and ask for the forgiveness of all the Londoners on the left Heart and they are forgiven and they drink more and drink more and have a worse heart.

So, all these powers you have got now. Is to raise the Kuṇḍalinī and to remove the obstructions in the Kuṇḍalinī. If there's somebody's Āgñyā Chakra would be caught up, the Guru would not remove his Āgñyā Chakra, fearing that his own Āgñyā Chakra would be caught up.

So, they had to first do the mantras to be Siddha. Siddha means, the one which is proved now a, effective. Your every mantra is effective, you take the name of the deity and your mantra is effective, it's already Siddha. Like a bundle it has got everything into it. You open it and you get it. If somebody's any Chakra is catching and you just say the mantra and finished. And you have knowledge of all the mantras and you know what it is. And you have all the knowledge and it is so secret that others do not know. Even if you do not take the names, you point at... Everybody knows what's the matter; Where to go, What to say.

So, though it is so much secret, it is so much understood between you. See the homogenios [homogenous] understanding between us is. We know what is what. And then we do not feel bad, about ourselves and about others. Though I say that your Mister E - G - O is big, nobody hits Me back. At the time of Christ it was impossible to take the name of E - G - O. Now you can say and you can see also clearly your ego, your superego, your nonsense, this, that, everything you can see.

Even if somebody, has the power, say is a born-realised person, he doesn't know a word about how to raise the Kuṇḍalinī. He cannot raise the Kuṇḍalinī unless and until he has become a Sahaja Yogi! So those born-realised who think no end of themselves should know that they have to become Sahaja Yogis, otherwise they are not effective; they cannot be Kriyavati, they cannot go into action.

So, all these things you have got within yourself, that you have the full knowledge about the deities.

You know why they get angry; what is the problem; by what sin they get angry. Only if I say, “Don't Commit Sin” finished. You'll say, “What is a sin?" Then if you say that “don't commit this” but now it is not only that, but you try some tricks and you'll have it. There's a... compulsory bandhan on you, of your Mother. If you try to drink, you'll vomit. If you do anything wrong, your stomach will go out. If you try to avoid Sahaja Yoga, you'll have to be there. Because, though you are not feeling it, you have felt, inside yourself, the charm of Sahaja Yoga.

But, there is a group of people, still, who have been realised and who are not, yet there. Now what is the difference between the two is? Very simple, is the recognition. Those who have not recognized Me, will not be blessed. They'll be going round and round and round.

So it is necessary to recognize.

Now there are some people, like... I'll say, very good example is, Shirdi Sāi Nāth's disciples are there.

Now, he is no more.

So they believe in him. Now where is he? They don't want to believe in the present incarnation, they want to believe in something that is dead, they believe in Rāma, they'll believe in Christ.

Most of the Christians have this problem. Even they will relate Me only to Christ. If I cannot relate Myself to Christ they cannot be in Sahaja Yoga. Or they'll relate Me, only to Moses, or to someone like that.

You have to live in the present and you cannot conceptualise Me Your concepts are limited supposing you were born here. You would be Christian. But if you are born in India you would be a Hindu. If you are born in China, you would be Chinese, with your eyes like that. You could have been anything, so, when your misidentification starts working, immediately you know that you are misidentified, because vibrations will stop.

So the group of people which are in between, the people, who are not yet settled down fully into Sahaja Yoga, who are not fully empowered, are the people who cannot recognize. And they feel very proud about it sometimes that “we cannot recognize." It's foolishness.

Immediately your vibrations will start flowing as soon as you recognize. And the, such group of people, are the people who are coming from various sources of... we can say various sources of other Gurus and things like that. Then there is a problem about them. And such people, when they come to Sahaja Yoga, they get their reali...

[GAP] I'm generosity I should say. They all get their realisation whatever may be the case. Even the other day we had a prostitute there, she also got the realisation. And Sahaja Yoga also gives a very long rope.

You do not lose your vibrations easily, if you get them properly. But what happens just after Sahaja Yoga: being the light, you start seeing all your defects within yourself. Then you want to deny Sahaja Yoga.

Some people start getting tingling.

Some people normally feel alright but in My presence they start shaking, or going into contortions. As soon as some people see Me, you have seen, that they become heated up; they get pain in the stomach, because, when you face the light you start facing yourself. And you do not want to face yourself. The main thing is those who are not yet steady in Sahaja Yoga, are not willing to face themselves. If they would face themselves they would correct themselves so fast, because there is light, you do not identify yourself with your defects. You are the doctor, you have the light and you operate. Also you know how to operate. If you just decide on this point that `I'm going to face myself, let me see who I am,' all these defects will run away. But you do not want to face it. And that's why those who get realisation also don't want to come to it. Those who also get Cool Breeze, they don't think much of it. Because if they think much of it they have to give up their ego, with which they are identified all these years. Moreover they will have to see themselves.

So, they say “No, I'm not better, I am tingling and this is happening, there are needle and pins in My body and that is..., how can I be? It is not helping me. Sahaja Yoga is taking me backwards." They'll start blaming the Sahaja Yoga for it, instead of seeing to people who have improved.

But whom are you blaming? You are blaming something that is going to save you. You are blaming your Saviour. Is better to see your own problems, your own defects and come up. To be very kind to yourself is this: that... you get rid of all these serpents and scorpions and all those, other things that are hanging around and just become pure. And the light has come. In this light you should start seeing what is the truth. Then your misidentifications will drop out and your real identification will be established.

Otherwise it cannot be done. You must learn to face yourself, never justify.

Now some people have a habit of justifying even their son, or their brother, or wife or husband. You are not helping them by that. Then these negative people have a thing to go together. Always two negative will join together, to put up a show. I'm surprised we don't even have any union here. See otherwise we can have `negative people's union, against Mātājī.' I mean you could be, facing like that.

Because [UNCLEAR you/they] always combine and, there is a big fraternity among negative people, big fraternity! Because, you have seen, that, those who are robbers, they always combine together. They are very friendly. They keep all the secrets. But two good people, if they combine, the whole world can be changed.

So, you must understand that try to go to a person who is positive. Otherwise you cannot develop your Sahaja Yoga. Who talks negatively: you do not go near them.

Now, in this country, there's another group of people. Because you are going to be Guru tomorrow, I am telling you all types. They do not want to face themselves, but there are many ways by which they avoid it. One of them is: as soon as they get realisation, they start analyzing it. You give them anything, they'll analyze. I mean in this country, they think they can analyze everything! I don't know from where did they get this idea. Maybe this... scientist or maybe these psychologist, must have, other intellectuals, so-called, they might have given this idea: that you take everything, this is this because of this. I mean you don't even have your eyes opened. You are such little babies still. How can you analyze all these things? So you start analyzing everything. Why this has happened, why that has happened! Once you start analyzing, you lose everything... Start talking about it, analyzing about it.

What you have to do is to receive it, assimilate it, take it more and more. Expose yourself. Do not find faults, with Sahaja Yoga, but know that there are faults with you which can only be corrected through Sahaja love.

There are people who even come on Me. “Why didn't you do like this, Mother? Why didn't you do like that?" I think I know My job very well. They try to teach Me also. “You should have done like this, you should have done like that." Whichever way you do, if somebody is jack-in-the-box, he'll always come up, because that's the nature of the person.

So you change that nature, `Remove your springs a little bit.

Settle down.' And these spring are nothing but this analytical business. Such people you will meet many.

So how to approach these people? What I have done about these analytical people, that is what you have to do with them. Now, listen very carefully. You give realisation to somebody. Alright? And the person feels the Cool Breeze in the hand. Now he starts saying, “Now, so what! I feel, so what?" Now you tell him, that “you did not get them by thinking, did you? Or through analysis?" “No." “You never had them before?" “No." “Then you've got it now... Now what are these? You explain." You cannot explain, so it is, something that has happened to you beyond your thinking power... Is a higher power than your thinking. You see, they... Thoughtless means they think he's a mad cap. You see? If you talk thoughtless awareness, they think,... `Oh, that means you don't think, means you are easily... primitive.' They think you are primitive if you do not think. It has happened through a power, which is much higher than you! By thinking what have you done? By thinking: you have cut your noses, cut your eyes, cut your hands, everything you have cut. And now you are going to have a big war. Wonderful thinking.

So you tell them, “by thinking you never got it and this is some higher power." Talk of higher things, that has given you this.

So if you have to be in that higher power, this lower power of your thinking you put it down a little. That's how they'll come round. If you try to say, `Oh don't think,' they will say, `What? Don't think means it is not even thinkable. I mean it is that useless!' And this is to tackle these people who are egoistical and who think and who would not even accept even if they get Cool Breeze.

So gradually, you help them.

Then for a Guru, as you are now, you have all the knowledge, all the power and everything. But what we lack, is confidence... and we have inertia within us. I don't know, how this inertia is going to get out.

You know sometimes, people who are that inert, they also have a use and they are put in the canons, you see and blasted in a circus, so they can show their feats. They are so inert that nothing can disturb them.

But, you are My children. I have made you after the image of Jesus Christ, of Śhrī Gaṇeśh. All their powers are available to you. And this is one point I fail sometimes I don't know, how to remove your inertia. Because, you have not practiced Sahaj Yoga. You have not gone into any practice. You got it very easily cheaply. You do not understand its value.

So you just want to have as a side track, you know? You have to discipline yourself, unless and until you discipline yourself, I leave it to your freedom, because I have always believed in the freedom of My children, because I think they are not that low type, that I should put freedom on them as a, sort of a bar, that they should not use their freedom.

You're absolutely free. If you want to go to hell, I will give you a chariot, to go direct. But if you want to go to heaven, I'll give you a Vimāna, an aeroplane, to go there.

So it is for you people, to become dynamic and to have confidence within you. You know every Chakras; you know every rising of the Kuṇḍalinī you know everything. Take it upon yourself! Then a person who takes it upon himself, you see I...

I can be very angry with all of you. Very simple. But no I have to get the job done. I have to talk to you nicely I have to sometimes scold you, I have to ask you this way, that way, you know? Marinate you, sometimes, sometimes put little grease, sometimes do this do that, sometimes give some heat, sometimes cold. Manage them, somehow, bring them round and treat them in such a way that they are there.

In the same way you have to treat those people. Not to get angry with them, to get angry is the easiest way, you see. Then have no problems. Once I get angry with you all, I'll have My own peace. No problem. But you have to be really very, very, patient with all of them. Extremely patient: your language must improve. [Long pause.] “Please” “I am sorry." You have lots of words here, but I think they have lost their value.

So we come to one point we must [UNCLEAR plead] from our heart, We must feel from our hear that `We have to save this man. We have to help him.' Then sometimes you have to scold also, because you'll find most of the negative people, will be the greatest, fussiest ever born; they'll create the greatest scenes ever possible; they'll show off the maximum...

... All these people have to be saved and tackled very patiently... everyone individually: “What you can do about Sahaja Yoga." Make the list of people whom you are going to bring. Only those who come once to church... on...

Christmas, may send their subscription every Sunday, also some of them do, are alright, can bring up the rear, of Sahaja Yoga. But such a rear can be a load, just a load, unless and until we have a real force in front.

So you have to decide whether you are going to be just a load on Mātājī that, “We've come here... My father is ill my mother is ill my brother is ill” or “get me a job and do this and do that...

I must have..." all these things are just good for nothing, useless. To My mind, it is absolutely useless.

They have no meaning; I just do not think much of them. But now if you say, `alright, I am willing to do this and that for you,' in the same way, with others also, you should talk in such a way... `Why you are bothering about these thing? What is it so important? What have you to do... in life?' When you start talking like that your wisdom, your greatness, everything will be appreciated. The Gurus, have to know from where their power has come and they must have their ideal corrected. They should study Me, how I talk to people, how I show My complete ignorance even if I know that they are horribly caught up and... I'd never tell them that `you are possessed', never, till absolutely they start shaking their heads and, absolutely they go beyond. I'd never tell them personally. In the same way you should not, also, suddenly say to somebody `you are possessed,' because that may, absolutely upset people. Any curt answer, any sharp answer, is not going to help. Is a thing you must understand, you see is a Gurudom, is different and to be a Guru is different. You have to be extremely soft and very sweet, otherwise these mad caps, they'll all run away and they'll be destroyed. They don't know they're good, you have to tell them they're good, you have to talk to them sweetly; you have to do everything, go all out, bring them out and do it.

So today all of you have to take a vow, that you are all Gurus and so, you are going to show... that you have, manifested, your Guru-ness. When I come back, I want to see what have you done about it. All of you should get to it.

May God bless you.

Any questions? Food can be served also... Any questions... Must ask questions you see? Because in the preaching of Sahaja Yoga you have problems.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, what do the born-realised have that we don't and what do we have that the born-realised don't?

Shri Mataji: Born realised are the people who were realised long time back, before they were born in this lifetime.

So they clear out much faster than you do, because they have done the clearing before also, so they clear out very fast. They normally do not take to all the perversions and all the temptations that you take to and they are very different type of people. They are unique and cynical because when they are born they find the rest of them are going the other way and they don't know how to deal with the others, because they don't know how to deal with the others and deal with the situation. They become cynical and they have their own ideas and maybe these born realised might develop their ego, also, quite a lot. Normally they do not take to temptations, normally, but if they go to it they will see to it that they have it fully, and, while you people have a very great capacity for one thing, because you know your realisation; it happened in your own awareness. When you were aware of it, you saw the happening.

So you understand the value of it. Supposing you are born in a rich family, then you don't understand the value of richness. But supposing you are not born in a rich family and suddenly you get lot of riches, then you can compare what I was and what I am. In the same way in Sahaja Yoga when you are not realised and you get realisation, you can compare. And then the value of realisation is much greater for a Sahaja Yogi than for a... just a realised Soul. [UNCLEAR yes/even/edis/if there]...

Some realised Souls also may understand but they are more individualistic, they are not so much collective, as you people are.

Secondly, because you have gone through that, in this lifetime and in your own memory all the wrong things you have done... you have much more compassion and understanding for other people, who have got these things. While these who are realised people do not have much of that patience for others and they have their own way of doing things. If they come to Sahaja Yoga they could be very dynamic and very great, no doubt. But they will not take to Sahaja Yoga easily because they think they are `alright. Why should we accept anything else now?' Because, sort of, they are satisfied people. But they cannot help the humanity unless and until they learn the thing. Like a man, say, who's very clever, very intelligent, is a child born, very intelligent. He doesn't like to go to a school. But he misses all the other things of the school: the discipline of the school, the complete knowledge of the school. He maybe alright I mean, he's quite intelligent, but he lacks all that, which one can get it in a school in a proper way. Apart from that he lacks that companionship, with Me. Because I have given you realisation, so you feel Me much more than they can.

Supposing a child is born to a mother and the child has not seen the mother, then that child cannot have that feeling for a mother as you people can have.

So this is the greatest thing that you have got. And if the realised, born realised also, try to stick on to Sahaja Yoga they will also develop the same feeling and then the joy starts pouring in, because you start seeing how your Mother looks after you, at every moment, how She creates play and how She creates magic, because you forget your Mother when She... I have not given you realisation you forget Her... You think, `Oh, I'm already realised' sort of thing comes in you.

What other question?

Sahaja Yogi: It's probably a silly question, but can Self-realisation ever be lost, can you lose it, when given it.

Shri Mataji: No, it's not a silly question, it is not.

You see, it is like this: when you become a human being, you are born as a human child alright? But supposing the child is put in company of the foxes, the child grows like a fox. Then, it does not have human awareness, it has the foxes' awareness, but the body is that of a fox [child]. In the same way you are realised when you have jumped into another superhuman awareness. But if you do not allow it to grow properly, it has to grow still and it has to grow, otherwise it won't be manifesting itself.

So that's how it can be lost, in the sense that, you have to be born again and again it can come up. And it is lost in many. Intellectuals? Big problem. I don't know. Because I have never known, such silly people before, you know. This lifetime only I am seeing such silly people and idiotic ones. Those who get realisation also don't understand the value of realisation. Can you think of such people any time! Also realisation can be lost, say... after realisation you don't feel like drinking much or something and you try to force yourself and try to become a bad person again and again. Then the Kuṇḍalinī may not rise and that's how, though there will be an opening but Kuṇḍalinī won't rise, at all. Can happen.

I've known many people. I mean, this is something so new, you know? In Kali Yuga everything is funny, but this is the funniest thing. Really. I'm surprised. I'm Myself surprised at people, that they have got realisation; they'll come to program; they'll give realisation to ten people and then settle back, losing all their vibrations. There are. Quite funny type you know? This Kali Yuga has created such combinations and permutations. Endless! It's impossible, to understand them.

So, the question is not silly at all, because you see, silly people are there. They think it fits in there. It is true, very sad, but it is. It happens. Such set of people. I mean, you can't think of such set of people.

I mean I never dreamt that I'll be meeting such people. I thought `Once I give them realisation they'll be just Sahaj Yogis, very nice...' you know. Here I was, you know, like have you seen any... any fruit becoming a flower? Ha! I mean, really! This reversion is possible I never knew but human beings with their ego can do this reversion also. They have achieved it. [Laughs.] You know after a egg is hatched the chick comes out, it cannot become an egg, isn't it? But it does in human beings. They are silly people My child I know, you are correct, that is true it can be lost. It has been lost in so many of them.

So you should tell them is better, you see the only way... advantage of this you can frighten them. You see `Don't do like this otherwise it will be lost.' Then they'll be alright. If they care for it. But human beings have become very superficial they just don't care, much. You tell them “You shouldn't do like this, is wrong" they'll say “I know, I know!" “Then why are you doing it?" “I know, I know!" Now what do you know? Now you don't know what to talk to such people.

Some of them are about to go to lunatic asylum. Or perhaps they are not yet in and we are facing them.

Some of them are like that. Half nit... wits and what d'you call them, all kinds. One thing you must know, that the people who ride the ego are mostly those who are archbishops of idiocity. And with the idiots if you deal, you don't know what they will do.

So it can be. You see an idiot you don't know what he's up to. How can you see? For a sane person it is very difficult. But I have seen it, happening. They look very sensible, when they talk, but they're idiots. You give them a diamond, tell them `this is diamond, look after it,' they'll throw it away. In that they think `Oh, I have been a very detached person. I'm not interested even in my Self-realisation.' Maybe this is the justification. I cannot explain, but it is true. But doesn't matter.

I will manage them also, after some time. But they are headaches, you know? They are headaches.

So first try simpler words, then the difficult ones. Always try first simpler words.

[UNCLEAR You] can see through vibrations; you know everything; you know how you are placed and how they are placed; with vibration you can fathom out your own achievements you can... I mean you know your moorings you know, I mean relative position [UNCLEAR], everything you know.

So there is no problem and you know such a lot.

Hm what other question? [UNCLEAR Wathāpini?] Bala? So “Here you are” as Bala has said in one of his letters that a man has to have three things.

One rare thing is that he should be born a human being. Is very rare. Second rare thing that he should have desire to meet God and the third is to get a good Guru. Here three things have happened... you have got realisation also, then what are we doing? This is the question. I mean everything has happened I mean it's all there! And what do you do? You give the light. Now they say are we... now maybe I have enlightened you. Then what do you do? Give the light! Finished! Keep your lamp clean and give the light. That's all. Nothing else is needed. But you don't take your light into some corner, or hide it under the sofa.

Are you better now? How are you? Good. Are you alright now? You, good. David? David: Yes I am, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Oh. That David also is he alright? Second David [with a Scottish accent]: I was just thinking about what you'd said Mother. How can we help people who are born realised? But, they playing hard to get, they won't come into Sahaja Yoga.

Shri Mataji: I know they are very...

Second David: How can we help them?

Shri Mataji: They should help themselves, David. Don't bother your head. Now this Mister Gent [said as in `get'] of yours or Gent [said as in `jet'] or whatever his name is. He's trying to study all the four, what you call, Yogas and this and that and [UNCLEAR on/all].

So what is he doing now? This is Mahā Yoga all the things are inside it and now he should come down to do these things. He just doesn't want to meet Me. He's avoiding. What can you do about him? Look at them. He's more on a supraconscious style, you see? And the Rāja Yoga and all that is all humbug, is all nonsense they have written, absolute nonsense it is. That's not Rāja Yoga at all! It's all
